Perspective On Modern Japan

Kantor, Rubin & Reich

Notorious Zionist Triumvirate

A Report From Japan

3/22/96 EUSTACE MULLINS

When I flew nonstop from Chicago to Tokyo on Japan Air Lines, on February 3, 1996, I was surprised to find how similar the two cities are. Both cities are modern, with many new office buildings, heavy traffic, and a dynamic presence. If anything, Tokyo is even more dynamic than Chicago. The air was brilliantly clean; I learned that Tokyo has the most stringent anti-pollution regulations of any city in the world. I was told that most vehicles have to be traded in every three years, or the entire engine has to be replaced. Every vehicle on the streets seemed to have just been driven out of a showroom.

During the ensuing two-week lecture tour throughout Japan,

I saw no slums, homeless or poor people, and a racially true population whose prosperity belied the continuous stories I had been reading in the American press about the imminent economic collapse of Japan. My tour was sponsored by a group of intensely dedicated patriots who had been studying my writings, now being published in the Japanese language, which confirmed their fears that they, as well as the Colossus of the Western World, the United States, were now dominated by the same sinister forces—the power of international banking. As the Jews themselves now point out, this phrase is actually a “code word” for international Jews. This power continues to wreak its will upon the civilized world through the Zionist connection, a conspiratorial group which I have traced back some five thousand years.

I was encouraged to find that my Japanese hosts work well together, without dissension; they are serious and studious people, anxious to learn all the details of this deadly conspiracy which threatens the continuance of

LIGHT

May you keep the light shining brightly about you so that you can find your way. If you will but listen within, most especially in the silence of each moment, you MAY find your way. God facilitates the "can"; you must bring forth the "may". Light is everything and from Light comes all that is CREATED. This is the IDEA of Creator. We shall refer to this entity Creator as God. I shall not label all the names given to this ONE LIGHT or SOURCE, for from One come all the rest, save for language differences. You must be very careful, however, lest you offer one of the enemies of God, HIS label.

POWER

When we reach out for understanding of what is meant by "power" we again have to look to the ONE LIGHT, the Source, GOD CREATOR, for from His One Light comes all things. God, the Creator, IS power. There is no other power. Light and Power are Energy. In every sense of the definition so too is God "magnetic energy" expressed in STILLNESS. All energy lies within that stillness of God, the ONE magnetic Light. Herein you must follow the "dots", readers, for the former being true, the next logically follows in that GOD IS MIND, the Intelligence of the Universe. God doesn't need more than ONE idea for all ideas make up the WHOLE of Idea. Therefore, we have ONE Mind, One Idea, One Creator, One Lighted Source from which God's desire to give creative expression to HIS One Idea by "thinking" is offered as the idea is given LIFE into portions. Each of us experiencing entities is part of that WHOLE IDEA. The very act of sincere DESIRE is the POWER that allows Creation. Desire in the Light of Mind IS the power quality of Mind. Desire IS the soul of Mind, the will of Mind. Therefore it can only remain truth that all product of God or Man is the result of desire of mind TO CREATE product.

PRODUCTS HAVE NO POWER

Realization that all of the foregoing is understood, then you have to look at "things" or "products". There is NO POWER in products. Taken in single elemental form you have nothing but an array of possibilities. Product has no power within itself to produce itself. The assumption that somehow products have power

God facilitates the "can"; you must bring forth the "may". Light is everything and from Light comes all that is CREATED. This is the IDEA of Creator. We shall refer to this entity Creator as God.

No cathedral ever created itself. Idea conceived the beginning thoughts, then thoughts are put into the energy of creating, and finally the actual structuring in a manifest form gave structure to a cathedral. Ah, but who and what gave idea to the "architect"? GOD! The finished product, cathedral, is the product not of itself but of the IDEA through desire of an architect KNOWING he has the power to build such a product. The fact is that the cathedral already exists. The eyes of the Spirit can see its spiritual image as clearly as the eyes of the body can sense it in stone as a product. It must be so lest you have but a pile of rocks.

Since you are but an electric wave Universe, you must now look to what is "action". The expression of power to create the idea as product—lies in this electric action of think idea at rest in the Light of Mind INTO THE TWO LIGHTS OF WAVES OF MOTION WHICH SIMULATE THAT IDEA. Remember, there must be the duality of presentation in waves of motion, electricity, whatever there IS.

Electricity is a servant of Mind. It gives moving form to "the" idea in focus by performing the work necessary to produce it. The power, therefore, to thus produce does not lie in electricity nor in motion; it lies in the DESIRE only in MIND. Without the desire, Creation could not be. Without desire of Mind in Man, his power to create, even product, could not be.

SO, WHAT IS MIND?

MIND is simply LIGHT at REST. Desire of Mind is expressed through waves of light becoming motion.

One of the most difficult concepts to understand in this subject is that "stillness" is from whence comes power. The "expression" of power is NOT power. All of the power of, say, an ocean is in its very stillness, whether there is "expression" or not. Likewise, all of that wondrous power of Light resides in the stillness, and THAT is THE STILLNESS of knowing, whether or not it is expressed by light waves.

If you know in your mind that a product exists, and you have desire for producing that product, you will express that desire. That expression requires the Light waves and "electricity of motion".

Therefore, ALL expressions of energy come from rest, seek a point of rest and return to a condition of rest. The power of a moving lever is not in the lever nor in its motion. It is in the stillness of its fulcrum from which it borrows its ability to manifest the power of its function. Therefore you can have no POWER WITHOUT A FULCRUM which is at total "rest".

GOD IS THE FULCRUM OF MAN, AND THE UNIVERSE! Ah, but until you KNOW GOD you cannot manifest the goals of mind for you have no

THERE IS NO WAY THAT YOU CANNOT EXPRESS, FINALLY, THE IDEA—IF THE DESIRE OF MIND IS WHOLLY FOCUSED ON THAT IDEA. YOU WILL HAVE THE POWER OF KNOWING AND THE POWER OF CREATION TO PRODUCE THE IDEA INTO BEING.

fulcrum upon which to base your creating power. YOU HAVE TO KNOW. Are there interim "fulcrums" upon which a given man can base his LEARNING?

Yes indeed, and herein I KNOW that I CAN do so AND offer you learning that you might come to KNOW and in that KNOWING, learn to create from Mind Idea. THERE IS NO WAY THAT YOU CANNOT EXPRESS, FINALLY, THE IDEA—IF THE DESIRE OF MIND IS WHOLLY FOCUSED ON THAT IDEA. YOU WILL HAVE THE POWER OF KNOWING AND THE POWER OF CREATION TO PRODUCE THE IDEA INTO BEING.

Here comes another difficult thought unless you are willing to learn: Neither Man nor any moving thing in the universe has power WITHIN ITSELF to do anything. Does this sound like a contradiction of what I have said prior to now? It isn't. Why? Because GOD IS and the YOU that YOU are perceiving yourself to be is NOT. YOU ARE NOT THAT PHYSICAL EXPRESSED AS YOU. YOU are that invisible essence of soul MIND. God shall gather and regain HIS fragments from where HE pleases, when HE pleases, how HE pleases and shall "bring home" whom HE pleases according to His CONDITIONS.

Let us now look at the next obvious sequence in realization of anything. I may well have knowing and mind capability but my DESIRE is that YOU function. I already realize that I KNOW and that I AM. You who serve with me, however, must realize that you are the reflection of that which came before—THE IDEA. KNOWING WHO AND WHAT I AM GIVES ME A BIT OF LEVERAGE FOR I RECOGNIZE MY FULCRUM AND THE POWER OF MY KNOWING IN THE STILLNESS OF THAT WHICH IS ALL.

MECHANICAL PRINCIPLES

Since you do not fully comprehend the principles as they exist in that one Magnetic Stillness of God we shall have to offer a foundation upon which you can relate to the subject.

The mechanical principle by means of which power is expressed by the Creator is in the light waves of two-way motion. This records His two-way thinking: out and back. Waves are two-way cycles which are divided equally to express the two desires of Mind to create form images of Mind imagining and to destroy those forms sequentially for reforming.

Waves of motion spring from the stillness of the universal equilibrium. They are the universal heart-beat which manifests eternal life and power in God's stillness by eternal REPETITIONS OF SIMULATED LIFE and power as expressed in waves of motion. Waves of motion express the power of desire for unbalance and motion, which is Light at rest, and they also express the opposing desire for balance and rest which is motion.

Desire in the One Light of Mind is "positive". Its expression in the two lights of opposed motion is "negative". Every expression of power in Nature is negated by its opposite expression. Here we begin to touch on "cause" and "effect".

We also come to confront the SENSES; Mind can contain the WHOLE idea but the senses are limited to the perception of but one of these actions (negations) at a time, and then only in small fractions of whole cycles. If the senses could record the whole of each cycle both ways, they would record stillness, not motion, for every action would be voided by its oppositely flowing reaction.

SEX

This may well get sensing Man's attention but I don't think you will have as much "fun" with my explanation. The still magnetic Light of the Father of all Creation is One. The One Light is the positive principle. IT IS CAUSE.

The moving electric father-mother lights of all Creation are two. Moreover, the TWO are opposites of each other. The two negate each other. They are the intercommunicating nerves of the universal body, like those of Man's body through which he SENSES things. They have no existence except in awareness of each other. They are but an aberrant extension of Mind imagining which senses that which they but manifest.

Each electric opposite conditions the other with sex unbalance. Each sexed condition gives unbalance to the other to separate each from each to increase the power of each to oppose each. Each then gives of itself to the other to void the unbalanced condition of each other. In order to effect balance in each, each must become the other. The charging one must discharge and the discharged one must charge. Voidance of unbalance can only come that way. Likewise, repetition can come only that way.

The electric universe is the NEGATIVE principle. IT IS EFFECT. The two moving lights of the electric universe are two equal halves which express themselves in opposite directions. Their sole purpose is to oppose. Opposites which violently oppose and void each other can never become one, nor can they attract each other.

SENSING MANKIND

We will pause here long enough to turn to the PERCEPTIONS as are conditioned into men and women for the purpose of procreation, pleasure, pain, whatever is the most current concept of what is projected that you SHOULD "FEEL". This has little to do with the foregoing subject in discussion. Man has chosen to call the act of intercourse, sex. He also calls it "making love". It is actually NEITHER. It is the act of expression of something, rarely love in any recognition and neither does it actually express "sex" as in mixed pairs because the more current attitude is to "stick it into anything that wiggles". This hardly represents the truest and most responsible defining of either sex or love. You degrade and debase the very most beautiful expression of the principle of LIFE.

Man physical bases his every move on SENSING. His senses will betray him, deceive him, degrade him, and destroy him. What he believes to be power and emotional fulfillment is but an extension of the very insecurity which causes him to misuse the wondrous acts of what should be a balancing and voidance experience. He sacrifices all for the act of sensing which is, at best, mortal illusion. Mind of God doesn't push forward these "ideas"—MAN'S MENTAL ATTITUDES

Man physical bases his every move on SENSING. His senses will betray him, deceive him, degrade him, and destroy him. What he believes to be power and emotional fulfillment is but an extension of the very insecurity which causes him to misuse the wondrous acts of what should be a balancing and voidance experience. He sacrifices all for the act of sensing which is, at best, mortal illusion.

BRING FORTH THESE SENSING DELUSIONS. THESE ACTIVITIES IN INCORRECT PERCEPTION AND PRACTICE BRING GREATER IMBALANCE TO THE BEING AND WILL EXHAUST THE PARTICIPANTS BOTH CREATIVELY AND SENSUALLY. EVENTUALLY THERE IS NO MEANING SAVE "LUST" IN THE INTERCHANGING OF PHYSICAL SENSING. THE VERY ACT OF FOCUSING ONLY ON THE "PHYSICAL" ASPECTS OF EMOTIONAL INTERCHANGE IS AN ENERGY SHORT-CIRCUIT.

To be able to grow in the intelligent perception of what is LIFE and from whence it seems to "flow" is beyond the sensing desires of a nerve-strung entity which is a higher thought projection of GOD'S MAGNETIC ONE LIGHT MIND. However, in the creation of you, His thoughts, He allows for FREE-WILL CHOICES SO THAT YOU, TOO, MAY BECOME A PERFECTLY BALANCED CREATOR. YOU CANNOT CREATE FROM LIGHT IF YOU CONTINUALLY ACT AND HIDE IN THE DARKNESS WHILE AVOIDING DISCOVERY OF YOUR DEEDS AT ALL COST. If it must be hidden, dear ones, it is most often

WRONG ACTION WHICH IS A REFLECTION OF WRONG INTENT. A good reminder of what I mean is the couple who indulge in illicit sexual encounter and then decide that "if it feels this good it must be good!" No, it is a mutual cop-out of responsible choices wherein there is such lack of self-discipline as to cause me to discount every other action those two might ever accomplish. If a man cannot control his sensing body—HE CAN CONTROL NO ASPECT OF HIS LIFE STREAM FOR THE IDEA AND DESIRE IS FROM THE ONE LIGHT OF HIS MIND. MAN CAN NOT ONLY CONTROL HIS ACTIONS IN THE SENSING WORLD—BUT HE CAN CONTROL HIS MIND AND THOUGHT PATTERNS.

It's Tax Free Nevada (The last of the "safe havens")

Ah, the rebuttal is that there is "no fun in your world of goodness". Fine, then stay out of it—however, you haven't had any time left over from your limitation of thoughts to even begin to conceive the wonders and "fun" of a Universal expression. "It feels good," you excuse selves for lack of responsible actions. I ask if you find unwanted pregnancies, abortions, angry sexual practices, sadism, and other "sensing" things to be of such "feel good" results? If you think a sexual encounter with someone is so great then I suggest that you have never felt the TOUCH OF GOD upon your being, for there is no THING which is so electric, so charged, so wondrous as that KNOWING in HIS ALLNESS.

Argue with me? Forget the arguments for you have nothing upon which to base any debate OR argument if you have not felt BOTH. I can further promise you that once you experience the Electric Universal TOUCH of God, you will choose no other "lover" and, moreover, you will KNOW the meaning of "LOVE". Yes indeed, it will feel good, it will feel RIGHT and it will be blossomed in the LIGHT OF DAY and not hidden in the darkness of dark rooms, deceit and lies. And, in that KNOWING you will realize the POWER which overcomes all negative confrontations. Without FEAR you shall be able to go forth, yes, into the sensing world and WIN the goals established, for MIND IN KNOWING PRODUCES FROM THE DESIRE OF ACHIEVING THE GOAL IMAGINED. The higher the goal the more wondrous the achievement. If the desire is present and the belief is present—YOU WILL LEARN HOW TO ACCOMPLISH THE FEAT—THE MIND WILL OFFER THE WAY WITH AND THROUGH IDEAS.

If your goal is to have big and bulging muscles then you are going to have to exercise the ones you already have. If you want KNOWING then you are going to have to exercise the MIND YOU ALREADY HAVE. If your goal is not worthy of effort then you have no worthy goal!

I will leave this lesson early today because we have a meeting this afternoon and this offers quite enough to chew on and hopefully digest. The truth is so basically simple that it seems to evade most people and always eludes them at first encounter. You want God to be some old man of the mountain. NO, HE IS THE ONE LIGHT OF ALL POWER AND FROM THAT ONE LIGHT COMES ALL CREATION WITHIN AN ELECTRICALLY ENERGIZED UNIVERSE.

Please consider your CHOICES wisely for the middle of the road is no longer available. You are either FOR GOD or YOU ARE AGAINST HIM. There truly IS NO middle ground, readers. There are all manners of "in-between" ACTIONS of SENSING MAN, but no middle ground concerning Right and Wrong perceptions of either living or of God's conditioning. Evil is anything that is not of God and if you move FROM God, even if claiming you are "correct" or "right" and are NOT, you have accomplished Evil in, at the least, INTENT. When you falsely damage another in his/her attempt to move toward God, you compound the Evil perpetration. In every instance there is CHOICE. What do YOU choose? I don't speak of defense, readers, for Man must also stand and defend self and he must take that stand WITH AND WITHIN GOD. IF GOD IS NOT WORTHY OF YOUR STANCE IN HIM THEN YOU HAVE NO WORTHY GOD! YOU ARE A MIRACLE MANIFEST—ARE

YOU WORTHY OF THE HONOR?

Yes indeed I AM. Moreover, I am humble and honored to be allowed this KNOWING. I have only that truth to share for all else is of no value. But, you can KNOW, that I will take my stand openly and through my people and when you commit crime or pain against my people you have committed it against myself and there will be no quarter in the response. Evil shall fall under its own sword of lies, deceit, hidden agendas, and basic EGO greed. You might want to check your attitude.

Thank you for your attention and may understanding be your comfort. Good morning.

DEATH AFTER LIFE OR LIFE AFTER DEATH?

I wish to take up a few writings on various topics to which I can later refer after we have offered Tom Astley's fine definitive diagrams and sketches. We can, of course, draw from the pictures of cosmic demonstrations when we arrive at that point of reference to stars, constellations, planets, etc.

Many of you are going to try to reference our material to that of which was presented by Walter Russell during the early part of your 20th century. If you wish to do so then I suggest you get the books offered by the University of Science and Philosophy in Virginia. I have never sanctioned and do not sanction any work of that institute or Walter Russell other than his presentation on LIGHT and his observations of the serious hazard of nuclear bombs and materials.

When you as a people stop the silliness you can begin to look forward to the transformation of Man.

And what of this transformation process? Well, you have to understand more about your SOURCE than you now seem to grasp. You have to know "what is Man" and what is "transformation" and the relationship of energy to matter.

TRANSFORMATION OF MAN

"When Man shall at last know God he shall then be transformed." Ah, but how can you recognize God if you don't even know what YOU are?

Dynamic knowledge of the identity and presence of God within the Soul of Man, and throughout the whole of Nature, is a necessary stage through which the human race must make passage before it is possible to build an enduring civilization of unity and brotherhood IN FREEDOM.

The reason Man has never really known God is because he is still in his intellectual infancy and his ideals and practices are still quite "pagan" as would be defined in a dictionary, and is mostly barbarous in presentation. I do apologize to the ones labeled "pagan" as in the aboriginal tribes, for it is indeed a most stupid projection from the ones who present such misrepresentations.

To KNOW God, Man must know LIGHT and its energy, magnetism, electricity and gravitation, and realize God's processes in the building of bodies which manifest His own presence and His purposes.

No man has yet known these things.

The concepts of modern sages regarding them are totally unlike God's processes but are reflected in opinions of unknowing bedevilers. Man must come to understand and know the "mysteries" of life, death, and growth, and of the seed into which even the giant oak

When you as a people stop the silliness you can begin to look forward to the transformation of Man. And what of this transformation process? Well, you have to understand more about your SOURCE than you now seem to grasp. You have to know "what is Man" and what is "transformation" and the relationship of energy to matter.

Transmutation is the most simple of all principles of Nature, at least ten thousand times more simple than what is now being dangerously and expensively done. The first step toward it is to discover that matter and motion are TONAL, and thoroughly controllable. The elements are not substances. They are but states of motion, which can be controlled by knowledge and electric power. The present concept, which makes it necessary to knock out an electron from one element to transmute to another, is contrary to Nature's working. No one would think of trying to knock out one part of a sound to make it into another sound, or to take an arm from a man to transmute him into a horse. This is what science is trying to do, however, by knocking an electron from mercury, for instance, to produce gold. There are no electrons in the elements to "knock out", in any case, as you shall be given to see.

Frank and Ernest

disappears and yet continues to retain its total identity.

The concepts of these modern foolish speakers are simply conclusions of Man regarding the result of his physical sensing. His MIND has never yet pierced their illusions. He still senses EFFECTS without knowing CAUSE.

These things shall be given you to come to KNOW, and when you comprehend them within your inner Self, you will then recognize GOD. If we are to change and reverse the path from the chaos back into order, transmutation need surely occur. Transmutation needs but the comprehension of a few men of vision, men whose minds are not fixedly closed to make such a reality, and please note I did not say "visualization", as would be to sit and chant or picture a tree, etc. I mean "of vision" in openness to see and hear that which flows within and not from the projections of another from without.

TRANSMUTATION

Transmutation is the most simple of all principles of Nature, at least ten thousand times more simple than what is now being dangerously and expensively done. The first step toward it is to discover that matter and motion are TONAL, and thoroughly controllable. The elements are not substances. They are but states of motion, which can be controlled by knowledge and electric power. The present concept, which makes it necessary to knock out an electron from one element to transmute to another, is contrary to Nature's working. No one would think of trying to knock out one part of a sound to make it into another sound, or to take an arm from a man to transmute him into a horse. This is what science is trying to do, however, by knocking an electron from mercury, for instance, to produce gold. There are no electrons in the elements to "knock out", in any case, as you shall be given to see.

As we have moved along on the subject of Who and What is GOD we have to look first at the centering fulcrum which is the total beingness and totality of God in Balance.

God's thinking is universal. God's actions spring from HIS THINKING; therefore, it becomes obvious that God's actions are also UNIVERSAL. Thoughts do not take place only here or there where they seem to begin; they are everywhere and their beginning and ending are ONE. Actions, likewise, are as Omnipresent as their Source in mind-thinking. That which happens anywhere happens everywhere in this universe of nothing-but-Mind-extension.

GOD CENTERING

Someone had to think "wheel" in concept to fill a need in IDEA before there could be the useful manifest tool of a round wheel. If a committee of political buffoons created the original wheel I'm relatively quite sure it would be FLAT or SQUARE, even perhaps triangular or rectangular.

God's Mind centers all things, all minerals, all vegetables, all animals, and every cell which constitutes their bodies. HE gives life and purpose to all things. Bodies acquire awareness of purpose only through electrical messages of command from Mind which centers them, for no body could otherwise move, survive or fulfill its purpose without being centered and polarized by Mind. Cells, glands, white or red blood cells, hormones, and other parts of bodies must fulfill their purposes. In themselves they are helpless to move on or act their parts in Nature's plan. Each part and each whole of all cell groups is centered by the Intelligence which centers the whole structure, whether ant, horse, rose or man. Every creating particle of matter in the universe is a polarized Mind-extension. When each particle disappears to rest for each pulsation interval it withdraws within that Intelligence from which it extended as a patterned form of idea.

Man is the consummate element! It is not a part of God's intent that simple carbon should have inner awareness of its divine origin and identity, but it is intended that Man should have. Carbon may comprise the foundational element of MAN but does not represent SOUL. Mind and Soul centers every carbon crystal, nevertheless, or it could not fulfill its own purpose as being "a part of" the patterned blueprint of, say, a tree or a Man.

In all the vast universe there is nothing except Mind and thought-motion. All motion is but an electric recording of the Mind-thought which centers it. It is also the record of the idea it simulates. In the idea, of course, there represents purpose as presented as idea. In the electric recording, therefore, the mechanics of idea, thought and purposefulness are lodged, otherwise the Creator could not create any more than you can create a table from its various parts. As with the table as example, you first have to "think" an idea of need, mentally form the idea into a pattern, and assemble in idea all the component parts you think you need; then, according to the mental image, structure the item from component parts properly assembled, and then ultimately you have manifested a table to suit the idea of need for use.

Someone had to think "wheel" in concept to fill a need in IDEA before there could be the useful manifest tool of a round wheel. If a committee of political buffoons created the original wheel I'm relatively quite sure it would be FLAT or SQUARE, even perhaps triangular or rectangular.

Now for a bit of a concept which may, at first glance, seem contradictory but is not. You have to know that God DOES NOT EXTEND His "Self" into His moving universe, for the God-Light is STILL. Its very stillness CENTERS all things, and it, likewise, CENTERS the shafts of all motion which turn around it, shafts which are levers of fulcrums and end at poles which measure extension.

Nothing exists but God. Man exists as ONE with God, but until he is aware of his Oneness, he is but a thought-recording image of God's imagining. Some day he will know, however, for that is God's intent in creating Man in the first place. Know therefore that the concept or seeming motion merely simulates God's knowing, and God's qualities, and the purposefulness of His divine drama of Creation. Simulations are not reality, however, nor do they actually exist. Imaginings come and go. They change and have dimension. God's imaginings are not God. Remember that the play is NOT the Playwright.

When you consider the tiny "parts" of the "whole" you can possibly begin to assemble the "idea" of that "whole" for all the parts have been so scattered through confusion as to be a difficult task of sorting out the chaff from the grain.

As you come into knowing of that which you ARE, THE DAYS OF THE BEAST ARE NUMBERED AS LIGHT IS SHED ON THE DARK DEALINGS TAKING PLACE ALL ABOUT YOUR GLOBE—IN TOTAL MISREPRESENTATION OF THAT WHICH IS GOD AND/OR "YOU". Since the MIND is all there IS, then you have to realize that dastardly deeds are but the actions of DARK THINKING. This is never "accidental" but must always be intentional. Therefore, as mind is directed, so too shall be all actions of

CONTACT: The Phoenix Project

CONTACT is a unique and inspired newspaper for concerned citizens everywhere, though it particularly focuses on the United States because of this country's special mission in the affairs of the world. That is, "As goes the United States, so goes the world."

CONTACT is a vehicle for Commander Gyeorgos Ceres Hatonn's most recent writings on important current affairs, plus those from other en-light-ening sources, on matters critical to a responsible and informed public at this time of planetary transition and final days of battle between the Forces of Light and the "Evil Empire" forces of darkness.

CONTACT exists to counteract the manipulating lies and clever half-truths put out (on purpose) by the regular print and broadcast media prostitutes of the Satanic Elite controllers—parasites who are in the process of economically, physically, and spiritually collapsing this once great country (and actually the entire planet) down to a slave-state level of existence under their diabolical control plan called The New World Order.

This newspaper, CONTACT, began life on March 30, 1993, risen, like the mythical bird, with great determination "up from the ashes" of its internationally acclaimed predecessor called THE PHOENIX LIBERATOR.

THE PHOENIX LIBERATOR, in turn, began life in mid-October of 1991, having evolved from an earlier newsletter called the PHOENIX JOURNAL EXPRESS, which itself came into existence as a faster way to get THE TRUTH out to you readers than was possible with the more substantial "book" format of the PHEONIX JOURNALS. Much incredible ground has been covered so far in that mission.

While the PHOENIX LIBERATOR's motto reminded all that "The Truth Will Set You Free", the CONTACT's motto, displayed prominently in the masthead, takes that thought another important step forward and proclaims: "Ye Shall Know The Truth And The Truth Shall Make You Mad!"

The "Phoenix Project" is about those preparations needed—at body, mind and soul levels—to both understand and survive the great healing changes which are beginning to energize this beautiful little planet, now so frazzled and tortured from abuses of all kinds. We look forward, with great expectations, to the CONTACTing with all of you—a coming together that is rapidly taking place as the entire Phoenix Project "ground crew" continues to connect, solidify, and gain strength through becoming informed of THE TRUTH. Indeed, welcome aboard, friends!

ELECTRIC BODIES

We are, ALL, electric entities in one form or another. The human body resonates within given frequencies according to the makeup of their forms. The energy portion resonates at a much higher frequency and establishes the REAL "you" of yourself. One of the most important LESSONS you must learn and recognize instantly, if you would make passage into higher dimensions in full acceptance of status—IS WHO AND WHAT YOU ARE!

All things within the Universe are established (manifest) through the ONE "Idea" of Creator to establish that which IS within the Universe as "CREATION". As we unfold more of the mysteries of manifestation and the ability of life-forms to have "function" and "motion" you MUST HAVE ELECTRICITY. This does NOT mean you plug yourself into the wall socket of the electric company, but that your only ability to be mobile is through this network of electric pulses which work through your individual body's conduits called "nerves".

There are many things which happen in this flow of electric impulses through this wondrous and complex network of nerves. If, for instance, the frequency of the impulses through this circuit is increased, the body will sharpen up and the energy flow will increase exponentially. However, the wondrous side-effect of that circumstance is that every parasitic invader and squatter in the form of microbes will be disenfranchised. The actual body is made to have a much higher frequency than is now established in your "deadened" world of potentially reduced energy flow. In this reduced machinery you are subject to pick up every known "bad bug" and PARASITE.

PARASITES

The definition of parasite is something that lives OFF another "something". There are quadzillions of parasitic people and there are umpteen parasitic beasts from flukes to cryptosporidium in the water supplies carrying their own little viruses to invade you with a drink of water. Keep your electric flow at their comfortable rate of frequency and you will eventually die of parasitic invaders or diseases produced by them and their own hangers-on.

In the normally functioning human body, for instance, there are on average OVER TWO POUNDS OF PARASITES. These little critters, among other things, release microbials and, worse than all things, cause severe malnutrition which is usually represented by FAT ENCRUSTED bodies. If, for instance, you are grossly overweight and nothing can be found wrong with you—you are carrying parasites which convert all they can get their dirty little mouths on into FAT for storage for later use in case you make a mistake and lose the fat. You may not prepare for your emergencies—but PARASITES, of every known kind, DO.

INCREASE YOUR FREQUENCY

How do you increase your frequency? Well, you can do it through simply upping your focus and you can also do it by electrical stimulation. The frequency will electrify the cellular structure, whatever it is, and that can easily be done with a nine volt battery and a couple of silver electrodes (99.999% pure silver IF you are making colloid). If you set up your "device" so that the electrodes are on "pulse points" the electric impulses will pass through the skin and directly impact the blood as it flows. This in turn will move through the body and eventually electrify every cell according to its function. What happens is that charges will be set forth that will repel both parasites and all "foreign" microbials. Since they can't then "attach" or infiltrate the normal cells, they will die and within about three to four weeks all residual broken-down debris will be discarded through the waste management system.

Since these little devices are unlawful to sell for healing purposes it is difficult to get such easily obtained devices because THEY WORK—EVERY TIME. You can't expect Baron Rothschild to let you have a "battery hookup" for 25 cents when he can sell you drugs at $150 a pill!

OVER-FAT

I can guarantee that anyone who is obese with no known cause is floating parasites far greater than only two pounds. Get rid of the parasites and you WILL, after about three weeks, begin to drop fat weight like gangbusters, no matter if you do or do not change your eating habits.

Could we tell you where to get such a thing? Yes, and after we have a bit more input so you can justify being a part of a research project, we will. First, however, our own team needs to use anything we offer so that we do not fall to regulations violations.

COLLOIDS

The next logical question from you is to inquire about dropping from use the colloids if you are "electric"? No, don't do that because there are other properties in colloidal silver and also in gold which compound the effectiveness of such devices. I don't have much to offer about the "run-of-the-mill" colloids for I can only speak for "ours" which is already electrically increased to the level of Selenium which is beyond that of gold but is unstable. You will also have a problem with decreased value if silver colloid is exposed to light. I am trying to get our people to stop the transparent bottles because light decreases the holding power of the particulate. DRIAS flourish and increase frequency in sunlight—other things are diminished and this is because of "short-out" potential.

What do I mean? Well, some of you will experience what Dharma has had happen to her FREQUENTLY. There will be a spark of brilliant light flash through what will SEEM TO BE the peripheral vision of the eyes. No, it is a nerve "discharge" which presents as LIGHT. Many of you experience this and simply are not aware. The only place you can actually "see" the discharge is around the eye where the "rods" of the peripheral vision mechanism "sees". You may well "feel" these "tweaks" in your body but they will not "show" except in the dark and if the flashes are surface discharges. Moreover, this will occur most prevalently in an eye with what are recognized as "floaters" and especially if those "floaters" have encapsulated mineral particles.

New Gaia Products Offer Help

GaiaCol

GaiaCol is a combination of Colloidal Silver and Trace Colloidal Gold. This combination of ingredients has produced a product that is so high frequency and potent that it could quite possibly be the solution to our ongoing fight against the new antibiotic-resistant diseases that we face today. Colloidal Silver was used extensively and very successfully against bacteria, virus, fungi and the like before the advent of the first antibiotic, penicillin. The uses of Colloidal Gold were also significantly used in the restoration of health as early as 1885 and was noted for its ability to calm and harmonize the emotional body. Once the chemical companies began manufacturing the myriad of antibiotics, silver and gold were no longer looked to for treatment. The antibiotics they were producing, however, produced no effect on the more resistant viruses, fungi and parasites. Now we face a new generation of bacteria that are completely resistant to any antibiotics merely due to antibiotic over-prescribing and resultant survival of the fittest bacteria.

Research has demonstrated that Colloidal Silver is nontoxic to humans and allows no presently known disease-causing organism to live in its proximity. With the addition of Trace Colloidal Gold the frequency of GaiaCol is remarkably enhanced to allow these newer, more powerful viruses and bacteria to be eliminated. GaiaCol is gentle enough to use topically on just about any skin, hair or mouth condition without fear of toxicity and is outstanding for burns.

For internal use during any type of infectious process, start with one teaspoon the first day and then 10-12 drops, 3-4 times per day under the tongue until the infection clears. Then maintain with 3-4 drops, 3-4 times per day under the tongue. Important: Due to the powerful nature of this product, friendly bacteria can be affected so it is advisable to replace the natural intestinal flora with some type of acidophilus/lactobacillus supplement daily or at least when symptoms are noted such as cramps, bloating, diarrhea/constipation and a general feeling of malaise.

GaiaCol is said to be safe for children and pets and can be taken with other medications without incident. This product is not addictive and does not build up a tolerance to it in the body. 2oz., 16oz. & 32oz.

GaiaGold

GaiaGold is a solution of 100% Colloidal Gold which is one of the oldest used substances for medicinal purposes and has no equal in affecting the physical body positively. Around 1885, colloidal gold was commonly used in the United States as the basis for the cure of alcoholism with additional uses including treatment of Arthritis, skin ulcers, burns and certain nerve damages. Colloidal gold does not have the same Germicidal/Antibiotic action of Colloidal Silver when topically applied, but it does have tremendous effect if taken internally for such as Syphilis and other diseases.

Colloidal Gold has been noted for its tremendous ability to balance and harmonize the emotional body, particularly in regards to unstable mental and emotional states such as "depression", "autism", "Alzheimer's", etc. Gold has further been found to aid in the healing of heart muscle and is highly beneficial in rejuvenating sluggish organs—especially the brain—as gold is the best electrical conductor yet recognized for nerve action. Another use for Gold is in cases of glandular and nervous incoordination because Colloidal Gold is said to rejuvenate the glands and stimulate the nerves which releases the pressure and allows the signals for function to reach through to the various organs and glands.

GaiaGold intake can benefit self-control in diet and quit-smoking programs because it helps to balance the brain's craving or need for such indulgence or addiction. Taken in conjunction with GaiaCol, overall renewed vitality and longevity may be achieved. 2 oz., 16oz. & 32oz.

What you readers must learn to discern are the differences in such Light and the totality of GOD-LIGHT. One affects the body physical and the other is the very basis of all energy "life". When YOU realize the differences involved here you will reach a point of KNOWING that you can enhance your own system as Creator can enhance your energy being. But you cannot do this IF YOU DON'T KNOW HOW. And, furthermore, if it takes all of infinity for you to come into that "knowing", so be it—for we can only provide the "way" and can't do anything FOR you. This is why it is so absolutely ridiculous for you to believe another Man could take away YOUR "SINS". That "other" can only deal with his own and you must deal with yours.

I am continually saddened as I watch and serve for I find it difficult to understand that Man has been gifted with the abundance of everything he needs and could desire to become perfection as well as "Creator"; yet he sleeps and whines and turns away in fear and deliberate cowardice to the evil of physical journey.

It is ordained that we do this job together for I am your "elder" in that I have the ability to retain and experience those things offered by even "higher" teachers. I can share that wisdom I offer; I cannot cram it down your proverbial throats. Proof of presence can only come from and into the "within" and then, all within must be brought without that the journey can become one of directed and wise choices, away from that which locks you to a brief span of perceived "time" upon an elusive "place".

CREATOR/CREATION

God, the Creator, is ALL there IS; all that actually "exists". God's creating universe of matter in motion appears to exist. To your senses it sequentially disappears, only to reappear. But, it has no ACTUAL reality for it but simulates reality through the illusion of those two-way projected lights in motion of which we spoke prior to this. God, the Creator, is the ONE Being, the ONE Person, the ONE Mind, the ONE Thinker, the ONE Self, the ONE Life, THE ONE SOUL, THE ONE POWER, the ONE Reality, THE Great Mystery, THE ONE GREAT SPIRIT.

God's Creation is the imaged, patterned form of God's imagining (idea, manifestation).

God is Light; God is Universal Mind; Mind is Light, and MIND KNOWS.

Mind must, however, first "think" what it knows and this Mind thinks in two opposed lights simultaneously projected from their balanced centering White Light Source and sequentially repeated in cycles—spiraling cycles.

God's "knowing" are qualities of God's thinking and imagining and are then manifest through the projected thought of God.

What is perceived as "motion" is only that, an "appearance" or "perception", for all is centered in the "stillness". Stillness NEVER can be motion, or ever become motion, but it certainly does APPEAR to be. Motion merely "seems to be". STILLNESS ALWAYS IS. The universal equilibrium can never be other than its own balance but it also can certainly "seem" to be. The illusion which is motion springs from stillness and returns again to stillness. This is a universe of rest, in actuality. There is nothing but rest in the universe. Therefore there can only be perception of fragmentation of ideas and separate pairs of the whole. Mind knows its ONE Idea of Creation as ONE Whole.

Mind thinks its One Whole idea into seeming parts. Hence you have the illusion of motion which we here call "Creation", and the illusion of substance which we call matter but is but coalesced energy/LIGHT. I have previously offered a journal dealing with this subject of matter, anti-matter, "no-matter", and then referred to "What's the Matter?". It got banned from distribution. Therefore, readers, you can pretty well know it was ACCURATE. The "what's the matter" is that which builds up to the understanding of the other three. The universal equilibrium can never be other than its own balance but it can seem to be. You can actually gauge your own journey and your place within it by the amount of unrest and chaos, lack of order and hyper-motion you perceive and reflect from the passing lights playing throughout the wondrous illusion. I refer to this as the delusion of the illusion.

The perception of this "universe" will seemingly present as two universes: the still cosmic Mind universe of KNOWING, and that other one, the seemingly moving thought-of-Mind rhythmic wave universe of sensing.

We cannot SENSE the cosmic universe of God's knowing nor can we KNOW the thought-wave universe of God's thinking. The cosmic Mind universe of the One Light of all-knowing is all that is, readers. The vibrating thought-wave universe of sensing merely "seems to be". Reminder: There is but ONE MIND and ONE THINKER.

We can know God but we cannot know HIS body as such, although you can look around you and SEE IT in every thing seen and unseen. Likewise you can know Man. You cannot, however, know the "body of Man" but you can see it. Readers, what God IS—Man IS. Whether you can grasp the concept or not, God and Man are but ONE—of and within the ONE LIGHT.

COSMIC LIGHT

It has been brilliantly stated (pun intended) that "The one still Light of God is the cosmic Light which watches over all creatING things at countless points locatable by man, but invisible to man."

Man's senses have misled him into believing in a force called magnetism which attracts compass needles and lifts tons of steel. The phenomena of motion are due to electricity, and not to magnetism—frequencies and pulses, if you will, of invisible circuitry of all that

IS. The cosmic Light is absolutely still. It neither attracts nor does it repel in the true concept of the terms used.

You must, then, comprehend the nature and purpose of the "magnetic poles" of planets, suns, and any and all other moving extensions of the ONE Light. Likewise, you need to know the nature and purpose of the two electric workers which interweave this light illusion (mirage, aberration) of seeming motion and dissolve it sequentially for rebuilding. This will give a foundation of knowledge to Man which will enable him to see behind the illusions which deceive the senses.

The time has come and is sequentially passing in the history of Man's journey from his material jungle to his Spiritual mountain top when it is imperative that he must live more and more in the COSMIC LIGHT UNIVERSE OF "KNOWING", AND LESS IN THE ELECTRIC WAVE UNIVERSE OF "SENSING".

MAN MUST NOW KNOW THE UNIVERSE OF GOD FOR WHAT IT IS INSTEAD OF WHAT HIS SENSES HAVE CAUSED HIM TO BELIEVE IT TO BE. Your senses will deceive you at every opportunity.

THE SELF OF MAN IS "CAUSE". HIS SELF-CREATING BODY IS "EFFECT". However, God's universe of magnetic Light is STATIC.

PERCEIVED MOVEMENT

Be very careful in how you perceive the following statements regarding "movement" for God's perpetually creating electric wave universe comprised of the two moving lights is dynamic. It forever moves in the very sense of a perpetual motion reality. The two moving lights are projected through each from the static or stillness of the ONE to create the illusion of the idea they manifest in illusion. The illusion which manifests the idea of Creation through seeming motion is not the idea which it seemingly manifests. You must know the difference. Complicated? Not really, when you know and understand the concept.

Creation itself is the product of "Mind-knowing" EXPRESSED into form by Mind-Thinking. You cannot manifest a "thing" until you have experienced the "idea" of the "thing". Further, the product of Mind is not the idea which it simulates. No idea of Mind is ever created but, rather, it is simulated BY form and motion. Neither is the product of Mind that which it simulates. No idea of Mind is created as I just stated but realize that "Idea" is eternal and belongs to God's still universe of KNOWING.

You also need to realize that all forms of idea in matter are but transient; however, it is eternally repeated as a transient form of idea. The next realization regards "positive" and "negative" principles.

PRINCIPLES

KNOW that the foundation of the spiritual universe is stillness, the balanced stillness of the One magnetic Light of God. Balanced stillness is the POSITIVE PRINCIPLE of stability and unity. In it there are no "negations".

Next we must consider the "Negative Principle". The foundation of the physical universe is motion, the ever-changing motions arising out of pairs of unbalanced conditions which must forever move to seek the balanced stillness of unity, from which they sprang as multiple pairs of units.

Unbalanced motion is the Negative Principle of instability, multiplicity and separateness which is this physical universe of electric octave waves of opposed lights.

In the Negative Principle there is no positive. It is composed entirely of pairs of negations which are forever voiding each other, cancelling each other's action and reaction, thus negating each other by never allowing either one to exceed its fixed zero of universal stillness.

I find it quite difficult to express the total simplicity of these concepts in KNOWING for Man has complicated, through his languages, translations and misperceptions, the very tools necessary for understanding: explicit definitions in WORDS.

I must, however, get it across somehow that the still magnetic Light universe of God's knowing is an invisible, unchanging, unconditioned and unmeasurable quality from which visible, changing, conditioned and measurable quantities spring to simulate those qualities through two-way wave motion. You can, for instance, speak of "unconditional love" but that can only truly be described as being within the stillness of the unconditioned universe of God's knowing. There are multitudes of "conditions" in the sensing, visible, changing placement of Man. Until you can accept the realization of the ONENESS of Soul BEING you cannot understand correctly the difference in a "conditioned" state of reference relative to an "Unconditional" state of the Stillness of the Centered Balanced Universality of GOD.

Since there is not "one" word in any language to express that quality in point, you must use many words, all seeming to have the same general meaning but certainly expressing different connotations. These words are consciousness, mind, life, truth, love, desire, knowledge, power, balance, harmony and law which, in this latter instance, MEANS that law which is both natural and orderly.

The God-quality of the One Light is seemingly transformed into quantities by being divided into pairs of oppositely conditioned light pressure of this electric universe.

These divided pairs are then multiplied into countless octave wave units of light pressures and set in opposite directioned motion to create the illusion of sequence, change, dimension, condition and time in a universe where none of these effects of motion exist.

Example: The calm sea is an unchanging, unmeasurable quality of oneness, of sameness, and of stillness. Upon its calm surface there is no change, nothing to count or to measure. The moment that quantities of waves spring from that quality of calm, those quantities can be measured. This ability to "measure" is a literal perception. Likewise, they are forever changing and there become no parts in them which are similarly conditioned.

This creating electric universe is composed of moving light waves which spring from a calm sea of the One Still Light.

It is a universe of moving pairs of quantities which simulate the quality of stillness from which those quantities sprang. The quantities of divided and conditioned pairs of opposite lights which thus simulate the One are not the One they simulate.

The Creator is One Mind indivisible. Creation is One Whole Idea of Mind, expressed through motion as perceived. The simulation of Idea thus expressed is NOT the idea that it expresses.

Parts of the One Whole Idea are only seeming. There are no two separate or separable things in the universe. There is but One Whole Simulation of the One Whole Idea. Is this beginning to make any "sense" at all to you?

Everything that IS is of everything else that IS. All things are indissolubly united. All that is, in relationship to all that IS, is so that all becomes "for all my relations" (as presented in Lakota as "Mitakuye Oyasin") and this is all there is and that is.

The entire universe is one and must be kept in balance as one. Changes of condition in any one part are simultaneously reflected in every other part, and are sequentially REPEATED in it.

All things are omnipresent, for all things extend from Mind of God and, therefore, from me and from you and therefore WE are omnipresent.

All omnipresent things are therefore omniscient, for God is within all, and therefore we are within ALL. When Man's consciousness tells him of My presence within and without him he will then KNOW all things, for I know all things, and I am He. Can you realize this? If God is within Me and I AM WITHIN HIM and WE are ONE, both omnipresent and omniscient—there CAN BE NO SEPARATION OTHER THAN PERCEIVED AND YET MISINFORMED AS PERCEPTION. To all imaged forms of God's imagining, the power lies in them to manifest the balanced light which centers them, by making the One Light appear as two unbalanced lights which interchange sequentially but always, equally. All things which man senses are but "waves" of dual light which record God's electric thinking in the imagined form of that Imagining. Please be careful to be explicit with Imagining and Imaging for the two are NOT the same.

BREAKING BONDAGE

You will be able to break the bonds which bind you to the illusion, readers, but first, you must confront that which you have projected onto the screen of so-called "physical" life for you have forgotten what which is, truly and literally, LIFE.

As you move through the unfolding of truth in this realization you are going to have to KNOW that your very adversarial negative and unbalanced "non-friends" will disorient you, misinform, cunningly change word meanings and actually turn you away from GOD instead of into the Truth of God. That will be through misstatements and RE-defined word meanings.

I would remind every reader of a humorous happening which has come before and was repeated on Tuesday last. The adversary attorney, Horn, at the end of a grueling day of deposition interrogations which had NOTHING to do with the fact that the case is singularly about a "No-Sale" being held on the property for which Ekkers were there to buy their home, etc. I might add, it "appears" these depositions are demanded by "NON-parties" to the suit, for this suit does not involve either Santa Barbara Savings OR the Resolution Trust Corporation although both still are predominantly headlined on the Horn documents. Near the end of the interrogations where everything ELSE had been hounded, pounded and badgered into the questions, Horn actually leaned forward to Doris and asked coldly, "Are you Anti-Semitic?" Now, readers, what could that have to do with anything about a sale or non-sale? Of course he got away with doing this—he is Jewish and has called Doris Anti-Semitic prior to this.

Why? Because let us look carefully at the publicly defined term "Anti-Semitism": The "controlled" meaning is "A disparaging or antagonistic attitude, or hostile act toward a Jewish person, Jewish organization or the religion of Judaism." But, obviously that is not acceptable is it? So let us look at the "covert" intent as: Used to disarm, intimidate and confuse Christians and others into submission to Jews at the expense and eventual destruction of Christianity and all other belief systems based on anything other than the Zionist Talmud.

With these TWO things in mind, why do YOU think Mr. Horn would make a point of such an outrageous question which was actually projected and intended as an insulting statement in the form of a question. He was a bit taken aback when she instantly retorted, "No, I 'AM' a Semite." The perception of this man that "Jewish" and "Semite" mean the same thing is totally erroneous but the thought perception has been thrust forward to the extent that the GENERAL perception is the accepted norm. Do you realize, readers, that the term "Jew" is accepted as the term used for "race", "creed", "religion", and tax-exemption status?

In your English translations of the Bible, the word "Jew" was incorrectly entered into reference and has, since 1765, been used to replace other quite meaningful words—TO FOOL ALL THE PEOPLE ALL OF THE TIME—IF POSSIBLE.

"Jew" replaced: "Judahite" in the Old Scriptures, which referred to someone from the tribe of Judah, or a citizen of the land of Judah; and "Judean" in the New Scriptures which meant a resident of Judea, or a follower of the corrupted Babylonian religion of that area.

Since, then, there were NO "Jews" nor "Jewish religion" at the time of the writing of the Scriptures, these names should NEVER HAVE APPEARED IN THE ENGLISH TRANSLATIONS, NOR IN THE BOOKS OF ANY DOCTRINE OF ANY "CHURCH". THE WORDS "JEW" OR "JEWISH" DID NOT EXIST NOR APPEAR IN ACTUAL USE UNTIL OVER 1700 YEARS after the resurrection of that one you refer to as the "Christ", Jesus. In ALL cases the word "Jew" was incorrectly used in the English translations of ALL of the Bibles to replace the true word "Judahite" in the Old Scriptures and "Judean" in the New Scriptures. No true Prophet of God would even accidentally utilize these terms for any text DIRECTLY AND SUPPOSEDLY GIVEN FROM GOD. The terms are most ignorantly utilized and in ALL instances of use indicate either false writings or changes at the hands of "translators". There can be no other "divine" reason. This goes for any "church" anywhere.

We need to go back and again look at "Anti-Semitism" and at the actual meaning: Opposition toward people of Semitic (Shemitic) origin—WHICH BY FACT INDICATES ANTAGONISM AND HOSTILITY ON THE PART OF THE "JEWS" TOWARD THE GOD-REVERING PEOPLE. Note: Most people who call themselves Jews are NOT Semitic in origin (Descendants of Shem) but, in fact, come from the lineage of Cain and birthed though the very "Curse of Canaan" moving forward as Phoenicians, Venetians, Pharisees and Khazars into imitation "Jews". Shemitism (Semitism) has NOTHING to do with Jews, Jewish organizations, or Judaism. I believe we shall have to inform Mr. Horn of his lack of knowledge on his very own subjects!

The FACTS are that the Discovery Master SHOULD

HAVE DISMISSED THE DEPOSITION RIGHT THERE, PERMANENTLY! Can you see, readers, how it comes to be that you CANNOT have freedom and judicial justice with such misperceptions and allowances to run rampant all over you in every circumstance. At the least, there should be a return to that subject in the Easter INQUEST of the Ekkers as to EXACTLY HOW MR. HORN DEFINES ANTI-SEMITIC!! JUST AS HE HAD TO DEFINE "UNDER PENALTY OF PERJURY", HE MUST BE MADE TO DEFINE "ANTI-SEMITIC" AND EXPLAIN TO THE DEPOSITION DISCOVERY MASTER WHY HE CHOSE TO ATTACK MRS. EKKER IN SUCH MANNER WHICH WOULD HAVE JUDICIALLY AND CORRECTLY TOSSED HIM OUT OF COURT ON HIS EAR. At the very least he must be made to define his terms and return an answer and be required to respond to Mrs. Ekker's question of, "Are you, Mr. Horn, Anti-Christ"? What is the difference? It goes back in this instance to the differences in OATH recognition. A "Jew" takes the Kol Nidre and is encouraged by same to lie, cheat and whatever else he wishes to do—UNDER RELIGIOUS NEGATION OF ALL PRECEDING VOWS AND ALL UPCOMING (YEAR) OATHS. The "Christian", and all others, are somehow bound by having to tell the truth. Is this not interesting? Attorneys are not only given license (literally) to lie but are encouraged to do so if they can TRAP their opponents. If a lawyer denies this—YOU HAVE JUST HAD THE POINT PROVEN!

I will leave you to consider these things. Thank you for your time and interest. Good morning.

WORLD HEALTH ORGANIZATION ISSUES WORLDWIDE ALERT

The TIMES, London :

DRUG RESISTANT TB is poised to kill tens of millions of people across the world. The NEW plague, which will be far more widespread than AIDS, is "only a whisker away", the WHO announced in London. The strain which is airborne and more contagious than AIDS, has already infected people in London and New York. Dr. Almeida, medical officer for the WHO said "No one is safe; even the Queen is not immune. You cannot protect yourself by wearing a condom". MERLIN, the British medical relief agency which is helping to fight an epidemic in Chechnia and Siberia (see BOSNIA and Beyond Doc-IGWIC), has issued a warning that the drug resistant strains are emerging. "If the multi-drug resistant strains become predominant, we will be back in pre-antibiotic days", Dr. Almeida said. "All we will be able to do is pray and send people off to sanitariums like we did in the last century. There will be nowhere to hide except perhaps go to the moon." 300 million people will become infected, and each victim will infect 10-15 others EVERY YEAR! The WHO wants the world's governments to invest $500 million a year to fight the threat. The organization estimates that would save the lives of three million breadwinners. Dr. Almeida said: "The scale of the problem is far more vast than people seem to realize. One big OUTBREAK, and you will have governments scrambling to do something about it, BUT IT WILL BE TOO LATE."

Who will survive? Who will determine who survives? Who will accept the CHIP? / The medical ID Card? You are only seeing and hearing the Beginning of what Peter Kawaja has tried to tell you for 5-years now. THE SADDEST CHAPTER OF AMERICAS HISTORY IS ALREADY WRITTEN, IT IS BIBLE PROPHECY COMING TO PASS IN YOUR DAY.

GET READY FOR NATIONAL ID CARDS

From the March 20 issue of the (Los Angeles) DAILY NEWS, [quoting:]

WASHINGTON—In what critics said is the first step toward making Americans carry a national identification card [You KNOW it's coming], the House called Tuesday for a new Social Security card that would be as counterfeit-proof as a $100 bill [They killed TWO birds with THAT stone!]. The measure was adopted on a voice vote as part of a wide-ranging bill to stem the rising tide of both legal and illegal immigrants spilling over the nation's borders. [Same old clever Khazarian strategy works every time: create a problem, then give us a solution that meets THEIR agenda of stripping us of rights and freedom—CONTROL is the name of their game.]

Rep. Bill McCollum, R-Fla., said phony Social Security cards are now used by too many illegal immigrants as proof of U.S. citizenship in seeking jobs and government benefits. He said a tamper-proof card would make it easier for employers to weed out illegals from their job applicants. [Very slick.] McCollum's amendment directs the Social Security Administration to develop a card that would be as resistant to fraud as the U.S. passports issued by the State Department. But such a card would not necessarily have to include a photograph, he said. [Another aspect of their modus operandi: get a foot in the door and open it little by little. It starts out as a semi-plausible proposal to "fix" something—just a MODIFICATION of an already existing concept (Social Security card), then: you HAVE TO carry it, then: it's got your picture, fingerprints, voiceprint, credit history, criminal record, sexual habits, etc., etc...]

The 400-page immigration bill—co-sponsored by 128 lawmakers, most of them Republicans—would add 5,000 Border Patrol agents over five years [And what do you think THEY would be used for? Keeping you in, perhaps?]. It also would crack down on alien smugglers, document forgers and illegal immigrants who overstay temporary visas; and reduce annual legal immigration from 800,000 to about 560,000. In addition, the bill would favor spouses and minor children when admitting relatives, limit illegal immigrants' access to social services, bar members of foreign terrorist organizations and set up an 800-number for employers to check job hunters' eligibility to work. [And what's in the other 395 pages?]

WHAT ABOUT THAT NEW $100 BILL?

A glossy brochure on this subject, apparently the joint effort of the Department of the Treasury, the Office of the Treasurer of the United States and the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, arrived recently. Here's what it said, [quoting:]

The United States [As opposed to the united states of America?] is issuing currency [not "money"] with new security features. These enhancements make U.S. currency easier to recognize as genuine and more secure against advancing technologies which could be used for counterfeiting. [There's that "counterfeiting" song and dance again.] The redesigned notes incorporate both familiar and new features, while remaining recognizably American.

Beginning with the $100 Federal Reserve note in early 1996, the United States is issuing the newly redesigned currency one denomination at a time. Following the $100 bill, lower denominations ($50, $20, $10, etc.) are being introduced at the rate of about one denomination per year. There will be no recall or devaluation of any U.S. currency [YET].

THE NEED FOR CHANGE

The new currency series of bank notes represents an on-going commitment to protect the U.S. currency [A for-public-consumption, bold-face lie]. ...Now after nearly four generations, U.S. currency is undergoing a more noticeable change in appearance. And in the future, as new, dependable technology becomes available [i.e., "when we decide to spring the next degree of already-available technology on you"], the next generation of currency enhancements will be incorporated into the currency.

AGENT ORANGE, BIRTH DEFECT LINKED

Better late than never? This Associated Press release comes from the March 15 issue of the JOHNSON CITY (Tennessee) PRESS, [quoting:]

WASHINGTON—Children born to Vietnam veterans may be at increased risk of spina bifida, a serious birth defect, according to the latest scientific review of health problems linked to Agent Orange. The study, released Thursday by the Institute of Medicine as a re-evaluation of the Agent Orange health questions, found a "limited or suggestive" link between the herbicide and an above-average rate of spina bifida among children born to Vietnam veterans. An association also

WHAT'S NEW ABOUT YOUR MONEY

- 1 Portrait The enlarged portrait of Benjamin Franklin is easier to recognize, while the added detail is harder to duplicate. The portrait is now off-center, providing room for a watermark and reducing wear and tear on the portrait.
- 2 Concentric Fine Lines The fine lines printed behind both Benjamin Franklin's portrait and Independence Hall are difficult to replicate.
- 3 Watermark A watermark depicting Benjamin Franklin is visible from both sides when held up to a light.
- 4 Color-Shifting Ink The number in the lower right corner on the front of the note looks green when viewed straight on, but appears black when viewed at an angle.
- 5 Microprinting Because they're so small, microprinted words are hard to replicate. On the front of the note, "USA 100" is within the number in the lower left corner and "United States of America" is on Benjamin Franklin's coat.
- 6 Security Thread A polymer thread is embedded vertically in the paper and indicates, by its unique position, the note's denomination. The words "USA 100" on the thread can be seen from both sides of the note when held up to a bright light. Additionally, the thread glows red when held under an ultraviolet light.
- 7 Federal Reserve Indicators A new universal seal represents the entire Federal Reserve System. A letter and number beneath the left serial number identifies the issuing Federal Reserve Bank.
- 8 Serial Numbers An additional letter is added to the serial number. The unique combination of eleven numbers and letters appears twice on the front of the note.

The use of color reproductions was authorized by the Secretary of the Treasury. Color reprints are prohibited.

was found between the chemical and a nerve disorder that can cause temporary numbness.

The study is the second in a series of Institute of Medicine reports on Agent Orange. A law passed in 1991 calls for the National Academy of Sciences to review new Agent Orange and herbicide studies every two years to determine if the fresh research finds any added connection between the chemicals and disease. The Institute of Medicine is an affiliate of the National Academy of Sciences [which is itself, no doubt, an "insider affiliate"]. About 19 million gallons of Agent Orange, and other chemicals were used to defoliate trees in the jungles of Vietnam, starting in 1962. Studies in 1969 linked Agent Orange to birth defects in laboratory animals and use of chemical defoliants were halted within two years [probably no connection between the two events, either].

Institute of Medicine scientists evaluated the likelihood of the chemical causing various disorders reported by Vietnam veterans and established categories ranging from those with "sufficient evidence of an association" to those with no valid evidence of association. The latest study put spina bifida in the second-strongest category, called "limited or suggestive evidence of an association". [The same pattern is being repeated with Gulf War Syndrome: ignore the problem, deny the problem, pass a law to study the possibility of a problem, study the possibilities every year for 3 decades until all the affected parties are too dead or disheartened to care.]

FOUNDRY CHURCH SHENANIGANS: (WAS JESUS A "DRAG QUEEN"?)

This article by Texe Marrs comes from the March issue of his publication, FLASHPOINT, [quoting:]

Was Jesus a "drag queen"? Was the Apostle Paul a "self-hating gay man"? If you are as offended by these questions as I am, then you would certainly have been angered by the blasphemous and shocking message delivered from the pulpit during a homosexuality celebration held in December at President Clinton's church. Foundry United Methodist Church, in Washington, D.C., is regularly attended by the president and his daughter, Chelsea. [What's his motivation, I wonder?] On occasion, Hillary joins them—when she's not away on trips visiting her Hollywood pals.

For years, Senate Majority Leader Bob Dole was also an active member of this apostate church. [Hmmmm. Aren't you curious about what this "church's" real function is?] But this year, to win over the religious right, the political-minded Senator announced that he had left the church. However, Flashpoint has learned that Elizabeth, Bob Dole's wife, continues to attend Foundry Church. Moreover, Senator Dole has recently contributed tens of thousands of dollars from speaking fees to the church and fully intends to resume his attendance after the '96 elections.

The homosexual extravaganza held at Foundry Church was strikingly reminiscent of the events at Sodom and Gomorrah. Mark Tooley, a Methodist layman who attended, provided us this shocking report:

A homosexuality symposium at Foundry United Methodist Church in Washington, D.C. with keynote speaker Episcopal Bishop John Spong, featured ridicule of the Christmas Nativity story, speculation about Jesus as a "drag queen", praise for homosexual marriage, and a declaration that the Ten Commandments are "immoral". Foundry's regular Sunday worshippers include President and Mrs. Clinton. [Remember Cathy O'Brien's report in Trance Formation of America about the homosexuality of BOTH Clintons.] The day-long "celebration" at Foundry Church was organized by PFLAG (Parents, Families and Friends of Lesbians and Gays). Called "Sharing Our Rainbow of Light", the symposium speakers at times surprised even their mostly homosexual audience of several hundred persons with their denial of traditional religious beliefs [of which beliefs Texe Marrs is a vocal advocate]. Noting that he has 15 "out of the closet" priests in his own New Jersey diocese, Spong recalled with pride that the first woman he ordained in 1977 later declared her lesbianism. The pastor of the church, J. Philip Wogaman, was delighted. "Bishop Spong's remarks were so stimulating," Pastor Wogaman said. Wogaman also agreed with Spong that Israel's King David may well have been bisexual. He urged "covenantal unions" for homosexual couples and pledged that Foundry Church would be "welcoming to the homosexual community."

MAYOR PRAISED FOR "SYMPATHY VISIT" TO ISRAEL

From the March 13 issue of THE ORLANDO SENTINEL, [quoting:]

NEW YORK—New York City Mayor Rudolph Guiliani returned Tuesday from a sympathy visit to Israel and began reaping the political benefits of his gesture [That dummy is no dummy!]. The mayor was greeted warmly by a group of New York Jewish leaders, who lauded his trip to Jerusalem and Tel Aviv in the wake of the recent terrorist bombings. Guiliani recounted his two-day trip, which included visits with Leah Rabin, the widow of assassinated Prime Minister Yitzhak Rabin, and with Prime Minister Shimon Peres and opposition leader Benjamin Netanyahu. He also rode on the Jerusalem bus route that has been hit twice by Muslim suicide bombers [What an over-achiever!].

BUNNY MOWER

Spring is officially here. You may want to take a tip from this next article, from the February 22 issue of THE OREGONIAN, [quoting:]

Scientists at the Australian National University in Canberra have designed a silent, self-fueling and environmentally friendly lawn mower powered by rabbits. Visiting fellow Dr. Nigel Wace built a rolling rabbit run from recycled bicycle wheels, large-gauge wire, netting and buckets. Powered by Flotsam and Jetsam, two large male rabbits, the device is rolled to new pastures after the rabbits have nibbled the lawn beneath them, fertilizing as they go. Water and feed supplements are also given to the animals. Earlier trials involving a male and female rabbit were abandoned because the animals kept having sex. [They put that sex stuff in there just to keep our attention.]

HOW WE FORGET TO REMEMBER

This article from a recent issue of the LOS ANGELES TIMES provides tailor-made damage control for Hillary Clinton's "poor memory", as well as discrediting the testimony of those making allegations of mind control victimization, sexual abuse, and other politically incorrect charges, [quoting:]

As part of the Whitewater hearings, Hillary Rodham Clinton has been asked to remember a great many events that happened two or 10 years ago. When she can't remember, critics accuse her of lying. To prove their case, they point out contradictions between what she remembers and the memories of members of her own staff. Clearly, the critics conclude, someone is not telling the truth. But this kind of reasoning has memory experts gritting their teeth.

"It's ridiculous," said University of Washington memory expert Elizabeth Loftus. "People have forgotten far more important things than how many meetings they had or who was at them." For example, a significant proportion of people involved in minor car accidents had forgotten the incidents when interviewed merely a year later, Loftus said. In fact, psychologists say that memory is notoriously unreliable. Over time, psychologists say, people refashion their memories so drastically that most of us routinely remember things that never happened—while forgetting things that actually did.

STOCK MARKET JUST ANOTHER COMMODITY

From the March 14 issue of the (Los Angeles) DAILY NEWS, [quoting:]

Today, the one sure tip in the stock market is to buy any company that is about to be added to the Standard & Poor's 500. The market is full of mutual and pension funds and bank trust departments that must buy stock in every company on that 500. Each time a company is chosen to replace one that has merged or gone bust, there is a sizable demand for its stock, even if it has just published a lousy earnings report. Increasingly, the stock market itself has become just another commodity—as its recent volatility has shown. Instead of buying the stocks of individual companies, based on earnings and performance, increasing numbers of investors buy or sell "the market". Monday's rise on Wall Street, like Friday's fall, shows how much the market moves on bits and pieces of information far removed from the realities of business. In the old days, the Wall Street credo was to buy on the rumor and sell on the news. The winner was the guy who bucked the tide. But in commodities markets the message was the opposite: The trend is your friend. Now that the stock market has become a commodity, speculators pile on whenever some report creates excitement.

The larger players use mathematical models that mix purchases and sales of stocks, index futures contracts and options in patterns that guarantee a return as safe as the interest on Treasury bills and somewhat—maybe considerably—higher. One strategy involves "dynamic hedging"—selling in the futures or options markets when prices are falling and buying when prices are rising, which exaggerates all price movements. The commoditization of the market has also undone the traditional reverse symmetry between stock and bond prices. Historically, when economic activity was expected to increase, stocks rose in anticipation of better profits, and bonds fell in anticipation of higher interest rates. When economic activity was expected to decline, stocks fell and bonds rose. Thus in early 1987 the optimism that propelled the stock market depressed the bond market. When that optimism vanished in October, stocks plummeted, but bonds jumped.

Because stock prices and production now have so little to do with one another, the 1987 crash did not slow the growth of the real economy. The slowdown in 1995, when downsizing actually reduced productivity, spawned a bull market. The fact that a rising market no longer causes Americans to think the economy is improving is a clear indication that the markets have become less effective as a stimulus to real capital creation. Our markets and our political discourse focus increasingly on the immediate, reducing our ability to understand the larger forces that act on the economy. [Like the very LARGE forces of the international bankers' manipulations-for-gain. Using the readily available information on computer-driven purchasing programs (as used by various mutual funds, pension funds, bank trust departments, etc.), it is easy to see how the really big fat-cats can design a complex but viable computer model to aid them in "cracking the whip" to most effectively manipulate the market. Then, using other tools, such as the Pavlovian-style training that has been used on the public with regard to the Fed's interest rate settings, rest assured that the big boys have the situation well in hand for a maximum rape of the public whenever it best suits their purposes.] civilization. They are genuine patriots, with deeply held religious convictions, who are determined to halt the destruction of their nation. Like American conservatives, they are already aware that their government, media and educational systems are now in the hands of the enemy. However, their religious leaders have not been captured to the extent that our Billy Grahams, Jerry Falwells and Pat Robertsons have offered themselves up for purchase at the Zionist flesh markets in the United States.

During the following weeks, I was invited to speak at three Buddhist temples in Japan; I also visited many of their most sacred shrines, including the Ise shrine, the holiest place in Japan. I also spoke at the convention of the Society of Universal Light, S.O.U.L., a religious group; I spoke at the nation's capitol before members of the Japanese Diet, their Parliament, who were very attentive; and I travelled five hundred miles to the frozen north, where I spoke before an audience of five hundred people in Sapporo, a city of a million-and-a-half inhabitants which is famed for its annual Ice Festival.

Although much of what I said to these audiences was new to them, not once was I challenged, heckled, or asked any hostile question. My books have now been circulating in Japan for more than a year, and perhaps this had paved the way for my lectures. I began each address by stating that I had come as a cultural ambassador from the American people. My purpose was to further understanding of the two nations by telling the Japanese how Americans really feel towards Japan, and by learning how the Japanese actually feel about Americans. I noted that because of the controlled press in both countries, these attitudes were never covered by the media, because they want to keep us in the dark.

I also apologized to the Japanese for the presence of our American Ambassador, Walter Mondale, in Tokyo. I explained that it was an insult to the people of Japan when Washington sent this worn-out political reject to Tokyo as his retirement payoff for his years of dutiful service as a faceless stooge for the international bankers. He is now America's Unknown Ambassador. He has few duties, because all contacts between Japan and the United States are carried out by a notorious Zionist Triumvirate: Mickey Kantor, U.S. Trade Representative, appointed by Clinton. Robert Rubin, economic adviser to Clinton, a ten-million-dollar-a-year partner of Goldman Sachs banking house in New York; an adviser to the Federal Reserve Bank of New York, the money-center bank; a director of the Carnegie Corp., a notorious tax-exempt think tank; and head of the Mondale for President Committee in 1983. It was Rubin who insisted that Mondale be appointed U.S. Ambassador to Japan as a payoff for his years of service to the bankers. The third member of the Zionist Triumvirate is America's most famous midget, Robert Reich, Secretary of Labor under Clinton, who, like his president, is a Rhodes Scholar, a member of the extreme left-wing group, Common Cause.

My audiences were amazed when I explained to them that the Zionists are sworn to destroy Japan as part of their campaign of hatred and revenge for their Holocaust claims dating more than fifty years back to the Second World War. Because Japan had been an ally of Germany during this war, I explained, the fanatical Zionists considered it a religious duty to destroy Japan. The Talmud instructs them to hate all non-Jewish people, which it describes as animals to be killed for profit. To these Talmudists, Japan is equally guilty with Germany, and the Zionist motto, which governs our present relations with Japan, is "Never forgive; never forget." My information helped to warn the people of Japan of the danger they faced, because American foreign policy, now totally in the hands of Zionists who are actually unregistered agents for the foreign State of Israel, is the greatest threat to world peace. The Zionists will use American forces to commit any atrocity against any people who incur their dislike. I noted that the Zionist Triumvirate of Kantor, Rubin and Reich (which sounds like a cheap Jewish law firm from lower Manhattan) intended to bring harm and additional suffering to the people of Japan. My audiences were stunned to learn that, although they had taken no part in the Holocaust, or conducted any joint operations with Germany, the fanatics intended to punish them as a religious ongoing Jewish vendetta.

I also explained to the people of Japan that the continuous hate campaigns in the American press and abroad were part of the Zionist hymnal of hate against all Japanese. These campaigns, called "Japan-bashing" routinely accuse the Japanese of dumping their products on other countries at greatly reduced prices; daily reviving stories from the nineteen-thirties and nineteen-forties about Japanese activities in China and other countries, alleged atrocities committed during World War II, and lurid stories of Korean "comfort women" supposedly recruited to entertain Japanese soldiers. These stories never mention the atomic bombings of Hiroshima and Nagasaki nor the firestorm bombings of Tokyo which burned thirty-five square miles of buildings and killed more than a million civilians. These terror bombings have been justified as techniques designed to force the Japanese to sue for peace, a claim which ignores the fact that they were already suing for peace when these atrocities occurred!

I disclosed that the agents of the Rothschilds and Rockefellers had come into Japan in 1945 as the perennial camp followers of the American Army. The man who directed the postwar rebuilding of the Japanese economy along Zionist dictates was General William Draper, partner of the Wall Street banking house of Dillon Read Co., and economic czar of Japan during General MacArthur's reign as the sole military authority. Dillon Read was a firm which had been purchased by one Clarence Lapowski of Texas with his windfall profits from the First World War. He acquired the name of Dillon with the bill of sale, and the name of Lapowski disappeared from history, with "Clarence Dillon" now at the helm. In 1922, Dillon Read took the first step towards a Second World War by floating a $200 million loan to Germany to enable her to rebuild her army, in open violation of the League of Nations prohibition against German rearming. Dillon's son, C. Douglas Dillon, became Secretary of the Treasury in the Eisenhower Administration, and retired with a fortune of $500 million. When George Bush became President, he called upon Dillon's successor, Nicholas

Brady, senior partner of Dillon Read, to be his Secretary of the Treasury. The Washington Post reported that George Bush conferred daily with Brady, and never made a decision without his approval.

General Draper had ridden into Germany at the conclusion of the Second World War, setting up shop in the I.G. Farben Building in Frankfurt, which had miraculously escaped damage in the saturation bombing which had destroyed most of Germany. After reorganizing Germany according to the desires of the bankers, Draper was summoned to Japan, where he performed the identical task, making certain that the postwar governments of both Germany and Japan would never again challenge the power of the bankers.

This "new" Japan was reported to have been turned back to the ownership of the "Big Five", the five enormously wealthy Japanese families who previously owned the country. It was claimed that the generous conquerors neither required nor exacted any tribute from their defeated enemy. We can only accept this Santa Claus story if we ignore the enormous influence which the World Order dynasty has exercised in Japan since 1945.

My audiences had never heard of any of these facts. I was the first conservative to speak out in Japan in many decades. I went on to explain to them the postwar "miracle" of Japan. At the secret Bretton Woods monetary conference at the Bretton Woods Hotel in New Hampshire in 1944, while the war was still raging, the presumed victors met to divide up the spoils. They turned the postwar world into an international casino in which the club's operators would always win, and everyone else would always lose. If it sounds suspiciously like Las Vegas, the principle was the same. The conspirators set up the World Bank and the International Monetary Fund as the vehicles for their robberies on a world-wide scale. The technique of their "Big Casino" depended on a very simple mechanism. Of the world's currencies, only the dollar would be allowed to be immediately convertible into gold. All of the other currencies would first have to be converted into dollars, and then into gold. This gave the dollar an artificially increased value in world trade. While overvaluing the dollar, the conspirators' ploy caused the other currencies to be undervalued. The postwar economic boom of Japan, the so-called "miracle", functioned as a direct subsidy to Japanese exports, because the undervalued yen gave them a price advantage. At the same time, the overvalued dollar caused a direct price increase for American exports, making them less competitive in the world market. The insiders who understood this process reaped enormous profits in the following decades. It was understandable that my Japanese listeners had never heard this explanation; I had learned of it in my researches only a few days before I went to Japan, when I traced the dominant influence on world trade back to the Bretton Woods meeting in 1944.

Because the nation of Japan, which has always been a strongly anti-Communist country, has lived in the shadow of the Soviet Union since 1945, my listeners were extremely interested when I informed them that there has never been a "Communist" nation, nor had the Cold War existed except as a figment of George Orwell's imagination. In 1948, George Orwell had published his prophetic work, 1984, which described a world in which two great powers remained in a state of war, without ever fighting each other. A special language had been developed by the opposing nations, called Newspeak, which defined the situation as "perpetual war for perpetual peace". Orwell whose real name was Blair, was a lifelong Socialist, who apparently wrote this book as a blueprint for the postwar world. When his book appeared, a diplomat named George Kennan, who had been placed in charge of policy at the Department of State in Washington, drafted the notorious "policy of containment" which guaranteed to the Soviet Union that the United States would do nothing to force the Soviet Union to withdraw from the countries which it had illegally invaded and seized at the end of the Second World War. In fact, Kennan's policy of containment formalized the agreement set up by Alger Hiss at Yalta, when Churchill and Roosevelt agreed to give Stalin all of Eastern Europe. Kennan's uncle, also named George Kennan, had travelled for decades in Czarist Russia, distributing millions of dollars of Communist propaganda paid for by Jacob Schiff, of Kuhn, Loeb Co., New York, who had been born in the Rothschild house in Frankfurt, Germany. Kennan's propaganda paved the way for the triumph of Bolshevism in Russia.

The Bolshevik Revolution was not a Russian event. It was perpetrated by the British Secret Intelligence Service, as described in W. Somerset Maugham's books Ashenden: Secret Agent. The SIS, of course, was actually working for the Bank of England rather than for the British Government. Its goal was to seize the fortune of Czar Nicholas II, the world's richest man. Once this had been accomplished and the Czar's wealth removed to banks in London and New York, the British agents turned Russia over to a gang of three hundred Jews from New York, led by Lev Bronstein, also known as Leon Trotsky. Because the treasury had been looted by the British agents, Lenin and Trotsky found they had no money to run the new Bolshevik government. They sent out a frantic call for help. Col. House, President Woodrow Wilson's principal advisor, persuaded Wilson to send the Bolsheviks twenty million dollars from his $100,000,000 Special War Fund which Congress had voted him to prosecute the war. Wilson entrusted the funds to his special envoy, former Secretary of State Elihu Root, the Wall Street lawyer who had written the charters of the seven largest tax-exempt foundations. This gift, courtesy of the American taxpayer, was only the first installment in a series of under-the-counter financial transfers which kept the Soviet Union in existence until the 1980s.

Although the Bolsheviks stabilized their revolutionary government with the twenty million dollars from Wilson, they now faced a nation-wide famine. The shortage of food had been caused by their massacre of millions of Russian peasants, who had produced the world's largest supplies of grain until the First World War. The Rothschilds summoned another lackey from their Rio Tinto Corporation, Herbert Hoover, to organize the Russian Relief campaign, which again staved off disaster for the Soviets. Although Elihu Root and Herbert Hoover were the saviours of Communism, no memorials in Russia ever acknowledged their deeds. Herbert Hoover, who was later elected President of the United States as a reward for having saved Communism, spent the rest of his life posing as a "militant anti-Communist" in order to cover up his record.

During the 1920s, the world Communist movement became the private preserve of the Federal Reserve Bank of New York. Its directors, including George Foster Peabody and William Boyce Thompson, donated millions of dollars to fund an intensive worldwide pro-Communist propaganda drive. Communism, the avowed enemy of private capital, was never more than a toy for the international bankers, led by Dwight Morrow of J.P. Morgan Company.

At the conclusion of the Second World War, the military-industrial complex of the United States; (a spinoff of the central banks, including the Federal Reserve Bank) faced a dilemma. How could they continue to swallow up most of the real income of the "free world" with their vast military expenditures? This goal was accomplished by using Winston Churchill to launch "the Cold War" in a speech at Fulton, Missouri. Churchill had suddenly discovered that the Soviet Union, which the West had spent five-hundred-million dollars to save from the German armies, was now the leading menace of civilization. The Cold War hoax lasted for almost half a century, steadily hyped by a mass of "data" from the Central Intelligence Agency (a spinoff from the British Intelligence Service). The CIA routinely forwarded to Congress alarming revelations of the booming Russian economy and of Russian military power; "studies" were regularly circulated to the media, proving that our occupation forces in Germany could not hold off an attacking Russian force for more than three hours. However, the Russians were in no condition to attack anyone. They finally met their Waterloo in the tiny country of Afghanistan, where the cream of the Russian forces were unable to defeat a small group of mountaineers with primitive equipment. This revelation not only led to the collapse of the Soviet Government, but threatened the collapse of the U.S. economy as well, which had grown to depend on the massive outlays for armaments.

In retrospect, we must admit that the CIA had performed admirably during the entire Cold War period. Its manufactured and invented "statistics" on Russian power made it imperative that Congress approve a "defense" budget of hundreds of millions of dollars each year. Whenever a temporary "detente" imperilled the war machines and Congress balked at this huge appropriation, Washington had to persuade a reluctant Soviet Union to shoot down an American plane. This always resulted in the prompt passage of the defense appropriation.

My comments were astounding to the Japanese, who had lived with the constant threat of a Soviet attack throughout the Cold War. If they had read Orwell's 1984, they would have realized that the Russians would never attack. The purpose of the Newspeak charade was to preserve only the threat of attack. The Cold War allowed the Rothschilds and their fellow Central Bankers to loot the "free world" with their boondoggling "defense" budgets, while the bankers enjoyed their profits, secure in their knowledge that a Third World War would never occur.

Realizing the importance of my information, the result of more than fifty years of unrelenting research in Washington, my hosts resolved that my initial visit should serve as the basis for future operations. In addition to the audiences previously mentioned, I also spoke before the International Shoho Society, the Society for Historical Review, and the Society for Civilization Criticism. They not only invited me back for another extended speaking tour, they also pledged to continue publishing my books until all of my information was available to the people of Japan, in addition to establishing a formal Eustace Mullins Society for the study of my work.

Because I had come to Japan as a cultural ambassador, the literary heir of Ezra Pound, who had done so much to promote the recognition of Japanese culture on a worldwide basis, my hosts took me to the shrine of Ernest Fenollosa at a Buddhist temple. Fenollosa, a Harvard professor, had settled in Japan, become a Buddhist priest and dedicated his life to the promotion of Japanese culture. Ezra Pound, after Fenollosa had passed away, met his widow in England, and made Fenollosa's work available to the world. My confreres are now setting up the Asian Ezra Pound Society to carry on this work.

During my lectures, I was asked to comment on a wide range of political and economic problems in Japan. I was frequently asked about the future of the yen. I explained that because of the Bretton Woods Conspiracy, which overvalued the dollar, and undervalued the yen, the yen would continue to strengthen against the dollar, as the overvalued dollar continued to weaken in the international markets. My most important task was to remind my Japanese audiences that both of our nations have the same enemy, the biological parasite which for thousands of years has improved its techniques for finding a host on which it could feed. It has always had to face the resistance of the host, which had an inevitable reaction against its destructive and poisonous presence. Throughout Jewish literature, critics of Jews are always denounced as "reactionaries", who react against the presence of the parasite.

The parasite knows that in order to continue to feed upon the host, it must steadily weaken the host until it no longer has the strength, or the resolve, to dislodge it.

The parasite achieves this objective through diabolical techniques which it has perfected through the centuries. It has discovered how to weaken the host by chemical additives to its food and water supplies, and by using the medical profession to administer drugs and chemicals to the host, which weaken its resolve. Other key methods of control used by the parasite to control the host are the "educational" system, which indoctrinates students from early childhood to accept the presence of the parasite; government power, which uses force to prevent the host from showing any "prejudice" against the presence of the parasite, and media control, which daily assures the host that the "benign" presence of the parasite is the only factor which will allow the host continue to exist.

I was always prepared for reactions from my audiences to the startling and new revelations. However, I never once saw any incredulous expressions, demands for substantiation, or denials from any of my listeners. All of my lectures were both audiotaped and videotaped, so that they will continue to reach more people while my books circulate in Japan. The Zionist Triumvirate is very disturbed over my visit, and is seeking to prevent my return. Only a few days before my arrival, a widely circulated magazine, Marco Polo, was ordered shut down by the government because it warned of the peril to Japan and the machinations of the international bankers. I was told that it will never be allowed to resume circulation. Measures of this gravity reflect the desperation of the enemy, and bode well for the future. They dare not debate or respond to the exposure of their diabolical activities. There is no doubt that the Zionists have demanded that Ambassador Mondale act to prevent the circulation of my books and tapes in Japan, but they chose him because he was incompetent, and he will continue to be incompetent.

It should be very encouraging to patriots in the United States that there are movements in other countries to dislodge the parasite and to liberate themselves from a critical danger. As a weaker entity, the parasite has always been vulnerable to any strong reaction from its host, and my journey to Japan convinces me that the time is ripe to exploit its vulnerability.

Assaults On The Senses Need A Spiritual Uplift

3/20/96 #1 HATONN

I would note that the past two days have been very difficult as Dharma and E.J. have been in days of pounding deposition (witness interrogation) from piles of information sent and shared personally, along with others whose unfortunate situation comes from having shared any information with Mr. Green for I can list off the ones who have been totally shredded by having joined Mr. Green's Brigade of destroyers. Mr. Green has provided Mr. Horn with information even to the, what turns out to be, UNLAWFUL efforts to transfer corporations to another agent SECRETLY. One problem—Mr. Horn thought this other agency was somehow owned by Ekkers. Oops! We now have incredible amounts of information from "their" side and know exactly what they plan to do—all laid out on the table for us. The point of this dissertation is that even though CONTACT is small and, according to them, "nobody reads it anyway", Dharma had to sit through interrogation about things appearing in the paper—which were nicely marked for Mr. Horn by, we assume, the Green Brigade, for the items were so carefully taken out of all context that we can only assume assistance. Mr. Horn even inquired directly to Dharma: "Are you Anti-Semitic?" Does this give you readers an idea of the approach? I cannot believe Sharri Yount ever dreamt of such papers as HERS, or the indiscretion of moving, unlawfully, corporations, agents, and/or the having Ms. Tuten take, unlawfully, the corporation books from their legal agent. Does anyone realize that this is, in law, a "Conspiratorial intent to commit crime and fraud?" Did Mr. Green, Abbott or Horton tell you THAT, ladies and gentlemen?

Did anyone tell you nice people that you were going to be totally shredded by lawyers who would set you up with PROOF of your participation? So be it. I warned you and warned you and the most damaging evidence of all falls onto Father Cleary who, I suspect, never ever intended such involvement.

Nevada cases have been held up from conclusion on the assumption that these depositions, etc., would blow out the Ekkers in all cases. No, it destroys the group who have sided with Green, innocently or otherwise.

I will have to stop sharing the "Round Robin" updates, readers, for in our attempt to answer your status questions among family and friends, we only bring more assaults. It is here, readers; the ability to offer opinions in free speech is no longer available even in your private correspondence. I will no longer disposition our own legal counsel by sharing until after some of these cases are settled. We have accomplished what I needed to have brought out as to parties and prattlers working against us and, therefore, good friends, allow us to not longer interfere with the legal process except to get informed, get prepared and, if you can, join the offered classes on legal protection and representation of self. These particular cases and causes of action will be featured as work material for our classes, along with bunches of others, and we will effort to keep you status-updated but not with detail or name reference. The whole point of these Ekker litigations was the fact that there was no SALE OF THE PROPERTY WHEN THEY WENT FULLY PREPARED WITH FUNDS IN POKETBOOK TO PURCHASE THE PROPERTY. There is almost NO REFERENCE TO THAT POINT IN ANY

You can "purchase" nothing of value. NOTHING! FURTHER, THE THINGS OF VALUE OF GOD—ARE ONLY ON LOAN UNTO YOU TO SEE IF YOU CAN TEND THEM PROPERLY.

CONFRONTATION, NOT EVEN WITH THE FACT OF THE SUIT BEING FOCUSED ON ONLY "THAT" INCIDENT. It appears the counsel opposing has been sucked into the fray by the Green Brigade and ends up in a most embarrassing circumstance.

This counsel committed a couple of SERIOUS errors as he attacked, insulted and slandered Mr. Dixon and then, in turn, slandered Mr. Rick Martin in an even more offending tone of disdain. Mr. Martin has nothing to do with the case in point—NOTHING.

EASTER VACATION

The next round of emotionally debilitating depositions will take place on Good Friday and Saturday next for the Ekkers. Now THIS is a strange set of timing, don't you agree? Just remember, readers, Easter was a pagan Pharisee wild celebration long, long before it was connected to CHRIST goodness. Be careful what you worship but also always KNOW that it is that which is in your heart and intent that is seen by our Creator and not what hangs on a Christmas tree or in a rabbit/chicken egg rolling down the bunny trail.

SPIRITUAL SUPPORT

As your very source of living and presentation is debased in ridicule, there comes a time of need for Spiritual refueling to attain again, balance. In order to bring that recognition I ask that we reprint a message from our Master Teacher from June 10, 1991.

I ask that you retype it, Dharma, because you need this message as badly as does anyone this day.

You both will be wise to read it carefully before Good Friday and perhaps your ability to confront the dragons will be reinforced.

[QUOTING:]

...In a blazing glory of "moment" shall you be given into understanding and it shall come as the Creator reveals unto you the keys unto His Kingdom! Esu present in the brotherhood of Man among the Hosts who come to show the way and bring you home. Where is "HOME"? Anywhere that you find perfect balance within that which is Creator/Creation. It is a journey of the Soul/Spirit, not of the flesh. "Son of God" and "Son of Man"? I, like you, am both, in the image of God as a fragment thereof and image of Man who utilizes housing to give physical experience. That which is of God gives unto the housing of the Spirit, honor, joy, revelation and care in as nearly balanced experience as man can attain. That of evil brings pain, chaos, sorrow and emptiness unto the being for the lesson is in the learning of the difference and moving beyond that which is physical perception into the sublime. Each being must learn of "both" to move through his lessons into KNOWING.

Some of us have learned most slowly, moving from experience unto experience, always reaching and groping. Then we find a flash of Truth and bend unto the task of perfecting it, only to realize that each fragment of God has right of passage and experience, so we move on in allowing. We feel great sorrow at the erroneous choices and desire to push another into the way that we have found into our own balance, but in the ending we must simply realize that it is ONLY ONE and we cannot do for another what he must do for self to perfect the fragment and reclaim it unto God.

How smug Man becomes as he journeys through the physical for he is blinded by that which is called "ego". God's gift unto human to set him apart is "reason" and "thought with choices of his own conjuring". Ego is that which is of the physical process which "believes" itself to be "all". Just as a serpent must shed its outgrown skin that it might grow, so must the being shed its ego restraints in order to grow. Is it so very difficult to see that you come from the heavens? Would it not be wondrous to KNOW that there are higher knowings unto which you can turn from your limitations and ignorance? Is it not wonder beyond wonder that there is a wholeness to the plan and a Oneness with that which is capable of filling the void within which always reaches out and seeks endlessly? Is it not joy to KNOW that there is that which is beyond the tinkering and arguments of voted-in rules of behavior, that the body of God KNOWS its guidelines and does not argue and fall to the ones who would have MORE congregation and collections in the plates on Sunday? It is not to the "homosexual" being that respect needs to be given, but rather to the uncompromising being which is manifest in that wondrous form, as an example current for your day. It is the "physical sensing behavior" which must be confronted, not the LOVE in the heart-being of individuals. There is no greater glory than the love of one being for another and in that there is no sex delineation.

All of the elements of which the demands and marches are brought forth are of the physical flesh passing through experience, but, what the Spirit does with that expression is that which shall be confronted at what you call, Judgment. At that moment of passage will you stand in appraisal of self-knowing that you used discipline and found that which was greater than physical self or will you have only grappled with the "physical" manifestations of the ego-claim upon the expression of God? These are the reasons the Hosts have come forth and then, again, the Creator, that the "creation" (you) might be reminded of that which IS, in order to move away from that which is the passing illusion. I must assure you that, in every instance, the things of physical are cast away and you do not, really, want to take that of the physical illusionary presentation with you, even if you might perceive that you do.

Let me assure you that, although it might seem to you that the physical continuation is what you mean by "Rapture", it will not work out to be that way.

Even if you had choice in the matter and it would be that you could take "things" of physical manifestation with you, would you actually want that "old stuff"? Would you not cast off the shanty in favor of the marble mansion? Where is your "Reason"? How is it easier to believe that you will somehow sit atop clouds than that God would prepare carefully and with REASON for your needs, both for "placement" and "journey unto that placement"? 'Tis the ego fed by the negative aspects of self which causes lack of reason for it fears the unknown and efforts to always keep the innocent child of wonder and infinite creation bounded. It keeps you bound in fear that you cannot do it so you must always cling to another in hopes that somehow "his ticket" will bear the both of you! Especially if he lies to you and pronounces that, for this or that, you can somehow "purchase" your passage.

You can "purchase" nothing of value. NOTHING! FURTHER, THE THINGS OF VALUE OF GOD—ARE ONLY ON LOAN UNTO YOU TO SEE IF YOU CAN TEND THEM PROPERLY.

In recent apologies from one Jimmy Swaggart, evangelist, on your TV screens the man was weeping and begging forgiveness for his indiscreet and adulterous actions with prostitutes and falling off his HOLY wagon. I would like to share this specific story for I find it quite a worthy parable. He said, with tears streaming down his face, that he, like YOU, are as the lamb who strays and falls into the ditch from off the path. Supposedly I, Esu Jesus, take my staff and hook and lift the lamb back, over and over and over again [fine so far] but then he continued: "...After many times and the lamb has not learned, the shepherd takes the lamb from the ditch again, and with his hands, breaks its leg! Then the shepherd gently sets the fracture, binds it with loving care and bears the lamb on his shoulders until the lamb is healed. Then, when he again se' th... it does not again stray.

That is... much of hogwash garbage I have ever heard. The shepherd might well pick you up again and again but would NEVER break your body or limbs and render pain unto even the foolish lamb. The shepherd might well carry you, yes, after you stray, and if you ask to return within the flock. If you do not ask, however, after your lessons are shown, then you may stay where you will until you have learned from that which is manifest for your lessons. The shepherd would never break of your legs.

So what means this lesson as offered? A man who has strayed completely away from God is making an effort to convince himself that he will be forgiven for his own transgressions and this is that which he perceives SHOULD happen as punishment! With this attitude and concept, he will never find his way for he still perceives God as a mean and punishing shepherd of that which he KNOWS he committed in transgression against the people "he leads", and the laws of God and Creation. [H: Please note, readers, that in recent months this SAME Jimmy Swaggart was again "caught" in the same activities, so I guess the "broken leg" theory didn't work too well after all.]

I would ask you to question self and see whether or not you perceive that somehow you might feel you have fallen so deeply away from righteousness that you cannot forgive self and find worthiness in the LOVE God bestows upon you. The Truth of God or of Christ Teachers has never changed, only MAN in his wisdomless antics changes the words of Truth to suit his own personal needs or on the orders of his own controllers. How many "Jimmy Swaggarts" do you have today WRITING THE SUPPOSED TRUTH FOR YOU?...

[END OF QUOTING]

When you as a people stop the silliness you can begin to look forward to the transformation of Man.

And what of this transformation process? Well, you have to understand more about your SOURCE than you now seem to grasp. You have to know "what is Man" and what is "transformation" and the relationship of energy to matter.

Spelt

New Gaia Presents Bread Mixes, Flour & Kernels

Spelt is the most ancient and very best grain. Spelta (its more formal name) is a grain of its own unique being. It is the best fiber resource and has large amounts of B-17 (anti-carcinoma). The grain berry grows an exceptionally thick husk that protects it from pollutants and insects. It is stored with its husks intact, so it remains fresher. Thus, unlike other grains, it is not normally treated with pesticides or other chemicals. The strong, protective husk may also be a metaphorical signature of this grain's capacity to strengthen immunity. Spelt contains special carbohydrates (Mucopolysaccharides) which are an important factor in blood clotting and stimulating the body's immune system.

New Gaia offers Bread Mixes that use pure Spelt flour instead of wheat. The taste is uniquely nutty and enjoyable for the whole family. Also offered are combination Bread Mixes with both Spelt flour and whole wheat flour. Both are perfect for a 2 lb. loaf of bread which can be utilized in the Hitachi Bread Machine or others of its equal. The mixes are easy to use with only the simple addition of water, butter & sweetener. The packages come in 2 lb. sizes only.

Also available are whole spelt flour packages for your baking and homemade bread needs that come in 2 lb., 4 lb. and 8 lb. sizes.

You may also order the whole spelt kernels that can be milled at home into flour. These come in 4 lb. and 10 lb. bags.

STEWED TOMATOES AND SPELT

1 quart tomatoes with juices
1 c. cooked spelt or other grain
2 tbl. butter

3-4 slices stale spelt bread, cubed
1 tbl. sugar
salt, pepper

Combine all ingredients in a heavy-duty pot over medium heat. Heat throughout, stirring.

The C.I.A. Pipeline

by Michael Maholy

Part XXIII: "Operation Intruder"

Editor's note: The last time we presented Michael Maholy's "inside" story about The C.I.A. Pipeline was in our 3/19/96 CONTACT on p. 21, where he called that installment: "Tobacco Road".

After what seemed to be a successful attempt at avoiding the "Company" by keeping a low profile for almost two years, I finally felt like a normal person again, not like one who was involved in the dealings of the underworld. During this time, I was able to evade various law enforcement agencies and, most importantly, the government officials who were responsible for my orders. Barry Seal's death resulted in a massive investigation into not only his methods of operation, but also of those associated with him. George Bush knew all too well that I was still out there running my own little operation. He and his panel of national security advisors also knew that I was trained by the best to do exactly what the Company wanted me to do—to break codes, monitor various communications, but most of all, to be a smuggler, a modern-day pirate. But it backfired on the Company. I considered myself an opportunist—what I saw the chance to make some cash, I jumped on it. The way I looked at it, when you snooze, you lose!

Just after Seal was murdered in a half-way house in Baton Rouge, my handler in Langley, Virginia had a terrible stroke that left him unable to speak or to do the very simplest of duties. There was quite a lot of talk as to just how and why this happened to him when it did. You must not forget that the C.I.A. and its operatives are masters of deception, such as creating an "accident" of this nature to ensure that their secrets are never exposed to the general public. This was another reason why I was able to avoid contact with Langley for two years.

Even though I knew in the back of my mind that the Company could terminate me at any time, I felt more secure on my home turf—the majestic mountains of northern Arkansas. I had a much better chance here than if I were located in some major city. Yes, one might consider me a survivalist, as I had the training and the necessary equipment to escape into the nearby hills and forests for an extended period of time. I did indeed speak with my handler from time to time, off the record, of course, and it was our conclusion that we had become expendable for simply following orders for what we thought was in the interests of national security and for the good of the United States of America. The reason given by our advisors was that the U.S. needed the indirect funding made from illegal drugs to support covert projects and to promote our interests abroad. I had personally sensed something, something evil, for quite some time now, but then, you see, it was the money that held my interest. Early in my military career I might have questioned some of the orders, but as time went on and I became more conditioned, I eventually became just another victim.

My nest egg was holding well. I had a booming guide service on the White River and land, cars, trucks, boats, and even my own plane. I had also become a partner in a marijuana-growing operation that would make a lot of money, as the American public was crying for the drug and willing to pay high prices for the choice, quality stuff. I thought, why should I fly overseas into increasingly hostile lands to acquire marijuana, when I could grow some of the world's finest right here in my own backyard! The growing operation of which I speak was located in Weston, Missouri, on land owned and operated by Jimmy Pepper.

With Pepper's money and influential business associates in the tobacco industry, along with the political might he had acquired within the various lobbying groups, it seemed that at anytime, marijuana could replace the most widely used pain reliever in the world—the common aspirin. After all, marijuana is just a herb, something that has been proven medically for cancer patients and in the treatment for glaucoma. I understand that the only reason marijuana is illegal is all one big money game. The people who are making billions of dollars a year importing the illegal substance and the pharmaceutical companies who stand to lose billions of dollars a year are the ones who keep marijuana the mainstay of the underworld. America should take a good look at the drugs that are legal, yet kill thousands upon thousands of people each year.

Things were not going smooth for me. The boys in Miami were always into something. They had connections in Cali, Colombia, Bogota, and Panama. They had power behind them. Max eventually got caught up in the Seal investigation and Rafa was found shot to death, his body dismembered—another victim of Colombian vengeance. My son, Michael, had been involved in a terrible accident which left him in a vegetative state. I had my hands full. I had recently married for the second time. Things began to look promising once again, until I became involved with an operation that would lead up to my arrest in 1991 in Little Rock, Arkansas.

In the week before Christmas of 1987, I got an unexpected phone call from a young Englishman named John Bevan, who I met eleven years earlier when I was first deployed to monitor cable traffic for the C.I.A. and O.N.I. John, who was 17 at the time, was living in the Caribbean aboard an old wooden schooner that his family had recently sailed across the Atlantic. The boy eventually became a professional yachtsman, and I'd seen little of him since 1976, except for a few chance meetings at one port or another in the West Indies. The last time that I had heard from him, he was the skipper of a 90-foot steel yacht, the schooner Christina, which was owned by a man named Justin Adams. Now, Bevan was calling me from a jail in Brownsville, Texas, to say that he was in very deep trouble. If federal prosecutors had their way, there would be no open water for this sailor for many years, if ever. Bevan's story, as he related it that day to me was as follows:

Early in 1987 he had sailed Christina to a Korean shipyard for a major refit. The boat was hauled out of the water and cut in half so that a 20-foot section could be added midship to lengthen the hull. Such a complicated and expensive procedure usually would mean frequent consultations between the skipper and owner, but Justin Adams was not the typical owner. In Bevan's six years aboard the Christina, Adams had spent less than two weeks aboard the vessel, leaving Bevan to run it as he saw fit. By the spring of 1987, however, the refit was running out of money and Bevan's salary was six months in arrears. That in itself was nothing unusual. A few years earlier, he had gone without pay for more than a year and had to live using the boat's American Express card. He had threatened to quit, but Adams gave him a raise from $1,500 to $2,000 a month, still a relatively low wage, but none the less, Bevan stayed on. He felt obligated to Adams. In Venezuela, three years earlier, Bevan had contracted a deadly hepatitis and nearly died, but his boss had him flown to the U.S. for treatment and kept his job open while he recovered.

The unpaid bills at the Korean shipyard could not be ignored, and in late June of 1987, Bevan used the boat's credit cards to book an urgent flight to Florida for a meeting with his elusive boss. He had hoped that Adams would pay up promptly, so that he could fly on to Europe and pick up the new rigging. But Adams brushed aside any talk about the boat or money, promising that everything would be taken care of in a few days. He had urgent business on the Caribbean island of Aruba and he wanted Bevan to go along with him and they could discuss the boat's refit on the plane ride. Adams told Bevan to think of it as a well-deserved vacation. Adams would take care of his business and John could relax and hang out at the beaches that were full of women. Young Bevan could not resist such an offer.

Just before the plane landed, Adams told John that Victor Mason, one of the men he was meeting in Aruba was a member of the Carlos Marcello Mafia family of New Orleans and that Bevan should be careful not to antagonize Mason, as it was reputed that Mason was very short tempered, a notoriously evil person who was capable of doing some nasty things to people. An American man might have caught the next plane home, but Bevan, eager to get back to Korea and get back together, made the fateful decision to stay on.

Two months after their trip to the Caribbean, Adams was still making excuses about the promised refit and Bevan's back pay. Finally he called with the news that the money was on the way. But on the day he received the money, which totalled some $200,000, Adams announced a change of plans. The boat would have to wait. Adding an additional $55,000 to the sum, he instructed Bevan to take the full amount to Mason, the purported mafioso, who was waiting in Harlingen, Texas. Adams told Bevan that if he would do this, that he promised Bevan would receive the refit money as soon as he got back.

"Dumbest move of my life," Bevan told me. "All that I could think about was getting back to my job. I asked Adams if someone else could take the money, but he said that I was the only person that he could trust with it, so I took it." Mason, as it turned out, was an undercover D.E.A. agent from McAllen, Texas. (Mason and I had worked together back in 1982, along with U.S. Customs, so Bevan thought that I might shed some light or provide some help in his pending case.) When Bevan arrived with the money, the transfer was recorded on video tape. The cash was part of a payment for a shipment of marijuana purchased by Adams, in what was his biggest deal as a drug trafficker.

I told Bevan that I was sorry to hear what had happened to him, but other than to send him reading material, some cash, and contact his family in England, there was little else I could do for him. I did know some D.E.A. and Customs agents, but I needed to investigate this situation more thoroughly and would keep my ears open. He wasn't looking for sympathy, nor did he deny taking the money to Mason. He couldn't deny it; the two-hour video, which I had seen, could indeed be used as evidence, even if it failed to prove that he knew what the money was for. When Mason tried to steer their conversation into more incriminating channels, Bevan put up his hands and said, "You don't have to ask me anything—it's your business, whatever's between you two." But there was something strange about what was going on here, he went on to say. "I can't quite put my finger on it. Can you do me a favor? See if you can find out about a man named Mike Harris, or Mike Palmer. It's the same guy, he just uses different names. I can tell you this, he's not what he seems to be." With some reluctance, I said that I'd make a few inquiries and find out what I could about this Harris or Palmer guy. I didn't know that it would take the best part of a year to piece together the story or that Bevan himself would fade into relative obscurity as the facts emerged. Least of all, did I suspect that the pursuit of Michael Bernard Palmer, which is his legal name, would expose a scandal that touched on government policy in Nicaragua and implicated the Central Intelligence Agency, both the State and Justice Departments, and the Drug Enforcement Agency.

Mike Palmer was no ordinary drug dealer. Between 1977 and 1985, he had made millions of dollars by flying plane loads of marijuana into the U.S. from Colombia. He was a partner in a Michigan-based organization that rewarded most of the more successful members with gold jewelry encrusted with diamonds. In his first four years with the organization, he had made enough money to buy an apartment building and a dozen houses and condos in Colorado, Miami, and in the Cayman Islands. Throughout his smuggling career, he held down a full-time job flying passenger jets for Delta Air Lines.

In May of 1985, Palmer and a co-pilot flew down to Colombia to deliver a one-million-dollar payment for a previous load and collect a new shipment of marijuana that was waiting near the airstrip. It was supposed to be a routine run, but a police helicopter appeared and shot down the plane. Nobody was injured, but the plane was disabled, the money and drugs vanished, and Palmer and his co-pilot were taken into custody. They spent the next three months in jail. This was awkward for Palmer. He was still working for Delta when he got busted in Colombia, and the airlines sent a senior pilot to interview him while he was in jail. Palmer told him that he had been delivering the plane to Aruba and lost his way in bad weather. Delta suspended Palmer pending a full investigation, and he began working for Vortex, a Miami-based, aircraft-leasing company. Vortex was then prospering from its connections with the Washington intelligence community and the Nicaraguan Contra movement (of which, by the way, Governor Bill Clinton of Arkansas, was fully aware). In the final months of 1985, and on into the spring of 1986, the company received close to $300,000 in contacts to deliver supposedly humanitarian goods to the Contras. Palmer, who had sold Vortex a DC-6 from his drug-running days, was made vice-president of the company. In Miami flying circles, Palmer was known as THE C.I.A. pilot.

His past began catching up with him in March of 1986 when Delta convened its executive board to hear his plea for reinstatement. Palmer, under oath, stuck to his original story that he had lost his way in bad weather and was innocent of any involvement in the drug business. The board didn't believe him, although it was nearly two years before he was dropped from the active list of Delta pilots.

Three months later, he faced a far more serious threat when he learned that the F.B.I. was about to expose his Michigan smuggling organization. Palmer was named in a five-count indictment that would lead to a 25-year sentence for his partner. As the F.B.I. dragnet tightened, he threw himself on the open market as an informer. In other words, he sold his soul to the devil. A Customs memo that one of my contacts sent me fully describes this chapter in Palmer's career. (This same contact remains loyal to this day, and only recently supplied data pertaining to someone with whom all you readers are familiar—someone who does not fulfill his promises and who is still working his scams today.)

Palmer first began working out of the Miami F.B.I. office, but his untruthful testimony caused a case to be closed. Next he began working out of the F.B.I. offices in New Orleans. This operation was also terminated when the F.B.I. once again caught him lying to them. He then moved on to the San Francisco office. He was supposed to work an undercover operation in which he was to fly a load of hashish into the United States, but once more, because of his deceit, the operation ended.

Customs finally rejected Palmer's services and in another memo, dismissed the would-be informer as a real snake. Palmer's last chance was with Joe Haos, a long-time friend and informer of the D.E.A., who introduced his old buddy Palmer (they had worked together for an airline that flew Central and South American routes) to friends at the McAllen, Texas office of the D.E.A. Palmer made the grade, as a documented C.I. (confidential informant) who would work with Haos under the special supervision of Luis Saldana and Vic Mason. What Palmer proposed this time was that he go to Colombia, alone and unsupervised, contact his previous suppliers in the dope business, make a deal with them to supply a large quantity of drugs, then find buyers in the United States. Once the drugs were delivered, everyone would be arrested. Palmer's reward would be freedom from the Michigan charges that loomed over his head.

Palmer wasted no time in cranking up his one-man mission in Colombia, which by then was code-named "Operation Intruder". By early August of 1986, he had contacted a group that told the pilot he could count on them for 250 tons of marijuana, and as much cocaine as they could get their hands on. A second trafficker stated much the same, that the cocaine was there to be had, that they had an endless supply, and that they would start with as much as 5 tons of premium-quality cocaine. The combined shipment would travel from Colombia to Texas. A smaller load of ten tons of marijuana would be arranged for transportation. That would be no problem. Palmer and Haos would fly the load themselves, using the DC-6 that Palmer had sold to Vortex.

On September 19, 1986, Palmer and Haos did just that, flying 10 tons of marijuana from Colombia to a Mexican airstrip 30 miles south of the American border, then delivering the load to the buyers, Justin Adams and his associate Alejandro Cerna. Some of the load was stolen in Mexico, some was flown to California, and about one-and-a-half tons was seized by a sharp-eyed park ranger who stopped the over-loaded Winnebago motorhome when it crossed the border into Big Bend National Park. But more than half was successfully smuggled by boat and truck. Palmer and Haos told the D.E.A. of the DC-6 shipments the same day they delivered it; it was information the D.E.A. agents had kept to themselves. Thus, the Mexican authorities, with whom the U.S. Government had recently signed a mutual agreement to work together against drug traffic, never knew about the plane or the drugs. Neither did any other branch of U.S. law enforcement.

In short, the D.E.A. allowed two of its informants to fly drugs into our country, then failed to do anything about it, resulting in six tons of marijuana getting lost somewhere in America. Adams was so pleased with the results of the DC-6 shipment (he had told Palmer that he had cleared a profit of $1.5 million), that he made a down payment of more than $500,000 on yet a bigger shipment. This money was paid directly to D.E.A. agents. Adams, who liked people to call him "Doc", found it hard to maintain his professional demeanor when dealing with the undercover team that visited him at his home base near Atlanta. Convinced that he was among buddies, he revealed to the agents that he had been in the drug business for twelve years and took them on a tour of his Atlanta business, showing them his safe filled with $100 bills and his climate-controlled underground vault, which was buried underneath a horse barn, with space enough for ten tons of marijuana and cocaine. The money was the biggest problem, he confessed, so much of it to hide. Years of experience taught him the best method was to pack the cash in ziplock plastic bags and bury them. He would personally use a backhoe to bury and retrieve the loot.

Palmer, meanwhile, reported to the D.E.A. that his big deal with the Colombians, the one for 250 tons of marijuana and 5 tons of cocaine, had fallen apart. But through the closing months of 1986 and into 1987, the D.E.A.'s informant continued to dangle even more spectacular deals in front of them—none, of course, which ever materialized. This is not to say that Palmer did not stay active. Indeed, in March of 1987, the Miami Herald ran a story about his involvement in State Department assistance to the Nicaraguan Contras and mentioned his indictments in Michigan. The Herald story was not the type of publicity that a federal undercover informant wanted, and it threatened to expose "Operation Intruder".

REALITY CHECK

NOT QUITE WHAT LARRY HAD IN MIND WHEN HE ASKED FOR A SECOND OPINION...

But Haos would be the one who inadvertently blew the operation. On March 21, he landed a Vortex DC-6 at Miami International Airport after a flight to Central America. Suspecting that he was carrying drugs, Customs agents wanted to search the plane but Haos resisted. His aircraft was on official government business, he explained. If they didn't believe him, they could call Mike Palmer at Vortex. Palmer arrived while the search was in progress. The search uncovered a list of weapons and related supplies written in Spanish and specifying a geographic coordinate in the Nicaragua highlands. These same coordinates were traced back to exact documents I was in possession of while monitoring cable and logistics for the C.I.A. and George Bush. According to later reports, Palmer had confronted the Customs agents and inspectors in an arrogant manner and demanded to let the plane pass without any further inspection. Tempers finally cooled down after an "unidentified agency" in Washington sent an apologetic and classified memo stating that nothing of this kind would ever happen in the future without advance warning to Custom officials. The message ended with a burst of bureaucratic fellowship: "Thank you for your continued support."

It was a testament to Palmer's cunning and reserve that he persuaded his Colombian connections to disregard the airport incident and the Miami Herald story. At the same time, he managed to conceal just about everything he was doing for the D.E.A. Nobody really knew whom he was seeing or what deals he was making because much of the time, especially in Colombia, he'd been alone or traveling with Adams or Cerno. Blind to everything except potential rewards of "Operation Intruder", the D.E.A. never questioned its informer's optimistic reports. In June of 1987, the Colombian suppliers passed word that the big load was finally ready for shipment. Palmer went to Panama to purchase the ship that would be used to carry the drugs from Colombia to Port Isabel, Texas, and delivered to a warehouse owned by George Bush and Zapata Oil Company. The ship was the Madrid, a 2000-ton freighter equipped with three cranes for loading cargo. (You may remember the Madrid from the earlier chapter of the PIPELINE called "Delta Dawn".) With everything seemingly in place, the payments made, the marijuana gathering at the loading beaches and the Madrid crewed and fueled, Palmer flew to Aruba in late June to meet Adams and nail down last minute details with Gus de la Vega. This time, he traveled with D.E.A. agent Mason, a natural actor, who, in his pose as a member of the Marcello crime family, also played the part of principal fixer at the Zapata warehouse in Port Isabel, Texas.

The Madrid had been anchored off Aruba for three weeks and the crew members were getting jumpy. The ship was running out of fresh water, the food rations were getting short, the diet of the crew was reduced to fried bananas and fish-head soup. The men wanted to call their families and wanted hot showers. Mostly, they wanted to go ashore and stretch their legs. De la Vega was going home; he let it be known that he distrusted Palmer and to Mason's horror, accused Mason of being a cop! A witness to the events in Aruba was sitting at a waterfront bar when Mason and Palmer returned from their meeting with de la Vega. "Mason was furious when they came ashore," he told me, "raging mad and cursing Gus. 'I'm gonna snuff that m_f out—he's history.'" Palmer was trying to calm him down. He said, "Vic, there's more than one way to skin this cat. We can take care of him later. He can always fall over the side." It was scary. You have to picture this Mason character. He was all neck and shoulders. Heavy tanned, smothered in gold. Barely in control of himself, he's punching his fists in the air and raving on about how his people take care of punks like Gus. "If they don't do it my way, they're gonna pay."

The Madrid's crew was taken ashore and given spending money for a night on the town. Palmer and Adams hosted a dinner at which Palmer made light of the captain's defection by joking with Mason. "Imagine old Gus, thinking Mason was a cop," he said. Adams led the laughter. For the crew, the rest of the time in Aruba passed in a blur of booze, drugs, whores, and gambling. The perfect vacation. Palmer played craps and won $30,000. One of Adams people helped him carry his chips to the window of the casino. The same man said Palmer would often light up joints of marijuana and share it with Adams as they drove around the island. Three weeks after the Aruba party, the ship arrived at the Colombian rendezvous to collect the waiting marijuana load, which was supposed to be around 500,000 pounds—or 250 tons.

This is what a crew member later told to me: "We had stopped about a mile offshore on the evening of July 27th. Everyone on board was very drunk—I mean very drunk—including the skipper. I don't even think he knew we had stopped! There were guys running around the deck waving guns and swigging aguardiente; they didn't know what was going on. The first boat came out about 8:00 p.m. One of those bongo's big tree-trunk dugouts with 150-horse-powered Yamaha outboards. Gus de la Vega was in it! He told me some story about being forced back into the deal. But we had no time to talk about that. He was with some midget guy, as black as the ace of spades. He and Gus were the traffic directors; they both had two-way radios to communicate with the ship and the beach. So they started loading. About 5:00 a.m. they said, 'that's it,' and I thought, 'that doesn't look like no 500,000 pounds to me,' so I called down to one of the guys and asked him what happened to the rest. He told me that it went out the night before on the other ship we sent. And I thought, 'What other ship? This is the only ship.' But the guy swore it had gone, and there was no more, so we left." (Witnesses to the events in Aruba and aboard the Madrid have since been silenced or have just disappeared.)

From Colombia, the Madrid sailed northwest to Belize, where the original crew disembarked and was replaced by a crew entirely of U.S. Government personnel, mostly D.E.A. agents. The rest of the voyage was under tight escort by a U.S. Coast Guard cutter all the way to Port Isabel, Texas, where the cargo was unloaded under the supervision of Mason and other agents and delivered to a warehouse not far from the McAllen D.E.A. office. The shipment amounted to about 64 tons of marijuana, a quarter of what Palmer had originally promised. There was no cocaine. Palmer notified Adams and two of them flew to Texas in mid-August to inspect the merchandise. Adams stopped at a taco stand near the airport, unaware that he was being trailed on the ground and also in the air by a surveillance team of 26 men and women from the D.E.A. (Texas, Colorado, and Georgia offices) and the U.S. Customs and the Texas Department of Transportation. At the warehouse one of them obligingly took snapshots of the stash. Adams and Palmer stood near the bales, toasting their success.

Although the government now had enough to convict Adams, it wasn't ready to spring the final trap in "Operation Intruder". The D.E.A.'s next target was Adams' pal, Alejandro Cerna who, in many ways, was regarded as a far greater menace than Adams because of his career in the cocaine trade. The D.E.A. control for the operation moved from Texas to Detroit, where the government set up the last sting in "Operation Intruder". The agents in charge were Ken Magee of the D.E.A. and Ned Timmons of the F.B.I. Palmer, who has a droll sense of humor, had recommended Timmons for the Detroit stage of the operation; he had led the investigation that produced the indictment that first netted Palmer in 1986. Now, they would be working on the same side, gunning for Cerna.

In late July, Palmer and Cerna had flown to the Grosseille Airport, 25 miles south of Detroit, which would serve as an off-loading site for a second load of drugs using the Vortex DC-6 that Palmer and Haos had flown to Mexico. The cargo would be cocaine and marijuana, in which Cerna would be the major stockholder. Much of the most incriminating evidence against Cerna was supplied to the agents by Cerna himself, who was unaware that the van in which he was riding around Detroit, carried a high-frequency broadcast tape recorder. He had much to say about his success in the drug-smuggling business, from Mexico, Haiti, Jamaica, and the Bahamas, into the U.S. To him the upcoming DC-6 flight was just another job. But Detroit agents were taking no chances with the operation. Unlike the abortive flight to Mexico by Haos and Palmer, this one would be shadowed every inch of the way by law enforcement officers, complete with aircraft, including two ocean-ranging P-3s, a Customs jet, and three other stand-by planes. Palmer was at the controls when the DC-6 took off, shortly after noon on September 2, 1987.

The Colombian airstrip was on the tip of the Guajira peninsula, near a place called Puerto Estrilla. As Palmer began his final approach over the Caribbean, with a radioman guiding him from the ground, he was astounded by his instructions: Stay clear, go into a holding pattern. There was too much traffic on the ground, the radioman said; other planes were still loading their drugs; the DC-6 would have to wait its turn. It was almost an hour before Palmer got his clearance to land on the runway, which had about a half-dozen airplanes with teams of workers busily loading drugs aboard the planes at the far end of the strip. He was met by a well-dressed Colombian wearing a hat, a polo shirt and expensive boots. Introducing himself as "El Jefe" [chief] of the airstrip, the man greeted Palmer with a big smile and spoke in English, "Welcome to Cocaine International Airport!"

A crew of Colombians drove up carrying shotguns and machine guns, and demanded Palmer fly a 600-kilo shipment of cocaine back to the U.S. with them and their weapons. Palmer told them that they could forget it, he was already committed, and they roared off the runway to see if they could make another deal with a different pilot.

While a gang of about 50 laborers manhandled the marijuana bales through the cargo doors of the DC-6, a regulation-size airport tanker refueled the plane for the return flight. The cocaine was stowed in the rear of the fuselage. There was no time for an accurate count, but Palmer knew from experience that he was close to the maximum load and gave the signal to leave. It took almost 11 hours to make the return trip to Detroit. An engine blew a cylinder half an hour after take off, cutting down on the air speed severely; also the altitude was affected. Palmer said that to avoid the mountains at the southern tip of Haiti, he had to fly deep into Cuban airspace. There he had some anxious moments wondering what would happen if, as an indicted American drug smuggler flying a known Contra resupply plane, loaded with drugs, he were forced to make a landing. He fears came to nothing, however, and at dawn September 3rd, the big silver DC-6 was on the ground at Grosseille Airport, with a cargo that weighed in at 17,381 pounds of marijuana and 1,262 pounds of cocaine.

Agent Magee and his fake security gang, watched by an FBI-SWAT team and a group of Customs agents in a boat on the Detroit River, and filmed by another agent in the airport control tower, quickly unloaded the plane. Cerna's assistant, a young man with the promising name of Peter Piper, arrived in Detroit to weigh Cerna's share. Piper came from the "Doc Adams School of Unrestrained Confession". He had much to tell the agents as they drove him around in their mobile tape recorder.

He showed them a custom-made money bag, in which he bragged that he once carried $800,000 and told them that this was a busy time for him, that the drug business was soaring and that the drug business was his only occupation. He also invited them to his $4,000,000 ranch in Colorado and his new house in Aspen, boasted of his nine trips to Colombia and the 20,000 pound marijuana deal he had recently made. He owned a gold Rolex, a B.M.W. and an Audi, belonged to the Miami Polo Club and raised Labradors. He also said that he was good friends with the Bush family and had ties with Zapata Oil. He told them of how he and other business partners were planning to take over the drug trade in the rural state of Arkansas, and that with the governor down there, it was a great money-making opportunity, selling cocaine and marijuana. The governor of Arkansas at the time was Bill Clinton. Magee and his men kept up their fronts for the next three days to allow the Texas D.E.A. office to be notified that the Zapata Oil Corp., with its major stockholder being George Bush, was to somehow be kept out of the picture—that there would have to be a way when the bust went down, that he would not get involved or his name brought into it all. Magee knew that there was incriminating evidence from the Madrid shipload, as well as all of the other flights that Adams had sent into Georgia and Texas, as well as when I was stationed in Sabine Pass, another Texas port located near Houston, not far from Galveston, Texas.

On September 6th, a convoy of agents and drug suspects drove to a warehouse in Dearborn, Michigan to divide the load of cocaine, most of which was destined for the Mena, Arkansas airstrip not far from Little Rock. Cerna flew back to Florida, along with Palmer, leaving Piper and five other suspects to help take care of business. Here's where the bust went down, and the master plan was to get the small guys out of the picture, letting the big fish swim. They gave the big fish and the agents that were involved ample time to distribute the drugs. It was said that most of the load was flown into Mena, Arkansas where associates of Bill Clinton would take it from there. Some of the high quality went to Roger Clinton's friends. Roger is a brother to Bill. Also there was proof that the now-governor of Arkansas, Jim Guy Tucker, was making a huge profit from these loads. It was all wrapped up in the next few weeks, and my good friend, John Bevan, who witnessed all of the dealings first hand, ended up receiving a 24-year sentence and, as usual, the biggest fish of all swam away. This is also proof that Clinton, as well as Bush, played a major part in the smuggling of drugs into the U.S. Also before his trial, Bevan, who is now in the Atlanta Federal Prison, was warned that if he mentioned the names "Bush", "Clinton", or the "Zapata Oil Company", that he would be terminated in the prison at a moment's notice.

I can relate to John's fears of becoming extinct, even while you are supposedly under the protection of the Bureau of Prisons. The government makes up its rules as they go along and will even void our Constitution as they see fit. I no longer trust this government and I am also afraid that I may never wake up one day as a result of the knowledge I possess. (Note: John has been assaulted twice—once life-threatening and the other very close to it.)

Until next time,
Your man on the inside,
/s/ Michael Maholy

Timeless Spiritual Reminder From Esu "Jesus" Sananda

Editor's note: We have elected to share, once again, writings which appeared from Esu "Jesus" Sananda some years ago, specifically in 1991. The message rings as true today as it did then, and we hope that you will spend some serious "quiet time" in reading and reflecting on his generous offerings in wisdom. Many of us readers are guilty of wanting "new" information, "more" information when, in truth, if we really read, reread, and studied that which has already been offered, we would constantly receive new insight. Since these writings from Sananda are lengthy, we have chosen to break them into a series of several installments.

We here at CONTACT would like to take a moment to PUBLICLY thank Sananda for his TRUE LIGHT AND LIGHTED WISDOM AND GENEROSITY IN SHARING SUCH TRUTH WITH US. THANK YOU!

Part I of this series began in our 3/19/96 CONTACT on p. 28.

6/7/91 #1 ESU "JESUS" SANANDA

Mitakuye oyasin. For all my relations, I speak. I speak for all that came before and who will come after for all I have is NOW. If we come not into brotherhood NOW, we have nothing. I am the one you call Jesus, but that is not my label—our Father calls me Sananda and it is the time of bearing His presence again upon the spaces of His magnificent Creation. What means the label? One WITH God, One OF God; ONE WITH ALL: THE WORD, THE TRUTH AND THE LIGHT.

Therefore, I am, too, the "Son of Man", the Wayshower, the Truthbringer—I AM!

Gabriel gave unto you an image of me to which you could relate in your own imaginings but it is only ONE image from 2000 years ago and that image bears little recognition if you walk among my other Creations; my other relations. God would not and does not come among His people except in images that are understood and recognized as selves. Would a father terrify his child? Today, I weep, for man (father) of Earth place most surely would do so and does so. Our Father who gave us LIFE would not. He comes as the breeze across our brow—the seas upon the shore, the voice of the songbird, the limp of a crippled sparrow—ah yes, how many times have you turned from God? How many of you will miss our journey among you now? God has kept every promise unto you, the greatest of His Creations, and He sends His Hosts again, to bring you home and they come before that you might have Truth and find the way back within the safe fold.

Ye have raped of thine Mother, and incested thine own creations and you have fallen into the dark places set forth by the adversary. Just today the churches who call themselves of God—do "vote-in" the very lies of the adversary within their doctrines to further destroy you as a people. You break all the laws and call it "good".

MARK OF THE BEAST

You are told that you already bear the markings of the Beast and it is understood not. Let us suppose that a man steals your cow and puts his mark upon that cow—does it make the cow less the property of the original owner? Nay, and the original owner shall find out which cows have been shackled and stolen and he will go forth and reclaim of them. So be it, for a shepherd knows his sheep. I have come again to sort our Father's lambs and I recognize no brand of the adversary. And when I call our Father's sheep, they shall know and hear and all else will pass away as the chaff in the fields of ripe grain. In which pasture will I find YOU? The blessings shall flow as the river of LIFE upon my lambs—every moment of thine service shall be repaid in abundance a hundredfold and ye are blessed among Man. If ye have heard your call, ye are indeed blest—and for some, the call is all that needs be heard for none are knowing of their full commitment and task contract. Allow it to unfold and as you stay within the Light, so will your purpose come into your KNOWING. All things and beings of God shall be raised into the presence of that which is higher and radiant and you shall not longer desire nor have need of that which is manifested in the physical limitations. It may well be, and ye know not, that the play is finished and you are already within the transition!

You have no way in which to know whether or not it is the will of God what the adversary and his gleanings will be in this final separation onto and within the very nest in which he has wrought his evil games. Perhaps you continue to limit your perceptions of that which IS and you need only reminding of the presence and KNOWING. You see, Man can gain, through his human desires, things which he thinks will bring him wholeness, power, wealth, etc., but what he really wants is the knowing of his own power above all else and that only comes in the fulfillment of one with God. So Man human has a very long way to journey from out the pits. You must have your roadmap back to the stars from whence you came. And you need your wings with which to find the path passable—i.e., you need US, brothers. Moreover, WE need YOU in order to fulfill our own mission for we have come for you and we will not return unto our Father without His flock. So be it.

NO "LONG AGO" NOR "FAR AWAY"

There is no such thing as "long ago" nor "far away" and that which was the message 2000 years ago is that which is brought today. Then as now, I told you to believe in the "good" tidings and have faith (pistis). Faith is indispensable for admission to the Kingdom of Heaven. It is the prerequisite of salvation and is itself salvation—for a man will become that which he visions and believes and in which his faith resides.

Only to faith is the coming of the Kingdom manifested. By the clouds men know that rain is coming, by the leaves of the tree they know that summer is nigh at hand; but they see not the signs of the coming Kingdom for it has been deliberately obscured by your adversary who would test you and pull you away into his dark passages that you might experience all. But it is the time for returning from those dark choices and again bring your travels to the path of Light that you do not simply become one with the evil itself.

When I say that you see not the signs of the coming Kingdom, that is to say: they do not "believe". The true sign is myself, my teachings and my Word. Only faith can see me. Therefore: Blessed is he, who never shall be offended in me.

Faith is the life of those who have already glimpsed the Kingdom of Heaven. On this faith the most unbelievable gifts are bestowed and all things are possible to him that believes. Whosoever shall say unto a mountain to be removed and cast into the sea; and shall not doubt in his heart, but shall believe that those things which he says shall come to pass; he shall have whatsoever he says. The method by which the mountain is moved is the only object in point. If you believe strongly enough in the desire to move the mountain—you will move it—by bucket, by trucks or by any method necessary. It will, however, be neither mystical nor coy—it will be within the laws of Nature/Creation that it will be moved. What will SEEM to be makes no difference whatsoever.

I healed the sick as I walked about the places of those ancient lands? Did I? No—through the faith of the bearer of spirit and faith—did the God within heal of self. I only knew the strength and unlimited ability of God within myself and within those believing ones. I said then and I say now, your faith makes you whole. I only gave the suggestion in the name of our Father/Creator that has again and again been used all over the world to banish or induce what appears to be “abnormal” phenomena. Only one who “believes” can experience such effects, which are now familiar to your medical and psychological experience. But I did more than perform miracles by suggestion, dear ones. I forgave sins. I allowed the person in punishment of self to relieve his heart of the burden of punishment placed upon self and expressed in the deviation from perfection.

When it is stated that “your sins are forgiven you”, it is then the “faith” of the forgiven who releases the burden through faith. The cure is present in order that men, seeing this power, may be convinced of God’s power to forgive errors and thus, so can Man forgive self. This is why you must ask in truth and desire and it shall be given you; seek, and you shall be led into the finding; knock, and the way will be opened unto you.

But Man should accept all this as a gift, knowing that he has not somehow “deserved” it for when you shall have done all those things which are commanded you, you must recognize that you have only done that which was your duty.

Man cannot keep accounts with God. God makes the Sun to shine on the evil and on the good, and sends rain on the just and on the unjust. Human thought cannot undermine faith by figuring out what “ought” to happen. With God all things are possible. Whatever happens, God knows “why”, and the believer finds no grievance against God in an unexpected catastrophe or in events that he simply cannot understand at the moment.

This faith is expressed in the words “Our Father”. Three phrases are crucial: “Thy Kingdom come”—in the Kingdom you shall be one with God’s will, the world will be ended and with it all affliction. “Give us this day our daily bread”—freedom from worldly cares is possible only through the faith that builds on God. This does not say “drop-out and you will receive what you want”. This indicates that you will work diligently and through your works shall you have that which is required unto you. “Forgive us our trespasses; and lead us not into temptation”—freedom from errors in the way to the Kingdom of Heaven, and freedom from error can be given only by God. It is a voicing of the total desire to not make wrong choices during your journey unto home and Source.

For the believer, God is all in all. The finite and transient world is only a sign. But God makes the lilies grow for it is the natural way of Creation that it be so, no sparrow falls to the ground except by His knowing, the hairs of a man’s head are numbered for the Creator is present within and pays quite a bit more attention to the housing of Man than does the housed. Though sign and reality are interwoven, the metaphoric character of all worldly existence implies a radical separation between the world and the Kingdom of Heaven. The world passes away; the Kingdom abides forever.

Faith is a word for the Biblical relation to God. It means absolute trust in the will of God—that does NOT mean in a church house wherein Man goes to be told a thing or another. It means “absolute” trust in the will of God. “Thy will be done” is an expression of this trust. Faith is certainly concerning God, concerning Man’s bond with Him, concerning God’s love which is the foundation of prayer. Faith is the salt that seasons a man’s whole being. But it cannot be taken for granted, induced by design. It does not understand itself. It is weak and fragile. Effort can only denature it. It is a gift, not a possession. “Lord, I believe; help me in my unbelief”—you must ask for the continuing connection.

I taught faith—not knowledge as such. For it is only through the belief and desire that KNOWLEDGE is attained. The meaning remains veiled for the unbeliever; to the believer only, it is revealed, yet even then not in clear statements—but rather, it comes in parables and paradoxes so that the being can be given into “seeing” and recognize the “knowingness”. You question still, regarding parables and I can only say that unto you it is given to know the mystery of the Kingdom of God; but unto them that are without, all things are done in parables—for it is only the way it IS.

I have no concern for “logical” consistency for it is for Man to REASON AND PONDER THAT WHICH IS GIVEN. He must come into the understanding for that is the purpose of the journey through the experience of manifested places of “choice” and “free will”. You that are not with me are against me for the middle of the road is not a place; it is but a perception. At what exact point does the path become the right side vs. the left side? But as long as you remain on the left side and do not cross the mid-point—you are on the left side! Therefore, you that are not against me are on our part. Further, I tell you to “Resist not evil” and then again on the other: I bring not peace but a sword. Where everything is a “sign”, there are no contradictions. I do not represent a system of thought—but rather, a message in “signs”. This is so that the least among you and all your relations which are of Nature and Creation can KNOW by the signs—even the fig tree has signs to cause it to leaf. No chantings nor ravings shall induce it to leaf before the signs are proper.

WHAT OF THE LIFE OF THE ONE CALLED ESU (JESUS)?

I grew up, in that experience, in Nazareth in Galilee with my mother whom you label Mary, four brothers, and several sisters. I learned a trade so that I could sustain myself. I was taught according to the instructions as accepted as doctrine of the day. As I grew to manhood, I learned of John the Baptist, the anchorite of the Jordan country, who proclaimed the coming of the Kingdom and God’s last judgment, and preached repentance, baptism, and the remission of sins. I have spent time with my brothers in the higher reaches of the Cosmos so that I would know of that which I was to serve in purpose. I came into knowledge of my commission unto my Earth brothers for I, too, came forth within the veil that no thing would be “special” for my experience. It would be the time of my own testing within the journey of Christed guidance and fulfillment. I came with no “special anything” so that I could experience and grow as all Man grows and experiences that his ultimate choices shall be in goodness that he might return unto the Creator in Truth and oneness. I was given into the human emotions for that was my experience—human. I was not finished with my lessons which would return me into the perfection of Sananda—ONE AS GOD. I claimed not that title; Man thrust upon me the erroneous label for I was tested as are all men before their journey is ended.

I asked baptism by John that I might openly show my faith and accept my mission. I spent time in the desert for I had faith and need to prove my faith that God would care for me and tend of my needs. I went alone and asked no man a thing. You see it is not meant that Man should simply go forth and require that “another” tend of him—that is not what is meant when it is said that God will tend of you. I simply gave responsibility unto God and He provided that which I needed to sustain—not some hermit, nor beast, nor insect—just me and God self. I simply came into the KNOWING that I was all and that my power was within myself and in that KNOWING I could endure and survive beyond all things thrust upon me.

As I grew in the location of my birthing into the physical, I traveled and spoke of the things of God and balance of Nature. They, not I, referred to me as a rabbi which only meant teacher of the Word. It is a "status" now but then it meant only "teacher/speaker". I spoke in the synagogues for that is where the ones who would teach the doctrines were stationed and, frankly, I was little accepted for mostly I told them what was amiss in their own teachings. This does not endear a young person to his elders who appears to come in contradiction.

I wandered from place to place in Galilee, gathered friends who could accept the Word and told the people of the coming of the Kingdom. Not much different from this day—only the manner is different for it would be that in the return, the physical would not be manifest until all signs were proper. Therefore, I now give the WORD in the same manner in which I received it in those experiences—from higher Source but presented by human methods. Dharma, for instance, claims not to BE me, or Aton, or Hatonn, or Germain—she claims to be that which she is—a human who translates and scribes signals onto paper or by audial output. She is one of many for the WORD must now be given unto the four corners and farthest reaches of the globe for it is time of the concluding portion of the cycle—the connecting spiral ever into infinity. Dharma identifies "with" me—not "AS" me.

I efforted then, as now, that you must live in the world as you perceive it to be, but you must remain "indifferent" to those "things" of your perception. I shared the ethos of love and devotion to God's will. Unfortunately I became known as a performer of miracles—mostly called a magician and mystic, who healed the sick, drove out devils, and awakened the dead. How sad that man would pick the mystical nonsense and miss the very point of my journey.

I can assure you that my career as a preacher lasted only a few months. Strange that only the last few days, comprising what you refer to as the "Passion", are described by the historians and then they even botched the truth of that experience. They handled the story of the main episodes as being the journey to Jerusalem, the cleaning of the Temple (which only got me crucified—just as any rebellion against the politicians gets you today), the Last Supper or Gathering of my friends, the agony in a garden, the betrayal and arrest (which was one of the most enduring lies of all), the hearings, the judgment of the Sanhedrin, the decision of Pontius Pilate, the crucifixion and burial which is not given in any manner of truth unto this day.

The question must arise: Why did I go to Jerusalem? Well, quite a group, or following, had attached themselves to me—for it was not as easy to go about as in your day. Further, ones always believe, somehow, that TRUTH simply flows by contact and/or osmosis. I was considered no more than a "hippy" in your day. But TRUTH will "out" and that which I brought was TRUTH and Man hungered and thirsted after TRUTH and reason, and wisdom touched Man for the lies were obvious which flowed forth from the mouths of the self-proclaimed teachers of doctrine. Any time I showed up anywhere it was a mass of confusion for ones longed to hear Truth and wanted to follow that which represented the projection of Truth. It was my message—not my presence. It was, however, also that same message which the elite would make all effort to stop. You see, chelas, you want to hold to dreams and fantasy—but it is no different TODAY!

Why do we basically keep Dharma an unknown entity? Because it MUST BE ON THE WORD AND TRUTH OF LIFE, GOD AND CREATION THAT YOU BASE YOUR EXISTENCE—NOT ON A LITTLE GRANDMOTHER WHO WRITES. IT MUST BE ON THE WORD OF TRUTH! You must be given not into the following nor the worshipping of any man. You are not to be given into the "worshipping" of any spiritual being beyond Man, including God—HE DEMANDS NOT WORSHIP—HE DEMANDS RESPECT AND ABIDING LAW FROM MAN—REVERENCE!

One must deal with that which IS and accept that which will come and hindsight is often perfection but you cannot ever change an iota of that which WAS. Therefore, I went into Jerusalem and it matters not as to why—at this telling. The authorities, however, were reminded of the disorders that had been created by other agitators and quelled by force. I gave no sign of any desire for political power—but I could not control those antagonists and betrayers who would cling to the group—just as you can't today. My enemies were far more in number than were my friends. It turned out that even those I felt to be my closest friends would turn away when the going would get rough. When the going got rough—the rough got going—as fast as they could paddle in the other direction. Stop the nonsense given forth about the experience—for I was human and I was in torment and I was terrified—yes, terrified. It was the hardest testing of my own belief (faith) in my own being and that of my Creator/Father.

It has been presented that I went forth into Jerusalem to provoke a decision of some sort. Well, I suppose that could be construed as such for my purpose was to provoke Man to think in terms of gaining Knowledge about his connections.

Moreover, just as with you eager speakers who now know that which is Truth—you feel a shortage of "time" to tell Man that which is correct vs. that which is totally erroneous. Remember, it was the time of the great feast of the Passover in Jerusalem (Easter holiday), the center of Judean life, and it would be appropriate to reach as many souls as possible. I had no television or radio—even controlled media—as you have this day. Further, I knew that imminent was the ending of the cycle—but like you—I was not given in total understanding that "imminent" means one thing on a place with perceived "time" and "space" limitations and quite another to the "timeless" and "spaceless" experience. Like you, I thought our time was up, over, capoot! I was disappointed that the world was taking so long to end, quite frankly. Just as some of you do, this day—"Oh, my, well the Earth is still here this morning—what a disappointment!"

But worse, chelas, I was misinformed about the TRUTH for I was also taught by the indoctrinated according to their own ego needs for power. I identified myself with the servant of God in Deutero-Isaiah and had come to absolutely believe that God demanded my martyrdom at the hand of the worldly powers and that with this event I would usher in the Kingdom of Heaven. Don't ever be smug in your assumptions of self power, chelas, for you will err greatly. God will allow you to martyr yourself EVERY time. It is NOT His desire; but your own.

I fully expected that the Kingdom would dawn at the last moment and, frankly, I was disillusioned and I did cry out in despair and asked God why He had forsaken me. How many of you martyr yourselves in your self-righteous assumption that you speak for, and/or are THE God. Would I do it differently this day? Absolutely—and here I am doing it very differently THIS DAY. I too, had to learn and finish my own lessons that I might be worthy in perfection of wisdom to be ONE with Creator.

Man can "suppose" this or that all he wishes—the point is that until you come into the wisdom of KNOWING, you will make decisions and choices which are based on assumption as presented unto you—and not on actual fact of KNOWING.

Why would Father allow this? Because God will always "allow" and it would be my testing as to whether or not I would experience in fullness or take the easy way out of my plight—which, by the way, I had gotten into quite nicely by my own actions. I was no lesser nor any greater than is any one of you. I was Man in flesh and I was given into despair and terror, pain and futility and yet, the experience is blessed beyond all things for I was given into the growing and learning which could bring me into the absolute and totality of KNOWING. Now we walk a seemingly different journey, but it is the same. I have grown and can see in ALLNESS and become one with that which Creates and, still, I work only within the very laws of Creation which serve you. The balance within Creation is beyond the tampering of various little experiences and experiencing fragments of the whole.

I was not thoughtless about that which I did not about that which came upon me—I knew what I was doing even if it was a nasty bit of unwise conjecture for the being at hand. I did not go blindly to some doom, beloved ones. I knew exactly that which I would do and moreover, I was being given to see beyond and into the consequences as would project from my actions. It was a FREE WILL CHOICE WHICH I MADE.

I spoke directly to my friends (disciples) and I find the words of wisdom as good today as in that moment: "I send you forth as sheep in the midst of wolves; be ye therefore wise as serpents, and harmless as doves." It stood them well then and it will stand you well NOW.

I went further and I repeat it to you now for the wisdom is no less: Give not that which is holy unto the dogs, neither cast your pearls before swine, lest they trample them under their feet, and turn again and rend you. Beware, brothers, of the pigs in the pen and especially those who get into thine own pen. In other words, know when to keep your mouth shut and when you can be heard—for God requires no martyrs—then or now, so if you become a martyr—know that you do it for self and not for God.

In my wanderings in Galilee, I kept as hidden as possible when it was likely that my greatest enemy would seek and destroy me—for now, as then, the prophets of God are targeted for destruction. Herod was no different from that which you call President, Adviser to the President and/or King. You must act always in wisdom for foolishness costs not just self but your brother as well. The point is to bring forth the WORD, not make a holy martyr of self in your ego-trip to be the important cog in the overall wheel. You see, I had a lot to learn in these interim two thousand years in your counting of days. You must be as wise as the serpent and as harmless as the dove.

This is sufficient unto our needs for this writing. May you be given into understanding and sharing of TRUTH for that is the mission we have accepted. Saalome.

I AM.
