April's Looking To Be A Busy Month

As Elite's Plans Unfold Bigtime

PERCEPTIONS

As you come into April of this year 1996 you will find many things planned and some of those things taking place.

This morning, just to name a few things, there are massive and widespread incidents and rumors of things which bear your attention. However, we have long since the start of our writings found that, even though we write on things of major world happenings, the human mind can't hold it all in focus. The MIND will only FOCUS on one thing at a time or go into overload. If you are unprepared, for instance, with only grade-school mathematics you CANNOT take up calculus and solve problems. You can't even perceive what the questions might be.

Let me mention a few things which are getting only cursory attention from your media, unlike your worthless Academy Awards for pretending. While you are distracted, guess what is happening!

TUBERCULOSIS

In the East Bloc countries which have been so under siege by wars and inter-cross-struggling, Tuberculosis of a NEW strain is bursting forth. It is untreatable and incurable and the World Health Organization expects tens of millions of

So You Want To Plant A Garden?

Well, readers, it's that time of year when thoughts of sweet corn and juicy tomatoes should be dancing thru your dreams—things you can't hardly find anymore in the grocery store's produce counter. Genetic and chemical tinkering, for reasons of both commercial profit and a more sinister health-degradation-of-the-populace agenda, have made most fruits and vegetables bland-tasting and vitamin-deficient at best, and inedible at worst, causing that old decorative bowl of wax fruit on the dining room table to look more and more appealing with each passing season.

So, at this timely juncture in the early stages of this year's growing season for North America, we enthusiastically reprint Rick Martin's excellent tutorial on home gardening from our 7/4/95 CONTACT. Believe me, I've been the delighted beneficiary of surplus bounty from Rick's garden each year and I can testify—under oath or a big green salad—that Rick knows that of which he speaketh. So get to work—and enjoy!

—E.Y.

THE SOWER

That same day Immanuel went out of the house, and sat by the seaside.

And many people gathered around him, so that he had to go up and sit in a boat, and all the people stood on the seashore.

And he spoke many things to them in parables and said, "Behold, a sower went out to sow;

And when he had sown, some seed fell on the roadside, and the fowls came and ate it.

Other seed fell upon the rock, where there was not sufficient soil; and it sprang up earlier because the ground was not deep enough;

But when the sun shone, it was scorched, and because it had no root, it dried up;

And other seed fell among thistles, and the thistles sprang up and choked it.

And other seed fell in good soil and bore fruit, some one hundred-fold and some sixty and some thirty.

He who has ears to hear, let him hear."

[Matthew 13:1-9.]

CONSIDER THIS

With geophysical changes looming on the horizon, combined with awakening to the reality of nutritionless food, growing one's own food becomes an increasingly desirable idea. At some point in the not too distant future, it will become a necessity.

"Give us the strength to encounter that which is to come that we may be brave in peril, constant in tribulation, temperate in wrath, and in all changes of fortune, and down to the gates of death, loyal and loving to one another." [Robert L. Stevenson]

The Golden Rule as given by the Prophet to the Shawnee:

"Do not kill or injure your neighbor, for it is not he that you injure; you injure yourself. Do good to him, thus adding to his days of happiness even as you then add to your own.

"Do not wrong or hate your neighbor; for it is not he that you wrong; you wrong yourself. Rather love him, for The Great Spirit loves him, even as He loves you."

Most people in cities have no idea how to begin a garden or even consider the possibility that such a thing can be done on a smaller scale using planter boxes. But for the average person in more rural areas who is unfamiliar with the often technical aspects of growing a garden, the prospect becomes too overwhelming to consider and is put off indefinitely.

"...the Earth is utterly broken down, the Earth is utterly moved, the Earth is staggering exceedingly. The Earth shall reel to and fro like a drunkard and shall be shaken like a hut and its transgressions shall fall and not rise again." [Isaiah 24:19-20.]

Well, dear readers, the time for putting off growing your garden, big or small, is past and it truly is the better part of WISDOM to take steps in this direction to insure quality nourishment in the days, months, and years ahead. I know that the time for beginning a garden may seem too late—but please remember that the garden spot you prepare will be needed and used not only this season, but for many years ahead. Therefore, even though it is late in the summer season, by all means, get busy. Also, buy a straw hat for sun protection.

The instructions here are something that I have personally used over the last fifteen plus years. If you follow the instructions explained here, it will work and you will have food to eat. This initial financial outlay can be considerable—but in subsequent years the cost is relatively small. When you consider growing your own food rich in nutrients, the cost should be secondary. The charts within this article hold a wealth of critical information—by all means, USE THEM. Even the most sophisticated gardener can learn from the information contained within them.

"Our old food we used to eat was good. The meat from the buffalo and game was good. It made us strong. These cows are good to eat, soft, tender, but they are not like that meat. Our people used to live a long time. Today we eat white man's food, we cannot live so long—maybe seventy, maybe eighty years, not a hundred. Sweet Medicine told us that. He said this food would be sweet, and after we taste this food we want it, and forget our own foods. Chokecherries and plums and wild turnips and honey from the wild bees, that was our food. This other food is too sweet. We eat it and forget...It's all coming true, what he said." [Fred Last Bull, Keeper of the Sacred Arrows of the Cheyenne Tribe, told that to an audience in Busby, Montana, in 1967.]

SIZE UP YOUR PROPERTY

An obvious first step is to survey your property to see what the most reasonable location for a garden would be. Always keep in mind the availability of water. Choose a location with lots of direct sunlight. Also consider overall size—the larger the garden is the more time and water it will take to maintain. You want an area large enough to produce sufficient food for you, your family and friends, but small enough so you are not an absolute slave to it. As a single person, starting with a garden as small as 10 feet x 10 feet is not unreasonable. I would recommend, however, that larger would be more desirable. For the purposes of this article, I use the hypothetical garden space as 20 feet x 80 feet, which is a pretty good-sized garden for a small family. When you start planting more than a quarter acre, then you've got something which will keep you tied to it with a ball and chain.

If you only have an area where there is a lawn, consider pulling it up and planting a garden instead. In difficult times you won't want to eat the lawn—or perhaps I should say: you may want to eat the lawn but a garden will look a lot better.

In times of drought, a small, intensively grown garden is highly desirable as the yield is very high and it requires less water than traditional farming methods.

"No one should control more arable land than he can maintain in a high state of productivity, the four great factors of which are good seed, suitable moisture, abundant available plant food and rational tillage. In a large majority of cases where failure, or partial failure of an abundant crop is observed the meagre results are due to a partial lack of one of these four fundamentals." [Isaac Phillips Roberts from Ten Acres Enough.]

SEED

Once you've decided to put in a garden, then you need to choose what you'd like to grow—always keeping in mind the specifics about your particular geographical region and the time of year. GET YOUR SEED ORDERED ONCE YOU'VE GIVEN SOME CAREFUL CONSIDERATION TO IT, AND THAT WAY THE SEEDS CAN BE ON THEIR WAY TO YOU WHILE YOU COMPLETE OTHER ASPECTS OF THE GARDEN PREPARATION. ORDER SEED FIRST, THEN PREPARE THE SOIL. ALSO, ORDER NON-HYBRID OR SO-CALLED "HEIRLOOM" OPEN-POLLINATED SEED. With this type of seed, which is rare in this country, you may replant year after year after year using seed from your own crops. Most seed at grocery stores, hardware stores, and most seed companies are hybrid—which means that you can only use the seed for one growing season—and then you need to repurchase seed for the next year. THIS IS SOMETHING YOU WANT TO AVOID IF AT ALL POSSIBLE. PLAN ACCORDINGLY AND ORDER NON-HYBRID SEED—IN THE YEARS AHEAD YOU AND YOUR FAMILY'S LIFE COULD DEPEND ON IT! Here are some non-hybrid seed companies that I strongly recommend you communicate with and get their catalog: [Please tell them CONTACT sent you.]

HIGH-YIELD GARDENING—RAISED BEDS

"...ere long the most valuable of all arts will be the art of deriving a comfortable subsistence from the smallest area of soil. No community whose every member possesses this art can ever be the victim of oppression in any of its forms."

[Abraham Lincoln, 1859.]

Once you've identified the location for your garden, then the work really begins. This article will concentrate primarily on raised-bed gardening, which is referred to by various names. The beds generally are rectangular in overall shape, varying in width from 3-5 feet across and whatever length you determine but if the shape of your particular piece of land is such, the beds can take on curves or even become circular. The finished beds are elevated above the ground, anywhere from six inches to a foot high. But let's begin with soil preparation, because without that there won't be any food for the table.

Why raised beds? Well, for one thing, raised beds can solve a wide range of gardening problems. Here are just a few:

HOW HIGH-YIELD GARDENING CAN SOLVE
THESE COMMON GARDENING PROBLEMS

According to a National Gardening Survey, the following are the most vexing problems that plague backyard growers. The techniques used in high-yield gardening can solve or even prevent these common dilemmas.

Not Enough Water	The high humus content, uncompacted soil, and the self-shading created by closely spaced plants act to conserve soil moisture deep down. Beds allow you to concentrate a limited water supply directly where it's needed; you won't waste water on pathways. It's easy to lay out an efficient drip irrigation system among beds. Plants growing in raised beds develop deep, probing root systems and are more resistant to drought.
Insects	Mixing plantings within a single bed (instead of growing row upon row of the same crop) confuses insects, making it harder for them to locate their host plants. It's much easier to monitor each plant's development in the confined areas of a bed, so insect problems can be caught early, when they're easier to treat. Entire beds can be outfitted with a cheesecloth or other covering to keep egg-laying worms away.
Weeds	Closely spaced plants that form a "living" mulch in conjunction with standard mulches laid on the soil control weeds and cut down on the time spent weeding.
Hot Temperatures	Closely spaced plants shade the soil and each other, offering some relief from the heat. Interplanting taller and shorter crops shades the lower level planting. Lath or other shading structures are easy to set up to cover a whole bed.
Too Much Water	Raised beds drain very quickly and alleviate soggy soil conditions.
Animal Pests	Birds and rabbits can be kept at bay by covering beds with curved frames draped with plastic netting. You can get in and out easily, but the wild creatures can only gaze instead of graze.
Problems with Plant Growth and Soil Conditions	Raised beds overcome problem soils. You can create ideal growing mediums inside the beds by blending soil, sand, manure, peat moss, and other amendments. You can also tailor the soil to meet plants' specific nutrient needs. Because beds are never walked on, plants have a soft, deep area for excellent root development, which encourages strong, healthy plant growth.

Spectacular yields depend first on soil conditioning that can readily meet the heavy demands of close planting, carefully timed successions, and a growing season stretched to its absolute limit.

“Teach us to know and to see all the powers of the Universe, and give to us the knowledge to understand that they are all really one Power.” [Black Elk.]

I will assume that most of you putting in your first garden will not go to the trouble of having your soil actually “tested”. But if you do, keep in mind that most plants thrive on a pH range anywhere between 6.0 and 7.5. A good rule of thumb would be: Assume your soil is very poor and needs amending with nutrients and organic matter. It is essential to have organic material in the soil, such as manure, compost, minerals, or combination amendments which loosen the soil to allow for retention of moisture and healthy root growth. If you are purchasing manure, be sure it is “aged” 6 months to a year—otherwise you’ll end up with a lot of weeds and grass seed in the garden. Most bagged manure at nurseries is sterilized and aged. In many rural areas manure is readily available from local ranchers and is generally advertised in the want-ads, and often will be delivered for a fee. Larger gardens can require quite a few cubic yards of manure and it is considerably less expensive in bulk—however the danger comes in not knowing if it is “aged”, and that can really make the difference if you end up with a huge pile of grass or weeds in your garden.

Go out to the area you’ve chosen as a garden spot and carefully examine and feel the soil. Here is one guide which may be useful to you.

“Creation does not take place where there is a scattering and dissipation of energies. Creation requires a gathering together and focusing of your power within a circle of commitment—like a seed, an egg, a womb or a marriage. If you would create and not destroy, you must remember always the Sacred Hoop. Consider wisely the ways in which you would use your power and then around those ways draw the sacred circle of commitment. In the warm atmosphere of that circle, the power of love builds and builds like a storm above the wet summer prairie until suddenly the circle can hold no more and explodes in the conception of the new.” [words spoken by White Buffalo Calf Woman, from Ken Carey’s Return of the Bird Tribes.]

DISCOVERING YOUR SOIL TYPE FIRSTHAND

If It Looks ...	And Feels ...	And Is ...	It Needs ...
hard baked, crusty, and perhaps even deeply cracked when allowed to dry out	harsh and rock hard when dry	hard to work	substantial additions of organic materials to break up the compaction and open channels for aeration and drainage. Some good choices: compost, manure, leaf mold, rice hulls, peat moss, coarse sand, sawdust, and wood chips.
scarce in pore spaces holding air and water	sticky, greasy, or rubbery when wet	very slow to absorb water and to dry out	lime to improve its texture and free locked-up soil nutrients for the use of plants.
devoid of individual particles		slow to warm up in spring	leguminous green manure crops.
		likely to form large, congealed lumps if worked when wet	spading or tilling in fall to expose massive solid clods to the weathering action of freezes and thaws.
loose and friable	grainy and gritty	easy to work	continual augmenting with large amounts of organic matter to hold water and nutrients within the range of plant roots.
quite porous	crumbly and won't hold its shape when squeezed	quick to warm up in spring	manure worked in deeply in autumn or winter.
full of large, irregularly shaped mineral particles		fast drying	plentiful applications of peat moss, compost, leaf mold, or sawdust in topsoil layer.
more or less devoid of larger pieces or granules		low in nutrients because soluble plant foods are lost through leaching	green manures to build structure.
very dark brown	like moist peat moss when squeezed	easy to work	layers of gravel or drainage tiles to improve drainage.
full of organic matter in varying stages of decay		slow to warm up and dry out in wet springs	lime added as needed.
granular and porous		slow to decompose
		low in minerals full of crumbs of various sizes	spongy, compacting readily into a ball when squeezed, but falling apart readily when prodded	easy to work	regular infusions of organic matter to maintain its already excellent fertility and structure.
quite porous	or floury and talcum-powdery when dry and only moderately plastic when moist	very productive well drained yet able to retain moisture as it is needed well aerated
		retentive of nutrients

PREPARING THE SOIL

The next intermediate step will be to till the soil. Many gardening purists insist on digging by hand—but I have found over the years that a rototiller can be a good friend indeed.

There are a variety of excellent books available on the subject of raised-bed gardening, and most go into great detail about double-digging the beds by hand while adding various soil amendments. The instructions I am providing here are geared for those of you readers who have never planted a garden, aren't particularly interested in digging a quarter-acre plot by hand but would still like to prepare some soil in which to grow food without killing yourself in the process.

Tilling is best when the soil is somewhat moist but not soaking wet. Many types of tillers are good; I prefer Troy-Bilt. Very dry soil is difficult to break-up and the tiller will tend to "buck". If you are starting your soil preparation during the summer months, you may have to heavily water the garden area over a period of several days and then wait for it to partially dry out. Somewhat moist is best—soggy wet is not.

Once you've tilled the soil so that the top foot or more is loose, then you are ready to begin adding the necessary soil amendments to properly build up the soil. Here are some guides for your assistance.

And It's...

CLAY If other kinds of particles are present in quantity, such soil can be classified as a stony clay, gravelly clay, sandy clay, or silty clay.

SANDY Depending on the size and texture of the particles, such soil may be classified as gravelly, coarse, medium, fine, or loamy sand.

MUCK or PEAT Peat is not fully decomposed. Muck is the same soil in a more advanced state of decay. It tends to be waterlogged and lacking in lime but rich in nutrients such as nitrogen.

LOAM A mixture of sand, silt, and clay, this close-to-ideal soil combines the best qualities of light and heavy growing media. Depending on the kind and size of the particles that predominate, a sample may be categorized as a coarse, sandy, medium sand, fine sand, silty, stony silt, or clay loam.

Depending on where you live, your local nursery can provide you with a wealth of information. Different nurseries have different soil amendments. There are many excellent "soil building" products on the market—some organic, some not. Don't get too "hung-up" on a strictly organic approach, but you certainly do want some organic matter mixed into the soil for healthy root production for your crops. What you elect to use may very well be determined by what is available in your area. I have often been frustrated by this one point. Try not to be—use what is available to you.

10. Do not plant for 2 weeks if using more than 3 pounds blood meal per 100 sq. ft. It can burn the plants during this time since it releases nitrogen rapidly at first.

11. 1 cubic yard equals 27 cubic feet. 1 cubic yard will cover 100 sq. ft. 3" deep. 8 cubic feet will cover 100 sq. ft. 1" deep. 2 cubic feet will cover 100 sq. ft. 1/4" deep. You can substitute manure for compost the first year if you do not have a ready supply of compost.

12. Beginning the sixth year your legumes, cover crops, and recycled plant materials (in the form of compost) can provide most of your nitrogen, phosphorous and potash. Double-check this periodically with a soil test.

13. For trace minerals: kelp meal is 33% trace minerals.

13a. Except for first double-dig when it is added before.

8. Addition of nutriment at these levels is optimal.

9. Because of the growth hormones kelp meal contains, do not add more than 1 pound per 100 square feet per year.

ANALYSIS OF RECOMMENDED ORGANIC SOIL AMENDMENTS

N, P and K refer to the three main nutrients plants need: NITROGEN for green growth and in compost piles to speed decomposition, PHOSPHORUS for root growth, disease resistance, and production of good fruits, vegetables, and flowers, and POTASH for strong stems, vigorous roots and increased disease resistance. Plants also need HUMUS which is provided by decomposed organic matter such as compost and manure. For information on the application rates for organic fertilizers when a soil test is not used, see the Fertilizer Program Table which follows this table.

NITROGEN

Cottonseed Meal

3-5% N 2% P 1% K Lasts 4-6 months. Use up to 10 lbs/100 sq. ft. Fair source of nitrogen. Especially good for citrus and azaleas because it has an acidifying effect on soil.

Blood Meal

12.5% N 1.3% P .7% K Lasts 3-4 months. Use up to 5 lbs./100 sq. ft. A quick acting source of nitrogen, good for slow compost piles. Can burn plants if using more than 3 lbs. per 100 square feet. If using higher amounts, wait 2 weeks to plant.

Hoof & Horn Meal

14% N 2% P 0% K Lasts 12 months. Use up to 4 lbs./100 sq. ft. Highest nitrogen source. Slow releasing: no noticeable results for 4-6 weeks.

Fish Meal

10.5% N 6% P 0% K Lasts 6-8 months. Use up to 5 lbs./100 sq. ft. Good combined nitrogen and phosphorus source.

PHOSPHORUS

Bone Meal

3% N 20% P 0% K Lasts 6 months to 1 year. Use up to 5 lbs./100 sq. ft. Excellent source of phosphorus. Especially good on roses, around bulbs, and around fruit trees and flower beds.

Phosphate Rock

33% P Lasts 3-5 years. Use up to 10 lbs./100 sq. ft. Very slow releasing.

Soft Phosphate

18% P Lasts 2-3 years. Use up to 10 lbs./100 sq. ft. Clay base makes it more available to plants than the phosphorus in phosphate rock, though the two are used interchangeably.

POTASH

Kelp Meal (Seaweed)

1% N 0% P 12% K 33% trace minerals. Lasts 6 months to 1 year. Excellent source of potash, iron, and other minerals. Reportedly, the proper amount of trace minerals in the soil may mean only one-half the fertilizers will be needed for the same growth and yield! Kelp meal is also a natural fungicide. Use sparingly (up to 1 pound per 100 square feet per year) because it contains growth hormones.

Wood Ashes

1-10% K Lasts 6 months. Use up to 1-2 lbs./100 sq. ft. Ashes from wood are high in potash and help repel root maggots. Ashes also have an alkaline effect of the soil, so use them with care if your soil is already alkaline. Black wood ash is best.

Crushed Granite

3-5% K Lasts up to 10 years. Use up to 10 lbs./100 sq. ft. Good slow-releasing source of potash and trace minerals.

Greensand

0%N 1.5% P 6.7% K Use interchangeably with crushed granite.

SOIL pH SCALE

A pH reading tells you the relative acidity/alkalinity of the soil. Most vegetables will grow well in a range from 6.0 to 7.5. 6.5 is probably the best all round pH. In extremely acid or extremely alkaline soils valuable nutrients are tied up and thus unavailable to the plants. An acid soil can be sweetened by the addition of dolomite lime. An alkaline soil can be brought closer to neutral by compost or manure. Compost has a buffering effect on soil, correcting both acid and alkaline conditions.

SOIL MODIFIERS

Dolomitic Lime

A good source of calcium and magnesium to be used in acid soils. Do not use lime to "sweeten" the compost pile; it results in a serious loss of nitrogen. You can discourage flies and odors with a layer of soil.

Gypsum

Gypsum is not needed by organic gardeners. It is normally used commercially in soils made impermeable by excess exchangeable sodium.

"Clodbuster"

15% Humic Acid 5.5 pH Lasts 1 year. It is crushed "rock" deposits made up of ancient plant and animal remains. Helps make soil less alkaline and releases nutrients tied up in the soil. Use up to 1 lb./100 sq. ft.

Crushed Eggshells

High in calcium. Especially good for cabbage family crops. Help break up clay and release nutrients tied up in alkaline soils. Use up to 2 lbs./100 sq. ft.

Manure

A good source of humus in the garden. Nutrient levels depend on proper handling and the amount of straw or sawdust present. Large amounts of bedding may add up to 2 years to the decomposition time.

"It is a fundamental error to suppose that farming is neither a business nor a profession. It is a business which requires the highest business talent, it is a profession which requires the best technical skill...No other profession requires such a variety of learning, such an insight into Nature, such skill of a technical kind in order to be successful, as the profession of farming." [Harvey W. Wiley from The Lure of the Land.]

Once you've purchased and spread your soil amendments (which can include manure, organic compost, and other material) across the entire surface area of your garden spot, once again, till the soil with the rototiller—or dig by hand if you are so inclined.

Fertilizer, whether organic or commercial, should be spread across the top of the completed beds and then lightly worked into the top several inches of the soil. Therefore, when spreading amendments for tilling into the soil, hold the actual fertilizer aside for the final step after the beds have been constructed.

BED CONSTRUCTION

Once you've spread the soil amendments over your garden area and have rototilled it thoroughly, next comes the hard part (physically). For the sake of discussion, let's say your garden area (plot) is 20 x 80. At this point you'll be needing a flat, square-end shovel with a short handle. Beginning at one end, shovel an outer pathway along the 80 foot side. The pathway will be approximately 18 inches wide. As you shovel (deeply) the soft, tilled soil, throw each shovelful right next to you as you go—on what will be your first bed. The beds will be, on the average, about 4 feet across. You could, theoretically, have a bed which would, in this case, measure 4 feet by 80 feet. (It is nice to break up these long beds with cross pathways for ease of moving around in the garden.)

When you have finished shoveling your first outer pathway by placing the excess dirt onto your first bed—then measure 4 feet across and mark it with occasional stakes or with stakes and a long string. Then, beginning at one end along the 20-foot side, 4 feet in from the 80-foot outer edge, begin shoveling an inner pathway. The pathway should be whatever width you are comfortable with—don't crowd yourself—18 inches is a good standard (less if space is limited). With the first shovel of dirt, throw it immediately to your left. With the next shovel, to your right—left then right, left then right until you are all the way across the 80-foot length of land. You now have an outer path, one 4-foot very rough looking bed, another path, and then the rest of the plot. Repeat the process. In the end you will have 4 raised beds, approximately 4 feet across and 80 feet long. good idea.

SHAPING THE BEDS

Now, using a long-handled (preferably wide) rake you will begin to shape and even out the beds. The beds should be, for all intents and purposes, flat on top.

When there is a lot of organic matter in the soil, the beds can be shaped as rounded mounds, but for purposes here I'll generically describe them as "flat-surfaced". You'll be able to tell by the texture of your specific soil what is the most appropriate shape for your unique garden. A flat surface tends to be the easiest to work with.

With the flat-surfaced bed, sides should be at a 45-degree angle to the horizontal—in other words, a moderate slope upward. As you work with the dirt you will develop a "feel" for it.

Once you've completed the general shaping of each of the beds, you should be pretty tired, so, take a break and have some lemonade.

Now, sprinkle the chemical or organic fertilizer evenly across the top of each bed. Then, gently work the fertilizer into the top several inches of the beds with a rake. When complete, smooth the entire top of each bed to a flat surface. Then, take a piece of plywood, say 2.5' x 4' and place it across the far end of the first bed. Stand on top of the board and gently jump up and down—you will flatten the surface of the beds to the extent that they will keep their shape in all weather conditions. Step off the board, move it slightly and repeat the process until the entire surface is gently flattened. Do this to all of the beds.

I would also recommend, with the beds now complete, that you drive wooden stakes into the ground at various spots around the edge of each bed—say, the four corners and then every six to ten feet—right up to the outer edge of the bed. These stakes, say four inches wide, 1 inch thick, by 1 foot long—will serve as "hose guides". As you drag hoses around your garden, this will prevent the hose from running up the sides of your beds and destroying your plants (which can often happen in a mere moment).

FENCING

Prior to planting and depending upon where you live, you may want to consider putting up a wire fence to keep out dogs and cats and animals like rabbits who may view your garden as theirs. Just one animal can do a great deal of damage to the completed beds. Cats will often use the soft dirt in a freshly prepared garden bed as a "litter box".

Generally speaking, fencing your garden is a

PLANTING

Using the raised-bed method of gardening, due to the loose soil structure, you are able to plant the rows closer together because the roots themselves grow straight down rather than flattening out with harder soil. You are also able to plant closer together within rows. Therefore, the overall yield is higher in a smaller space. Due to the high percentage of organic material in the soil, by using the raised-bed method the plant's root structure develops more fully and is, overall, healthier. A healthy root structure equates to greater yield of food production. The old saying, "Everything is connected to everything" really applies to gardening.

A good recommendation, even though slightly more costly, is to "sow heavy"—that means, use quite a bit of seed within the rows while you are planting and then "thin out" the plants later. This will prevent bald spots or open spots within the rows. Also, a common mistake for new gardeners is to plant the seed too deep—don't do it.

You want to plant (and later thin) in such a way as to have the mature leaves of the plants touching one another row-to-row. This creates a "mini-green-house effect" or a "living mulch" effect which softens the negative effects of hot mid-day sun. After all, sun-scorched plants must first repair damage before devoting energy to further growth development. Planting in this manner also shades the topsoil, thus preventing excessive water loss due to evaporation and it also discourages weed growth. The raised-bed method of gardening is really the very best of many approaches. And, by the way, with raised beds you don't have to lean over as far to harvest or pull weeds throughout the season. I believe this is why the Irish refer to raised beds as lazy beds.

You will probably want to plant some flowers throughout your garden. They add color and some, such as sun-thriving marigolds, deter insects. Plant flowers that you'd like to see and use for dinner-time table decorations. Mix it up a bit.

Also, when planting, don't plant all of any given crop at the same time—particularly with something like lettuce. Plant a few rows, then leave some open space for a second, or rotation planting. That way you always have fresh lettuce when the old lettuce has bolted, or gone to seed (which tends to happen in very hot weather). Here is a chart to assist in your planting.

THE TWELVE MOST VERSATILE AND PRODUCTIVE HERBS

Basil

Sage

Tarragon

Dill

Rosemary

Savory

FIRST GROUP

Basil

This tremendously productive annual imparts a unique flavor to sauces, stuffings, soups, salads, and meat dishes. Good bets are the compact 18-inch-high BUSH BASIL and the larger-leaved LETTUCE LEAF, which is great for drying. Other recommended varieties are FESTIVAL SWEETS, DARK OPAL, and LEMON, which is strongly favored by The Liberty Herb Farm in Maine, because "it makes wonderful herb vinegar and is excellent with fish and salad." BASIL SPICY GLOBE (48) is a spacesaver.

Oregano

The most frequently mentioned variety of this tomato-mate and meat stew and salad-enhancing herb is the tender evergreen GREEK form, which grows to 18 inches or more. According to Carol Hildebrand of Casa Yerba in Oregon, GREEK is best for long-cooked dishes, while the 16-inch-high ITALIAN oregano excels in quickly prepared soups and salad dressings.

Thyme

Thyme is superb mixed with soft cheeses and as a seasoning in stuffing, salad dressings, gravies and sauces, and egg and meat dishes. Marilyn Hempstead of Fox Hill Farm in Michigan reports that both ENGLISH and LEMON thyme "offer a big return for the space." The ABC Herb Nursery in Missouri recommends the "really high-yielding" ST. LOUIS thyme.

SECOND GROUP

Chives

This grassy, bunching, 12 to 18-inch-high perennial member of the onion family is endlessly useful as a flavoring agent in sauces, soups, and salads of all kinds. Many herb growers also recommend garlic chives, which combine the flavor of mild garlic and chives.

French sorrel

An extremely hardy perennial, French sorrel grows 2 to 3 feet high. Its tart green leaves are high in vitamin C and make a tangy addition to salads or are tasty cooked together with other greens like spinach or cabbage. This herb also is the star of a famous French soup.

Lemon balm

Unusually prolific and adaptable, this 2 to 2½-foot-high self-renewing perennial is tasty as a solo tea or added to tea and other beverages. It also contributes a pleasant subtlety to vegetable and fruit salads. Lemon balm attracts bees for better pollination of other garden plants.

Parsley

Though not as sweet as the curly form, flat-leaved parsley is recommended by Kent Taylor of Taylor's Herb Gardens in California and by Anna Smith of Country Herbs in Massachusetts, who cited its "tremendous yield" and suitability for most cooking purposes.

Sage

A perennial herb that blends well with eggs, soups, gravies, stuffings, fish, and meats, sage comes in several varieties, some quite ornamental. The yard-high HOLT'S MAMMOTH is favored by one southern herb farm because it is fast growing and doesn't die back. But a better choice in intensive gardens might be DWARF SAGE—a 12-inch-high form that is less likely to be winter-killed in northern areas.

Tarragon

The French form of this anise-flavored, 2½-foot-tall perennial is the most superior. According to Fairman Jayne of The Sandy Mush Herb Nursery in North Carolina, French tarragon loses no flavor "even when grown under very intensive conditions." Much more flavorful fresh than dried, this herb makes a delightful vinegar and is superb in tartar and other white sauces, and with fish, cheese, eggs, and cauliflower.

THIRD GROUP

Dill

Hardy and self-seeding, this fernlike annual attracts honeybees when allowed to mature to 2 or 3 feet. Dill needs just 8-inch spacing on all sides. If harvested young, it can be interplanted with cabbage, carrots, cucumbers, lettuce, and onions. Dillweed is a tasty addition to cheese or tofu dips, soups, salads, and creamed entrées. It's also a staple in making vinegars and pickles.

Rosemary

Upright forms of this elegant tender perennial are often recommended, but North Carolina grower Fairman Jayne says the most productive variety for small spaces is the foot-long creeping HUNTINGTON CARPET rosemary. North of Virginia, rosemary must be protected over the winter or taken indoors. This very decorative herb makes an unforgettable accompaniment to meat and poultry and is also memorable in soups, stuffings, gravies, sauces, and salad dressings.

Savory

The compact, 1½-foot-high annual SUMMER variety of this spicy plant was preferred by all but one of the growers who included it on their lists. Once called "poor man's pepper," savory's small, zingy leaves can be used to perk up soups, salads, sauces, or sandwiches.

WATERING YOUR GARDEN

Once again, don't be a slave to the garden unless you want to be. We live in a modern age and one in which, thank God, there are digital, battery-operated automatic timers which you can attach directly to your faucet and garden hose system. It is possible to program up to 4 waterings per day with a quality timer, which is well worth the expense in the time it saves you. Keep in mind, while the timer waters the garden, you can go somewhere else.

Just a few tips—while it is true that overwatering is a common problem, underwatering is a real mistake—particularly in the very beginning of germination. DO NOT LET THAT NEWLY PLANTED SEED DRY OUT—EVER. If you are watering several times per day by hand, you will literally be able to tell when enough is enough. If you are using a timer, which I DO recommend, you'll just have to play with it a bit to get it "just right". But under no circumstances let the seed dry out. I cannot emphasize this enough: It is better to overwater, if you must, than to underwater in the beginning. Besides, the raised-bed method of gardening will be more forgiving of a bit of overwatering than will a regular, hardpack farming method.

But what kind of sprinkler should I use, you may ask? AN OSCILLATING SPRINKLER IS, IN MY OPINION, THE MOST PRACTICAL. Also, they do have plastic Y adaptors to allow for two hoses, and thus, two sprinklers off the same water line. Keep in mind, I'm giving instructions here for a low-maintenance garden that will grow quality food. If you want to live in the garden day and night, that is your choice and you certainly are free to do so. My only point here is that over-work isn't necessary to get results that you'll be delighted with.

WHAT NOW?

If you have followed the instructions to this point, you're there! As the vegetables begin to grow, thin them carefully. I always recommend using a sharp knife when harvesting. For example, when harvesting lettuce I like to cut away the outer leaves while letting the plant continue its growth. Experiment.

I believe you will find that growing a garden is an extremely rewarding experience—not to mention the quality of food you'll soon be eating! If it is done right, it can even be FUN. Learning about gardening is a lot like life—it takes time and just goes on and on and on. The secret lies in beginning.

If you've completed the garden, you've accomplished a great deal. A garden at home is worth ten insurance policies, because when all is said and done you can now go out into your own back yard and pick your next healthy meal. Well done!

"We are gardeners, you and I, in the Garden of the Conscious Presence. We draw the substance of the past into conceptions of the future. I am the source of the garden's design and I return to the garden through you. Together we tend the fields of possibility, drawing forth the inexhaustible beauties of structure, objectifying wonders, and manifesting new orders.

As each universal context spirals outward toward maturation, it gives birth to new and more intricate contexts within itself, revolutionizing former understandings of scale and revealing a host of new worlds to explore, inhabit, and enjoy. Each successive order of manifestation becomes the basis of yet another order and then of still another. So new creatures coalesce from the fields of possibility, populating every desirable realm, as infinite potential eternally uncoils from the heart of God." [Ken Carey from Starseed—The Third Millennium: Living in the Posthistoric World.]

WHAT ONE PLANT WILL YIELD

Knowing how many pounds of peas that one plant, or seed, will produce or how many cucumbers to expect from one vine is invaluable when you're planning your garden. For vegetables that yield once per plant, like carrots and onions, the figuring is easy. But what about all those that yield steadily over weeks? Here is a list of vegetables and the yield you can expect from one plant of each.

One Plant	Produces		How Often
	QUANTITY	WEIGHT (LB.)
Asparagus	1 spear	$\frac{1}{12}$	per week for 4 weeks
Beans (lima)	—	$\frac{1}{25}$	per week
Beans (snap)	—	$\frac{1}{16}$	per week for 3 weeks
Broccoli	—	$\frac{2}{3}$	main head plus $\frac{1}{3}$ lb. per season
Brussels sprouts	100 sprouts	3	per season
Cantaloupes	2 cantaloupes	2	per season
Cucumbers	2 cucumbers	1	per week
Eggplants	1 eggplant	$\frac{1}{2}$	per week
Peas	—	$\frac{1}{16}$	per week for 4 weeks
Peppers	1 pepper	$\frac{1}{4}$	per week
Potatoes	—	$2\frac{3}{4}$	per season
Squash (summer)	3 squash	1	per week
Squash (winter)	1 squash	1	per season
Sweet potatoes	—	1	per season
Tomatoes	3 tomatoes	1	per week

GENETIC ENGINEERING OF FOODS TRANSFERS ALLERGENS

From the March 14 issue of the (Los Angeles) DAILY NEWS, [quoting:]

WASHINGTON—Researchers said Wednesday that they had the first solid evidence that proteins that can cause potentially serious allergic reactions could be transferred to crops through genetic engineering. Scientists at the University of Nebraska at Lincoln said tests proved that soybeans modified with genes from Brazil nuts to produce a nutritious protein found in the nuts also produced proteins that set off a strong, potentially deadly allergic reaction in people sensitive to Brazil nuts. The finding confirms early suspicions that transferring genes to food plants posed such risks.

Critics of moving genes to food plants from other plants, animals and organisms say the research indicates that tighter regulation is needed to protect the public. [Just who might provide such regulation??—our totally corrupt government, perhaps?] But proponents of the technology and federal regulators say the findings indicate that the current system of mostly voluntary monitoring and reporting is sufficient to guard the public against potential risks from the food supply. [Oh, sure!]

The Nebraska researchers used blood serum from nine subjects known to have a Brazil nut allergy and compared how it reacted with extracts from Brazil nuts, conventional soybeans and the modified, or transgenic, soybeans. All of the samples reacted to the nut extracts. Eight of the nine reacted strongly to extracts from the genetically altered soybeans and none reacted to the conventional soybeans.

"Since genetic engineers mix genes from a wide array of species, other genetically engineered foods may cause similar health problems," [Rebecca J.] Goldberg [senior scientist with the Environmental Defense Fund] said. "People who are allergic to one type of food may suddenly find they are allergic to many more."

CHERNOBYL SPAWNS MONSTER RODENT

From the February 29 issue of THE ORLANDO SENTINEL, [quoting:]

LONDON—Scientists studying wildlife in contaminated wastes around the Chernobyl nuclear power station have made a sinister discovery: voles that thrive on radioactive pollution. "These are the most contaminated animals I've seen anywhere. They're living on radioactive materials," said Ron Chesser of the University of Georgia in today's edition of New Scientist journal. Radioactivity and other pollutants usually trigger mutations in animal genes, which weaken the species by killing its members off before they can reproduce. But a species of the vole rodent is breeding healthily and producing ever stronger offspring beside the Ukraine's Chernobyl plant, which exploded in 1986, spewing out radioactive poison in the world's worst nuclear disaster. Chesser and other scientists examined the vole's genetic makeup and found it was mutating at an incredible rate. [Maybe this is a big breakthrough for our next genetically engineered "food".]

DRUG MAKER ADMITS IT CONCEALED FLAWED TEST RESULTS

This article was reprinted from the 11/29/95 issue of the NEW YORK TIMES by the February issue of the HEALTH FREEDOM NEWS, [quoting:]

The Warner-Lambert Company, one of the nation's largest drug companies, pleaded guilty yesterday to criminal charges and agreed to pay a $10 million fine for hiding from the Food and Drug Administration faulty manufacturing processes used for several drugs, including Dilantin, the widely prescribed epilepsy treatment. Also, the company's former vice president for quality control, Allan H. Doane, was indicted yesterday on criminal charges that he was involved from 1991 to 1993 in trying to hide the failures of the drugs to pass quality tests during that two-year period. He faces penalties of as much as 19 years in prison and $1.25 million in fines. Yesterday's admission of guilt by the company stemmed from a two-year-long grand jury investigation of violations that took place from 1990 to 1993. The corporate fine is one of the largest ever imposed on a brand-name manufacturer, as the FDA has traditionally levied rather small fines. [To a major drug company like Warner-Lambert, $10 million is strictly petty cash.] Yesterday's action is part of a long-running investigation of fraudulent manufacturing processes by drug companies. [It is hard to believe that this investigation was very comprehensive.]

Dr. David Kessler, the Commissioner of the FDA, said yesterday: "Concealing and failing to report test results on drugs has the potential to compromise public health and safety. The FDA is committed to vigorously enforcing this nation's vital public health laws." [Of course, most of the laws are designed to protect the drug cartel and keep the competition out!]

CRITICIZE FOOD AND GO TO JAIL!

This article is also from the February issue of HEALTH FREEDOM NEWS, [quoting:]

Farm industry lobbyists in 11 states have passed "food slander" laws. These probably unconstitutional laws are aimed at suppressing criticism of perishable foods by safe food activists. The laws ban criticism unless based on "sound science", which is never defined! In fact, activist criticism usually focuses on chemical residues or contamination, not on the properties of the food itself. Frustrated farmers, who may lose sales after an Alar scare or an anti-rBGH boycott, are caught between consumer demand for safe food and the chemical-intensive methods of conventional farming. Farmers will bear the costs of prosecuting "food slander" lawsuits. They have essentially agreed to take the heat for the chemical industry!

The problems that trouble food activists, i.e., animal health, environmental contamination, and chemical residues in the human diet, are predominantly a result of agricultural chemical use, not problems with the food itself. Few people will deny that agricultural chemicals harm the environment and human health. But it is difficult to prove their long-term effects, as these chemicals have had less than 50 years to accumulate in the environment and food chain. "Food slander" laws would outlaw the criticisms that inspire the public to demand further research! These laws must be repealed, and farmers must be told that consumers want safe, organic and sustainable agriculture.

"CONSTITUTIONAL COURT" GROUP INDICTED

From the March 17 issue of the RENO GAZETTE-JOURNAL, [quoting:]

TAMPA, Fla.—A man who called himself a patriot and ran a so-called constitutional court that issued warrants for state and federal judges was among 11 indicted on conspiracy and obstructing justice charges. The group, composed of people from Tampa, Central Florida, Arizona and California, is charged with sending threatening communications to prosecutors, jurors, clerks and judges, and even proposing punishment by hanging. Some members plotted to kidnap federal judges, try them for treason and sentence them to death, prosecutors allege.

Other group members declared war on the United States. A 48-page indictment issued Friday charges that Emilio Ippolito, 70, and adherents of We the People and other groups let their interpretations of the U.S. Constitution carry them too far. The indictment accuses all 11 of conspiracy and various groups with specific acts of obstructing justice.

In August of 1994, Hillsborough County Chief Judge Dennis Alvarez asked federal prosecutors to get involved "to avert the very real possibility of personal injury or death," after he and other local judges received arrest warrants from Ippolito's court. [As a judge, it's not hard to see why he might have wanted their efforts halted!]

According to the indictment, an ensuing investigation did not deter Ippolito and his associates. They maintained they were natural citizens exempt from jurisdiction of the United States, its laws or courts. Prosecutors contend the group has wreaked havoc in the judicial system during the past two years. [What about the havoc wreaked upon the American judicial system by the Khazarian/Mishpuckas who have controlled it for the past 65 years?] Troubles began when some group members created their own court: The Constitutional Common Law Court. That "court" began issuing arrest warrants and cease and desist orders to judges, law officers, jurors and others for their role in the prosecuting some group members on various charges. The created court threatened officials with

"How disappointing ... they don't appear to have grown at all."
BAKER IN FINANCIAL TIMES, LONDON

"I just realized something. We weren't rats when we started!"

charges of treason—punishable by hanging, or more specifically, being “shot at high noon”.

At one point, a group member allegedly proposed assembling a group of armed deputies, arresting a federal judge and holding him as a “prisoner of war” in exchange for the release of a federal prisoner. At another point, one reportedly said, “It’s time that...they try one of the judges, or whoever, and we hang him. I think that you’re gonna get a bunch of respect in a hurry.”

The FBI, Florida Department of Law Enforcement, Internal Revenue Service, postal inspectors and other agencies logged letters, calls and statements made at meetings to come up with Friday’s indictment.

[The next details come from the March 20 issue of THE ORLANDO SENTINEL, quoting:]

During the hearing, FBI agent Robert Carroll testified that an undercover IRS agent attended and recorded citizen’s court sessions in Orlando, providing much of the key evidence.

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK: PRACTICING RANDOM KINDNESS

Sent in by a reader (origin unknown), [quoting:]

It’s a crisp winter day in San Francisco. A woman in a red Honda, Christmas presents piled in the back, drives up to the Bay Bridge tollbooth. “I’m paying for myself and for the six cars behind me,” she says with a smile, handing over seven commuter tickets. One after another, the next six drivers arrive at the toll booth, dollars in hand, only to be told, “Some lady up ahead already paid your fare. Have a nice day.” The woman in the Honda, it turned out, had read something on an index card taped to a friend’s refrigerator: “Practice random kindness and senseless acts of beauty”. The phrase seemed to leap out at her, and she copied it down.

Judy Foreman spotted the same phrase spray-painted on a warehouse wall a hundred miles from her home. When it stayed on her mind for days, she gave up and drove all the way back to copy it down. “I thought it was incredibly beautiful,” she said, explaining why she’s taken to writing it at the bottom of all her letters, “like a message from above”.

Her husband, Frank, liked the phrase so much that he put it up on the wall for his seventh graders, one of whom was the daughter of a local columnist. The columnist put it in the paper, admitting that though she liked it, she didn’t know where it came from or what it really meant.

In Portland, Oregon, a man might plunk a coin into a stranger’s meter just in time. In Chicago, a teenage boy may be shoveling off the driveway when the impulse strikes. What the hell, nobody’s looking, he thinks, and shovels the neighbor’s driveway, too.

It’s positive anarchy, disorder, a sweet disturbance. They say you can’t smile without cheering yourself up a little—likewise, you can’t commit a random act of kindness without feeling as if your own troubles have been lightened if only because the world has become a slightly better place.

Spelt

New Gaia Presents Bread Mixes, Flour & Kernels

Spelt is the most ancient and very best grain. Spelta (its more formal name) is a grain of its own unique being. It is the best fiber resource and has large amounts of B-17 (anti-carcinoma). The grain berry grows an exceptionally thick husk that protects it from pollutants and insects. It is stored with its husks intact, so it remains fresher. Thus, unlike other grains, it is not normally treated with pesticides or other chemicals. The strong, protective husk may also be a metaphorical signature of this grain's capacity to strengthen immunity. Spelt contains special carbohydrates (Mucopolysaccharides) which are an important factor in blood clotting and stimulating the body's immune system.

New Gaia offers Bread Mixes that use pure Spelt flour instead of wheat. The taste is uniquely nutty and enjoyable for the whole family. Also offered are combination Bread Mixes with both Spelt flour and whole wheat flour. Both are perfect for a 2 lb. loaf of bread which can be utilized in the Hitachi Bread Machine or others of its equal. The mixes are easy to use with only the simple addition of water, butter & sweetener. The packages come in 2 lb. sizes only.

Also available are whole spelt flour packages for your baking and homemade bread needs that come in 2 lb., 4 lb. and 8 lb. sizes.

You may also order the whole spelt kernels that can be milled at home into flour. These come in 4 lb. and 10 lb. bags.

PARSLIED PEANUT AND SPELT PATTIES

1 c. cooked spelt kernels

1/2 c. shelled peanuts

Place in food processor and grind. Place mixture in a 2-quart bowl.

1 egg

2 tbl. fresh chopped parsley

1/4 tsp. tamari soy sauce

1/4 tsp. herb seasoning salt

1/4 tsp. white pepper

Add and mix thoroughly. Using wet hands, form the mixture into 4 patties. Coat a nonstick 10-inch skillet with cooking spray, and cook the patties over medium heat for 5 to 7 minutes on each side, or until browned and crisp. Transfer the patties to paper towels, and allow to drain.

4 spelt buns

mayonnaise, lettuce leaves, sprouts, sliced tomatoes, pickles

Fill buns with patties and “accessories”.

Timeless Reminder Offered From Esu "Jesus" Sananda

Editor's note: We have elected to share, once again, writings which appeared from Esu "Jesus" Sananda some years ago, specifically in 1991. The message rings as true today as it did then, and we hope that you will spend some serious "quiet time" in reading and reflecting on his generous offerings in wisdom. Many of us readers are guilty of wanting "new" information, "more" information when, in truth, if we really read, reread, and studied that which has already been offered, we would constantly receive new insight. Since these writings from Sananda are lengthy, we have chosen to break them into a series of several installments.

We here at CONTACT would like to take a moment to PUBLICLY thank Sananda for his TRUE LIGHT AND LIGHTED WISDOM AND GENEROSITY IN SHARING SUCH TRUTH WITH US. THANK YOU!

Part I of this series began in our 3/19/96 CONTACT on p. 28; Part II was on p. 20 of the 3/26/96 issue.

6/8/91 #3 ESU "JESUS" SANANDA

A ROSE BY ANY NAME

Stop it—I weary of your picking and poking over things which are absurd. If your name is George Hornblower and it is changed by someone named Paul, does it mean you are no longer George Hornblower? Saul of Tarsus labeled my being Jesus AFTER I was no longer in the "Holy Land". Moreover, the one Paul, who thought better to call himself that than remain with Saul (of Tarsus), probably because he feared the tar and feathers, did-in the Christian "movement". With friends like "Paul the Apostle" I certainly needed no enemies. If you don't believe me, especially you women who seek equal rights, read the edicts he handed down in my name. Paul was no friend of mine; he was one of your first REAL "mattoids". Esu here to continue our reconstruction of Truth.

UNTO CAESAR

I certainly expect you to be as careful this day as I efforted to be in those days long ago. There were those who tried to compromise me with the Romans or the Judaists by asking what I thought about the payment of tribute. I replied, pointing to the effigy on a coin, if I had one, and told them to render to Caesar the things that are Caesar's and to God the things that are God's. Since the authorities did not dare to arrest me by day, when I was always surrounded by the multitude, they sought me by night and then I hid, always in a different place. I did not know exactly that which I would do in case of arrest or whether or not I would resist should they do so—most surely my friends (disciples) were not certain. I did tell them to get swords but I had little intention of resisting. One of my people did smite a servant of the high priest and severed his ear—I did not reprove him for it was in defense of self as by their attack upon me, they also attacked those with me. I did bid him hold his peace for the entire episode was getting out of hand and a riot was about to get under way in which all of my people would have been slain.

I never hid any of my actions in Jerusalem—all was perfectly open. The entrance into the city was prepared and I purified the Temple on the strength of the position I held in the Judean community. To the Sanhedrin I was a rebel against the Judaist theocracy and a blasphemer. The Romans suspected me of political insurrection. I avoided any reference or statement of what I took myself to be. Actually, I made no statement until the very end. A high priest asked me if I were the Christ, to which I replied: "I am". To Pilate's question: "Art thou the King of the Judeans?" I only responded: "You say!" Then on the cross they established a bunch of garbage as to my being.

So I ask you of the readers of Truth: If I was not an active political leader; if I desired no social revolution; if I did not seek a martyr's death as proof of my message; if I led the life of a believer, awaiting God's action but making no attempt to force God's hand; if I was far from any desire for self-aggrandizement, and my whole life was an act of obedience to God's will, my conduct becomes somewhat hard to understand, apparently. It seems I did provoke violence against myself when I cleansed the Temple, for which I sorely suffered the consequences of that act. In all this there must be accepted an unmistakable militancy against a "system" of unGodly behavior which was present in other manifestations of my personality as well. I was serving in a human form and living in a human experience—I WAS HUMAN.

My teaching was not unclear in any manner whatsoever as is now laid forth unto you—the lack of clarity comes from the deliberate and ignorant repeating of that which I supposedly did and said. It is said there was a discrepancy between what I was, saw, and strove for, and what others understood. No—people simply did not want to heed nor hear—and it is no different today. The people followed eagerly for in their way they seemed to need me. I could not prevent them from attaching themselves to me and raising me more and more above myself. But the development of my picture of myself seems to lack clarity—but not through anything I did or said. The contradictions in my utterances seem to show that there was such a development and that perhaps it was never completed in the minds of the receivers. So what was it I said?

Well, I said such things as "I am come". "But I say unto you..." is taken to pronounce an awareness of my vocation. I made it quite clear that I believed myself to be extraordinary by likening myself to light and fire: "I am come to send fire on the Earth." I knew my mission for I had been carefully taught in the higher universal realms as to my purpose. There was simply no way in which to allow for understanding for there was nothing to which the ones of that day could relate. They could have no concept of spacecraft even though such was frequently present in relationship to my own whereabouts. You see, man cannot accept that which he understands not nor has relative comparison to that which IS known.

When among those who had long known me I also encountered an indifference or contempt that offended my sense of my own being as much as deploring the lack of respect for their own beingness. Since I was accepted in other locations, I said that "No prophet is accepted in his own country." And brothers, if you think it differs this day—you had better ask some valid prophets. I don't mean the cute little games players—I speak of the ones who bring Truth unto your world. I could not "heal" among my own people—for they had no faith in me or in the God they claimed. They had less faith in themselves and, yes, it surprised me for I was not prepared for such rejection—just as the bringers of Truth are not prepared for that which is thrust upon them this day. My entire makeup within Creation could not accept the absolute inability of Man to see into the beyond and into the goodness and perfection of God Creator and yet see the evil as it prevailed about him and have no incentive to do a thing about it save join with it. Please don't effort to tell me that it differs this day.

I was sent forth to bring the WORD and I set about to do exactly that. I regarded myself as a prophet and I believe that is the way I am accepted even by those who would renounce myself as anything other than that. I did recognize myself as the "Messiah" but not THE ULTIMATE MESSIAH. I was come as a Messenger of Truth (Messiah). Even that picture was molded by the prevalent conceptions of prophecy; the worldly and divine "king" somehow come out from the house of David who would be around in the "last days"; the angel who would appear as the "Son of Man" in Daniel's prophecy of the end of the world; the servant of God, the suffering, dying, rising Saviour of Deutero-Isaiah. It is as with now—Man will conjure that which he wishes to note and/or pronounce and fact has little if anything to do with the picture projected. All these conceptions were echoed over and over in sayings pronounced stated by me—and a great many of them are quite accurate as far as they go. One correct statement was "The foxes have holes, and the birds of the air have nests; but the Son of Man hath not where to lay his head." I was a threat to those of evil intent and it is not surprising that suspicions could arise that I aspired to the crown or something such, and certainly my accusers conjured such conjecture.

Did I regard myself as the Christ? How about the Messiah? I called myself Esu and Emmanuel. I commanded that no one speak of me as the Messiah and forbade those possessed to address me as the son of David. I charged my friends (disciples) to tell no man that I was the Christ. Further, you ones relate even that as "Jesus" the Christ. No, the term Jesus was not even in consideration relative to myself until long after my departure. I did blatantly ask them who they would say I am? Good old Simon Peter responded—for he always liked puzzles, "Thou are the Christ, the Son of the living God." I answered then as now: "Blessed thou art, Simon Bar-jona, for flesh and blood hath not revealed it unto thee, but my Father which is in heaven." Now what actually did such a statement mean? Could the entire statement be misconstrued and out of context? It would seem to me that the theological tone seems to brand it inauthentic. For example: "All Things are delivered unto me of my Father, and no man knoweth the Son, but the Father; neither knoweth any man the Father, save the Son, and he to whomsoever the Son will reveal him." and "Why callest thou me good? There is none good but one, that is God." Good, beloved ones, meant "perfection". It mattered not whether I be a Christ or a heathen—I certainly knew the language even if the note-keepers did not.

Taken all together, the words of which I supposedly am attributed must supply much less than unequivocal answers. Even the projections of my enemies could not attribute to me such dogmatic formulations and apparently they could come to no definite conclusion about the nature of my person. I find that it is quite interesting to note that to this day there is no conclusion regarding my being. The question itself seems to be a fallacy resulting from dogmatic bias.

Why do you believe things which are so entirely fabricated? Let us look at that which supposedly occurred in "the garden". Dear ones, the story as told could not have been an eyewitness account for who could attest and who could have observed my own vacillation, my own struggle with my own weakness? I believe any crippled lawyer would be able to recognize that as speculation or conjecture. But, rather, it was a fiction calculated to confirm to the fulfillment of God's will as revealed in the Old Testament.

What about my "last" words? "My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?" Are they not interpreted according to the same method? All of you miss something most important: afterwards, it is explained, the Christians, drawing on the Old Testament, came to believe that I had despaired and cried out in lamentation but had found consolation in prayer. Thus they arranged it so that my last words are not the cry of a despairing man but the beginning of the nice Twenty-second Psalm, and the man who prays in these words is not a rebel against God, but one who lives and dies at peace with God. Well, precious ones—it matters not a whit who I was—it matters greatly WHO I AM!

It certainly seems more than a species can do to tear yourselves away from the beliefs as poured forth upon you in order to continue control over you. I guess it takes some very compelling reasons to make you abandon the belief that there is a reality at the base of these moving episodes and speeches. I was a Man and I tried to always reveal myself in the purity of my soul and in my struggle with unexpected realities. The struggle culminated in no finished awareness nor dogma for that matter. In the face of terrors, in the face of my mounting disappointment, all that was left me was my prayer—"Thy will be done." WHAT WOULD YOU HAVE DONE AND SAID? THAT ALONE BECOMES FAR MORE IMPORTANT THAN THAT WHICH I DID AND/OR SAID. FOR THAT WAS MY PATH—WHAT MIGHT YOURS BE?

ESU "JESUS" SANANDA

Blessings—and may our way be given into the Light that Man may find his way. I AM that you might Be. And, I am Come, that you might be given to KNOW. Dharma, allow the clarity into your being—for you only find ONE for there IS ONLY ONE! We come to commune in total balance and as you come into KNOWING—you cannot find difference in one from the other except as we project information—THAT is how it IS. Totality of ONENESS. Your path is blessed, scribe, and I give ye ones of my children, shielding that you faint not and find security within my protection for I am as close as your breath which gives unto you, LIFE.

Let us return to the history lesson for you shall learn of Me—from Me, that there cease the misunderstandings as thrust upon you by Man. He has given you things with no basis, lies with no foundation upon which to reason—and without reason, you cannot KNOW GOD, for that is the gift that sets you apart from other creations—free will choice and ability to "reason".

POSSIBLE PSYCHOLOGICAL ASPECTS OF "JESUS"

I shall refer to myself as "Jesus" since that is the way the world has learned to refer to that incarnation of the Messenger.

I have been described in many ways and we shall look at some of them: Nietzsche described me as a psychological type, hypersensitive, prone to suffering and dreading it above all else. Well, what would you have done in my stead? He further theorized that "reality" was intolerable to me and stated that I could only accept it as a parable, a sign. No, the fact is—I KNEW AND KNOW THE REALITY, and I was experiencing in a facade, an illusion of "let's pretend". The fact is that I understood and KNEW that the journey was only that of physical and brief manifestation which would pass quickly—MY "REALITY" OF ME AND THAT WHICH I AM (AND YOU ARE). Nietzsche projected that I lived in a world which was not "real", but a world of vague, intangible symbols. Where do you suppose this great one, Nietzsche, lived—he certainly impacted your societies to a great extent.

Hostility, opposition, the resistance of concrete things were intolerable to me, says this great scholar and founder of societal structure. He says that I simply did not contend with the world, and further that "resist not evil" was the key to the gospel I brought. Where did he get his great wisdom and right to pronounce such information? Why do you, as a people, accept anything some self-styled "expert" and "authority" hang on your shoulders and denounce any who actually bring Truth directly from the mouth of the one who experienced? How many "PHYSICAL" beings do you see walking around who have lived infinitely? Do not all you see and know make a transition of some sort—leaving that old bag of bones? How do you balance eternity against some 70 to 110 years? Would it not appear REASONABLE that there is MORE than the 70 or 110 years?

It comes down into your day that I resisted not anything—brothers, this is lie—I resisted and got myself killed for the effort. I was labeled as unable to struggle or had no "capability" for struggle and that is somehow set up as an ethical principle. All I can say in this regard in this particular paragraph is that you had better cease and desist such an illusion right now. This is part of the lie handed down to you in order to render you helpless and docile and totally without reasoning stance.

Each decade a NEW LIE is introduced unto you sleeping masses and repeated until it becomes your very illusion. There was no mention in the original writings of "Jews", Zionists, "Raptures", etc. How dare you think that you can dump your load of transgressions on the shoulders of any INNOCENT Man and you get off with some nice RAPTURE TO PARADISE? How dare you!

I said that I would intercede and petition on behalf of you who were ignorant of Truth that you might be shown mercy in your ignorance—I DID NOT POUR FORTH MY BLOOD NOR LIFE THAT YOU SHOULD GET FREE OF YOUR RESPONSIBILITIES. NO MAN CAN DO THAT FOR ANOTHER—NO MAN! EACH WILL ANSWER FOR SELF—ONLY SELF!

The only true reality is the inner reality, which is called LIFE, TRUTH, LIGHT. The Kingdom of God is a psychological state. It is not expected, but it is present everywhere and nowhere. It is a state of beatitude which cannot be demonstrated by miracles or by scripture, which offers no promise or reward, but is its own proof, its own miracle and reward. Its proofs are inner lights, feelings of pleasure and self-satisfaction—peace. The problem is, then: How shall you live in order to feel that you are in heaven or this state of grace, at all times divine, the child of God? For this sense of beatitude is the sole reality.

I was not a "hero" nor was I a "genius", but more in the nature of a total idiot, perhaps. I actually believed that Man could come into understanding of LIFE. I could not fit any historian's page of calculations for if you take my Truth as that laid forth you will find that the Sermon on the Mount with the Beatitudes is utterly incompatible with a "Jesus", the fanatical militant, the deadly enemy of the priests and theologians. Consequently, there becomes ascribed to me everything in the Gospels that does not suit the desired human picture of "Jesus" to the invention of the early militant congregation, which required a militant prototype. Therefore, guess what—I came across as an elemental power, by turns unbendingly aggressive and infinitely gentle. Herein I plan to present myself as a gentle, unbending Messenger of God. I weary of the foolish manner in which Man assumes his right to tamper with the TRUTH OF LIFE.

Did I do the things of which I stand accused? Like what? "He looked on them with anger," "He assailed them (him)," "He rebuked him," "He menaced him." And "Finding no fruit on a fig tree, I withered it with my curse that no man should eat fruit of it forever thereafter." And how about this one? "Those who do not do the will of the Father in heaven, "JESUS" WILL DENY AT THE LAST JUDGMENT!" Where are your EARS, friends? What right have I to even BE at YOUR judgment? Much less would I assume to DENY your entry into God's house. And why, indeed, would I destroy a fig tree when it was reasonable that it was out of season or barren? Could it be that MAN misled you and incorrectly projected the tale for your consumption? If they supposedly "crucified" me by the lie, is it not possible that a few other little errors might have slipped through? God gave YOU minds with which to reason, I remind you again and again until I hope you sicken of it.

Again—the assumption is that I would be that God of judgment and yet somehow I was also supposed to be there denying you if I didn't like something about you. It is said that I would toss you out and turn my back if you followed not the rules of God—I think HE is perfectly capable of handling that task Himself. Further, it is said that I projected to "cast into outer darkness, those ones..." and "there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth." "Whosoever shall deny me before men, him will I also deny before my Father which is in heaven. Think not that I am come to send peace on Earth; I came not to send peace, but a sword. For I am come to set a man at variance against his father, and the daughter against her mother." Come, come, chelas—DOES THAT SOUND LIKE A SWEET CHRISTIAN ATTITUDE OR DOES IT SOUND LIKE THE TRICKS AND LIES OF THE ADVERSARY? IN THE PAST SENTENCE I WOULD HAVE BROKEN HALF THE COMMANDMENTS BY WHICH I LIVED UNTO MY DEATH OF FLESH.

More: I supposedly reviled the cities that did not repent: i.e., "Woe unto thee, Chorazin; woe unto thee, Bethsaida! It shall be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon at the day of judgment, than for you." And when Peter is offended to hear that the Son of Man would suffer much, be killed, and rise again, I supposedly rebuked him: "Get thee behind me, Satan,...thou savourest not the things that be of God, but those that be of men." This is a bit much, is it not? And a strange thing comes to attention at this very projection of words regarding Peter. Is it not strange that one Sister Thedra would write to this scribe the very words: "Get thee behind me, Satan..." This is for my scribe who takes abuse daily: Satan was not "created" until in your recent history—satan (with a little s) simply means and meant, "adversary". Peter was most certainly NOT my adversary! HOW MANY OF YOU TRAVEL ON INTO YOUR NEXT EXPERIENCE BEARING THE LIE?? HOW MANY OF YOU EFFORT TO CLEANSE THAT WHICH IS NOT PRESENT? DOES NOT THE ADVERSARY ALWAYS KNOW OF THINE SOFT AND VULNERABLE PLACES AND THEREIN STRIKE YOU?

Boy, the really good one is how I handled those nasty old money-changers in the temple. "With a whip, he drove the money-changers from the Temple." And do you suppose I just turned around and grabbed a whip? Or, did I bring it with me unto the temple? Do I tell you to handle the situation of the tax-collectors and money-changers in that manner this day? Then why do you believe I would have done so in those days when I would have known it would have meant my physical destruction?

The next should also be most thought-provoking to you with "reason" in your mind: I was strangely dual in personality—gentle and uncompromising militancy: "My yoke is easy, and my burden is light," but then I would also command men to "follow me at once, without hesitation, and without reservation." To the young man who wished to first bury his father, I demanded: "Follow me; and let the dead bury their dead." I rather wish I had originated that one for it is so appropriate in your recent days. Again, I "cursed the unbelievers and in the words of Isaiah: 'Ye shall hear, and shall not understand; for this people's heart was waxed gross.'" Then I turned about and gave thanks that God should have hidden the Truth from the wise and prudent, and revealed it to babes?? I tell you truly, I marvel that any could come into Godliness through that which is attributed unto me! The very words are a mockery unto God and Truth.

COULD IT BE, BELOVED BROTHERS, THAT THE TRAP WAS SET FOR YOU FROM THE BEGINNING? YOU HAD BETTER BEGIN TO LOOK UNTO THE FACTS FOR YOU ARE ABOUT OUT OF TIME FOR THE CHANGING. YOU HAVE NOTHING TO FEAR FROM GOD—NOR ME. WHY DO YOU FOLLOW THE LIES SO WILLINGLY?

[Quoting from a "historical dissertation":]

HISTORICAL ASPECTS OF THIS STRANGE MAN

This so-called Jesus is a figure of late antiquity, living on the margin of the Hellenistic-Roman world. In a period of luminous history, he spent his life in obscurity, barely noticed by the outside world. What part could this man who did not calculate at all have in a calculating, realistic, rationalized world where nothing mattered but power? From the standpoint of all material reality, his life was a mistake and could only end in failure.

Compared to the archaic "Jewish" [?!?] prophets, who seem cast in bronze, he seems contemplate, ambiguous, and volatile. But compared with the Hellenistic-Roman world, he has the originality of a first beginning. Some have tarried to explain Jesus as one of the many religious or political fanatics of his time. He has been identified with the apocalyptic movement that was widespread in the Near East, with such sects as the Essenes who sought salvation in a life of purity and serene brotherhood, or with the revolutionary movements proclaiming a Messiah who would restore the kingdom of "Israel" [?!?]; he has been numbered among the wandering prophets spoken of by Celsus, who went about the cities, temples, army camps, begging, telling fortunes, claiming to be sent by God to save other men and cursing those who would acknowledge them; and he has been likened to the artisans who wandered about the desert with the Bedouins, destitute but carefree, watching their battles but taking no part, caring for the wounded on both sides, men of peace, living successfully among warriors. [End of quoting.]

Now I ask you to contemplate the above description—be it of anyone—and with reason, discern if THAT IS OF GOD? God is total clarity with the only mystery being that which is simply not yet understood—but totally open for the learning as ye will do so. He gave succinct and easily understood instructions for behavior of your species and gave forth the command, further, to live within the balance of the Natural Creation. Would a true messenger of a God who already had given those pronouncements upon His people—present such stupid contradictions? If he truly did so, how long do you really think he would last? Ah, but the adversary deceives, confuses and lasts until the ending of your "physical" at which point he dumps you into the void of more confusion. WHO DOES THE ABOVE DESCRIPTION SEEM TO BEST FIT? GOD OR SATAN?

Ah yes, let us continue with this brilliant historical dissertation from a most learned historian. [Quoting:]

Jesus may have something in common with all these types. Certain aspects of their lives and modes of thought provide a possible framework for his existence. But once this is recognized, the reality of Jesus shatters the framework, for it is utterly different in meaning, origin, and dignity. He reveals breadths, and depths unknown to the others. All those who came forward as Messiahs were executed and forgotten; when they had failed, their followers ceased to believe in them. The religious fanatics lost themselves in particulars and externals. If so many heterogeneous types can cast a light on Jesus, it only goes to show that he belongs to none of them.

It has been said, rightly perhaps, that there was nothing new in the teachings of Jesus. He accepted the knowledge of those about him, worked with traditional ideas. The God that he loved so intensely was the "Jewish"?!? God. It never occurred to him to break with the "Jewish"?!? faith. Like the ancient Prophets, he lived in it, while opposing the congealed forms and dogmas of the priests. Historically, he is the last of the "Jewish"?!? Prophets. He cites them often and explicitly. [S: OR DID I? SEEMS I REMEMBER DENOUNCING THEM AS LIARS, THIEVES AND EVIL. I DENOUNCED THEIR RELIGIOUS PRACTICES AND CONTINUALLY GOT THROWN OUT OF THE TEMPLES—HOW SO, THAT I SO CONVENIENTLY GOT BROUGHT BACK WITHIN?

But let us go on:]

But if only because of the changed world, there was a difference between Jesus and the ancient Prophets. They had lived in an independent Jewish [S: I give up—we will have to use the term for the historian used it over and over again] State and witnessed its decline and end. Jesus lived in a long-stabilized and politically dependent Jewish theocracy. Between the political independence of the Jews and their final dispersion after the destruction of Jerusalem, there elapsed a period of five centuries marked by many of the most fervent Psalms, the Books of Ecclesiastes and Job—and the career of Jesus. The Jewish theocracy cast him out, as the priests in the days of the Kings had attempted to cast out the Prophets. The Talmudic Jews of the Diaspora who accepted the old Prophets as part of the canon could no longer accept Jesus, for in the meanwhile Gentiles had built a world religion around him.

Historically, Jesus' faith in God is one of the great creations of Jewish Biblical religion. The God of Jesus, the God of the Bible, is no longer one of the Oriental gods from whom Yahweh was descended. Gradually He had lost his Oriental cruelty and lust for offerings, largely through the Prophets who molded a more profound conception of sacrifice and spoke their last word in Jesus. Nor is this God one of the grandiose mythical figures who symbolized and so sublimated and guided the primordial forces of human existence, after the manner of Athene, Apollo, and all the rest; He is the imageless, formless ONE. Yet He is not a mere universal power; He is not the world reason of Greek philosophy, but an active person. Nor is He the unfathomable Being with which man achieves mystical union in meditation; He is the absolutely Other, which can be believed but not seen. He is absolute transcendence, before the world and outside of the world, and He is the creator of the world. In relation to the world and man, He is will: "He spoke, and it was done; He commanded, and it stood fast." Impenetrable in His decisions, He is trusted and obeyed without reserve. He is the judge who sees man's most hidden thoughts, and before whom man must give an accounting. He is the father who loves and forgives, in whose presence man knows himself to be a child of God. He is jealous and hard, but merciful and compassionate. Remote and unapproachable, He governs from afar, but He is close at hand, speaking in man's heart and communicating His imperatives. He is not mute and intangible like the One Being of speculation; rather, He is the living God who speaks directly to each man.

[And this one goes on to say:]

Jesus believed in the God of the Old Testament and fulfilled the old Prophetic religion. Like Jeremiah, he was a Jew, pure of heart, freed from all bonds of law, ritual, and cult. He did not reject all these forms, but subordinated them to the present will of God. Once again Jesus embodied the Prophetic faith, which sustained him as it had sustained men for centuries. [End of quoting.]

Is it yet occurring to any of you that the one labeled "Jesus" by Paul was not the one who experienced in Christness? Does it yet touch your imaginings that this "Jesus" conjured by Saul of Tarsus and about whom Paul spent his remaining days touting—was simply a conjured symbol of this misgiven man? There is almost NOTHING within the writings of your so-called Bible which reflects that which a Christed being would be! The things that were given in Truth regarding the Commandments and method of life law, are now finally being voted-in/out as well.

The one who pronounced himself "apostle" of the Christ and labeled that one, Jesus—wrote the "bible" to suit his needs for control and power—began the "churches" and destroyed the species! I SUGGEST YOU PONDER THIS FOR A WHILE BEFORE WE MOVE ON. SINCE PAUL WROTE THE INSTRUCTIONS AND SUPPOSED WORD OF GOD AND CHRIST—CHRISTIANITY BECAME THE MOST HEINOUS, UNMERCIFUL AND DEADLY MURDEROUS MOVEMENT ON THE FACE OF YOUR PLANET! AND STILL, YOU GO TO WAR WITH THE BANNER OF GOD FLAPPING IN THE WINDS WHILE YOU DEFILE THE VERY PRESENCE OF HIS GOODNESS. SO BE IT FOR I JOSH YOU NOT—YOU WILL SET THINGS TO RIGHT OR YOU SHALL FIND YOURSELVES AND YOUR UNHOLY NESTS IN THE PITS WITH THE VIPERS WHOM YOU HAVE COME TO WORSHIP! AND SO HAS IT COME TO BE UPON YOUR PLACE—JUST AS THE PROPHECIES SAID IT WOULD COME TO BE. SALU.

Sananda to bless you, chela, for I see the pain and agony within your being. I never, never said that to bring the TRUTH would be easy—only glory, joy and infinite blessing. Man must be given into TRUTH before he passes from this experience. MAN can no longer live by the lie for he has destroyed all that has come into his clutches—Man has become one with the adversary whom he serves. Ah yes, were today to be the ending journey—the ships would indeed be uncrowded. Hold unto ME for I AM YOUR SHIELD AND YOUR BUCKLER AND NO MAN NOR EVIL CAN NOR SHALL STAND AGAINST ME—FOR I AM COME THAT THIS KINGDOM BE COME AGAIN UNTO GOD. WE HAVE BUT TO PLAY OUT THE FINAL ACT AFORE THE CURTAIN FALLS.

I AM.

Unelected JudgesJohnny Cochran

Gary Wean's Lawsuit Crooks On The Run

Editor's note: You are about to read Gary Wean's latest installment in the ongoing saga of "unelected judges" and attempting to get justice within those so-called hallowed halls known as the courtroom. Many of you have been wondering what ever happened to the lawsuit against California Governor Pete Wilson, O.J. Simpson lawyer Johnny Cochran, and others, initiated by Gary Wean at the time of the O.J. Simpson trial. Well, here's the latest. As usual, the opinions expressed herein are those of the author and not necessarily those of CONTACT.

Our job is simply to bring you thoughtful commentary which may be useful for forming your own discerning judgements and arriving at your own enlightened conclusions.

3/27/96 AN UPDATE BY GARY L. WEAN

This update of Gary L. Wean's lawsuit against Johnny Cochran, filed September 19, 1995, in Kern County, California, Case No. 229531 AEW is a day-by-day revelation of the "Dirty Tricks" (trick and device, fraud) fraud committed by unelected judges and their captive flunkies, the Court Clerks.

These crooks do not win their cases by going to court and trying the facts and merits before a jury—they do it by lying, destroying and altering files, falsifying court records and by not notifying the victims of court dates, etc., etc., to set it up so that the unelected judges can say that you have not followed their rules and they can then dismiss the case and wipe you out—(what does this have to do with American Due Process of Law?)—it is a 'Joke' with the unelected judges.

These documents were sent to Johnny Cochran by U.S. Mail and also to Los Angeles County Supervisor, Fifth District, Michael D. Antonovich.

This Case No. 229531 AEW, was filed on September 19, 1995.

Case No. 229531 AEW was served on Johnny Cochran by sub-serving Patrick McKenna, investigative employee of Johnny Cochran at Cochran's office at 3:00 p.m. on September 21, 1995 by Robert L. Brock. Two other disinterested witnesses were present. Patrick J. McKenna stated that he accepted the service and would give it to Johnny Cochran.

Robert L. Brock and the two disinterested witnesses observed McKenna hand the lawsuit to Barry Scheck, Cochran's associate in the O.J. Simpson case.

Scheck and McKenna were observed walking into a conference room where other lawyers were seated and the statement was made that they were going to study the lawsuit until the arrival of Cochran who they expected to arrive momentarily.

On September 22, 1995, a Declaration of Mailing was sent to Johnny Cochran at his office address by Rick Martin—U.S. Certified Mail Receipt No. Z 710 890 686.

On September 29, 1995, the clerk sent me a notice that "when substituted service is made a Declaration of Mailing must also be included."

On October 2, 1995, Rick Martin again signed an Affidavit, Declaration of Mailing for the Court's record.

On October 20, 1995—3:12 p.m. this Declaration along with a copy of the Summons and Proof of Service and Affidavit of Robert L. Brock was Filed—Endorsed and entered by the Clerk of Kern County.

On January 17, 1996, the Court Clerk sent notice that a hearing was set for Friday, February 9, 1996 at 8:00 a.m., Department 7, Re: Failure to Enter Default on Defendant, Johnny Cochran. But if parties are in compliance five court days prior to hearing no appearance is necessary.

On January 29, 1996, eleven days prior to the hearing I personally filed an Entry of Default properly filled out on the proper form and a County Clerk inspected it and stamped, dated and signed the document and entered it in the court file. There were two clerks present at the time and they both inspected the documents. I asked them if everything was proper and alright and if anything further was needed. They both assured me that everything was proper and I would not have to appear on February 9, 1996.

On Tuesday, January 30, 1996, the clerk wrote a notice to me, this notice was not mailed until the next day, Wednesday January 31, 1996. I checked my P.O. Box on Saturday, February 3, 1996, after the mail was delivered and the notice had not arrived.

I received the notice on Monday, February 5, 1996. The notice, which was unsigned, stated that, "Default cannot be entered because the original Summons must be returned and filed before Default can be entered."

This is very clever corruption committed by the court and clerk, but is normal procedure by the "unelected judges" operation.

They had it set up now so I could no longer comply by filing the "Entry of Default" five days before the hearing. This trickery necessitated that I appear with only a few days notice at the hearing at 8:00 a.m. on Friday February 9, 1996, which was impossible to do. The clerk was well aware that I lived almost a 1000 miles distant and that the severest snow and ice storms in years were in progress in Oregon and Northern California making it impossible to make an appearance.

On February 7, 1996, by Federal Express, I sent the following documents to the Kern County Superior Court Clerk:

- A. A letter to the Judge explaining the circumstances.
- B. Affidavit and related documents:
 1. November 2, 1995, letter to Supervisor Michael Antonovich.
 2. December 1, 1995, letter from Supervisor Michael Antonovich.
 3. December 15, 1995, letter from Los Angeles County Counsel DeWitt W. Clinton.
 4. January 2, 1996, letter to Supervisor Michael Antonovich.
 5. Return of dated and signed Summons.
 6. January 29, 1996, Entry for Default, dated and signed by the clerk.

On February 8, 1996, these documents were received by the Kern County Superior Court Clerk and the Court and signed for by G. Medina.

On February 7, 1996, the same documents were sent by U.S. Mail insured, to Johnny Cochran at his office and were received by Carl E. Douglas, a lawyer in the law office of Johnny L. Cochran, Jr., on February 12, 1996.

On Wednesday February 14, 1996, 15:57, I received a communication from Carl E. Douglas, a lawyer in Johnny Cochran's office, fax No. 213-931-9521.

Note: Nowhere in this communication from Carl E. Douglas does he state that he is Johnny Cochran's attorney of record or in what capacity or connection he is acting in case No. 229531-AEW.

Carl E. Douglas states that he is, "writing because I have no record of Mr. Cochran ever being personally served with your lawsuit, and know nothing about its contents. I have never seen a copy of the complaint."

The communication from Carl E. Douglas is inane and irrelevant but he continues by writing, "I have never seen a copy of the complaint. I would appreciate your providing me with an affidavit verifying the exact date that a copy of the Summons and Complaint was personally served on Mr. Cochran.”

Within 15 minutes after receiving the fax from Carl E. Douglas I called the office of Johnny L. Cochran and talked to a woman who stated that she was a receptionist. I explained to the person who I was, that I had just received Carl E. Douglas’ fax and I would like to talk to Mr. Cochran or Mr. Douglas. She stated that neither of them were in the office right at that moment. I told her, the initials NJW indicate who typed the letter for Mr. Douglas and I would like to talk to that person.

The receptionist said that NJW was Carl Douglas’ secretary and she left the phone to go locate the secretary.

On returning, the receptionist stated that Mr. Douglas’ secretary could not be located. I asked the receptionist if she would have one of the three above mentioned persons call me, that I would be glad to talk with any one of them and give them any information they would ask for.

The receptionist assured me that one of them would call right back, but I never heard from Mr. Cochran’s office again.

Mr. Douglas faxed me on Wednesday February 14, 1996; however he had received the documents I sent two days before this on Monday February 12, 1996.

Shortly after receiving my documents on Monday, Mr. Douglas contacted the Kern County Superior Court to inquire about all the documents that had been filed and were in their file. Douglas knew that on Monday all the documents that he claims he knows nothing about were in the clerk’s file but two days later on Thursday he sent me a fax stating and claiming that he has no knowledge or record of anything. A copy of Douglas’ fax is hereto attached.

I have received no notification or communication from either Cochran’s law firm or the Kern County Superior Court Clerk since Douglas’ fax of February 14, 1996, until receiving a notification from the court on Thursday March 7, 1996. This communication purports to indicate that Arthur E. Wallace conducted a hearing of some sort on February 9, 1996 while knowing that through the court clerk’s duplicity I would not be able to make this appearance and despite the fact that I had complied by filing the proper documents and was not required to appear at all.

No one from the defendant Cochran’s office appeared at this so-called hearing on Friday February 9, 1996. Was this just outrageous duplicity on the part of the Court Clerk or was it deeper; did Arthur E. Wallace feloniously order the destruction of court files and records in a conspiracy involving lawyers?

This notification from the court that I received on Thursday March 7, 1996 indicates that Arthur E. Wallace held a hearing on March 1, 1996, and I at no time was noticed that such a hearing was scheduled to take place. This sort of terrible conspiracy to destroy citizens and their right to due process of law is precisely what this lawsuit is all about. The dirty tricks of “trick and device” that “unelected judges” have been guilty of for over three decades is hereby set out and recorded by their evil depravity. It is this vile, unconscionable usurpation of the courts that has degraded and destroyed the American judicial system. Hundreds of thousands of loyal, honest American citizens have suffered at the hands of the “unelected judges”, lost everything they had and some even their lives.

After falsifying the facts and destroying court documents the Kern County Court Clerk and Arthur E. Wallace now have it set up that I had failed to appear at a hearing RE: “failing to enter a Default on defendant Johnny Cochran.” However my documents prove that I was not required to appear at this hearing.

At this phony hearing of March 1, 1996, of which I had no knowledge of whatsoever, Arthur E. Wallace makes the following orders: “Although the Plaintiff (meaning me) has submitted copies of documents he indicates he submitted to the Clerk’s office in an effort to obtain a Default Judgment against Defendant Cochran those documents were incomplete and returned to him by the Clerk's office on January 30, 1996 and no corrected or completed documentation has been submitted as of February 19, 1996."

This is a document that Arthur E. Wallace has not signed. Copy attached hereto.

In this document ordered by Arthur E. Wallace he violates every law of American morality and ethics by knowingly lying by stating that the Kern County Court Clerk returned incomplete documents to me on January 30, 1996, and no corrected or completed documentation has been submitted as of February 29, 1996.

First, all of the documents were completed and filed properly with the Kern County Clerk's Office.

Second, I sent copies of all these files which are all contained in my records to the County Clerk on February 7, 1996.

All of these documents were sent to the Kern County Superior Court Clerk by Federal Express on February 7, 1996 and received and accepted by Kern County employee G. Medina the next day, February 8, 1996. Copy attached hereto.

These documents were actually held in the hands of Arthur E. Wallace and the Court Clerk and discussions of the contents of these documents took place between them and other specific persons.

The only issue at all before Arthur E. Wallace is the issue of ordering a Judgement in favor of the Plaintiff, Gary L. Wean.

The only plausible reasoning for Arthur E. Wallace and the Kern County Superior Court Clerk to compact, combine and conspire to such a serious judicial crime would be for money.

But why, for even $100,000, would Wallace jeopardize becoming involved in a conspiracy with Johnny Cochran who is already in serious, dire trouble with the ADL and the Justice Department.

There is a deep-rooted reason and fear by Kern County Court officials in this flagrant court corruption as is revealed by Rick Martin's CONTACT article, "Judicial Monopoly", March 12, 1996.

In a Sacramento, California newspaper, The Daily Recorder, an article written by Charley Roberts exposes bitter chicanery committed by the "California Judges Association" (CJA); this CJA is an organization made up of "unelected judges", Satans right out of hell. These "so-called" judges are well aware of the fact that they are not judges with authority and jurisdiction to preside over a court and are terrified that their depredations are being exposed and they face going to prison.

In their desperation to cover up they are actually trying to destroy the bases of the federal Voting Rights Act and the U.S. Constitution, specifically the 14th Amendment. In the Lopez v. Monterey County Case 91-20-5590 RMW the CJA has come up with a crooked Justice, Paul Turner of the California 2nd District Court of Appeal, who is coming up with crazy rulings like Justice Gibson in the infamous Binns cases—Turner is ruling that the U.S. Constitution and Voting Rights Act doesn't mean what it really means because it actually means something else. The most vicious lie of Turner's is when he states, quote, "The Voters Rights Act does not apply to California's judicial election system which is an appointive system."

The truth is the Governor can only appoint persons to judicial positions temporarily—to fill openings or new positions only until the next election when they must appear on a ballot and vie for office at an open, popular election.

Justice Turner in a "Memorandum" to the CJA "unelected judges" exhorts them to commit further evil conspiratorial acts—Justice Turner urges them, quote, "To act aggressively to keep this from ever happening to us again or ever to any of us."

Now, if you can believe this gall and arrogance of these gangsters, they intend, through a backdoor, to ask the U.S. Supreme Court to grant a formal review and rule that "unelected judges" are "beyond the scope" of the federal Voting Rights Act and the U.S. Constitution. All of this incredibly terrible smashing of the peoples right to due process of law goes back to the unconstitutional 1961 legislation which amended the State Constitution without having legislative jurisdiction.

This legislation was found to be unconstitutional by a Los Angeles County Superior Court judge.

The so-called "In Bank" decisions in the two Binns cases dealt only with Election Code statutes which were derived from the unconstitutional amendment. These Election Code statutes have no standing nor do any subsequent statutes and legislation have standing.

The terrible damage these "unelected judges" have perpetrated goes far deeper with their violation and chaos involving the 14th Amendment. This has to do with the election of U.S. Representatives pursuant to the U.S. Census.

The 14th Amendment could not be more clear—Section One states—"All persons born or naturalized in the United States and subject to the jurisdiction thereof are citizens of the United States and of the State wherein they reside. No State shall make or enforce any law which shall abridge the privileges or immunities of citizens of the United States; nor shall any State deprive any person of life, liberty or property, without due process of law; nor deny to any person within its jurisdiction the equal protection of the laws." This is very clear.

Now, we go to Section 2, of the 14th Amendment; this is exceedingly important, it must be thought about and analyzed very carefully. Sec. 2: "Representatives shall be apportioned among the several States according to their respective numbers, counting the whole number of persons in each State, excluding Indians not taxed. But when the right to vote at any election for the choice of electors for President and Vice President of the United States, Representatives in Congress, the executive and judicial officers of a state, or the members of the Legislative thereof, is denied to any of the male inhabitants of such State, being twenty-one years of age, and citizens of the United States, or in any way abridged, except for participation in rebellion, or other crimes, the basis of representation therein shall be reduced in which the number of such male citizens shall bear to the whole number of male citizens twenty-one years of age in such State." The Voters Rights Act has now included women and lowered the age to eighteen years.

Now we go to Article VI. General Provisions of the United States Constitution. "Section 2. Supreme Law of the Land":

This Constitution and the laws of the United States which shall be made in pursuance thereof, and all treaties made, or which shall be made under the authority of the United States, shall be the Supreme Law of the Land; and the judges in every State shall be bound thereby, anything in the Constitution or laws of any State to the contrary not withstanding."

The despicable ADL gangsters in their evil sickness of greed and power have created a monster that has affected, destroyed and endangered every aspect of the lives of the citizens of California and, bearing on the fact of California's large number of members in Congress, have injected chaos and corruption into the security of the entire nation—these ADL gangsters alone are responsible for this terrible situation and should suffer execution for treason or no less than being imprisoned for the rest of their lives.

Because of the treachery of these people the following is the situation the citizens of California and America face. The number of Representatives permitted to California is dependent on an official Census of that State. But when the right to vote at any election for the choice of judicial officers of a State is denied or abridged to any of the male or female inhabitants who have attained an age of eighteen years or more the population count of California shall be reduced by that amount. The U.S. Constitution is incontrovertibly clear—due to the deprivation of the rights of citizens to vote for judges of the State, the population count is reduced to the point to where California is entitled to no more than five U.S. Representatives.

In September of 1991, Michael A. Thomas, elected as a nominee to the U.S. House of Representatives by the Democratic Party, took documents prepared by myself and him to the office of Leon E. Panetta, who at the time was a California member of the House. Michael A. Thomas talked to Panetta in person, discussed and explained all the facts contained in the documents and the chaos in government that the “unelected judges” have created and caused.

On September 24, 1991, Congressman Leon E. Panetta wrote Michael A. Thomas a letter. In this letter Panetta deliberately covered up the vitally important crime of “unelected judges” with a stupid, inane attempt to stifle the evidence. Panetta stated in his letter (copy hereto attached) that the U.S. Constitution requiring judges to appear on the ballot only applies to federal judges. (Federal judges are not elected—they are appointed for life.) Panetta is either stupid or terribly corrupt, in either event he should not be allowed to have a hand in the government of the United States.

But, here is Leon E. Panetta in the White House, the top advisor for President William Clinton, giving him directions on how to run America.

The Constitution further commands:

Article II. Executive Department, Section 3. Duties of the President—“He shall from time to time give to Congress information of the State Of The Union” and further, “he shall take care that the laws be faithfully executed and shall commission all the officers of the United States.”

President William Clinton is well aware and knowledgeable that Leon Panetta, Warren Christopher, Mickey Kantor, Malcolm Lucas, Stanley Mosk, and many others are involved deeply with the “unelected judges” and the U.S. Representatives conspiracy, yet Clinton takes no action as he is required to do by the Constitution.

President William Clinton is directly involved in far more serious and treasonous activities than was Nixon in the Watergate scandal. Clinton should be Impeached immediately.

These evil violations against the United States Constitution must be addressed immediately before it is too late—an Injunction Order restraining the Secretary of State Of California from proceeding with massive Electoral Vote violations—restraintment of the Democratic Party Convention from operating with illegal California Delegates and with illegal Electoral Votes must be obtained as soon as possible.

The Civil trial of O.J. Simpson and the Goldman family in Santa Monica, California is directly connected to my lawsuit, Case No. 229531 AEW.

Lawyer F. Lee Bailey who was Johnny Cochran's associate in the Defense of the O.J. Simpson murder trial was scheduled to take depositions from Det. Mark Fuhrman for the Goldman Civil trial which, if Fuhrman talked, could reveal the truth that the ADL was guilty of the murders.

The ADL and the Justice Department could not afford to have these truths come out so it was arranged to put F. Lee Bailey in jail and he would be unable to depose Fuhrman.

Bailey had supposedly cheated the Justice Department of some $28,000,000 (twenty-eight million) and suddenly they want it back.

However the Justice Department had given this money and securities to Bailey without any written agreement or concern for getting it back until they realized that Bailey was going to depose Fuhrman and that Bailey and Cochran were getting close to discovering who had actually killed Nicole Simpson and Goldman. And that this would expose the fact that ADL secret agents had committed the murders and that Ronald Goldman and Fay Resnick were paid spies for the ADL. Bailey and Cochran are both in deadly danger. First, because the ADL has an all consuming hatred for them for destroying the ADL's carefully laid plans to convict O.J. Simpson and cause nationwide riots and chaos; and second, that the murders were committed to debase O.J. Simpson and the black people who the ADL suspected of connecting with Minister Louis Farrakhan who was establishing relations with Arab leaders in the Mid-East.

A present example and existing fact of the deadly danger hanging over the heads of Bailey and Cochran: The District Attorney of Ventura County, Michael D. Bradbury, an ADL secret agent and his ADL lawyer Glen Reiser are highly involved in the combined Ventura and Los Angeles County murder of Donald Scott for his 200-acre Malibu mountain ranch.

Bradbury and Reiser are involved in another significant murder. Bradbury and Reiser, both ADL agents, conspired to frame a man named Thomas Pollizzi, because he was allegedly bothering Reiser. To get rid of him they put Pollizzi in a cell with another man, a dangerous inmate who beat Pollizzi to death. But instead of prosecuting this man for murder they transferred him to a mental hospital where no one could talk to him. Any one of a number of things to shut them up and prevent them from talking could happen to Bailey or Cochran while they were in a cell. The deadly ADL assassins are experts at this sort of removal of testimony and evidence.

The Southern California coastline from San Luis Obispo south through Santa Barbara, Ventura, Malibu and Santa Monica is a teeming nest and network of extremely wealthy ADL lawyers and Hollywood movie production elite.

Warren Christopher and the Thomasons who even before Clinton was elected had quietly leased a private home near their own in Summerland for quiet visits by Clinton while surrounded by Hollywood lovelies. Since elected, Clinton has made twenty-three known visits and how many other unknown trips to California.

Carl Ward, Jr., a lawyer from Judge Jerome Berenson and U.S. Commissioner Ben Nordman's law office and longtime buddy of William P. Clark, lives along the coast. Carl Ward, Jr. was involved in the conspiracy to assassinate JFK and his brother Robert Ward was recently arrested for conspiring to commit a mass assassination to kill President Bush and all four of the past Presidents, Carter, Nixon, Reagan, Ford and their wives at Reagan's Library dedication which was held only a few miles from the setting of the Rodney King trial in Simi Valley.

Many weapons of Ward's (twelve machine guns, numerous hand guns, hand-grenades, 27,000, “twenty seven thousand rounds of ammunition”, laser sights, night-vision goggles and silencers) were recovered at a Ventura County location but Ward was released and the conspiracy covered up by D.A. Michael Bradbury, the Ventura Sheriff Department and the U.S. Secret Service office located in Santa Barbara, California.

It is no coincidence, it was a deal that all three persons on the Los Angeles Commission to investigate the Rodney King case, Warren Christopher, Mickey Kantor and Andrea Ordin were picked by Clinton for top positions in his Administration. Through their TV publicity they built up in the Rodney King case they were able to unite and keep the black vote within the Democratic Party and elect Clinton. Andrea Ordin, a former Attorney General in Los Angeles, wanted to be the U.S. Attorney General but I was able to stop this. Clinton tried to appoint two more ADL women, Zoe Baird and Kimba Wood, to Atty. Gen. but they were also stopped. Clinton had to settle for Janet Reno.

Andrea Ordin is the wife of Robert Ordin, a Federal Judge in Los Angeles, an ADL agent who is closely associated with Harry Pregerson. The three ADL, Hollywood moguls who control the Television Industry and all censorship powers, Steven Spielberg, Jeffery Katzenberg and David Geffen are deeply involved in the heavy financing of the ADL's secret backing of the terrorist activities in Israel. This is to stop the peace process and keep the rich American Jews from losing all the money they have invested in the stolen Arab lands. The Moguls held meetings with President Clinton prior to his trip to Egypt for their alleged International Terrorist meeting. All of this terrorist publicity is for the purpose of helping Congress to pass so-called antiterrorist legislation that will deny citizens their Constitutional Rights and reduce them to peons in the Dark Ages.

Mogul David Geffen, a homosexual ADL agent, a multi-billionaire, is related to Ralph Geffen, a Federal Judge and ADL agent in Los Angeles who is closely associated in their conspiracies with Harry Pregerson.

It is easy to understand how all these Mishpucka ADL agents have become immensely wealthy, it is impossible to sue them or ever win a case in court when their relatives and bloodlines own the Judicial System.

Their billionaire fortunes were made as much or more through narcotics smuggling than their much touted abilities in the movie industry.

Judges Stanley Mosk, Harry Pregerson, the Geffens and Ordins have for fifty years controlled the judicial system and all gangsterism in the Ninth Circuit. Fifty years ago I observed Pregerson, Mickey Cohen and Stanley Mosk with another Mishpucka named Nathan Turkebtahn smuggling and dealing in drugs with international drug operators Abraham Davidian and Benny Wong. Nathan Turkebtahn is a very mysterious person in the ADL operation. The FBI and Justice Department have very secret files on this elusive master-criminal who is very closely tied in to Albert Jalaty who has been in law enforcement in Ventura County for fifty years. Albert Jalaty was a police chief in a Ventura County city and then Sheriff of the county for many years. To keep the lid on all the ADL gangsterism, Albert Jalaty was appointed as the Sheriff Emeritus of Ventura County, he has a desk, phone, files and a secretary and still runs the county even over District Attorney Michael Bradbury. With all of Johnny Cochran's troubles with the sadistic ADL and Justice Department and their all consuming hatred for him and F. Lee Bailey and the desertion and traitorous duplicity by their former associate Robert Shapiro it is difficult to understand why the Kern County Superior Court Clerk and Arthur E. Wallace would join with him and Carl E. Douglas in criminal acts of destroying and lying about judicial files and records.

Before the ADL and Justice Department is through with them Johnny Cochran could be sharing a prison cell with F. Lee Bailey where anything could happen to them. Their licenses to practice law will be subject to being revoked and they will be relegated to nothing more than nobodies like O.J. Simpson who is not permitted to even make a living.

CONCLUSION:

And with all of this the single issue before Arthur E. Wallace is still only that of ordering a Default Judgment against Johnny Cochran.

RE: Gary L. Wean v. Johnny (Sic) Cochran, et al.
Case No. 229531-AEW

Dear Mr. Wean:

I am in receipt of a Request for Entry of Default which you signed on January 29, 1995 in the above-referenced matter. On February 12, 1996, I received a packet containing an Affidavit, an Order to Appear, and other documents.

I write because I have no record of Mr. Cochran ever being personally served with your lawsuit, and know nothing about its contents. I have never seen a copy of the Complaint. I would appreciate your providing me with an affidavit verifying the exact date that a copy of the Summons and Complaint was personally served on Mr. Cochran. I cannot possibly respond to your Request for Entry of Default without knowing more about the underlying circumstances of your case.

Your prompt attention is appreciated.

Very truly yours,

Dear Mr. Thomas:

Thank you for meeting with me to discuss the issue of the California Constitution allowing for unopposed judges to not appear on the ballot. This letter is to follow up our meeting.

The provision that you are concerned about in the U.S. Constitution requiring judges to appear on the ballot only applies to federal judges. Similarly, the provision in the California Constitution only applies to California Judges. I suggest that you contact your State Senator regarding this issue because it is a county judge that you are concerned about this is a matter for the State.

Once again, thank you for meeting with me. Please do not hesitate to let me know when I can be of assistance to you on any matter in the future.

Sincerely,

LEON E. PANETTA

PRINTED ON RECYCLED PAPER

April's Looking To Be A Busy Month

people to perish of this disease in the near, near future. It is the next, they say, side-disease of AIDS (whatever that might mean). [See p. 9 of last week's CONTACT for more on this announcement of our demise.]

MAD COW DISEASE

There is also "Mad Cow Disease" and, ah, this calls for their wiping out all the bovine population in England. That, perhaps, is the most dastardly thing they have come up with for mostly, in these days, a man would fight for the right of a cow, even one destined to slaughter for meat, rather than fight for the lives of his brother. Well, readers, this is just SCARE tactics for nobody would wipe out an Elite industry. They do, however, want to wipe out any resistance to infecting the population. This can easily now be accomplished through inoculations and vaccinations as will be required to PROTECT THE POPULACE FROM THIS TERRIBLE DISEASE.

EBOLA

There is a nice new breakout of Ebola in Africa and you didn't even notice. There were recently several cases in Little Rock, Arkansas. Oh well...

COMETS AND CRUISERS

What is this Japanese comet? Firstly, it has nothing to do with Japan. It was, however, a Japanese person who "discovered" it some month or so ago. (?????) That should be enough to tell you that you are dealing with a New Age Disease and NOT a comet.

[E.Y. Editor's note: Supposedly this comet was discovered by Japanese astronomer Yuji Hyakutake on January 30 of this year with just binoculars (!?!). So much for needing high-power telescopes to let us know when visitors are coming our way from "out there" somewhere. Preliminary estimates of its orbit indicate the comet will pass about 10 million miles from Earth on March 26 and that's the closest it will get to us. One month later the comet ought to reach its closest point to our Sun, at a distance of less than 30 million miles.]

"They", however, cannot decide of what it is composed and most now rattle about ice and ice crystals, and on and on and on.

It is nothing but a HOLOGRAPH, readers. It has, almost, some form and a projected tail of sorts—but it is simply a test runthrough of a system called BLUE BEAM heading your way in the local skies (wherever you might be) in April, simultaneously with the Billy Graham world-telethon scheduled for last year but now to happen in a couple, or so, of weeks.

SERGE MONAST

The word is being circulated that Serge Monast was "assassinated" (a nice word for outright MURDER). Serge had done the most writing about Blue Beam from Canada, along with other "insider" stories about lots of SECRET things. Perhaps this is rumor but the rumors were spread through the dark hours of yesterday and that usually means bad tidings of great sorrow.

MONTANA HIT AND ARREST

Schweitzer, patriot and check dispenser of Montana, has been arrested along with several others under the cover of "national security". The claim is about militias and threats but the REASON is to stop the flow of valid warrants against old gold and silver certificates and like debts of the U.S. Government. The "news" is saying that it could turn into a Waco-type incident so everyone is to "beware".

NEW MONEY

Yesterday you experienced the change-out of $100 bills. This is only an interim rehearsal for major changes planned for your near future. I suggest you get those $100 bills traded in ASAP so that you will be ready for the next move.

If YOU are working, in every instance of your life, within the laws, you don't have a problem with this new gimmick, do you? I have never and will not ever suggest you do ANYTHING which is unlawful or even bearing the color of unlawful activities. So, if you are holding legal tender—go trade it in or change it out as is convenient. If NEW laws come down which change those now in practice—YOU change your activities to meet them.

CONFISCATION OF ASSETS

A friend from Canada, just this week, sent a letter regarding confiscation of lock box contents, silver, gold, etc. He didn't believe it. Therefore, he went to the biggest bank around and asked about such possibilities. He was told: Oh yes indeed, and if the government needs the funds they will be immediately confiscated as there is already a law...

ALTERNATIVE HEALTH MEASURES

Alternative treatments for deadly diseases are in the latter stages of being thwarted for you-the-people. I won't act foolishly to simply bring down the house for you who have refused and denied the possibilities of what is happening in your world. When a new bug strikes, we get letters. Oh my, do we get letters bearing panic and terror. I can't help you AFTER it is too late, readers. We can offer and I note an offering in sale price-cutting for products. But, we also have ones calling wanting to stock up on items which, number one: there is not that much available, and 2: they don't want to pay for even the first quantity stating that this is "God's product" and they have family to consider and no funds available.

CONTACT: The Phoenix Project

CONTACT is a unique and inspired newspaper for concerned citizens everywhere, though it particularly focuses on the United States because of this country's special mission in the affairs of the world. That is, "As goes the United States, so goes the world."

CONTACT is a vehicle for Commander Gyeorgos Ceres Hatonn's most recent writings on important current affairs, plus those from other en-Light-ening sources, on matters critical to a responsible and informed public at this time of planetary transition and final days of battle between the Forces of Light and the "Evil Empire" forces of darkness.

CONTACT exists to counteract the manipulating lies and clever half-truths put out (on purpose) by the regular print and broadcast media prostitutes of the Satanic Elite controllers—parasites who are in the process of economically, physically, and spiritually collapsing this once great country (and actually the entire planet) down to a slave-state level of existence under their diabolical control plan called The New World Order.

This newspaper, CONTACT, began life on March 30, 1993, risen, like the mythical bird, with great determination "up from the ashes" of its internationally acclaimed predecessor called THE PHOENIX LIBERATOR.

THE PHOENIX LIBERATOR, in turn, began life in mid-October of 1991, having evolved from an earlier newsletter called the PHOENIX JOURNAL EXPRESS, which itself came into existence as a faster way to get THE TRUTH out to you readers than was possible with the more substantial "book" format of the PHEONIX JOURNALS. Much incredible ground has been covered so far in that mission.

While the PHOENIX LIBERATOR's motto reminded all that "The Truth Will Set You Free", the CONTACT's motto, displayed prominently in the masthead, takes that thought another important step forward and proclaims: "Ye Shall Know The Truth And The Truth Shall Make You Mad!"

The "Phoenix Project" is about those preparations needed—at body, mind and soul levels—to both understand and survive the great healing changes which are beginning to energize this beautiful little planet, now so frazzled and tortured from abuses of all kinds. We look forward, with great expectations, to the CONTACTing with all of you—a coming together that is rapidly taking place as the entire Phoenix Project "ground crew" continues to connect, solidify, and gain strength through becoming informed of THE TRUTH. Indeed, welcome aboard, friends!

— Dr. Edwin M. Young
Editor-In-Chief, CONTACT

Readers, all of you are in the same boat and when the water is now rising you all want onto the ARK. Remember how you bashed these good people? So be it and neither can you cause such great hurt to our people and then expect them to die in your stead. I, of course, speak in fiction for that is not the request but how do you obtain a new toaster? Do you go to General Electric, demand a toaster, and expect a toaster free for all your kin as well? Will you get the toasters? Well, what else do you expect? Do you expect General Electric to give you other things, as well, along with A JOB? What is this?

BITING THE HAND THAT FEEDS YOU

People come here and actually commit crimes of embezzlement, theft, and slander and still find ones who will lie, cheat and steal for THEM as cover-up. They come, further, uninvited and demand jobs which, when offered if possible, then start tearing down the very company that served them. They go forth and turn in workers and little companies who serve you. They have created time-requiring investigations while all that is found is in order directly under the law. However, it is irritating and annoying when these people could better be SERVING YOU. This is simply the way it is in your world of selfish and misfit people. No thank you, readers, this is not some cult or even "church"; this is not a religion or even a focus on miracles.

Why do you not demand the same of Dr. Sagan or Mr. Darden who both just wrote books, supposedly on "truth". Neither I nor mine came to SAVE anything or anyone. We came to offer the truth of your happenings and offer what we can for you who want it—NOTHING MORE! We do not fight anything except Evil wherein we can do so but that is also something that is up to EACH OF YOU. Why should we FIGHT even Evil? It will fall of its own volition if WE LIVE IN LIGHT AND ACT WITHIN THE LAWS OF BOTH GOD AND MAN. "Ah," you say, "but won't they take your things?" Yes, they already have done so. We didn't expect the way to be EASY—did you? God promised it "to be possible" and that we "would do our task". So be it.

FACES ON MARS

Now I get reprimanded for not following up on Hoagland's work, press conferences, etc. "And what of those faces on Mars," you demand. I said Hoagland's book was one of the "most important", not that it held all, or many, of the facts of what exists. You are, as I speak, a play unfolding and are LIGHT illusions. Mars is no different, only a part of the stage props of your play. Can you tell Mars from the holographic light spot of this new comet? HOW? It is far easier to spot the "craft" "out there" with their colors than to explain a holographic light blur. But take notice: IT IS LIGHT! It is ALWAYS "light" that allows you to "see".

I become annoyed at the would-be instructors of MY education as presented as their opinions and then a failure to enter a name. Do these writers and misdeed doers think we don't know who they are? Many even wrap up their long diatribes with "you know who I am..." So be it. The purpose is to remain unknown and unfound. I find it, however, quite interesting when these anonymous parties accuse our people of being unwilling to take responsibility when names, projections and actions are right out there in the LIGHT for all to see and hear while they won't even sign a name to their already covered mail.

3/28/96 #1 HATONN

TUBERCULOSIS THREAT

I need to turn back to that subject because just from the writing in which I mentioned it [see earlier in Front

Page story and p. 9 of last week's CONTACT] we already have confirmation by FAX:

[QUOTING:]

THE GAZETTE, March 22, 1996 (Montreal, Canada)

NEWSLINE

Tuberculosis threat might cause global 'catastrophe': WHO.

Reuters:

LONDON—Governments and the drug industry must spend about $680 million a year if they are to stop the resurgence of tuberculosis from turning into a global catastrophe, the World Health Organization (WHO) said yesterday.

The deadly lung disease is expected to kill 30 MILLION people, most of them in the developing world, over the next 10 years unless WHO's guidelines are followed, the United Nations body said. [H: Remember that WHO said the same thing only bigger about Small Pox when they deliberately went in to inoculate everybody they could hold down. They, at the same time, inoculated the victim with live HIV. This tuberculin strain of "bug" is only ONE gene alteration from the HIV. This is a very large "biggie".]

In a report on the global threat from tuberculosis, WHO said 3 million people died from the disease in 1995, more than at the peak of epidemics in the late 19th century when modern antibiotics were unavailable. [H: No, unenhanced colloidal silver will NOT get ALL of the strains now presented. It will get most and will do so without building resistance but this is an upgraded microbe bearing a higher frequency than the silver.]

THREATENS DEVELOPED WORLD

TB is the only disease WHO has ever classified as a global emergency.

WHO executives said the rise of drug-resistant TB strains means the disease is breaking out of traditional strongholds like Africa and Asia to threaten the developed world.

These strains have appeared because many patients and doctors fail to complete treatment. When patients feel better they often assume they are cured and stop taking drugs. This allows some bacteria to survive and become drug-immune.

Outbreaks of resistant strains of one of humanity's oldest and most-prevalent killer bugs have now been reported all over the developed world.

[END OF QUOTING]

I think I might as well go ahead and repeat some information, this time about aliens and UFOs because these same guilty parties are doing you "in" as we write of such as incurable, untreatable tuberculosis.

I will simply give you part of a chapter we wrote back in April (29th), 1991 and I would like to preface that information with what we wrote in the same chapter about:

[QUOTING:]

ARTIFICIAL LIFE FORMS

As I speak, I am left without the proper word in your language to describe what I actually mean. "Counterfeit" could be a better choice of terms than is "artificial". But even that is not totally correct. It is that Man cannot make a totally artificial life-form but rather tampers and rearranges "life-patterns" to start the combination of replicas into reproduction and "Nature" does the rest, for the most part.

It is known that it requires approximately three generations to change a group of people into a different concept of beliefs; it also requires, in some instance, the discarding of about a third of the population (especially the leadership) of a nation to enslave same. You have had both things occur in most parts of your world and now it is your turn in America.

To start over-taking a planet, or just the population of a nation, you must first bring the lesser strong people under control. That would represent the Third World nations in this instance, to render them economically devastated and disease-ridden along with devastating natural patterns which cause the very life-systems to come to totally depend on the strong for survival in any case. The thrust for experimentation towards research can then be carried on in mass numbers without anyone suspecting for a long period of time, e.g., introduce AIDS into Africa through a cover of inoculation against small-pox, etc. This worked extremely well for there were Haitians and Brazilians and other nationalities of people present in Africa at the time working on construction of such things as dams and other public enterprises. This worked because the infected carriers returned to their own places and brought the diseases with them. Then there would be introduction within the less desirable populations who were known in advance would spread the disease through community and drug-addict "users" or both. It was KNOWN that the disease would spread according to the patterns introduced into the behavior patterns of the given society.

First, however, the plans have to be in operation for a long period of years for, to gain control, the family life must be broken down and ultimately destroyed, then addictions must be introduced with availability of substances to allow for use enough to gain addiction (with substances which will act and addict quickly), then slowly the powerful chemical firms who press "medicines" off on the public must be brought into the fold for dealing total dependency on substances for healing and or.... Then the judicial system must be corrupted so that the mavericks who see what is happening cannot act and are, in fact, incarcerated and removed from among the people. But, how do you accomplish all this? It is done through massive planning through centuries of never losing the goal of domination. I remind you that the Adversary of God NEVER for one moment loses his direction nor his goal of total domination of the physical plane of experience.... And, so being under total control becomes the state of being of the masses while they don't even realize what has happened to them and they beg for more in the lie of "protection".

UFOs: TRUTH OF ACTION AND BUNK

If you harken back to the beginning of our writing you will recall the encounters we had and the struggles with those who presented totally false information and conclusions. The stories were simply outrageous with bits of truth, incorrect conclusions claimed to be drawn from findings of research and deliberate government cover-ups and disinformation. If you think that I am now, in this writing, going to take each "landing" or "crash" or whatever and give you more sordid details, forget it, for I have neither the inclination nor the time to do so. As incidents come into timely unfoldment I shall use some as examples, but just as example here, I note that aliens such as the Koldasians spend much of their own time in research and study, mostly in Africa, where they can REALLY watch the incredible oppression taking place FIRST and spend research rotations in ACTUALITY and PRESENCE in such places and in such study programs. We don't need to go into this for there are many places where the beings are actually etherians and reside in such places as the Philippines, etc. These "people" are accepted without thought, into and within the communities around their camps. Aliens also spend much time in Peru where, likewise, they are totally accepted. It is only YOUR Elite who cause such a fuss and miscarriage of Truth. It is YOU who is kept IGNORANT.

Next, I have continually said that at this time you have NOTHING to fear from any little gray beings from space. That does not preclude that at the same time you have to realize the presence of already infiltrated beings and a lot of ongoing synthesizing of same. Many aliens came and were either integrated into the working system of your Elite would-be Kings or utilized as cloning and replication alterations.

I will tell you that they first made contact and began functioning and setting up "take-over" plans with the group we have recognized as the Khazars. No, they were not called Khazars at that time—they called THEMSELVES the "Serpent People". These people were already from the "outer" planetary experience and were on your planet for many numbers of reasons but most with purely evil intent of take-over of a nice, pretty planet: the planet on which they were exiled.

America, as a matter of fact, would have been left intact if anyone had noted what was taking place in Europe but you were infiltrated with the greedy Banksters who started the wars, financed the wars and "won" the wars. This gave opportunity to further integrate into the systems and gain more control bit by substantial bit. The aliens integrated into the adversary community and began to work in earnest to accomplish this massively important task of take-over.

These are NO LONGER "space" aliens. They are, like you, land-locked beings who have perfected very dastardly methods of take-over, terror, replication and most inhumane behaviors. They are no longer allowed to pass outside your galaxy limits for your planet is surrounded with a full shield of brethren from the cosmos to prevent re-entry into what we will simply refer to as "outer space".

There are still many participants who do not come forth from Pleiades and do participate in different aspects of gaining working knowledge of how, for instance, to get YOU off the planet in "whole-life" form. A lot of these "little aliens" come from Reticulum, Zeta I and Zeta II. They will work from shuttle-type craft of varying sizes but most are quite small and extremely portable. There are also a lot of robotic replicas which are usually "headed" by a "full" being which will make contact to prevent terror or discomfort, if encountered. These are those which are often described but are also more often given credit for being totally kind, and "pure love" beings. These are also the ones that, if caught, are instantly destroyed by your governments.

There are other beings who are either already on your place in isolated bases and/or are "along for the ride", so to speak. It is a most interesting time when a planet makes evolutionary or transitional changes so you would, if you could, find ones from far, far reaches of the universe who come of pure interest but will participate in any lift-off that becomes necessary. They will not so much as touch a hair on a human's head unless invited to do so. They do not snatch bodies but I suppose if asked for allowance to board might very well honor the request and you, dear ones, will often get quite a ride—at the least, mentally in perception. The consequences of breaking any cosmic law through transgression is indeed swift and remarkably devastating to the perpetrator. You do not have "enemies" at a time of planetary transition. The hoodlums are planet-bound (earth-bound) and, although there is limited space capability as YOU might interpret, it is nothing as recognized by "space" travelers. In other words, you are isolated and ingress and egress is totally controlled and monitored by higher command. Physical evil is not allowed back into the outer cosmos.

Evil is manifest on the planet for it was the first aspect of human life-form to make manifestation on the planet. A garden for survival of the physical-bound evil energy was present and an opportunity to grow into the higher dimensions of creative energy given unto the beings imprisoned on the orb. You will note that instructions of the "Lighted" God were pronounced according to the Laws of God and the Creation and the beings immediately BROKE them and continued in their evil occupations. Next came, through the evolutions of planetary changes and periods of discipline which would allow for realignment with God, but the element of evil prevailed, in time, after every catastrophic change.

According to your "memory" books there then evolved changes now recognized and called the old world and the new world. The truest history came down through the line of the elders or Ancient Ones in an oral tradition of history reference. Man has always been given opportunity to mend and to heal, always with the ability to change his projection in order to regain ability and direction again to be allowed into and within higher experience. Over and over again man has had to basically "start all over" on your planet. Many evolve into higher knowledge and move onward TOWARD Godness and establish at every dimensional level of evolution in order to grow into higher knowledge and KNOWING.

Many of the "recognized" energy beings, exemplified by such as some of your scientists as you would historically recognize them, are again at stand-by to assist in putting the technology together as needed for restoration and experience in the new evolution during sorting and separation.... You people who continue to espouse "illusion in rapture", spare me the wasted time. You may well practice anything that you choose to experience but Truth is going to be presented and I have no intention of arguing about it nor, for that matter, even "debate" the issue. I come as a Host and Truthbringer and I am exceptionally qualified for that task and I shall do it to the best of my ability which, in turn, is quite sufficient. You can waste your time if you so choose, in trying to find credit or in discrediting of myself, but I remind you that I am sent from the very halls of Aton, as God of Central Life was recognized by ALL OTHER CULTURES, even though language caused differing names and labels. My purpose is to outlay TRUTH, whether or not you accept it or even whether or not you believe it. What you believe is none of my business just as what you think of me is none of my business. It might well serve you to at the least, listen, perchance I make some sense along the way.

I tell you now that the adversary in evil is out to destroy your physical beings in time to capture your sweet souls for longer experience in his game and if you lose your physical form while still in his clutches, your journey will take you to places of equal or worse confusion, separation from God of Creation and on-going experience of forgotten spirals toward the dark apex. That is your choice and none shall interfere but I do suggest that you look at the possibilities most carefully.

[END OF QUOTING]

In closing I would like to give you a short little quotation by T.K. Kennett on the subject of Religious Illiteracy:

"Those of us who refuse to read material that we think we might NOT agree with are no better off than those who can't read at all."

And one who basically will always lead you from the path of righteousness in his New Age contemplations has it right:

"The Bible must be seen in a cultural context. It didn't just happen. These stories are re-treads from stories before. But, tell a 'Christian' that—No, No! What makes it doubly sad is that they hardly know the book, much less its origins." AZIMOV

The biggest lie in all of history is set to wash over you in a very Earth-bound holographic light-show in the very near future. You are already witnessing it in the current light-holograph called a comet. Get ready, get set, and I suggest you carefully consider where and how you GO.

Good day.

Steps Toward Understanding Light And Life

The God-Force Within All That Is

Part I appeared on the Front Page of the 3/19/96 CONTACT and Part II on p. 2 of the 3/26/96 issue. We continue with this great outpouring on Light.

3/25/96 #1 HATONN

HIGHER FORMS OF LIVING

We have spoken many times about "Higher Forms of Killing" and have referred to a book by that same name by Robert Harris and Jeremy Paxman. I wonder how many people pay attention to the possibilities of higher forms of living?

In this consideration I must remind you that you are a "body electric" and "a body of LIGHT". "You" cannot function in precision unless you accept this bit of information. Why "accept" it? Because unless you consciously "accept" a thing, there is nothing of value which can be received for, in all instances, the changes you pray for, work for, and diligently demand, cannot be realized. A drug may well kill a "bug" you have picked up but there are many things which must be attended concerning THAT "bug". ALL deviations from perfection are related and mutation often comes prior to actual birthing of a baby but can lay dormant until the birth process separates the child from the mother to show its dastardly head and symptoms. This indicates, readers, that the most compromised babe will be miscarried in vivo if the mother bears the same latent problems as will present in the child later. If the babe makes it to delivery and then begins to have its own separate problems, and be they genetic hand-me-downs, it will indicate a paternal recognition of genetic structuring. This is most certainly not a scientific rocket-science observation so why do we complicate all things beyond our ability to cope with them?

If a child is slowly dying of a genetic disorder, it is often worthy of intervention to introduce a genetic alteration to specifically facilitate perfection. Obviously, also, there are different types of compromise in which there are large physical defects which can't be repaired in time to allow for perfection of body growth, for example, a missing part. However, even if that be present at birth, with intervention a stub arm might well be caused to grow, etc. If only ONE arm is missing then there is an indication that the opposite set of genes are deformed from the one present—but the genetic structure is not totally missing, only the set of instructions for the missing limb. Caught in time during the growth of the fetus there is great possibility of introducing the perfected genetic patterning—through the Mother's system which feeds and grows the babe. Perfect the parents and you automatically perfect the child.

THE ENEMY'S GAME

The enemy's game will be according to the PROTOCOLS and set forth in a demand for depopulation—through deception. Substances, for instance, are introduced into the system of one or another or both parents and then forwarded down through offspring in the mutant form.

As depopulation acceptance moves along, these "deformed-mutant" offspring will be "dispatched" (in the words of ex-Judge Jason Brent) as being among the "old, infirm, and stupid". These are intentional malformations of presentation.

PARASITES AND SUPRESSED HEALING MODALITIES

PARASITES are the carriers of choice for bearing these genetic alterations and actual microbial species to, through and within bodies. They are easily presented through water supplies, and more especially in times of poverty, joblessness, hunger, and general depression of a society.

Why do you think certain healing tools are denied your use? If you can kill the parasites, heal the cellular structure, enhance and protect the immune systems and prevent these dastardly distortions and higher forms of killing, through easy and cheap forms of treatment, why are these things forbidden?

With a $4.50 (or less, if you can gather parts from any old electric system using a small battery) device you can "charge", selectively, the cells and the invaders so that they REPEL each other and cannot, therefore, enter into the cellular structure of your body.

In addition to this phenomenon, you can actually TREAT BLOOD WITH LIGHT OF AT LEAST THE RADIANCE OF ULTRAVIOLET AND DESTROY ALL INVADERS AND MEND MUTANT CELLS. Carcinomas and carcinogens can be knocked out in a couple of "treatments". So, you will find that THESE ARE THE DEVICES BANNED TO YOU-THE-PUBLIC AND CALLED "QUACKERY" FROM WHICH THE GOVERNMENT "MUST PROTECT YOU FROM YOURSELF".

Let us look at one petitioner for better health, L.

Kennedy. She is diagnosed as having Chron's disease, clostridium infection and, NOW, myriads of other terrible and painful attackers. She has reached the place where the body will reject even the forms of healing which could and would allow her to heal—but getting the help is the next biggest problem. The third biggest problem is then being able to "afford" treatment by the time you realize the condition is so serious.

What would I do next with this lady? Well, I would get one of the little electric devices and use it two to three hours a day on the pulse-points of the wrist. After about three weeks or LESS, there will be riddance of both the parasites and the microbes now set up in their endless cycles of destruction. Then, before or after doing this, I would make an appointment in the nearest out-of-country center where LIGHT is used for blood enhancement. Mexico still has the allowance for such clinics and they are usually just across the border from the U.S.

I am often asked about laetril (B-17) therapy and other supplemental treatments. I don't think much of them in their singular use unless it is determined that you only have deficiency in the ONE item. It is rarely so. You will note that as the LAW comes down on items, however, they follow a pattern of sickness-establishing deprivations. You cannot get folic acid, for instance, in helpful dosages except through prescriptions and laetril can't be gotten at all, legally, in the U.S. and some other countries. Then note the desire to control vitamin supplements. The facts are that if you are deprived of any of the necessary components of cellular life (which are all things) you will have an unbalanced body and thus you will deteriorate mentally as well.

Am I saying that a Dr. Hawkings need not be ill? Yes. Am I also saying that we need not lose a Dr. Sagan to cancer? Yes. These are not "miracle" ideas; these are the facts of cellular life.

PRIMARY ELECTRICAL PATH OF MANIFESTATION

Let us look at what I just said above, and relate it to the ONE IDEA OF GOD MADE MANIFEST THROUGH ELECTRIC "MOTION". God thinks and presents His thoughts into the world of perceived "matter". As man deteriorates that ONE wondrous perfect "idea" the mechanisms begin to malfunction, as Man's "idea" becomes deformed and misdirected. Then we can look at these compromised elements of cellular perfection and see what is taking place. You need the DUALITY of "charges" in all electric bodies of which you are one. Therefore, you are going to have balance and orderly functioning only if you have the things you need to perfect electric flow and purpose. You need negatively charged cells and the ability to positively charge various cellular structures. The capability for these various "charges" is carried within the elements of the cells themselves.

Get those cell membranes charged negatively, for instance, and likewise the invaders, and you have total repelling of the one for the other, disallowing the invaders to move within the cells to do their dirty work. Up the frequency, and any already within the cells or working themselves into the cells cannot survive the frequency and will shatter, leaving the debris to be discarded. This can be handled by the DRIAS but most people on the Earth do not have the available drias. The drias, likewise, need to be able to perfect themselves IN LIGHT of higher frequency of even the ultraviolet. Until the day of easily acquired things as are drias, which are living cellular life-forms and not just a conglomeration of elements, you need other help as quickly as you can get it to artificially enhance your immune systems. It is ALWAYS the compromised immune system involved in any deterioration from perfection.

HIV

Nobody EVER died of HIV. The HIV just happens to be present in the blood system of those who are compromised immunologically. Therefore, the death of body comes from secondary causes and/or diseases—caused by other than the HIV virus. The HIV virus does have one very important capability and that is the ability to mutate and fit every changing DNA/RNA body within a given electrical/frequency range. The first and biggest realization was to accomplish a virus which would combine with the spirochete of syphilis and therefore the easily transmitted disease of homosexuals. You had to have available a deviant lifestyle to introduce the new lifeforms of virus crossbreeds. You needed deviant sexual procedures wherein you would have available "tears" (wounds) through which the virus could then be transmitted into the blood system directly. This was most easily accomplished in the male homosexual population wherein there was already prevalent hepatitis. You would, therefore, have direct entry capability AND an already compromised system.

Thousands of HIV symptomatic homosexuals have been cleared of even the virus itself but refuse to STAY clean in that they simply return to their "rightful" "right" to continue (or go back to) the lifestyle activities. You do not get "immune" to the AIDS diseases as you do some of the childhood diseases for there are always new and bigger, deadlier and more miserable forms of the organisms readily available.

Once introduced into the population of the world, you have easy access to transmission through ALL FORMS OF BEHAVIOR, including BREATHING, and it is difficult to sustain life without breathing.

You can KNOW the outcome planned for any disease when the ones set forth to PROTECT allow one disease of old time to be isolated while the real KILLERS are demanded placement within your daily cycles of living. By the time the "authority experts" admit the "mistakes" in assumptions in transmission methodology, IT IS TOO LATE!

So, what am "I" going to do about those such as L. Kennedy? Nothing. Absolutely nothing more than I have already done. KNOWING gives all the necessary information and it then is in the hands of the suffering individual to realize her own course of action. I am much like Dr. Sagan as regards "Faith Healing" for the Faith must be in the SELF to allow healing—not in some preacher's shouting and hypnotizing. Unless the individual wishes to be healed—he will remain sick.

LAYING ON OF HANDS

What of "laying on of hands"? Fine, go for it. What happens? The energy of the hand layer is transmitted to the "other" and, believe it or not, the energy "charge" is transmitted and, yes indeed, a lot of things take place within the body of the receiver as BALANCE and electric charge is presented for change in flow. Ah, but this is not simply "faith" is it? No, certainly not, but you have to KNOW at the cellular level of participation. If the mind knows the need, allows the solutions to the problem as founded through the mind—then the ONE idea can be perfected through the joint function of the ONE MIND—your's and God's, inseparable. Present a desire in honest quest and lay it before the MIND and the Mind will present the IDEA which can then be placed into "motion" through the electric wave action. Ideas not acted upon are nothing. Electric wave action must have an idea upon which to act. Therefore, we come right back to the SOURCE OF ALL THINGS, LIGHT. The potential is always in that ONE STILLNESS OF LIGHT. Why do you think an illustration of having an idea is a "light bulb" coming ON? LIGHT IS KNOWING. KNOWING IS GOD. GOD IS LIGHT. THEREFORE, LIGHT IS ALL THERE IS IN ACTUAL PRESENTATION AND FROM THAT LIGHT COMES ALL THINGS.

Is this too complicated? No, it is simply a directly opposing IDEA to those presented to you by the physical sensing non-reality of expression in human form.

DR. CARL SAGAN CHOOSING TO LIVE OR DIE?

I have referred to Dr. Sagan a couple of times in this writing and it might well appear that we have something in common while being as opposite in perception as two people can get. Well, I am not "just people" and where I don't agree is in the limitation of his own ego-perceptions. I agree with his overall attitudes of silly magic tricks to fool all you sensing people into believing that if a star is in your quadrant thus and so will happen. NO, it is not the reality in truth. I believe, however, that Dr. Sagan is doing some of his best work as he nears his passage through the sensing cycle of his own experience. He can heal himself but he is obviously proving that he does not wish to do so for he seeks ONLY those methodologies which KILL a sensing body. Quality of life, readers, is ever so much more important than quantity of an existence.

Can you see that an open mind does not mean "open" to the limits of Dr. Sagan's perception—but, rather, YOUR OWN? I would far rather have the misperceptions of a Dr. Chopra than a rigid scientist such as Sagan. Why? Because Chopra offers UNLIMITED realization within each individual. Dr. Sagan offers the boundaries and limitations of his own suspected opinions. To great extent I feel Dr. Sagan to be correct in his observations regarding the foolishness of physical MAN. Dr. Chopra gives allowance for growth to the SOUL of Man. So, whose ideas will live into infinity? Ah so, you ARE learning!

I would like to offer an interview as written concerning his recent book because there is a great insight into this Dr. Carl Sagan which needs attention. Remember that Dr. Sagan is a very HIGH level participant in Majestic 12, dealing with the relationships with Space possibilities or "COSMOS". Again, realize please, that this is dealing, once again, with the physical perceptions of limited MAN while a Dr. Chopra would say, "Certainly there are other life-forms," for he deals with eternal SOUL perceptions. Which is more valuable to YOU? Do YOU attend eternity or a brief passage through an illusionary play?

BOOK REVIEW

Book Review: The Demon-Haunted World: Science as a Candle in the Dark, by Carl Sagan. (Random

[QUOTING:]

A CONFEDERACY OF DUNCES: SAGAN HAS HAD IT WITH PSEUDO SCIENCE

by Martin Gardner
Washington Post Book World

Most scientists prefer to ignore cranks. Trying to enlighten them or their followers, scientists say, is like trying to write on water. [H: Then these scientists should try to enlighten "scientists" and see how far they get in that closed world of gotcha.] Besides, scientists believe they have more important things to do. Carl Sagan, Cornell's distinguished astronomer, sees it differently. He has become the fugleman [H: You won't find that word in your quick reference dictionaries. It means: One who leads or sets an example in anything. Why do writers have to show their own ego by utilizing such unheard of terms? Even "pseudo science" is some obscure term meaning "false science" of which there are so many forms as to be overwhelming.] of a growing band of experts now convinced that the rising flood of superstition and pseudoscience is too damaging to society to be ignored. How can political leaders vote intelligently on proposals to control nuclear weapons, to fund basic research, or to reverse environmental degradation if they and their constituents can't distinguish good science from bad?

[H: In your world of "science" it is all but impossible to distinguish even what is meant in any category. You have "military" science, "religious" science, and on and on with such things as "military intelligence" and Judeo-Christian as accepted valid terms. They are not even correct. If you have the oxymoronic play of words ON one another—you come out with total opposites within the same term. If it is "religious" it CANNOT be "science". You can have "Judeo" or "Christian" religion (NOT FAITH) in the joined term but you CANNOT HAVE THE JOINED TERM IN THE MEANING PRESENTED FOR THEY ARE OPPOSITES IN MEANING. Never mind the "Jesus" concept for "CHRIST" is a state of being which describes itself. Judeo means the opposite or the absence of the "christed" state of being, so the TWO cannot mix. You can force an emulsification of oil and water—but you cannot make them MIX freely in an untampered state. Until you can realize the thrust of the Elite onto your thinking, you can't possibly recognize TRUTH because it will always be buried by the SENSING physical controllers of your physical sensing world.]

Although this "dumbing down", as Sagan terms it, is global, it is on our shores that the virus of scientific illiteracy has become unusually toxic. As Sagan tells us, polls show that 57 percent of Americans don't know that dinosaurs died out before humans evolved. Indeed, almost half the populace thinks the Earth was created about 10,000 years ago, and that the dinosaurs perished in Noah's Flood." (They were too big to go on the Ark.) Most citizens don't know that the Moon and stars rise and set like the Sun or that electrons are smaller than atoms. [H: Wow, and "this" came from Dr. Sagan? Sun rising? Sun setting? My, I could have sworn the fact is that the EARTH ROTATES causing the ILLUSION of the other heavenly bodies "rising" and "setting". Oh well...]

"The Demon-Haunted World" is a stirring defense of informed rationality. It is also a powerful indictment of today's miserable science teaching, the upsurge of Protestant fundamentalism and the roles of greedy book publishers, abetted by the print and electronic media, in accelerating America's dumbing down.

Few believers in crank science escape Sagan's withering blasts. Let us name a few. Christian Scientists who would rather let their children die than give them insulin or antibiotics. Creationists who think God made Eve out of Adam's rib. Fools who ignore sound medical treatment to be "operated" on by Philippine psychic "surgeons". Ignoramuses who waste money on homeopathic drugs diluted until no molecule of the original substance remains. Does the water "remember" the drug's properties? [H: I'm sorry that this writer has so sorely misrepresented the actual writings of Dr. Sagan but he, too, is pretty hard on all possible deviations from his own perceptions. Once you have introduced, for instance, the DNA/RNA structure of a molecule into a DRIA water-bath, you have it there forever. What I dislike is the absolute narrow observations of book readers interpreting a great and insightful man's work. It begins to sound like a typical hatchet-job to me. On the other hand, Sagan leaves himself open for such blasts because of his own narrow perceptions of possibilities.] Sagan devotes hilarious paragraphs to his friend John Mack, Harvard's peculiar psychiatrist who treats patients he firmly believes have been abducted and often abused by aliens on UFOs. An embarrassed Harvard can't fire him because he has tenure. There are 10 times more astrologers in the United States, Sagan reminds us, than astronomers. Are astrology books and newspaper columns as harmless as fortune cookies? Recall the sad spectacle of our past president and his first lady scheduling important meetings on dates set by their West Coast star gazer. Orange County declared bankruptcy last year because its treasurer made stupid investments recommended by a mail-order astrologer.

Other offers covered by Sagan include the supposed stone face on Mars; the ridiculous crop-circle hoaxes; J.Z. Knight's profitable channeling of Ramtha, a 35,000-year-old Cro-Magnon warrior who lived on the newly sunken Atlantis; the fake shroud of Turin; bleeding and weeping statues of the Virgin Mary; Big Foot and the Loch Ness Monster; spontaneous human combustion; poltergeists; perpetual motion machines; ESP and psychokinesis; dowsing; auras; Scientology; Lysendoism; pyramid and crystal power; the Yogic flying of Transcendental Meditators; faith healing; facilitated communication with autistic children—the litany is endless.

The most tragic result of scientific ignorance, skillfully detailed by Sagan, is the current mania for sentencing innocent parents and pre-school-teachers to prison, sometimes for life, solely on the basis of false memories of childhood sexual abuse fabricated by incompetent, self-deluded therapists and social workers. The false memories often involve horrible cannibalistic rituals in Satanic cults that the FBI has declared non-existent. Another prime example of how scientific ignorance can thwart justice, too recent to be in Sagan's book, was the inability of O.J. Simpson's jurors to comprehend the accuracy of DNA blood testing. [H: Ah, here again is the fatal flaw in Dr. Sagan's perception—he fails to recognize the EASE in cloning DNA-RNA in blood for any and all purposes. Mostly I AGREE with his perceptions on all these many topics which are totally foolish and actually foolhardy in recognition. But a "scientist's" first concern must be to "possibilities" and never to a blanket "it is crank" simply because you disagree. Anything that comes as "magical" in presentation and is without fundamental possibility—is most often incorrect in concept. Dr. Sagan knows, however, of clones, replications, breeding, cross-breeding and the presence of alien life-forms, so he protesteth too much about some things.]

Like all of Sagan's books, The Demon-Haunted World is rich in surprising information and beautiful writing. His colorful attacks on crazy science are accompanied by happy memories of his childhood in Brooklyn, his early enthusiasms, his passionate love of science and the influence of his parents, his college mentors and Ann Druyan, his wife. (I don't know Sagan personally and didn't provide any help in the writing of his book.) [H: Yes Mr. Gardner, and it shows and you tell.] Philosophical questions are not ignored. Sagan has no use for sociologists who pretend that scientists invent rather than discover laws of Nature. Science, he insists, is much closer to mathematics than to cultural differences and changes of fashion. Two plus two is four in all possible worlds. The laws of quantum mechanics are the same in China as in America. [H: Right on, Mr. Sagan!]

Although science is always corrigible—Sagan even lists several of his own past mistakes—who can doubt that it moves inexorably closer to understanding how the universe behaves? Reality is out there, independent of our little minds, not inside our heads as we are assured by Shirley MacLaine and other New Agers smitten with adolescent solipsism. [H: Ah, but Dr. Sagan, you don't have to take RESPONSIBILITY for following the tales of a Shirley MacLain. When you KNOW truth in reality—you MUST ALSO TAKE RESPONSIBILITY!]

[END OF QUOTING]

When BAD science is foisted off on an accepting public a lot of damage is done within the scientific fields of search and find. If you accept, for instance, the false Einstein Theory of Relativity, you CANNOT FIND THE CORRECT ANSWER FOR THE NUMBERS DO NOT ADD UP TO TRUTH and therefore all scientific calculations for SPACE and COSMIC purposes are not correct in your environment. As long as Man thought Earth was the center of its solar system—you COULD NOT POSSIBLY PERCEIVE ANY OTHER RELATIONSHIP WITH THE COSMOS AS VALID.

SAGAN'S FIB?

I chuckle at Dr. Sagan's own projections which he KNOWS are false. This falls in the area of communications with possible extraterrestrials. He KNOWS that radio signals are the way of communication—but the perception that they will flow through mechanical devices is false, and he knows it. The listening devices set forth for this silly game are the very devices which connect the pulse grid system to further enslave the masses of people, not connect with extraterrestrial anything, and most especially not with intelligent life-forms. He also KNOWS the tamperings and mind-control techniques and helped devise many of them to accomplish this mass misinformational directive to control the people ALL the time and, at least, MOST of the people All the time. The UNIVERSE will go right on ticking while the people of sensing human physical form go right on taking a licking. What I dislike about Dr. Sagan is this contribution to further misinformation in thinking processes which can be foundationed on such a great and gifted mind as his own. And further, I have very, very little respect for those who put their own egotistical reviews on a great person's contribution to allowing learning to take place. If you, for instance, highlight the bashing of astrologers, how many astrologer-believing people are going to bother to get the book and learn what Sagan REALLY said? These kinds of "Reviews" are just more mind-control tactics, readers. GET THE BOOK AND STUDY IT. You readers are now informed enough, if you have read our work, to KNOW and separate information. You learn from everywhere and, the more you study, the more you learn and the more you can control your own MIND. Stop hopping down the bunny primrose path on OTHERS' OPINIONS when they have not really read the material. This is the continuation of intended ignorance.

Dr. Sagan and I know each other very, very well but it certainly is not "politically correct" for him to mention as much. It will be when the scientists who do KNOW act in goodness instead of political self-protection that your world will begin to change. Whose side are YOU on? Then is it not time to question as to which side these scientists who control your very existence are on?

If you are locked into a scientific method of a sensing physical world—you CANNOT be open to possibilities of other worlds except in the farthest reaches of your imaginings, and this is basically disallowed in the narrow fields of actual SCIENTIFIC ACADEMIA. Could you not have both? Certainly, and wouldn't it be a wonderful experience if it were so? I find that most "scientists" are like the proverbial lawyers—trying to DISPROVE the TRUTH instead of working to reveal the TRUTH and prove it. The facts are that you don't have to PROVE TRUTH for, when all else fails, it STANDS.

It reaches the point that the truthbearer is caused to bear a sense of guilt as the lies are reinforced in confusion and total fabrication. No, this is not acceptable reception. If you are in TRUTH, it will always bear the SAME story and therefore PLEA BARGAINING is unethical, untruthful and will end you up convicted within the LIES. Court settlements after the "other side" realizes his unlikely position of winning in court—are prevalent and usually will disadvantage the unwary. Be careful and only go to battle when you are CORRECT, and RIGHT is truly on your side and, if you can stay the course long enough—TRUTH WILL "OUT". You can stay the course much longer if you KNOW WHAT YOU ARE DOING SO THAT YOU CAN DO YOUR OWN WORK AND FILINGS. TRUTH, THESE DAYS, IS LOST TO THE MONEY FOR THE MOST INSIPID LAWYERS AVAILABLE. And, readers, just because the majority in the world remains uninformed—MUST YOU? I do, however, have to remind you that once you take up ARMS against your adversary in weaponry, etc., you WILL LOSE, FOR THEIR GUNS ARE BIGGER. TRUTH IS ALL YOU NEED TO UNDO THE ENEMY IF YOU BE IN RIGHTEOUSNESS AND LEGAL ORDER. HOWEVER, YOU MUST USE ALL THE AMMUNITION THAT YOU CAN ACQUIRE ALONG THE WAY—FOR IF YOU REALLY CAUSE TROUBLE, OTHERS WILL JOIN THE FRAY FOR THEIR OWN PURPOSES. IF YOU ARE STAYING THE COURSE IN TRUTH—THEY WILL ALL FALL BY THEIR VERY "ASSISTING" THE ENEMY IN ANY GIVEN SINGLE CASE. THE CULPRITS BECOME QUITE OBVIOUS AND WILL ALSO SUCK IN THEIR OWN ALLIES WHO WILL DO UNLAWFUL AND UNTRUTHFUL WORKS FOR THEIR OWN GREEDY INTENT.

I REMIND YOU, READERS: ALL THE LIES IN THE WORLD DO NOT TRUTH MAKE! ALL THE WRONGS IN THE WORLD VOTED-IN OR ADDED-UP DO NOT MAKE A SINGLE "RIGHT". STAY WITH TRUTH AND RIGHT AND YOU CAN AND SHALL PREVAIL, AS THE SUPPORTING NETWORK OF YOUR ENEMY IN HIS OWN LIES, FALLS. SO BE IT. Salu.

Some Strange Ways To Look For Truth

3/26/96 #1 HATONN

MAN'S QUEST FOR TRUTH

Let us turn to this bigger subject in which we are hopefully laying a foundation in understanding. The quest for Truth (GOD OF LIGHT) is eternal. No matter what anyone, including myself, says about the subject, the truth is there always and "every" time—into infinity. Our OPINIONS matter not one iota and at best, "perception" is the only reality we can hold.

In the eternal quest of Man to find Truth, the journey often seems confused and filled with contradictions. There is only ONE TRUTH but it is presented in as many differing facets as there are energy forms. We write, you read—or you don't read as the case may well be. You opionate and the critics critique. Does that CHANGE Truth? Not a bit. I honor your right to opinion and accept that you feel I have no right to the same freedoms and especially my secretary may not, in your accusative world, have a right to HER OPINION. So, basically, she quit having an opinion save to SERVE where goodness presents and does NOT serve where "wrong" is the intent or purpose. My people have found that it pays to be honest, truthful, diligent in attention to all duties, AND OPEN IN THE LIGHT WHILE IN CONFRONTATION. YOU DO NOT NEED BECOME THE WORLD TO LIVE IN THE WORLD.

Some will accuse by saying "look at all the people who have left your group". (?????) We have NO GROUP! Therefore, how could ANYONE leave it? Moreover, there is not even more than a phone list of people who have requested to be called if there is a meeting to which they might come and share with friends. Well, the enemy is always welcome as well but you might have to eat [freely provided] cake at worst for joining us. Certainly nobody drags you in nor holds you in bondage. You have every right and encouragement to disagree or agree with anything we offer but to call us a religion, a cult, a club or anything else, is simply NOT TRUE and whoever lies about it does not make it so.

LIE, CHEAT AND STEAL

I would suggest that when you hear about those who left "us" that you consider the QUALITY of the persons who choose to RUN and HIDE and what they take with them. Look and see what THEY do and to whom they turn to support and whine, wine and dine! Check it out. Look at those angry people very, very carefully and watch that which they do, hide, take, cover-up, and what actions they take AGAINST TRUTH. Why are they so angry? Because their unethical and unlawful antics were NOT ALLOWED TO GO UNCHALLENGED and they were treated exactly as if there is no group to allow for ignorant behavior. If you do not do a job hired for in General Electric—you are going to be called to task about it. You steal, even from the diamond mines in Africa, and you are in SERIOUS TROUBLE. Why do you think it is OK to come and waggle, hide, cheat and steal FROM ME? Why is it somehow OK to steal, cheat and lie about Ekkers? IT ISN'T! If a secretary is fired, laid-off, or simply no longer has a job—SHE MAY NOT WALK OFF WITH THE COMPANY'S PROPERTY WHICH BELONGS TO THE STOCKHOLDERS—EVEN IF SHE WOULD BE OWED MORE THAN SHE PERCEIVES DUE AND OWING. In other words, she may not take the computers, the typewriters, the copy machines, etc. If there are disputes then it must be confronted at a legal level, not just because of her demands.

In all instances "here" there has been OVERABUNDANCE OF PAY for services NOT RENDERED and still, funds and equipment have been taken. The parties resent the terms, cheat, lie, and steal. But I ask YOU: what is "taking on the side", "speaking falsely" and "taking that which is not yours"? I did not cause words to be formed with suitable definitions—those are YOUR DOING so don't expect ME to use alternative terms which do not suit the crimes or the intent.

What would YOU call an act where someone goes into a Corporation Agent's office and takes, unlawfully, three corporations, hides them away to use AGAINST the agent and other corporations—at the request of other accomplices and conspirators? No, don't whine and wiggle out; what would YOU call such actions? It is, purely and simply: theft, crime, conspiracy to commit a crime, unlawful taking of property, misappropriation and conversion of property, and any number of other terms for court use. If YOU don't want credit for these kinds of actions and intents, then I suggest you DO NOT DO THEM EVEN IF YOU "THINK" ABOUT THEM.

How can we know the intent of the "do-ers"? Because the records are NOW showing up in legal cases where they have no relevance AT ALL, with names, corporation titles, players in the opposition's game, and the gun is backfiring.

I find it amazing that some continue to badger even after all the players are out of the picture. George Abbott, attorney at crime, even recently claimed to represent Eleanor Schroepfer who is now in a home for the elderly and unable to attend herself mentally or physically. He does this under an outdated Power of Attorney while sucking dry the bank accounts of these deceived individuals.

It is, indeed, difficult and painful to have to confront these dirty-dealers but how can you ever hope to change a degraded system if you are unwilling to take a stand for truth and honesty? If you bought a television and it doesn't work—don't you expect to be able to get a refund for your investment? How about a $350,000 lump of gold taken from you? Would you not expect the LAW to get it back for you? Suppose you aren't even the owner but are responsible for the company to which it was given? I suggest you go read the laws as well as the responsibility clauses involved in corporation participation. If YOU allow evil to win—then how expect you to not have EVIL REIGN?

COMPROMISE

If I seem harsh to you and/or unwilling to compromise my stance, it is because I am UNWILLING to compromise truth one iota. You have compromised your people, nations and planet into destruction and bargained away or sold out most of your assets unto your own enemies. I think the term is "sold your soul to the 'devil'".

Is it too late to reclaim that which is yours? I don't know for it depends upon what you claim as "yours". Most of you only deal with physical "things" but a few of you have actually bargained away your very souls. Some of the evil beings around you in the highest places of control are actually reproductions and constructions of your adversary himself.

So, let us consider, again, "YOU". That which is YOU has inheritance within which is OF GOD CREATOR which allows YOU placement and recovery within The Creation in the Light of that God Creator. Your inheritance is the true essence of that which IS you and not that which runs around in foolish antics and things of flesh physical. All you have to do to reclaim your birthright in infinity is to turn again into and unto the TRUTH and into the Lighted path while turning FROM those things which, within, you KNOW are wrong. Why do you dig your own graves more deeply with each action sold to you by professional wrong-doers? I have no other purpose than to tell you and YOU about the resources available to you. None shall have the privilege of "being forced" to move again with the Light of Truth and KNOWING. You can't pull a "cop-out" on self for it is unacceptable. YOU are RESPONSIBLE for YOURSELF. No other one can do this job FOR you. Therefore, you will stand responsible. All another can do is offer you KNOWLEDGE of how it IS and you must make the choices of direction and action YOU will take. Of all the things we bring and tell you—THIS would seem to me to be the most obvious truth of all. Deny this truth and you deny YOUR own right to existence. You can BLAME anything and anyone for your own PLIGHT—however, it matters not a bit for, after all, it IS YOUR plight according to those earlier choices you made for yourself. Many, many of you made the right choice in the beginning of what turns out to represent "a problem" for you as you compound errors, and then, you turn right to and within your own enemy's camp to destroy all possibilities of recovery.

Let us be practical for a minute, readers, and consider any reasons Ekkers might help the very ones who diligently work day and night in crime and scheming to destroy them. Why would God HELP anyone who turns so definitely against HIM to accomplish their greedy games and assets? Well, why would these people expect to gain from their own transgressions? I want you to carefully think about this. If someone tries to murder you and changes not his way of life actions and intent—will you trust him again or give unto him your precious life? Stop being silly for God expects intelligent REASON and not silly fantasy-land stupidity.

PERSONAL

Let me comment here on personal matters. When YOUR enemy joins with others trying to destroy you and he uses the enemy's lies along with his own distortions of truth and fact, have you not just GAINED GROUND? I can promise you that in the ending the joining of Green with Horn and the USING OF SUCH AS YOUNT, TUTEN, FORT, ETC., IN A GAME WHICH HAS NOTHING TO DO WITH ANYTHING RELATED, YOU HAVE GAINED. THE TWO WRONGS DO NOT MAKE A RIGHT, READERS, BUT COMPOUNDS THE "WRONG" AND BEGINS TO HELP THE HONEST PARTIES INVOLVED, FOR THESE "WRONGS" ARE "PROVEN" WRONGS! In these instances the JURY will likely accept the TRUTH even if it lacks total PROOF in documented form. Why? Because the players on the adversary's side will have proven their lack of integrity and truth. What do I mean? Well, Mrs. Yount, for instance, wrote letters and claimed to not be helping, or anything, Mr. Green. LIE! All of her information is now with Mr. Horn, the lawyer of the adversary. Did she lie or did Green deceive? Either way it certainly appears as if Mrs. Yount lied and her lies have since been scattered to the four corners of the winds BY GEORGE GREEN! Did Sharri intend to lie? How else do you deliberately tell non-truths? You just don't want me to call the little white falsehoods, lies. If there were no lies or wrong intents, those corporations' records would be returned long ago to the proper AGENT's office. Why do YOU somehow deserve to win in wrongdoing while those who are RIGHT are thwarted and destroyed as to reputation and responsibility? Well, "I" don't think it is right or even "correct" to allow this while KNOWING difference and, therefore, I find it unacceptable for anyone to COVER for the thieves, liars and cheats!

INTENT

YOU say you want a different world built and functioning in goodness—but, do you? It is not going to be "somebody else" who does it, friends; it is going to be YOU or you are not going to change a thing. If an action is wrong for a politician it does not become "right" for you to do the same thing and claim secrecy or, somehow, righteousness. If YOU break the law or a senator breaks the law—OR A HARDENED CRIMINAL BREAKS THE LAW—the law is broken and perhaps, soulwise, YOU are the worst culprit of all for YOU CLAIM PIETY AND GOOD PURPOSE WHILE DOING YOUR DIRTY LITTLE DEEDS. Who makes you do what you do? YOU DO! Your original intent may be simple enough, but when you HURT OTHERS, you have acted incorrectly when the responsibility of fiduciary obligation rests on the ones YOU WRONGED. When these actions are perpetrated and then perpetuated in intent of further "cover-up" while further damaging "another"—you are going to get the cycle right back in your own lap and that may well be COSTLY in many forms of return.

It is of utmost importance that I not lose credibility and therefore, my friends, I must see these things to their end. Do all of you see that our own truth with ALL OF US rests on seeing the lies brought into the LIGHT? The lies will present as sweet elderly ladies, preachers, businessmen, infirm with tools of helplessness and, above all, seemingly stable and honest "Joels" and "Does". You must be ready, willing and able to confront any of these enemies anywhere and every time you recognize them. One by one they fall easily but allow them to stack up against you and it is all but impossible to thwart their immoral thrusts as they "gang up" to willingly and stupendously lie against you. It is not alright to allow any threat to go un-noticed.

THE WIZARD OF OZ

A person just this week referred to Mr. Ekker to others while making a demand and said: "Take it up with the Wizard of Oz". I think you regular readers know that this is a fighting term in this crowd after knowing Cathy O'Brien's terrible pain and agony. In addition, Mr. Ekker HAS NOTHING TO DO WITH THE SITUATION, DEMAND, AND/OR THE CIRCUMSTANCE. This is the WAY things begin when they are not stopped instantly. EVERYONE is free to leave us, not come here, go away, whatever—so to use this kind of tyranny, against anyone, is wrong behavior—even if it were in jest—which it was NOT. Further, I am disappointed under these particular circumstances that there is even a question as to how to handle the matter. Ekkers run nothing save their own responsibilities and that was a very localized situation which did not, would not, and could not, involve them in any way, shape, or form. This was a staff encounter at the paper which is NOT Ekkers' responsibility. Further, if there is no funding to run the paper in the number of pages wished, then certainly there is no funding for demand of pay increases of the amount demanded when, in fact, there needs to be a decrease in personnel and not an increase of costs. Therefore, it becomes a form of blackmail in intent. There are all sorts of reasons a person may "act in this manner" but is it not up to the person who "flies off the handle" to correct the impressions and circumstances? I don't want to focus on any incident other than to cause YOU to pay attention to what you do, what you say—and WHY you do and say those things! Further, do you actually expect these outbursts to cause the parties in front of your blast-gun to want to do something MORE for you? Perchance your perceived "Wizard of Oz" might even be a bit irritated? Or, perhaps I am the supposed Wizard? It helps for things to be clarified, does it not? Is Brent Moorhead the Wizard in point? How about Rick Martin? What about Claudia? Is it Dr. Young? What about Jack T.? Do you see WHAT YOU DO?

Suppose you worked free-lance for the Los Angeles Times and you wanted to change your circumstances. What would you do? Would you go to the department manager and demand that he take it up with the "Wizard of Oz"? Until you people treat our work as the good business it represents, YOU ARE OUT OF LINE. Treat your own business interchanges as cult operations and you will be OUT OF HERE.

Ah, but there always looms the "threat" of bad-mouthing your victims—out there somewhere. Well, I have terrible news for you, the fewer hangers-on for all the wrong reasons, the better we are. The one way to HAVE CREDIBILITY is not to play into these sorts of stupid and silly games. This is not some sort of silly ideologically religious circumstance with cutie-pie tap-dancers. This is a place of individuals with individual choices and allowances in ALL instances. If YOU perceive it to be otherwise then this certainly is NOT the place for YOU.

HOW COME?

But how dare I speak of these things? I said I would confront every wrong done and misperceptions will be set to correct. If you choose to fall in the category of doing these things then I shall speak of them. When I know the intent is not to bring pain or attention, I shall not cause others to even know your identity but EVERYTHING will be used as a parable EXAMPLE to show what I mean in the lessons offered. You do NOT have to take my "classes" but I believe I have a responsibility to stand with my STUDENTS, as their professor. If you are in my classes then you are subject to my "grading" schedule. If you don't like my college then I have to tell you, up front, that this professor is going nowhere else so you, as a student, must choose your own courses in whatever other college you choose. We do not use "outcome-based" educational standards HERE.

There are ways to properly handle all situations and if you choose to act foolishly as if you are not in such situation then that becomes YOUR PROBLEM and none of our business. Just because we know you and you claim to know us does not mean a tinker's damn. If you work for the local restaurant and get fired or get promoted to manager, it is not our business just because we know your name. E.J. personally knows the head of Transamerica but that does not mean that he runs TRANSAMERICA. E.J. wrote on inflation and worked with Union Oil to build a presentation but that does not mean he either runs Union Oil or causes inflation and certainly neither makes him the cute little "Wizard of Oz". It does, I suggest however, make him accepting of his responsibilities to gain truth in information. Now, if the person involved didn't "intend" this to get to the actual "Wizard in point" then why was it said? Is that not putting a burden on the person with whom the statement was dumped? What it really amounts to is pure carelessness in the heat of whatever circumstances the parties find themselves at the moment—both as to transmitter or receiver. You can joke and jest—just be sure you use intelligence about which is which for a joke in poor taste can actually be a nuclear-sized bomb in actuality. And, when the statement is clearly not a joke or jest, it is going to be accepted in about the same manner as this incident.

INDISPENSABILITY

Every one is dispensable, including me, and if I deflect or veer from my task in LIGHTED TRUTH, I will be "out-of-here" like gangbusters. If you perceive otherwise then you are badly misled by your informants. I am not here, like Ramtha, as some 35,000-year-old Cro-Magnon philosopher or barbarian with whom to play games. Most people find my standards of excellence unacceptable to their ego transmissions. I do not apologize for such standards but do expect the same of you as you come to work within MY realm of influence and responsibility for there is NOTHING else holding you to me or mine. If we bring discomfort to your sensitivities and sensing pleasures then why in the world would you bring pain and discomfort upon yourself by keeping our company? If you project "my opinions" in "your opinion", you no longer even represent MY opinion, only your own opinion ABOUT mine.

You may spread your own opinions and lessons about everywhere but why become upset when the parties, upon whom you dump, disagree? They have a right to their opinions as well as thee. Moreover, they too have searched and perhaps they FOUND and you have not! Possibilities abound within God! Guess unto whom your opinion really matters? Yourself and NO ONE ELSE. When it boils right down to the bottom of the pot—only you can appreciate, fully, your opinion. Each "other" will have to find his own opinion—even about "your" opinion. Even "my opinion" regarding God and Hosts is suspect until you FIND TRUTH IN THAT LIGHT WHICH IS GOD. If it matches my opinion then and only then can we find unity without doubts. The minute the subject changes, however, there is cause to doubt again and "prove" again.

This writing needs conclusion for it is too lengthy to easily handle in one unit. I do, however, want to talk of THE PLAN as is awaiting its conclusion, especially and specifically as to the RELIGIOUS perceptions and misperceptions which WILL COME DOWN and will come down very soon now in your own calendar counting—some say in April which is only a few short hours from NOW. My opinion? It matters not what is MY opinion. What is your opinion? AND, HOW MANY MESSENGERS WILL YOU KILL TO AVOID FACING TRUTH? Salu.

"Don't get me wrong—I love it here. It's just that I'm a little disappointed about the harp thing being a myth."

"New Age" Distraction From New World Order

3/27/96 #1 HATONN

DECEPTIONS

As we come to speak of THE PLAN we have to first focus on the deceptions which are cast forth to hide the actual "Plan" from you-the-people. The point of the whole "New Age" confusion, especially the incorrect perceptions and misrepresentations, of the "Christ" acceptance as projected, alongside the other nonsense of such "movements", is to further confuse and distract from what is really taking place.

You might well tell me that you "don't believe in the New Age..." Fine, I don't believe YOU. You claim one thing but don't know what it is you think you do or do not believe. You have already been swallowed up in the New Age trap whether or not you claim Christianity, Islam, Talmudism, Zionism or whatever. You are deceived by the "call" of the New Age Mother Nature absolution. There is a tendency to worship "Nature" either in Man or in actual Nature but what are you really doing? Worshipping a physical set of circumstances. Do you see that you cannot worship a deity such as a "christ"? "Christ" is only a state of being which represents a state of being. "Christ" is simply the opposite of "evil". So, realize please, that christian beliefs and actions are simply "goodly" intent and actions, and no "religion" holds any claim on same.

YOU, as people, have been, since ancient times, fooled by translation misdirection of WORDS and TERMS. Therefore, let us consider this "New Age" and look at how you have already been swallowed by same. You may be in the midst of denouncing it even as it encompasses you.

Let us share a quotation from another's works which brings home this fact. It will appear to be an evangelical projection regarding Christians and evil that is to come into being, but it is not of that source at all. This will come from a noted pyramidologist-occultist, Peter LeMesurier. It is a "how-to" manual for New Agers and intellectuals interested in STAGING a simulated SECOND COMING OF CHRIST.

The script, as it has been written, if successfully staged, could deceive even the very elect. So BEWARE. [QUOTING:]

Their script is now written subject only to last minute editing and stage-directions. The stage itself, albeit as yet in darkness, is almost ready. Down in the pit, the subterranean orchestra is already tuning up. The last-minute, walk-on parts are even now being filled. Most of the main actors, one suspects, have already taken up their roles. Soon it will be time for them to come on stage, ready for the curtain to rise. THE TIME FOR ACTION WILL HAVE COME." From the ARMAGEDDON SCRIPT, by Peter LeMesurier, St. Martin's Press, 1982: New York, p.252). [H: Yes, this might well be frightening to you to realize this was written over a decade ago and we repeated it in 1991. In this day, in an age where one hour can change a world, what think you a decade brings in change?]

[END OF QUOTING]

If you allow only an exchange of one lie for that of another, you are being even more confused and it is that you continue to look to "another" and "another" for your authority and fortune-telling. Are all of the predictions of New Age "prophets" incorrect? I have no idea for I care not to even bother to check them out. I would say that if you make a prediction of when it might snow next Winter if you are located in the high mountains, you will hit it pretty nearly right if you give enough days for choosing, say, up to, give or take, 300 days.

How can we know that there are great errors in the works and projections of one such as LeMesurier, just for example? Because without even looking closely at the "New Age" portion of his writings, he is a studied and learned student of the "Bible". Ah, and just "which" bible? We would have to assume the one called Holy Bible of this so-called Judeo-Christian origin. Well, BOTH TESTAMENTS are from Judeohitic source which changed out their own following to that of the TALMUD and PROTOCOLS OF THE LEARNED ELDERS OF ZION. The Bible gives such erroneous information about the being of "Christ" as to even label a MAN by that word which only has meaning as a "state of being", a Spiritual definition. Therefore, if one thing be incorrect all else must fall suspect to error. If this man, like any man, has chosen to project an incorrect statement and it deliberately is misleading, he cannot be correct in his conclusions, can he? Data in—data out is a good theory of scientific recognition. If you have bad or erroneous data in—you CANNOT depend on the "data out".

Next, you must realize that if you mix a confusion factor with an already confused factor, you can only end up with chaos of information, at the very least.

These movements such as New Age as presented by such as LeMesurier offer, also, A PLAN, WHICH IS PROJECTED TO CONFUSE REGARDING THE ELITE PLAN 2000. Please remember that the mark of proof of a prophet is total coming forth of the projected information. So let us consider that very book in point, ARMAGEDDON SCRIPT. We devoted a lot of space in the journal, I And My Father Are One, but alas, the journal got banned from distribution. I think it is worthy of your attention again.

SKY SIGNS

Since the time of our own writing in 1991 there are more and more signs in the heavens which point to the ability of the adversary to play mind games with your senses. Comet Hyakutake is an excellent example. This "vision" is exactly THAT, a vision. It is a man-projected IMAGE in holographic form. This is to get your focus on the sky for the big show-and-tell coming up according to the plans to dump a One World Religion onto your shoulders. Always honor the possibilities available but recognize the probabilities of even your beloved visions of, say, Mother Mary. You will always be presented with that which you want to see and hear.

You have now passed enough perceived "time" to have revelation of what has NOT happened on schedule. There are always excuses and actually there are reasons for things to not come off as directed. However, would it not appear much the wiser of some "prophet" to not give specific dates, which can be easily changed, for major happenings? Since the truth of the play is in its sequential "acts", there is no need to even consider offering foolish edicts and still be correct in general speculation.

HOOVER DAM

Please allow me to make a timely observation of something that just occurred yesterday—out of the blue, so to speak.

A great fanfare was made out of releasing great, great quantities of water from the Glen Canyon Dam to flood the Grand Canyon waterway. They said it was for rehabilitation of habitat and on and on with great and wondrous prattlings. The government was into it to their ears and powerful people were on hand to open the flood-gates. But, what is this massive amount of water increase going to do to the downstream structures which are already in a state of failing?

I would recommend that anybody who listens to me not go to Laughlin, Nevada on the days that water hits the Hoover Dam. I think that dam was once called Boulder and when the floodwaters hit that failing dam and, should it fail, there will be a big by-by for places downstream, such as Laughlin, Nevada. Note that I did not say there would be failure but, rather, that there COULD be failure.

The orchestra is tuned and ready to open this act of the play in progress, but what happens when you have a prophecy which doesn't happen? Ah, yes indeed, you have another bout of sleeping sickness and more difficulty in arousing the sleepers NEXT time and surely, with the Elite World Takers, there is always a next time.

HALLEY'S COMET

In LeMesurier's book of happenings it was stated that things, such as the Messiah's arrival, would be well before the "arrival of Halley's Comet in early 1986". NOTHING happened and much the less the arrival of a Savior. Now comes along this new study in scripture resolution. This new leader is going to "carefully prepare for his role by studying scriptures and Dead Sea Scrolls", current "Jewish" messianic expectations, (everything so far has been from that source), familiarizing himself with prophecies of other major world religions and "the best in New Age religious thought." My, now why would God need to study up on all that which has already been PROVEN FALSE and unworkable? Would not God know His own purpose for the journey and His own arrival? Why, indeed, would they or I need to study "current Jewish messianic expectations"? Those, by definition alone, indicate Khazarian Zionist Mandates and Protocols as within the Talmud book of Man's projected instructions. Note, please, that the old "Hebrew tradition" is not even included therein.

Next, "...the science of earthquake prediction would be employed for the remainder of the initial scenario." What earthquake prediction? Where? When? How? Who? and, Why? Why indeed, if there is no such thing!? LeMesurier, this wondrous new leader, then coolly details some of them as follows:

- "1. The restored Messiah must reappear on Jerusalem's Mount of Olives at the time of a great earthquake.
- "2. He must enter Jerusalem from the east, escorted by a procession of rejoicing followers dressed in shining white.
- "3. Visiting the tomb of his spiritual ancestor, Kind David, he must emerge in suitably-perfumed royal robes as the great monarch returned.
- "4. Supported by a popular rising, he must proceed with his followers to the Temple Mount, there to be enthroned, anointed, and crowned king of the New Israel."

Ah, but you might say: "Surely no thinking person would expect such a program to succeed, given the large number of determined Catholics, Protestants, and skeptical Jewish observers who might give opposition."

To the contrary, this resistance has been carefully calculated—AND DISMISSED!

"The massed forces of the Old Age, however, will be unable to check their headlong onrush. In large measure they will go on to destroy each other in a massive, mutual venting of long pent-up aggression...!"

What sort of a program would be offered to satisfy the "spiritual" needs of those living under this regime? As expected, the leader, LeMesurier, rightly notes that it will not be the traditional Christians:

"The new mission to the youth of the world, then, will be an international movement dedicated to spreading the already developing ideas and values upon which the New Age is to be founded. Those ideas and values will not necessarily be the traditional Christian ones.... For the wisdoms of all ages and cultures will be called upon to surrender their most precious secrets, and the collective human psyche will add to it yet further wisdoms that have so far never even been expressed.... It is for the soul of Man that the New David will have to fight..."

Can you go back to the beginning of the above quotations and pick out the "for sure" losers? You must note, however, that the plan is to cause you to do exactly these things in this New-Age One-World Religion. This will mean giving up the most important one thing in all of LIFE—your soul, as the NEW demands are brought down around your hapless selves. So, I guess we have to concede that Mr. LeMesurier is right for the wrong reasons. It is staged so that, certainly enough, the "wisdoms of all ages and cultures will be called upon and they WILL surrender their most precious secrets." The Apostle John was clearly shown this in the course of his Patmos Island vision. But what makes a man named John's vision any better or worse than your own nightmares?

"And after these things I saw another angel come down from heaven, having great power; and the Earth was lightened with his glory. And he cried mightily with a strong voice, saying, Babylon the great is fallen, is fallen, and is become the habitation of devils, and the hold of every foul spirit, and a cage of every unclean and hateful bird. For all nations have drunk of the wine of the wrath of her fornication, and the kings of the Earth have committed fornication with her, and the merchants of the Earth have waxed rich through the abundance of her delicacies." Rev. 18:1-3

You nice citizens of the world might well note that "old" Babylon has moved location!

I hope you readers do not err in thinking this LeMesurier (of whom you never heard) is alone in his projections. Note the following statements: His books have received the benefit of major publisher support [while the True word of God is turned away by EVERY major publisher] in both the U.S. and in places such as England, Germany and "you name it". It was a MAJOR book club selection in England. Books revealing the cover-ups and lies, even of Earth-bound actions, get banned and removed from shelves in stores and libraries and certainly are not allowed onto the "Best Seller" list through the hands of major publishing houses as are within the Elite control.

Major New Age conferences have been held on this very theme. One such conference was reported in a matter-of-fact style in September, 1983 New Age Journal. Appropriately entitled "Facing Apocalypse", it was attended by 125 activists of the Jungian persuasion. It was organized by Robert Boznak, a Jungian analyst from Sudbury, Massachusetts. Its premise was that the vision of a cataclysmic ending of the world is itself a menace. The conference was held in an incredibly elegant hall that formerly served as a millionaire's mansion at Salve Regina College in Newport, Rhode Island. Some of your better known were in attendance.

I must point out, as well, that the infamous Humanist Manifesto, also bears this theme. Look at the preface to Humanist Manifesto II; it states:

"As in 1933, humanists still believe that traditional theism, especially faith in the prayer-hearing God, assumed to love and care for persons, to hear and understand their prayers, and to be able to do something about them, is an unproved and outmoded faith. Salvation, based on mere affirmation, still appears as harmful, diverting people with false hopes of heaven hereafter. Reasonable minds look to other means for survival."

Reasonable minds? Does this mean that if you have a shovel and call it a spade and speak some truth by tainting the intent you can call up your personal scenario of Universal Law in any manner you so choose? What about RIGHTNESS? SALVATION, BASED ON MERE AFFIRMATION, IS AS FAR FROM THE truth AS IS THE MANIFESTO ITSELF in its total stupidity of assumptions.

This thought is further reinforced within the body of the Manifesto itself:

"Promises of immortal salvation or fear of eternal damnation are both illusory and harmful. They distract humans from present concerns, from self-actualization, and from rectifying social injustices."

Let us now look at some interesting projections. Interesting? Yes, for why in the world does "the ending" need become that which is "projected"? If you are writing your script as claimed—then why not write it to disclaim and refuse such dastardly trials and tribulations? You are given instructions in scenes which cause collective thought which focuses on fulfillment of that which is desired FOR YOU TO PROJECT. This is necessary for the adversary to "win". The adversary "loses" anyway but you can easily be lost in the storm of confusion and limitation. If Man-projected limitations can be brought to bear, soul manifestation will fall into the hands of the controllers. The battle is truly for souls, readers—YOURS.

One can easily see where the area of that which is called "Jungian" archetypes and acting out an end-time drama is an area in which occultists, atheists, and agnostic humanists can find a great and common ground. What means "humanist"? This means a total separation of the "physical human" from the "spiritual reality" and, worse, it is supposedly accomplished through the higher spiritual self which indicates two mutually exclusive states of being in total opposition, one to the other. At best that HUMAN experience of any given sequence will be around no more than a century and that will be pushing your old clocks. I do not well abide the term "human" as in this context for "human" indicates "Higher Universal Man". I would prefer, as related to physical man, "Iloman", meaning lower limited Man.

Let us continue to investigate the confusion mess. The occultists of all New Age persuasions could easily support such a person-figure because they believe it is "their Christ" as they quite bluntly define it. The atheist could participate because he would feel it would contribute to the furthering of human progress on the planet, with people being discharged of their ideas of a coming deity for once and for all. The Humanists could participate because it would further the aims of their manifesto. In fact, maybe the Humanists and the New Agers are really not so far apart! In the 1973 Humanist Manifesto II it reads, "...we stand at the dawn of the new age." Well, readers, EVERY DAY you stand at the beginning of a "new age". Many recognizable New Agers and occultists appear as signers of the 1973 document, including Isaac Asimov, Archie Bahm, and Lester R. Brown of the World Watch Institute. Likewise, the 1933 original Manifesto was not without occultist input. Olive L. Reiser, a Lucis Trust activist, par excellence, appeared as a signer to that original declaration. This is all tangled up within the New World Order and Global Plan 2000 and One World Government as further projected forth under the United Nations via such as Donald Keyes. You are even going to find Reiser entangled in the West Coast "Simpson" murders. Shocking? No, not once you KNOW the Plan.

But let us backtrack a bit and refer to your old book of the Bible, Daniel, and see that he warned that the coming world dictator would not come initially with GUNS. The angel warned him instead:

"And in his estate shall stand up a vile person, to whom they shall not give the honor of the kingdom; but he shall come in peaceably, and obtain the kingdom by flatteries." Daniel 11:21.

It comes right down to the real question being not whether there will be flatteries, but what form will they take? The central "flatter" the anti-christ and his followers employ is the same as that consistently employed by Satan in all past times; "thou shalt be as gods". However, it is also evident that he has been courting the intelligentsia by flattering themselves into thinking they can change the course of history, by concerting play-acting a false messiah into his domain. Daniel warned:

"And such as do wickedly against the covenant shall be corrupt by flatteries: but the people that do know their God shall be strong, and do exploits." Daniel 11:32.

RESPONSE TO THIS "ARMAGEDDON" SCRIPT

Isaiah, of biblical fame, gave some important advice for you who perceive yourselves to be "authentic" Christians vs. the "mouth" Christians. First, it tells that nothing will ultimately prevail against God's TRUE body. Second, it tells you whom you should truly fear:

"Associate yourselves, O ye people, and ye shall be broken in pieces; and give ear, all ye of far countries: gird yourselves, and ye shall be broken in pieces. Take council together, and it shall come to nought; speak the word, and it shall not stand; For God is with us. For the Lord spoke thus to me with a strong hand, and instructed me that I should not walk in the way of this people, saying, Say ye not, A confederacy, to all them to whom this people shall say, A confederacy; neither fear ye their fear, nor be afraid. Sanctify the Lord of Host himself; and let him be your fear and let him be your dread." Isaiah 8:9-13.

I trust you can quickly see that the planned deception is incredible in detail and magnitude, perhaps enough to deceive "even the very elect". One way that the elect might remain alert to such deception is to remind themselves how Christ will really appear, if you can but isolate the chaff of the vision from the wheat thereof. You will know that no matter how impressive the show, or the people calling for His acceptance, if you are standing on the ground, it is a clear-cut phony. You will behold "Christ in the air" and NOT "on" the air as some prominent TV evangelists have suggested. Owning a television set is not a prerequisite to viewing this coming "in power and great glory". How can such foolishness prevail as "every eye shall see him", and it is meant "on television"? By the way, most of you recognize the name Benjamin Creme, who also projects this foolishness! I can promise you that unto the least eye, seeing or blind, every part of the world shall see the coming and know of its presence, even into the darkest corner of Africa or within the tribes of the Amazon, to the native in the regions of the poles. They have not television and yet THEY WILL SEE AND KNOW.

I think I would give careful attention to the proposed Blue Beam Project because the thrust is set for this April (now within hours in your counting) and the nice new master is supposed to be coming on that holographic comet now touted as a "surprise". Whoopee! On the given day at the chosen TIME there will burst forth such visions that you will be shocked out of your proverbial socks. Will it happen? Sometime—somewhere! How do I know? Because it is written in the Controller's SCRIPT. This means, further, that you HAVE TO HAVE ALL THOSE OTHER DISASTERS AS WELL.

I urge you to stop being so negligent to your adversary and his devices. However, it is even more important that you KNOW wherein to place your fear and your trust. You fear not "them that can slay the body, but are not able to kill the soul: but rather fear him which is able to destroy BOTH soul and body in the manmade hell" (Hell: Separation from God and absence of "Light").

HOLOGRAPHY

Perhaps we might further clarify the portent of holography and appearance of beings. If you do not understand that which is actually in point herein, you will be sorely misled.

"Not since the advent of motion picture photography has there been a development with so much potential for reorienting our concepts of visual image-making as holography—the technique of using still-life laser transmissions to create an image that has depth. This volume takes you into the wondrous world between matter and energy, real and surreal, object and idea, to explore the social dimensions, political consciousness, and aesthetic developments that have shaped this revolutionary art." From THE HOLOGRAPHY BOOK, by Jeff Berne, 1980.

This was written nearly a quarter of a century ago and even then the projection was that "Within the past few years a theory has been developing which may further unify all aspects of mankind, including its religions." Because this theory has not yet had wide circulation among non-scientists, it is included herein in this discussion so we may use some of its concepts when applied to World Religion for the New Age. It is known as the "Holographic Theory of the Universe". There is even a "holographic supertheory":

"In a nutshell, the holographic supertheory says that our brains mathematically construct 'hard' reality by interpreting frequencies from a dimension transcending time and space. The brain is a hologram, interpreting a holographic universe."

And, let us move a bit further:

"The holographic model also helps explain how the strange power of the image held in a transcendental state may be made real."

But students, WHAT IS REAL? How can I explain to you that if this be so, you can only conjure on a plane of illusion within a physical environment, FOR YOU ARE "HUMAN (LLOMAN)" IN PHYSICAL EXPRESSION. Therefore, it is not with great wisdom that you consider that ones of the etheric realms of Creation may be able to produce a factual holographic duplicate from "thought" projection but that any entity FROM THE PHYSICAL cannot do so? From the physical aspect, only duplicates and synthetics can be DEVELOPED, not "CREATED" AS LIFE FORMS AS THOUGHT-BASED, GOD-SOURCE BEINGS.

I suggest you also consider the following rules given forth unto you by God for your guidance.

"Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image, or any likeness of anything that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth: Thou shalt not bow down thyself to them, nor serve them..."

Ponder this most carefully and see that which you do.

This in no wise takes exception to the setting of goals within man and projecting them into reality of experience. We speak of two very differing states of achievement. The time for Man to achieve the "creation" practice of other life, is after the perfection of the learning when one is again in God-ness with the total perfection of the balance of God within Creation. The third dimensional, physical state of being does not "cut the mustard". That station is still very low on the levels of dimensional achievement. Therefore, as man of Physical expression gets into that which is given unto perfection, he gets himself into very "hot water" indeed. The species of Man can then only prove his incapacities to manage that with which he can technically tinker. Lloman (Man, physical) can never achieve GODNESS from the physical aspect, for that is NOT WHERE YOU FIND GOD IN CREATION, ONLY EXPERIENCING!

So, you might inquire of me, "Isn't a 'replica' a sort of hologram?" NO. A replica is a fabricated "thing" which functions but only duplicates holographic perception. A holograph is basically a "perception" or "vision" of a finished cellular reproductive illusion, without physical manifestation of "solid" form.

"Can the outer dimensional 'brothers' create holographic forms on a planet?" Yes, some can, and all higher etheric beings of higher levels of the dimensions of God most certainly CAN.

Does this mean, then, that no matter what thought processes and projections you forecast, those will not (can not) be actually experienced? No, because a vision and goal of perceived fruition is NOT a hologram nor a holograph. It is a precipitating "goal" to which the mind will produce a method of bringing into your perceived experience. For instance, if the goal of a war is placed into the collective consciousness and given expectation, you will have a war for your goal-seeking mechanism will see to its fulfillment; but again, that is NOT a holograph; that is but an accomplishment of the goal-seeking mechanism of the physical "experience".

What do "I" think about the New Age? I don't! I don't give it or any of your other silly enchantments my attention in focus. These are things you need to KNOW, not that upon which I want to offer energy. You are going to go forth and practice and play at whatever it is that gets your attention and ALL will assist you realizing TRUTH. I simply suggest you take great care so as not to jump off cliff edges with sharp rocks at the bottom. Most of you are at the bottom of the cliff trying to climb up and out of the canyon. Therefore, why not take a good path-map and get some insight as you accomplish your goal of reaching the summit? And remember, bungee jumping can be hazardous to your health as you joggle up and down and all around and, once in stillness, you are still hanging upside down by your feet!

Good morning.

Kudos To Claudia & Phyllis

Spotlighting Those Who Both Help And Hinder

3/28/96 #1 HATONN

FOREWORD

EACH DAY...

What difference, in ordinarily acceptable terms, is 11:59 P.M. and 12:01 A.M.? Of course I cannot suggest that if you are executed at 12:00 midnight that it is not impacting on your life-stream in the physical perception of form. So, let us assume no such execution and you sleep in bed during the "usual" rest hours of the night. What difference is the overall importance of midnight? Those two minutes are no more important, or they are as important, as any other two minutes of your experience. It only lays in perception, and the placement of commas in the sentence above, as to stress or importance! What happens in YOUR life are THE important mileposts along YOUR journey. The death of an important person in Afghanistan may well be the "most important" happening but in southern New Mexico it probably is NOT "considered" so important and will probably not be noticed at all.

You must come to see connections, however. Let us look at Mr. X's death in Afghanistan for a minute. Perhaps he is the greatest freedom fighter in all history. Perhaps his death will precipitate a global war which will take the lives of many around and about your own location. Does this incident then take on new meaning? When? At the moment of the translation of Mr. X—or when you find out it has killed your son in battle? This, if nothing else, is a REASON to pray for "all your relations" (which is everyone, everything, everywhere!) for what happens to any happens to ALL, and "all" INCLUDES YOU!

DEDICATION OF THIS WRITING

Is "my" opinion of any value to you? No? Yes? Well, which is it? My opinion about the weeds in the grass of Mr. X's garden may well not be important and neither may MY opinion about anything. However, if "I" know something which can assist you in getting through some pretty hard times, my opinion might, at the least, be worthy of reading and some consideration. So far so good?

When we share parables on Tuberculosis or on getting on with your neighbor it is because we have rising thought-forms which focus on these topics.

Sometimes I am forced, by circumstances awaiting resolution in very human situations, to comment on things well or better left to silence. But after I have said that I will confront each issue arising which causes negative reactions within our own team's work hours—or the one who murdered Mr. X—I WILL DO SO. That topic may well not be of interest to YOU, but it is to the ones in point and herein lies my FIRST responsibility. A Professor must teach his subject with care and accuracy lest you are simply taught more misinformation. My focus on such as the "new" Tuberculosis may well end up SAVING YOUR LIFE as you consider your physical expression.

We were told yesterday of the death of Terry Reed (COMPROMISED), one of many uncoverers of the Clinton/Mena/CIA/Drug connection, due to a "supposed" heart attack. This same week comes the news of Serge Monast's assassination, and you have the siege in Montana which is EXACTLY like the Ruby Ridge, Idaho and Waco, Texas stand-offs. Only the players and the location are different. Do I agree with the "Freemen" group? No, but I agree that this can end up in a bloodbath where YOU lose greatly.

I feel sometimes, as I do this morning, that I should put away the topics under development such as LIGHT/GOD and focus on the myriads of topics affecting your very existence in the mortal form. But, is this wise teaching? You can find those truths unfolding in your daily non-news with the very twists in lies that you might now be able to isolate from the general prattlings of news reporters with structured scripts. They are not allowed commentary as that category of discussion is left to the Elite of the elder news persons. But what of GOD-LIGHT? Who understands well enough to offer you TRUTH IN INFINITY? Therefore, I must leave one or the other to the observers and reporters. Further, there is no ability to print all that we have in superabundance for topical comment. So, to the dedication heading of this writing:

I want to honor CLAUDIA HENSON and PHYLLIS LINN.

I will save the other CONTACT staff for another time but without these two beautiful ladies there would be no News Desk and no "layout" order to the paper. [E.Y. Editor's note: And those are only two of many other quiet contributions which Claudia & Phyllis make which add greatly to the professional stature of CONTACT. The responsibilities they shoulder without complaint make the load much more bearable for the rest of us.] A huge task? A little task? What difference does it make? NO TASK IS LESS IMPORTANT THAN ANY OTHER. I have told you prior to now that the cleaner of the bathroom is THE MOST IMPORTANT PERSON ON ANY STAFF—ANYWHERE, ANYTIME! THAT person can and does save your life if he/she does a worthy job of disinfecting the toilet alone. But what does this have to do with Phyllis and Claudia? Well, in this instance, since everything is related to everything else—sometimes they, too, clean the bathrooms at the offices, and certainly do so at their homes. Life happens! Life also is that which is happening while you would certainly RATHER be doing something else. I especially bow to these TWO PEOPLE for they go so much without proper appreciation for their gifts to all of us.

I might add here, however, ladies, that both of you have been "turned in" to various agencies by your "so-called" friends who turned against us. No, I jest not. Your names were entered in the documents of Green and the follow-on by Ence/Enz. And, the very wife of one of the hardest "hit" is ALSO included. When will YOU awaken and smell the rats rotting? These people are trying to destroy all of you; all things which they themselves have perpetrated MUST be attacked in re-buke for their own violations so their own actions can somehow remain hidden. Well, it can't longer be covered as Mr. Green has sent his poison packets EVERYWHERE! Some are actually sent forth anonymously with a cover letter indicating Betty Tuten sent them. This automatically brings her into Green's legal entanglements so SHE will have to pay her and HIS bills and legal costs. Tacky? Yes indeed! Then there is little Sharri who has tried to cover her own capitulations with this man. But after saying she has nothing to do with George and is not using her corporations to abet his crimes, HER VERY LETTER SHOWS UP IN MR. HORN'S PAPERS AND THOROUGHLY IN HIS DEPOSITION QUESTIONS—EVEN TO THE UNLAWFUL EFFORTS TO CHANGE CORPORATION DOCUMENTS, TAKE CORPORATION DOCUMENTS, ETC. Ah, but you see, HE is smart enough to hide the ones he intended to use at onset of deposition for it just wasn't going well for him with Green's documentations and lies.

The rest of the Ekker crucifixion is due to take place on Good Friday and Easter Saturday. I don't think so, watchers! Mr. Horn has now ALSO played one too many tricks—this time, on the court. You guys NEVER should have told Mr. Horn that Mrs. Ekker is "Anti-Semitic" for he used that and the lead pellet punctured his own balloon—AND YOURS! Why? Because what does Mrs. Ekker being anti-anything have to do with the fact that his client HELD NO SALE OF ADVERTISED PROPERTY? THERE ACTUALLY "IS" A LIMIT BEYOND WHICH A JUDGE DARE NOT ALLOW, IN PUBLIC, THE BULLETS TO FLY.

I would ask, moreover, WHO of YOU were present or aware of the actions of Ekkers or anyone regarding this property when it all happened? Well, Mr. Green's input is now totally rebutted by documented FACTS. We are, in fact, grateful for his input which has actually given cause to win the case for without him many things would not have come to the table in exposure of obvious conspiracy—right through the conspiracy with Mr. Green et al., including Tuten and Yount! Rod Ence/Enz and Sandy's family, of course, are the most exposed and now degraded by Green's and Abbott's antics.

But I digress. I bow to these ladies, Claudia and Phyllis, who give and share and often it is while their own lives are painful in every aspect. Sometimes in the daily responsibilities of living the burdens get TOO HEAVY and the exasperation reaches explosion levels. It is with love we must confront these explosions, share the hurt, join the hearts and yet still must confront bad choices of either words or actions. We ALL simply want a bit of recognition and acceptance of ourselves. I am quite accustomed to being bashed, readers, and it still does not sit well with me when the bashers of "me" overflow those who simply serve with me. There is a frustrated and hurt CHILD in each and all of us. We think we have ego under constraint and then, wham, it hits when the level of other annoyances and burdens strike. My attention, however, for my own recognition is that if we can't handle LIFE in the hard times then we cannot handle it in "abundance"?

Do you consider I just reversed the terminology and example above? No, I haven't because, trust me, it is in abundance that ego takes the cake and eats it too! So, how long do we have to struggle to overcome these urgings of consciousness which present negatively? FOREVER! We each, myself included, must always THINK in advance of the spoken words. No indeed, I do not always practice that which I "preach", as the saying goes, for I too have great responsibilities and I too am serving as are you, in that condensed world of ego attitudes, and I grow short and abrupt and it will usually be over the "little" things for I can see the BIG things coming down that trail to befall your footsteps and I can see when the SIGNS report major detours ahead for each of you.

Even in matters of crime and/or opinions, can we not treat one another with the respect of "innocent until or unless proven guilty"? Whether that be of spoken word or dastardly deed, it always is the best approach.

However, after PROOF comes forth and you are being slowly eaten away by the cheats and liars—YOU HAD BEST HARKEN UP. Do you realize the "forgiveness" is not even in God's vocabulary? There is NEVER a question of forgiveness—except for SELF. It matters NOT who else might forgive your transgressions for until you forgive self and try to set the perceived error or word to "right", you bash SELF and usually the actions get far worse in your trying to secure self.

I note this most often happens against Dharma and E.J. because we have DUMPED a lot of responsibility on these shoulders wherein there are no choices except to run and hide. This latter will NOT happen so I do suggest we all realize as much. They can take a lot and they are NOT going to run away, as others have, after damaging one another. The damaging has to STOP somewhere. There is no magic in this job. These people are left with heavy, heavy responsibilities which most have no idea even exist. Then, every Tom, Dick and George, along with their brigades, attack. They attack through time-consuming bouts with IRS turn-ins and other things which they do, OF COURSE, anonymously to hide their own treachery. Why did those people come in the first place if they are so apart from Godly intent? Because they "did"; what else is there to note? When ego runs the show and actions, readers, this is simply the way it is. But is this fair or just to the ones left to pick up the pieces? No, but life is not "fair" and each lesson learned allows you to move on beyond the moment into the solving of problems which are OF LIFE. But isn't this "personal"? Yes and no. Yes these people have names, on both sides. But the incidents are as universal as the cosmos in presentation so why hang your life focus on such trivia? In the end RIGHT will prevail and shine forth and WRONG will be exposed. Sometimes I am the one who must expose it because LIGHT AND LIFE is that for which I stand, IN TRUTH. If "I" don't confront the "condition", who will? How can I expect YOU to confront that which I won't? Confronting an issue NEVER means running for your gun and shooting someone who is simply testing your own stance!

I NEVER want my enemy DEAD! I like my enemies close to me so that I can know what they do every minute of their lives. I watch them grow deeper and deeper into the mire and muck of their own actions and perceptions. They TALK a big game of "getum" and all they end up getting is revealed as to identity and actions.

I can only tell ones, right now as a for instance, that as Ence works with Green and turns in former friends to the IRS and other dastardly deeds, IT IS COMING BACK ON SELF—FOR THE IRS AND WELFARE DEPARTMENTS ARE SICK OF FOLLOWING UP ON ERRONEOUS LEADS—AND THAT, SIR, COMES FROM THE SOURCE—THE AGENCIES YOU ALERTED! I can only remind all of you that to do business and carefully keep accurate records is the only way you can survive in this mongrel-eat-mongrel world. Both of the above-named parties have misused and abused their OWN, including their corporations. Oh, I see the smug grins of "gotcha". Well, good buddies, look at me and perhaps you won't notice the smile on MY face! What you have done, and sucked in your colleagues into joining, is BACKFIRING—even with Mr. Horn who is looking like a total fool. Mr. Horn DOES NOT like to look like a fool! Hold it in your hearts.

So, next and this is important: If you named individuals are not guilty of any such actions—don't come to us for these are the names being used and it is not coming from anyone here on this team. If you don't believe me in that Green would use YOU, forget it, for all you have to do is look what he continues to do to such as Ekkers whom he admits he is trying to destroy! You might try inserting your own name in every instance—because he is doing so at every opportunity and YOU are showing up in the already filed court documents so that there is no way at all left to protect YOU. I hope you remember this when the law catches up to the true culprits. Just remember, brothers and sisters, that when YOU turn in someone—the agencies have YOUR NAME AND ADDRESS FIRST. Anonymous doesn't count—just like 911; "THEY" KNOW WHO AND THE "SECOND" THING THE AGENCIES DO IS SEND INVESTIGATORS TO YOUR BUSINESS!! AND, WHEN THE ENFORCERS SHOW UP AT A STRANGER'S DOORSTEP—IF YOU ARE THE TURNER-INNER, YOUR NAME WILL EVENTUALLY BE USED TO COVER THEIR OWN ASSETS! "THEY" will tell you that your calls are "secret"—but they ARE NOT. This is especially true when you have hot-headed tipster informants who are disliked intensely by all people, especially the agencies who would like some credibility in their own image. You convict selves far more quickly than any you snitch on. Remember, actions speak far louder than all words! Please, also, remember this when your actions and words force actions back against yourself. How much are you going to appreciate all those liars, cheats and thieves when it comes back to splatter all over you after Mr. Green tells you it is hitting the fan? Whose fan? Which direction is THAT fan facing? There are some now so deeply involved in the escapades of wrong actions and actors as to no longer be able to avoid confrontation.

When Mr. Horn got pulled into the loop—YOU GUYS, IN THINKING SOME HELP FOR GREEN AGAINST EKKERS MIGHT PAY-OFF, THINK AGAIN. Mr. Horn has no loyalty to ANYONE, especially little old ladies. Mr. Horn, and this I respect so don't misunderstand me, is interested in one thing—winning for his client for that also indicates winning for himself. He would work as diligently FOR Ekkers if they were his client. But he will also willingly destroy anyone who feeds him bad information on which to base his games. I also respect that aspect of this attorney. I expect some of you "helpers" are going to be hearing from Mr. Horn about that incorrect information you have fed into his pipeline. And, consequences SHOULD fall to the perpetrators of the misdeeds. You simply can't count on the indiscretions and unfairness of ALL Judges and more especially a jury. You have certainly ALL set selves up for damage causes. Where will you point your fingers then? It is time to begin to consider THE TRUTH of your own circumstances and what you might have done a bit wrong.

TELEPHONE HOTLINE

This is a service for our dedicated readers. Today's Watch telephone hotline carries the latest news and comments from Commander Hatonn's most recent writings. This is our way of keeping you informed about fast-breaking news and events.

The message machine will answer after 2 rings if there are any new messages for that day, and after 4 rings if not. Thus daily callers can hang up after 2 rings and save toll charges if no new message has been recorded. The message update(s), if any, occur by 6 PM Pacific Time.
