6/6/91 #1 HATONN
THURSDAY

Hatonn present in Light and Service. May we be in the fulfilling of that which our brothers request. Amen.

As we sit to write this morning I have asked Sananda to allow us to first work on an Express issue. It is far more important that you come into knowledge, first hand, of that which was the Christos as He experienced. You ones wish to conjure all sorts of things regarding His experiences among you--and mostly they are foolishness. His infinite being is the point; no death but rather, eternal life is the point. He is telling you that which came forth 2000 years past at His command--but when you have only one scribe for this purpose, it is difficult to get all the service accomplished. Druthea is bringing forth from the Masters a reminder of the Laws and directions as being given forth for your remembering and, very soon, Thomas will take up the story and journey of the Master Esu (Jesus). I, Hatonn, and Sananda will take up the subject of Paul and the beginnings of the Church of Rome. The subjects are endless and the scribes harassed by frustrations of diversity, interruptions and lack of preface knowledge. It has been carefully planned in that manner so that Truth can flow from us of higher input and not opinion from any earth being.

Our scribes bear only fragmented knowledge of the works of any books on the subject and were not involved deeply into any courses of same. Dharma and Dru had, and have, very, very little experience with anything such as "channeling" and/or "contact" exhibitions. The only contact at all was through Sister Thedra, Tueita and the Silver/Gold Ray. It is interesting that the very ones who introduced myself unto her--denounce her and ME! It is fine for it has been a magnificent testing for her and a cementing of our purpose beyond earthly bounds. The material speaks openly and abundantly for itself. I tell you this, again, for new readers usually believe Dharma to have "been at this" for dozens of years since ones such as Thedra will tell you that her work is pure because she has done it for over 40 years. Well, how about since October of 1987 for Dharma?? That was the first early scratchings and connection for my "hands". Do not believe that because YOU just now come into understanding and service, that YOU ARE LESS QUALIFIED OR ACCEPTABLE--FOR WE WORK LONG AND TEDIOUSLY TO REACH BALANCE AND PRE-DISPOSITION IS MOST OFTEN A REAL DETRIMENT TO SERVICE. Thomas and Dru only began to write fully within an even lesser period of time--TRUTH IS TRUTH IS TRUTH and practice of 40 years often only breeds ego attitudes of a comfort zone which can more easily be invaded by the adversary. It is a wearisome road and I honor all the servants, mouths and hands of Truth-bringing--ALL--for none can know the contract of another nor the service intended. YOU must be in discerning Truth for it shall always stand and will never deny investigation into all facets of enlightenment. Truth and God will always denounce the evil or erred action--NEVER THE WON-DROUS BEING INVOLVED. These are clues for your own discernment regarding any information or bringer of "so-called" Truth. I say so-called, not to insult, but to note that the adversary will ALWAYS utilize the terms and methods YOU seek to entrap you. You will never know who brings the lies at opening of first encounter--if you follow your studies and clues as given--you will know by the ending of the first encounter. The deceiver anti-God of Light, the Prince of Darkness, will always tell you that he is of God and will speak so much truth that you will be blown away and then he will hit you with the lies and you will be sucked within the trap.

If you are making decision regarding Truth from one or two Journals and bits from Expresses--be careful. Can you read only a portion of one gospel in the Holy Bible and expect total discernment of the "whole". Well, that is exactly that which you do--only worse. You go into the Churches and hear the opinions and interpretations of another MAN and make the decisions regarding your life and beyond.

I sit with a cryptic note which denounces us for publishing a prior letter from a gentleman. In the original note he was most insulting to George and felt George should stop the publishing of the Journals and get on "with important things". I responded. Now, I have a long letter asking me to "prove" and give discourse and confirmation (as a good scientist in research) things such as the outlay of the Universe and such "small" subjects as that. Strange thing is that I have already done so--over and over again but in his "research" he considers only the works of prior MEN who know absolutely NOTHING about the Universe, Cosmos or LIFE! However, and here is where I am indeed grateful--for YOU ARE BRINGING FORTH THE CONFIRMATION! I NEED NONE NOR DO I NEED PERMISSION OR HIGHER AUTHORITY FOR MY DISSERTATIONS--BUT YOU ARE FINDING THE WORKS WHICH GIVE CREDENCE TO OUR WORK AND ARE BRINGING IT FORTH FROM EVERY CORNER AS IT UNFOLDS. I BLESS YOU AND THANK YOU FOR MAN HAS NOT YET GROWN INTO HIS ABILITY TO TRUST NOR TO CLEAR HIS ENERGY FIELD OF THE ADVERSARY'S PRESENCE. I HUMBLY THANK YOU, PRECIOUS FRIENDS.

Do not misunderstand--I rejoice and welcome the messages of disagreement for often in efforts to prove Hatonn wrong--only the Truth is found and that is of far more value than a library full of words on unread pages. Please know that each gift of contact is precious and appreciated--and blessed for the growth it represents. I and my brethren will bring you the WORD as directed and commissioned--but YOU must come into balance within that LIGHT and into KNOWING. At this point that which seems the most negative is invariably the most productive in a most positive manner. The first need is to cause Man to question and then discern and then he can attain KNOWING.

I am greatly pleased and honored when one will sit to pen, negatively or positively, regarding our work, for the moment they write or speak my name, they are proving that they are in recognition of ME and not the publisher or the scribe--even if at first it be with tongue-in-cheek in effort to be humorous. At a level beyond conscious understanding--YOU ALL KNOW WHO I AM AND WHY WE COME AT THIS TIME. I CAN ONLY ASK THAT YOU ABIDE WITH US LONG ENOUGH TO COME INTO KNOWING FOR

FROM HERE YOU WILL ONLY RECEIVE THE "CONCEPT" OF TRUTH--YOU WILL PLEASE BEAR WITH US IF WE ERR IN SPELLING OR INFRACTIONS OF GRAMMATICAL PERFECTION. IT IS THE CONCEPT OF THAT WHICH IS COMING AND HAS ALREADY TRANSPIRED THAT IS IMPORTANT--NOT WHETHER IT TRANSPIRED ON "TUESDAY MORNING OR AFTERNOON". YOU WILL COME TO UNDERSTAND THAT OUR COMMUNICATION SIMPLY DOES NOT WORK IN THAT MANNER. When one says, "I discount your Truth because you misspelled my label," you are missing the entire point--I don't "spell" your name in any way what-so-ever! Especially if you give forward erroneous information to in some manner "trap us", I suggest you go within and look most closely at intent! If you tell me your name is Joe or Jesus and it is actually "Charlie", I shall call you Joe or Jesus--it matters not to me. I don't even care who tells who that he is Hatonn--I have naught to prove to anyone, especially those who would usurp my label. If ones do not copy of my name then I am not doing of my duty to fullness for the Dark Brotherhood will always effort to discount Truth in that very manner.

REASON FOR EXPRESS-- EDUCATION

You are moving into a time of State political conventions. George Green is off to one in Florida; George Bush is off to one elsewhere. Note that we are making impact for George Bush is off to discount that which we offer--go celebrate the acknowledgement. Please know that which you do--for it is at State level that you can bring about change. You will have power at the local level that is taken from you as the political tree branches and then comes again into one of leadership position. Also recognize that it is NOT the ones you elect who bear the power--it is the advisers and lobbyists with the most money who rule your nations. YOU MUST BECOME INFORMED IN EVERY ASPECT LEST YOU BE MISLED--STUDY AS MUCH AS YOU CAN--ALL

YOU CAN AND THEN WATCH AND SEE THAT WHICH IS HAPPENING ALL AROUND YOU--EVEN UNTO BANGLADESH.

Many of you have been waiting to get your eyes on Eustace Mullins' book on "Education" because I have said we will not be writing one--"hopefully"--for there is no need to reinvent the wheel. But, you haven't received it so, I present another book which I feel is the most important book on Education you will ever read. None here have seen it but I feel it important enough to give information this day. I feel it is too expensive for some of you and for some of you it is likely unnecessary except if you have extra reading time. For parents and teachers it is imperative that you have the information within the document. It is called EDUCATING FOR THE "NEW WORLD ORDER" by Beverly Eakman, a former teacher, technical writer, and speech writer at the highest levels of the federal government. She has written this stunning exposé of the forces that control American education.

Her relentless research, over a four-year period (Eustace will have more long-background substance), has resulted in the first book to detail, step by step, how your schools have turned away from academic instruction. It is a straightforward, excellent and scholarly account of a Pennsylvania woman's struggle with the education bureaucracy, and how she gradually uncovered the long-range plan to revamp your system of education.

I would like to share something with you regarding the Journals and the "Education System". Rick Martin contacted the Board of Education regarding the use of the Constitutional information, etc. He received a letter in return which I won't take time herein to repeat verbatim, but it told him that text material is chosen by a specific "committee" and "...after reviewing the material (The Constitution) it is found to be totally unsuitable for use." So be it.

The book by Eakman reframes the debate in education. It is a must for educators, policy makers, and any and all citizens concerned about the decline in American education and how it can be remedied. It is going to, of course, create controversy (if it can be kept within the public), that will be talked about. Efforts will be made to immediately stifle it so I suggest you please take this information: EDUCATION FOR THE "NEW WORLD ORDER" by Beverly Eakman, softcover, 275 pages, Bibliography, Index, Stock #344100, ISBN 0-89420-27-2; $21.95 postpaid.

Prepay by sending check or money order with your name and address to: Halcyon House, P.O. Box 8795 Portland, OR 97207-8795. Or, you can order by phone using VISA, Discover, or Master Card. Purchase orders are accepted from libraries and other qualified Institutions. Call for quantity discounts. (503) 228-6345.

This book explains, very well, how a major tax-exempt foundation influences American education; the extent to which assessment tests measure students' attitudes rather than achievement; how the schools are being used as instruments of change to reshape the way children think; how personal information on individuals and families is being compiled and stored in non-secure databanks (just another arm of the Beast); how the social security number can be misused to cross-reference assessment test data with other personal/family records; how teachers are unwitting pawns of the establishment; why remedial reading has become institutionalized and why efforts to reform education are intended to fail.

Yes, we have spoken of all these items, but not in the detail which will shock you into possible action. This is a part of the plan to insure total ignorance throughout your population and keep absolute tabs on every individual as well as family and social units.

Another book in full recommendation:

WORLD WITHOUT BORDERS

It has been suggested that you ones would gain more information in more believable form if you had access to earth "books" rather than just a bunch of Light fragments. Somehow Man cannot accept knowledge untampered by Man. So be it. This must account for the reason that Man refuses to follow the Laws of God and Creation--some self-acclaimed Man didn't originate them!?!?

At any rate, another book, WORLD WITHOUT BORDERS, written by Lester R. Brown (out of print since 1976--but still on some book shelves and, accidentally, some school libraries), is well worth all efforts to study and absorb.

Right off, on the cover, there is a statement: "A unified global society must now be regarded not as a fiction or an ideal, but as the inevitable reality toward which we must move. By the author of Seeds of Change."

The blurb regarding the book reads: "At best, the remainder of this century will be a traumatic period for mankind. At worst, it will be catastrophic. Mr. Brown identifies the chief worldwide threats to human well-being--environmental deterioration, population growth, the widening rich-poor gap, rising unemployment, accelerating rural urban migration and widespread hunger. With the possible exception of hunger, each of these is certain to get worse in the years immediately ahead. The question is whether we can achieve the level of international cooperation needed to reverse these trends.

"The continuing expansion of global economic activity depends on the earth's capacity to supply fresh water, energy fuels and industrial raw materials, to produce forest products and marine protein, to provide living space and arable land and to absorb waste. As those countries which first industrialized deplete their reserves of fuels and industrial raw materials, they must turn to the poor countries for supplies. The exponential growth of energy consumption is pressing against limited reserves of petroleum, converting this market from a buyer's to a seller's market. Competition for the global fish catch intensifies as the rich countries expand their fishing fleets and the poor counter by extending their offshore boundaries to 200 miles. The issue of how to distribute scarce or finite resources among countries puts increasing stress on the international political system.

"Mr. Brown argues that the principal threat to our future well-being may not be the relationship of man to man, as annual global military expenditures of $204 billion would indicate, but the relationship of man to nature. Efforts to accommodate ourselves to our finite earth require that we reorder global priorities, abandon the pursuit of superaffluence in rich countries and stabilize population growth everywhere.

"The list of national problems which can be solved only at the global level is lengthening. These range from drug addiction and the energy crisis in the United States to poverty and rising unemployment in the poor countries. The competition and conflict and superpower dominance will not work over the longer term. It must be replaced by a new world order, one based on cooperation and a sense of community."

About the author: "Lester Brown (also from the book cover) is a Senior Fellow with the Overseas Development Council, a private, non-profit organization located in Washington, D.C. He was formerly Administrator of the International Agricultural Development Service and served as policy adviser to the Secretary of Agriculture on world food needs and agricultural development abroad.

"Recognized as a leading authority on the world food problem while still in his late twenties, he was awarded the Department of Agriculture's Superior Service Award in 1965. In 1966 Mr. Brown was selected by the U.S. Jaycees as one of the 'Ten Outstanding Young Men of America.' Especially commended was his work in anticipating the 1965 crop failure in India [well, if you are among the planners, it does become easy to predict], early enough to initiate a massive food rescue effort, thereby avoiding a famine.

"Besides writing articles for scholarly and popular magazines, Mr. Brown is the author of MAN, LAND AND FOOD (USDA, 1963) and SEEDS OF CHANGE: THE GREEN REVOLUTION AND DEVELOPMENT IN THE SEVENTIES (1970). He is a frequent guest lecturer on university campuses in this country and abroad, and also has served as consultant to the United Nations and the Agency for International Development. Mr. Brown lives in Chevy Chase, Maryland, with his wife and two children, etc., etc., etc."

Chelas, I am asked to do this and I feel it is perhaps appropriate--once or twice. I feel the reason you come to the Expresses and the Journals is to avoid all this harassment of a thousand books when one will do--but, none-the-less, we do wish to give you confirmation both pro and con. There is no copy of this book available to this group, either--but, you will note I told you it IS utilized as an accepted document in schools and is still carried in some of their libraries. Books are only acceptable, you see, if they move you as a unit into One World Rule.

While we are at it: Another Journal which will be well worth your reading if you are still interested in "AIDS". It is the plague which will take out the population of your planet so I hope a few of you are still interested for the "right" reasons. The title: SURVIVING THE AIDS PLAGUE by Taki N. Anagnoston, M.D. I will later give you ordering information for the book will be corrected in a place or two where later information is valid and then George will take up the publishing of the material. I have met with Dr. Anagnoston and his research into the subject is credible. I DO, however, suggest that you pay attention to your "news" of this week.

Remember, I told you in our own Journal that AIDS is basically a tertiary syphilis and could be nicely treated with aqueous penicillin? What do we have here now? They are making a big splash about "...possibly utilizing massive doses of antibiotics to treat AIDS, etc., rattle and blather".

Chelas, you MUST stand and DEMAND this insanity cease.

The PLAN is to have you Americans under total control long before the next so-called election. What you do NOW is indeed urgent and important!

More, "while we're at it": For you who have been on stand-by and getting a bit pushed for "time for action", Oberli has located another viable resource for collateral gold for use with the Phoenix Institute so you who have been waiting for arrangements and CD maturity--you can now continue with your plans. I can only continue to warn you that you are set-up in the market for disaster! The plan is to strip you of assets--all assets--and it is coming down fast now.

Also, Cort has re-situated here in this location to take some of the pressure of Corporation formation and information base from Oberli. He and his family will need to eat, but the expense will remain absolutely minimal. Since our thrust is different from typical business-as-usual--I urge you to go this route in incorporation for our plans are to begin and expand an "information" network and facilities for managing those corporations to keep you solidly within all necessary guidelines. I can only remind you that if you are willing to make a change in your world--then the cost of these services can well be afforded from the funds SAVED in utilizing the methods given forth. If you are a taxpayer--you can soon afford any service up to the amount you now pay!! Ponder it for you will even have funds left over. BUT YOU MUST SAVE YOUR CONSTITUTION AND IT IS ALL BUT DEAD, DEAD, DEAD!

U.S.-MEXICO TRADE ISSUE

Is this of heaven or hell? In all instances, the latter.

The debate over free trade with Mexico boils down to a fight over U.S. jobs--won and lost--for workers in factories displaced by the migration of those factories to south of the border. Knowing that everything the "lips" say is valid and forthright, you are hanging out there on Bush's speeches which say that he pledges to "...work with Congress to see that dislocated workers receive proper assistance and retraining" and he got "fast-track authority" to move along.

The intent is to bring Mexico into a free-trade agreement reached by the United States and Canada in 1988. And what of that trade agreement? It has been quite devastating and hundreds of thousands of jobs have been lost by the Canadians, as a matter of fact--with both the U.S. and Canada planning to relocate in Mexico where there are no worthy pollution controls and extremely cheap labor.

This is a death march for American industry, chelas, and even more immoral is that which is being done to exploit the Mexicans. This becomes a slave-labor program under some nice label of wondrous non-existent morality. This trade agreement will destroy BOTH Mexican and U.S. Economies.

This whole fiasco is totally entangled with the Banksters and again, this day, I feel it more worthy for you to hear it from the human recordings.

First of all, however, since I am plagued with requests for "getting into balance procedures" and "...how can I get in touch" and "reach out and allow me to touch you" and on and on--I am going to share something that Little Crow just now sent to us on the fax machine--remember, you, too, can get in touch with extraterrestrials via the fax machine!

This is from a free-lance writer who lives in San Mateo, California:

"NEW-AGE-ASTRAL-VIBRATION RAP. Steve Webber in Sunday Punch in SAN FRANCISCO CHRONICLE--June 18, 1989.

"I was having an out-of-body experience so I grounded myself and got centered with the help of my spirit guide, then I almost astral traveled but the phone rang and I sensed the negative vibrations so I checked my numerology chart and almost had a primal but my energy was blocked so I did some bioener-getics and self-parenting and had some flower essences with oat bran ginseng muffins but my inner child wasn't being nurtured so I had some frozen yogurt that made me hyper so I did the relaxation response while listening to my subliminal tape but I was feeling depersonalized so I did some polarity work, foot reflexology, a past life regression, rebirthed myself and made an appointment for a shiatsu, reiki, rolfing, Feldenkrais, Swedish, Japanese deep tissue massage but I needed to energize my crystals and do some positive imagery because my visualization techniques and affirmations made my space feel invaded so to get empowered I got a psychic reading around the issue of my assertiveness so I could feel my radiance and have energy for my psychocalisthenics and my inversion swing before my harmonic brain wave synergy session which makes me more focused for my actualization seminar and holistic healing class and dream workshop [breathe] so I'm clear for my Gestalt/-behavioral/cognitive/transpersonal/Reichian/Jungian/Freudian/Ericksonian session but my aura is weak [breathe] for my channeling group so I'll fast until noon to recharge my chakras and I sense my intuition is high and my cycle is focused so I'll turn on my ion generator to open up [breathe] for my neuro-linguistic programming but I need to have my pyramid balanced before my guided synchronicity meditation so my cranio sacral therapy [breathe] aligns me for the fire-walk after my tarot reading but I need a meaningful relationship to mirror myself so I'll go to Intensive Whole Life Earth Rebirth Cosmic Expo Symposium Seminar Workshop to find someone who is REAL."

Of course I note that Mr. Webber forgot to mention that if he learns to "ascend" and/or gets instructions as to how to "lift-off" that he has forgotten the overnight ascension bags which should be color coordinated to the ray Master attending you. He also forgets to note that most of these items and classes can be purchased with your Gold MasterCard--especially those classes given by the Gold Masters.

Funny? Indeed--and more typical than you can believe. When are you ones going to stop all the foolishness and go where God IS? There is YOU and there is a mechanical body used by YOU. YOU only NEED YOU! Fat, thin, tall, lean, short, skinny, tubby or medium--doesn't matter a whit. Feed it whatever it wants or deprive it--it will not affect YOU and your relationship with GOD. Lay on your face with clinched fists or on your rear with open fingers--God is within your energy mind--no more and no less. If a thing makes your mechanical body work more prudently, so be it, but if you have to have ANYTHING OF PHYSICALNESS TO REACH GOD, YOU ARE IN REAL TROUBLE!

So much for our "reason" break for the next has no humor and should strike terror into your hearts for behind the lies is catastrophe.

I ask you to simply "assume" quotation for I intend to "plagiarize" this information from an AMERICAN ALMANAC printing of May 27, 1991 for it is comprehensive and shows the "other" side of this monster. I will keep to the print and if I comment, I shall do so in brackets: [xxx].

While you are reading these lines, your Congressman may be voting to authorize the Bush administration to negotiate a treaty with Mexico that will mean slave labor, the rampant spread of cholera, and throwing hundreds of thousands of workers onto the unemployment lines--on both sides of the border--all for the purpose of bailing out the Wall Street and City of London BANKS.

Doubt it? Then you haven't looked into NAFTA, the North American Free Trade Agreement that George Bush and his banker buddies are trying to railroad through Congress on a "Fast Track".

In the graphics and text that follow we will tell you the truth about what the Bush administration and the media have tried to sell as a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity to get economic growth started across the Americas. The Wall Street crowd--led by David Rockefeller of Chase Manhattan himself--are going ape to ram this policy through.

At an early May meeting of his Council of the Americas in Washington, Rockefeller himself took the floor to explain just how urgent NAFTA is for the bankers: "Without the fast track, the course of history will be stopped."

Don't let your Congressman hear only Rocky's side of the story. Make sure he hears from YOU, and the thousands of other Americans, who are opposed to the idea of creating an Auschwitz on the U.S.-Mexican border in order to keep the banks solvent. Turn on the heat now. Congressional switchboard: 202:224-3121.

[We do not have space to reprint all the graphs, etc. We will effort to clarify without the diagrams.]

QUOTE:

In early spring of this year, the administration of President George Bush and leading members of the U.S. Liberal Eastern Establishment lined up behind a proposal for the implementation of a North American Free Trade Agreement (NAFTA), eliminating all barriers to trade and investments between the U.S. and Mexico. NAFTA, as the proposal has come to be known, was based on extending an already existing agreement between the U.S.A. and Canada, to America's southern neighbor.

The centerpiece of NAFTA's entire free trade strategy is the expansion of the maquiladora sector of the Mexican economy, the "in-bond" assembly plants located mostly just across the border in Mexico, which use cheap Mexican labor to assemble U.S. components into finished goods--electronics and auto parts, mainly--for re-export back to the U.S. Only the value added by Mexican labor is taxed on entry of the products back into the U.S.A. Properly speaking, the maquiladoras are not really part of the Mexican economy, aside from the fact that they happen to be located on Mexican territory. They are a foreign enclave, a free trade zone, which operate much like the Colon Free Trade Zone in Panama.

Growth in number of runaway plants and jobs in Mexico's maquiladora sector since 1980: From just over $2 billion in 1980, these plants exported nearly $14 billion worth of goods to the U.S. in 1990, a sixfold increase in just a decade, representing a growth rate of over 19 percent a year. Approximately half of this export value was accounted for by maquiladoras imports of intermediate goods from the U.S. Employing about 500,000 workers in 1990, the maquiladoras accounted for the equivalent of 3.5 percent of the total U.S. manufacturing workforce, working in jobs that 15 years ago were performed in the U.S.

THE BANKER'S BAILOUT

Despite what its proponents claim, the North American Free Trade Agreement is NOT fundamentally a free trade agreement. There is no need for such an accord with Mexico because there is already virtually free trade between the two countries. Beginning in 1985, the Mexican government, under the pressure of its international creditor banks, the International Monetary Fund (IMF), and the Reagan State Department, drastically reduced its previous tariff and other protective barriers. Today, there are no licenses, tariffs, or quotas on over 10,000 products imported by Mexico, and the average tariff has plummeted from 47 percent to 9 percent.

In actuality, NAFTA--and the proposed extension to the entirety of Ibero-America, and from there to the rest of the Third World--is the economic centerpiece of Bush's much-trumpeted "new world order". In conjunction with the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade (GATT), which will codify such free market policies on a global scale, NAFTA's objective is to give a new lease on life to the bankrupt Anglo-American financial system, which has dominated the world economy since World War II. It is intended to do this in three principal ways:

1) NAFTA and its sequels are designed to bolster the shaky, overextended international credit pyramid by vastly increasing and solidifying the flow of Third World debt payments to the international banks. It will do this by thoroughly absorbing the economies of the nations of Ibero-America into an extended dollar zone, annexing their raw materials (such as oil), and using their labor forces as captive cheap labor in runaway shops, principally for production for export back into the U.S.

Along with this projected new looting of Third World economies, NAFTA will also reorganize the entire Ibero-American banking structure, and thereby create the conditions under which the vast financial flows originating in the Ibero-American drug trade can be more readily laundered into the cash-strapped Anglo-American banking system.

As one perceptive United Auto Workers official put it: "NAFTA isn't free trade. It's protectionism for the bankers."

2) NAFTA will be the wedge used to dramatically lower wage levels and working conditions in the U.S.A., especially among the shrinking percentage of the U.S. labor force still employed in manufacturing. In fact, an overall restructuring of the U.S. economy is intended, as explained in other Journals. The process of lowering incomes, of degrading jobs, is a prime product of going from a science-based energy-intensive economy, into a slave-labor economy.

3) The newly formed Western Hemisphere free trade zone, this bankers' common market, will then be used as a battering ram against the industrial development of Japan and Germany, in particular, to make sure that no alternative to Anglo-American economic predominance emerges anywhere on the international scene. With the Soviet Union enmired in its own difficulties--or so the theory goes--[and don't you believe it for even a minute!] and with European and Japanese competition eliminated, and with America's vast military might being wielded to bomb any recalcitrant opponents back into the Stone Age, as occurred in the war against Iraq, the Anglo-American establishment hopes to reign unchallenged for the indefinite future.

Such is the Brave New World envisioned by Bush and his sponsors, a modern parody of the decadent Roman Empire of 2000 years ago. The U.S. President, during a December 1990 five-nation tour of Ibero-America, explained: "I truly believe we are approaching a new dawn in the New World."

AUSCHWITZ ON THE BORDER

What will happen if Bush has his way, and NAFTA and GATT are implemented?

First, propping up the bankrupt Bretton Woods [Federal Reserve, Incorporated] financial system through further looting of Ibero-America and the Third World, will create conditions of immiseration so drastic that wave upon wave of epidemic disease, and outright starvation, will sweep the developing sector, and will quickly spread to the U.S. itself. The current cholera epidemic striking South America is a first result of these same looting policies, and there is a strong probability that it will soon reach Mexico, and from there spread into the U.S.. NAFTA will be largely responsible, because it will promote the growth of the notorious maquiladora belt in northern Mexico, the so-called "in bond" assembly plants which produce for re-export to the U.S. and make use of cheap Mexican labor (including child labor), as workers are forced to live and work in subhuman conditions. Average wages are 98 cents an hour, compared to the average in U.S. manufacturing wage of nearly $11 today. The minimum wage in Mexico is even lower: 59 cents an hour, and dropping. The fact is that NAFTA will help turn the entire border area into an Auschwitz slave-labor camp.

Second, underselling Germany and Japan by using runaway sweatshop labor in Mexico, will create both a sharp rise in unemployment in the United States, and a dramatic drop in U.S. real wages, perhaps by as much as one-third in the manufacturing sector. This will not make America more "competitive": It will destroy the very high-technology/high-productivity emphasis which once made the U.S. competitive.

Third, if the Anglo-Americans succeed in destroying the economic potential of Germany and Japan, the irony is that this very result will condemn the U.S. to destruction as well. The U.S. economy has been so damaged by 25 years of Anglo-American policies, that it is today incapable of generating a sustained recovery without the help of the productive capabilities of Germany and Japan. Only a dramatic mobilization of Europe's economic potential, in particular of the sort envisioned in the "Productive Triangle" proposal, can transform the world economic environment in a way that will permit the United States to be rescued from the disaster that three decades of rotten policies have produced.

And yet the Bush administration's explicit policy is to destroy this German and Japanese potential, through NAFTA and GATT.

There is an additional strategic danger involved. The only hope for positive change in the Soviet Union lies in "Westernizing" it by linking it into high rates of economic growth in the industrial West. If Bush succeeds in wrecking the economic capabilities of Germany and Japan, the Soviet Union will have no interlocutors, and it is likely that a desperate, half-starving Soviet Union will strike out aggressively, militarily, against the West.

Such will be the consequences of implementing NAFTA and GATT. The White House has launched a full-scale public relations drive to sell the marvels of NAFTA to the American population. We document here, that each of the claims projected are patently false.

Myth #1: NAFTA MEANS MORE JOBS FOR AMERICANS.

The assertion here is that U.S. exports to Mexico will increase sharply under NAFTA--by as much as $14 billion, according to Commerce Secretary Robert Mosbacher. Since each $1 billion in exports translates into 25,000 jobs for U.S. workers, he claims, NAFTA means millions of new jobs for American.

Fact: NAFTA means fewer jobs for Americans. Vastly cheaper wage rates mean that U.S. run-away shops will flee to the maquiladora zone, which will soon be extended to encompass the entire nation of Mexico. As for an export boom to Mexico, it won't happen. The market for exported U.S. consumer goods is limited by the terrible poverty of the majority of the Mexican population. And the IMF and Mexico's creditor banks will NOT PERMIT IT anyway: They are demanding that Mexico export more and import LESS, in order to pay off their gigantic debt to the banks.

Myth #2: NAFTA will make the U.S. competitive once again with Germany and Japan, by reducing the labor component of manufacturing costs.

Fact: There is no doubt that the wage bill in maquiladoras on the Mexican side of the border will be far lower than in the U.S. today. But this will destroy the U.S. economy, and in particular the educational and technological training that comes with a higher standard of living, which are the true sources of productivity and competitiveness.

Myth #3: NAFTA will create millions of new jobs in Mexico and thus help stem the tide of illegal migration across the border into the United States.

Fact: NAFTA will mean a net destruction of jobs in Mexico. Domestic manufacturing will be wiped out by the dumping of cheaper U.S. imports on the market. The only jobs that will be created will be those in the expanding maquiladora zone, under conditions so horrendous that "Auschwitz" is the only word that properly describes them. This will foster the very conditions driving desperate Mexicans across the border looking for jobs in the U.S.

Myth #4: NAFTA means that U.S. investment will pour into Mexico, and help Mexico develop. The Bush administration is projecting rates of $5 billion per year and higher.

Fact: Under NAFTA, most of the "investment" that will go into Mexico will be to take over existing plant and equipment. It is a transfer of ownership into the hands of foreigners, not the creation of new wealth.

Myth #5: NAFTA will open up the Mexican banking and financial sector and modernize it. This will attract vast flows of international finance capital.

Fact: NAFTA's banking takeover will open up the banking system of the Americas to all sorts of speculative hot money flows--including those of the drug trade. Such activity does not aid production; it destroys it.

END QUOTE.

Dharma, this has been too long a session, so allow us a break. Let us finish this Express this afternoon and then we can return to Sananda and continue his WORD. Thank you. Hatonn to stand-by.

6/6/91 #2 HATONN

Thank you for returning. Hatonn present and ready to resume.

Before we go further on the subject of the Free Trade Agreement, I am asked to respond to a few points in the news and also in the "rumor" mill. One is just about the same as the other.

MONEY EXCHANGE

We received a phone inquiry from a most special friend this noon who had heard from a good, reliable resource that there is a planned exchange of currency (100 to 1) set for September. The ears are good but the facts are a bit off. The "leak" is for September to cover the fact that the money call is planned prior to the end of August and, hopefully, before the end of July--depending on Free Trade Agreement going into law. You must have "surprise" to pull off such a devastating overall sweep and the Cartel must also already have their banking system in operation for the handling of the massive undercover funds which have been flowing via cash.

The plan will be to have Mexico serve as a very large Banking service. The infrastructure is already in place but at present the laws are not such as to allow open functioning without cash. The point is to get all massive cash transactions converted to cashless exchanges and then the major exchange can take place. The drug lords will simply have credit and debit accounts which will function without money transactions. The ones who serve as competitive under-lords will be caught with the cash.

The "100 to one" is correct and follows the system already handled and operable in the Soviet Union. The timing goes with the propaganda of the recession being ended by mid-year (which is now) and the stock market doing fairly well. All is to suck you in. The big clue is the rise in the price of gold and silver this day. The big switch is ready to come down and the big players are getting situated. There is no point in collapsing the market unless the public has moved back into the market in a massive way. By the way, for you ones who don't think a 100 to one switch is bad--we are not talking about a stock split here; this means pulling in ten dollars and receiving one "unit" in return. You will also be asked to account for all cash over a minimal amount and the remainder will be confiscated on the assumption of tax withholding. It will probably come in conjunction with enforced bank "holidays" which will allow for limited exchange time. This also allows the banks to change over the computer tabulation system to the new amounts.

If the system stumbles in the Free Trade Agreement, the whole idea may have to be stalled.

Do not be naive, the currency has been printed and ready for over 1&1/2 years. The trial was the Soviet Union. Further, Mexico has been in default on its debt of over $100 billion since 1982, and they have just been servicing the debt here and there by more loans by the same major Cartel banks.

You must realize, too, that it is through the World Bank, the International Monetary Fund and the regional development banks around the world, the U.S. taxpayers (YOU) have put up the money to build steel mills, electronics plants and automobile factories so that people abroad can make the products with your money. You have not been informed about this chain of events except in two-speak so that you can't understand it. It is simply, however, that you are paying for the execution of your own jobs and industry and you continue to do so. Now you add another $15 billion in foreign aid this year, and a great part of that is going to this kind of development from which the major Cartel corporations and Banking network will be the winners.

HOW CAN YOU DISCERN FACTS?

Look at what "they" say and "who" reaps the rewards. There are pressures of all kinds coming on Congress. The Bush administration controls all of the patronage, so the Republican Party is under the gun. The big banks are crying poverty and telling Congress that they will completely fail and go under if they don't go along with the trade pact. Who is on board? Carla Hills is head of the White House trade representative's office and Julius Katz is the No. 2 official selling out the United States at the trade talks in Geneva. Then you have ones like Orrin Hatch, Dodd, Lugar, Solarz; let's just say, the same ones who pushed and pushed for active aggression in Iraq because the intent is to pull the One World Government Police State on you-the-people--while you pay for it.

You will find that, in every major industry that had import restraints on foreign goods, the prices on the domestic goods went down.

You see, when you have import restraints or quotas, you give the American manufacturer the opportunity to operate at capacity. He can then take full advantage of the economies of scale, and that is what reduces prices--not imports. Imports are bound to raise prices, and they have certainly done so for the past two decades.

What has happened? Tariffs alone are not enough to deter imports any longer. The reason is that most other countries of the world are on socialist economies. They can subsidize their exports to the U.S. When you raise the tariffs it does not actually deter imports.

Do I think one system is far better than the other? Neither is worth the paper upon which it is established. Furthermore, you are already so controlled as a nation that it will matter very little for the cards are set to collapse the house from any or all foundation corners. THEY PLAN TO RULE THE WORLD, BROTHERS--HOOK, LINE AND SINKER. They also plan to have all your assets and control every aspect of your existence. They do not even bother to have proper lies--look at Saddam Hussein who is better entrenched than ever in Iraq. You in the U.S. are simply coming back under the Rule of the King of Great Britain and the Queen was just here to survey her properties.

What can you do about this mess? I'm not sure that you will be able to avoid it--I think it will probably play itself out. The intent has been to so arrange the economy that the Government has no way in which to reclaim control of money according to the Constitution. Since the stuff you call money is only Federal Reserve NOTES (bills, loans, credit paper and debit paper) they have the current "laugh" for you have only footed the cost of their system--not controlled it. The probabilities are that you will have the currency switch for they surely don't plan to have all that paper and not change it out at your expense. The only thing up for discussion is "when" and by their own projections it "must be a surprise or it won't work according to their plans." It is over a year "later" than originally set and it IS set for no later than mid-August for it is planned to move into the new fiscal year with new currency!

What can our group get accomplished in those interim weeks? A lot if given the opportunity, but it is as questionable as the winds for so few of you listen until it is past the hour to act. I don't speculate on that which we will have under way--except for the WORD of Truth. Getting people to listen and act is the point in discussion and that is free-will choice over which I can have no control.

I can assure of one thing and that is, if you are going to turn this around it is going to take an outpouring of millions of calls, cards and letters to Congress. The Congress is, at the present, behaving like a buffalo herd running through the china shop headed for the cliff so they all tumble off into the void, in favor of this Mexican trade deal. The moral fiber of your leaders is at an all time base low as is with you-the-people. People have to stop this stupid stampede.

A lot of these congressmen are on the fence and don't really want to vote for this, but if they get an outpouring of any kind--letters and phone calls--they can change their minds. However, now that Bush has gotten permission to act in the interim, it becomes harder for the structure is already in place and to move it will be a mammoth task. You only have mere days left to act.

Dharma, find the numbers again, please.

Call: (202 224-3121 for your congressman and senator. Write your representatives in care of the U.S. House of Representatives, Washington, D.C. 20515 and your senator in care of the U.S. Senate, Washington, D.C. 20510.

The next step is the disarming of the citizens and then it's basically over. The Bankster Cartel Elite are already celebrating victory, chelas.

WHAT ABOUT MEXICO IN ALL THIS FREEDOM?

The last three years of relatively free trade between the U.S. and Mexico have been a disaster--for both countries.

Mexico today is in a deep depression, with soaring unemployment and real wage levels less than 50% of their 1982 levels, with more than a million new workers each and every year entering the labor market, most of whom will not find jobs. The effect of lowered tariff barriers has been to undercut Mexican farmers, increase agricultural unemployment, and to bankrupt tens of thousands of smaller manufacturing producers, while a small number of larger, often multinational-owned firms, have exported to the U.S. the output that used to be consumed by Mexicans.

The results are shocking: Per capita consumption of corn, beans, rice, and wheat, the staples in the Mexican diet, is today about 20% lower than the already miserable levels of 1980. The minimum has dropped from the equivalent of U.S. $1.26 per hour in 1980, to $0.59 per hour in 1990--a 53% decline. In the last three years alone--the model years for NAFTA--wages are estimated to have plummeted by 29%. This collapse has occurred during the big "boom" years for the maquiladoras, the very model NAFTA intends to spread throughout Mexico.

An indication of the collapse of Mexico's agriculture sector, which will be completely opened to takeover by the international grain cartels, is at its lowest production. There is simply no basis in any projections for Mexican growth to assert that the poorer 85% of the Mexican population will become consumers of U.S. exports, or that Mexican "prosperity" will permit wages to rise significantly.

Many groups, such as the AFL-CIO, other labor, church, social welfare, and environmental organizations, have documented that the maquiladora phenomenon represents nothing but U.S. runaway shops, possibly the most massive "runaway shop" slave-labor operation in history. These groups have also compiled massive and irrefutable evidence as to the sub-human conditions of work in the maquiladoras, and the colonias (shantytowns) surrounding them.

We do not need, here, to repeat this information in detail, since it is in the public record in numerous congressional hearings and in widely circulated published form.

But the outlines bear reiteration.

* Wage levels are abominably low. Contrary to some claims, the average wages paid by the maquiladoras are far below even the already abysmally low wages paid in the non-maquiladora manufacturing sector of Mexico. According to AFL-CIO figures, average maquiladora wages are $.98/hour, compared to $1.56/hour for manufacturing in the rest of Mexico. But many maquiladora workers receive substantially less even than $.98. In 1980, the wage differential was about 5:1, it is now worse than 11:1. And even these figures understate the comparison, as some U.S. workers still receive fringe benefits up to 50% the value of their wages; the maquiladora workers receive none.

* The profile of the maquiladora labor force reads like something out of Charles Dickens or New York City's tenement factories before the first child labor laws at the turn of the century. Two-thirds of the 500,000 workers in them are females, and most of these are young girls, either trying to supplement the income of desperately poor families, or earning their first living away from home any way they can. Turnover rates in the maquiladoras reach 120% per year.

* Working conditions are also 19th-century, with widespread violation of worker safety laws, blatantly unsafe working conditions, failure to inform the workers of hazards, failure to use proper protective devices on machinery, and other abuses amply documented by others.

* Living conditions are crushingly poor, with the vast majority of the 500,000, plus dependents, living in the so-called colonias, urban slums reminiscent of Brazil's notorious favelas. Almost none of these residents have indoor running water, many do not even have access to running water at all, and drink from water collected in huge barrels formerly used by local companies to contain toxic substances. Sewage facilities are almost unknown in the colonias, and open sewage runs through the camps. Conditions are as squalid and hideous as anywhere in the world today. It is scarcely an exaggeration to call them concentration camps. Needless to say, health care and treatment are all but non-existent as well, making these camps ripe ground for cholera and other epidemics, which, once unleashed, will not respect national borders.

Situated Journey, where fully one-third of all the maquiladora workers live, illustrates the situation. Three hundred fifteen maquiladoras employ 135,000 workers, 65% of them women, 10% under 16 years of age. Wages are $3.60 a day, and turnover is so high there is a constant need for more workers. The city has been destroyed by the maquiladora plague. Teachers there earn one-third of their real wage in 1980 figures and now spend more time earning income in the informal economy than they do teaching--the schools have become public markets for their wares. Housing rents are double the levels across the Rio Grande in El Paso; incomes are less than one-tenth the U.S. levels.

* Most of the maquiladoras also practice no pollution control. Toxic wastes are released untreated into both the atmosphere and surface and groundwater. Canals carrying heavily polluted water often run right through the attached colonials. Air pollution is so bad in some of the leading maquiladora cities that it carries over the border and affects U.S. border cities.

One final point bears noting: Maquiladora workers are today paid less than the wages received in such desperately poor countries as Jamaica and the Dominican Republic. Mexico, the once-proud neighbor that tried to industrialize, and tried to improve the standard of living of its population, now shamelessly permits its workers to receive a Fourth World-level wage standard, and is actively seeking more of the same.

NO EXPORT BOOM

But perhaps the mass exodus of U.S. manufacturing plants south of the border will be offset by skyrocketing U.S. exports to Mexico, creating thousands of new jobs here at home? That is what the Bush administration claims. But this, too, is a lie.

It is a fact that Mexico's imports (three-quarters of which come from the U.S.) have risen sharply over the last three to four years, as a result of former President Miguel de la Madrid's and Salinas' trade liberalization measures. But a closer look at the composition of those imports shows that consumer goods are the ones growing most rapidly. U.S. consumer goods have been replacing Mexican goods at supermarkets and department stores, but that process has largely run its course. It would be illusory to think that this is a market that can continue to rapidly expand.

The argument that "Mexico is a booming market" is nothing but a cruel joke. One might as well trumpet the tremendous market for U.S. exporters represented by Bangladesh today. Desperately poor people, as most Mexicans have become under De la Madrid and Salinas' policies, are not a market for anybody's exports. The entire Mexican economy, encompassing a population one-third the size of the United States, disposes of an economy barely 4% as large. And the share of GNP represented by popular incomes in Mexico is much lower in Mexico than in the United States. Real incomes have plummeted for the average Mexican by more than one-half since 1982. It is estimated that more than two-thirds of the population are poor, and at least half of them desperately poor.

As for capital goods imports, the amount of these actually invested into the Mexican economy has been dropping significantly since 1980. It is today at only 60% the level it was at in 1980. And of those imported capital goods that are invested, the fact is that the lion's share of these have gone into building up industries for exports--in particular the maquiladoras--rather than contributing to the growth of the Mexican national economy. Mexico's imports of machine tools have collapsed to near zero. There has been a gross collapse in the employment of Mexican workers in the manufacturing jobs upon which any country's prosperity depend--with the exception of an increase in slave-labor-wage employment in the maquiladoras.

There is no future of growth in such trends.

One of the central objectives of NAFTA is to create an environment propitious for significant flows of foreign investment into Mexico. Bankers and others confessed to being uneasy about all the "free market" reforms that have been implemented in Mexico over recent years, unless they are "locked in" through NAFTA. They openly worry about the economic nationalism of the Echeverria and Lopez Portillo years, and fear that all of Salinas' good work might be reversible if there is a strong enough backlash to throw him out, and return to policies of protectionism, and possibly even to expropriations or prohibitions against removing profits of foreign firms, or even debt moratoria. It is believed that under a NAFTA, the "changes" implemented by Salinas that favor foreign investment can be "cemented" in such a way that even an anti-"free market" government could not undo them. The firms planning to take advantage of NAFTA have made clear, in fact, that once investment regulations are fully liberalized and cemented in the form of an international agreement that guarantees that their holdings can not be nationalized, or their profit remittances be jeopardized, or their loans go unpaid, they plan a massive shifting of investment resources to Mexico.

But what sort of investment will actually occur? Maquiladora investment will certainly take off under NAFTA, for the reasons indicated. But this will not constitute the prime form of investment. The major thrust of U.S. foreign investment will be in buying out core sectors of the existing Mexican economy--not in the construction of new plant and equipment. In other words, it will consist of a mere exchange of property titles, from Mexicans (including the state), to foreigners. This is proven by the fact that, despite balance of payments figures showing about $2-3 billion of foreign investment in each of the last couple of years, there has been no corresponding flow of actual physical imports of capital goods, as we documented above. So the only thing coming "into" Mexico has been financial capital that is buying out existing physical capital stock. This is what explains the fact that fully 89% of all foreign investment coming into Mexico in the first quarter of 1991, went into "services".

This process is already well under way, as Mexico has "privatized" the bulk of its formerly public sector companies--70% have reportedly already been sold off. The strategic aim of the NAFTA is to force Mexico to liberalize its foreign investment laws, and to make the changes permanent. The U.S. has targeted all remaining statutory and constitutional restrictions on full 100% foreign ownership of Mexican companies, even in formerly "strategic" industries, and will demand these reforms as the price of NAFTA. The goal is to buy up or control the core sectors of the Mexican economy. Insofar as there will be any significant investment in modernized plant and equipment, it will, like the maquiladora "investment", be strictly for export.

[Now, please don't act surprised at all this and wonder what happened--This is the way the Banks foreclose on nations--the collateral is all the resources of a country to get the original loans--THIS IS FORECLOSURE OF A WORLD, CHELAS!!! THE U.S. CANNOT PAY ITS DEBTS--YOU WILL ALSO BE FORECLOSED UPON--IT IS INEVITABLE AS THE WINDS OF WINTER. AND FURTHER, TO PREVENT OBJECTION AND TROUBLE--YOU WILL BE DISARMED SO THAT YOU CANNOT MAKE A FUSS AS EVERYTHING YOU HAVE, INCLUDING YOUR NATION, GOES TO THE ELITE BANKSTERS]

Let us take the central issue of "oil". Here the policy is to gradually whittle down Mexican opposition to resuming foreign control and eventually ownership over Mexico's oil resources and oil industry.

The long-term goal here is to deny Mexico the full use of its oil revenues for national development and to ensure the U.S. a large and continuing supply of oil close to home. In fact, the intent of NAFTA, and of Bush's broader New World Order, is to achieve control of all strategic minerals, including oil, in Mexico, Ibero-America, and the entire Third World.

NAFTA has one last principal goal: to permit the full opening up of Mexico's banking and financial system to takeover by the international banks. Once permitted full rights to operate in Mexico, the major Wall Street, London, European, and Japanese banks will quickly take over Mexico's financial system. This means not only buying the major Mexican banks. It means acquiring the ability to suck capital out of Mexico, the same way these same banks are presently acquiring regional U.S. banks and sucking capital out of the local regions in which these banks are located. It means the ability to borrow money within Mexico that ought to go for national development, and lend it back to U.S. firms seeking to buy out Mexican companies--a totally parasitic misuse of the money. It means the ability to use Mexican funds deposited in the banks for speculation in offshore enterprises, as now occurs with U.S. funds as well.

The goal is, as with the maquiladoras, to turn Mexico City into another version of Panama's now destroyed "banking center", an on-shore/"offshore" banking haven, which transmogrifies Mexico's national savings into the means for international speculative activities earning profits for the banks, emphatically including the laundering of hundreds of billions of dollars in drug revenues every year.

With the financial takeover completed, and trade and foreign investment fully liberalized, NAFTA's ultimate objective is to turn the entirety of the Americas into a dollar zone. What this means is the supplanting of each of the local currencies by the dollar, as legal tender, for all external and internal economic transactions.

Such steps go far beyond the current state of affairs, where the IMF, the creditor banks, and the U.S. government directly dictate policy to the governments of Ibero-America as to what their economic and monetary policies should be. They will no longer have economic and monetary processes that they can even call their own. They will all be run by the dollar, i.e., by the U. S. Government.

The kind of loss of economic sovereignty is tantamount to erasing all national borders, and goes hand in hand with the NAFTA plan of turning the whole continent into one giant maquiladora foreign enclave.

SO--NOW THE U.S.

It is not possible to exactly forecast with any precision, only probabilities, what havoc the agreement to be negotiated with Mexico will wreak within the U.S., if the "fast-track" procedures are extended, as per Bush's demands. It is possible to identify the general process which will be set off, because it is already in the works.

Overall U.S. capital investment is in the range of $200 billion per annum. Of this it can be assumed that about half is actually for investment in plant and equipment. The proponents of the Free Trade Agreement start from the assumption that under the first year of an agreement going into effect, 10%, or up to $10 billion could be pulled out of the U.S.A., and in the name of investing in Mexico, be diverted to the account of bankrupt U.S. banks. One such advocate put it this way: "Let's say we now make about $100 billion in real capital investment in the U.S., in plant and equipment annually. Mexico, under NAFTA, could easily get 10% of that. That's $10 billion the first year, if it looks successful, say even $15 billion the second year. Then who knows, the third year...."

The areas which would be affected by such runaway shops are known. Top on the list is the automobile industry, second is the textile and apparel industry, and third, what comes under the heading of electronics and household appliances.

Then, fourth, in a slightly different way, the domestic U.S. construction industry.

Dharma, allow us a break, please. I must, however, finish this evening for I desire that George have it for his meetings in Florida. Thank you.

6/6/91 #3 HATONN

ANTI-SEMITIC? BIGOT?
ANTI-ZIONIST?

I begin to hesitate to give Dharma a break for we end up with stacks and heaps of new inquiries to cover each time. But there are a couple of things which I want to point out to you people.

We have heard from George and, of course, of all the information we have produced, the people in Florida at the county Democratic meeting only picked up the word "Jew" in an Express. The meeting, by the way, is in West Palm Beach where many Judean people retire. It is sad that ones know so very little about their own heritage as seems to be prevalent. The lady introducing the speakers, i.e. George, immediately prefaced her introduction by stating that George was anti-semitic and a Zionist bigot. I have awful news for these poor, uninformed people--they do not have a corner on Zionism.

I have told you in the past that Jerry Falwell of the "Christian Moral Majority" is a self-proclaimed "Zionist" and "...am proud to state that I am a Zionist". Now, hold to your hats, brothers, Brent Scowcroft is a highly prestigious personage in the Mormon Religious Faith--a Mormon "Zionist". Now, I suggest somebody brush up on their attitudes and information since, in the very facts of the matter--to be anti-Jew is not to be anti-semitic since the Semites came from the tribe of Shem. Therefore, since the "Jews" are not Semites--how can you be anti-Semitic if you are against the Jews? Is this some kind of "New World Order" reasoning? Perhaps speakers, such as Patrick Buchanan who was called a rotten bigot and anti-Semite just last night on "Larry King Live"--should stop any defense of statements and RE-QUIRE AND DEMAND that those making accusations along those lines, identify, define and state their rationale regarding their accusations for they are ignorant, indeed.

Now, there is another point I wish to make about this currency switch and recall. I should point out a thing or two to you ones who are wishing to invest with the Institute and use gold as collateral--ultimately it is such an excellent investment for it will carry value of 100 to one if, in fact, that is the amount of currency exchange. We do not take our advice unto you ones lightly. Further, the investment funds are being utilized with persons who are not apt to have confiscation of their industrial property, i.e., the "light cement" housing factory, etc. Never underestimate the mysterious manner in which God works his miracles and performs His miracles. Moreover, the material, when mixed with pozzolan (pumice) and "finished" and/or compressed, will have the radioactivity protection in one foot of material of that of three full feet of concrete as well as being very light of weight in comparison--giving major benefits in structures. Ah, God has arranged many wondrous contacts and purposes if you but hold to the Light.

BACK TO U.S./MEXICO
FREE TRADE

As so often in the postwar period, the auto industry is the pace-setter. About to announce at this writing net losses of some $3 billion worldwide for the first quarter of 1991, GM, Chrysler, and Ford, working with the banks, were in the initial steps of reopening their new three-year contract with the UAW. The threat is clear. The unions are to give up the income security and health insurance components of the contract, and accept wage cuts, or face the flight of investment and employment to Mexico. The textile and apparel industry is next for the firing line. This is what happened during 1981 and 1982, at the height of the Volcker interest-rate atrocity. Then the industry reopened contracts in order to lay off workers and cut back its wage bill.

GM's president, Lloyd Reuss, alluded to this in a press conference April 15 in Detroit, when in response to prompting, he let slip that GM may reopen its contract with the UAW. GM spokesmen off the record are less bashful. With $5 billion in losses over the last nine months, the company cannot, it is said, afford the more than $4 billion per annum job security and health package it is committed to. They point to the following: GM production worker wages run at $31.30 per hour. After the government and insurance companies take their cut, the workers are left with $16.50 per hour (still a lot higher than 98 cents). GM has 42,000 workers employed in Mexican maquiladoras. They average $1.10 per hour. As they say: "The discrepancies are huge. Even with this subsidy from Mexico, if auto sales in the United States keep collapsing, we will not be able to produce cars in the United States." It seems pretty plain to me.

The textile industry, for its part, fears that with the elimination of remaining import tariffs on certain classes of goods produced in Mexico, the industry in the U.S. will be wiped out, perhaps in its entirety.

Autos and textiles, along with electronics, are threatened by the banks with elimination though substitution of slave-labor in Mexico. With the construction industry it is different. The bankers have Mexico demanding the right to freely export "services", as part of their "free trade" looting. In this case, "services" means labor. Although at this point the Bush administration is insisting that there will be no opening to Mexican migrant labor under NAFTA, the construction industry is planning to replace American labor with imported slave, or cheap, labor from Mexico in the name of "free trade in services". On April 15, one hundred leaders of the Association of General Contractors met with Bush to endorse the "fast track". Their leader, Marvin Black, said on that occasion: "Banks are in the grip of fear that stops them from making loans for construction projects. The message is clear...The Age of Abundance is over."

Where does this leave the U.S.? The construction industry adds another 4 million workers to this list should massive migrant labor flows occur under NAFTA and another $100 billion in annual wages.

Let's assume that there is intended to be a shift of 10% of the investment budget to Mexico in the first year of an agreement, and a 15% shift in the second. Then, in year one, approximately $10 billion would be looted from what is called the U.S. capital investment budget. In year two, this would rise to 15%, or about $13.5 billion, of the remaining $90 billion.

Although again no precise forecasts are possible on the employment side, for the purposes of argument, let's apply the same ratios of contraction being promoted regarding capital investment. The textile industry would lose 140,000 of its 1.4 million jobs in year one, and about 190,000 in year two. The automobile and related rubber and plastics industries would lose 120,000 jobs in the first year and 170,000 in the second.

Construction would shed, or replace, about 400,000 workers in the first year, and another 540,000 in the second.

This gives the total job losses for just those three industries, if one makes the same assumptions that the Bush crowd does, at 660,000 and 1 million in the first two years respectively.

This is the agreement which the same people publicly insist will not result in job losses in the U.S.

Let's assume, for the moment, that the Bush administration is right on this point, that no jobs will actually be lost. This could only occur if U.S. wages were drastically reduced to Mexican levels. (The political reality will probably be some combination of dramatic job loss and wage gouging.) As one NAFTA ideologue succinctly put it, U.S. companies will tell their unions: "We don't want to move to Mexico. But in Mexico they want 57 cents an hour and you guys want $15. Now you're going to have to meet us half way, or at least part of the way."

In this fashion, wage reduction on the order of one-third to one-half could occur under NAFTA. If such a reduction occurred at about the same rate as the mentioned capital shifts, i.e., about 10% in the year one and 15% of the reduced amount in year two, this gives an overall reduction in manufacturing-sector wages of goods producers of about $30 billion in year one and $40.5 billion in year two.

But you saw above that goods producers in manufacturing only make up 11% of the entire labor force. The 1.4 million workers in the textile industry make up more than 10% of the manufacturing total. The workers in the auto and rubber and plastics industries also make up more than 10% of the total. This estimate assumes that almost one-fifth of manufacturing workers in auto and textiles will lose their jobs in the next two years, and almost one-quarter of the workers in the construction industry. This is almost 10% of the remaining productive workers in those three sectors alone; 940,000 of the 4 million construction workers, 330,000 of the 1.4 million textile workers, and 290,000 of the 1.3 million workers in the automobile and related industrial employment in the country are targeted.

This is a recipe for upheaval and chaos inside the U.S.

WHY THE U.S. IS NOT COMPETITIVE

The collapse of U.S. performance on domestic and international markets has nothing to do with "unfair competition" from Japan or Western Europe, or anything of the sort. For the past generation or so, the U.S. has insisted on following policies which have, cumulatively, pushed it over the edge, in the sense that America is no longer capable of producing, out of its own resources of qualified labor, stocks of plant and equipment, i.e., the means which would enable the country to recover and grow. Germany and Japan have not been so insane as to impose this course on themselves. Now, Germany, as the center of the still-functioning economy of Europe, represents the primary, and Japan, the secondary, remaining islands of productive potential in the world economy as a whole. Their capabilities are what remains after the destruction of the developing sector, through International Monetary Fund (IMF) policies, the breakdown collapse of Marxist collectivism in Eastern Europe, the Soviet Union, and China, and the depression/bankruptcy of the English-speaking part of the advanced sector economies.

What is the difference between the U.S.A. and the other two? Over the last 25 years, the United States, in the name of the post-industrial society and the crazed idea that your society has moved beyond the need to actually produce the improvements which permit continued human existence--has stopped being a front-rank producing nation. Germany and Japan have not.

This could turn into an endless dissertation and is actually important enough to continue but the scribe is weary and you are losing interest as well. Suffice it to say that the policy difference between the economies of the United States and Germany and Japan can be summed up in one four-letter word: debt. Usury has wrecked the U.S. By the end of 1990, the sum of credit market borrowings, or the total indebtedness of the U.S. economy, for all borrowers, was estimated at $14 trillion. You are a debt-ridden, bankrupt economy with a gutted productive work force which no longer produces the infrastructure, food and industrial goods consumed by your own population.

SOMETHING TO WATCH FOR

Enough of that subject for I want to remind you to stay tuned for more cover-up in hearings set for July 11, 1991. The House Subcommittee on Commerce, Consumer, and Monetary Affairs will be holding hearings on Internal Revenue Service corruption cases (talk about foxes in the henhouse). Although one case of corruption puts the IRS in the middle of covering up George Bush's Iran-contra Affair, the Congressional Committee seems committed to further obscure these facts.

That case involved a complex effort to prevent an IRS money-laundering expert, William Duncan, from testifying truthfully on evidence obtained during his investigation of a smuggling group operating from Arkansas' Mena Intermountain Regional Airport and connected to one Adler Berriman Seal. What Duncan did not know at the time of his probe was that the Mena Intermountain Regional Airport was being used by the Contra resupply efforts of the Reagan-Bush administration.

Prior to the 1988 presidential election, Duncan was asked to testify before the House Committee on Crime concerning allegations of government sabotage of the Arkansas investigation, including an allegation that a $400,000 bribe had been paid to Reagan's Attorney General, Ed Meese. Attorneys from the Disclosure and Litigation branch of the IRS, along with officials from the IRS Commissioner's office and the Criminal Investigation Division, not only tried to limit Duncan's testimony but, ultimately, Duncan was prohibited from having access to his own investigative files.

Adler Berriman Seal, who was a central figure in the transport of drugs from Central America, was killed on Feb. 19, 1986. (You will recall we recently wrote of this man.) He was murdered by authority of the CIA; in any case, had he lived, Seal would most certainly have a great deal to say about Bush's guns-for-drugs project.

BUSH AND THE MEDELLIN CARTEL: WHO WAS BARRY SEAL?

According to Congressional documents, Seal, who had been convicted of drug trafficking in February 1984, contacted the "Vice President's Task Force" in March 1984, offering himself as a government operative. By March 28, 1984, Seal was authorized as a confidential informant. One week later, on behalf of the U.S. government, Seal "ferried a Titan 404 aircraft (N2685U) from Miami to Medellin, Colombia and met with Jorge Ochoa to map out drug transport routes, including routes through Nicaragua."

During the month of April 1984, Seal coordinated his smuggling plans directly with drug cartel lords Jorge Ochoa and Pablo Escobar, as well as Carlos "Lito" Bustamante and Luis Angel. During the month of May 1984, Seal continued to deal with Jorge Ochoa, Escobar, Bustamante, and Angel, as well as Fabio Ochoa, Gonzalo Rodriguez-Gacha, Federico Vaughn, and Carlos Lehder. On May 28, 1984, Seal, accompanied by co-pilot Emil Camp, flew from Mena, Ark. to Colombia, where he was met by Carlos Lehder. His plane was loaded with 1,500 kilos of cocaine. Just a month earlier, on April 30, 1984, the courageous anti-drug Columbian Minister of Justice Rodrigo Lara-Bonilla had been assassinated by the dope cartel.

According to portions of a Congressional chronology, on June 25, 1984, Seal flew a C-123K aircraft, recently transferred to him by Harry Doan and subsequently outfitted with surveillance cameras by the CIA, to the Los Brasiles Airport in Nicaragua. There he was met by Pablo Escobar, Gonzalo Rodriguez-Gacha, Federico Vaughan, and others. The plane was refueled and loaded with approximately "666 kilograms of cocaine", according to the Congressional document. On July 7, Seal made a return flight to Los Brasiles to deliver $1.5 million in cash and "toys".

Now, you don't believe me, you don't believe other revealers of facts--are you going to now say you don't believe the Congressional documents, either?

OLLIE NORTH HAS AN IDEA

In 1988 Congressional testimony by Ron Cafferty, who was the chief of the Drug Enforcement Administration's Cocaine Sector in 1984, Cafferty revealed that, when he personally briefed National Security Council employee Lt. Col. Oliver North and Dewey Claridge of the CIA at the Executive Office Building, sometime between June 26, 1984 and Seal's return trip of July 7, North asked, "Hypothetically....Why couldn't we land the plane somewhere outside of Nicaragua...and maybe turn the money over to the Contras?" Cafferty said that North already had the photos taken from Seal's C-123K at Los Brasiles, and that North proposed a leak to the press to show involvement by the Nicaraguan Sandinistas in drug trafficking.

Presumably, the $1.5 million money transfer to the Contras did not occur in that form; however, the leak was begun the next day, when Gen. Paul Gorman, commander of the U.S. Southern Command, announced to a U.S. Chamber of Commerce audience in San Salvador that proof of Sandinista involvement in drug trafficking would be forthcoming. On July 17, 1984 the Washington Times began a coordinated national "expose" of the Sandinistas' connections to the Medellin Cartel.

Six months later, Adler Berriman Seal's life was apparently no longer protected by the U.S. government; previous plea bargain agreements which Seal had made with the government were suddenly found to be full of loopholes; Seal was stripped of his personal security and ordered to report daily to the Salvation Army Halfway House in Baton Rouge, La. It was at that Halfway House, on Feb. 19, 1986, that Seal was gunned down. This is YOUR CIA and YOUR GOVERNMENT, chelas--isn't anyone nervous yet?

One month after Seal's murder, Ronald Reagan appeared on national television with the CIA photos taken from Seal's C-123K. Reagan said the photos showed Nicaraguan government officials involved in drug trafficking. Thereupon, the President urged Congressional funding of the Nicaraguan Contras, in opposition to the Sandinistas. On Oct. 5, 1986, American pilot Eugene Hasenfus was shot down while flying arms to the Contras. Hasenfus was flying the same C-123K cargo plane previously used by Seal.

A source who gained information from admitted Contra supplier Richard Brenneke said that Brenneke has identified Mena, Ark. as a hub through which money, drugs, arms, and Central American troops were moved, and has said that there was a massive government operation to smuggle drugs into the Mena Airport and use the money to finance covert operations. What the U.S. Congress knows about these events, and about the IRS attempt to suppress information concerning the investigation of Seal's operations, must not be covered up during yet another presidential election campaign. You have an opportunity here, chelas, if you will but grit your teeth and gain a little backbone--you have all you need to beat this thing come upon you.

Yes, I hope you realize that this is also ongoing confirmation follow-up of our story on "Drug Running". You MUST begin to fit pieces and persons together. Time is fleeting and it leaves little allowance for action.

Thank you for a very long day, Dharma, but the information is necessary for George to have "fuel" for his confrontations. Bless you and good-night.

Hatonn to clear.

COUNTERFEIT BLESSINGS
THE ANTI-CHRIST BY ANY
NAME: KHAZARS
"....AND THEY WERE LIARS FROM THE BEGINNING!"

By Gyeorgos Ceres Hatonn

In this book Hatonn brings us up to the minute on world events, but more importantly he gives us the TRUE history of the diabolical masterminds that have led the world into all of its major problems and most of its minor problems, for their own selfish and greedy aims.

We are also given the actions we MUST take if we are going to stop these well-organized groups from putting together the final pieces of their WORLD WITHOUT FREEDOM (the NEW WORLD ORDER).

Hatonn especially stresses the history of the Khazars, Judeans and the Jews and how the Khazars have labeled themselves as Zionists and Jews to deceive our planet and to take total control of it in the NAME OF THE ANTI-CHRIST, and how knowing and exposing these forces can preserve freedom for all of mankind.

OPERATION SHANSTORM COUNTER ATTACK FROM BEHIND THE FEATHERED CURTAIN

By Gyeorgos Ceres Hatonn

Hatonn says that the Dedication and Introduction to this book are the two most important documents you shall ever read.

He continues to give detailed history of the Khazars, where they came from, how they got to the position of governing most of the lives on this planet and what type of life they have planned for us IF WE DO NOT GET OFF OUR DUFFS AND STOP THEM. (IT ISN'T PLEASANT.) We are always given things that we can do to stop the "New World Order" of the Elitists and slaves. This Journal contains many solutions, it clearly outlines the "counter attack" needed to overcome the Khazar/Elite lead.

More is given to us about the making and workings of robotoids, synthetic duplicates, humanoids, etc., gun control, IRS shenanigans and terror tactics, why the Cosmic Hosts have come, democracy vs. a republic, preparation of concentration camps in the U.S.A., daily updates on world events and much more.

PHOENIX OPERATOR-OWNER MANUAL

For eons of time in your history, mankind has experienced and existed in blindness about his DIVINE SPIRITUAL HERITAGE, that is, his ONENESS WITH GOD AND THE CREATION. Since the time of the "FALL" from "GRACE" of God, many ones have continued to struggle with what is "their" purpose, and why is it so difficult to find and know THE TRUTH. Many ones, in their ignorance and confusion, have asked themselves why GOD allows the seemingly unending ruthless and merciless inhumanity of man to continue; why HE allows suffering of children and wars and disease and pestilence and corruption. Often ones simply decide there is no God, which only keeps ones ever "separate" from KNOWING HIS PRESENCE WITHIN.

This volume, Phoenix Operator/Owner Manual, is GOD'S deliverance of Truth to YOU, His blinded fledgling creatures. HE is offering YOU the instructions for reaching the "Lighted" path back home to HIM, AND THUS TO ONENESS. You will learn HOW to recognize the Anti-Christ, (that which is AGAINST GOD and therefore AGAINST LIFE) within YOU and why through your gift of free-will YOU allowed the Anti-Christ within your temple of God. You will learn about what are the "Deadliest" Sins (errors) committed by you and also about the nature of YOUR Personal Responsibility for ALL consequences and experiences within this manifested physical "illusion".

And in addition, God is NOW, within these pages, bringing forth the EIGHTEEN Logical Cosmic Laws of Balance of God and The Creation, written in explicit detail with MANY examples given for YOUR careful consideration and recognition of Truth. Why? To let there be NO misunderstanding of HOW and WHY you, of humanity have lost your inner as well as planetary BALANCE. You ones have broken EVERY Law set forth herein and have, therefore, suffered the consequences of your errors against GOD and against LIFE. You each now have before you YOUR "roadmap" back home to spiritual wisdom, knowledge and Truth which is GOD. Will YOU see? Will YOU hear? Each ONE of you, being fragments of GOD and of THE CREATION must and will make this choice: To wisely learn your lessons in Truth, abide by the Laws and thus EARN your Spiritual UNITY and Freedom within God's Kingdom OR continue in the darkness of deception, ignorance and spiritual poverty which will keep you bound in the Anti-Christ's "illusion" of separation. THIS cycle is about to END. The new cycle will BEGIN anew in the GLORY and Celebration of cleansing within and without of ALL fragments of ANTI-LIFE. WILL YOU JOIN OUR FATHER/MOTHER CREATOR GOD in His Divine Holy Kingdom of LIFE? God awaits your decision. So be it.

END OF THE MASQUERADE LET'S PLUCK THE CUCKOO BIRD

By Gyeorgos Ceres Hatonn

TO ALL WHO WOULD HEAR GOD'S WORD IN THIS TIME OF TOTAL MASQUERADE. IT IS TIME TO PULL OFF THE MASK ALONG WITH THE BLINDFOLDS AND EAR-PLUGS. THE TIME IS AT HAND TO GAIN TRUTH AND INSIGHT AND TAKE ACTION FOR YOUR WORLD IS IN GRAVE DANGER.

That which is called the "Anti-Christ" is at hand and has deceived most of the world. You are surrounded by multitudes of replicas and man-made humanoids who have basically gained control of your planet.

Our intent in these Journals is to give you proof of that which we project--by documentation of history, origins and other boring information. But the information will get far less boring as we move along, dear ones--and so, let us move along rapidly.

I repeat again and again--the evil brotherhood of darkness cannot stand the focus of the light of Truth, just as it requires only the tiny spark of light to cause a place to no longer be in darkness.

Hatonn includes the PROTOCOLS and also continues to keep us current on world affairs.

MATTER, ANTI-MATTER & WHAT'S THE MATTER

By Gyeorgos Ceres Hatonn

Hatonn gives us much more information on a large number of topics in this JOURNAL and again he keeps us updated with the TRUTH about the latest news.

He includes many interesting comments about spaceships including certain specific frequencies pertaining to them and specific manifestations at certain areas of the earth grid system. Descriptions of their exterior and interiors are also given.

Some of the other topics he covers are: The importance of the new Challenger shuttle replacement - Robotoids, Synthetics and Neutrals - Little Gray Aliens - Continual Update on the Middle-East Situation - Bush and the trip to Paris which he denies - The purpose for the reported alien visit with Bush at Camp David - The history of money and why and how it has to be changed before economic and social problems can be solved - The plans for a new Central American canal using atomic explosions--SOON--and the severe consequences - 666 and the Bar Codes - An explanation of Creation, etc., etc.

CONSTITUTION KIT

For those who want to know how they can help save our Constitution--we now are offering a detailed kit of information about our government and the Constitution to help in preserving our freedoms. The kit is available to individuals or groups for $8.00 per kit, or for $20 POST PAID with RAPE OF THE CONSTITUTION book included.
