Tough Times Here For CONTACT And Nation As Adversary's Plan Unfolds

4/19/96 #1 HATONN

HIGH HOLY DAYS OF SATAN

This day of April 19, being the annual celebration of a High Holy Day of Satan, we have to pay attention but certainly also be observant of possibilities. There is plenty to note for you have to understand the differences in the way of "counting" in various clocks and calendars. Many things which happen in the westernmost part of Canada may well be a day later in the western part of, say, Palestine. For instance, the bombing of the UN refugee center by the Israelis "yesterday" was actually "today" in Westernmost Canada or the US or Mexico. This is a SECRET day of ritual bloodshed so you will not find the eagerness for sharing other than to related coincidental events being counted for your viewing.

Was this an accident, this bombing of innocents? Perhaps only "The Shadow" knows—or perhaps there are reasons for bombing people attached to Christian teachings. The "so-called Christians" don't have any corner on

CONTACT Changes To Every-Other-Week Publishing Until Further Notice

It has been awhile, as many of you readers must have noticed, since last I took to the podium in this manner of communication. We have been so increasingly blessed with fine and expansive contributions of journalism that they have mostly stood on their own, without the need for much in the way of extra editorial introduction or narrative.

But such a relentless outpouring of truth as CONTACT provides is, of course, an annoying beacon of Light to those who live in darkness. Some lash out in hopes of silencing the truth. Others go to great lengths of deception, through perversion of the art and science of journalism, to make that which is fabrication appear genuine. Discernment of what is REALLY going on becomes difficult, if not impossible, especially within normal limits of human attention or endurance.

Right now CONTACT faces the problem of attack, once again, through puppets of the dark forces who are all too familiar to you regular readers.

George Green and his Brigade of Legalistic Malcontents have struck again. And as they do so, generating layers upon layers of outrageous prevarication piled upon outright blarney, one cannot help but be reminded of a quip Mark Twain made many years ago: "When I was younger I could remember anything, whether it had happened or not; but my faculties are decaying now and soon I shall be so I cannot remember any but the things that never happened. It is sad to go to pieces like this."

It would, indeed, be sad enough if George's stories were simply those of a forgetful lost soul, but those whoppers frantically being spread around to "everyone", and more importantly, the motives behind them, actually carry that all-too-familiar razor's edge of purposeful attack and desire to stop the word of truth from getting out to you readers through this unique vehicle we call CONTACT.

You readers have been following along with (and are probably sick from reading about) the attacks on Doris and E.J. Ekker. Well, among all of those who contribute to CONTACT's journalistic excellence, here are two of the finest and most essential of our team. Usually Doris and E.J. function, respectively, in capacities as journalistic secretary to Commander Hatonn and as first-line editor of those most important writings.

BUT—how are they to do their part when the serious distractions of such legal harangues as George Green has engineered pile higher and higher like a mountain of smelly garbage now needing full attention?

Moreover, others who make major contributions to CONTACT's weekly offerings are likewise now under enough assault—through one avenue or another—to warrant their full attentions be turned onto legal matters. Trying to ignore the hounds of hell only works for so long and then attackers must be confronted.

So, for the present time, CONTACT must move to every-other-week publishing until further notice. Maybe this shift in attention will be just for "awhile". Maybe we will even have to actually shut down our entire publishing operation, temporarily, for "awhile".

Who knows.

We apologize for this change, readers, but the assaults just never seem to end. We have reached a time when we must focus our efforts to the task of more directly confronting those who come against us in their efforts to stop the flow of information to you, our readers.

Some of the latest tactics being executed by adversary attorney extraordinaire Steven Horn, against Doris & E.J. Ekker and the CONTACT, include supplying George Green with altered, unauthorized copies of the Ekkers' unfinished depositions in various ongoing court cases.

To call such actions illegal is an understatement exceeded only by the outright, in-your-face corruption going on each day in the modern judicial system in America. But I hardly have to remind you about that.

MEAN-while, George continues with his vicious efforts to try to sic various State and Federal authorities or agencies upon CONTACT—as if there was something to hide!

Right—the only thing we have to "hide", from embarrassment, are the unpaid bills which each month always have to await YOUR generous, heart-felt "contributions to the cause of truth" which keep us going!

Indeed, we feel you, at the least, deserve to be kept abreast of the assaults (and their effects upon us) EXACTLY because of all the generous help you readers have been providing. We consider this a basic courtesy to YOU as part of what we look upon as an extended family—whether you want to think of yourselves as "ground crew" or not. It is the intention that counts! Always.

So, because of the distracting drain both upon finances and upon manpower due to these most recent legal assaults, we simply cannot afford to publish CONTACT on a weekly basis at the present time.

For those who have walked the path, true journalism is not so much a profession as it is a mission. We here at CONTACT take that mission most seriously. It is a mission of humble service and yet we fully recognize the underlying power of the word.

Our editorials, our research articles, our news digests, and even our humorous jabs always spring from the deeper fervor of a mission to inform, to awaken, to enlighten for, as Doris Ekker puts it so well in a recent personal writing which we have chosen to share with you on page 8: "Whatever we become here, in mortality, is meaningless unless it is done for the benefit of others. It is only through others that we can find completion in ourselves. Our only true use of those wondrous talents given, is in our service, for ONLY in serving do we grow spiritually. In that service also comes the understanding of LOVE in its supreme position within God and within Self."

Indeed! And remember that we ARE still here. That's REALLY the miracle! And as Mark Twain put it, "You can never throw too much style into a miracle." We hope we always serve you, even if every-other-week for awhile, with style and grace and a dedication to truth that matches the faith you have in us.

— Dr. Edwin M. Young, Editor-In-Chief

Tough Times Here For CONTACT And Nation

Christ-teachings. Neither, however, do the non-Christians have any sole claim to violence, accidents, or bloodletting. More blood has been let to run by the so-called Christians than by the Satanic adversary. Does anyone remember the Inquisition, the Holocaust, the Crusades?

HOLOCAUST

Our enemies of personal vendetta want to call us nasty names and accuse us of denying such as the Holocaust as the misery of the World War II camps was called and is now mandatory in acceptance—BY LAW. I have never said there was no Holocaust, readers; I have only said there were other worse incidents and places in your world such as the death of millions upon millions of Christians even in the same general period of time. I said, "THE HOLOCAUST COULD NOT HAVE HAPPENED AS IS REQUIRED BY LAW TO ACCEPT." This statement certainly does not lessen the horror and/or EVIL of the circumstances. Lies, in fact, only degrade the terrible horror of even ONE who perished or was punished at the hands of ANY "other". Since there are now more "Jews" COLLECTING REPARATIONS for the Holocaust than there were Jews in Europe at the time of the "Holocaust" it is hard to believe that you are actually forced by law to state an outright lie. What of the other people who perished in the war? What of the very horror of those who perished in the "Allies" camps called "other losses", etc., in General Eisenhower's camps? And this man went on to become President of the United States of America.

DOMESTIC TERRORISTS?

Are there Domestic Terrorists? Of course. Are they the ones who are now spotted BY LAW as terrorists? No, but what else is new in your nation today? There will be great and terrible celebrations of the atrocities around the US today and topped off by more and bigger atrocities elsewhere so that FEAR and TERROR become your "control" word.

CONTACT'S BURDEN

Are WE less susceptible to Terror than are you of the general public readership? No, and I am taking as much care as possible to cause no undue focus on anything we do. For instance, read this clearly, friends: WE ARE NOT GOING TO WRITE FURTHER ON "LIGHT" AS IS SCIENTIFICALLY EXPLAINED BECAUSE GEORGE GREEN HAS ALREADY PUT INTO TRANSCRIBED PRINT THE FACT THAT HE MEASURES EVERY WORD IN CONTACT TO SEE IF THERE IS A MATCHING WORD IN ANY OF RUSSELL'S WORKS. HE CLAIMS THE SOUTH AFRICAN CONNECTION IS FALSE AND IS SIMPLY MORE IDENTICAL INFORMATION FROM RUSSELL. So be it. We do not cross the boundaries of legal orders. I believe we shall simply have to express in personal accounting. I want Doris' writing of day before the yesterday to be run in this next edition of CONTACT if you can find enough space to do so and be so kind as to share that space [see p.8]. I realize the paper is being cut back or "off" until the move can be completed and as funding lack requires [see p.2 and also near end of this writing]. However, it is important to realize that Doris is a JOURNALIST and finally, within, understands exactly what I speak of as I offer the substance of LIGHT. It has little to do with scientific breakthrough but, rather, a KNOWING in TRUTH.

Mr. Green has shot Mr. Horn in the foot with his mouth in fear that someone he has had controlled may be perchance breaking through and now comes forth with his lies which can now be proven—from his own LIPS. Will that "save" the Ekkers? Will that "save" the paper? Will that "save" you? NO, but it causes YOU ALL to go within, carefully study circumstances and better make decisions regarding good and evil intentions.

TOUGH TIMES?

Are these TOUGH TIMES? Indeed, but I remind you that "Tough Times never last—Tough People DO!" This comes as a title of a very worthy book by Robert Schuller. Within that little book of interesting thoughts is one that speaks of what to do when you confront a mountain in your pathway. You can tunnel through, go over, go around or whatever—but doing NOTHING will not get you past the mountain. So what do I mean? Dharma is being faced with psychiatric examinations, examinations of every word of her work since 1988, even to her thoughts about it all. Will it happen? Everything else dastardly seems to come about. What will be found? Truth! A journalist does not write revelation for THAT IS CALLED PROPHECY. An elder journalist is called a "commentator" whose presentations are offered in observation and opinion gleaned from experience and study. There is ENOUGH prophecy abounding, readers; you need observed commentary about what is ALREADY around you. There is not one single word of newness on your globe—NOT ONE!

FIGHTING OVER LIGHT

Walter Russell WROTE and there is great contradiction over the opinions of that work as expressed by such as President Timothy Binder of US&P and almost ALL OTHERS who study the work. Therefore, my drawing opposing opinion about the information CONCLUSIONS is but a factor in observation and understanding. We will, now, do no observations at all, including from the South African material—which came not from ANY work of Russell anywhere, anytime. Any offering we give will be from the Spiritual aspect of ALL BEINGS, ALL THINGS, AS LIGHT. I sincerely thank Mr. Green for giving us warning of the intended raid plans.

GREEN MACHINE

Now that we understand the dastardly deeds within your secret games of keeping truth silent, we shall be ever so much more careful of the new laws regarding enforced beliefs, required regulations as to censorship AND give Dharma a much needed period of time to focus on her immediate problems. This bunch of outspoken political legal wonders in Nevada are now working WITH Horn as his sole basis for continuing the property case which portion is in dispute from two years prior to anyone of them even KNOWING the Ekkers. So, we have a battle? I wonder if you actually believe so? Mr. Green has made another bad error in judgement if not in speech; he has said that "E.J. Ekker told me he was going to go down and steal that property. He took $10,000 dollars and went..." Everyone had wondered wherefrom came that repeated statement, used by Jason Brent, ex-Judge, every colleague of Greens, S. Horn, Abbott, Fort, Tuten, et al. Well, he said it himself; he SAID: "E.J. told ME..." IS THAT NOT FIRST PERSON?

Green also said, and we have it in affidavit declaration that he got the gold, surely, and E.J. knew all about it and that actually he had bought the gold from Ekkers! He is referring to the $350,000 in gold which he now says was "only worth less than $250,000 anyway..." He buried it in his yard and had to dig it up when the LAW ORDERED IT TO COURT. He now says, HIMSELF, he NEVER buried the gold and that is a lie from Ekker. He further says he "pleaded the gold to the court", meaning: I took the gold and asked the court to hold it. NO, THE GOLD WAS ORDERED BY LAW TO THE COURT! GREEN WAS ORDERED BY THE LAW TO PRODUCE THE GOLD AND TURN IT OVER TO THE COURT.

The portions of Mr. Green's wondrous announcements which should also be carefully attended is his pronouncement of putting the Phoenix Institute in receivership. "What does that mean?" he was asked. Well, he responded, it is not actually just receivership, it is "informal LIQUIDATION" WHERE PARTICIPANTS WILL BE LUCKY TO GET 10 CENTS ON THE DOLLAR IF AT ALL. NOW, does it seem REAL enough, you who plan to join him and demand a run on the corporation? Green says he is just helping Leon and Betty to get their money back. (?????). Abbott, the attorney, has already spent over $40,000 that WAS REPAID and if Leon is only going to, at best, get 10 cents on the dollar it would seem to me to be better to PRAY FOR A MIRACLE OF SURVIVAL AND THRIVING BUSINESS FOR THE INSTITUTE. Is it actually Doris who needs a psychiatrist? Well, every participant and lender has a legal and forthright CASE against these blackballers. Mr. Green was an officer and director of the Institute while he planned the raids and stole the very products of the Institute. The plan is laid forth on HIS OWN STATIONERY AND IN HIS OWN PRESENTATION AND DIAGRAMS. Ladies and gentlemen, he wants to shut down CONTACT because he wants to silence this particular truth from public knowledge.

He further says that Leon's good attorney, Abbott, is "SO POLITICALLY STRONG AS TO INSURE THE CASES WIN, AND MORE THAN THAT, HE (ABBOTT) IS GOING AFTER THE LAWYERS STUPID ENOUGH TO DEFEND THE INSTITUTE AND/OR THE EKKERS." We have to assume that is true because every one THUS FAR has folded. So what else is new...?

Not only has Mr. Green said these things, he has written them and had giant mailing campaigns and dozens of the packages have been sent to us—right from Bozeman, Montana. Most people don't pay attention to them but all on the mailing lists of the paper, which Green TOOK also, have received these documents. The documents are pulled from his own lying documents from court, out of context, or just outright fabrications of facts. This is now listed as interfering with business, insider theft, perjury, felony grand theft, using the mails to commit criminal activities, diversion of funds, and on and on. He is NOW responsible for distribution of unfinished, unchecked (and incorrect) recent depositions which he could only have obtained, prior to clearing, from HORN. Moreover, he is telling his contacts in his frantic desire of stopping people from even coming to visit "me", to JUST READ THE DEPOSITIONS. How can they "just read the depositions", Mr. Green-Mr. Horn? Perhaps the Judge would also like to know how they CAN JUST READ THE UNRELEASED, UNCORRECTED, DEPOSITIONS? Ah, but you guys have done this always before, haven't you, while attaching a selected statement involving a lawyer's FEE to a non-related subject. Is this shrewd? No, it is disgusting and insipid.

You, Mr. Green, have told more people that gold will skyrocket than anyone ELSE ever thought of telling. How NOW do you come along and destroy a program which will earn the lenders everything BACK with profit in order for you to somehow DESTROY and bring less than 10 cents on the dollar TO THEM!? THIS IS CRIMINAL INTENT AND ACTION TO DEFRAUD YOUR OWN PEOPLE. There are SOME PEOPLE, Mr. Green, who simply won't tolerate this action and the Ekkers become the least of YOUR problems! You THINK you have outlasted the Statute of Limitations? Perish the thought for you have continued to proffer your papers right up to this minute and it is all being revealed as we write—so, the LAST act of reference to the offended parties BECOMES the limitation "time" as the offended parties come into realization of the actions. Perhaps you, Ence/Enz, and others think it is OK to be an Officer and Director of a company and then steal from that company. That is called embezzlement and all the poison pen notes scattered around only PROVE your actions.

You claim you were going to pay back POOR MR. FORT with that gold, Mr. Green? OH BARF! YOU NEVER INTENDED TO DO ANYTHING FOR LEON FORT EXCEPT TO USE HIM TO PAY YOUR ATTORNEY, ABBOTT, TO YOUR ADVANTAGE. You further say, Mr. Green, that even poor John Schroeffer is having to USE HIS SON to defend him and get his "whatever" back? That man is NOT HIS SON and that nice "son" of Eleanor's has now stuck his own Mother AWAY out of his hair. And dear Luke Perry that you still continue to quote—was NEVER, NEVER, NEVER anything involved here. He was trying to get laws changed SO HE COULD GET HIS MOTHER'S ONLY RETIREMENT FUNDS FOR HIMSELF! Did you EVER try telling the truth, Mr. Green? Do YOU think you are going to be popular with such as Fort when the realization comes that he has LOST NOTHING UNTIL YOU SUCCEED IN DESTROYING HIM WITH LESS THAN TEN CENTS ON THE DOLLAR? Your prey, Green, is always the ones you claim to be "mentally challenged" as you call Fort, and an Alzheimer's patient as you refer to Schroeffer. There WAS LEGAL RESPONSE THAT JOHN SCHROEPFER DID NOT AND DOES NOT HAVE ALZHEIMER'S DISEASE.

Betty Tuten has lost nothing and neither has Sharri, except the "backing" of gold collateral which THEY CHOSE to forfeit undoubtedly at your, Green's, admonition. They WON'T lose a farthing UNLESS, OF COURSE, YOU, GREEN AND ABBOTT, CAUSE THE COURTS TO DAMAGE THE INSTITUTE AND BRING LESS THAN 10 CENTS ON THE DOLLAR. And Ekkers? Well, good buddy, it WON'T be chalked up to your old acquaintances, Ekkers, IF YOU AND ANYONE PULL DOWN THE INSTITUTE INTO LIQUIDATION!!!! What talent do you hold, Green, that causes people to go commit SUICIDE? You must giggle all the way to your black crypt!

You have TWO coffee plantations in Costa Rica? How nice to know. Also, how nice to know that you still have great funding and never said you didn't have riches. Further, it is so nice that you have said it again and again, and so recently yet.

You repeat that there is $10 million that JUST THE EKKERS have squandered? What is your perception of the Institute, Mr. Green? You helped "found" it and the plan for assisting publications, projects, etc. You claim you put a lot of funds into this—and I note you say you did it 100% on your own account? Oh, that was a tacky thing to say because it simply incriminated you and your "creative" charges and financial financing pages. By the way, the farm, Green, is not longer a "failure" once free of your buddy, Ence/Enz. He even tattled, he thought, on the owner of the property who had done all the bad things to Ence/Enz, like give the children Christmas gifts, and on and on, in sharing.

You have really helped Mr. Ence/Enz's cause, in addition, Mr. Green, by telling the world that the farm was $2500 a month and Mr. Ence/Enz got another $1500 on top of that and what do you think "just that amount" does to his welfare gleanings? Anyone CLEARING without taxes or living expenses (many of which were also covered as utilities, a vehicle, etc.) OVER $4000 per month is going to get his feathers singed JUST WITH YOUR REVELATIONS!

I can only suggest you people who are so after "getting Ekkers" and "ole' Hatonn" be considering your possibilities OTHER than the "getcha game". This kind of person will undo his "buddies" just as quickly as he will undo his supposed enemies—AND HAS DONE SO! Father Cleary can proclaim every word I say to be "Bull Shit Lies" but I pause to urge you to LOOK AGAIN at what is being touted around TODAY! You nice people will NOT be afforded the reading of ALL the depositions as to who did and said WHAT IN CONTEXT; the words will be pulled out and rearranged to suit the culprits. YOU ARE GOING TO BE HURT—BADLY. If you fail to be able to buy into the truth, how come you so readily buy into the outright and proven LIES? Ekkers went NOWHERE selling anything so how is it that the very person who originally sold you his tales has now changed his tale? None of you in point came to Ekkers attention SAVE THROUGH GREEN. Is he now just angry he didn't get your funds for himself to further fill his back yard? Vilify YOU in this paper? I think you had better take a REAL, HARD LOOK at what is happening to your assets at Mr. Green's hands. Nobody has lost a farthing, I repeat, UNTIL YOU ALLOW THE INSTITUTE TO BE DESTROYED BY GEORGE GREEN! THAT INCLUDES LEON FORT AND ALL ALLIED PARTIES. ABBOTT AND HORTON WILL SIMPLY, AS LAWYERS, MAKE MORE MONEY OFF YOU TO BOOT!

LAST PAPER FOR AWHILE

I ask that in this last paper for awhile, that perhaps this writing might be also given viewing. If people don't start to THINK in wisdom, there are going to be very, very COSTLY lessons of all kinds happening right away. Nobody here has taken ANYTHING from anyone and misused it nor buried it in their back yard for safe hiding. Nobody here has sent anything OFF SHORE to hide it or convert it or roll it over to hide from taxation. Nobody here has broken any laws of God or the LAND. It would behoove you who detest me to take another look around you and see if you can't have a bit more INSIGHT. Leon once said that the LIGHT is dangerous and do NOT go to the LIGHT! He further suggested that the LIGHT will destroy you in soul. Oh? What an interesting concept! You CAN'T hide from the LIGHT but you CAN keep yourself at great disadvantage in the darkness. Leon also said that he never reads the documents from his attorney because he doesn't "understand that stuff". Well, is this a problem of Ekkers? Of all the documents on the Earth you should read most carefully are those from your attorney for they are, by far, the most costly to your physical pocketbook. Surely you don't think George Green is paying Abbott to keep the case going to serve his retirement. Abbott told Ekkers with a roomful of witnesses that he "intended to retire on this case!" Who will foot the bill for THAT RETIREMENT? Well, obviously, HIS CLIENTS! And as far as the PORTIONS of CONTACT that you study so carefully and repeat so ill-fortunately, YOU ARE READING THE WRONG PORTIONS FOR YOUR SOUL, AND AFTER ALL IS SAID AND DONE—SOUL DETERMINES YOUR JOURNEY'S DIRECTION TO OR FROM GOD OF ETERNAL PRESENCE. If you shout "justice" while you tear down the security of your brothers, to save your ego face—YOU MAY WELL EXPECT YOUR BROTHERS IN SOUL GOOD INTENT TO CONFRONT YOU—SOUNDLY. THEY WILL NOT LIKE YOUR DESTRUCTION OF THEIR PROPERTY AND SECURITY. THIS IS THE OLD SAW OF "IF I CAN'T HAVE IT BECAUSE OF MY OWN DEEDS, THEN NEITHER SHALL ANY ONE ELSE." SO, DON'T HARP ON YOUR BEHAVIOR BEING JUSTICE AND DOING IT FOR YOUR "RIGHT" ACTIONS, BETRAYORS, BECAUSE IT WON'T SELL. DO YOU ACTUALLY THINK THAT DESTRUCTION BY YOUR HANDS WILL ENDEAR YOU TO THE LOSERS AT YOUR HANDS? PEOPLE WAKE UP WHEN IT HITS THEIR POCKETBOOKS—EVEN REGARDING THE SAVINGS AND LOAN, MUCH THE QUICKER IF IT BE LAWYERS SCAMMING THE VERY JUDICIAL SYSTEM. IF EVIL WINS A SKIRMISH, FRIENDS, IT DOES NOT MEAN EVIL SHALL WIN THE WAR! BUT SKIRMISHES ARE PAINFUL AND EXPENSIVE—ON WHICH SIDE SHALL YOU BE? AND, WILL YOU WAIT UNTIL THE GAME IS OVER TO HOP IN AND DEFEND YOUR OWN PROPERTY AND RESOURCES? WE SHALL SEE FOR EACH PARTICIPANT HAS NOW A CASE TO LAY BEFORE THE BENCH OF JUSTICE IN PERSONAL CONSIDERATION. IT REQUIRES NO GUNS, NO SWORDS—ONLY TRUTH BEFORE THE LAW EVEN AS DETERIORATED AS HAS BECOME THE SYSTEM OF INJUSTICE.

GOD WILL NOT FIX IT FOR YOU. IS IT NOT TIME YOU MAKE A STAND FOR SELF?

I bid you good morning and I sincerely hope you give a LOT OF THOUGHT to this focus for "time" as you know it is running out as are the sands of this time in passage. You don't have to help the Ekkers—BUT IS IT NOT TIME TO BE RESPONSIBLE AND HELP YOURSELF?

RESPONSIBLE DECISIONS

Dharma did NOT come to this place at this time to simply WRITE. We needed to find the lizards in the crawl spaces. I am not going to ask that she put up with any more AT ALL. We will see through the assaults and then if the readers want a paper and information we will consider the circumstances. The world does NOT want truth nor LIGHT save a very few, a tiny handful. You want the evil things of possession, power and control. We offer NO security of CONTROL and no, I did not err in the use of the term. To take control involves RESPONSIBILITY and so few want responsibility of standing for goodness that it sickens me. You do whatever you want, but unless we get some support, we are going to withdraw and, at the least, let our people have a rest.

TRIAL DATE AND HINT IN TIMING

How many of you will be present at the trial over this piece of Property ON WHICH THERE WAS NO SALE? It is due, but not set into cement engraving, for early August next, the fifth. I find it interesting that it is so near the annual Mountain Festival in Tehachapi and an interesting relationship to Sipapu Odyssey. How completely interesting that Ekkers are still without control over their own existence even after more than EIGHT years. I shall marvel over the fact, IF there is a world in mid-August, THAT THERE IS A WORLD REMAINING AT THAT TIME. I will also, however, for my team, state that this is THE place to be along about that time in sequence.

ISRAEL BLASTS UN PEACEKEEPING CAMP IN LEBANON

From the April 19 (Waco/OKC bombing anniversary) issue of the (Los Angeles) DAILY NEWS, [quoting:]

QANA, Lebanon—The Israeli army fired an artillery barrage into a United Nations peacekeeping camp Thursday, killing at least 75 Lebanese civilians and wounding more than 100. The attack, which Israel said came in response to rocket and mortar fire by guerrillas near the base, was by far the deadliest yet in the 8-day-old offensive in southern Lebanon. Clinton called the events in Lebanon a "crisis". His remarks represented a shift in U.S. tactics in the wake of the Israeli attack on the Qana compound, which killed an estimated 75 Lebanese refugees. To this point the United States had been unconditional in its support of the Israeli military actions [that's for sure!]. By calling publicly for a mutual cease-fire, Clinton signaled Tel Aviv that its eight-day air and artillery campaign against Hezbollah had gone far enough. [Note this clever bit of propaganda—designed to make you think that Clinton influences Israel, when exactly the opposite is true.] In all more than 160 Lebanese have died. An estimated 400,000 have fled from their homes. [It is always wise to distrust any such statistics as understated.]

STATES' RIGHTS GETS BIG BOOST FROM SUPREME COURT

From the March 28 issue of THE MODESTO BEE, [quoting:]

WASHINGTON—In a major victory for states' rights, the Supreme Court ruled Wednesday that Congress cannot force states into federal court to settle disputes over gambling on Indian reservations. The 5-4 decision, reached over vigorous dissent, has immediate impact for about half the states, where Indian gambling is a $6 billion-a-year industry. More importantly, the court signaled a fundamental shift in the balance of powers between states and the federal government.

But just how that new alignment affects other aspects of American law may not be fully known for decades. The court said Congress cannot attempt to resolve stalled negotiations between states and tribes over on-reservation gambling by making states and their officials targets of federal lawsuits. The nation's Indian tribes are the nominal losers, but their setback could be slight. Federal law still allows them to seek help from the secretary of the interior when state officials balk at tribal plans for gambling operations.

Wednesday's ruling was extraordinary in two ways. First, it ended for Congress nearly 160 years of virtual free rein in making laws affecting American Indians. Congress still has great power in that field, the court said, but cannot subject states to federal lawsuits.

Second, the decision breathed new life into the Constitution's 11th Amendment, which protects states from being sued in federal courts against their will.

TRANSPLANTED HEART HAS A MIND OF ITS OWN

From the March 6 issue of THE MODESTO BEE, [quoting:]

When Claire Sylvia woke up from a heart-and-lung transplant operation at Yale-New Haven Hospital in 1988, she was craving new and strange things—beer and chicken nuggets. She began dreaming about a young man with the initials T.L. In her sleep, she kissed him and as their lips met, she sucked his entire body—ghost-style—into her own. Convinced that her new organs may have triggered profound change within her, Sylvia set out to discover the identity of her donor. He was an 18-year-old house painter whose names began with a T and an L. He loved cold beer and fried chicken.

After hearing this eerie story, collaborator-to-the-stars William Novak tracked down Sylvia, a dance teacher in her mid-fifties, and arranged to write her live—lives?—story. He also was intrigued by her work with other organ recipients who have had similar experiences. The result, tentatively called A Change of Heart, will be published by Little, Brown & Co. next year. [I think variations on this theme could provide lots of movie clones for a whole new thriller genre: innocent young woman (Demi?) receives transplanted heart of psychopathic murderer and... (stop me if it's already been done!) It could also open up a whole new avenue of legal defense, kind of like the now-famous "Twinkie Defense": "My transplant made me do it." The reader who contributed this piece wonders about this issue with regard to the recent transplant of baboon parts into humans (are they experiencing a strong craving for bananas?!). Hey! Although this has its amusing aspects, it's serious stuff, too. When a body part from "Jack" is transplanted into the body of "Jill", wouldn't BOTH entities be inhabiting the body from a genetic, DNA point of view? Kind of like the way your parasites take control of your appetite to insure their own survival? Remember that any one cell in a body contains the entire genetic blueprint for that entity and, as you readers know, a complete new entity can be cloned from that one cell. There is usually much, much more involved in "modern medicine's" grand "fix-its" than meets the eye!]

MEDICINE, NUTRITION LINE BLURRING

From the April 8 issue of THE ORLANDO SENTINEL, [quoting:]

WASHINGTON—Americans with high blood pressure can buy a new salt substitute that tastes like real salt, but they won't find it in grocery stores—it's in pharmacies near the aspirin. Cardi Salt Alternative is blurring the line between medicine and nutrition because it's caten under a doctor's orders to fight disease. Welcome to the new world of "medical foods", one consumer advocate says may be an expensive gimmick, but an emerging field that's attracting attention. "This is where food is going in the next 20 years," said Scott Bass, a Georgetown University food policy professor and attorney. "It's a very hot topic." [Oh, swell!]

DRUG MAKERS OFFER DEAL IN HIV SUIT

From the April 19 issue of the (Los Angeles) DAILY NEWS, [quoting:]

NEW YORK—Four drug companies accused of selling HIV-tainted blood products to thousands of U.S. hemophiliacs will offer a $600 million settlement today in an attempt to end a decade of litigation. The offer was revealed Thursday night by Bayer AG, one of the defendants on behalf of the other three, Baxter International Inc., Rhone-Poulenc Rorer Inc., and Alpha Therapeutics Inc. It will be made in letters to be mailed today to lawyers for HIV-infected patients and their families around the country.

If accepted, it could provide payments of roughly $100,000 to every American hemophiliac who contracted the virus which causes AIDS by taking tainted blood-clotting products manufactured by the companies during the early 1980s. Also covered would be the families of deceased patients and spouses or children who acquired HIV from an infected hemophiliac. The offer comes after five months of negotiations between groups representing HIV-positive hemophiliacs and the companies, said Corey Dubin of Goleta, Calif., a national leader of HIV-positive hemophiliacs.

The offer is less than one quarter the amount that some of the same companies agreed to pay Japanese hemophiliacs last month. In addition, Dubin said, the offer contains coercive provisions forcing nearly every hemophiliac to accept it—or it will be withdrawn.

Since the mid-1980s, hemophiliacs have accused the companies of putting their profits over safety by knowingly selling HIV-infected clotting products made from donated blood. Last year, courts threw out a class-action lawsuit filed by hemophiliacs attempting to consolidate all cases into one court in Chicago. However, Dubin said new evidence has emerged that strengthens the plaintiffs' case. Dubin said the companies intentionally took blood from people more likely to have HIV. "We can prove they were collecting from I.V. drug users and prison populations," he said. "They were getting plenty of cheap plasma because it served their economic interests and kept their costs down.... That's why they're at the table. They're frightened for the first time."

VIET BOAT PEOPLE SENT "HOME" AS REFUGEE CAMPS CLOSE DOWN

From the same issue of the DAILY NEWS, [quoting:]

KUANTAN, Malaysia—Sullen and defeated, 317 Vietnamese boat people shuffled down a gangplank into the hold of a Malaysian navy landing craft Thursday morning, the first to be sent back home by ship as refugee camps in Southeast Asia prepare to close down for good. For these failed migrants it was the end of a journey across the same South China Sea, begun in the hope of a new life in the West but leading only to half a decade in a crowded refugee camp. It also signaled the approaching end of the era of Vietnamese refugees that began on helicopters in the tumult of the communist takeover of Saigon in April 1975, then grew to a flood of hundreds of thousands of desperate boat people, many whom lost their lives to storms and pirates.

More than a million Vietnamese refugees succeeded in reaching the United States. Even as Thursday's shipload began its 30-hour journey to the southern Vietnamese port of Vung Tau, successful Vietnamese-Americans were flying back to visit or do business, with dollars in their pockets.

BIZARRE 'COPTERS IN CASPER

From a recent issue of the CASPER (Wyoming) STAR-TRIBUNE, [quoting:]

Just off Hat Six Road, dozens of men huddle in the unforgiving winds blowing off of Casper Mountain, peering through night vision glasses, scanning the sky. Some unknown force has been flying helicopters, sometimes in formation, through the darkness, they say, three nights a week, three hours a night, for more than a year. even when spied through $5,000 night-vision goggles, the men must identify the aircraft by their strobe patterns alone.

Reports of the sightings have reached the governor's office, the sheriff's office, the Federal Aviation Administration and the Wyoming National Guard. None of the agencies can explain what's going on. The FAA says it's investigating eyewitness reports, according to Mitch Barker at the regional office in Seattle.

Whatever the lights in the sky are, they're not U.S. military—or, presumably, any other military, says Wyoming National Guard Adjutant General Ed Boenisch, who says he's exhausted every imaginable lead and turned up no proof of training missions or operations, period. He thinks the huge sky and curvature of the Earth may be playing tricks with the men's eyes, fooling them into thinking commercial aircraft hundreds of miles away are something else. [How creative—I'm sure the observers are impressed.]

MONTANA BASHING

Not just Montana, but the entire Northwest takes a bashing from this Associated Press article which appeared in the April 7 issue of THE ORLANDO SENTINEL, [quoting:]

JORDAN, Mont.—The Northwest showed a mean streak last week. Two bombs exploded in Washington, the Unabomber suspect surfaced in Montana and a survivalist's shed blew up in Oregon. It was enough to make Montana's defiant Freemen seem like model citizens—but it hardly surprised those who know the region's history for drawing desperados of an anti-social, anti-government sort. [Lots of mind-bending propaganda in that sentence!] From old-time cattle rustlers to today's white supremacists, those with a reason to hide from the law have sought out the Northwest's rugged and sparsely populated back country. Since the March 25 arrest of two of their leaders, about 20 Freemen, wives and children have fended off the FBI from their barricaded wheat farm.

Their surliness seemed contagious:

* On Monday a pipe bomb exploded outside an office of The Spokesman-Review newspaper in Spokane, Wash. Ten minutes later gunmen robbed a nearby bank and set off a bomb. No one was injured. The methods and a letter left behind bore similarities to past crimes for which white supremacists were blamed. [Of course, it is a favorite pastime of government operatives to perpetrate terrorist activities "on behalf" of those it seeks to discredit.]

* On Wednesday a shed packed with explosives, ammunition and guns exploded 60 miles east of Portland, Ore., breaking windows in nearby homes. Shredded bomb-making literature rained down like confetti. A federal firearms charge was filed against the shed's owner.

* The same day, FBI agents nabbed a hermit living in a shack along Montana's Continental Divide. They say Ted Kaczynski is the Unabomber, blamed for three deaths and 23 injuries over 18 years.

Some conditions inviting to the violently inclined have long existed in the Northwest. Never-ending debate about how to use the region's vast federal lands [it belongs to all of us, remember!?] feeds an anti-government mood. There is also easy access to agents of destruction. Miners need dynamite. Farmers need the fertilizer that can be cooked into a bomb. And a guy with a closet full of guns around here is called a sportsman, not a terrorist. [Good grief.]

GRAIN SHORTAGES WARN OF GLOBAL FAMINE

From the April 15 issue of the SPOTLIGHT, [quoting:]

The International Grains Council has reported that global production of wheat reserves are at their lowest level in 20 years. Global production in 1995 was about 1,244 million tons, 51 million tons less than 1994 production. From Britain, as an example, comes reports that world grain prices have doubled in the past two years and of a threat of serious shortages in the next few months. In addition, according to the council, stocks of grain have slumped for the third year running, with 185 million tons in 1995, down about 33 million tons from the previous year. Globally, Russia, the United States, Kazakhstan, Argentina and Australia, among the world's largest producers, have all reported lower-than-expected harvests. Third World countries who depend upon U.S. grain to survive are expected to suffer the worst consequences.

Some of the worst news of grain shortages comes from Russia, where last year's grain crop was at a 30-year low of 66 million tons, down from 81.3 million tons of the previous year. Russia has suffered from severe drought in its southern grain-growing regions. In addition, the government cut subsidies to the collective farmers. Now the farmers' plight is made worse by their inability to buy fertilizer and machinery. The shortages come at a time in Russia when the population, particularly old people and those living in poor, rural areas, have been forced to live on bread.

The situation in Red China is becoming desperate. Due to rapid, largely unplanned, economic growth, the loss of farmland is creating demands for grain that ultimately neither China's farmers nor the rest of the world will be able to satisfy. China's population is growing at a rate of 14 million a year.

Severe famine in neighboring North Korea is causing concern throughout Asia, which fears that the North Koreans' unstable, stridently Marxist government will become increasingly belligerent to meet its food needs, including a possible move against prosperous South Korea.

Spelt

New Gaia Presents Bread Mixes, Flour & Kernels

Spelt is the most ancient and very best grain. Spelta (its more formal name) is a grain of its own unique being. It is the best fiber resource and has large amounts of B-17 (anti-carcinoma). The grain berry grows an exceptionally thick husk that protects it from pollutants and insects. It is stored with its husks intact, so it remains fresher. Thus, unlike other grains, it is not normally treated with pesticides or other chemicals. The strong, protective husk may also be a metaphorical signature of this grain's capacity to strengthen immunity. Spelt contains special carbohydrates (Mucopolysaccharides) which are an important factor in blood clotting and stimulating the body's immune system.

New Gaia offers Bread Mixes that use pure Spelt flour instead of wheat. The taste is uniquely nutty and enjoyable for the whole family. Also offered are combination Bread Mixes with both Spelt flour and whole wheat flour. Both are perfect for a 2 lb. loaf of bread which can be utilized in the Hitachi Bread Machine or others of its equal. The mixes are easy to use with only the simple addition of water, butter & sweetener. The packages come in 2 lb. sizes only.

Also available are whole spelt flour packages for your baking and homemade bread needs that come in 2 lb., 4 lb. and 8 lb. sizes.

You may also order the whole spelt kernels that can be milled at home into flour. These come in 4 lb. and 10 lb. bags.

JENNY'S BAGELS (Bread Machine)

1 1/3 c. water
2 tbl. honey
4 c. spelt flour

2 tsp. salt
1/4 c. gluten
2 1/2 tsp. yeast (1 pkg)

Put all ingredients in bread machine; let machine knead dough once, let rise in machine 20 minutes only; remove dough; divide into a rope and form into bagels. Place on a greased baking sheet; cover; let rise 20 minutes. Boil 2 inches of water in a skillet; place bagels in boiling water, 30 seconds each side; remove and drain on a towel. Place on greased baking sheet; bake 8 minutes at 400-450 degrees.

My Visit To The Grand Shrines Of Ise

4/2/96 EUSTACE MULLINS

During my travels in Japan during February, 1996, through many busy days and varied experiences, it became apparent to me that the most memorable event of my tour was my visit to the Grand Shrines of Ise (Ise is pronounced Ee-say). My hosts had explained to me that Ise was an important shrine of the Japanese people, in fact, THE most important shrine; but even this advance information did not fully prepare me for the overwhelming presence which I encountered at Ise. At the Grand Shrines of Ise, I was overcome by the revelation of the power of a great nation, and whence that power came.

The Western world has been seduced by the myth that power comes from machines. A philosophy of history, dialectical materialism or Communism, was developed to persuade us to worship the machine, in the power of the State, as the source of all power. The problem with dialectical materialism is that the machine cannot create itself; it must be built by people. Therefore, it would be more logical to worship the power which brought the machine into being, rather than the machine itself. The Communists have never been able to solve this dilemma, which explains the diminishing power of Communism as a world force.

While Communism weakens, the people of Japan continue to grow and prosper. What is their secret? I came to believe, after visiting the Grand Shrines of Ise, that this is their secret—their belief in themselves and the spiritual power which sustains them, as exemplified by the Grand Shrines of Ise.

In the Western world, we emphasize that the individual is everything, and that the individual can accomplish anything. But in fact, the power of the individual is limited by the fact that he is only one person. In order to accomplish important things, he must combine with other individuals. We have learned to do this by combining in corporations, which can amass manpower and capital, and extend their influence throughout the world. Certainly these achievements are impressive, but here again, we must ask: is there another power which makes this possible? The answer to this question can be found in the temples of a nation.

In the West, we built great Gothic cathedrals throughout Europe in the twelfth century. Although the West has prospered since those cathedrals were built, no more cathedrals were constructed. Is it not logical to expect that as the West prospered, even greater and more magnificent cathedrals would have been built? But they have not been built. There is an explanation for this. The West, after the cathedrals had been built, changed its allegiance. Abandoning the spiritual power which inspired the building of the great cathedrals, the West transferred its reverence to a new object of worship: the worship of capital, the power of money. The people accepted the premise that capital was now the most powerful force in the world. However, capital did not produce any more great cathedrals. Instead, the Capitalists designed their banks and office buildings to look like smaller cathedrals. The Age of the Cathedrals had ended.

At the Grand Shrines of Ise, I realized that a magnificent cathedral is not the ultimate manifestation of spiritual power. Here, I found a perfect harmony of shrine and nature, an effect which was the very purpose of the shrine. I began to understand that a shrine or temple has a purpose far greater than that of a building. It is a place where the guiding force of a great nation can be focused, as a magnifying glass focuses the rays of the Sun into the much greater power of fire.

Economists in the West describe the "Miracle of Japan" exclusively as an economic force, the power of production. At the Grand Shrines of Ise, I learned that behind this power is a much greater power, the power of the spirit. This is the power of Japan. However, many foreigners do not visit the shrine, and thus they remain ignorant of the moving force of this nation.

The moment I walked onto the grounds of Ise, I became aware of this force. It was a very powerful experience because it revealed to me why I had been brought to Japan, the real reason for my being there. Many people had worked together to bring me to Japan, and I am very grateful for their efforts, which have resulted in a very rewarding experience. Not until I came to the Grand Shrines of Ise did I understand the power which had compelled them to bring me here. Henceforth, my mission would be to raise the level of understanding between the people of Japan and the people of the United States. Other Westerners had preceded me in this mission, most notably, Ernest Fenollosa, whose memorial I had been able to visit on my tour, and my mentor and guide, the poet Ezra Pound, who had pioneered the understanding of Japanese art in the Western world.

Such an improvement of the understanding between Japan and the United States is not an undertaking designed solely to benefit either party, but to benefit both. However, it may be that the United States would be the greater beneficiary, if the presence of Japan, as exemplified by the Grand Shrines of Ise, could help the American people to realize that they have wandered off the track, that they have been lured into the worship of false gods, and that, as the great Shrines of Ise so compellingly remind us, in the final analysis—the bottom line, as it were—spiritual power is a much greater force than either the power of money or the power of the machine.

The ritual service in the temple served to confirm my initial impression, that I was indeed in the presence of a very powerful force. For years, I had listened to Japanese court music, and now I was privileged to hear the music of the ceremony. This is not merely the ceremony of an ancient culture, but of a culture which remains pure and vibrant despite the pressures of the modern world. In the West, religion has bowed to the blandishments of dialectical materialism, and has altered its message to embrace social, if not socialist, goals. The result is that the people receive no spiritual refreshing, and must face the problems of the world without spiritual energy and belief.

It may seem that this is a great deal of experience to result from a few hours at the Grand Shrines of Ise, but I have merely recounted reaction to the spiritual presence which I found there. A revelation can be of only a few seconds duration or it can be an experience recollected much later in tranquillity. Although I stored all of these emotions while I was at the shrine, it was not until much later that I was able to sort them out and to realize the importance of this visit. Few people today seem to be capable of receiving such a revelation, because we are intent on being entertained. We do not like to have an experience unless it is pleasurable. However, pleasure is of short duration, and the sensation must be repeated ad infinitum, if one is to continue to enjoy it. This is not true of a revelation, which can last for a lifetime. There are many recorded instances of persons receiving a revelation which not only changed their life but sustained them for a lifetime.

AGAINST THE GRAIN—By Glenn Foden

An unfortunate aspect of modern life is that we are continuously bombarded by so many experiences, which are not only temporary but which have no importance. The power of the spiritual life is that it prepares us for, and makes it possible for us to receive more important experiences. A shrine serves the great purpose of allowing us to be renewed at the source of power. Throughout history, civilizations have crumbled after their shrines became corrupted and were no longer a source of power and faith. This usually occurred because the people were no longer worthy of their shrines, and because they themselves were corrupted. This was most notably illustrated by the Cult of Baal, which preceded Christianity in the ancient world. The worshippers of Baal converted their temples into houses of prostitution, where they routinely sacrificed small children for "good luck". Although the Baalites disappeared from history, remnants of their cult still operate surreptitiously throughout the world, spreading destruction in their wake.

One might well ask, how is it that I, who am not Japanese, can visit the Grand Shrines of Ise and experience so much? The answer is that I am able to experience these powers because I am aware of my own identity. As the ancient Greeks said, nothing human is alien to me. I walk on the Earth to increase understanding, because I do not have to be preoccupied with my own problems. In the West, many people are fascinated with the need to "discover" one's identity, to "find oneself". However, one's identity is not a secret, nor is it a vein of gold hidden away which we must spend our life searching for. People refuse to accept their identity because they do not wish to face the responsibility which that acceptance implies. Once we know who we are, we can no longer evade our life's task by the protest that "I would like to do something, but I am not yet ready, because I first must find out who I really am." This is the pretext of the immature, the eternal student, who explains, "I am not ready to assume the duties of life because I am not yet prepared." In fact, everyone on Earth has a purpose, a task, which can be postponed only by the continued denial of one's identity. No one can "develop" or "find" their identity, because they are born with it. A vast profession has grown up to intervene with those who deny their identity—the profession of psychotherapy, which offers a crutch for their denial of identity.

These were some of the revelations which came to me at the Grand Shrines of Ise. Even the gods must occasionally pause to rest, and it is at these places that we can build a shrine. As I walked through its grounds, I understood that the people of Japan have their identity. The strength of spiritual power is that it authorizes you to accept your identity, and thereby to become a functional member of society. I do not believe I could have come to such a conclusion in any religious building in America, because those buildings exclude nature. At the Grand Shrines of Ise, I was convinced that this shrine celebrates the place of Man on Earth, in the presence of the Sun goddess, and the harmony of this partnership. I too was able to enjoy the intense inner peace which I saw in the face of others present, and which I have only found in two other places: the Garden of the Gods in Colorado, and in the more volcanic areas of Yellowstone National Park. In Japan, at the Grand Shrines of Ise, I experienced the grandeur of life, the grandeur of nature, and the hope of the future.

Doris Ekker On:

The Power Of God In Our Life-Play

4/17/96 DORIS EKKER

GOD SAID IT WOULD BE THIS WAY!

I have always, to now, I suppose, assumed that we as a species were in this game together. I found that I believed if a person said he was/is my friend, I accepted that as truth. Perhaps I am too allowing, and friendship bonds myself to others wherein I truly am not wanted. This character trait is dangerous in the world of MAN.

Today, this morning, I stand at the crossroads filled with choices. No, they are not world-shaking or even very important except to me and those of us who believe that God is ALL, God is Love, God is Light. I don't speak of religion or even religiously following anything to anywhere. God is within my soul and I make no claim to his entirety for I already am a part of HIS LIGHT.

I realize that others also know this and yet are bound to the FEAR of letting go of whatever represents security to us without ability to sort wheat from chaff and I find that I long for the days when I didn't KNOW. Ignorance allows you to leave responsibility to others, ignore that which is WRONG, disallow actions which speak of character growth, you know, just drift along as the political, physical, and limited knowledge will send you. I observe how easy it is to become one with physical limitation and remain in the undemanding shackles of the play script. I have roles in myriads of plays while only occasionally writing the play only to realize that in my instance I wrote them ALL in which I participated—at the least, my little part.

This morning I find that I don't want to write another sentence on any subject that brings me controversy, either within or from without. Why might that be?, I thought to myself. I KNOW that to attain the goals of lifetimes, even for self, brings responsibility for the whole of the brotherhood of Man. But a funny thing happened to me on the way to the forum of this keyboard this morning. I realized that in the myriads of lessons from this keyboard I knew that I finally KNEW/KNOW.

I see and KNOW that the physical being cannot rest on a rainbow or on a dream. I KNOW that the "mind" can stay atop both—BUT WHAT I REALLY CAME TO KNOW WAS THAT IT IS SOUL THAT MATTERS AND SOUL BECOMES THE RAINBOW, THE DREAM, THE LIGHT! Physical eyes see the reflection of light, mind visualizes the light BUT SOUL IS THE LIGHT. In this sudden realization I instantly KNEW that I would create my own destiny or it would not come upon me other than as my worst enemies would send it forth. All I need to recognize now is HOW to achieve that which I shall create.

I thought about how to serve this dish of understanding even to myself and found my mind wandering to a time I remember not but being as a child I looked across a field of daisies in full bloom and my mind was swept by the color and wonder of such a thing as a flower. I didn't try to understand the universe—I simply appreciated the curiosity of having something so pretty, so alive in the sunshine and breeze, and yet being without ability to even speculate about the sight or any type of reality checkpoint or reference relationship. The flowers just "were" and I just "was". Then I pondered on growing and the realization of the cycles of the flowers just as the annual changes of myself. The daisy became something to pick and look at later, press as in a memory into a book, hold for a little while to "make wishes" on the petals, and then after much thought I found myself looking over thousands of acres of DEAD DAISIES and somehow I knew that I had allowed this devastation to come upon my own creations.

I wanted to go back in memory and dance on rainbows, ride the wind, blow bubbles on the sea and simply adore the daisy. Then my "self" realized that I KNEW that what I really wanted was to again be the rainbow and BE THE LIGHT wherein wholeness and fulfillment overflows all cups of experience. The soul also knows relationships, understands purpose and connections and brings balance to all things without falling to the wayside in fear. Fear goes when we take control with an honorable soul which is within the LIGHT of Goodness. Within THAT Light I AM that Light for it goes beyond being touched by Angels or embraced by the Light. This is no near-death experience for it IS A NEAR-LIFE EXPERIENCE. There is no need to "die" to CREATE. We create our own script every day and thus comes the wonderment as to why we create it so poorly? I suddenly realized it is because we are "trained" through the darkness and ignorance of TRUTH.

If our goals be worthy and our desires sincere, God will respond and it will probably not be as we demand or implore—so we think we have no answer. We will have no answers until we take responsibility and create the answers. I could see that no matter how I tried to escape the reality of what goes on, the facts kept sweeping over my mind in waves of understanding. In the physical plane of existence, whatever it is, there are required physical responses and needs for the working of the play. You cannot simply say, "Well, soul, old buddy, I don't need physical things..." because in the physical arena there must be equally physical things. So, we have to assume we need that which is necessary to function within the play and that includes even a medium of exchange—for the script is filled with physical beings. You cannot separate self without assuming another position of dimension. If I am to participate in the physical experience, I must remain physical. This means a dual problem, however, for the physical is a binding, heavy, burdensome set of choices, decisions, manufacturing, ego assaults and dense matter. Therefore, the soul must always be attended lest we lock ourselves to the plane of conjured monsters and dragons. The MIND must find the pathway, clear the stumbling blocks, open the way and learn the lessons to offer freedom to soul.

Since all of us as Spirits took part in the Creation of our World in which we now experience—are we not yet creating? We realize that some entities such as Nikola Tesla could conjure in his mind, build in a higher dimension and test his inventions in that realm before even building the physical model in the third-dimensional plane of matter. Ah, but we have it backwards, don't we? The original idea is in Spirit, projected onto mind and finally mind transforms the thought to matter realization. This means that we had to "be" before we came to express in physical form. That further means we had to express "before" there was that upon which to act out our play. In this realization there next comes the very basic truth of allowance of all other experiences. In other words, "I" cannot choose for another for each must take responsibility for his own choices and actions.

I believe that our whole thrust in physical experience is to learn the purpose of LIFE. How is it that we come to be here? Why? Well, why indeed, do we go to college or to universities to increase knowledge? Earth gives us opportunity to train "on the job", so to speak, while agreeing to live within the rules of the game laid before us in a physical format.

All spirits in the pre-mortal world shared in the creation of our worlds made physical and our own becoming mortal. We were with God and we knew that we were within the perfect oneness with Creator. We knew that there was absolute love and we recognized without debate the positive and yet conditional references to what would become our "actions". We each and all participated in the creation of our own playground, our own stage, upon which we could act out in conscious realization our play. We prepared accordingly. We bonded with others who would be in our play, in order to recognize our missions and complete them. We came as volunteers, each of us eager to learn and experience all that God had created for us to use. I know that each of us made our own decision to come here and we did it in Spirit where the challenges could be assembled in order to develop the necessary graded steps to achievement. In that world of Spirit even the most fragile among us here has strength and is valiantly gifted there.

We are given agency to act for ourselves in this manifested place of "matter", this electric world. Our own actions determine the course of our "lives", as we call this experience, and further determine our higher realization as we move beyond the physical. We can alter and redirect our lives at any time along the way. God made the promise that He would not interfere or intervene in our lives UNLESS WE ASK HIM. We all launch out on our journey quite happy for this freedom of choice. We were grateful for this ability to express our free will and to exercise this wondrous power. We could now choose whatever response in emotion and expression that we would wish. The choice would be our own through our decisions.

The greatest lesson I have had to learn is that there is no worthiness or meaning in that which we do in selfish intent. God has given us individual talents, for lack of better description of how we come to HAVE talents—and always according to our needs and expectations. But there is no happiness to be found in simply expressing these things in selfish modality. We have to work with, and eventually understand, the laws, and overcome the limitations of this physical life. By understanding these laws we are surely better able to serve those around us. Whatever we become here in mortality is meaningless unless it is done for the benefit of others. It is only through others that we can find completion in ourselves. Our only true use of those wondrous talents given is in our service for ONLY in serving do we grow spiritually. In that service also comes the understanding of LOVE in its supreme position within God and within Self.

At 3:00 a.m. this morning the phone awakened us. The caller was from Europe and, I believe, in retrospect, had very good news. The grog of sleep was heavy and, once pushed briefly aside, the mind was off and running in its own directions until morning. Interesting memories flood through the mind at such times.

Realizations are abundant in the full confrontation of responsibility and recognition. There was full realization of "connections" but total objectivity of circumstance and journey. Big question marks are removed when realization walks in. The physical responses are not present—only the KNOWING. And, I knew! I knew that if my circumstances will change—I SHALL HAVE TO CHANGE THEM MYSELF. If I weary of the assaults of legal nightmares then I must end them, no more and no less. To suit other needs, I realize that I must end them favorably lest discredit come upon our dedicated work within the Light of God. In other words, I must create that which allows right to prevail. I have to realize that I AM the creative fragment of God's total reflection and within each fragment is the blueprint of the WHOLE of everything. Therefore, within me, in that LIGHT, I AM EVERYTHING. If I KNOW THIS then why do I continue to beat-up myself and have sorrow for those who do not see and hear truth? Why indeed? Every and EACH entity has a right to his/her own perceptions and interpretations and no amount of argument or reason shall change a mind buried in cement. Why waste time and effort—go find the way without hanging up on the impossible. I am finding it amusing to realize that I can communicate personally by phone with a friend half a world away. I know, for a fact, however, that I can communicate with that friend from half a universe away. I can communicate ever so much more easily with God, who is not even a breath away.

One day it was said by our teacher that "I can create and I can uncreate...you!" Oh goodness, that one about did it and has had repercussions ever since. Today, I understand it for I can create and I can uncreate—in mind and in soul. But my soul resides within the Light which is God and therefore is of secure knowingness. My mind shall create and uncreate until I find that which allows fulfillment of my own intended mission to SERVE. The moment I focus ONLY on self, I cease to serve and I become impotent in all things. I AM unlimited and yet I allow bondage to enslave me in my frustrations and immediate considerations of the moment. What we really are saying to self is how frustrated we are with the actions of OTHERS who hold so much power over our own journey. Do they? No, but we allow it to become so. Well, the realization then comes that if we invite others into our lives to fill tasks for which we choose to not fill, then we are stuck with allowing them to do their job which in our own perception may be totally inadequate. Ah, but they may well know more about law, medicine, etc., and we must measure that knowledge against the haste and possible waste of "doing it yourself".

I am caused to think on some things which are taking place around the globe at present and pondering about what difference it makes TO ME. Do we go off the deep end in things such as income tax objections while missing the important points of living? I realize that as long as I LIVE WITHIN THE LAWS OF GOD I CAN ALSO FUNCTION WITHIN THE LAWS OF THE LAND WITHOUT GOING TO WAR, ESPECIALLY WITHIN MY HEART, MIND AND/OR SOUL. If I do not accept your burden or your gift, then I hold neither. If you accept not my burden nor my gift—then you hold neither. Either way your choice is not my business.

I reach out to God in my own frustrations for often I simply do not have answers which are constantly in demand that I produce. I am hurt and drained by the assaults which seem unfair and am frustrated by the demands and threats of others. However, this morning I KNEW that I would create the way and in that realization I can do my JOB even if it be not that which I "thought" I wanted. There are a handful of people scattered around and who work far harder than I shall ever work to achieve that which must be attended in Truth. I shall never be able to adequately thank or serve these friends who have allowed us to continue through their very love and prayers. Together we shall accomplish the perfection of living Truth in the perfection of God's PERFECT sequence. I have no wish to slay dragons or even argue with those who want to simply quarrel and control. I have POWER and I do NOT want control over any save myself. In my perfect world there would be none who want my space. That is NOT likely for I hold THE JEWEL of the UNIVERSE. I HAVE KNOWING! In that KNOWING, there is not the slightest doubt of winning the game for there is no way in which I can lose for if God be with me—who can be against me? I have known this since I was that little tyke in Athenia, Pleiades a billion years ago, bobbling through the daisy patch.

What I must do now is to insure that those who come after me can HAVE A DAISY. I also know that I can have absolute love for those who come my way—but I shall certainly place more "conditions" on those who would take from me and then call me the evil one. I am NOT EVIL and for that very reason I am attacked. I am NOT perfection but I AM GOOD! I KNOW my station, my responsibility and my duty and in that I stand blessed indeed for few ever realize their mission and purpose. I bless and thank each who have helped me grow, and most especially my so-called enemies, for without them I would have no challenges to overcome. Thank you, God, for allowing me to do those RIGHT things to allow other things to bear fruit today and in this "time". Is it not wonderful that somewhere along the way, brothers in Light, we did SOMETHING RIGHT which has allowed us this wonderful journey with its myriad experiences?

I think most of us are about to the point of awakening wherein we cannot actually express the dream from the awake state of being. When the dream BECOMES the reality, we have arrived if our dream vision was of LIGHTED ONENESS IN ALL THINGS. We ARE that which we come to BELIEVE. Therefore, I AM and it is enough for there is nothing greater than this.

I did not sit to this keyboard today to have great wisdom but I find that all I offer here is most certainly WISE. How come I to be wise? I am long a student and long have I walked the pathways with my teacher and I find it a worthy road composed of that which I make it to be. If I stand only on TRUTH then I have no cause to be faint of heart or wasted of soul. I shall be exactly that which I shall be and it shall be MINE for I AM one WITHIN the ONE LIGHT and none can separate me from that unity.

Dave Williams said something a few days back which is burned into my heart as he spoke of going within his temple and becoming in expression with this wondrous Light Source wherein the mere joy of the experiences causes the eyes to overflow in appreciation and allowance. How can any quarrel over any THING have merit of attention against the very realization of such strength and universal Truth?

Up to now, in this quest for service, I serve as a journalist, a reporter, and not an author. Today, I am a writer, an author, and I know of that which I write and speak. I can stand the slings and arrows of adversity for at best they can only be passing fancies of the offending energies. Evil intent CANNOT STAND in the LIGHT OF GOODNESS and therefore there is no reason to fear anything that shall come against us who serve in right cause. I do not have to "fight"; I only need to "be" to win these silly battles of lie versus truth for the enemy must always remember his lies, and truth stands alone. Winning or losing is merely a perception of the beholder. To win by the lie is a shallow win indeed, in shame, which is always before GOD and becomes, in time, SEEN BY MAN.

There is an old stupid saying that goes: "Sticks and stones may break my bones but words will never hurt me!" No, friends, all three are painful, damaging and ALWAYS hurt if used for that purpose. The point is not in the "hurt" but in the realization that if the soul be "right" no thing shall touch IT even though appearances in this illusion of experience may well offer otherwise.

I write this message to myself that I might look at my own expression and better understand myself. I share it with my friends who ask explanations for our coalition and entanglements along the way. I can only express my OWN perceptions and realizations and never shall I intentionally USE another for my purposes but might we not share this journey and these visions and together be worthy of slaying the dragons which devour our very souls? I want no wealth beyond that which is required for doing that which we have agreed to produce, no more but certainly NOT LESS. All things belong to their creator and in that abundance I expect to receive that which is necessary for Creator's needs. I realize that I no longer have attachments of lingering demands on physical things but recognize the higher purpose of my own existence. I DO have a mission and a purpose and it bears no NAME or recognition of myself to other than my self. Wisdom may well be recognized but it has no merit unless used in actions and expressions. Don't ask me of what "race" I be—but rather, ask me what race I'm "in" and perhaps today I have a better answer than I had yesterday.

I do not hate even Evil for if I give POWER to evil through hate, I have lost. I must stand strong in LIGHT and TRUTH and Evil shall take its own course and fall before me. If adversity had not come my way I would never realize this amazing character within myself. Without the help of those who shared with me would I ever have persevered long enough in my singular task to have this realization. I know that we must have one another so that we might recognize our own reflection and find Truth and balance. A simple other realization came as well from this introspection; I am a part of Creator so I don't have to be a lesser scientist or any other lesser being of any kind. I further conclude that if I change myself then I must surely change my world. You will have to do that which you will with YOURS. God gives each of us the power and capability of doing this as suits our freedom of choices. I have requirements to which I must measure against, my own way. How very wonderful if we can find a similar joy to share. I came to fulfill MY OWN PURPOSE and you must fulfill yours, whoever you are. If you set me forth as a leader or taker of your journey then we both err for I have misled you possibly and I cannot make YOUR journey in any event.

I will no longer, however, stand silent in the face of wrong accusations, even in the physical plane, for it is WRONG to allow lies to bury goodness—mine or anyone's. I will no longer apologize for my goodness in intent in the face of evil intent. You who steal from me in truth or substance shall count on meeting me face to face for you shall no longer be allowed to go forth with those distractions which bring damage to goodness. I claim no asking of fame or of fortune but I do claim justice and Truth in my service and will not continue to allow ill-intent and greed to push me into silence or cowardice. The ones who hide behind the lies are the cowards and, yes indeed, I SHALL challenge them for even though I think quite humbly of myself—I do not think HUMBLY of THE GOD I SERVE. IF MY GOD BE NOT YOUR GOD, BEWARE, FOR MINE IS TRUTH, LOVE, HONOR, INTEGRITY, AND LIGHT. I apologize not for MINE. Why do YOU try so hard to discredit that which is perfection in favor of covering your own assends, befoulers of Truth? My writings and my words speak for themselves and honor is given to those who have shared their magnificent truths to humanity that we might better see and serve. I am but a journalist's keyboard in sharing that which is offered, no more and no less, and you who would cost a brother one iota of his due are WRONG in your actions. Excuses but make you look sick and disgusting.

I repeat, if God be with me who can be against me? Ah, indeed, it is a wonderful opportunity we have had and are having, to find the enemies among us and realize who is against us for if you now be against ME in my humble and usually unrecognized service to God, then surely you are NOT SERVING GOD. I have done NOTHING to hurt anyone, even my enemies—so what basis do you have to destroy me? It seems I must represent something so great as to cause you to be recognized for your ill-intentioned envy. I have asked for nothing from you who now represent such bitter enemies—and even though I do not understand it to my physical liking, I do understand the total inability of yourselves to be otherwise. Your inability is not, however, my business and therefore I stand on my own ability to continue my way into the Lighted places of my higher teachers and not into the dark holes of your conjuring in greed and corruption. You live in your ego snares and I shall live within God and let us see what comes of it. I shall no longer give you quarter in your wish to destroy that which is good for that which is your greed and mean intent. God is with me and therefore I shall be sustained and nobody told me this journey would be a cute jig through rose petals. If I find but ONE daisy along my pathway I shall rejoice. If I find a jasmine flower I shall have found it all. If I only have a sparrow as company I shall further rejoice but I SHALL FLY ON WINGS OF EAGLES AND BEYOND FOR THAT IS THE PROMISE OF CREATOR WITHIN THE WONDROUS ETERNAL LAWS OF THE UNIVERSE. AND FURTHERMORE, I SHALL SOAR HIGH AND STRONG WITH MY OWN WINGS FOR THE WIND BENEATH MY WINGS BE GOD.

Your denial is not my business. Your righteousness is not my business. My denial and my acceptance is my business and therefore, not yours. But your love is my support and in that connection I shall not fail to serve as well and for as long as I can have breath enough to do so.

A few days ago an old acquaintance said it was surely stinking around here—as he grows further away from those who called him "friend". I wonder if there is realization that the stench comes from his own rotting ideas of self aggrandizement? If you pluck yourself from the source of life you have chosen your poison. Putting me down will NOT LIFT YOU UP. IT WILL ONLY SHOW THAT WHICH IS YOUR WEAKNESS.

To any and all of you who might find this note, I can only offer my heart and my soul for your inspection. I now KNOW THAT I KNOW and I further KNOW that I am equal to God's task. Welcome along for I need you badly to share the good for I alone must bear my own perceived sorrow.

We have come to do a job and I intend to see to mine and those who try to block the way shall be stood aside.

Timeless Reminder Offered From Esu "Jesus" Sananda

Editor's note: We have elected to share, once again, writings which appeared from Esu "Jesus" Sananda some years ago, specifically in 1991. The message rings as true today as it did then, and we hope that you will spend some serious "quiet time" in reading and reflecting on his generous offerings in wisdom. Many of us readers are guilty of wanting "new" information, "more" information when, in truth, if we really read, reread, and studied that which has already been offered, we would constantly receive new insight. Since these writings from Sananda are lengthy, we have chosen to break them into a series of several installments.

We here at CONTACT would like to take a moment to PUBLICLY thank Sananda for his TRUE LIGHT AND LIGHTED WISDOM AND GENEROSITY IN SHARING SUCH TRUTH WITH US. THANK YOU!

Part I of this series began in our 3/19/96 CONTACT on p. 28; Part II was on p. 20 of the 3/26/96 issue; Part III was on p. 15 of the 4/2/96 issue; Part IV was on p. 5 of the 4/9/96 issue.

6/10/91 #2 ESU "JESUS" SANANDA

INFLUENCE OF ESU "JESUS" SANANDA

I return in the presence of the Mighty I Am, that we come into understanding that the boundaries be set aside so that you can move on in your experience into the realms of higher qualification. If you linger within the shackles of that which has been given erroneously unto you, you have no way in which to move beyond and are stuck in the error of expectation of that which is never intended to be.

In speaking of that which was my own influence at my time of experience, it will be easier to quote from the historians. But that which is conjecture, perhaps I can set to straight as to my own perspective both from the experience itself and from the perception of meaning as well. Conjecture is a matter of discernment and that which you are being urged to do is to look upon all things given and presented and discern that which is worthy from that which is total conjecture—usually given in purpose of manipulation.

One, Carl Jaspers, gave perceptions regarding personalities upon your place, in a rather objective manner which I honor and respect for he honored all who impacted greatly the societies of Man. Let us see what he says.

Again, I use the term Jesus for it is the term Jaspers utilizes as will he use "Jew" and "Israel", etc. I shall effort to correct the concept at each label but please know that these terms were not correctly applied.

To save time we shall simply denote quotations by italics:

The influence of Jesus (Esu Emmanuel) is boundless. Here I can give only a few indications.

In his lifetime his influence made itself felt only on small groups and among the nondescript multitude. The Pharisees, the Roman centurion, a few friends and adversaries were deeply affected. "And they were astonished at his doctrine; for he taught them as one that had authority, and not as the Scribes." But at the same time he was disappointed in the results of his preaching.

[Now, herein, you have total conjecture as to My feelings regarding my disappointment. I was brought forth for a purpose and I fulfilled my purpose and there was nothing to be "disappointing". I came into understanding and total KNOWING and therefore there was nothing which could be construed as "disappointing".]

To whom did Jesus speak? Essentially, to every man who came his way. What mattered was the inner illumination that enabled the believer to see and love. But he leaned chiefly toward the poor, the outcasts, the sinners and because their souls are shaken and therefore ready for the new faith, "They that are whole have no need of the physician, but they that are sick; I came not to call the righteous, but sinners." [Here you have another conjecture of intent—for the going proposition was that "...all men are sinners" and therefore, there would be NO righteous for me to touch. Can you begin to see that the Christos would not be making the errors in pronouncements but, rather, those unlearned who would project their interpretations upon my so-called words?] "The publicans and the harlots go into the Kingdom of God before you." [Now, I would call that a real conjectured opinion for only God would know of the status of the harlot vs. YOU.] Farthest from him were men who feel sheltered and secure, those fettered to possessions in this world: "A rich man shall hardly enter into the kingdom of heaven." Not the smug Pharisee who prays: "God, I thank thee, that I am not as other men are, extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even as this publican," will find peace in God, but rather the publican who dared not so much as lift up his eyes unto heaven, but smote upon his breast, saying: "God, be merciful to me, a sinner." The parable of the prodigal son makes his attitude very clear.

Jesus did not content himself with random contact on his wanderings. He sent out the apostles as "fishers of men", to announce the impending end of the world and the coming of the Kingdom. He sent them forth by two and two, "and commanded them that they should take nothing for their journey, save a staff only; no scrip, no bread, no money in their purse; but be shod with sandals; and put on two coats."

[Let us look at that a bit: Does this sound like the same one who is continually nudging you to be prepared and responsible? Even taking into account the difference in customs and difficulty of travel, does this truly sound like one of MY commands? To trust God to make sure you can provide self with your needs, yes—to go forth and "use" other men for your purposes—no. Just as today, I urge you to go forth and flaunt not riches lest another man set upon you and steal your treasures and you be left destitute with no manner in which to care for self. The very projection sounds as if I tout "welfare" as a means of existence. Charity and welfare have naught to do with each other—one is a sharing with one in need—the other is most often perceived as living "off" or "from" the products of another. I most certainly would NOT go about endorsing hippyism nor irresponsible behavior. The very fact that the name Jesus is being utilized all along the word journey—indicates that I DID NOT PROJECT THE SAID MATERIAL. Why do you think "MAN" wishes to make beggars of God's people? God is abundance. So, why would a disciple be told to go forth with two coats instead of simply going forth naked? Today, it is a pretty good rule of thumb that "if something sounds too good to be true—it is!" So be it—if I be given the title of Prince of Wisdom then it is obvious I would not make of such stupid conjectures. Dear ones, you are going to be faced with a choice—EITHER "JESUS" AS PRESENTED, DID NOT EXIST—OR, MAN CHANGED THE SCENARIO TO SUIT HIS NEED! YOU DISCERN—FOR GOD AND CHRIST ARE PERFECTION AND TOTAL NON-CONTRADICTION—NOT STUPID AS GIVEN FORTH IN PARTIAL BITS AND PIECES OF PROFOUND AND COMMITTED ENEMIES.

I am going to repeat something which was told to you in AND THEY CALLED HIS NAME IMMANUEL [Phoenix Journal #2]. I told my people that the Scribes and Pharisees sit on the chairs of the prophets. Everything they say, however, refrain from doing and keeping but neither act according to their works. They teach you false teachings which they and their predecessors have falsified to profit thereby. They contrive heavy burdens and put them upon people's shoulders, but they themselves will not want to lift a finger. How am I doing so far? They do their labor in order to impress people. They enlarge their prayer belts as well as the tassels on their clothing. They love to sit in the best places at the tables and in the synagogues. They love to be greeted at the marketplace and to be called Master by the people.

But don't let anyone call you Master until you have perceived the wisdom of knowledge. And do not let anyone call you teacher until you follow the Laws of The Creation. For he who allows others to call him Master and teacher who does not have the wisdom of knowledge will be denounced as a liar. For he who undeservedly exalts himself will be abased, and he who undeservedly abases himself will be esteemed lightly.

Let him who is great in spirit consider himself great, and him who is small in spirit consider himself small, and him who is middling in spirit consider himself middling. It is stupid and unwise if a man lets others consider him greater or smaller than he is.

Beware, you Scribes and Pharisees, you hypocrites who block spiritual progress from people; you will not attain it easily and you keep it from those who wish to attain it because of false teachings.

Beware, Scribes and Pharisees, you hypocrites who devour the homes of the widows and devote long prayers for the sake of appearance. Therefore, you shall stay in spiritual darkness all the longer.

Woe unto you, Scribes and Pharisees, you hypocrites who pass through lands and seas in order to win a follower for Judaism, and after he has become a Judaist ("Jew") you turn him into an irrational and unreasonable child that is serving false teachings twofold, as you do.

Woe unto you, you blind leaders of false teachings who say, "If a person swears by the temple, that does not count, but if a person swears by the gold on the temple, that binds him."

You fools and blind ones, you are the offspring of evil; why do you let people swear knowing that an oath is NOT binding and is a worthless act.

Or if a person swears by the altar, that does not count; but if a person swears through sacrifice, that is binding.

You blind and false teachers, who gave you the right to demand an oath or to swear, since the Laws of the The Creation state that oaths should not be given? Your speech should ALWAYS BE YES, OR NO.

THEREFORE, HE WHO SWEARS BY ANYTHING COMMITS A CRIME WITH RESPECT TO THE TRUTH OF HIS OWN WORD AND MAKES OF IT DOUBTFUL. Do you believe that an oath "so help me God" when one disallows the presence of God—has meaning? Well, it does have meaning—it means that there is full intention of telling the lie! Just as with the "Vow" of "All Vows", the Kol Nidre, which vow of the Judaist negates all vows—by vow.

If he who swears by The Creation or its laws, he swears by something over which he has no might. And therefore, an oath is of no substance, either.

Therefore, he who swears by ANYTHING commits a crime with respect to the TRUTH OF HIS WORD AND MAKES IT DOUBTFUL.

Woe unto you, you blind leaders of a horde of blind who say: This should be done and that should not be left undone, since you represent a FALSE teaching. You blind leaders, you are mosquitos and swallow camels which you cannot digest.

Woe unto you, Scribes and Pharisees, you hypocrites who keep cups and bowls outwardly clean, yet inside they are full of rapaciousness and greed.

You blind ones you Scribes and Pharisees, you hypocrites and distorters of the truth, first purify what is inside the cup so that what is on the outside also becomes pure. So you would have it to appear godly and good in front of people, but inwardly you are full of hypocrisy and falsehood and violations.

Now I wish that you pay particular attention to the next for I said it then and I repeat it now: Woe unto you, Scribes and Pharisees, you hypocrites who build tombs for the prophets and adorn the graves of the just and speak: "If we had been at the time of our fathers, we would not have become guilty with them in the shedding of the prophets' blood." Woe unto you, Scribes and Pharisees, you hypocrites who secretly call the dead from the common people and talk with them and believe them through the words of that which is touted as truth, but they only speak of that which they ALREADY THOUGHT WRONGLY DURING THEIR LIFETIME. BUT YOU ARE NOT GREAT ENOUGH TO CALL UPON THE DEAD WHO HAVE SOME WISDOM AND CAN TELL THE TRUTH.

You give testimony to yourself that you are the children of those people who killed the prophets and falsified their teachings. Therefore, you fulfill the measure of your fathers, since you live your life without understanding, and you will have trouble learning in the future. You generation of vipers, how can you be great in spirit without having any understanding?

But all the just blood which was shed through you on Earth WILL COME BACK TO YOU, BEGINNING WITH THE FIRST PROPHET WHOM YOUR FATHERS AND FOREFATHERS MURDERED, from the blood of Zacharias, the son of Barachjas whom you have killed between the temple and the altar, AND THEREFORE ALL THE BLOOD OF THE FUTURE WHICH WILL BE SHED WILL BE OF YOUR FAULT AND DOING.

"Verily, verily I say to you, all this shall come upon you, and upon your race, and for a long time to come."

I further said, when dragged into the court house where the great crowd was gathered. They placed a crown of thorns upon my head and cursed me and spit upon me. So they taunted and struck me and demanded I speak and finally in the pain of the moment I said unto them: "Verily I say to you, as you beat and mock me, you too shall be beaten and mocked. And the time will come in five times one hundred years when you shall have to atone for this. A new man will rise up in this land and whip and persecute you, and you shall have to pay with your blood. And he will create a new cult and have people call him a prophet, and he shall persecute you throughout all time. Even though he will not claim as prophet, you will call him falsely, prophet, and he will bring you a new doctrine and he will have great power and will have your race persecuted throughout all times. HIS NAME WILL BE MOHAMMED, AND HIS NAME WILL BE, FOR YOUR KIND, HORROR, MISERY AND DEATH, AND YOU SHALL BE IN THE DESERVING OF THAT WHICH WILL COME UPON YOU.

"Verily, verily I say to you, his name will be written with blood and his hatred against your kind will be without end. But his teachings shall also bear false doctrine, so will his cult also eventually be finished, when your kind and his kind will put down the foundation for a bloody end."

Where oh where has your sweet "Jesus" gone? Let me again tell you of the facts:

FALSE DOCTRINE OF SAUL

One day as I spake, having finished, a man named Saul came to me and said. "You are preaching heresy; and it is strange to me from the very beginning. It seems stupid and your spirit seems totally confused." But, I patiently heard him out and then I spoke clearly unto him: "How can you tell me that I am confused in spirit whereas it is YOU who is confused in spirit? Verily I say to you, You, Saul, are persecuting me, as well as my people, because of teachings of truth, but you will change your mind.

"There shall be the day following this when your name shall be known as Paul and you shall be given to travel in all different directions, and you shall have to suffer for having called the teachings of God and The Creation, heresy, and my spirit confused. But you will heap upon your shoulders a great burden, for in your lack of understanding you will misunderstand my teachings and likewise preach it falsely. Your speech will be confused; and the people all over the world will be in bondage to it as servants to it and worship the false doctrine.

"Inasmuch as you will place the land of the Greek in bondage to an evil cult with your false teachings, thus you will call me in their language 'the anointed'. It will be the fault of your ignorance that they will call me Jesus Christ which means 'the anointed'. And it will be the fault of your ignorance that because of this name human blood will be shed, so much that it cannot be contained in all the existing containers.

"You continue to persecute me and my disciples because of my teaching but soon the time will come and you shall change of your mind when you will face me again at another time and will assume that I am a spirit. Verily I say to you, as so many others, you will be to blame greatly that the teachings of Truth are adulterated and that the human races build erroneous cults and become mired in the evil given unto them to experience. YOU WILL BE THE CORNERSTONE FOR THE SENSELESSNESS THAT I WILL BE CALLED JESUS CHRIST, AND THE REDEEMER OF A FALSE CULT."

Some two years passed from that day and I was taken into Syria by my cosmic brothers and I lived in Damascus—without being recognized. After those two years my brother, Thomas, and beloved Judas Ischarioth came to abide with me and Thomas told of the falsifying of the teachings and touting of my being the equal to the Creation and thus and so. But most important at that day, was that they said that a great enemy had arisen against me, namely the one, Saul. He was foaming with rage and cast threats against my disciples and all who believed in my teachings. He was having letters written to the synagogues in all countries so that those who would follow my new teaching would be bound and taken to Jerusalem. No difference would be made whether it be a woman or a man or a child, for they would all be put to death.

I told my beloved friends to be not afraid, the time would soon come when Saul would be taught contrary to his evil thinking.

You see, through the passage of the tribulation I had attained great power in the presence of Being. I knew that Saul was already on his journey to Damascus where he would follow my friends and take them again unto Jerusalem where they would be slain.

But I knew, already, that which I would do. I would simply confront Saul and, since he believed me to be dead, he would assume me to be a ghost. Not only had I the ability to radiate great and brilliant light from my being but I was not beyond a little magic demonstration as well. So, in full intent, I and my friend, who had helped me with the things for the "show", set off from the city along the road to Galilee.

For two days we waited a day's trip away from Damascus, in the cliffs, and prepared for our encounter. During the night we saw a group coming, among them Saul, the persecutor of my people.

When they were close, I struck a fire and threw it into the compound prepared to give off a brilliant phosphorescent flash of great intensity. It spread a tremendously bright light, and the group was blinded. Then I stepped forward and said very loudly: "Saul, Saul, why do you continue to persecute my disciples?" Saul, however, was afraid to say the least, fell on the ground, and cried out, "Who are you who speaks to me like this?"

I simply said: "I am Immanuel whom you persecute in your hatred, as you do my disciples. Get up and go into the city and let them teach you according to how you are supposed to live."

But Saul was very much too afraid to get up and said: "But you are he whom they slew, so you are dead and speaking to me now as a ghost." I simply did not give answer!

WICK

Saul got to his feet but his eyes were still blinded and ones from the rear of his troops had to lead him into Damascus. He did not see for about three days for his eyes were unresponsive due to the great shock of the light blast. Besides, he was a babbling and terrified being at that particular time and hysteria was as damaging to his being as was the physical aspect of any light show.

Then I sent a disciple to tend of Saul and teach to him the new teaching, so that he slowly began to understand. It mattered not for he was greatly confused and misunderstood much and talked in a constant but confused manner. Further, he was totally confused in spirit and knowing not that which was Truth from that which he conjured, he went about and preached confused things to the people. He was never able to cast off the teachings of the old false doctrines and did, in fact, cause a reign of terror and bloodshed to be loosed upon the lands as nothing before or since.

It is not my intent in this writing to go further into detail regarding Saul (Paul) for that is something that needs far more inspection than this segment allows.

Now you see, what we have here in the description of the historian regarding my teachings: "Go not into the way of the Gentiles, ... but go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel." [No, it could not have been so—for there was no "Israel". The word Israel only meant God's chosen, and why would I send teachers to those already chosen and accepted by God? Israel as a place had no meaning whatsoever.]

Apparently this "Jesus" learned to his sorrow how paltry and unreliable the results of his preaching could be. The seed falls on fertile and on barren soil. Many receive the message with joy, but they are children of the moment. The cares of the world, the delusion of riches, carnal desires stifle the word. Nearly all have a pretext, like the wedding guests in the parable, Jesus utters his disappointment. "I stood in the midst of the world... and found all men drunken, and none did I find thirsting among them, and my soul is afflicted for the sons of men, because they are blind in their heart and see not." "Many are called but few are chosen." [So be it and amen.]

Do you not yet see, that if I was Emmanuel, Esu, I was not "Jesus" for the Bible itself was not written for some three hundred years after my passing and therefore if the writings utilized bore the inscription of "Jesus"—it was not of my projection. The very purpose of my coming in the first place was to NOT be set aside from MAN—to not be "the anointed ONE"—I was to experience as Man so that all men could see and Know of their own divinity; that I was not more than they. Do I disdain the name "Jesus"? Of course not, and when spoken unto me in petition—I hear it very, very well—it is only for your confirmation that that which I bring unto you NOW can be verified—for if you will turn unto the records which are preserved from the historical data you will find that this which I now project is Truth. German Hebrew scholars chose that which would be placed in that which you call the Holy Bible. And further, the Hebrew Zionist elder men of Wisdom did write of the rules within the Talmud and gave forth protocols therefrom for the founding of a land of Zion which would encompass the planet.

In the corruption of the teachings I brought, the ones who had followed became more confused because of the contradictions. We shall look into what seems to be the "historical" events of this new Idea as the Man passed and the Religion was birthed. Let us, however, now take rest. I do not wish to overload all thine own circuits, but the time is at hand for Truth and the stopping of the fantasy which has all but destroyed you wondrous creations of the Creator Mighty. I am sent again that there not be longer, misunderstanding. Ye will do that which ye will do—but you will do it in knowing and denial or you will turn from the lie. The choice now, as then, is yours. Good day.

I AM.

It is very difficult to tell the "white hats" from the "black hats" if you have no vision. If you are blind, you are going to have to sharpen up to energy signals and learn of "directions" and "players". Citizen "mankind" is basically but a pawn in the Elite game of who gets to run things. You must learn to play the game BETTER than the script writers for until YOU WRITE THE SCRIPT—you are destined to be caught in "their" play.

Bio-logical Dentistry And Our Electromagnetic Body

4/17/96 RONALD S. CARLSON, D.D.S.

What is this presence we call "our body"? Is there more to this question than acknowledged? And given this, does it require and encourage further exploration?

We have come out of the age of materialism, the age of the philosophy of Descartes and the physics of Newton. These thinker-theorists were pivotal in influencing our contemporary views and models of medicine and health. That era witnessed a very limited use and knowledge of macro- and microscopes as well as other technologies now available. The ability to go deeply within the confines of our body, defined by our skin, gave us a very narrow perception and understanding. At that time, this natural limitation of observation thwarted the discernment of new possibilities in diagnosis and treatment. We considered mostly only the anatomical model as being real and treatable. We used the five cardinal signs and symptoms of disease as indicators of dis-equilibria, which were perceivable only by the diagnostician's five senses: we looked for, listened for, felt and smelled for changes in color, heat, pain, swelling or loss of function, and we treated the body, the anatomy.

As we moved into the early and middle twentieth century, we developed an understanding of the physical presence we call "the body" as more than anatomy or physiology. Max Planck, Neils Bohr, Hideki Yukawa and Albert Einstein had a deep impact on the scientific community and Quantum Mechanics, Complementarity, Meson Theory and Photoelectric Effect with Relativity were key words used in chemistry.¹

The new model was chemical or, more precisely, biochemical. It was a model one could not necessarily directly SEE. However, with certain equipment we could test for and come to know the substances composing the human body. We went further into the tissues, beyond the gross anatomy into the anatomy of the molecules of the structure. This led to advancements in our diagnostic skills and tools which we had never imagined possible. The use of X-ray, blood studies, biopsies, urinalysis, microbial culturing, electrophoresis and many others were the order of the day. We had arrived at a more profound conception of the body. It was vastly more intricately and plastically designed than we had conceived.

Then, in the late seventies, physicist Fritoff Capra published a book entitled The Tao of Physics. In it he related sub-molecular, sub-atomic, high energy physics to consciousness that is expressed in the many religious systems.² During this decade of the 1970s, we entered the era of sub-atomic physics that has impacted our understanding of this presence we call "the body" and thus also our applications in medicine and health as they relate to diagnosis and treatment. We now find that the X-rays that we have relied upon are not enough, that the Nuclear Magnetic Resonancer (N.M.R.) is of greater ability and more promise than the finest X-ray technology. It has also become evident that the chemistries ordered with blood and urine give very limited and often misunderstood pictures and messages. What is next? What does the future hold?

The new physics of quarks, fermions, bosons, supersymmetrical gauge, which are fields rather than focused points of matter, electrical charges and spins is the bed of the new technology that will shortly be in use by us for diagnosis and treatment. It is this information that states that at another level we are mostly space, perhaps as much as seventy or eighty percent space, and that we are not certain of what the rest is made—wave or particle. Further, that this body might only be a field or space in which life appears and has the opportunity to process and be.³

In about eighty years we have transformed our conception of this vehicle we call "the body" from that of solid state good ol' anatomy, through space age chemical model, through an exciting interface of "electromagnetic fields" or cords of energy to that of Pure Space. What is this space in which we find "no thing"? How does it behave relative to our wave and particle theories? Will we discover more about it that will require a reworking of the electromagnetic model? These are questions that are on the cutting edge of HIGH ENERGY PHYSICS, not yet answered. And aside from these questions, the opportunity now is to see ourselves treating the body as a field: THE ELECTROMAGNETIC SPACE (body).⁴

The term "bio-compatibility" as well as "electromagnetic body" is mostly unknown in the profession of medicine and has just recently been appearing in literature as a possibility. A bio-compatible process is defined as any process that will enhance or facilitate the well-being of a human in the realms of health, happiness, harmony and prosperity. Optimum health is a fundamental law of life expressed as happiness, harmony, and prosperity.

The principle of cleansing (purification) is now replacing, at a rapid pace, the notions of disease, sickness, and illness. We have accepted without question the concept that there is such a "thing" as disease, and yet when the doctor says, "Your son has leukemia", the doctor is hard-pressed to show you an object that is the "leukemia". However, what he may show you in fact are "signs" (physical signs such as a rash, a lump, bleeding, fever, etc.) or "symptoms" (patient expressions of experiences such as hotness, pain, dizziness, tightness in chest, etc.). We, as health practitioners, have named "diseases" based upon the clinical picture of the human being, that is, his signs and symptoms. Clearly, there is no "thing" as "disease". It is only a concept we work with that guides us to treat in a particular manner.

These signs and symptoms may, in another context, be considered as simply a normal way in which the body balances or cleanses itself. I know that this is a foreign notion, that the signs and symptoms of fever, pain, swelling, redness, and loss of function are only expressions of a "cleansing", "purification", or "rebalancing" of the afflicted person. Even more at odds with what we have been taught is the notion that this process is to be encouraged rather than thwarted. Nonetheless, let us look at the natural design of the planet Earth, our immediate local environment, and the internal environment of our physical body.

Let us consider the forces of wind, rain, Sun, and Earth. For a plant to grow and flourish, it must have the divine and elegant gifts of wind, rain, Sun, and Earth. Without one of these, the plant will not grow nor flourish. In a field of taro, each plant is submerged, mostly in water, while its leaves are above the surface exposed to the Sun, wind, and rain. This water is essential for the plant's transfer of elements from the Earth to the plant as well as for its respiration. The taro must also rely on the wind and rain to provide the cleansing action of both the water and the wind upon the leaves. The wind and the rain clean the leaves of the plant so that it may continue to receive solar energy (light from our star called "the Sun") necessary to carrying out the process of photosynthesis. This process utilizes carbon dioxide and other gases from the atmosphere and with light creates oxygen and other essential nutrients for the benefit of the entire biosphere.

If there is stagnation of any elemental force--wind, rain, Sun, Earth--the taro plant will not grow and will experience degeneration and ultimate physical death or transformation. I say "transformation" for it is a fact that all elements experience biodegradation and are placed in the eternal pool of bioelements to be recombined in time, at the Creator's discretion, as part of the Divine Arrangement in the natural flowing evolution of our Universe.

The human being is a biosphere within a biosphere. We, like taro, have the same requirements and are subject to the same natural laws, and this is true of all other organisms in this world. It has been easy for us, until now, to forget and even to deny this fact. Regardless, the truth remains: we also are beings of the Great Spirit's creation. Our physical bodies require clean air, water, Earth, and Sun to process and prosper. If any of these is remiss, we are effectively rendered less than who we are able to be. This means that the quality of water, food, air, and Sun we receive greatly determine our effectiveness.

What does this have to do with dentistry? you may ask. The dental structures: the teeth, gums, bone ligaments and associated structures of the body are the only areas where noxious substances, poison toxins are routinely placed without careful questioning. Mercury, lead, chromium, nickel, titanium, copper, silver, tin, zinc, platinum, gold, palladium, and other unknown trace elements are systematically placed with little concern for bio-compatibility.

We know tissues are composed of charges, positive and negative. Further, we know that metals are conductors with positive and negative charges, positive charges within negatively charged areas, and negative charges within positively charged areas. We also know that all metals corrode to varying degrees.

Might it be wise and prudent to evaluate and determine what metals are bio-compatible and least electrically charged? Might our success/failure ratio be improved if we were to use the most bio-electrically compatible materials, those of ceramo-plastics of ceramo-calcite composition?

How may we apply this new understanding to what we do, so that we are more successful in our treatment and results?

As an example, the use of Sargenti's Paste developed and advanced during the 1970s for use in root canals (endodontics) is still in practice and it contains the following ingredients: The liquid has 76% eugenol, 20% peanut oil, 2% rose oil and 2% lavender oil. The powder mixed with the aforementioned liquid contains 4% titanium dioxide, 6.5% paraformaldehyde, 9% bismuth subcarbonate, .09% phenylmercuric borate, 61% zinc oxide, 3% barium sulfate, 4% bismuth subnitrate, 11% lead tetraoxide, 1.2% hydrocortisone, and 0.21% prednisolone.

Most of the elements just mentioned are bio-toxic. Yet, it is common to use such materials in teeth since they are not perceived by the medical profession to be "in" the body or "connected" with the other vital systems of the human organism.

As reported in the Journal of Endodontics (12:124, 1986), a study was conducted utilizing Sargenti's Paste, with and without corticosteroids (anti-inflammatory substances), and the classical filling paste now utilized in root canal work termed Z.O.E. (zinc oxide powder and eugenol liquid). The study was carried out at the Indiana University School of Dentistry. It was found that "all three materials caused some degree of tissue necrosis (death), with the Z.O.E. causing the least." The quote is from the Endodontic Newsletter published by Endodontic Associates, Honolulu, Hawaii.

One may understand that the hollow of the tooth (pulp chamber and canal) once contained vital tissue that nourished the living dental organ known as a tooth. In endodontics this tissue, for various reasons, is replaced with some type of "filling material" such as Sargenti's Paste, Z.O.E. paste, or another substance in hopes of retaining the de-vital dental organ. Further, it should be noted that the pulp that is being replaced is gangrenous, for tissue death due to loss of blood supply is termed "gangrene". Please be clear that "de-vital", "dead", "necrotic", and "gangrene" ultimately mean the same. (Interestingly enough, while I was a student at the University of Michigan, Dr. Darly F. Ostrander, Professor of Dentistry in the Endodontic Section, instructed students to use a euphemistic approach with patients while presenting a case to retain the dental organ in question. He said, "When you are explaining the need for a root canal always use the term 'de-vital' rather than 'dead' in reference to the tooth to be treated. You will have much better acceptance in treatment choice, since people do not want something dead in their mouths.")

A fact little known by most people is that the dentine, the tissue of the root of the tooth and the major part of the tissue underlying the enamel of the crown, is living. Coursing through the dentine are small fluid-filled tubules that were connected to cells (odontoblasts) that once lined the inner chamber prior to the death of the dental organ. Therefore, the dentine is also dead or gangrenous since it has lost its blood supply. Within the dentine are thousands and thousands of accessory and lateral canals as well as micro-nutrient canals that cannot be cleansed or filled by the endodontist (dentist). These nooks and crannies are filled with tissue, bacteria, and viruses, that, once having lost blood supply, continue to decay and extrude, along with the dentine tubules, protein degradation products such as "cavaderine", "putricine", and various "thio-ethers" which are poison to the body.

One of the characteristics of gangrenous tissue is that of anesthesia or numbness. The loss of pain you feel in the tooth is simply a confirmation that it is gangrenous. Subsequently, the bone that is intimately connected with the dead dental organ will be required to wall off the area to protect the entire body. This is accomplished by one of two methods. First, a pus sack (abscess), cyst, or granuloma may occur containing the drainage. These are different pathologic entities; however, they are the same response of the body to attempt to wall off the degenerated area in order to protect the whole body. A more subtle and hence little mentioned effect is that of "condensing osteitis". This is a dense bone growth surrounding the root of the tooth that often causes fusion of the bone and the root (ankylosis). In my own histo-pathologic research I have found that these teeth, when extracted, will usually have alveolar bone attached showing various forms of inflammation, degeneration, metaplasia, or fibrosis.

In a recent conversation with one of the leading endodontists in Honolulu, it was noted that "although techniques have improved, the materials have remained the same." The basic root canal material used today is gutta percha filler (a purified milky substance from a tree) and some type of sealer (a fluid, paste-like material in which the gutta percha is rolled before being placed in the root canal of the dental organ).

At this point, I wish to present a few quotes from Kaare Langeland regarding his histo-pathologic research. In Dental Clinics of North America (Vol. 18, No. 2, April 1974), Kaare Langeland, D.D.S. Ph.D. reviewed "Root Canal Sealants and Pastes". He states, "The fact that the sealers and pastes will contact vital or disintegrating tissue connected with the general circulation allows for generalized distribution by blood and lymph," and "The resorbability of sealers and pastes has been abundantly demonstrated by gross radiographic evidence. There is, therefore, no doubt that material is transported away from the site where it was originally applied." This gives some idea about the systemic impact of endodontic materials, not to mention what has already been discussed relative to the dead tissues of dentine cementum, and soft tissue found in accessory canals.

In his tissue implant studies he found the following: "A zone of inflammation occurred at the end of the tube (an implanted tube in experimental tissue), regardless of which of the test materials was exposed to the tissue. A foreign body reaction was present and transporting of particles of the material occurred by macrophages, foreign body cells, tissue fluid, and lymph."

Dr. Langeland concluded the following: "(1) All sealers are irritants in their freshly mixed state; (2) after setting or curing, some sealers lose their irritant components and become relatively inert; (3) all sealers are resorbable; (4) components of sealers may be transported to, and settle in, the internal organs; (5) pastes intended to fill the entire canal lumen of the root canal are not acceptable; (6) the canal lumen should be filled as much as possible with a solid or semisolid nonirritant material; (7) no sealer or a minimal amount of sealer should be exposed to the remaining pulp or the periapical tissue."

In the official Newsletter Of The Clinical Research Associates (Vol. 13, Issue 9, September 1989), a new root canal filling material was reviewed. The product's name is "Thermafil" by Tulsa Dental Products of Tulsa, Oklahoma. It has a metal core made of medical grade stainless steel #302 with a plasticized gutta percha bonded on it. I recently called Tulsa Dental Products and asked what the chemical composition of their materials was. This was unknown by anyone available, and a research chemist was not available to answer the question. They also seemed unaware of the allergic potential of the nickel-chromium in the metal core of this filling material. It was gratifying to see in the newsletter a comment by Dr. Gordon Christianson. I quote, "Presence of nickel-chromium carrier in the canal may be a problem for people concerned with metal sensitivity. It would be advisable for the manufacturer to offer alternative carriers made of noble metal." It is evident that "bio-compatibility" is not a dominant conversation in either the dental profession or dental product manufacturing. It is trusted that with this paper this term may become primary, and the consideration of cost, insurance, patient or professional acceptability, time, etc., will be given less importance.

As documentation for the notion that the "de-vital" or dead tooth is a foreign body in and of itself, I would like to share a summation of my research over the past five years. It is clinical research that is supported by histo-pathologic tissue inspection done here in Honolulu at Pathologists' Medical & Cytology Laboratory, Inc.

The teeth, ligament, gingivae, and alveolar bone of various jaw segments were removed for specific reasons. The patients were informed of the biological implications of leaving the tissue in the body, and the dental surgeries were performed with full acceptance and approval. In approximately fourteen of the seventy people in this project the teeth had been endodontically treated (root canal).

It must be understood that at the onset the body may go through one or both of two degenerative processes. The first is the inflammatory phase. This will show as irritation in the tissue with a cellular reaction that confirms this picture. If the inflammatory phase is long-standing (chronic), and if the irritant is not removed, this may proceed to the degenerative phase with resultant fibrosis, metaplasia, calcification and eventual cellular death. A most common finding was the presence of fibrosis of the bone in the tissue samples that contained bone. Dystrophic ossification (abnormal calcification) of the periodontal ligament and/or the pulp was the next most common finding. This demonstrates that the irritants were long-standing, and blood flow diminished. Strangulation of the tissue may occur if fibrosis or calcification is extensive. With fibrosis it was often noted that the tissue contained mild or severe inflammatory cell reaction with eosinophilic cell infiltrate that is characteristic of a foreign body reaction. In some instances frank necrosis or chronic osteomyelitis was noted. In approximately five cases some type of metaplasia was noted. In most all cases some form of irritation or degeneration was observed. The teeth that had been treated with root canal therapy showed granuloma, abscess, or cysts.

Further research in tissue response to electrochemical changes are based upon work done by Dr. Voll. In 1955 Dr. Reinhold Voll introduced the "Diatherapuncteur" acupuncture instrument (now known as DERMATRON), that could be used for diagnosis and therapy. He synthesized ancient Vedic/Chinese acupuncture with electronics. Using Ohm's Law ($E=IR$) he was able, through skin surface resistance, to verify acupuncture points and discover many others. He had, through theory, electronics, year of research and trial and error, advanced us to a place wherein we can check the energetic health of a tissue without X-irradiation or surgery. We can obtain an accurate assessment of this tissue by placing an electric probe on various acupuncture points located on the hand, foot or odonton (term for dental organ), composed of the tooth and supporting structures of that segment.⁵

Some time ago I was introduced to this equipment. I had read about acupuncture, understood a little, and did not consider its use in dentistry. I did know that what I was treating in the oral cavity had impacts and effects on the remainder of the body. Exactly how was not clear to me. Since my introduction, and only until I was able to experience and interpret the interrelationship of the dental organs (teeth and supporting structures of that jaw segment) to the rest of the organ and tissue systems of the body outlined by acupuncture, did this mode of diagnosis and treatment make

I'D TRY TO BE MORE
OPTIMISTIC
...IF I THOUGHT

sense.

Some examples of these interrelationships are that the maxillary and mandibular incisors are energetically connected to the uro-genital system, the maxillary and mandibular cuspids are connected with the liver/gall bladder, the maxillary re-molars and mandibular first and second molars are connected with the lung/large intestine, the mandibular pre-molars and the maxillary first and second molars are connected with the stomach/spleen on left side, stomach/pancreas on right side, and the maxillary and mandibular third molars are connected with the small intestine/heart meridians. What this means is that a focused dental organ may cause tissue damage in that organ system with which it is related. The reverse is also true, that is, a damaged organ system may cause tissue damage expressed by the dental organ. The energy flows in both directions.

As I now understand, the movement of electrical current (electron sharing) through the body creates electromagnetic fields which are the meridians of classical acupuncture. These meridians or channels of energy flow (CEF) or electromagnetic pathways (EP) are not usually observable. From time to time, one may see the effects of other phenomena on the fields. One such example in our environment is the Aurora Borealis or Northern Lights. Here, the Sun's electromagnetic waves are separated out by the electromagnetic field of the planet. Another example is the electromagnetic field within a crystal separating out the rays of the Sun into what we know as the color spectrum or rainbow. In some rare cases, local skin tissue reactions are observable when a CEF (meridian) is not in balance, such as epilations, ulcers, erythemas.

Another instrument used to discern the health of the odonton (dental organ) is the potentiometer, known also as a multimeter in electronics. By placing the ground probe on the oral mucosae (gum) and the reading probe on the enamel or metal filling, one is able to read voltage and current. This will give a trustworthy picture of the galvanic action in the mouth and clues to possible damage to the dental organs or tissue systems and their corresponding organs.

Observation and research with the multimeter show that normal healthy dental organs have resting potentials of approximately 85 to 100mV with no current. If resting potential is above 100mV and current is greater than .4uAMP, there is damage to the dental organ that begs correction. Even if the resting potential is below 100mV and there is a current of .4uAMP or more, this is an indication of imbalance in the dental organ and/or pathway.

If in correction the dental metal filling is removed, one will almost always note that these highly charged dental organs teeth have black, brown and gray burn areas in the dentin, and, if one follows this out into the pulp chamber, which is often necrotic, one may find that the chamber is completely calcified or blackened by electrobiodegradation of the metal filling. Upon removal of these dental organs, for whatever reason, one may observe fracture of root system, ankylosis, abscess, malformed roots, resorbed root tips, or changes in color of dentin, especially at the apices.

We have then, in conclusion, a new technology and understanding of the body as an electromagnetic field, which we may treat in a more comprehensive manner. The electroacupuncture instrument called the dermatron and the multimeter allow us another perspective that augments information we derive from radiographs, chemistries and the signs and symptoms we receive. Through this work we are more gently, accurately and comprehensively able to decipher the needs of the person and devise a treatment course that is more compatible with the make-up of the individual, since the meridian or electromagnetic pathway will take into account the current physical expression of energy in the ELECTROMAGNETIC BODY.

I am not a pathologist; however, I am a biologist and chemist by my first degree and a dental surgeon by my second, and I have asked questions related to the bio-compatibility of the current trends in treatment. It has concerned me that we so flippantly utilize within the human biosphere materials that are irritating from their chemistries and electromagnetic decays. The evidence is clear to me that leaving dead teeth in the body as well as base metal containing mercury is not truly consistent with biological principles for optimum health, and I have therefore encouraged people who seek my advice and services to have these teeth or toxic materials removed. The final decision, being personal as all health questions are, I leave to the individual.

In summation it may be stated that (1) the body is divinely arranged to cleanse and purify similarly to the taro field example; (2) there is no such "thing" as disease as a real finding, for one cannot show "a leukemia"; (3) what we know as "disease" is a name that conveys a collection of signs and symptoms; (4) these signs and symptoms are in truth the body's way of cleansing itself; (5) if one were to obtain optimum health, everyone's birthright, it is best not to pollute the internal environment, one's personal biosphere; (6) how we treat the global environment is indicative of how we care for our own personal environments--our bodies; and (7) combining human wisdom and knowledge, which is limited, with Divine Wisdom expressing through natural laws will firmly establish a bio-electric computability beneficial to human beings.

By not using materials or methods in our medical system that are not bio-logical in nature, we confirm a more natural way of being, with happiness, harmony, health, and prosperity.

I trust that this paper has been provocative and informational and thank you for the opportunity to share it with you.

Thank you for your attention and time.

for such as Syphilis and other diseases.

Colloidal Gold has been noted for its tremendous ability to balance and harmonize the emotional body, particularly in regards to unstable mental and emotional states such as "depression", "autism", "Alzheimer's", etc. Gold has further been found to aid in the healing of heart muscle and is highly beneficial in rejuvenating sluggish organs—especially the brain—as gold is the best electrical conductor yet recognized for nerve action. Another use for Gold is in cases of glandular and nervous incoordination because Colloidal Gold is said to rejuvenate the glands and stimulate the nerves which releases the pressure and allows the signals for function to reach through to the various organs and glands.

GaiaGold intake can benefit self-control in diet and quit-smoking programs because it helps to balance the brain's craving or need for such overindulgence or addiction. Taken in conjunction with GaiaCol, overall renewed vitality and longevity may be achieved. 2 oz. $20.00

New Gaia Products Offer Help

GaiaCol

GaiaCol is a combination of Colloidal Silver and Trace Colloidal Gold. This combination of ingredients has produced a product that is so high frequency and potent that it could quite possibly be the solution to our ongoing fight against the new antibiotic-resistant diseases that we face today. Colloidal Silver was used extensively and very successfully against bacteria, virus, fungi and the like before the advent of the first antibiotic, penicillin. The uses of Colloidal Gold were also significantly used in the restoration of health as early as 1885 and was noted for its ability to calm and harmonize the emotional body. Once the chemical companies began manufacturing the myriad of antibiotics, silver and gold were no longer looked to for treatment. The antibiotics they were producing, however, produced no effect on the more resistant viruses, fungi and parasites. Now we face a new generation of bacteria that are completely resistant to any antibiotics merely due to antibiotic over-prescribing and resultant survival of the fittest bacteria.

Research has demonstrated that Colloidal Silver is nontoxic to humans and allows no presently known disease-causing organism to live in its proximity. With the addition of Trace Colloidal Gold the frequency of GaiaCol is remarkably enhanced to allow these newer, more powerful viruses and bacteria to be eliminated. GaiaCol is gentle enough to use topically on just about any skin, hair or mouth condition without fear of toxicity and is outstanding for burns.

For internal use during any type of infectious process, start with one teaspoon the first day and then 10-12 drops, 3-4 times per day under the tongue until the infection clears. Then maintain with 3-4 drops, 3-4 times per day under the tongue. Important: Due to the powerful nature of this product, friendly bacteria can be affected so it is advisable to replace the natural intestinal flora with some type of acidophilus/lactobacillus supplement daily or at least when symptoms are noted such as cramps, bloating, diarrhea/constipation and a general feeling of malaise.

GaiaCol is said to be safe for children and pets and can be taken without other medications without incident. This product is not addictive and does not build up a tolerance to it in the body. 2 oz. $10.00

GaiaGold

GaiaGold is a solution of 100% Colloidal Gold which is one of the oldest used substances for medicinal purposes and has no equal in affecting the physical body positively. Around 1885, colloidal gold was commonly used in the United States as the basis for the cure of alcoholism with additional uses including treatment of Arthritis, skin ulcers, burns and certain nerve damages. Colloidal gold does not have the same Germicidal/Antibiotic action of Colloidal Silver when topically applied, but it does have tremendous effect if taken internally

AMERICAN STANDOFF

The Inside Story Of The Montana Freeman

4/22/96 EUSTACE MULLINS

Once again the UNited States is in the grip of a massive standoff of government agents against American citizens. Jordan, Montana, the site of the standoff which has now been in effect for some thirty days, may go down in American history as a name of equal prominence with Lexington and Concord, as the launching pad for the New American Revolution. Or it may join the tragic names of Ruby Ridge and Waco as the site of yet another vicious massacre of American dissidents.

"Lucky Bill" Clinton is on the horns of a genuine dilemma. It is too near the national elections to stage yet another massacre of Americans. Nor can he divert the public's attention with another foreign venture of the United Nations. He has already staged Somalia, Haiti and Bosnia as the equivalent of the Roman motto of "bread and circuses" to keep Americans from thinking about their domestic problems. He has nowhere else to go.

ANOTHER BLOODBATH?

Although his faithful hireling, Attorney General Janet Reno, is said to be panting for yet another bloodbath in the great tradition of her previous escapades at Ruby Ridge and Waco, Clinton is reluctant to float his re-election aspirations on another sea of blood. He recently buried his greatest re-election liability, Secretary of Commerce Ron Brown, who was facing numerous investigations for the most flagrant gathering-in of bribes in our political history. "Lucky Bill", with the historic Clinton luck, was "devastated" by the news that Brown would not be standing trial before the election, because his plane had fortuitously slammed into a hill in Bosnia. At this writing, his only advice to the federal agents besieging the dissidents at Jordan, Montana, is "Hold your fire."

MORE CRIMINALS

Although the entire United States is paralyzed by the outbreaks of crime in the nation's cities, once again, hundreds of "law enforcement" agents are deployed against a handful of Americans in a remote Montana hamlet. It is noteworthy that Jordan has never had a crime problem. What lured these hundreds of federal agents to the area? They had discovered that an armed and extremely dangerous family was holed up on a 964-acre ranch near Jordan. These "dangerous" criminals are accused of mail fraud, conspiracy, and bank fraud because they issued some $19.5 million in checks and money orders between August 1994 and December 1995.

I feel some personal responsibility for the actions of the accused, because they were following precepts and documented information which I had released to the American public in 1953, and which have now alerted at least ten million Americans to the nature of the problem. This information, presently available under the title of "Secrets of the Federal Reserve", documents that in Thanksgiving week of 1910, some of the world's leading bankers gathered at the Millionaire's Club at Jekyll Island, Georgia, a group representing one-sixth of the wealth of the entire world, to enter into a criminal conspiracy to seize all of the money and credit of the American people. The Conspirators had gone to considerable effort to keep their identity and their purpose secret, which is the prime evidence of conspiracy to commit a crime. They were functioning as a "syndicate" under the auspices of the Rockefeller Foundation, a prime example of a syndicate, and under orders from Baron Rothschild of London to produce a plan which would give them total control of the money and credit of the people of the United States.

The Jekyll Island group was led by Senator Nelson Aldrich, Majority Leader of the Senate. His daughter, Abby Aldrich, had married John D. Rockefeller, Jr. a few years before this meeting. Also present was Frank Vanderlip, president of National City Bank, the depository for the billions of income from Rockefeller's Standard Oil monopoly; Paul Warburg, of Kuhn, Loeb Co., New York, the secret agent of the House of Rothschild in the United States, and Henry P. Davison, right hand man of J.P. Morgan, also a secret Rothschild agent.

The Oxford English Dictionary defines a "syndicate" as follows: "3. A combination of capitalists and financiers entered into for the purpose of prosecuting a scheme requiring large sources of capital, especially one having the object of obtaining control of the market in a particular commodity."

At Jekyll Island, the goal was to obtain a monopoly of money, which J.P. Morgan himself had defined, in testimony before the Pujo Committee, as "Money is a commodity." Their monopoly plan, written at Jekyll Island, was presented to the Congress in 1913 as the Federal Reserve plan, although it was the antithesis of "federal", because it transferred Congress' historic mission to issue money, as defined in Article II, Section 8 of the Constitution of the United States, delivering this function to a privately-owned bank, the Federal Reserve Bank. This private bank, in the language of the Federal Reserve Act, was now designated as the official fiscal agent of the United States. It had no "reserves", nor did it need any, because it now had a license from Congress to print as much money as it chose, with no restrictions or oversight from Congress.

Although the Federal Reserve scrip initially had gold backing, this was surreptitiously removed in later years. The final step in this conspiracy was achieved in 1942. Noted financial writer, Henry Hazlitt, wrote in Newsweek magazine for January 4, 1943:

"The money that began to appear in circulation a week ago, December 21, 1942, was really printing-press money in the fullest sense of the term, that is, money which has no collateral of any kind behind it.... We repeat, these notes have absolutely no collateral of any kind behind them."

cans to this production of Federal Reserve notes which had no backing or collateral, a few citizens resolved that, as Americans in good standing, they also could issue checks and other negotiable instruments with collateral the equivalent to that of the Federal Reserve notes—that is, none. Thus is the background for the $19.5 million of “bogus” checks and money orders which caused the government to charge the Freemen with conspiracy and fraud. But their “conspiracy” had been preceded by the criminal syndicate which met secretly at Jekyll Island, and which had functioned since 1914 without hindrance from the government.

What was the difference between the Freemen of Jordan and the private stockholders of the Federal Reserve Bank? Legally, none. The only charge that could be brought against them is cutting themselves in on the private monopoly of the Federal Reserve Bank. Although the Federal Reserve System indeed was chartered under authority of the Congress of the United States, it has no legal standing in court because it originated as a secret criminal conspiracy, thoroughly documented in my work. In fact, the Jordan ranchers probably are less criminal than the dynastic families which have owned the Private stock of the Federal Reserve Banks since 1914.

LICENSE TO PRINT MONEY

In issuing their checks and money orders, the Jordan group could be said to follow the great tradition of American banking, as documented on page 157 of Secrets Of The Federal Reserve:

“Governor W.P.G. Harding of the Federal Reserve Board testified in 1921 that ‘The Federal Reserve Bank is an institution owned by the stockholding member banks. The Government has not a dollar’s worth of stock in it.’”

From page 167 of Secrets: “on September 30, 1941, before the House Committee on Banking and currency, was asked by Representative Wright Patman, chairman of the Committee:

‘How did you get the money to buy those two billion dollars worth of Government securities in 1933?’
ECCLES: We created it.

PATMAN: Out of what?

ECCLES: Out of the right to issue credit money.

MR. PATMAN: And there is nothing behind it, is there, except our Government’s credit?

ECCLES: That is what our money system is. If there were no debts in our money system, there wouldn’t be any money.”

What Chairman Eccles of the Federal Reserve Board was referring to was the ancient, five-thousand-year-old Babylonian money system, in which all money is created out of debt. This scheme finally enslaves the entire population in a sea of unpayable debt.

Congressman Wright Patman explains in his groundbreaking book, The Primer of Money, that “The cash, in truth, does not exist and has never existed. What we call ‘cash reserves’ are simply bookkeeping credits entered upon bookkeeping ledgers of the Federal Reserve Banks. The credits are created by the Federal Reserve Banks and then passed along through the banking system.”

As Patman tells us, the Federal Reserve’s private stockholders “create money out of nothing” as “bookkeeping credits entered upon ledger s”. Thus our entire five-trillion-dollar “national debt” has never existed except as entries in the ledgers of the Federal Reserve Banks. We can hardly criticize the Jordan ranchers for deciding to do the same thing, as spelled out in my work.

The system of the conspirators is further detailed by Peter L. Bernstein, in A Primer On Money, Banking and Gold. He says:

“The trick in the Federal Reserve notes is that the Federal Reserve banks lose no cash when they pay out this currency to the member banks. Federal Reserve notes are not redeemable in anything except what the Government calls ‘legal tender’ - that is, money that a creditor must be willing to accept from a debtor in payment of sums owed him. But since all Federal Reserve notes are themselves declared by law to be legal money, they are really redeemable only in themselves.... they are an irredeemable obligation issued by the Federal Reserve Banks.”

JORDAN RANCHERS ISSUE “MONEY”

The Jordan ranchers availed themselves of “equal opportunity” to write checks and money orders redeemable only in themselves, the identical manner in which Federal Reserve notes are issued. Furthermore, the “paper” of the Jordan ranchers was accepted by both banks and individuals. Once it has been accepted, there is no further legal claim on the ranchers.

However, it seems unlikely that they will ever be given the opportunity to document this in court, or to have me testify on their behalf. What we are seeing is the potential toppling of the entire Federal Reserve debt structure, which cannot be substantiated even in their own Admiralty courts or under authority of the Crown of England and the Bank of England, which is its sole authority.

The hundreds of federal agents now assembled at Jordan are there as “Federal Reserve” police whose sole mission is to enforce the Federal Reserve monopoly against any encroachment, while the “Federal Reserve press” the mass media of the United States, carries on a frenetic propaganda war against the Jordan group, denouncing them as check forgers who commit wire fraud and mail fraud.

LAND SEIZURE

The 964-acre ranch which is the scene of the standoff had previously been foreclosed and sold. The ranchers protested that the bank had not advanced them any “substance for substance” as is required by the law of contract, and that they had merely advanced them “bookkeeping ledger entries”, as is the custom with the Federal Reserve System and the banks with which it does business. The Federal Reserve System also requires a code number on all negotiable instruments which it handles, this secret code being an integral part of its conspiracy. Thus all those who transact business using these secret code numbers are drawn into the conspiracy against their will, and become reluctant serfs of its system.

To prevent the seizure of their land, the ranchers officially reorganized its ownership, establishing it as “Justus Township”. Under the laws governing townships, they have continued to operate legally and are not guilty of any offense.

The present situation is that the ranchers are now defending their township, and any armed attack against it constitutes a violation of the laws under which it had been established. Their defense is in the great tradition of the laws of the United States, its Constitution, as well as the preceding centuries of English common law, including the Magna Carta and Sir Edward Coke’s Petition Of Right, which was one of the forerunners of our Constitution. Coke’s Petition Of Right of 1628 was signed into law as the “Declaration of Rights” on February 13, 1689.

It was Sir Edward Coke who glorified the Magna Carta as the most important document in the evolu-

CONTACT: The Phoenix Project

CONTACT is a unique and inspired newspaper for concerned citizens everywhere, though it particularly focuses on the United States because of this country’s special mission in the affairs of the world. That is, “As goes the United States, so goes the world.”

CONTACT is a vehicle for Commander Gyeorgos Ceres Hatonn’s most recent writings on important current affairs, plus those from other enlightening sources, on matters critical to a responsible and informed public at this time of planetary transition and final days of battle between the Forces of Light and the “Evil Empire” forces of darkness.

CONTACT exists to counteract the manipulating lies and clever half-truths put out (on purpose) by the regular print and broadcast media prostitutes of the Satanic Elite controllers—parasites who are in the process of economically, physically, and spiritually collapsing this once great country (and actually the entire planet) down to a slave-state level of existence under their diabolical control plan called The New World Order.

This newspaper, CONTACT, began life on March 30, 1993, risen, like the mythical bird, with great determination “up from the ashes” of its internationally acclaimed predecessor called THE PHOENIX LIBERATOR.

THE PHOENIX LIBERATOR, in turn, began life in mid-October of 1991, having evolved from an earlier newsletter called the PHOENIX JOURNAL EXPRESS, which itself came into existence as a faster way to get THE TRUTH out to you readers than was possible with the more substantial “book” format of the PHOENIX JOURNALS. Much incredible ground has been covered so far in that mission.

While the PHOENIX LIBERATOR’s motto reminded all that “The Truth Will Set You Free”, the CONTACT’s motto, displayed prominently in the masthead, takes that thought another important step forward and proclaims: “Ye Shall Know The Truth And The Truth Shall Make You Mad!”

The “Phoenix Project” is about those preparations needed—at body, mind and soul levels—to both understand and survive the great healing changes which are beginning to energize this beautiful little planet, now so frazzled and tortured from abuses of all kinds. We look forward, with great expectations, to the *CONTACT*ing with all of you—a coming together that is rapidly taking place as the entire Phoenix Project “ground crew” continues to connect, solidify, and gain strength through becoming informed of THE TRUTH. Indeed, welcome aboard, friends!

tion of the common law of England. The Magna Carta was drawn up June 15, 1215, at Runnymede, England under the leadership of King John. Among the assembled Barons was Eustace de Vesci. Of the sixty-three paragraphs of the Magna Carta, I have most frequently quoted, in my legal briefs during the past fifty years, paragraph 39:

"No free man shall be seized or imprisoned, or stripped of his rights or possession, or outlawed or exiled, or deprived of his standing in any other way, nor will we proceed with force against him, or send others to do so, except by the lawful judgment of his equals or by the law of the land."

I have never found a judge in any United States court who paid the slightest attention to my citing of this paragraph.

The Freemen of Montana may have taken their name from this paragraph, which is also quoted in more concise form as, "No freeman shall be taken, imprisoned, disseised, outlawed, or in any way destroyed, nor will we proceed against him or prosecute him, except by the lawful judgment of his peers, and by the law of the land."

The Founding Fathers later reprised this paragraph in the Fifth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States, "No person shall be held to answer for a capital, or otherwise infamous crime, unless on a presentment or indictment by a grand jury, nor shall any person...be deprived of life, liberty, or property without due process of law."

Paragraph 9 of the Magna Carta states, "Neither we nor our officials will seize any land or rent in payment of a debt, so long as the debtor has movable goods sufficient to discharge the debt. A debtor's sureties shall not be distrained upon so long as the debtor himself can discharge his debt."

The Freemen discharged their debt, and protected their land, by issuing negotiable instruments which had the same backing as the Federal Reserve notes, and which should have been equally honored under the law.

Paragraph 34 of the Magna Carta, which I also used frequently in my lawsuits against governmental authorities, says, "The writ called precipe shall not in future be issued to anyone in respect of any holding of land, if a free man could thereby be deprived of the right of trial in his own lord's court."

In U.S. courts, a praecipe is a notice of a legal action, or of a step in said action, such as a motion or hearing.

The permanence of the Magna Carta's provisions is assured by King John in the concluding paragraph 63, "IT IS ACCORDINGLY OUR WISH AND COMMAND that the English Church shall be free, and that men in our kingdom shall have and keep all these liberties, rights, and concessions, well and peaceably in their fulness and entirety for them and their heirs, of us and our heirs, in all things and all places for ever."

In view of controversies surrounding the holding of stock in the Federal Reserve banks, many of the stockholders, being foreigners, paragraph ten and eleven of the Magna Carta could be applicable. Paragraph ten stipulates that: "If anyone who has borrowed a sum of money from Jews dies before the debt has been repaid, his heirs shall pay no interest on the debt for so long as he remains under age."

Paragraph eleven states that "If a man dies owing money to Jews, his wife may have her dower and pay nothing towards the debt from it."

MAYFLOWER COMPACT

When the signers of the Mayflower Compact (including William Mullins) drew up the first governing instrument in the New World, on November 11, 1620, they resolved "solemnly and mutually in the Presence of God and one another, covenant and combine ourselves together into a civil Body Politick." This was the origin of government in the future United States. When it was refined into the Constitution, the emphasis was not upon the rights of government, but upon the rights of its citizens, and the necessity for protecting them against encroachments by the government, necessitated by the tyrannies which they had fled in the Old World.

The Freemen of Montana are acting in the great tradition of these guarantees. They are acting from right of conscience, from the knowledge of their beliefs, and from their willingness to defend those beliefs from any encroachment by the federal power. Any assault upon those unalienable rights constitutes a violation of the statutes prohibiting same, principally U.S. Code 42, Sections 1983 through 1986. The federal agents' confrontation of the Montana Freemen not only violates Title 42 of the civil code, but also Title 18 of the Criminal Code, Sections 41 and 42.

The federal agents have established no legal basis for this confrontation or assault. The surrounding of private property by regiments of heavily armed men constitutes an assault even if no shots are fired, because the residents can reasonably expect that their lives are in danger. They are responding as We the People of the United States, prepared not only to defend themselves, but also their rights. There is a further and more disturbing aspect of the federal agents' presence at the Jordan ranch. They are there at the behest of a foreign government, the State of Israel, operating through its unregistered agent in the United States, the Jewish Masonic B'Nai B'Rith and its assault arm, the Anti-Defamation League. Not only does the ADL operate as a quasi-religious group, in violation of U.S. statutes, but also as the moving force behind any federal agency's assault upon groups such as the Montana Freemen. The very name Freemen is an affront to the tyrannical ADL, which aims to reduce all American citizens to the status of serfs of Israel. Because of the religious aspects of the federal agents' presence, they should be withdrawn before they launch their final bloody assault, as they did at the ADL-directed atrocities at Ruby Ridge and the Waco Holocaust.

FREEMEN HAVE COMMITTED NO CRIME

In conclusion, the Montana Freemen deserve the active support and praise of every American citizen because they have drawn the line. They have said, "You shall not pass this spot!" Because of their courageous action in challenging the foreign money monopoly of the Federal Reserve System, they may have set in motion a tidal wave of events which may destroy this monster and restore the historic liberties of all Americans. We can help, first and foremost, by understanding what they are trying to do. These are not the petty criminals portrayed by the media, who are writing bad checks. They are citizens who believe they have the right to issue unbacked money instruments as the Federal Reserve System has been doing, unchecked, since 1914. Heretofore, the Federal Reserve courts, as the Admiralty courts of the Bank of England are known in the United States, have succeeded in sentencing anyone who challenged the powers of the Federal Reserve System to long terms in prison.

For the first time, we have the opportunity to join with the Montana Freemen and their courageous battle for justice. They named their headquarters, "Justus Township", which can not only be interpreted as a crusade for justice, but also as "Just Us" — just American citizens, us, working together to build a greater and more harmonious nation.

Editor's note: We follow this insightful writing with a personal account of how the leader of the Montana Freemen has been treated since taken into custody. This account is a sworn affidavit, written originally in longhand, by his daughter. It is, sadly, an all-too-familiar account of "justice" in action.

Incredible Montana Freeman Update:

Federal Atrocities Top State Torture Of Patriot

LeRoy Schweitzer's Story As Told By His Daughter Brandi

To begin this affidavit, I learned of my dad's (LeRoy Schweitzer's) arrest on Monday morning, March 25th, 1996. He was taken to the Yellowstone County Detention center in Billings, Montana. Beginning that same evening through Wednesday the 27th I heard repeated reports of my dad's mistreatment. By "mistreatment" I mean he was being beaten. These facts were affirmed by friends and family members who both saw and talked with my dad on Tuesday and Wednesday. By mutual agreement, my three brothers and I decided to travel to Billings and visit with him ourselves.

On Friday the 29th we visited our dad from shortly after 3:30 pm to around 4:00 p.m.. During that time we learned that he was not just beaten but, rather, tortured. To torture means to inflict or subject to extreme physical pain according to the Funk and Wagnalls Standard Dictionary. He described in detail how the federal marshals put shackles around his ankles and wrists so tightly that he bled. He said they strapped him in a chair and kicked him in the legs, hit him in the face, grabbed him by his hair and yanked his head around, pushed in on his ears with their fingers until he almost passed out, and pressed on the backs of his finger nails. They turned down the heat in his cell, took his blanket and his mattress and left him in only his t-shirt and pants. I state all of this because, in spite of it, he was in very good spirits. He quoted the law, as he often does, and recounted the past week's events. He joked with us and asked us if we remembered some of the particular camping trips that we had been on. He told us that only good would come out of this. He said they would never break his spirit. He kept saying that, to them, this was a "hot potato" and they didn't want him to keep uncovering all the corruption. He was extremely optimistic, sound of mind, and full of conviction. This was how he appeared to me on Friday afternoon.

On Friday evening around 6:00 p.m. we visited dad again. Again he quoted law after law, recalled past events, explained his reasoning for not allowing them jurisdiction or granting them venue. He said he felt great. He got excited when he told us about God providing for him and that this was all in His plan. He said he had faith that God is in control. He talked with two receivers so two of us could talk to him at a time but his voice was so strong that the two of us without receivers could still hear him most of the time. We were allowed to visit for close to two hours. He smiled and said he loved us when we were done. He waved to us through the glass divider. This was how he looked on Friday evening the 29th just before 8:00 p.m.

On Saturday morning around 10:00 I received a phone call from a family member saying that they had moved my dad.

I spent most of the day on the phone. I called the Yellowstone County Detention Center, the Marshal's office, the F.B.I., the U.S. Attorney's office, the Governor's office, Senator's office, and the U.S. Medical Center in Springfield, Missouri. Not one person gave me an answer as to what was going on and why we were not notified that dad was being moved.

Sunday, March 31st I began to make travel plans to go to Missouri.

Monday, April 1st I made some more phone calls. I finalized our (my friend, my brother and my) travel plans. When I called the Marshal's office we had a conference call with the Medical Center. I was told they wouldn't guarantee that I could get in to see my dad.

Tuesday, April 2nd we travelled all day.

Wednesday, April 3rd, four days since I had seen my dad. At around 9:00 a.m. I called the Medical Center to ask if my brother and I could visit. We were told we could have an hour visit, granted by the warden.

At about 1:45 p.m. we arrived at the Medical Center. After we were "approved" we waited for about ten minutes in the front desk area.

Officer Daniels, who supervised us the entire time of our visit, told us that my dad would have an N-G tube in his nose that they used to force feed him. But he told us not to be "shocked", or "alarmed". After we walked through two electric doors we were shown into a room where my dad was standing and waiting. He had an N-G tube hanging out of the left side of his nose. There was white tape across his nose probably for the purpose of holding the tube in place. Dad walked slowly over to a group of chairs where we sat next to each other. He held out his hand to me and I grabbed it. He said hello in a faint, slow voice. He grabbed Scott's hand and said hello. He was dressed in a short-sleeved tan prison suit, with thin blue slippers. For the first few seconds he didn't speak. He just looked at us. He looked at each one of us. He seemed very tired. His eyes were red. He wasn't smiling. He just seemed almost surprised that we were there.

He asked us how we found him. He didn't appear disoriented, he simply looked like the last four days had been very rough on him. He told us about the tube in his nose. He explained that he is x-rayed every time they put one in. It goes up his nose and down his throat. It is extremely painful and it hurt him a great deal to talk to us. But he said they told him if he pulls it out, they'll put a bigger one in. So he said he would leave it in and stand the pain as long as he could. He did not want to be x-rayed anymore. He told us he couldn't believe how corrupt and satanic the system is. Then he held out his arms in a gesture to look at what they were willing to do a person who threatens to expose their evil ways.

It was a sight enough to make you sick to your stomach. But he reminded us that even if they destroyed his body, they would never touch his spirit. Then he added, "May God have mercy on their souls." And it was evident that he had seen something truly evil, while the rest of us were kept from knowing all that happened those four previous days. He told us of some of the threats he'd received, such as if he didn't do as he was told, they'd start breaking bones.

He said he was visited by a young doctor from New York whose threat was if dad ever did get released, they could always shoot him up full of cancer first. He looked at Scott and I and said, "You don't deserve to live in a system like this." He said, "It's very important that the people know I didn't eat." He said he made a vow not to eat or drink until he got a grand jury trial. And he's kept his word.

At this time he was obviously having a hard time talking due to the pain of the tube down his throat. He had bruises on the inside of his elbow. I asked him if he had been given any medication. He said, "They've stuck me here," pointing to the insides of both of his elbows, "and put an I.V. here," pointing to the top of his hand. He said he didn't now what type of drugs they were using, but he could smell them when they put them through the tube in his nose.

He kept talking about the family. He talked about our country and that I was too young to remember how good it used to be, but that if he could help it it would be that way again. He said, "I love my country."

At the end of our supervised visit it was hard to say good bye. He gave us a long hug and told us he loved us. He looked at us and said, "Keep your faith!" He didn't smile, he just looked at us before we were told to leave. We all cried.

This is what has been done to my father. I affirm that I am twenty-one years of age, of sound mind, and capable of listing in this affidavit the events which have taken place without the assistance of another. The statements contained herein are true, correct, and complete to the best of my knowledge and belief as of this date, April 11, 1996.

Fellow Americans:

I must be saying something that is getting to the Powers-That-Be. Last evening, they had blocked my long distance calling ability for four hours or more. I finally gave up and went to bed after the fourth hour. Time has come that I share something with you. Over the past two years I have received many, many calls from children. Some of these children have been as young as sixteen. These youngsters/children call me and say, "Grandma, do I have a future? Will I be able to grow up in a free America or will I have nothing to look forward to but a lawless government? Will I be able to grow up and have a family and go to the church of my choice, or will I be made to live by a religion which is not of my choosing? Grandma, is it true that I have nothing to look forward to but to lay in my bed and fear the federal government will break into my home and take me and my family away, or burn us to death in our beds while we sleep? Grandma, can the federal government really convict me for a crime I did not do—and put me to death—and I have no means to fight for my life?"

I do not know about the rest of you, but to me these are questions no sixteen-year-old should even be thinking of asking. These children have not even had the chance to experience a childhood. How in the Lord God's name can I answer these children's questions?! These are questions that the U.S. House of Representatives, the Executive/President of the United States and the Judiciary should be asked, and an answer need be given by them. When our future generations are deprived of the peace and glory, the experience of a wondrous childhood, and the ability to "sip the cup of peace and tranquility"—to think of only corruption and violence of our federal government and self defense of themselves and their family members—then something is damned wrong in these United States! Think about it!

Over the weekend, I was given a set of old books—the very first book I opened smacked me right in the kisser! The books were a set of old Groliers [Encyclopedia]. Lo and behold, the first thing that hit me in the kisser was International (World) Banks and Funds. Back then, for capitalization, the member nations were required by the Articles of Agreement to pay 20 percent of their total capital subscription, as called by the bank. Per Groliers: The Source of Loan Funds: "The Bank relies primarily on the money markets of the world, and specifically on the American market, to find the billions of dollars which it is authorized to lend. United States commercial banks, with capital surplus in excess of $7,000,000,000 were generally permitted to invest only up to a maximum of 10% in the securities of investment grade of a single issuer. Life insurance companies, with aggregate assets of about $48,000,000,000 were debarred in several key states from purchasing International Bank debentures."

Think about it! It does not take an Einstein to figure out why no tax dollars paid by the American people can be accounted for by the application of said tax dollars being applied to the National Debt since around 1947. The tax dollars have gone directly to the "Bank", also known as the World Bank, and there can be NO BALANCING OF THE NATIONAL BUDGET, OR PAYMENT OF THE NATIONAL DEBT!

This is the reason the balanced budget issues were so "grandiosely media-ized" by our representatives who alluded to the fact that "We would insult their intelligence and shame them in the event WE called or mandated the budget be balanced and the monies accounted for!

USC Title 18, the RICO Act, covers this nicely—it's called extortion and racketeering on the REVERSE! It is also called embezzlement of monies, monies being used for purposes other than "collected".

Do you pay taxes to support an International Bank known as the World Bank? NO! You pay taxes for three reasons only. (1) To pay off the National Debt; (2) For a common defense of the Union of the United States; (3) For the general welfare of the United States as defined in the grandfathered Constitution—which means: To ensure the industry, manufacturing and producers of the United States are PROTECTED from foreign industry, manufacturing and producers, so as to NOT discourage the industry, manufacturers and producers of the United States from their jobs of building the United States. Someone in our elected bodies "got it bass backwards"! We give Congress three things to do and they SNAFU the jobs?!

Think about it! This week our U.S. House of Representatives, Ms. Reno et al. (common law for "and others") are passing unconstitutional laws. These laws are called Anti-Terrorist Bills. These laws infringe into and onto your Bill of Rights. Is there a remedy the people can use to stop this madness?! Yes. Your state

It's Tax Free Nevada (The last of the "safe havens")

If you're looking for the benefits that incorporating has to offer, such as limiting your personal liability, increasing tax-free benefits, and raising capital through the sale of stock—taking just 5 minutes of your time to explore the benefits of forming a Nevada Corporation could save you and your company thousands of dollars.

court (appellate) has original equity jurisdiction. You are the equity owners of the state in which you reside. You have the lawful right as equity owners to recall and impeach your representatives, including any and all repugnant laws which are forbidden by your Constitution—so declared by Act of Congress, September 17, 1787 (ratification of the old Constitution) and December 15, 1791 (the First Amendment of the Constitution). Think about it!

APRIL 19, 1996

THE ANTI-TERRORIST BILL PASSED!

The Anti-Terrorist Bill prohibits fund raising or giving monies to "terrorist nations or groups". THINK ABOUT IT!

Yesterday's bombing, which caused hundreds of deaths and maimings of persons gathered and living in the UN Sanctuary in Lebanon, were bombed by Israel in a state of "blood lust" and mindless hatred for anyone or anything which is against Israel. If people in other nations object to Israel moving them off their lands, out of their homes, away from their inherited farms or whatever else they have owned for centuries—and they try to defend life, limb and property—Israel retaliates with acts which are similar to what [allegedly] occurred all across Europe during the Hitler massacres of WWII. Once again in our history, senseless blood lust, acts of depraved hearts are occurring—Israel should watch her own Holocaust propaganda messages. We watch them daily, and we compare notes...

We give billions of our tax dollars to Israel yearly. Israel kills with wanton disregard for the laws of the international communities and claims immunity to those laws which other nations are bound to uphold? It is time We, the Citizens (government) of the United States, under Article IX of the First Amendment of the Constitution of the United States "grandfathered", mandate all funds to Israel be cut off. Israel has condemned herself by her own acts as a terrorist nation! Think about it!

Things are no different here in the United States. We, the people of the Preamble of the Constitution of the United States have opposed laws imposed by Israeli agents who are in our U.S. House of Representatives, the Executive Branch and the Judiciary—the three most powerful branches of government on the globe.

The three branches of the federal government do in fact have Israeli agents on the payroll of the government of We, the People, who have taken the oath to Israel, and make no bones about the fact that their first allegiance is to "Mother Israel". You have all seen such allegiances in writing, as evidenced in the famous Diane Feinstein "letter"—which, incidentally was on the letterhead stationary of her "office of public trust".

We, the American People, suffer the brunt of Israel agents' determination to acquire properties which are not theirs to acquire—this being our lands, homes, businesses by excessive abuse of and misconstruction of our constitutional laws.

The Anti-Terrorist Bill is a retaliation against the American people because the American people have finally risen up in protest against misconstruction and abuse of congressional, executive and judiciary powers which infringe into and onto the furtherance's declaratory and restrictive clauses added to the original Constitution of the United States, and as extending the ground of public confidence in the government, to best insure the beneficent ends of its institution. This is the First Amendment of the Constitution of the United States of America, proposed by Congress, and ratified by the Legislatures of the several states, pursuant to the Fifth Article of the original Constitution, effective December 15, 1791.

Our people spoke out against "unconscionable contracts" of the federal government with a private corporation known as the Federal Reserve and its IRS agent's extortion and racketeering practices, which are forbidden by U.S.C. Title 18, Ch. 96, Racketeer Influenced and Corrupt Organizations, in its entirety—informally known as the RICO Section or RICO Act.

Our people spoke out against violations of our civil liberties and civil rights. Common Law Courts were set up by the People. Our militias stand ready. The "Chilling Effect Doctrine" has been imposed on the American people desirous of constitutional law, rights and privileges. This doctrine is defined as: In constitutional law, any law or practice which has the effect of seriously discouraging the exercise of a constitutional right, e.g., the right of appeals, etc. (the Writ of Habeas corpus) North Carolina v. Pearce, 395 U.S. 711, 89 S.Ct. 2072, 23 L.Ed. 656.

In the latest attempt to suppress individual freedoms and rights, we receive slap after slap in the face of mandatory Article Five of the original Constitution's "contract with Americans"—upheld by the First Amendment of the original Constitution—which are slapped down, being called "terrorist" in our own land by "agents of Israel declared" who try to silence our voices by imposing the Chilling Effect Doctrine on our people, calling it an "Anti-Terrorist Bill"?—all due to the American people of the United States speaking out against unwholesome, unconstitutional, repugnant laws enforced and made Acts of Congress, to "silence our voices of objection". Think about it!

For a long time now, we have been hearing about (a) crematoriums in Oklahoma and Indiana with a 3,000-body capacity, and (b) concentrations camps in the U.S. The more I hear, the more I believe this to be true. These are my reasons:

1. Eboli has been introduced into the U.S. (airborne)
2. Anthrax has been brought across our borders from Mexico—thanks to NAFTA. People get Anthrax also. (airborne)

3. Mad Cow Disease was introduced—courtesy of GATT. (ingestion of food)

4. Diseased wheat, courtesy of Monsanto and NAFTA. This destroys the fields from production for seven years. (famine)

5. Gulf War Syndrome, known to be contagious and airborne.

6. Overthrowing and setting aside our Constitution and its laws by declared agents of Israel in our representative bodies.

7. Our national defense troops in other nations, none to defend our borders or soil.

8. UN troops (at last count, 500,000) on our soil.

9. Russian Special Forces (equivalent to SS troops), called officially "Spetsnaz". (Keep in mind the SS troops of the Nazis.) These troops reportedly account for one out of every seven men sent in by the UN. Is Spetsnaz in the United States at this time? Last year, the last account of UN troops reportedly were 500,000 and 20,000 based in Texas alone.

10. Pre-WWI and WWII, a movement went across Europe to disarm the people due to too much violence and under the guise of "peace".

11. Every European nation's republican form of government and Constitution was destroyed, as is occurring in the U.S. today. Laws were passed just like yesterday's Anti-Terrorist Bill. The Reichstag, like the Murrah Federal Building, was bombed. Religious groups were herded into wooden buildings and burned alive—remember Waco?—courtesy of the Nazis—same training as the Spetsnaz on our American soil at this time.

12. Our militia and minutemen are standing ready to defend.

We, the People of the United States are on a powder keg with fuses lit at both ends, and I for one, am most concerned. You should be too. Think about it!
