Legal Gangsters?? Judicial Corruption Takes An Enterprising Turn Thru J.A.M.S.

With the first installment of this provocative research we are introducing a new Investigative Journalist to the CONTACT family of contributors seeking truth. The only comment needing to be added up front as preface is that this bold J.A.M.S. enterprise is expanding rapidly across the nation, now operating in at least 14 states. —E.Y.

nia as the Constitution of California mandates. It appears, for all intents and purposes, that the corruption within the California Judicial System may actually go much much deeper.

After having had the opportunity to review some of my own legal work over the past couple of years, CLC Director Gene Dixon, in a letter to me dated February 20, 1996, asked if I might be interested in doing legal work with the Constitutional Law Center. On March 17, 1996, we had our first meeting to discuss this and Gene brought up three primary areas of concern. Paramount among these was the possible widespread judicial corruption in Confirmation About Fake Comet?

4/4/96 BRENT MOORHEAD

I received a telephone call this morning from Hawaii which served as an interesting possible confirmation of what Commander Hatonn has told us regarding the recent so-called comet. Commander said that Comet Hyakutake was a holographic image projection in the domain of a Project Blue Beam "practice run" to see how well all that equipment would perform and how well we-the-people would fall for the deception. Granted, this may have been a stretch for some to believe.

The Hawaii call I received was from an avid CONTACT reader (and researcher in his own right) who was out one night watching the fake comet. A man approached him and asked if he could borrow our caller's powerful binoculars. Well, it turns out, the man who borrowed the binoculars claimed to be a "semi-retired" scientist who had been the head of Laser Physics at Cal. Tech. for fifteen years.

After a weak attempt at denying that the comet was a fake, the scientist admitted that not only was the comet a hologram but that HE had helped develop the technology for it!

Now, it's funny when people refer to coincidences, but I am more convinced every day that there is no such thing. However, there is no way for us to verify this unusual "coincidence" to complete satisfaction.

The scientist elaborated a bit, saying that the holographic image being utilized for the projection was actually that of Halley's Comet.

He said that the reason all the news programs told people to view it with binoculars instead of a telescope was that, with a telescope, you could easily see that there was no actual core to the comet, but only light projections.

Our Hawaiian caller engaged the scientist in some further conversation and managed to extract comments about a few other interesting items. The caller told me that a while back he had seen a naval ship off the coast of his island home. He noticed that clouds were developing unusual formations above the ship and then, within a few minutes, they would totally change patterns as if they were being manipulated by the ship.

When he asked the scientist about this, the scientist confirmed that not only was the ship causing these cloud changes, but that HE was involved in the experiments on that ship! The scientist stated that the test system employed on the naval ship was a small version of the HAARP kind of system and that the real purpose of the experimentation was inter-dimensional physics.

Now, I must digress here and tell all of you that a couple of weeks ago we saw an interview with Dr.

Richard Hoagland being carried on the Internet, and in that interview he stated that the French nuclear tests in the Pacific were related to inter-dimensional physics and not for the testing of the nuclear devices themselves.

Our caller asked the scientist to explain the purpose behind these inter-dimensional experiments. The scientist said that the Elite have realized that our planet is going to have a "dimensional shift upward to the fourth dimension" in the near future and that they were scrambling to find a way off the planet to escape the event. He said that the shift would encompass the entire Universe that we know of.

When our caller asked about all the black holes and the possibility of using them for travel, the scientist said that all of those black holes return right back to the third dimension.

Again, while we have no way of verifying this information, and merely share the call for its possible merit as truth, certain aspects of what the scientist said corroborate a variety of subjects that should be quite familiar to long-time CONTACT readers.

If this is true, then it seems to me that Alternative III has become obsolete for use by the elite controllers.

Could it be that the pendulum is swinging back on these self-appointed tyrants?

Could it be, as Commander Hatonn has said all along, that the elite crooks are quarantined to the vicinity of this planet and that only those people of sufficient spiritual merit will have earned their ticket off the place, should evacuation become necessary?

Could it be that the elite crooks know full well that, as we continue ramping further into the effects of the Photon Belt, their abysmally declining vibratory rate, due to such a constant fixation on the material, means an increasingly uncomfortable time awaits them as Earth-Shan continues its transition up in frequency into its finer, fourth-dimensional atmosphere?

Could it be that God does indeed win in the end? Stay tuned!

[E.Y. Editor's note: The day after we received the phone call which I asked Brent to write-up to share with you above, the regular news media started circulating a story about "Comet" Hyakutake emitting mysterious x-rays, and that this is the first time x-rays were ever observed coming from a "Comet". Indeed! An icy ball of dirt does not emit x-rays! But—a holographic image constructed from the convergence of intense light beams may well do so under the right atmospheric conditions. So, you be the judge as to the nature of the reality of this "Comet" which came & went...ahem...as quickly as a light turning on and off!]

FAMILIES LIMITED IN SEEKING DAMAGES ON MANDATORY VACCINES

From the February 14 issue of the MODESTO (California) BEE, [quoting:]

WASHINGTON—The seizures started only hours after 6-week-old Laura Meyer, a healthy baby with a beautiful smile, got her first vaccination. Paralyzing her brain and her body, the seizures would continue, unresponsive to drugs or treatment, for the rest of her life. at age 11, she recently died during a seizure believed to be caused by the vaccine, which was supposed to protect her from whooping cough. Laura is one of thousands of healthy children who has died or been injured after receiving a mandatory childhood vaccination. She also was among the first to have her medical care paid for through the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, a little-known system set up as an alternative to costly, time-consuming lawsuits against the drug companies which make the vaccines.

Of the more than 20 million children vaccinated every year, an estimated 500 suffer serious reactions and 75 die, the U.S. Centers for Disease Control and Prevention has determined. [Of course, THEY have a vested interest in presenting very LOW figures.] Since it began in 1988, the program has awarded $605 million to 1,858 parents or their lawyers.

The money comes from an excise tax on the vaccines. A type of civil justice reform, the program started partly in response to drug companies' threats to stop making vaccines. [Oh no!—That would really upset the NWO depopulation program!] Though injuries are rare, they were occurring often enough that the companies feared lawsuits would drive them out of business. [I would imagine it's pretty darned hard to drive a drug company out of business. They make millions a day just on aspirin-related products!]

The lawsuits also proved difficult from the parents' perspective. To prevail, they had to prove a child's injury was caused by the vaccine, which was sometimes impossible. In this system, they don't have to prove the drug company did anything wrong—only show that their child was injured. Now before parents can sue drug companies, they must first go through the compensation program and reject its decision or award.

The program has its detractors. "It has been very successful in protecting the drug companies from lawsuits, but at the expense of children," Kristine Severyn, director and founder of Ohio Parents for Vaccine Safety. Through December 1995, 5,004 cases had been filed. Of those, 884 families received funding, and 2,337 were dismissed by a special attorney the court appoints to review the claims. The rest still are pending.

RADIATION INCREASES LATER CANCER RISK

Mainstream medicine has this to offer, from the March 21 issue of THE ORLANDO SENTINEL, [quoting:]

BOSTON—Women who had childhood Hodgkin's disease and were treated with radiation have a much higher risk of developing breast cancer and some other types of solid tumors, according to a study published in today's New England Journal of Medicine. The research, which shows a breast cancer rate 75 times higher than in the general population, suggested that women treated for Hodgkin's should be regularly screened for breast cancer, according to a seven-member team led by Dr. Smita Bhatia of the University of Minnesota in Minneapolis.

Hodgkin's disease, also known as Hodgkin's lymphoma, is a cancer of the lymph nodes and similar tissue. Affecting one in 30,000 people, it usually affects people in their 20s or after age 55. Previous studies showed that adults treated aggressively for the disease were more likely to develop cancer and were particularly at risk of developing leukemia.

In the earlier findings, published in 1989, the researchers calculated that there is a one-in-five chance of developing a new cancer 20 years after being diagnosed with Hodgkin's. The new study, part of an ongoing evaluation of 1,380 children, is an extension of the earlier research in which youngsters treated for Hodgkin's were followed for an average of seven years. Now, after monitoring the patients for four more years, the Bhatia team has calculated that the radiation treatments that cured ["Cured" hardly seems the appropriate word.] the Hodgkin's made the breast cancer risk 75 times higher than expected. That translates into a one in three chance of developing a breast tumor by age 40. The women facing the highest risk were between 10 and 16 when they were treated, and they tended to be given the highest doses of radiation. [Unbelievable!]

BIBLE CODES GREETED WITH SCORN

From the March 9 issue of the MODESTO BEE, [quoting:]

Skeptics are slamming claims that three Israeli professors have discovered hidden word patterns in the Book of Genesis which prove the book was written by God. But Dr. Jeffrey B. Satinover says at least three new papers making the rounds of statistical journals not only corroborate the original findings but present additional new proof. "One of the (new) papers involves a completely independent confirmation of the original findings," Satinover said in a recent interview. The mathematician who wrote the paper used "alternative statistical methods and his own...computer programs," Satinover said, not the program created by the three Israeli professors. The other two papers, which were prepared by the professors, "involve (previously undiscovered) information which is encoded in the text that couldn't possibly have been put there by human hands," Satinover said.

The controversial Genesis study was first revealed in the August 1994 issue of Statistical Science, whose editor at the time, Robert Kass, offered it as a "challenging puzzle" to statisticians. The findings have been reviewed by several renowned mathematicians, including the chairman of the Harvard University Math Department, David Kazhdan, and so far remain unrefuted.

"To be published in a journal such as Statistical Science, (the Torah codes findings) had to run, without stumbling, an unusually long gantlet manned by some of the world's most eminent statisticians," Satinover reminded Bible Review readers. [The original findings were first published in Bible Review—and ridiculed by readers.] The editor of Statistical Science, himself a skeptic, has challenged readers to find a flaw. Though many have tried, none have succeeded.

The three professors, Eliyahu Rips of the Hebrew University of Jerusalem and Doron Witztum and Yoav Rosenberg of Jerusalem College of Technology, based their study on an examination of the Torah (the first five books of the Bible) begun in 1958 by Rabbi Michael Weissmandel. After first removing all spaces between words, the professors searched forward, backward and diagonally in the text for 300 pre-selected Hebrew word pairs with related meanings—for instance, "hammer" and "anvil"—to see if they could be found in close proximity to one another. They found that the word pairs "occurred much too frequently to be accounted for by chance," Satinover said in his Bible Review article. Some combinations appeared so frequently that they began to look "not so much like a random happening, but like something carefully embedded in the text."

The professors checked their findings by scrambling the selected text and searching it for the same 300 related word pairs. The words did not appear, ruling out random chance. They also tested the theory on the Samaritan Pentateuch, which differs from the traditional Jewish textus receptus used in their research, and on a Hebrew translation of War and Peace. "None of the word patterns appeared. 'The published results show that...the odds of (the phenomenon) occurring merely by chance are less than one in 50 quadrillion,'" Satinover concluded. The researchers also discovered neighboring word pairs which were names of 66 prominent people who lived and events that occurred centuries after the Torah was written.

"On the one hand, this is the most astounding research that has ever emerged—if it holds up," Satinover said. "On the other hand...because of its exactness, precision, and its use of rigorous scientific methodology, it is from a certain point of view boring. It's not sexy in a way that appeals to the sound bite mentality of our age. If you give me one-and-a-half, two hours, I can definitely explain it in a way so that people come away understanding exactly what the work is all about." [Care to check it out? To order a copy of the October 1995 issue of Bible Review, which includes Dr. Satinover's article "Divine Authorship?", or the February 1996 issue with Dr. Satinover's responses to critics' challenges, call 1-800-221-4644. Cost is $4.50 per issue plus $3 shipping (up to 20 copies.)

THERAPY USED TO CURB DISSENT

From the March 20 issue of the WALL STREET JOURNAL, [quoting:]

When security engineer Glenda Kay Miller questioned the reliability of a proposed employee-identification system at the Browns Ferry nuclear plant near Decatur, Ala., she says, the plant's operator sent her to company psychologists. The psychological sessions, which Mrs. Miller recalls as a series of hostile interviews, began in February 1995. She says she was questioned about her church attendance, how much she missed her husband when he traveled and whether she had ever had more than $100 of unpaid parking tickets. "I've never been talked to that way in my life," says Mrs. Miller, who was fired last August on the ground of being unfit for duty. Mrs. Miller says further: "I'm a pretty normal person. But they were trying to portray me as a terrorist." In January, she filed a complaint with the U.S. Department of Labor alleging that the Tennessee Valley Authority, which operates the Browns Ferry plant, harassed and dismissed her for questioning managers. A spokesman for the TVA says it can't comment on the complaint, citing concerns about Mrs. Miller's privacy.

However it may be resolved, complaints like Mrs. Miller's are increasingly common. In a growing number of instances, nuclear workers say they are being pressured to undergo psychological evaluations after raising safety concerns. "The pattern is, people get normal (performance) reviews until they start raising concerns, and management needs a way to discredit them," says Lynne Bernabei, a Washington attorney who has represented workers in several harassment cases. The U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission is currently investigating claims that Northeast Utilities, majority owner of the Millstone nuclear-plant complex in Waterford, Conn., has routinely harassed workers criticizing safety procedures, including sending them to psychological therapy and counseling. The NRC has threatened to close the plant's three reactors permanently if the utility cannot demonstrate that its operating practices are safe.

In January, U.S. Labor Secretary Robert Reich ordered the rehiring of a Florida Power & Light Co. engineer who had complained to the Labor Department about his dismissal: He was fired, he said, for refusing to undergo an exam with a psychiatrist after raising concerns about the reliability of reactor pressure-monitoring equipment at the company's Turkey Point facility. Both Northeast Utilities, which is based in Berlin, Conn., and FPL Group Inc.'s Florida Power & Light, based in Juno Beach, Fla., deny they have used psychological exams to punish whistle-blowers. Psychological testing of nuclear-plant workers has become routine as a result of new rules instituted by the NRC in 1990 and 1992. These rules, intended to combat drug abuse and other behavioral problems among nuclear-plant workers, required plant operators to monitor employees closely and offer assistance programs to those showing signs of stress.

Why would managers discourage employees from reporting safety concerns? In the Florida case, engineer Richard Robainas said that he was ordered to undergo a psychiatric examination because the safety issues he raised would have cost millions of dollars to correct. In fact, he says, the company later replaced the pressure-monitoring equipment in question. "In certain societies, psychiatry is used to curb dissent," says Mr. Robainas. "I think that's what is occurring here." [This is reminiscent of The Soviet Art of Brain-washing: Communist Psychopolitics and the Slaughter of Western Culture, in which it is stated: "Psychopolitics is the art and science of asserting and maintaining dominion over the thoughts and loyalties of individuals, officers, bureaus, and masses, and the effecting of the conquest of enemy nations through 'mental healing'."]

SERGE MONAST UPDATE

On April 5, CONTACT received a phone call from Serge Monast, assuring us that the rumors of his demise were greatly exaggerated. Serge is continuing his investigative research in Canada and continues to offer materials such as his book, titled Project Blue Beam for Armageddon, New World Order Religion ($12.50, postage is included); and the American Police State ($18.00, postage is included). Serge is currently working on information concerning cloning and biological experimentation. Serge's address has been and continues to be:

The International Free Press Agency
P.O. Box 359
Mansonville, Quebec
JOE 1X0 Canada

Serge noted that one good way to reduce a person's communication with the outside world is to spread the word, via Canadian radio, that he has died. He went on to comment that the only reason such a rumor was started to begin with is because he is working on important information which certain people don't want made available.

With that said, Serge is alive and well and feeling a bit lonely these days. Perhaps drop him a line, if you are so inclined, and let him know someone out there is listening. Thanks!

Spelt

New Gaia Presents Bread Mixes, Flour & Kernels

Spelt is the most ancient and very best grain. Spelta (its more formal name) is a grain of its own unique being. It is the best fiber resource and has large amounts of B-17 (anti-carcinoma). The grain berry grows an exceptionally thick husk that protects it from pollutants and insects. It is stored with its husks intact, so it remains fresher. Thus, unlike other grains, it is not normally treated with pesticides or other chemicals. The strong, protective husk may also be a metaphorical signature of this grain's capacity to strengthen immunity. Spelt contains special carbohydrates (Mucopolysaccharides) which are an important factor in blood clotting and stimulating the body's immune system.

New Gaia offers Bread Mixes that use pure Spelt flour instead of wheat. The taste is uniquely nutty and enjoyable for the whole family. Also offered are combination Bread Mixes with both Spelt flour and whole wheat flour. Both are perfect for a 2 lb. loaf of bread which can be utilized in the Hitachi Bread Machine or others of its equal. The mixes are easy to use with only the simple addition of water, butter & sweetener. The packages come in 2 lb. sizes only.

Also available are whole spelt flour packages for your baking and homemade bread needs that come in 2 lb., 4 lb. and 8 lb. sizes.

You may also order the whole spelt kernels that can be milled at home into flour. These come in 4 lb. and 10 lb. bags.

CARBO CAKES

1 c. finely grated carrots
3/4 c. apple juice
2 1/2 tbl. oil

1/2 c. finely diced apples
1 egg, beaten
1 1/2 tsp. vanilla

Combine ingredients in a 2-quart bowl. Set aside.

1 3/4 c. spelt flour
1/4 tsp. sea salt
1/2 tsp. baking soda
1 tsp. nonaluminum baking powder
1/2 tsp. ground cinnamon
1/3 c. raisins
1/3 c. chopped walnuts

Combine ingredients in a 3-quart bowl. Add the carrot mixture to the flour mixture, and blend just until the dry ingredients are moistened. Fill the prepared muffin wells 1/2 full with the batter. Bake for 20 minutes, or until a toothpick inserted in the center of a muffin comes out clean. Turn the muffins sideways in the wells, and allow them to cool in the tins for about 5 minutes. Remove the muffins from the tins and transfer to a wire rack. Cool completely before serving.

Timeless Reminder Offered From Esu "Jesus" Sananda

Editor's note: We have elected to share, once again, writings which appeared from Esu "Jesus" Sananda some years ago, specifically in 1991. The message rings as true today as it did then, and we hope that you will spend some serious "quiet time" in reading and reflecting on his generous offerings in wisdom. Many of us readers are guilty of wanting "new" information, "more" information when, in truth, if we really read, reread, and studied that which has already been offered, we would constantly receive new insight. Since these writings from Sananda are lengthy, we have chosen to break them into a series of several installments.

We here at CONTACT would like to take a moment to PUBLICLY thank Sananda for his TRUE LIGHT AND LIGHTED WISDOM AND GENEROSITY IN SHARING SUCH TRUTH WITH US. THANK YOU!

Part I of this series began in our 3/19/96 CONTACT on p. 28; Part II was on p. 20 of the 3/26/96 issue; Part III was on p. 15 of the 4/2/96 issue.

6/10/91 #1 HATONN/ESU "JESUS" SANANDA

Hatonn present to commune on this wondrous summer morning. No matter what is your circumstance, brethren, do not fail to experience the wonders present for your journey for you cannot know until you "jump in" exactly what the glorious situation might be as given unto you. And, moreover, may you be given eyes of understanding to see beyond that which appears to be. There is so much of evil intent going on behind the shroud and trappings of distractions—please, chelas, pay attention for you are about to lose your nations into the clutches of the Beast and have your very plan of national life dissolved.

Since we have taken all weekend in the writing of Express urgent material, I will turn over this discourse into the hands and wisdom of Sananda, Esu, who will continue on his own journey's explanation unto your place. You are greatly blessed, precious ones and I am honored as a teacher, that you are chosen. I salute you for lessons well learned.

ESU:

In a blazing glory of "moment" shall you be given into understanding and it shall come as the Creator reveals unto you the keys unto His Kingdom! Esu present in the brotherhood of Man among the Hosts who come to show the way and bring you home. Where is "HOME"? Anywhere that you find perfect balance within that which is Creator/Creation. It is a journey of the Soul/Spirit—not of the flesh. "Son of God" and "Son of Man"? I, like you, am both—in the image of God as fragment thereof and image of Man who utilizes housing to give physical experience. That which is of God gives unto the housing of the Spirit, honor, joy, revelation and care in as nearly balanced experience as Man can attain. That of evil brings pain, chaos, sorrow and emptiness unto the being for the lesson is in the learning of the difference and moving beyond that which is physical perception into the sublime. Each being must learn of "both" to move through his lessons into KNOWING.

Some of us have learned most slowly—moving from experience unto experience, always reaching and groping. Then we find a flash of Truth and bend unto the task of perfecting it; only to realize that each fragment of God has right of passage and experience—so we move on in allowing. We feel great sorrow at the erroneous choices and desire to push another into the way that we have found into balance—but in the ending we must simply realize that it is ONLY ONE and we cannot do of what another must do for self to perfect the fragment and reclaim it unto God.

How smug Man becomes as he journeys through the physical for he is blinded by that which is called "ego". God's gift unto human to set him apart is "reason" and "thought with choices of his own conjuring". Ego is that which is of the physical process which "believes" itself to be "all". Just as a serpent must shed of its outgrown skin that it might grow, so must the being shed of its ego restraints in order to grow. Is it so very difficult to see that you come from the heavens? Would it not be wondrous to KNOW that there are higher knowings unto which you can turn from your limitations and ignorance? Is it not wonder beyond wonder that there is a wholeness to the plan and a Oneness with that which is capable of filling the void within which always reaches out and seeks endlessly? Is it not joy to KNOW that there is that which is beyond the tinkering and arguments of voted-in rules of behavior—that the body of God KNOWS its guidelines and does not argue and fall to the ones who would have MORE congregation and collections in the plates on Sunday? It is not to the "homosexual" being that respect needs to be given—but to the being which is manifest in that wondrous form. It is the physical "behavior" which must be confronted—not the LOVE IN THE HEART BEING OF INDIVIDUALS—FOR THERE IS NO GREATER GLORY THAN THE LOVE OF ONE BEING FOR ANOTHER AND THERE IS NO SEX DELINEATION.

All of those elements of which the demands and marches are brought forth are OF THE PHYSICAL FLESH PASSING EXPERIENCE—BUT, WHAT THE SPIRIT DOES WITH THAT EXPRESSION IS THAT WHICH SHALL BE CONFRONTED AT WHAT YOU CALL, JUDGMENT! At that moment of passage will you stand in appraisal of self-knowing that you used discipline and found that which was greater than physical self or will you have only grappled with the "physical" manifestation of the ego claim upon the expression of God? These are the reasons the Hosts have come forth and then, again, the Creator, that the "creation" might be reminded of that which IS in order to move away from that which is the passing illusion. For I assure you that in EVERY INSTANCE—THE THINGS OF PHYSICAL ARE CAST AWAY—YOU DO NOT TAKE THAT OF THE PHYSICAL WITH YOU! What mean you, "to ascend"? It seems YOU mean to take that which is PHYSICAL with you. Let me assure you that what you mean by RAPTURE is to take that which is physical—with you. Would you not cast off the shanty in favor of the marble mansion? Where is your REASON? How is it easier to believe that you will somehow sit atop clouds than that God would prepare carefully and with REASON for your needs—both for "placement" and "journey unto that placement"? 'Tis the ego fed by the negative aspects of self which causes lack of reason—for it fears the unknown and efforts to always keep the innocent child of wonder and infinite Creation bounded. It keeps you bound in fear that YOU cannot do it so you must always cling to another in hopes that somehow "his ticket" will bear the both of you! Especially if he lies unto you and pronounces that, for this or that—you can somehow "purchase" your passage.

You can "purchase" nothing of value. NOTHING! Further, the things of value of God—are only on loan unto you to see if you can tend them properly.

I witnessed Swaggart on the screen shouting and weeping and telling of stories on the yesterday; I will share his story for I could not witness more of his rantings. He said, with tears streaming down his face, that he, like you, are as the lamb who strays and falls into the ditch from off the path. Supposedly I, Esu Jesus, take of my staff and hook and lift the lamb back—over and over and over again—(fine so far), then he said: "After many times and the lamb has not learned, the shepherd takes the lamb from the ditch again, and with his hands, breaks of its leg! Then the shepherd gently sets the fracture, binds it with loving care and bears the lamb on his shoulders until the lamb is healed—then when he again sets the lamb onto the path—it does not again stray." That is among the biggest bunch of hogwash garbage I have ever heard. I might pick you up again and again but I would never break of thine body and render pain unto the foolish lamb. I would carry you, yes, after you stray and if you ask to return unto the flock. If you do not ask, after your lessons are shown—then you may stay where ye will until you have learned from that which is manifest for your lessons—the shepherd would never break of thine leg!

So what means the lesson as given? A man who has strayed completely away from God is efforting to convince himself that he shall be forgiven of his own transgressions and this is that which he perceives SHOULD happen as punishment! With this attitude and concept—he will never find his way for he still perceives God as a mean and punishing shepherd of that which he KNOWS he has committed in transgression against the people he leads and the laws of God and Creation.

Have you fallen so far that you cannot forgive self and find worthiness in the Love God bestows upon you? My Truth has never changed—only the Men who change my words to suit their own needs, be they humble or with intent to mislead.

WHAT OF MY LIFE EXPERIENCE IN GALILEE?

I was given into the KNOWING of myself in relationship to Creator. I was illumined by the Godhead—I was taken and taught by the Hosts that I might realize my journey. At every moment I was with God, and nothing had meaning for me other than God and God's will as we refer to that Being. The IDEA of ALL in Source is subject to no condition, but the norms it imposes subject everything else to their condition. It gives knowledge of the simple ground of all things.

The essence of this faith, chelas, is FREEDOM. For in this faith that speaks of God, the soul expands in the Encompassing. As it experiences gladness and woe in your world, it awakens to itself. Nothing that is merely finite, that is only worldly, can hold it captive. From devotion, from the trust that transcends understanding, it derives an infinite power: for in the sorrow of the vulnerable heart, in rending emotion, it can gain awareness that it is given to itself by God. By believing, man can become truly FREE.

You ask me to comment on and denounce one religious group or another—why? If that which is taught and exemplified deviates from that which God bestows upon you as guidelines and expression—the WORD is not of God but rather, of Man—somewhere in the PHYSICAL history the doctrine is birthed of Man. So be it. You are given into reason and choices—you KNOW when a thing is improper and you scream “I don't understand” to give excuse, for you understand very well, indeed. You CHOOSE to move against the word of God and then have another to blame for your transgressions. Again, let us turn for example unto the homosexual behavior—the acts of physical practice are no more valid for the “heterosexual” intercourse than for the two or more of sameness, in desires. To defile the body which houses the soul and to defile the very spirit is that which is wrong—not thine choice of “who” to love. Further, every Man, Woman and Child KNOWS—even if the child knows not what there is that is wrong—he knows he is defiled and abused and becomes crippled for his whole experience by those acts upon his person. All the lies and excuses and “voting” will not change an iota of the TRUTH of it.

The certainty of my faith in God made possible for me, an attitude of soul which in itself is incomprehensible. I lived in the world and partook of its temporal existence, but, moved by a profound unworldly source, I was unmoved by the world. This is not a gift only given unto ME. I was but ONE, the same as are YOU. In the world, you can transcend the world and for that is your journey given. Even while your life is given into the world, you can become independent of that world surrounding your perceptions. I can compare it to the dream which you might refer to as a “nightmare” and you are both within the dream and yet witness it in knowing that it is a dream. You CAN release the unreality and remain in the wisdom of reality of infinite spirit.

This independence amid immersion in the world is the source of such a wonderful serenity as that which was allowed unto me. On the one hand, worldly things could no longer tempt me into finite absolutes; the worldly husks of knowledge could no longer beguile me into total knowledge, nor the rules and laws into calculable dogma. All these temptations shattered against the freedom of my faith in God—my KNOWING of God. On the other side, my own being was open to the world, my eye was alive to all realities, and particularly to the souls of men, the depths of their hearts, which could actually conceal nothing from insight for the story is written upon the countenance of all and within the eyes which mirror the very soul itself even if the eyes be sightless.

SO WHAT HAPPENED IN MY EXPERIENCE?

There is only a “germ” of that which was in the so-called Old Testament of the Hebrew teachings—note I do not say “Jew” for “Jew” no longer has meaning as relative to the God of MY forefathers. I had earnestness of the idea of God and it brought the most radical of consequences. This God who for me was not physically present—not in visions and not in voices—was able to put absolutely everything in the world into question. Everything in the world was drawn before His judgment seat. It was quite terrifying to witness this with the total absolute infinite faith I held—for Man was not and is not given into such knowledge in most manifestations within a physical flesh environment. But for this very reason, was I sent and did I come forth—to see that which Man can be capable of that he not be given more than that which is his capability.

I would hope that none can read of my experience and faith and yet remain easy in your mind, content with your existence and remain caught up in its routine, for it represents blindness to refuse to see. I broke free from every practical order in the world—and I further told you, that that which I could do—you could do—moreso! I saw that all orders and habits had become pharisaical; I pointed to the Source in which they melt into nothingness. All earthly reality is deprived of its foundation, absolutely and definitively. All orders whatsoever, the bonds of piety, of law, of reasonable custom, collapse. Beside the commandment to follow Source Creator into the very Kingdom of His residence, all other tasks—the earning of bread, the oath before the law, the claims of justice and property—became and become meaningless. To die at the hand of the powers of the world, in suffering, persecution, abuse, degradation, that is what befits the believer if it need be—BUT, IT NEED NOT BE FOR I FAILED TO FULLY UNDERSTAND THAT IT NEED NOT BE SO.

It is said of me that never had words so revolutionary been spoken, for everything otherwise looked on as valid, is represented as indifferent, unworthy of consideration. What of that which I speak now? I shall be telling you that you come from the “stars” and give your heritage and placement of origins and they shall be considered as science fiction and heresy. How can this be? Because YOU have grown and the end and margin of the world is broader and you must take the next step for you cannot forever remain in the abyss of unknowing that which is your very Source.

I stood then, at the end and margin of the world, in an exceptional situation. Do you not think you are in an exceptional circumstance at the moment? I revealed the possibility and hope implicit in all those who are despised according to the standards of the world, the lowly, the sick, the deformed, in all those who are banished from the orders of the world; I reveal the potentialities of Man himself under any condition. I point to the place where a home is open to Man in every mode of failure for “failure” means nothing—NOTHING! Man cannot define “failure” except by his own experience.

GOD SENDS EXAMPLES AND TEACHERS

I was only an example, a teacher. I made my way to your place where everything that is worldly is overshadowed. You like metaphors so metaphorically speaking, it is “light” and “fire”, exactly as I am credited with stating. Directly, it is LOVE and GOD. Conceived as a place in the world, it is not a place at all. By the standards of what is appropriate in the world, everyone is bound to misunderstand it. From the standpoint of the world it is impossible—but therein IS the secret of the passage.

In the world, I can point only indirectly to this Source. I seem to test what is madness in the world for its possible truth. Both my actions and His words seemed contradictory by the standards of reason: on the one hand, struggle, hardness, the ruthless alternative; on the other, infinite mildness, nonresistance, compassion with all the forlorn. Was I actually the challenging warrior and the silent sufferer? OR, WAS I ONLY A REFLECTION OF THAT WHICH I FOUND EXPOSED AND EXPRESSED BEFORE ME—AS THE MIRROR OF GOD? GO LOOK INTO YOUR LOOKING-GLASS AND WHAT DO YOU FIND IN ITS REFLECTION? DO YOU MIRROR GOD OR DO YOU MIRROR WORLD?

It is said that radical certainty of my faith in God derived unprecedented intensity from his expectation of the impending catastrophe. Well, I know not of how Man REALLY interpreted my journey—it was the time of experience for that presentation to be given forth, no more and no less—just as now with the coming again—Truth had to be set to right for further experience. I came not with great cosmic revelations at that time for the journey of the species lived in a limited mystical level of growth, and understanding was only present to the level of that which was allowed to be given by Man. I am represented as being in error regarding cosmic knowledge and expectations. But what is the END of a “thing”? I can promise you that with my presence upon your world—it never again was quite the same. Even with the evil tamperings—the world was never again the SAME. When God makes known His presence, that which was is no longer.

My presence, whether immediately or far in the future, at the end casts light and shadow, puts its question to each and every man, summons him to decision. Did not the Truth come into light by compelling the living in the presence of catastrophe? For though men close their eyes to the ultimate, they are faced with it none the less. The world is not the first and last; man is destined to “die”, mankind itself will not endure forever—only the spirit of Man can endure infinitely. In this situation the alternative is: with God or against God; with Creation or against Creation; good or evil. I simply remind Man of this extreme situation.

An intrinsic element in the idea of me is somehow, suffering, terrible, limitless suffering, crowned by the most cruel of deaths. Man chooses of those things in order to hide from Godliness—it is the very fear professed from the evil. If God's chosen must suffer in such manner then “you better come over here with me and live in the ‘hope’ that some kind of ‘magic’ can happen to you.” If God's “troops” stood strong—there would only be abundance, joy, justice and beauty within balance. The distortions are presented to terrify you into remaining within the slavery and prisons.

But use your minds. In the instance of that which I “supposedly said” on the cross—“My God, my God, why hast Thou forsaken me?”—is the very opening of the Twenty-second Psalm. Where would come these words? IN EXTREME SUFFERING THERE ARE ALWAYS THOSE THINGS WHICH COME INTO THE EXPERIENCE FROM THE DEPTHS OF AFFLICTION. It matters not as to whether or not the words were or were not spoken—it goes with the teachings as representative of a “time” in which Man was expected to be the “worm” and no “man” at all; a reproach of men, despised of the people. And then if you stay tuned to the same channel it begins to make sense, i.e., “O my God, I cry in the daytime, but thou hearest not.” I am helpless and forsaken, and God is mute? And then, in the midst of my silence and despair, everything changes: “But Thou art holy—OUR FATHERS TRUSTED IN THEE.” Now, just WHO do you think was doing a bit of conscience tampering?

There does come a good commentary of the event of “Jesus' suffering” which is historically interesting and unique according to one writer: "The pain and terror are not accepted with resignation or borne with patience; they are not veiled. He insists on the reality of suffering and expresses it. When, forlorn and forsaken, he is nearly dead with suffering, the minimum of ground he has to stand on becomes all and everything, the Godhead. Silent, invisible, unimaginable, it is after all the sole reality. The utter realism with which the uncloaked horrors of this existence are portrayed implies that help can come only from the utterly intangible." Could this be the same mechanism by which you might find "no atheists in foxholes"? In the physical form, what can a physical being do against those multitudes in power? To avoid the experience, I too, would have had to become "invisible, silent and unimaginable". Only the experience as Man could allow for recognition of Man.

The scenario is twisted and fitted into the picture of that which the Hebrew culture believe and mandated. The Hebrew tradition and experience of "suffering" is an element of the Old Testament religion, which is the kernel of Christian, Hebrew, Islamic religions in all their innumerable historical forms, deviations, perversions, so that none of them can claim to be in possession of the true Biblical religion, which nevertheless sustains them all. It is impossible to speak directly of the Biblical religion without making dangerous claims. Well, perhaps it can be said most emphatically, that the Christ presented to you is a creation of the early Christian congregations AND OF ST. PAUL AND IS NOT ANYTHING MORE THAN THE "JEWISH" LAW OR THE NATIONAL CHARACTER OF THE JEWISH AND MANY PROTESTANT RELIGIONS AND NOTHING MORE—A COMMON FACTOR CONSTRUED FOR THE PURPOSE IN ALL BIBLICAL RELIGION.

The lie is told boldly by the fact of "suffering" being the ideal religious state of being. God is Love, Joy, Truth, Light and Glory—that does not even "smack" of suffering. Moreover, you will find that the self-styled and so-called Zionists (now called Jews and Mormons) are not sufferers—they only PRETEND at suffering while they make sure that their own groups glean great abundance and in this present day—at the very expense and great suffering of those whose property they usurp. It is always the intent of the SLAVE-MASTER to demand suffering and pain from his SLAVES so that they can be docile and rise not up against the master. You who tolerate as much are not of Godness—you are giving worship to the evil master—YOU GIVE INTO THE VERY HANDS OF YOUR OWN ADVERSARY THAT HE MIGHT HAVE AND YOU NOT HAVE. You have been sold (for you paid mightily for it) the greatest lie within Creation. You have taken the poison and take your dose as dutiful servants every moment of every day—awaiting your death and destruction like the lambs to the slaughter—suffering mightily all along the path like good little forfeits. YOU OF GOD RAISE UP EVIL INTO THE HIGH PLACES—AND THEREFORE SHALL THE FALL BE FATAL.

INFLUENCE OF MY EXPERIENCE

I can only give unto you that which is historically written regarding the experience of that energy dubbed, most carelessly, Jesus. But since it represented the energy of the Christos, when we sit to pen again, I shall outlay that which is SAID about that one. Ye shall have to accept it as "parable" for by the very fact that the name given unto ME by Saul, so are the stories representative of me, mostly false and tampered.

What happens to those energy forms who give great projection of erroneous information? They are given into experiences wherein they can return into the Truth and share in the setting of the tale to right. For some that journey is indeed long and hard for it is difficult to separate out the intent through love and giving and the lip service usually efforted at achieving Divinity and balance. It matters not, for the journey will be eventually back into Truth in full intent into the perfection within God. From time to time ones are given into the experience of that cycle of change and the collective "conscious" (or sometimes referred to as "unconscious") allows scenario for that transition. I find that you have an example of perfection in ones efforting to return into ONENESS at this given moment of experience—and moreover, ones are coming into realization that they have CHOSEN the passage in order to serve. So be it. Blessings are bestowed upon ye ones of the passage. I AM.

Legal Gangsters??

Orange County, California revolving around an organization called J.A.M.S., Inc., which stands for Judicial Arbitration and Mediation Services, Inc. Gene felt strongly that this possible corruption dovetailed directly with the work that Gary Wean has done. It would appear that he was correct in his assessment.

J.A.M.S. is a Private Judging firm and has been active since 1979 when it was formed in Orange County, California [With a population approaching two-and-a-half million, the county includes numerous well-known cities of the Los Angeles Metropolitan Area. It has made recent history as the richest county ever to go bankrupt (stated cause: trading in derivatives!)], by former Orange County Superior Court Judge H. Warren Knight. The evergrowing J.A.M.S. consists mostly of retired Judges who hear disputes in private courts as part of what is now known as the Alternative Dispute Resolution (A.D.R.) industry.

J.A.M.S. is part of the Alternative Court Structure that exists in California as an adjunct and a supplement to the public court system. Because of the increasing caseload in the California public courts there was a need to develop some other way of dealing with this increasing caseload. This situation appears to have been engendered because of the ever increasing legislation, generated by Sacramento [the state capital], which creates more and more laws for We the People to violate (It has been aptly stated that, "No man's rights are secure as long as the legislature is in session."). A public judicial system of limited size and scope is unable to deal with a potentially unlimited caseload.

An article in the July 1993 Edition of the Southern California Law Review on Alternative Court Structures indicates that there has been a "litigation explosion". The article states that between 1960 and 1990 in the Appellate and Supreme Courts there has been a 727% increase in filings; in the Superior Courts there has been a 197% increase in filings; and, in the Municipal and Justice Courts there has been a 107% increase in filings. Without a corresponding increase in the size of the public court system, the consequence has been that parties to actions must sometimes wait years to have their cases heard.

The article goes on to state that, "California litigants began using private judging procedures in 1976, when civil practitioners rediscovered a section of the California Code of Civil Procedure that allowed the parties to a lawsuit to mutually consent to refer issues to a private referee. In March 1982, the Board of Governors of the State Bar of California voted to support private judging." (See: Cal. Code Civ. Proc. Sections 638 - 645.1)

In 1989 the Judicial Council Advisory Committee issued a Report on Private Judging in which they outlined the situation as it existed then. The Report laid out the foundation and the parameters within which an Alternative Court System could function, or, more appropriately, was already functioning.

The California Legislature in October of 1993 enacted legislation which added new sections to the Code Civ. Proc., namely Sec. 1775 et seq., which stated exactly how this Alternative Court System shall function.

In the 1989 Report of the Judicial Council Advisory Committee, the Council explained, among other things, the fact that when Judges reach their maximum retirement (at age 60, or after 20 years of service. Many Judges are in their early to mid-fifties when they complete 20 years of service.), there is no longer any incentive for the Judge to continue to work in the public courts, because the Judge receives no further retirement benefits, even though the Judge must continue to pay 8% of his or her income into the retirement fund. As the Report states, "Judges view this as an eight percent reduction in income and an obvious disincentive to continue service." Thus, Judges reach retirement and can move directly into the Private Judging system, and receive their full retirement pay as well as their new income. Judges who continue to serve in the public system after reaching full retirement eligibility may receive, after taxes, only about $45.00 per day in real pay. By contrast, private judges can earn $175.00 to $350.00 per hour.

In 1994, J.A.M.S., Inc. merged with Bates Edwards Group, and with Endispute, Inc., to form J.A.M.S./Endispute, which is now, by far, the leading provider of Private Judging, with offices in 14 states and Washington D.C., with Corporate Headquarters located at 500 N. State College Blvd., Suite 600, Orange, California 92668 (714-939-1300), in good old Orange County.

The legislation now in place clearly states that decisions rendered by the Alternative (Private) Courts

The Attorney General of California has prepared the following title and summary of the chief purpose and points of the proposed measure:

LIMITING IMMUNITY. JUDGES. PROSECUTORS. SOCIAL WORKERS.

INITIATIVE CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT. Eliminates immunity from civil liability of judges, prosecutors, and social workers for clear constitutional violations, deliberate violations of law, concealment of evidentiary truth or evidence, judicial acts lacking jurisdiction or authority, and unreasonable delay in concluding cases. Permits civil suits against prosecutors and social workers for willful violations of law and for certain prosecutions motivated by gender, racial and other specified bias. Requires notice amongst public agencies to prevent public officials from receiving unlimited immunity. Permits amendments by 2/3 vote of Legislature. Contains severability clause if part is held invalid.

Summary of estimate by Legislative Analyst and Director of Finance of fiscal impact on state and local governments: The cost of this measure is unknown, and would depend largely on the number of lawsuits filed as a result of the new limitations on immunity. State and local governments usually pay the cost of defending their employees and reimburse government employees for monetary awards assessed against them. The costs to state and local government could range from the millions to tens of millions annually.

I need your help to circulate petitions!

in many cases carry the same legal weight as public court decisions. Under the Code Civ. Proc. Sec. 639, Judges in the public courts can refer cases to the private courts without the consent of the parties involved in litigation. (3 attorneys, 1 Judge, and 1 Justice who testified for the 1989 Judicial Council Advisory Committee Report, expressed concerns about a "public judge's desire to benefit a private judge", i.e., the Good Old Boy network). In J.A.M.S./Endispute's own literature (1996) they state that, "A.D.R. proceedings and results are generally not part of the public record and can be kept strictly private." It should become quite obvious, even to the most casual observer, that this unique combination creates the potential for possible widespread blatant abuse of the rights of the People of the State of California to have fair and open public trials!!

I accepted my assignment from Gene Dixon to investigate and research J.A.M.S. and the Alternative Court System in California, specifically in Orange County where the judicial corruption appears to be the most endemic, and specifically with a case involving one very brave woman named Rose Colombo, who has experienced extensive and ongoing (to this day) abuse by J.A.M.S. and the Orange County Judicial System.

We all know that Orange County declared bankruptcy in 1994, yet Orange County remains extremely wealthy and powerful. In fact, I believe, it was the Orange County Register that reported that political candidates in California receive approximately 75% of their campaign funding within Orange County. Does anyone else smell a rat?

My first meeting and interview with Rose Colombo was on March 25, 1996, and lasted about 13 1/2 hours. The account of her experiences within the public and private judicial system of Orange County clearly shows a long train of abuses that has been leveled against her personally.

Rose, who is a very warm, friendly, and outgoing person, was warned by one attorney not to go out at night, to be careful where she does go, and to be careful in all of her actions. Subsequent to this warning Rose was confronted by three armed men at night in a shopping center parking lot. Although she was accompanied by two friends, her attackers were clearly after her. Acting instantly on her intuition, Rose screamed and ran, was shot, fell, and rolled under her car, and the ensuing commotion caused her attackers to flee. One of Rose's friends took a bullet in the foot. Shortly thereafter, her former husband acted quite surprised to see Rose when she came to pick up her daughter (Was he expecting to never see her again?). She received numerous threats against her life during 1993 and 1994. She has seen her own child's car burned to a crisp, after receiving a warning about such an occurrence. Of the fifteen attorneys she has had, the only one who did attempt to seriously help her, died suddenly and mysteriously of an apparent heart attack, and was cremated shortly thereafter, and on and on it goes.

What does this brave woman know, what information does she have, which could be so threatening to the public and private judicial system in Orange County, that it would cause these things to happen to her? Well, she has decided to fight, to speak out, and to go public with what she has experienced. Rose is the Founder and President of Women Fight Back For Legal Justice (established in 1989), at 16027 Brookhurst St. #G279, Fountain Valley, California 92708 (714-839-5236). She has a "Women Fight Back" television show which airs Fridays at 3:30 p.m. on Channel 40, the TBN station, out of Orange County. She is the author of and is sponsoring an Initiative to be placed on the November ballot entitled "The Judicial Accountability and Limited Immunity Act of 1996" (contact Women Fight Back if you wish to support this, they need volunteers), which would correct deliberate violations of the law, concealment of evidentiary truth or evidence, and eliminate immunity from civil liability for corrupt judges.

Rose has done, and continues to do, more, but this alone is enough to shake-up the Good Old Boys network in Orange County. You see, Rose began her journey through the Orange County Judicial System seeking resolution of a four-and-one-half-million-dollar divorce settlement, from a husband who drank excessively and became physically abusive. Even though she has four children, Rose ended up owing her former husband $96,000.00. This is a story about money, power, sex, greed, and corruption.

As you will see, Orange County is, indeed, a hotbed of corruption. But the corruption only begins in Orange County. Eventually, it reaches to the very doorsteps of the Governor of the State of California.

For all those Officials, Judges, and Attorneys in Orange County, or elsewhere, who may be interested: Take Notice: If anything should happen to Rose Colombo, the information flowing from this source will not stop, it will only increase.

This week we will begin to expose what is really going on in Orange County, in Rose Colombo's own words. Here is the interview:

RB: This is an interview with Rose Colombo. Her name was Rose Strickland while she was married to John Dennis Strickland, but she has changed her name back to her maiden name. This is an account of fifteen different lawsuits (Rose initiated only three of these) that she has had to deal with, having to hire fifteen different attorneys, and appear in front of at least twenty-five different judges, all within Orange County. Her experiences over approximately the last ten years have apparently shown there is a great deal of corruption within the Judicial System of Orange County.

Let's start at the beginning, Rose, and give us a little bit of background.

Editor's note: In this Initiative Ballot (to function as a petition) the subscribing voters ask for a new amendment to the California Constitution, to be formally voted upon in the next general election. The proposed amendment would seek to broaden and enhance proper judicial responsibility, as well as to firmly register same with the U.S. Constitution.

INITIATIVE MEASURE TO BE SUBMITTED DIRECTLY TO THE VOTERS

The Attorney General of California has prepared the following title and summary of the chief purpose and points of this measure.

To The Honorable Secretary of State of California:

We, the undersigned, registered, qualified voters of California, residents of _____ County (or City and County) hereby propose an amendment (new section) to Article VI of the Constitution of California, relating to judicial reform, and petition the Secretary of State to submit the same to the voters of California for their adoption or rejection at the next succeeding general election, or otherwise provided by law. The proposed constitutional amendment shall read as follows:

THE JUDICIAL ACCOUNTABILITY AND LIMITED IMMUNITY ACT OF 1996

Section 1. Findings and Declaration.

The People of California find and declare as follows:

That they have suffered and are suffering economic, physical and emotional hardship caused by the pressures of public officials whose misconduct is protected by the cloak of immunity and the lack of judicial accountability.

Thereby, We the people, demand the restoration of judicial accountability and the implementation of limited immunity of all public officials in the State of California.

(a) The term Public Official shall include but not limited to justices, judges, commissioners, judges pro tem, private judges and arbitrators, hereinafter referred to as "Judges," District Attorneys, Social Workers and Child Protective Service Workers. This shall be known as the "Judicial Accountability and Limited Immunity Act of 1996."

(b) Notwithstanding common law or any other provision to the contrary, no immunities shall be extended to any member of the judiciary of the State of California, except as specifically set forth in this Act. For purposes of this Act, members of the judiciary shall include but not limited to judges, commissioners, judges pro tem, private judges and judicial public officials, i.e. District Attorneys, Deputy District Attorneys, Social Workers and Child Protective Service Workers.

(c) That they have a right to the protection of their government from any person or persons employed by the judicial system who willfully and intentionally violates their oath of office and the Constitution of the United States of America.

(d) Therefore, the People of California declare their intention to provide for cooperation between their agencies of state and local government, and to establish a system of required notification by and between such agencies to prevent unlawful acts by public officials in the State of California from receiving unlimited immunity.

(e) Preserving the original intent of immunity to protect public officials from frivolous and harassing complaints, the "limited immunity act" shall be construed to extend to any clear violation of the Constitution of the United States or California Constitution, wherein a willful and intentional and deliberate violation of law, concealment of evidentiary truth or evidence, judicial acts lacking jurisdiction or authority, and unreasonably delaying the conclusion of a case.

(f) Commencing on January 1, 1997, after the enactment of this Act, any citizen may file a suit in the court of jurisdiction against a Judicial Public Official who has intentionally and willfully violated the law and maliciously prosecuted or persecuted a citizen based on gender bias, race, ethnicity, religion, political or economic status.

(h) The provisions and procedures herein are in addition to other redress that may exist and are not exclusive.

(i) The statutory provisions contained in this measure may not be amended by the Legislature except to further the purposes by statute passed in each house by roll call vote entered into the journal, two-thirds of the membership concurring or by a statute that becomes effective only when approved by the voters.

(j) In the event that any portion of this act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, that invalidity shall not affect any other provision or application of the act, which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to that and the provisions of this act are severable.

RC: I filed for divorce in 1987, when my husband vowed to put me and the children in the street without a dime.

We were married on March 4, 1978, and Holly was born on February 21, 1979. I worked. We had a prenuptial agreement. I put $30,000.00 immediately after the marriage into a Joint Trust Account for John and myself, a community account. In exchange, he was to issue stocks to me from the corporations. He did not. Altogether, by the end of one year I had added an additional $20,000.00 from vacation, savings, credit union, and sick pay from the County before I quit working there. This was also placed into the Joint Account for John and myself. At that point he still did not issue the stocks.

We owned a home at 1724 Catalina, in Seal Beach. When I filed for divorce in 1987, we lived in a home at 279 Owens Drive, in Anaheim Hills. It was purchased on January 23, 1985, a joint tenancy community home. We paid $220,000.00 for it, and by 1989, it had skyrocketed [in value] to $645,000.00, and when we entered the courts in 1987, the home was paid for in full.

We had approximately four million dollars in community assets. My ex-husband, John Dennis Strickland, a contractor, and owner of Paramount Door & Glass, Paramount Distributors, and John's Glass, employed David K. Jefferies, Attorney, to represent him, and Milan Dostal, Attorney, to represent the corporations.

In 1984, we purchased an electric-generating windmill near Palm Springs, a community asset, and opened up Electro-Pro. It produced electricity and earned $100,000.00 in tax credits, and an income during the marriage, and it is still earning money because it is still generating electricity.

We also started a new business called Jovoné Cosmetics and Skin Care in 1984, in both our names.

In 1993, John fired his Attorney, David K. Jefferies, and he hired Ronald W. Weiss, who is still his Attorney to date. I did not know at the time that David K. Jefferies had taken out a Lien for $12,000.00 on our Seal Beach home to start divorce proceedings. That home was also a joint tenancy community property, so that was also an illegal loan to Mr. Jefferies for attorney fees, done without my knowledge.

My first attorney was William Jacobozzi, who was a high-profile attorney in Newport Beach. Mr. Jacobozzi insisted I employ William Mills (C.P.A.) in 1987, a respected forensic expert witness in Orange County. Mr. Jacobozzi said I couldn't hire my own C.P.A. because the judges wouldn't allow them to testify. Mr. Mills was supposed to do an evaluation of the businesses and the properties, and it was supposed to take about two weeks, and he was supposed to give a written evaluation for court.

RB: And this was for the divorce proceeding?

RC: Right. And the property settlement.

Mr. Jacobozzi had me in court over 24 times from 1987 through 1989. These were continuances. Most of the times he sent substitutes. He took on two multi-million dollar criminal cases during my divorce proceeding, and he also decided to run for Congress in the middle of my divorce. Mr. Jacobozzi would have Mr. Mills sit in the cafeteria, or in the hallway (of the Courthouse), and he would have Mr. Mills bill me for his time, from the time he left his office until the time he got back to his office, even though he never testified during those two years (1987 to 1989), nor was he needed. He could have been on call. So I was paying not only Mr. Jacobozzi an hourly wage, I was also paying William Mills each time the case was continued.

RB: This was through the 24 continuances?

RC: Correct. We would go to court, and then the case would be continued, or he would send a substitute attorney in who didn't know anything about my case, and it would get continued. And Mr. Jacobozzi also made sure that William Mills was in court and he would bill me, as I said, from the time he left his office until the time he returned, and he never testified at any of those proceedings.

All in all, I ended up paying William Mills $7,000.00 by 1989, prior to going into J.A.M.S., Judicial Arbitration and Mediation Services, in Orange County.

Later, Mr. Jacobozzi told me that he needed money because he was running for Congress and it was costing him more than he had anticipated. He had leased Newport Beach office suites. He had purchased Tammy Baker's $50,000.00 Rolls Royce. He had an estate in Newport Beach. He had numerous classic cars, and he said he was strapped for funds. He kept sending me letters and asking me for contributions to his campaign, wanting up to $1,000.00.

In 1989, Mr. Jacobozzi tried to sexually harass me in his office several times. He would have me come to his office either on a Saturday, when there was nobody there, or late in the evening. So I started bringing a friend with me, because I rejected his couch.

I tried to get a new attorney during this time but they wouldn't take the case because they said Mr. Jacobozzi was above reproach, and that I should stick with Mr. Jacobozzi because he was a very good attorney. I could not get another attorney.

I had paid Mr. Jacobozzi $20,000.00 by 1989, and had not gotten to trial.

In April of 1989, Mr. Jacobozzi told me we were going to trial. I inadvertently discovered we were in a Mandatory Settlement Conference. He handed me a fraudulent settlement offer. Because it appeared to be too good to be true, I questioned him. He shoved it at me (across the table), it was 8 o'clock in the morning, in the cafeteria of the Orange County Superior Court, and he said, "Look, you refused to have sex with me so this is the best I can do."

After I questioned him, it turned out that I was getting zero assets of support, but the offer was cleverly put down on paper.

RB: Let me interrupt you for a minute. This is a case that involves a total amount of assets, as you say, of about four-and-one-half-million dollars?

RC: Right.

RB: And this attorney (Mr. Jacobozzi), out of this divorce settlement, is not able to get you anything at all of the four-and-one-half-million dollars?

RC: Well, on the yellow pad that he shoved at me, it looked good on paper. He said it was a good offer and I should take it, and I should sign it. It appeared that my ex-husband was giving me more than I asked for, and up to that point he wanted the shirt off my back, so I couldn't understand why he would want to give me more than I had even asked for.

So, when I questioned Mr. Jacobozzi it turned out that I was getting nothing. He was making my ex-husband the landlord. I would be paying him rent, and he was going to dole out the child support himself. So, Mr. Jacobozzi was taking the child support away from me. I was only going to be given a minimum amount of spousal support, and it was going to be diminished over a period of three years, totally. So, what appeared on paper was not the actuality of what the settlement was going to be. It was going to be that I was going to end up with nothing in reality. I also learned that Mr. Jacobozzi had never filed a Brief in my behalf, in my defense. But John's attorney had filed a Brief in his defense.

Mr. Jacobozzi got mad at me because I refused to sign the Settlement offer that he proposed, and he dragged me (not literally) into Judge Monarch's chambers, and Judge Robert Monarch tried to intimidate me. This is the same Judge Robert Monarch who was taken off a case for making ethnic slurs against a female litigant, Nancy Rosen. That hit the newspapers.

Anyway, I was dragged into Judge Monarch's chambers. There was no court reporter. John and John's attorney were not present. Judge Monarch said, "Do you think, if I gave you the opportunity to defend yourself, you could do as good a job as a sophisticated attorney like Mr. Jacobozzi?"

I said, "Technically, no, because I haven't gone to law school, but common sense wise, absolutely."

Judge Monarch got angry at this point. He insisted that I sign the fraudulent, not that he considered it fraudulent, but he insisted that I sign the Settlement offer that Mr. Jacobozzi had insisted I sign, and take the advice of my attorney.

I said to the Judge (Monarch), "Look, I'm not going to sign it, and I don't understand why everyone's making such a big deal about this case. We have four million dollars of community assets. I only want a house and child support, and I want to clear my name of any possible tax evasion in the future."

Judge (Robert) Monarch looked at me and said, "Mrs. Strickland, you don't think that a judge in Orange County is going to hold your husband accountable for a little perjury, or a little tax evasion, do you? I strongly suggest you take the advice of your attorney and sign the Settlement offer."

After leaving the Judge's chambers, I went into the restroom of the Courthouse, and it was there that I broke down in tears, realizing that Mr. Jacobozzi had sold me down the river. And my illusion of Justice and fairness in the courts of America was shattered. I vowed to fight back against these injustices, because I realized this must be happening to far too many citizens, and there was nowhere to go.

So, I decided to start a nonprofit organization, write a book, and expose these injustices through the media.

RB: And has this decision of yours, to go public and expose these injustices, has it met with any favorable response from anyone within the Orange County judicial system?

RC: Oh, no. Not at all.

FREEMEN

In the community of JUSTUS (Just Us), Montana, is an atrocity taking place. Is this atrocity and blatant usurpation of human and civil RIGHTS the only thing being threatened in that community? NO, it is the nation as a whole under siege by Federalies.

The people who have dared stand forth in their guaranteed RIGHTS under the Constitution have been seized, seized and incarcerated. The ones snared were taken in a full-fledged STING operation whereby the Federal Agents committed THE CRIMES and then seized the people who actually have done NOTHING—period. Nothing!! These "Freemen" residents have NOT issued bogus checks or bank drafts. They have no such things. The students who have supposedly paid to learn about these INSTRUMENTS of paper FOR COLLECTION are ill-using the documents. If you think otherwise then you STILL, NO MATTER WHAT YOU THINK YOU KNOW, DO NOT KNOW ANYTHING ABOUT YOUR BANKSTER SYSTEM OF THE FEDERAL RESERVE AS A BRANCH OF THE ONE WORLD GOVERNMENT. By the way, Mr. Bush, Georgie Boy, is on the "outs" with the Gangbuster Band and is going to have to set up HIS HEADQUARTERS IN KUWAIT.

WHY THE BIG PLAY?

The focus in such subtle show of strength is to accomplish two things: (1) Let the country and the people, who know this operation to be legal and valid, know that the pro-Constitution approach to life in America is OVER; and, (2) stop distribution of those GOOD AND VALID DOCUMENTS. The government thugs have been able to stop any further honoring of these instruments in the U.S. but some escaped into the foreign exchange and are presenting BIG problems for if the instruments, which are valid, are NOT honored, the treaties of international interchange are BROKEN. This is a big dilemma for a bankrupt system. Rubin can either print more money currency, computer transfer funds for value currently recognized as "money", or pay off the funds in gold or silver collateral (which is non-existent in the U.S. at present).

While the stock "markets" show outrageous growth, to fool as many as possible all the time, the nation is totally bankrupt and either has to admit it or go kill off the honest citizens who know what's going on. First they will TRY to kill all the citizens who know, but at some point they can't simply KILL off all of the citizens because the methods used for same will wipe out their own forces.

GULF WAR ILLNESS

Please note that it is now OFFICIALLY ANNOUNCED that there is no such thing as Gulf War Illness. That high-level announcement was made yesterday: NO GULF WAR ILLNESS!

Now, readers, when all of YOU start realizing that YOU ARE NOT GOING TO GET ANY HELP WHATSOEVER TO OVERCOME PROBLEMS OF YOU-THE-PEOPLE, PERHAPS YOU WILL BEGIN TO LISTEN TO ME??? YOU CAN'T EVEN DEPEND ON GOING TO A SAI BABA OR CHIEF MEDICINE MEN FOR ALL YOUR SOLUTIONS TO YOUR ONGOING PROBLEMS FOR THEIR MISSION IS DIFFERENT FROM MINE! THERE ARE THINGS YOU ARE GOING TO HAVE TO DO FOR SELVES. WE CAN OFFER; WE CANNOT SHOW THAT WE CAN HEAL, CURE, SELL, OR DIVINE—ANYTHING. BABA, FOR INSTANCE, HAS A WHOLE DIFFERENT THRUST IN HIS BEING WHILE OURS IS TO MAKE USE OF WHAT IS AVAILABLE FOR SURVIVAL OF A REMNANT—NOT JUST GET YOU TO HIGHER UNDERSTANDING. HIGHER UNDERSTANDING IS ALL YOU NEED BUT GETTING "THERE" IS A BIG, BIG PROBLEM WHILE LEAVING THE RECORDS FOR FUTURE GENERATIONS, IF THERE BE ANY.

So, now that you have been told officially that there is NO Gulf War Illness, I suggest you get busy just as fast as you can in getting help for self for what the "official announcement" REALLY says is that you are going to DIE, if you have this terrible thing come upon you!

Does the Big Gangster have an antidote? OF COURSE, BUT THE POINT IS TO KILL YOU OFF—NOT SAVE YOU FROM THEIR OWN PRESENTATIONS FOR THE PURPOSE OF KILLING, MUTATING AND MAIMING YOU. Stop playing mind games with YOURSELVES.

And yes, I do have some additional things you might DO for selves to help balance your bodies and heal selves. Note I said "SELVES" for we will do nothing to jeopardize our position of being able to function.

for such as Syphilis and other diseases.

Colloidal Gold has been noted for its tremendous ability to balance and harmonize the emotional body, particularly in regards to unstable mental and emotional states such as "depression", "autism", "Alzheimer's", etc. Gold has further been found to aid in the healing of heart muscle and is highly beneficial in rejuvenating sluggish organs—especially the brain—as gold is the best electrical conductor yet recognized for nerve action. Another use for Gold is in cases of glandular and nervous incoordination because Colloidal Gold is said to rejuvenate the glands and stimulate the nerves which releases the pressure and allows the signals for function to reach through to the various organs and glands.

GalaGold intake can benefit self-control in diet and quit-smoking programs because it helps to balance the brain's craving or need for such overindulgence or addiction. Taken in conjunction with GaiaCol, overall renewed vitality and longevity may be achieved. 2 oz. $20.00

New Gaia Products Offer Help

GaiaCol

GaiaCol is a combination of Colloidal Silver and Trace Colloidal Gold. This combination of ingredients has produced a product that is so high frequency and potent that it could quite possibly be the solution to our ongoing fight against the new antibiotic-resistant diseases that we face today. Colloidal Silver was used extensively and very successfully against bacteria, virus, fungi and the like before the advent of the first antibiotic, penicillin. The uses of Colloidal Gold were also significantly used in the restoration of health as early as 1885 and was noted for its ability to calm and harmonize the emotional body. Once the chemical companies began manufacturing the myriad of antibiotics, silver and gold were no longer looked to for treatment. The antibiotics they were producing, however, produced no effect on the more resistant viruses, fungi and parasites. Now we face a new generation of bacteria that are completely resistant to any antibiotics merely due to antibiotic over-prescribing and resultant survival of the fittest bacteria.

Research has demonstrated that Colloidal Silver is nontoxic to humans and allows no presently known disease-causing organism to live in its proximity. With the addition of Trace Colloidal Gold the frequency of GaiaCol is remarkably enhanced to allow these newer, more powerful viruses and bacteria to be eliminated. GaiaCol is gentle enough to use topically on just about any skin, hair or mouth condition without fear of toxicity and is outstanding for burns.

For internal use during any type of infectious process, start with one teaspoon the first day and then 10-12 drops, 3-4 times per day under the tongue until the infection clears. Then maintain with 3-4 drops, 3-4 times per day under the tongue. Important: Due to the powerful nature of this product, friendly bacteria can be affected so it is advisable to replace the natural intestinal flora with some type of acidophilus/lactobacillus supplement daily or at least when symptoms are noted such as cramps, bloating, diarrhea/constipation and a general feeling of malaise.

GaiaCol is said to be safe for children and pets and can be taken with other medications without incident. This product is not addictive and does not build up a tolerance to it in the body. 2 oz. $10.00

GaiaGold

GaiaGold is a solution of 100% Colloidal Gold which is one of the oldest used substances for medicinal purposes and has no equal in affecting the physical body positively. Around 1885, colloidal gold was commonly used in the United States as the basis for the cure of alcoholism with additional uses including treatment of Arthritis, skin ulcers, burns and certain nerve damages. Colloidal gold does not have the same Germicidal/Antibiotic action of Colloidal Silver when topically applied, but it does have tremendous effect if taken internally

Montana Freeman Update

4/5/96 RICK MARTIN

Editor's note: CONTACT has learned from friends and family members of the Freeman that Gerry Spence has been unanimously accepted by the Freeman as their negotiator. Word of this was given to the FBI several days ago and they have been remarkably quiet ever since. It appears from comments by Montana's Attorney General on CNN Wednesday evening that the suggestion of Gerry Spence entering the picture is not viewed very positively from either the state or federal side of things.

CONTACT has been informed by sources very close to the Freeman that all they are really asking for is a Constitutional Grand Jury public forum hearing over this entire matter. The feds seem to want to issue a federal grand jury, and the state of Montana seems to want to issue a state grand jury. Well, which will it be? The Freeman will not budge from their position in wanting, specifically, a Constitutional Grand Jury. If they do surrender, it will likely be as "prisoners of war" under the War Powers Act.

CONTACT has also been informed that LeRoy Schweitzer, who was moved to a Springfield, Missouri federal prison over a week ago, was visited yesterday by his son and daughter, Craig and Brandy, who reported via Schweitzer's wife that he is being "force-fed" by a tube. Prison authorities keep increasing the size of the tube and LeRoy tells his children that he is in a great deal of pain. This, on the heels of reports of severe beating prior to being transferred from Montana. The feds are playing this one very low key, as far as the public is concerned. Will Spence be allowed to enter the picture as chief negotiator? We shall see...

In the meantime, other negotiators have been meeting with the Freeman over the last several days. They are making their request for a Constitutional Grand Jury known.

Readers, please keep in mind that this is a fluid and ever-changing situation and obviously by the time you get this there will be a change in the status of the Freeman.

RE: Freeman status report

It has come to our attention that many concerned patriots are considering coming to the state of Montana for the purpose of "sending the FBI home" and "freeing the Freeman."

This message is for the purpose of making you aware of what to expect when you enter our great state.

1. All vehicles of a suspicious nature bearing out of state license plates will be stopped and searched.
2. All telephone conversations are being routed through Billings, MT.
3. You will not find a "militarized-police action" in operation against the Freeman. (Remember, this was the number one purpose for the formation of militia organizations across America.)
4. Area ranchers were and still are prepared to handle the matter themselves if the FBI would not or can not take care of it.
5. As stated in number 3, there is no militarized-police action. However, we are fairly certain, military forces (amount unsure) are on standby if the FBI becomes surrounded by Freeman supporters.

We repeat, this is not a militarized-police action. This must be understood by all. If you do come to Montana, understand that you may have more opposition from the local citizens than you will from law-enforcement.

Also, Montana law declares in Montana Code 45-8-106: Bringing armed men into the state. (1) A person commits the offense of bringing armed men into the state when he knowingly brings or aids in bringing into this state an armed person or armed body of men for the purpose of engaging in criminal or socially disruptive activities or to usurp the powers of law enforcement authorities.

(2) A person convicted of the offense of bringing armed men into the state shall be imprisoned in the state prison for a term not to exceed 10 years or be fined an amount not to exceed $50,000, or both.

The Militia of Montana requests:

1) That you have all of your people pressure the justice department into returning Leroy Schweitzer to Montana from Missouri. Until this happens, we do not believe any Freeman will surrender from the Clark ranch. Would you? U.S. Attorney Sherry Matteucci, who is responsible for the action, may be reached at 406-657-6101; Fax: 406-657-6055; and,

2) That your energies be placed upon the judicial system to ensure that these men are given fair trials. The Randy Weaver siege and the Gordon Sellner stand-off are just two of many cases where they would not have occurred if the judicial system could be trusted.

This is where your energies are needed the most. If you still feel the need to enter Montana, please heed the above warnings.

SMILE IF YOU SEE THE LIGHT

A smile says many things to self and to others. It is a welcome sign of being accepted or more often, in your evil empire, it means "gotcha" or "I THINK I gotcha". It can also mean "YOU DIDN'T GET ME—YOU GOTCHERSELF!" And, readers, you cannot function if you DO NOT know your enemies. One by one around these parts they are MAKING THEMSELVES KNOWN FROM THE RIGHT AND FROM THE LEFT AND BELOW (the evil empire always does dirty tricks and hits below the belt in the secret hiding and THINKS he gets away with it). FROM ABOVE, IF YOU BE IN GOOD INTENT, GOD WILL POINT THE WAY AND THEN EITHER WAY IT COMES TO INTERIM CONCLUSIONS, IT WILL BE FOR THE BETTER OUTCOME IN THE END.

Who would ever trust a snitch, a squealer, and especially one who is covering his own misdeeds? No-one, but any enemy will USE THAT ONE TO THE LIMITS OF POSSIBILITIES and, in the end, he will be run over by his OWN ASSOCIATES as surely as the flattener runs upon the new roadway.

These interesting people who have lied, cheated and stolen have set themselves up. They have formed a coalition, a CULT if you will, led by George Green who, according to himself, set up a cult in the first place, according to the papers. He has tried to make it appear that we have something or other going, but alas, we do NOT—but HE DOES. We don't even fit into the category of a "patriot" willing to shoot the first person who crosses us. He has worked with Bo Gritz for his compound in Idaho wherein anyone from the government who comes up the road with guns will get shot, at the least shot at. Good or bad? It is their business, not ours. What does Green have to do with the group in Montana which is now under siege? Interesting question, isn't it? He wants money and they offered a LOT of money in bona fide, valid warrants for collection. What is unlawful about it is that people go use these "drafts" as checks and currency. No, people, you have to FIRST "collect" on the proved-up liens and collateral.

We DO understand that a few instruments from Montana have been proved-up and set for collection in foreign banks in Costa Rica and Puerto Rico and, yes indeed, this IS where Mr. Anderson and George BOTH had connections to receive GOLD and stash it offshore. This is probably WHY George is working so diligently against Ekkers with the ADL and Steven Horn, attorney for EVERYBODY on the opposing side. It must be a good substantial pay-off if you can stand the discomfort of the continuation of cast-iron feelings.

Of course you must remember that the main topic in law-school is how to bridge the truth without outright LIES in FRONT of a Judge. But as it happens, how can you blame a good Jewish lawyer? After all, there is the Kol Nidre to be considered. That is the negation of all vows past or in the coming year, on the Day of Atonement, a Jewish annual affair. In other words, there is an OATH TO NEGATE ALL VOWS MADE and therefore purposely false attestation, testimony, affidavit, or evidence is quite RELIGIOUSLY acceptable.

Ah, but do our own adversaries practice such unbelievable and unconscionable activities? Of course. Why do you think Mr. Horn asked Mrs. Ekker if she is "anti-Semitic"? Moreover, the summary given to the Discovery Masters and kept from our own lawyer until it was too late to even read it, is one untruth piled upon another to the extent that no "Master" would have any idea upon what to rule. This lawyer is a good teacher, people; he never misses a single detail of shrewd trickery. This is not a negative comment for he practices his training and has managed to keep an open-and-shut case OPEN and churning for eight years. Not a bad income-making affair is it? He has new living quarters, new offices, all good things for a physically focused attorney and he doesn't need even one other case to handle the expenses—just keep this one going. Of course, this is only an opinion and not necessarily even of the Management.

Well, Mrs. Ekker is a Journalist and with that label comes some protected and accepted rules of behavior. Just as with an attorney who has client-attorney privileges, so too does a Journalist have a RIGHT and DUTY to protect resources and information flow.

Ah, but will she have to go to prison for protecting those privileges? Who knows? I will say this, however, that if a Judge so chooses to order such a thing he might be opening a bigger can of worms here for the CASE IS ONLY ABOUT A SALE WHICH DID NOT TAKE PLACE IN MAY OF 1988. THE JOURNALISTIC WRITINGS WERE NOT BEGUN UNTIL THE NEXT YEAR. HOW CAN YOU JUSTIFY ANY CONNECTION AT ALL? It would not seem wise on the part of Judge Wallace to place himself in such a negative position to protect an attorney overstretching his bounds. I don't care whether or not a Judge is elected or unelected, but I would suppose Judge Wallace might. A Judge should have HONOR and justice as his focus, not his mode of getting to the Bench. The People will observe his actions, not his ELECTION.

George Green is the one with the silly "E.T.s"; there is nothing silly HERE. There is no cult, group, or anything HERE—but I believe you will find the opposition has formed and work together exactly AS A CULT—under full CONTROL of George Green with his flunky George Abbott who tends, it appears, to drink much too heavily ALL the time. Remember something, you in that "group": GEORGE GREEN has named you; I have not. Rod Ence/Enz has betrayed you—I have not! Doris, as a Journalist has every right to type any person's TRUE STORY as news unfolds and history is laid forth in public disclosure. If you don't want your name used, then I suggest you stop "making news"! Even Mr. Fort's court appearance was that he didn't care about funds but he just couldn't abide the concept of God which disagreed with his own. What did THAT have to do with George Green's stealing of $350,000 in gold coins? The interviews and paper articles of the international Associated Press came DIRECTLY from Green and Abbott. No party on "our side" hardly spoke with the press at the court hearings and, yet, George Green supplied the lies in those articles to "EVERYBODY" (in his favorite words) and mailings to everyone on a thieved mailing list—nationally. That means INTERSTATE and the Associated Press means INTERNATIONAL AS WELL.

Sharri asked Mr. Moorhead why he worries about George Green's new statements if he doesn't believe anything Green says? BECAUSE IT APPEARS SHARRI STILL BELIEVES MR. GREEN AND IS NOW IN THE POSITION OF ACTUALLY LYING IN WRITING FOR GEORGE GREEN. Well, maybe she feels sorry for Mrs. Green, Duggah and other silly nonsensical stupifiers. She doesn't like being vilified? Then why does she not stop being a villain? GOD DOESN'T CHANGE ONE IOTA—PEOPLE CHANGE!

Besides, readers, Dharma/Doris/Mrs. Ekker is a JOURNALIST and has every right, freedom and reason to write as she sees things. By "law" I am an "imagining". Ah yes, and as with LIGHT, an imagining of quite noble position. Wherefrom does any Journalist COMMENTATOR get opinion? Let me assure you readers who think Doris can't "take" any more, she will if necessary. I'm sure that most newspapers and all establishment press would be too afraid of the guilty culprits to run her work. But some are not—and every Journalist has to pay the price to become recognized as a worthy speaker and observer. I believe any journalist, reporter, writer, movie maker—has to "pay his dues", in the language of the industry. Perhaps she has just paid her dues?

If YOU continue to treat God as a perceived something-or-other of someone else's composition and keep HIM separated from you as "out-there-somewhere", you err. When you put the HELP OF GOD WHERE IT BELONGS—IT IS RIGHT WHERE YOU ARE OR I AM!

REFUSAL TO LOOK AND SEE

I am amazed at how many do things in the NAME OF CHRIST OR GOD and all the while advocate things which goodness would NEVER allow in action or LAW. But how can you ever learn anything if you refuse to see or hear?

I can refer to the one Esu Emmanuel, the one you labeled "Jesus" and called the "christ". Do I lessen the worthiness of this being to correct foolish perceptions? No, I honor the being enough to set things to correct. You are people of the LIES.

WHAT exactly is an ANGEL? Answer this for yourself, please. WHAT is an Angel? Is this a messenger, an energy, a figment of your own imaginings? What is an Angel? If you don't know what you think about it in definition, would it not be good to FIND OUT?

Will throwing our writings, Doris' writings, or George Green's writings into the trash change one iota of the truth or falseness of the writings? Perhaps you might see differently, a few things, if you study them very, very carefully over and over again. A perplexing aspect of your unfolding into and within truth for self is your refusal to even look at that which contradicts in any manner that which you have been told BY SOME MAN, WOMAN OR CHILD. These are in Man's name, friends, NOT GOD'S name, as touted, and further, all instructions are TRANSLATIONS; and I might add, INCORRECT TRANSLATIONS AND PURE FABRICATIONS. How can you learn if you refuse to look?

Why does it disturb Man so much to come into truth regarding, say, extraterrestrials? This means "not of terrestrial", nothing more. Preachers all over stand in pulpits, awarded degrees by some Man's theological college, in the "churches", and pronounce that his or her knowledge is directly from God of Jesus or whatever. Do you now denounce your own truth of the projection by discounting extraterrestrials and/or communication with them? Anything that is not AFFIXED TO EARTH is EXTRATERRESTRIAL! Why do you pronounce the extraterrestrial being as being of evil consort? Those EVIL beings are NOT OF THE COSMOS, brothers, they are locked right onto your little physical orb, the same as YOU.

A PERSONAL LOOK BACK

Since the pain of the moment rests most heavily on Dharma, I would like to remind HER of some things. The most recent betrayal would seem again to be against Ekkers. NO, the most recent is against Bob Turner who owns that FARM property. The Ence/Enzes have made a fatal mistake for Mr. Turner has no part of protecting his enemies. He has lived his life in this town as a major PART OF THIS TOWN and will enjoy taking apart the sneaks, limb from associated limb. This is going to probably take in quite a few of you rock tossers. He is a BIG man, not often prone to violence but never far from being prepared to loosen a few teeth along the way of those who lie, cheat and steal—FROM HIM. It appears that some of you in the Green Cult didn't THINK before you acted. Mr. Turner's reputation is irreproachable and you have awakened the sleeping LION. The very ones to whom you sneaked—in your secrecy to do your snitching—TOLD ON YOU!!! THEY ARE LAUGHING AT YOU AND HAVE NO LONGER ANY RESPECT FOR YOU. By the way, you long-distance "callers" did it—you set up your own family members. How nice, Doris says, to not be the one in the electric chair! Mr. Green is ready to "do you in" also because your "help" is about to get HIM CAUGHT in his own trappings. He is distancing as fast as he can, from you, now calling you stupid fools. He refers to the whole bunch of you, his followers, as IDIOTS. He even calls his beloved attorneys Abbott and Horton idiots and, with Abbott, a drunken idiot fool.

As the fireworks burst and the flares burn the hearts let us remember the feelings on a day long ago when Dharma-Doris wrote a little note on "Giving Thanks". It was meaningful at the moment for it was November 22, 1990. It helps to sometime remember what your hearts held at such a moment of writing for it puts into perspective the solid foundation upon which you must come to trust and function.

[QUOTING:]

Thursday (Thanksgiving Day), November 22, 1990:

GIVING THANKS

Personal from Dharma: On this day of focusing appreciation I need within, to express "without" my gratitude and humble thanks for being allowed to participate in this unfolding, incredible experience called LIFE! At this time of historical transition, to be allowed to even be present is beyond my expression capabilities, but to participate is a gift above all gifts. I express, on behalf of us, the Earth ground-team, our collective recognition of the honor and love bestowed upon us even if we know not one another in the play unfolding. We come, as do you, in service unto God, fellow-man, nation and truth. May Your will be done. Father, You have walked with us while we have grappled our way through the veil and into flickering memories of our purpose and we are grateful.

There is nothing we would not do in the light of truth if You but show the way for too long have we only asked of You and the Brotherhood for our selfish wants. May we assume the responsibility of this mission in the glory and truth handed into our care for the sowing of the seeds of truth upon the fertile ground; if You can give unto us such a gift, may we never be found intentionally negligent of the commission.

We ask, and give, our own truth and blessings unto all our relations that we do not, for even one moment, forget their passage is filled with confusion and, as we grow, Father, may we find the path and move some of the pebbles out of the pathway of our brethren. Bless those teachers who seem to come in the form of testers and outright enemies, that we may gain from their great loss in soul expectations.

Thank You for walking with us, and may we come into understanding for it is difficult to be human in this day of chaos of which there seems to be no understanding and may we come home soon in fulfillment of that which You have sent us to do. May we ask only for our brother and then hear that which You give us to do that his way might be easier and truth come into his being. May Your will always be that which we acknowledge and bear action, for in the knowledge of that truth we, too, shall come into the lighted halls of Your lodge and rejoin our family. We are homesick and lonely for our home but may we serve well that our arrival back to our place among the stars shall bear glory, love and peace and may Your power reveal itself in each of us that we act, always, in Your Truth and Light. May our lodges be always in perfection, within, that you can find a place of perfection in which to dwell.

Thank you, Grandfather, for Your sheltering wings, for sometimes we are so lonely and the way seems impassable and impossible. May we always be given to persevere and see the way as You will have us walk, within the wondrous Creation. May we represent our brothers of the tribes of all places in Your infinite places and we ask that you of the unseen brothers be in knowing of our love and service unto you.

I am humbled to be allowed to be Your hands for I have so little else to give and You have given ALL. Hear us, please, that we not be blind voices in the dark wilderness, but rather, knowing examples and presence within the open LIGHT of all things.

I petition You to accept our gratitude for we know that You have gifted us with ALL there IS. May we keep this ever present in our consciousness for we know that our souls are willing but our mortal beings are weak and frightened. May we ever be mindful of our fright but never fall into our weakness of fear. I ask that Your will be done within me and may I be given to see YOUR way in KNOWING that You can see and I cannot.

PLAGUES AND RUMORS OF PLAGUES

Readers, this topic is so important as to ask you to clear your thoughts and focus with me a minute. The diseases are no longer in ability of containment. The Government DOES have antidotes but will do anything necessary to cover that FACT from you. Millions upon millions of people are going to perish from these disease spreadings. Millions more will be killed in the need of Government to "contain" the outbreaks. I repeat a request to each of you within earshot: get a movie, OUTBREAK, and watch it most carefully! This deals with viruses ALREADY PREVALENT, ACTIVE, MUTATING AS WE WRITE, AND READY TO BE THE "ULTIMATE WEAPON".

I marvel at the ones who war against us, have their greedy little ego battles about us, and stand traitors to everything God sends in goodness for THEY TOO SHALL PERISH AT THE HANDS OF THE RAPERS OF MANKIND. Those who serve the evil empire shall be the first to go for they become a threat to the very lords they serve. You who, in your need for ego gratification, gather the thistles for your overlord criminal who directs your work and thoughts, are forfeit. You know it and I know it. YOU only work FOR someone above you and, as all slaves who are out of control—you will be the sacrificial lambs. THE ACTIONS FOR HIGHER SELF-PROTECTION ARE ALREADY AT WORK—AS YOU ARE BEING TOSSED INTO THE FIRE-PIT AS THE LIE IS KEPT FROM SETTLING ON THE ACTUAL OFFENDERS. WILL THERE BE ENOUGH MONEY IN THE WORLD TO BUY YOUR SAFETY AND FUTURES? Mr. Green has used all of you who served him. Mr. Horn now uses YOU AND Mr. Green, so where does it stop? You showed your colors and deceptions, in the very offices which gave you shelter, by your chatterings and deceit and you shall always be known for that which you ARE for lies cannot remain forever hidden. We are grateful for you revealing yourselves for if you perceive "cult" then YOU are in grave and major error and such perceptions are not acceptable in any way, shape or form—period. Dharma is a Journalist and became same from trying to work her way through the massive trials and tribulations come upon elderly people at the hands of corruption. May each of YOU be as able to stand in the LIGHT OF PUBLIC ATTENTION WITH SO LITTLE TO HIDE FROM ANYONE! Truth allows such stance, readers, for truth is the SAME EVERY TIME PRESENTED and by that very truth shall the LIARS REVEAL THEMSELVES.

Example? Well, I cannot believe for a minute that the Judge is going to like that Mr. Horn gave a totally false document summary to the court-ordered Discovery Masters without the Ekker attorney even being able to read it before the depositions. No wonder Horn was ready to go to war to get Mr. Dixon, paralegal assistant to Mr. Elley, out of the room by insult and demand. At some point the JUDGE will allow no more of this trickery for it reflects, publicly now, on his own character and judicial practices. Ekkers have done everything ordered or suggested—including replacing two attorneys; it is noted the opposition has done nothing ordered! This does not look good in public forums. Even more open in disclosure is that this very Judge sanctioned Ekkers $800 for non-disclosure to Horn of information they were working diligently TO SUPPLY. This simply DOES NOT look good after eight years of struggle to simply save their very lives.

When it reaches the point that a citizen may not even voice an opinion or be heard (which Ekkers have never, in eight years, been given opportunity) and a Journalist is ordered to reveal EVERY PAPER AND NAME of resource and/or research or writing retroactive for six YEARS, then you have problems, readers, abundant problems. I suppose, however, that if a person such as Mark Fuhrman of O.J. court fame, and a member of the Los Angeles finest, can take the 5th, then why not a grandmother journalist!?

Since Mr. Ekker is also a business writer and editor, he too is likely to be able to take the "5th"??? When will you people stop these impostors to the justice system?

Let's wrap this article with a little quotation from Little Crow: 2/3/91:

"We are many, many people and yet we are one. What we do today with our thinking, what we do tomorrow with our thoughts, what we do with our actions and our interactions with people determines the course of the universe itself. You are not powerless. You are not without POWER."

3/3/91:

"You are capable of doing something that's never been done before and that is to make the world, the universe, a better place than it's been. That isn't going against the laws of Nature; that's saying you have the power within you. You don't have to be a goddess to have it, or a shaman to have it, or a holy man, or a holy woman, or a medicine man, or a medicine woman. You've got it right there, just as you sit. You're it."

and also 3/3/91:

"Within us lives what it is we seek. If it is peace and harmony and balance among yourselves, with yourself, then accept that it's there. Accept the possibility that it dwells within you, because there isn't anybody on Earth who can give it to you. You have to take that responsibility for yourself."

Think upon these things most carefully that you not be caught with your responsibilities down! Good morning.

LUCIFER'S PLAN TO OBTAIN RULE OF THE WORLD, AS REVEALED THROUGH ALBERT PIKE AND FREEMASONRY—THREE WORLD WARS

Article III, Section 1

In order to understand the difference between Lucifer's plan and God's plan for mankind, it might be a good idea to consider parts of God's plan and Lucifer's plan together. When a question of "God's will for Man" recently came up, Hatonn said that "God's will is Man's freewill"! It is my understanding that Man is given the great opportunity to develop himself, learn his lessons and advance from this Earth School to greater opportunities and responsibilities. In order to do that he must not only recognize his own and each other man's uniqueness, but also learn to love and respect that uniqueness while efforting to perfect himself. (This does not imply that Man should be a wimp, that he should allow others to run over him, or that he should not stand for truth and goodness—God's Laws.) Obviously, this requires time, space and circumstances favorable to completing the task.

How does the above compare with Lucifer and Freemasonry? One of the primary doctrines of Freemasonry is that the entering mason is a "rough ashlar" (quarried stone) which is to be "hewn into a perfect ashlar"—a "stone made ready by the hands of the workmen, to be adjusted by the working tools of the Fellow-Craft". (Ref.: Albert Pike, Morals and Dogma) When you consider that Esu/Immanuel advised his followers: "Be ye perfect, as your Father in Heaven is perfect", Masonry sounds very similar in intent. Also, Masons make a freewill choice about entering the lodge—so far so good. However, a Mason is not expected to perfect himself, but is "made ready by the hands of the workmen"—Masonry, his "brothers" and the tools of the "Craft". Additional and frequent assaults on his "freewill choice" come with the mandatory and unconscionable oaths of secrecy which the Mason encounters immediately—a secrecy even about matters yet to come, of which he still knows nothing. Further, he is sworn to come to the aid of all "brother Masons" in preference to all others, a far cry from loving others as yourself. The Mason is no longer a man with freewill.

If the above were the only problem we could mark it down to one individual's choice and let the matter rest. However, Albert Pike, in the first few pages of his book, Morals and Dogma, reveals that the hierarchy of Freemasonry sees the mass of humankind as a "rough ashlar", which they plan to hew into shape for their controlled one-world government and religion! This is the hidden meaning and intent to their motto: "Order out of Chaos"—take the "chaotic" world of mankind and create "order". Nevertheless, this motto is deceiving. The hierarchy of the Masons have never planned to create "order" through beneficial works, as most lower degree Masons are led to believe and work towards. The hierarchy (who must be of the "lineage of Solomonis" according to General Erich Ludendorf and the Basic Constitution of Freemasonry) plan to create that chaos so they can then force their own rule ("order") upon mankind! The above is one of the major reasons for all of the enforced secrecy in Freemasonry. The hierarchy must be sure of the international leanings and loyalty of their man to themselves before he is brought into the higher councils of Freemasonry, because, in effect, the hierarchy of Freemasonry plans to take over all governments—a criminal, treasonous activity, and a very far cry from the propaganda used to promote Freemasonry!

I have recently discovered references from two presenters which outline that plan. One presenter is Myron C. Fagan, who prepared an audio tape (and also a typed manuscript) from the work of educationist Anthony J. Hilder, titled the "Illuminati". The other is author Des Griffin, who included the reference in his book, Descent Into Slavery. The reference is in a letter written by Albert Pike (head of Freemasonry in the U.S. of A.) to Giuseppe Mazzini (head of Freemasonry in Europe) on 8/15/71, outlining the plan of chaos determined by the hierarchy of Freemasonry. Mr. Fagan states that the letter is catalogued in the British Museum, London, England. (Keep in mind that Adam Weishaupt, a Jew and former Jesuit, who set up the Illuminati, and who became the head of Freemasonry in Europe in 1776 was, according to Hatonn, the "old boy himself"—Lucifer in incarnation. Remember also that Weishaupt/Lucifer was given asylum at the estate of Saxe-Gotha when he was banished from Bavaria due to the discovery of his plan for world domination. Weishaupt was made "Honorary Counselor" by Ernest Duke of Saxe-Gotha, who was also a relative of the Prussian and English Monarchs and many other "Elite" of Europe. Weishaupt also became counselor to the Rothschilds, and continued his intrigues and agitations until he died in 1830. Pike and Mazzini followed closely on his heels as heads of Freemasonry. The various male heads of the ruling houses in Europe, and perhaps elsewhere by now, hold the Masonic title of "Vicarious Solomonis", and are under a secret head of Freemasonry, known only to them, who must be of the "lineage of Solomonis". Further, according to the Freemasonry Archives on the Internet, updated July, 1995, all of the "legal" Masonic lodges in the United States must derive their charters from an English mother lodge!)

I quote from Des Griffin's book, Descent into Slavery, page 38, (quote):

PLAN TO CONQUER THE WORLD

Having consolidated their financial grip on most of the European nations by the middle of the last century, the International Bankers worked feverishly to extend their sphere of influence to the ends of the Earth in preparation for their final assault on the United States—a nation which, through its unique Constitution, remained free.

In the decades that followed it became apparent that, in order to achieve their goal of world domination, they would have to instigate a series of world wars which would result in the leveling of the old world order in preparation for the construction of the New World Order. This plan was outlined in graphic detail by Albert Pike, the Sovereign Grand Commander of the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite of Freemasonry and the top Illuminati in America, in a letter to Giuseppe Mazzini dated August 15, 1871. Pike stated that the first world war was to be fomented in order to destroy Czarist Russia—and to place that vast land under the direct control of Illuminati agents. Russia was then to be used as a 'bogey man' to further the aims of the Illuminati worldwide.

World War II was to be fomented through manipulation of differences that existed between the German Nationalists and the Political Zionists. This was to result in an expansion of Russian influence and the establishment of a state of Israel in Palestine.

The Third World War was planned to result from the differences stirred up by Illuminati agents between the Zionists and the Arabs. The conflict was planned to spread worldwide. The Illuminati, said the letter, planned to "unleash the Nihilists and Atheists" and "provoke a formidable social cataclysm which in all its horror will show clearly to the nations the effect of absolute atheism, origin of savagery and of the most bloody turmoil. Then everywhere, the citizens, obliged to defend themselves against the world minority of revolutionaries, will exterminate those destroyers of civilization, and the multitude, disillusioned with Christianity, whose deistic spirits will from that moment be without compass [direction], anxious for an ideal, but without knowing where to render its adoration, will receive the true light through the universal manifestation of the pure doctrine of Lucifer, brought finally out in the public view, a manifestation which will result from the general reactionary movement which will follow the destruction of Christianity and atheism, both conquered and exterminated at the same time." (End of quoting.)

In other words, the mass of humankind (the rough ashlar) is to be "beaten into shape" and readied for the worship of Lucifer through three terrible world wars.

It is incredible that Albert Pike, supposed citizen of the U.S. in good standing, would have the knowledge, arrogance, and betrayal to write such a letter in 1871. It can only mean there was a hierarchy (Lucifer and his chief agents) of Freemasonry and the international bankers with a well-formulated plan, which was to determine their actions and could foretell the results to a great extent. Certainly my most recent articles in this series briefly confirm the part played by W.W.I in this plan (forty-five years after Pike), as well as the beginning of the plan for W.W.II foretold by Albert Pike.

Certainly too, the "plan" includes all the greedy, lying, tyrannical and bloody aspects revealed in the biblical symbolism of the first two horsemen of the Apocalypse in the book of Revelation, another view of the plan (script) written by the adversary.

I would like to backtrack a little on some history of the times of Albert Pike and the years preceding W.W.I. This will not be the kind of history found in the much edited and rewritten books today, but will offer clues as to what was really going on. Preceding Pike and America's Civil War of 1865 were the wars of Napoleon Bonaparte, the first anti-Christ, according to Nostrodamus. As a result of Napoleon's drive for power, a huge number of lives were lost and the Rothschilds, who financed both sides of the conflict, "cleaned-up" financially. It was at the end of Napoleon's Battle of Waterloo (6/18/1815) that 'he Rothschilds, through trickery and their advanced knowledge of the results of the battle, gained control of England's banking system. Still, there were other aspects to Napoleon's time, and later, of which most people in the world today are unaware; namely, the knowledge gained from Middle Eastern Archeological digs and Napoleon's expedition to Egypt. These revealed: (1) that the history of the Hebrews was not in accord with the Old Testament; and (2) there were civilizations preceding our own which were far more advanced than our own. (Of course, this information was not generally publicized.) According to Hatonn, there are flying disks, as well as other advanced technologies, stored beneath the pyramid! (Please see my book, The Garden of Aton, for background information.)

Keeping the above in mind, it should not sound strange to you that Hatonn has said the adversary had developed time-travel by the turn of this century! Which means, among many things, that the average citizen has been grossly deceived by his "leaders" for a very long time. Nevertheless, the use of advanced technologies has to have been well underway to provide a reason and a means for world control. Not surprisingly, there is a confirming hint of some unusual knowledge in the possession of Albert Pike in 1871, (quote):

"There is in nature one most potent force, by means whereof a single man, who could possess himself of it, and should know how to direct it, could revolutionize and change the face of the world.

"This force was known to the ancients. It is a universal agent, whose supreme law is equilibrium; and whereby, if science can but learn how to control it, it will be possible to change the order of the seasons, to produce in night the phenomena of day, to send a thought in an instant round the world, to heal or slay at a distance, to give our words universal success, and make them reverberate everywhere." (End quote.)

The above is taken from page 734, Morals and Dogma (a gift from my good friend, M.B.). How do you suppose Albert Pike obtained the knowledge of the above possibilities in his day?

By the time of W.W.I (1914-1918) the international bankers had also gained control of the banking system in the United States. Many of these bankers are members of the Committee of 300, the actual hierarchy of Freemasonry, Communism and Zionism, among other nefarious schemes.

In my article preceding this one I showed how W.W.II was being "fomented through manipulating the differences that existed between the German Nationalists and the Political Zionists" via infiltration and agitations by the Red German Zionists/Communists as soon as W.W.I had ended (there was never a true intent by the Freemasonic and Rothschild controllers at the Peace Conference after W.W.I to maintain the PEACE).

Des Griffin provides a general summary of the world situation at the time of Albert Pike which essentially dictated military and subversive political actions necessary for the adversary to gain world control, (quote):

At the time Pike wrote this remarkable letter [to Mazzini, 8/15/1871] there were five different ideologies extant on the world scene and involved in a "struggle for space and power." These were:

1. The secret ideology of the International Bankers or the Illuminati as laid out in Fourth Reich of the Rich. Their aim was the creation of a One World Government to be ruled over by the "illuminated ones" at the top.

2. The Russian "Pan-Slavic" ideology which was originally conceived by William the Great and expounded in his will. According to A. H. Granger, the author of England World Empire, 1916, p.173, this ideology called for the elimination of Austria and Germany, then the conquest of India and Persia and ends with the words: "...which will ensure the subjugation of Europe."

3. The ideology of "Asia for the Asiatics" as expounded by the Japanese. This called for a confederation of Asian nations dominated by Japan.

4. The ideology of Pan-Germanism which called for German political control over the European continent, freedom from the Crown's restrictions on the high seas and the adoption of an "open door" policy in trade and commerce with the rest of the world.

CONTACT: The Phoenix Project

CONTACT is a unique and inspired newspaper for concerned citizens everywhere, though it particularly focuses on the United States because of this country's special mission in the affairs of the world. That is, "As goes the United States, so goes the world."

CONTACT is a vehicle for Commander Gyeorgos Ceres Hatonn's most recent writings on important current affairs, plus those from other enlightening sources, on matters critical to a responsible and informed public at this time of planetary transition and final days of battle between the Forces of Light and the "Evil Empire" forces of darkness.

CONTACT exists to counteract the manipulating lies and clever half-truths put out (on purpose) by the regular print and broadcast media prostitutes of the Satanic Elite controllers—parasites who are in the process of economically, physically, and spiritually collapsing this once great country (and actually the entire planet) down to a slave-state level of existence under their diabolical control plan called The New World Order.

This newspaper, CONTACT, began life on March 30, 1993, risen, like the mythical bird, with great determination "up from the ashes" of its internationally acclaimed predecessor called THE PHOENIX LIBERATOR.

THE PHOENIX LIBERATOR, in turn, began life in mid-October of 1991, having evolved from an earlier newsletter called the PHOENIX JOURNAL EXPRESS, which itself came into existence as a faster way to get THE TRUTH out to you readers than was possible with the more substantial "book" format of the PHOENIX JOURNALS. Much incredible ground has been covered so far in that mission.

While the PHOENIX LIBERATOR's motto reminded all that "The Truth Will Set You Free", the CONTACT's motto, displayed prominently in the masthead, takes that thought another important step forward and proclaims: "Ye Shall Know The Truth And The Truth Shall Make You Mad!"

The "Phoenix Project" is about those preparations needed—at body, mind and soul levels—to both understand and survive the great healing changes which are beginning to energize this beautiful little planet, now so frazzled and tortured from abuses of all kinds. We look forward, with great expectations, to the *CONTACT*ing with all of you—a coming together that is rapidly taking place as the entire Phoenix Project "ground crew" continues to connect, solidify, and gain strength through becoming informed of THE TRUTH. Indeed, welcome aboard, friends!

Editor-In-Chief, CONTACT

5. Pan-Americanism or the ideology of "America for the Americans". This called for "trade and friendship with all, alliances with none." Secretary of State Root stated in 1906 that, under this ideology which was given expression in the Monroe Doctrine of 1823, we are "debarred from sharing in the political aims, interests, or responsibilities of Europe, just as by the equally potential doctrine, now nearly a century old, the European powers are excluded from sharing or interfering in the political concerns of the sovereign states of the Western Hemisphere."

If the plans of the International Banker/Illuminati Cabal were to be brought to fruition Russia, Germany, Japan and the United States would have to be brought to their knees in unconditional surrender, poverty and ignominy.

The Illuminati plan for world conquest, referred to by Albert Pike, was a diabolical masterpiece of Luciferian ingenuity that would take the lives of hundreds of millions of human beings and cost hundreds of billions of dollars in its accomplishment. (End quote.) (Ref.: Descent into Slavery by Des Griffin, page 39.)

Obviously, Russia was "brought to her knees" during the Bolshevik Revolution at the time of W.W.I. Germany and Japan were both to suffer defeat in W.W.II. The United States has taken much longer, but its former adherence to the Monroe Doctrine was a policy totally disregarded in W.W.I and from that time forward. The United States, its resources and technologies has always been an integral and important part of the Illuminati's plans and activities through their puppets in critical positions in our government and country.

Before I proceed with more history on W.W.II and its PEACE CONFERENCE, I want to provide another clue to the identity of the hierarchy of the adversary, Lucifer and his crew.

You may recall, from my earlier writings on Freemasonry, that the Masons believe the colors of "God" are blue and gold on a white background. These colors are used on the Mason's white apron for certain degrees and match the colors that Aaron (the High Priest of Old Testament accounts, which are now highly suspect) wore when he entered the temple and "holy of holies", once a year, etc. The blue and white colors are also used by the new state of Israel in their flag; by the United Nations; by Benjamin Creme's Maitreya; and by Lucis Trust (aka Lucifer Trust), the only "religious" organization given early residence at the United Nations complex in New York (they moved to a different address in the 1980s). (I have recently learned from Fritz Springmeier's book, The Top 13 Illuminati Bloodlines, that the Rockefeller tax-free foundations have control of the Lucis Trust and are their primary funding source. The Rockefellers are one of the top thirteen Illuminati bloodlines according to Fritz Springmeier. Since the Rockefellers, through their foundations, donated the land on which the United Nations buildings sit, we may have an explanation here of the reason for Lucis Trust's seemingly unrepresentative, and therefore unwarranted, privileged and unprecedented early position within the U.N. complex, unless it were to be recognized by the majority of Nations that Lucifer and his Illuminati are representative of their religions.)

I believe the use of the same colors (and also symbols as discussed elsewhere) within the above listed groups suggests a purposeful plan developed for the eventual public merging of these groups under the one-world government and "religion" of the Zionists/Communists/Freemasons/Illuminati and Lucifer. Now that we know that not all of the Old Testament "history" of the Jews matches with archeological finds, one can see important reasons why the controllers would have a need to "change religions"—reasons beyond their obvious intent to bring them all under one head. One can also see the probabilities that the same bunch of "Luciferians" (aka "Snake People") had a great deal to do with the promulgation of the Old Testament, as we know it, and its related works. There were ample reasons why Esu/Jmmanuel castigated the work of the scribes and priests of the temple in Jerusalem in his day. (Please keep in mind that not all persons who follow the "Bible" are aware of all its actual origins, that not all Jews are Zionists and that the Masons of the lower degrees are primarily unaware of the hierarchy's activities, although they now have the opportunity to become aware of them.)

According to Hatonn and other investigators, the "Elite"/Adversary/Committee of 300 made contact with a group of beings originating from off our planet, and were given knowledge of advanced technologies. This, together with the scientific breakthroughs of Nikola Tesla speeded them along with their plans. Hitler was also involved with similar beings. I do not know if they were/are the same group. Hatonn said the Pleiadians contacted both sides of the conflict of W.W.II. Their offered assistance was rejected by England/France. They had some early success with Hitler. However, Hitler was unwilling to accept their condition that the Jews were not to be harmed but could be moved to another place. The Pleiadians departed, and a new group of beings began collaboration with Hitler. We know the Germans were quickly developing some very advanced technologies by the end of W.W.II. The results of the war could easily have gone in their favor if they had had a little more time. After the war, our own government, in cooperation with Britain, France, Russia, etc., transferred many German and Japanese scientists and medical persons to the U.S. to help further these technologies. It is astounding how our "deadly enemies" became our "friends" overnight with the combined and massive propaganda programs of the controlled media. From that point on, the United States was gradually taken over by the secret activities of the international military, international science, international secret services, international planning, etc. The questions and guesses regarding the identity of these beings and their advanced technologies, unknown to the public at large, have been the subject of many individual investigators and the absolute stonewalling of information by our government. Please remember that Freemasonry, and all the other connected groups (i.e. Communism, Zionism, Luciferianism, Creme's Maitreya, the Committee of 300, the United Nations, etc.) promote internationalism and a one-world government under the "Jews" and/or a new "Messiah", etc. Remember also that most of the heads of government and their close advisors are connected to at least one of these groups.

The reason for the above review is that I found a very interesting, well documented and substantiated report on a "UFO" incident in Argentina which could shed more light on the identity of the "alien" beings possibly connected to this group of international, secret collaborators due to their use of the same color schemes! The report is to be found on page 163 of William Gordon Allen's book, Overlords and Olympians, (quote):

"THE OCCURRENCE"

"On December 30, 1972, at approximately 10:20 p.m., Sr. V.M. (*1) was sitting, drinking the national beverage maté about six metres from the little wooden shack in which he lives. He was sitting by a small fire, and had just finished his evening meal. At his side were his dog, a medium sized animal some four or five years old and a cat with her three kittens. He was listening to his transistor radio, when suddenly the radio began to fail. He thumped it a few times, thinking that perhaps the batteries were loose, but as it continued to fail, he switched it off.

"At that moment, he heard a loud humming noise, which he described as 'like the noise of angry bees, only ever so much louder.' It was growing steadily louder and, when he realized that it was coming from overhead, he looked up and saw a powerful light, rapidly increasing in intensity and flooding the whole area around. Within the area of the light he could clearly distinguish an enormous object.

"As a result of the calculations which we have made when discussing the case with him at the spot and reconstructing the episode, we estimate that the object must have been approximately 20-25 metres in diameter. It was almost exactly right above his head, hanging stationary above the nearby grove of eucalyptus trees, which are some 10-12 metres high. From tubes in the lower central portion of the object (tubes protruding some 20 or 30 cms. from it) it was emitting sparks, while around it an enormous wheel was constantly spinning.

"The witness describes the colour of the object as having been 'red-orange turning to purple.' In the upper central part of it, the whole of which was intensely illuminated, he could see a spherical cabin with two small windows. At one of these windows was a person, visible only from the waist upwards. This individual was wearing dark grey clothing 'made of rolls or cylinders joined together'. The 'rolls' gave the appearance of being inflatable, similar to the garb worn by astronauts. On the individual's head was a helmet. From the upper part of the helmet a tube passed down into a box on his back.

"Simultaneously with his sighting of this occupant, a shower of sparks shot from the under-part of the object right in front of where V.M. was sitting, and the object tilted slightly downwards and towards him, so that he now had a full view of the lighted cabin on the stationary craft, and could see that there was also a second occupant with identical features and clothing, who was looking over the shoulder of the first one. He described the eyes of both of them as slanted. He said the eyes looked fixedly, and gave an impression of depth. The mouth was but a thin line, and he remembered no details of nose or ears.

"The object being now in this tilted position, V.M. was able to see moreover that, in addition to the two small windows on this side, through which the occupants were viewing him, there were also two more windows on the further side, and between these other two windows he could see what seemed to be, as he described it, a small flag or banner or emblem, the upper part of which was light blue. On the left was the representation of a dragon or sea-horse bearing a crown, and to the right of the dragon/sea-horse a number of signs or symbols. The lower part of the banner was golden.

"Inside the cabin he could also see a long panel with, as he put it, 'a whole lot of instruments and clocks'.

"Almost simultaneously with downward tilting movement of the object, a powerful flash of light came from the under-part, blinding the witness temporarily and forcing him to avert his eyes downwards. This flash of light completely enveloped the cat and then vanished at once. Meanwhile the humming noise was growing much louder, and the colour of the object was turning to bluish-green. It began to move forward, away from the eucalyptus trees, and descended still lower until it was no more than 4 to 6 metres above the ground. At this point V.M. was able to see that in the upper part of the cabin there was a wheel or ring which was spinning very fast.

"After that, the object moved off towards the north-east where the main road is, and where there are high power cables. A strong smell like the smell of sulphur or arnica remained in the air for a few seconds. Then the object disappeared behind the tree-covered mound. It was still flying very low, its colour changing slightly to reddish and then greenish-blue.

"The whole observation had lasted for approximately 20 seconds."

(*1) Important Note: A German publication, UFO Nachrichten, has revealed the names of the persons involved. Sr. Ventura Maceiras, and the local government official is Sr. Agnel Petrazinni of the Municipality of Tres Arroyos. (End quote.) (I am indebted to a generous friend, R.E.B., for this book, thank you.)

Mr. Allen gives a thorough review of all aspects of the occurrence as reported to investigators (i.e., the behavior of the animals, the physical symptoms of the witness and victim, traces left by the object, and investigative conclusions). Sr. V.M. was interrogated more than sixty times by different professional people. None doubted his veracity.

The matter of most interest to our subject is the banner (a flag), revealed inside the flying disk, of light blue color at the top, golden color on the lower portion, and with the symbol of a dragon/sea-horse bearing a crown on the left side! The colors match those of the "god" of the Freemasons and the Hebrew Priesthood! The symbol of the "dragon/sea-horse" is also particularly interesting when one considers that the adversarial hierarchy call themselves the "snake people", and Lucifer/Satan is often referred to as "that old dragon". The fact the "UFO" was in the area of Argentina suggests a possible home base at the South Pole, although this cannot be ascertained from the information available to us. Hitler is believed to have escaped with some of his top aides to the South Pole at the ending of W.W.II. We know from the filmed second expedition of Admiral Byrd to the South Pole that there is open ground (not snow covered) in a large area of Antarctica. Also, there are reports of an opening to the center of the Earth at both the South and North Poles. (Ref.: Video Tape: "The Hollow earth, or the city of New Berlin", and books: Skeletons in the Closet (Phoenix Journal #13) and The Hollow Earth.) It is possible that the sighting of this particular "UFO" in Argentine air space tells us more about those "alien" helpers of Hitler, and perhaps others, than they intended to reveal. Hatonn has stated that the Nazis, the Communists, the Zionists, and the Masons are all the same! They are all part of the plot to gain control of our world, even though they may not always agree among themselves. The idea (plot), remember, is to create wars in order to beat the people down and take over, according to Albert Pike, Freemason leader of 1871! There must be at least two opposing groups for a war, even though the controllers of both sides may be under the same hierarchy.

I would like you to consider now some information in a book called Initiation, Human and Solar, by Alice Bailey, published by Lucifer Trust (now called Lucis Trust) in 1922, as reported in Edith Starr Miller's book, Occult Theocracy. There is a description therein of the invocation of their "god". A group of "adepts" encircle an equilateral triangle invoking the "god", which reveals itself as a "blue and white colored flame, which burneth not". Is it possible, in view of our present knowledge of the adversary's use of advanced technologies by the turn of this century, that some of those technologies were deceitfully used to awe and convince the "initiation" participants of the presence of a "god"? Hatonn has often taught that there is "no mysticism", only Truth or knowledge of which we are not yet aware! You can be sure that the one-world government bunch will exploit all of the advanced knowledge and technologies possible in order to fool and rule the rest of us. Please remember, when thinking about any combination of colors that God is Light, the Source of all colors.

I believe we must seriously consider the very real possibility that, that old dragon, Lucifer/Satan/Weishaupt, has been preparing for his take over of the Earth for sometime, and that the presence of God's Hosts are indicative of the imminence of events foretold in the biblical book of Revelation.

Perhaps this is a good place to remind you that Gyeorgos Ceres Hatonn in ancient times was known as George, the Dragon Slayer. Some artifacts revealing and confirming this knowledge were also found in the archeological digs in the Middle East just prior to the twentieth century. In other words, some of the old "myths" are remnants of true stories, long forgotten or suppressed by those who came later. (Please see my book, The Garden of Aton, for background and research information.)

Perhaps too, in order to refresh your memories and remind you of some of the connections of the Nazis to the other groups of adversaries, it should be restated that, according to Hatonn, our enemies are the Khazarian Jews, also known as Ashkenazi Jews. Whether or not all Ashkenazi Jews are Zionists, and/or part of the adversarial plot would have to be determined by their individual activities. Ashkenaz was a decedent of Gomer, a descendant of the biblical son of Noah named Japheth. The Gomerites came from the area of the Black Sea and settled in central Europe. The Khazars came from the Caucasus Mountains and also the Black Sea area known as Gothland (or Goatland), and were subsequently known as Goths. They are a mixture of Nordic, Mongolian, Russian, Turkish races. Most of the ruling houses of Europe, the Baltics, and even two of the Emperors of the old Roman Empire were Khazars (Goths). The Khazars chose the religion of Judaism in the eighth century, A.D. However, only the King of the Khazars and his immediate family and entourage were required to be "Jews", the rest of them could be whatever they liked, although all Khazars remained under the rule of the King of the Khazars. It is a fact that the Jewish language, called "Yiddish", is composed of many old Gothic words. At present this language is called Judeo-German! Further, Hatonn stated that the name "Nazi" came from the word Ashkenazi, which, according to the Jews (Ref.: Encyclopedia Judaica) means Germany! The connection of this word to the actual leaders and/or instigators of the Nazis will become more clear to you when you carefully consider the use of the word "Nazi" as a label, supposedly an acronym referring to the National Socialists, under Adolph Hitler. If such was intended why is a "z" used instead of an "s" to stand for "Socialist"? Even a word such as "Naso" would have more relevance to the National Socialists than does the word "Nazi". Or, if the word Nazi was intended to convey the meaning of "Germany" or "Germans", why use a Jewish word, especially under Hitler's regime?

You may be surprised to learn that "Nazi" is the correct Gothic spelling and pronunciation of the English, "Nasi", and that "Nasi" means "Prince of the Captivity" to the Ashkenazi Jews. This title, strangely used to identify Hitler's political party, is now a complimentary title given to the head of the new state of Israel! In other words, it appears that World War II was fomented, carried out in all its horror, and ended by one group only, using the various pseudonyms of supposedly multiple "isms"! According to Fritz Springmeier, in his book, The Top 13 Illuminati Bloodlines, there are circumstances which make it possible that Hitler was actually a member of the Rothschild Bloodline!

You may recall from Article I of this series that the Sassoons were once called by the title: "Nasi". It is also true that the Jews offered the title to Lord Rothschild, but he rejected it.

There may be another reason for the use of the word "Nazi", as it relates to "Ashkenaz", and that is the propaganda used by the Nazis that they were the master race of "Aryans". Of course, the biblical people of Ashkenaz had settled in some of the area formerly occupied by the Aryans of ancient times, according to the new archeological material found prior to 1900. Since this material also placed much of the Hebrew biblical "history" in question, it is my belief that the Khazarian Jews saw an opportunity and a need to both change their racial emphasis and their "religion" through identity now with the "Aryans". If you have read my articles reviewing General Ludendorf's research on the Freemasons in Germany between W.W.I and W.W.II, you know that the Jewish hierarchy of the Freemasons in Germany had begun to identify themselves with the "Aryans" as did the Nazis of W.W.II. These people have no loyalty to any group or nation. They will do whatever it takes to become rulers of this world.

The next section of this article will take up some of the public history of President Franklin Delano Roosevelt, his associates, and financial supporters, his political activity, World War II, and, hopefully, the Peace Conference following that War.

Setting The Stage For Legal Challenges

4/2/96 #1 HATONN

TIME OUT

Please, readers, allow us just a moment to balance the scales so that we can focus on the entropy and confusion without distraction. Oxymoronic statement or petition? No, for it is the myriads of chaotic fragments of demanded attention which destroy the orderly thought sequences. When Dharma, for instance, reaches total overload in her journalistic demands, she has to stop, kick and scream, breathe again, and allow me to sort the wheat from the chaff. For others who would pick up any slack in other demanding subject materials it can be noted that, if Dharma is in burnout or overload, so too are they.

If Dharma has a couple of pen-names and yet is accused of writing in my stead and as any speaker who comes forth—is this not interesting, at the least, multi-personalities at most? Everybody has some alternate personalities—don't you?

Can the lawyers ever get down to the point of consideration of the ONE FOCUS in the legal case regarding the Ekker-SBS [Santa Barbara Savings] case against an auctioneer who DID NOT HAVE A SALE and what that one deliberate act in conspiracy, apparently, had to do with at least all the other named parties? What does an article in mid-August of 1990 by Doris Ekker, Dorushka Maerd, Dharma, or even myself have to do with the past actions of that auctioneer? Especially as relates to the lawyers in point?

Just as today we will utilize newspaper articles, pamphlets, journals, news magazines and bits of correspondence. Is this not a journalist's very purpose: to write about many, many subjects, in depth, for public information? If this information is public information, how is it that a lawyer can have even notations about phone messages brought to his office on a given demanded day? Is he not rather obligated to get what is public information from public resources? Oh well...! If tit for tat, I would imagine that this lawyer could be caused to bring forth everything regarding everything these companies have written, for instance, all sales, to check patterns, witnesses, etc. (They say they destroyed the information in a "timely" manner.) Is not the very destruction of such relevant material unlawful in an ongoing case? Is that not deliberate denial and destruction of obviously pertinent evidence? All legal notations regarding even the opposing attorney's notes and phone notes should be demanded because he MAY have a pattern of destroying information from files and misrepresenting the case facts—even at depositions and before and to the Bench. Why might (d)harma not be obliged to produce demanded "stuff"? Because journalistic privilege and privacy of resources and sources is certainly as SACRED and private as any attorney-client privilege. Is this destruction by the opposition not pretty unlawful IN AN ONGOING CASE CONCERNING THOSE PROCEDURES? LAWYERS: THINK!!! All lawyers are taught carefully to think—especially about fees! If you have a case worth some $215,000 and over a million $$ have been poured into fees, wouldn't that seem to be because SOMETHING was wrong with that sale on sale day? If the opposing corporations and people are willing to spend $600,000 in arguing the case, doesn't this likely MEAN THAT YOU WILL FIND ALL SORTS OF SIMILAR CIRCUMSTANCES IN THOSE FILES—THAT THEY SAY ARE "GONE" (OOPS!). SOUNDS LIKE THE ROSE LAW FIRM IN ARKANSAS, DOESN'T IT? It is really more interesting, however, that the focus is on everything ELSE rather than the "No Sale", so doesn't that also tell us a lot more than meets the eye?

Perhaps a few definitions might help sort the problem areas. We do not even pretend to know much about the law as is practiced these days but I would suggest that some definitions are not too likely to change from one Black's Law Dictionary to the next. With this possibility in mind, let us consider "journal":

"JOURNAL: A daily book; a book in which entries are made or events recorded from day to day. The place where transactions are recorded as they occur or as in a diary, the entry of ongoing and regular entries on various subject matters.

"In maritime law, the journal (otherwise called "log" or "log-book") is a book kept on every vessel, which contains a brief record of the events and occurrences of each day of a voyage, with the nautical observations, course of the ship, account of the weather, etc. In the system of double-entry bookkeeping, the journal is an account-book into which are transcribed, daily or at other intervals, the items entered upon the day-book, for more convenient posting into the ledger. In the usage of legislative bodies, the journal is a daily record of the proceedings of either house. It is kept by the clerk, and in it are entered the appointments and actions of committees, introduction of bills, motions, votes, resolutions, etc., in the order of their occurrence.

"JOURNAL ENTRY. A recording in an accounting journal of equal debits and credits, with, when necessary, an explanation of the transaction. Also a compilation of regular entries of information on various subjects or ongoing notations, comments or directives.

"JOURNAL ENTRY RULE. Regularity of enactment of statute may be inquired into by examining legislative journals.

"JOURNALISTS' PRIVILEGE: In the law of defamation and, or, privacy privileges, a publisher is protected in actions of defamation if the publication constitutes fair comment on the subject of public officers and employees in matters of public concern."

If the journalist believes his own comments to be true he is protected in his 1st Amendment rights to speak, write, publish or print as in Freedom of Speech. If information from other resources is utilized then the reference is presumed to be the opinion of the original speaker, writer, publisher or printer.

Now let us turn in the same dictionary to "Privilege" as applies in this matter:

"Discovery: When interrogatories, depositions or other forms of discovery seek information which is otherwise privileged, the party from whom it is sought may claim his privilege. Fed. R. Civil P. 26; Fed. R. Crim. P. 16. See "Protective order"; Work product rule. [H: The latter "Work Product Rule" deals with notations, etc., of parties in preparation of their case, presentation, articles and other materials relevant to a given profession or occupation."

OK, let us consider a protective order and what that might mean:

"Protective Order: Any order or decree of a court whose purpose is to protect a person from further harassment or abusive service of process or discovery; see e.g. Fed. R. Civil P. 26(c); Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(d)(1). See also Gag order; Protection order."

Let us now look at the first portion of definition of "Harassment" and see if that, too, fits this particular case in point of Mr. and Mrs. Ekker at the hands of opposing attorney:

"Harassment: As defined in federal statute providing for a civil action to restrain harassment of a victim or witness, is "a course of conduct directed at a specific person that causes substantial emotional distress in such person and serves no legitimate purpose." 18 U.S.C.A. sub. 1514(c)(1). Term is used in a variety of legal contexts to describe words, gestures and actions which tend to annoy, alarm and abuse (verbally) another person; e.g., the use of "obscene or profane language or language the natural consequence of which is to abuse the hearer or reader...."

Now let us move on to a definition that DOES also fit this case in point where all documents, writings, articles, backup material, sources and resources are demanded.

"Newsman's privilege (Black's Law Dictionary): The alleged constitutional right (freedom of speech and press) of a newsman to refuse to disclose the sources of his information. (See Shield Laws).

"SHIELD LAW. Statutes affording a privilege to journalists not to disclose in legal proceedings confidential information or sources of information obtained by them in their professional capacities. Cf. N.Y. McKinney's Civil Rights Law sub. 79-h.

"RELEVANCY: ...Relevant evidence is such evidence as relates to, or bears directly upon, the point or fact in issue, and proves or has a tendency to prove the proposition alleged; evidence which conduces to prove a pertinent theory in a case. It does not mean evidence addressed with positive directness to the point but that which according to the common course of events, either taken by itself or in connection with other facts, proves or renders probable the past, present or future existence or nonexistence of the other.

"Relevancy of evidence refers to its probative value in relation to the purpose for which it is offered. Term describes the logical relationship between a proffered item of evidence and a proposition that is material or provable in a given case."

So, in plain questioning: What could Mr. Horn's asking Mrs. Ekker if she is "anti-Semitic" have to do with an advertised public auction sale of the property on which Ekkers held a land contract eight years ago? THERE WAS NO SALE! THAT IS THE ONLY ISSUE AT POINT!

If the opposition in this case actually believes there was no funding with the Ekkers on that "sale day" would not that have been established AT THE SALE? And, further, is it plausible that if there was or was not a sale it could have been settled immediately by holding the said-sale which would require valid currency exchange, OR, by honoring the request of the Ekkers and their attorney for and by "request for another sale" being granted wherein the Ekkers even offered to PAY FOR THE SALE. After all, a sale only costs at most, a couple of hundred dollars! THERE WAS NO SALE!

And remember: The auctioneer in point gets somewhere around $21 to $25 to call a sale. In this case, however, there is some $800 TO $1,000 UNACCOUNTED. Don't you find it interesting how many times Mr. Horn repeated the supposed sale amount, which is some $800 more than the advertised amount?

Now to further consider what information could be in any journals and news items relevant to this case requires stretching of the imagination since Mrs. Ekker was NOT writing journals or newspaper articles at the time in question. The NO SALE in point was dated May 24th, 1988. She began her work, if you check the journal publications, over a year afterwards! This is not a double or triple murder trial, readers, this is a civil confrontation over one point: Ekkers went to purchase their home with viable and liquid funds in hand. THERE WAS NO SALE AS ADVERTISED OR NOTIFIED VIA CERTIFIED MAIL AND POSTING OF PROPERTY. Would you not think Santa Barbara Savings would be at least as concerned about THAT auctioneer as Ekkers? Wouldn't you think that there would be NO COVER-UP instead of joining in a conspiracy of giving him 3 non-existent witnesses and a real estate agent as observers? Something is WRONG WITH THIS PICTURE! So, what does Mrs. Ekker's attitudes about Semites have to do with that day eight years ago? Or with ANYTHING? Is this not a good example of intimidation and harassment of a published journalist? Is Mr. Horn Anti-Christ? Does this disallow him from continuing to be a lawyer? Now, how, for goodness sakes, can being pro-Semite AND pro-Christ end up corrupting her to the point of Mr. Horn's disdain and insulting demeanor? Mr. Horn is a lawyer asking the questions and Mr. Green is the one who publishes selected nasty notations FROM THESE DEPOSITIONS all over the globe, so one feels one has the right to speak in journalistic/diary fashion on these parties and subjects. The JUDICIAL system is a point of great interest to the public as well. And, Mrs. Ekker can read a dictionary as well as anyone around, I would presume.

Mr. and Mrs. Ekker are the epitome of a journalistic TEAM which identifies both as JOURNALISTS. Moreover, all published material has a basis under published materials whereby ALL is available to anyone and everyone unselectively, including Mr. Horn. Does this not reek of control of press, speech and FREEDOM OF RIGHTS UNDER THE CONSTITUTION AND BILL OF CITIZEN'S RIGHTS?

Even Mr. and Mrs. Clinton seem to have RIGHTS of non-disclosure, or whatever they CHOOSE to invoke. Does it mean that Ekkers have no right to forget a thing after eight years, or is it a ban on their rights if they keep notes? And, if a victim is bound to truth—WHY IS NOT THE ATTORNEY? Mr. Horn gave the Discovery Masters totally erroneous information in his case summary without seeming negative recourse for the lies and semi-lies. He didn't even get the amount of the check in point correct. If a printed number cannot be repeated accurately, then how can you trust ANYTHING ELSE IN THE DOCUMENT? Well, the document was not presented in time to correct anything nor even have Ekkers' attorney read it, so what have you? Is THIS TRUTH written in this journal entry somehow against the law because it focuses on an attorney who misinformed through his own writings? Lawyers obviously have privileges that citizens do NOT have; but, do they have more rights than media or press journalists and newspaper writers who speak the truth or, at the most, their OPINIONS? I would think that, as an OFFICER OF THE COURT, it would be less than correct, even politically, to introduce invalid and irrelevant documents or statements—or to remove ANY documents which are part of a court FILE from that file and dispose of them elsewhere. I believe, further, that it is unlawful to dispose of documents of pertinent relevance to a particular case ongoing as claimed now by Mr. Horn of his client's disposal of old manuals and procedures which are THE DIRECT INSTRUCTIONS TO AUCTIONEERS AND EMPLOYEES, AUCTION RULES AND REGULATIONS AND THUS AND SO.

This case is a CIVIL matter and when information of total lies from a recognized criminal in Montana is utilized and scattered around, by the opponent, is not TRUTH suitable for the defense? Mr. Horn is now basing all of his CASE on George Green's offerings; is this not really INTERESTING? George Green did not even enter the lives of Ekkers until the Fall of 1989. The NO SALE was in May of 1988. Isn't there SOMETHING wrong with this picture? Further, all the Nevada confrontations in the courts of Nevada are being stalled to see what Mr. Horn can do to Ekkers. Well, not much, readers, except deal misery on Easter week-end. Now isn't that an interesting TIME for holding depositions: Good Friday and Easter Saturday? How many COURTS do YOU find in lighted operation on "any" Friday and, much the less, Saturday? Does this perhaps smell of Anti-Christ?

Oh, and the involved parties don't like the terms used here? What do YOU call "taking secretly and burying the evidence", $350,000 in gold coins? What do YOU call coming into a Corporation Agent's office in his ABSENCE and taking corporation records and refusing to return them even AFTER the law has set the records to correct in the STATE? What do you call getting assets while actually on a Board of Directors of a corporation from which you took them? What do you call taking a sum of $23,500 AND obtaining a note in behalf of YOUR CORPORATION and then dumping the corporation and taking and selling the property first acquired with the unlawful diversion of the funds? What would YOU CALL THE PARTIES RESPONSIBLE FOR THE FIDUCIARY CARE OF THAT CORPORATION FROM WHICH THINGS WERE TAKEN IF NOTHING WERE DONE TO CORRECT THE PROBLEM? What would YOU call ones who deliberately did these actions while in a responsible position, trying then to ruin everyone else involved by destroying the corporation in point? I call them thieves, cheats and liars and they don't LIKE it. Moreover, YOU WHO AID AND ABET such actions fit the same defined categories, IN MY OPINION! You who EXCUSE selves because you don't agree with Ekkers' ideas regarding Right and God are interesting enough in your own right. What is YOUR relationship with God of Truth, Light, and Integrity? YOU in your aiding and abetting are, in my humble opinion, WORSE than the ordinary criminal for you KNOW BETTER AND THE ACTIONS ARE DELIBERATE AND PREMEDITATED.

All efforts from here have been to settle these issues and ALLOW correction through civil courts instead of the Criminal System wherein the actions deserve to be handled and likely shall as they need come before a Grand Jury. But the culprits only continue the efforts to destroy and TAKE and hide and accuse. Fine, when the efforts to correct the errors are refused, the Law will take its course for each party involved has to defend self. Talking a big game of what you "wish" to happen is not that upon which life is based. Your "druthers" are not too important in the ending judgments. Didn't Mr. Green tell you that the sword of TRUTH has double edges and the lies shall be uncovered? No? Didn't you ask him? How about Abbott? Did you not ask him? Oh, you asked J.Z. Knight and Ramtha? So be it, master.

Is (d)harma some kind of a God Fanatic nit-wit? What does that have to do with NO SALE in May, 1988?? Perhaps it might even mean that SHE HAS A RECORD OF TELLING THE TRUTH, ACTING IN HONESTY AND INTEGRITY AND SHE AND E.J. HAVE DONE EVERYTHING THEY CAN DO TO SERVE HONORABLY AND WITH JUSTICE AND INTEGRITY. What is YOUR record showing? What might be your SOUL status? How many letters, documents and calls do you do, as a SNITCH? Unsigned? Incorrectly signed? Anonymously conjured and presented? Ah, indeed! Why? Privacy is one thing—hiding from your own ill-intentioned sinful actions is quite another. Further, hiding criminal actions is even yet ANOTHER. Privacy will be considered and maintained with all possibility; criminal actions will NOT be covered. You do exactly that which you choose and will, it is none of my business—but you shall stand responsible for the consequences of those choices. Further, you can gather and "justify", "excuse", "vote in righteousness to suit your wishes", etc. It simply will not sell for there remains "RIGHT" and "WRONG" and the two shall never be as ONE. Neither will basing your wrong actions on another's wrong action produce a right; it simply COMPOUNDS the deliberate WRONG. You who act in these dishonorable ways and still shout, "WHAT HAS GONE WRONG?", "What is wrong with our world?", "How did our nation reach this point of corruption?", and, "What has happened to our children?" and all the other "what has..." that relate to downfall, degradation and wrong-doing, shall some day realize that YOU ARE WHAT WENT WRONG! Especially you who shout your GOODNESS and RIGHTEOUSNESS while DOING wrongful actions in total intent to damage.

What does YOUR disbelieving in Doris' God have to do with anything? Hers seems quite demanding of honor, truth, and integrity—WHERE DOES YOURS FIT? The ONE GOD OF LIGHT AND RIGHTEOUSNESS is not promoting right actions and thoughts and intents one moment, and sanctioning evil behavior within the lies the next, people. Until you understand this, you ain't got the right God of LIGHT or the right teacher-leader. You who follow George Green down the lies and primrose pathway to cover your own WRONG actions and intents will not change an iota of the RIGHTNESS or WRONGNESS of both your actions AND YOUR INTENTION TO COMMIT WRONG ACTS. WOULD YOU CONDONE YOUR OWN ACTIONS WERE THE ROLES REVERSED? I THOUGHT NOT! YOU WOULD BE DEMANDING THAT THE PEOPLE WITH THE FIDUCIARY RESPONSIBILITY ACT, AND ACT QUICKLY AND THOROUGHLY IN YOUR BEHALF. Because YOU broke the rules and lost your integrity and honor, does NOT mean that others have a responsibility to break theirs. You, further, who act and then lie to the LAW and judicial parties to the LAW, shall fall to the same. Judges really don't like, especially their own officers of the courts, lying, cheating and misrepresenting in their courts and to the Bench. It is degrading to any JUDGE to have such behavior condoned in his court which reflects on his own good judgement and rulings.

Mr. Abbott has gone even further in insulting the Judge after having a ruling made against him. What is a system that allows such incredible and insipid behavior? Should we expect more? YES! Will you GET more? Well, it is YOUR WORLD AND YOU'RE THE ONES CREATING THE ALLOWANCE AND EVEN THE DEMANDS UPON YOUR LAWYERS. Your wanting to WIN at all costs only degrades the system further, IF YOU BE WRONG. And you aiding-and-abetting players: THINK! What are YOU going to gain from destroying the very hand that holds your own gain? Perchance you are biting the wrong hand? Well, again, it is your life and your choices but if you think GOD condones ill-behavior, you are WRONG. Allowing and condoning are two very different perceptions.

I continually find it most interesting that so many people will REFUSE to go to the party with the key to the lock-box being sought (or claimed to be) for opening, but will join with the crooks who are setting dynamite to blow up the box and all contents while actually HIDING from the one with the key who is ready, willing and able to OPEN THE BOX. People, you witness miracles every day—and this is one of the most visible miracles of stupidity that I can express. Remember that a "miracle" is but a "perception" of MIND.

Remember too that all people have differing aspects of that ONE experiencing personality and expression. Which aspect do you present and where and when do you express it? Do you have the pious face of the fool as you tout innocence only to be in actuality playing the part of the idiot? If you do not realize your own lessons

Our Pleiades Roots And Role Of Wisdom

4/3/96 #1 HATONN

PLEIADES CONNECTIONS

I want to talk about myself for just a minute because I think that most of you have forgotten some of the early lessons on homelands and visitors from those homelands. You of my tribe come through routing through Pleiades constellation. Therefore, realize it now that that place is your "twin" in that it is source, resource and will again become your life-line. No, EVERYONE does NOT come FROM there nor shall GO there. No, as such, I AM NOT a Pleiadian but most of the travelers with whom I dwell ARE Pleiadians. I suggest you refer back to some of the early Journals. I am not yet ready to deal with the non-Lighted races or tribes of Cosmic origin.

From Ancient Greece came a bit of a poem which might be interesting to share again with you—so you can get your bearings as you observe the HEAVENS:

*"The heaven by night is full of marvels,
There is an evening star,
Hesperus, fairest of the stars, sharer of
The throne of Aphrodite,
One lovers know so well,
A group of seven stars, the Pleiades.
They are, as it were, the nymphs of heaven.
As doves, the Pleiades, they bring to Zeus ambrosia, yet at the same time
They are comely Goddesses... The daughters Of the Titan Atlas and spouses of the Gods."*

If you search the skies for signs and signals from extraterrestrial civilizations, search carefully in the Pleiades, readers.

Right now in the cycle of heavenly order, you will, in the late evening time find the Pleiades and then that which will appear to be just beneath the constellation will be the BRIGHTEST "Light" in the heavens. That, readers, is MY SHIP. I do not care WHAT THE ASTRONOMERS TELL YOU IT IS, IT IS MY SHIP, THE PHOENIX! We are more frequently now strobing the rainbow lights for recognition but not so steadily as are the other craft placed around your viewing arena. And, NO, I do not care whether or not you believe me. Your "belief" in ignorance and my truth in KNOWING are two quite differing perceptions in FACT.

This seemingly "small" cluster of stars, well known even if only visible best through peripheral-vision sight, is actually very big and VERY BRIGHT. Is it too far away or too close—which is it? Neither, it is exactly PERFECT in placement. You are simply constrained by your visual limitations in that the Pleiades has the type of Light that is seen best through the rods of the eye and not through the cones of the physical eye. There is a good REASON for that phenomenon but that is for another day and another lesson on "vision".

This "little" cluster of "somethings" is recognized throughout history and right into the current myths of all original tribes. They have been known as the "Seven Sisters", the "Daughters of Zeus", "The seven nymphs of Poseidon" as associated with "Dorian" woman. As the "daughters of Zeus" they are called Maia, Electra, Celaeno, Taygeta, Asterope, Merope, and Alcyone. Mothers of Greek gods, they are believed to have been turned into stars by Zeus so that they might be safe from Orion, who had chased them for several years. There are no stars so widely acclaimed as these; their beauty and grace are spoken of in literature from all cultures, past and present.

The Pleiades were among the FIRST stars mentioned in astronomical literature, appearing in Chinese annals of 2357 B.C.

BEGINNINGS

Sappho, Euripides and Homer referred to the Pleiades in their writings. Later, in The Rubaiyat written by the poet-astronomer Omar Khayyam in 1123, they were referred to as "the Begetters", as "beginning all things"; while half a world away, ancient Peruvian legend identified the Pleiades uniquely as "the arbiters of human destiny". In China, they were worshipped by young women as "the Seven Sisters of Industry", and in ancient times were known as "Mol", the constellation "Or Gang". Milton called them "the Seven Atlantic Sisters". Manly P. Hall, in The Secret Teachings of All Ages, stated that, "The sacred Pleiades were famous to freemasonry as the Seven Stars of the upper end of The Sacred Ladder." As "the Seven Sisters" they are familiar to most, and as "the Seven Stars" they are one of the few star clusters mentioned throughout the Bible. And boy, does that one make the Khazarians mad as Hell and they refuse to take it any longer!

The German astronomer Bessel stated that the Pleiades are literally a cluster of suns drifting together in one direction, led by the brightest of the seven, Alcyone, which the early Arabs referred to as Al Jauzah or Al Wasat. Now, for a personal reference if I might: I, Hatonn (Aton) am also known to some AS Alcyone, but more often in the circles of the Ancient lands I am often referred to as El Wasat. I think you can cooly remember that by another term phonetically spelled Al What-is-that (Whatzat?). Al became recognized better as El because it indicates "elder".

Now, I don't suggest you rush out to your local mountain top and make a fool of yourselves. Number one, the star system is not made up of suns, although they could be claimed to be honored as SONS of the ONE LIGHT, ATON. Now you may be able to relate to the label "Hatonn" a bit more easily. Again, if Duggah told you differently, remember something: I have a much longer history than does a Duggah from the constellation Orion and in-between mislabeled spot-check-points. I even go back further than the old buddies, Ramtha or Bashar (meaning "Commander" or "messenger") from Assassenia. Boring or not, makes no difference to me for TRUTH stands infinitely—and therefore, so too shall I. Now, good friends and readers, it must be noted that Alcyone shines to its sister stars with eighty-three times the brilliance of Sirius and that its brilliancy is one thousand times greater than that of your Sun.

Located in the constellation TAURUS, the Bull, the Pleiades (Plee' ya deez) look like a small reproduction of the Big Dipper and are often mislabeled the Little Dipper or the Wee Dipper. They are approxi-

and examples to SELF—then please realize the impact YOU AND YOUR ACTIONS ARE HAVING ON OTHERS WHO MAY VERY WELL CONSIDER YOU TO BE CRIMINALS, FOOLS AND BUFFOONS. Even the ones who will use your degrading material despise you and count you a disgraceful fool. They will come back to smite you for your invalid input when they face their own music which you have erroneously and deliberately orchestrated incorrectly and badly. I suggest that Mr. Horn may very well come back against all you INFORMERS OF WRONG INFORMATION, for he is, at worst, an excellent and shrewd legal mind and, at best, he uses that talent against his perceived enemy. False information acted upon is about the worst thing a lawyer can encounter if he foolishly uses same. Moreover, he has all your information, addresses and evidence RIGHT IN HIS PACKET of tricks. George Abbott and David Horton will be blown away by this lawyer in the blink of an eye. Mr. Horn is not my enemy; he is simply an opponent regarding a fact in dispute. Worse, he is having to struggle with holding a case with WRONG information and cover for wrong or negligent actions compounded by conspiratorial parties. That is a hard position to have to tolerate and yet he struggles on in behalf of his clients, right or wrong. You who set him up in lies are not going to be his best friends—even if he won on such garbage. Truth "losing" is nothing new, my friends, and to win with only the lies is not an asset for the soul of a lawyer who must bear his own shame forever after. You who contribute to that shame are not popular, only useful tools to be as rapidly dispatched and discarded as is possible. He must realize that if you have fed him one lie—all else is suspect and undependable, even beyond his own misrepresentation. Misrepresentation piled upon misrepresentation soon becomes OBVIOUS MISREPRESENTATION OF THE WHOLE! Every lawyer, perceived good or bad, tests your OWN qualities of judicial righteousness or "getcha", whichever is the point of your "game". In the old right judicial system, JUSTICE was the name of the game. Today it is simply who can wiggle to win a point. Justice is no longer just blindfolded but bound by infinite cords of injustice. Society as a whole becomes the VICTIM, not just the little guy who hangs with right and truth and is bashed by the system biased against your "rights".

Realize please, in addition, that a jury's vote as to right or wrong is not the deciding factor of right or wrong, for that merely shows that one lawyer may well be better at argument and projecting his truth or lies to the crowd. A jury can only form a joint opinion at best. And, further, that is usually based on one lawyer or the other lawyer—the victim rarely has a chance to even be heard. What do I mean? Well, in eight years Ekkers have NEVER BEEN ALLOWED A HEARING!

So much for this morning. Thank you for allowing us this opportunity to speak, write and utilize our limited ability to have freedom under the Constitution. It is difficult to realize that journalistic freedoms are so limited as to allow total loss of the freedoms under your Bill of Rights as citizens of a ONCE great nation.

May you walk in truth and light so that you are never confused by that truth in presentation. Truth will stand long after the lies are buried and gone from the memories of Mankind.

Good morning.

DUNAGIN'S PEOPLE

"If Taiwan falls, does anyone remember how to manufacture anything?"

mately 500 light-years from Earth as calculated by mortals who have no idea of what they speak. The stars of the Pleiades are clustered closer together than in ordinary space, averaging no more than one light-year between stars.

Muhammad once said: "When these stars rise, all harm rises from the Earth." Well, good buddies, we are about ready to RISE. The Phoenix is getting ready to ascend. No, we have no interest in taking the problem children of your Universe or your planet with us.

Why has this distant star group had a much greater importance throughout antiquity than the other more dominant star clusters in the night sky? Their positions in the heavens at various key times throughout the calendar year does not fully account for the remarkable influence attributed to the Pleiades by a myriad of cultures, past and present. Why have historical researchers recently found so many references to the Pleiades in historical and religious texts worldwide which are parallel in their impact to a profound reference appearing in the Koran, the holy book of Islam? The Koran tells of Najm, considered to be the cluster of seven stars known as the Pleiades, from which a spirit came to talk with the prophet Mohammed. Surprisingly, the reference indicates that the spirit (or angel Gabriel [Elder Gabri]) came from those seven stars to tell Mohammed of the laws the Moslems were to live by and follow. And indeed this is so! Whether or not you like it, Esu Immanuel (the entity Saul of Tarsus dubbed "Jesus") IS THE SON OF GABRIEL. At Easter passing it is a good idea to come to realize this FACT.

Another interesting thing for you nice readers to "connect the dots" in the puzzle is to realize that astronomers will refer to such as Pleiades cluster as relative to the same cluster type of Hyades. Are the lights blinking on a bit? How would you pronounce, phonetically, Hyades? Ah ha, we are beginning to get some of the "beginning", are we not? I am NOT interested in Orion as such but I think you nice people had best look at the Hyades Constellation for some interesting data references.

Please pay attention for this is important. The motion across the sky can confirm that the stars in each group as named are physically associated by some type of "gravity" or system which causes them to move together through space. Clusters such as the Hyades and Pleiades, which contain fewer than 100 to several hundred stars, are usually found in or near the Milky Way; hence they are called galactic clusters or, sometimes, OPEN CLUSTERS because their density of stars is low (only a few stars per cubic light year). It is assumed that these systems must have a common origin and so have similar ages and compositions. And so it came to pass in the system of God that strange things emerged!

I would like to move on from this pointed lesson in Astronomy but I would like you to make a few very important CONNECTIONS. We tried to offer this information in our "Pleiades Connection" series, which is now banned, but we can get the same lessons out through being given enough time for (d)harma's fingers to do the task and offering the diagrams with small perceptive headings by Tom Astley of South Africa. The POINT to remember is that all things are simply LIGHT. LIGHT IS GOD of all CREATION and from that THOUGHT OF GOD, IN THE TOTAL STILLNESS, COMES THE MANIFESTATION OF MAN AND ALL "THINGS". WISDOM IS THE GREATEST OF ALL PROJECTIONS OF MIND IN WHICH LIGHT IS MIND AND THEREFORE IS GOD.

Wisdom is the light and wherever the light flashes up, there darkness and ignorance disappear. Ignorance is the essential darkness and can only be overcome by the light of wisdom.

Wisdom is the mark of the existence of the spirit and disguises itself in the qualities of truth, poise, knowledge, beauty, harmony and peace.

Wisdom is also the mark of a human who has recognized the existence of his spirit and works with it according to the Creational laws, for wisdom and the spirit are two factors which react as one, much in the same way as the Sun and sunlight... both give warmth and light. Semjase.

And, Little Crow:

"Waksape" (wisdom).

"What we are looking for, we already are. What we are seeking, we already own. What we would like to find out, we already know."

No, I took liberties for he did not head this speaking with "Wisdom" as a heading. But it says it all, does it not? Wisdom is the RECOGNITION AND RELATIONSHIPS OF ALL THINGS IN BALANCE AND HARMONY! Therefore, wisdom is Light, Light is God, and so then, God is Wisdom. The circle IS infinite! Therefore, if YOU gain WISDOM—you shall gain GOD.

Now, let us look at the Lakota "medicine wheel" in its four important concepts: Woksape (Wisdom), Wacantognaka (Generosity), Woohitika (Bravery) and Wowacintanga (Fortitude). Friends, it requires all the four great characteristics to attain the most important goal of all: WOKSAPE (Wisdom). It requires first the GIVING and RE-GIVING in Generosity that you might separate ego from the grabbing and greedy intentions. The gaining of Wisdom demands fortitude for the way will be riddled with obstacles and therefore Woohitika (Bravery) is necessary for the cowardly fall to the way and become the very handmen and maidens of the Satanic Anti-Spirit of Truth and God. When you meet the Anti-Christ in ANY form, you have met your enemy and when you become your enemy—you cannot be within GOD! Since "Satan" and "God" are the two recognized English Language representatives of the opposite poles of existence, is it not better to simply ask if you are "Anti-Satan" or "Anti-God"? Why all the "anti-Semitism" and "anti-Christ"? Satanism is running behind the curtain of "Semitism" which is not even a proper word. But remember, readers, Satan never uses the EXACT term after he side-tracks you and it is always THE MAJOR SIGN. Confusion as to everything is the trickster's major asset. "Christ" is simply a definition relating to the State of Being in Goodness. It is not a proper name!

This is why God has expressed that "You are either with me or against me." There is no actual middle road except in the perception of mortal Man. You are either moving TOWARD God or AWAY from God—ALWAYS. Evil is simply a term used when the direction of "movement" is AWAY from God. The "directions" are described as LIGHT OR DARK, WHITE OR BLACK, ALL OR ABSENCE OF ALL COLOR. There is ALWAYS a "cause" and an "effect". There is always duality of sexing and when you have something pop out at you like Hyades and Pleiades you had best look at it for one represents Hell and the other Heaven. Where do YOU come from and where are you GOING? I represent God, so, you are either for me or against me and you may well begin to KNOW, without DOUBT, that if you are against me—I AM AGAINST YOU IN YOU SIMPLE ASSUMPTION OF STATUS. Don't tell me your "intentions" are pure when you show that you are "against me". Oh, you just don't believe me? So what, you don't have to believe ME to act in goodness instead of criminal or evil actions delivered to deliberately destroy me and mine. If you act deliberately to DESTROY GOD or that which IS GOD'S (which is the SAME THING) THEN YOU SHALL BE DESTROYED—BY YOUR OWN HAND. ASK IN ALL SINCERE INTENT IN DESIRE FOR THAT WHICH IS OF GOD AND YOU SHALL SURELY RECEIVE FOR THAT CALL COMPELS THE ANSWER—ACCORDING TO YOUR BEST AND HIGHEST GOOD AND ACCORDING TO THE FULFILLMENT OF HIS TRUTH AND GOODNESS.

Will I, for instance, zap my enemy? No, I will point the way through the petitions of those who seek truth, to find that tool necessary to offset the ability of the enemy to damage further. You will see through example what I mean if you will but stay tuned to this station. If you jump off a 1500-foot cliff—expect to have a very hard landing. It is best to have the TRUTH on your side with the umbrella of a good parachute and a few GOOD angels. If the cliff is only 25 feet high you might well have a good near-death experience, but at 1500 feet in depth/height, the landing will surely give you an interesting sure-death experience if some good flying angels don't come along and you forgot your God-parachute. Some of you local enemies are not going to like the position you are now going to find selves experiencing in total consequence of YOUR OWN ACTIONS.

You who continue to serve the dark energies have been given years of opportunities to turn from your silly ego-tripping but you have only increased your assaults. Fine, for the backwash will be your own UNdoing! All the combined lies in the world will NOT MAKE YOU RIGHT. My people who have paid dearly will be given and shown the WAY to win, my good teachers of how NOT to act, and you shall be left totally WITHOUT. You on that "black road" are going down, brothers. I can promise you that much: YOU ARE GOING DOWN! Would God act in this manner? ABSOLUTELY! For every "cause" there is a return "effect" and the effect of the cause you have chosen to manufacture is going to give you the most unpleasant "effect" as the cycle moves on in its infinite realization. You have all been "BAD" ENOUGH FOR A VERY LONG TIME—THE PORTION OF THE WHEEL OF JUSTICE IS MOVING BACK TO SOME FORM OF "GOOD" AND LIARS, CHEATS, AND THIEVES ARE GOING DOWN! Hold it in your hearts as surely as there is a Pleiades and a Hyades!

I don't like to even equate such as Hyades with being somehow "bad" for, as with all things, whatever IS, simply IS. But the Lakotas have a term which is "heyoke" which means: sacred clown. Well, the world is filled with sacred clowns doing their tricks and misadventuring. They entertain and distract but in the ending the sorting is accomplished. I, further, refer to all things as SACRED so you can assume I mean, simply, "clown". So in that explicit understanding I can call my favorite heyoke, Green, my best example of how NOT to act or what intentions are going to pull yourself "down". I do not ever mean to offend the meanings given language by any peoples. My "nagi" (soul) is within the "can gleska" (sacred circle) upon the "owanka wakan" (holy place, altar) of Wakan Tanka (The Great Spirit, THE GREAT MYSTERY). In this journey I am of the Wakinyan (The thunderbirds or thunder beings) and I serve with the Wamblika (the LIGHT or "white" EAGLE) and we come from "wi" (the Sun—son) and we can be called "wowakan" (something supernatural).

You will try to commit us to simply being from Pleiades or wherever, but the TRUTH and FACT of the matter is that we come from "maka sitomni", "mahpiya", "late topa", "mitakuye oyasin" (that is, the universe, the sky [heaven], the four directions, for all our relations).

Aho!

TELEPHONE HOTLINE

805-822-0202

This is a service for our dedicated readers. Today's Watch telephone hotline carries the latest news and comments from Commander Hatonn's most recent writings. This is our way of keeping you informed about fast-breaking news and events.

The message machine will answer after 2 rings if there are any new messages for that day, and after 4 rings if not. Thus daily callers can hang up after 2 rings and save toll charges if no new message has been recorded. The message update(s), if any, occur by 6 PM Pacific Time.
