Only Suckers Fall For British Line On Gold Will You Dodge Potholes?

Editor's note: Recently the Federal Reserve Board Chairman, Alan Greenspan, blew yet another mesmerizing and all-engulfing cloud of smoke-screen through one of his many active ori-faces in the process of delivering his "State Of The Economy" address before the House Banking Subcommittee. Such smoothly double-edged and calculatingly silky-fine words of deception are typically reserved for just such a spokesman among the front-men of the Elite crooks as this bankster represents. This is the New World Order at its "finest".

But this time it is possible that (maybe as practice makes perfect?) Mr. Greenspan outperformed even his usual oratory. The acting was superb; the jestures perfectly timed; the words often tugged at the heartstrings; the rhetoric was buoyant with optimism yet tempered with that cautious pseudo-wisdom the Fed Chairman is known for—that frankly elevates the concept of doublespeak "up" into the rarified heights usually reserved for presidential campaigning and children's excuses for not doing their homework. Indeed, this is the Big League in action.

More to the point of our Front Page story this week, when the "Reverend" Mr. Greenspan, after delivering his "sermon on the mount", was asked point blank (or as directly as any member of the House dared to confront him) about the recent gold devaluation and rumored sell-off situation, without hesitation

ANOTHER OPINION FROM A VETERAN: [About Biological Warfare]

From the INTERNET, 7/7/97, [quoting:]

These reports of biological warfare against Americans, using aerosol methods, planes, and exhaust pipes, are plausible, but if our government was behind it they would be speeding up the inoculation program for our forces. [Not necessarily, because they are trying to deactivate our own forces so the foreign forces are in control in the U.S. And, furthermore, do you have proof of whether they are or are not inoculating our troops?] I sincerely believe that the possibility of some future attack is real. I believe that the main purpose is to instigate the National ID Card for citizens in order [to have] treatment.

I don't believe in emerging-viruses, but engineered-viruses, especially the ones where bacteria are encased with 40% of the HIV 1 envelope gene.

I don't put much faith in colloidal silver products, or antibiotics that are incapable of eradicating these germ warfare agents. [See information on pgs. 7, 9, 10 and 23 for products.]

We have been bombarded by news releases of an Iraqi threat, yet we have laws which state our own government can unleash these organisms upon an unknowing population. I fear the government more than Iraq. [AMEN, to that]

I am not stating to not be prepared, but I believe they will unleash a class-level-five organism that has no known treatment. My 2 pennies' worth. Dannie [End quoting]

Dannie presents some excellent thoughts.

IN THE NEWS TODAY WE HAVE A REPORT FROM CHICKEN LITTLE

Opposing views. You decide—I am sorry it's so confusing.

From the INTERNET, update June 11, 1997, [quoting:]

Date for biological attack in July is leaning toward July 20th as D-day which means the Anthrax/plague would be dispersed around the 17th.

Another 27 cities will probably be hit along with NYC according to our Intel [intelligence?] report.

SAC base—upstate NY—abandoned SAC base was the object of a major clean-up/refurbishing beginning three weeks ago. Concrete bunkers were refurbished along with underground fuel tanks at the site. The railroad spur at the site was also cleaned up.

Presently located at the site are six C-130s. Also being stored at the site are several hypobarometric bombs. The bombs will be dropped out of the C-130s in the case of the Anthrax/plague attack. Intel states the bombs are dropped slowly, by parachute, out the rear of the C-130s; a tremendous mist disperses, an ignition charge detonates and blows [fuel/air bombs?].

Intense heat of around 2700 degrees is also dispersed. The bomb consumes all oxygen in the area and burns everything in sight. Casualty management teams consider this a defense measure to contain the biologicals.

The bombs were brought in by railway and are approximately 15-20 feet in diameter and 25-30 feet long. C-130s have been modified with racks or rollers to guide the bomb for a more accurate drop.

Folks, the news is this. The Scoundrels In Charge (SIC) have figured out the best way to discredit the patriot movement. They just release some preposterous NEWS, by way of some official sounding "official" or "officer", knowing that there will be some "Chicken Littles" who will squawk to high heaven and declare that either the sky is falling or the government is going to Anthrax the US population.

Then after they have spread the "news", and the 17th and the 20th come and go with no fallen sky and no Anthrax release—well, consider the source.

And the next time they "cry wolf"? Well, fool me once, shame on you. Fool me twice, shame on me. And for the general public which hears that the patriot movement insisted that there was going to be an Anthrax attack by the government, well, goodbye credibility. [End quoting]

Sounds like he may be right on target.

BRONFMAN PROMOTES SATAN'S MARILYN MANSON

From FLASHPOINT newsletter, July 1997, [quoting:]

Which high-ranking member of the global Elite is financially involved in satanic rock music? The answer is: Edgar Bronfman, head of the World Jewish Congress. Bronfman is sponsor of possibly the Earth's most wicked rock group, Marilyn Manson.

Marilyn Manson is the newest satanic, heavy metal rock band for youth. The band's name honors the late Hollywood starlet, Marilyn Monroe, who committed suicide, and mass killer Charles Manson. The group makes plain its satanic goal of destroying Christianity and Christ. Its newest album production is titled, Antichrist Superstar.

Asked by a rock magazine interviewer about their connection with the Church of Satan and its leader, Anton LaVey, the band's leader responded:

"Yeah, I always mention LaVey as being an influence to my way of thinking. What I have to say turns a lot of people on to his ideals. LaVey and other satanists, like Nietzsche and Aleister Crowley, have all been great influences on the way that I think. They've all been antichrists in their own right, and I think I'm just kind of filling their shoes. Each age has to have at least one brave individual that tried to bring an end to Christianity, which no one has managed to succeed yet, but maybe through music we can finally do it." [emphasis mine]

Just what kind of music company would give this demented group a fat contract worth millions of dollars and help promote their satanic philosophies? An evil one, that's for sure. In fact, Marilyn Manson's CDs and tapes are produced and sold by Interscope, a company owned by Edgar Bronfman, the Canadian billionaire who also owns Seagram's, the world's largest distillery. The Bronfman dynasty is exposed in my [Texe Marrs'] book, Circle of Intrigue. [End quoting]

And the churches think rock music is good for their congregants, as more and more of them include it in their services.

UN TROOPS IN U.S.A. UPDATE

From FLASHPOINT newsletter, July 1997, [quoting:]

An article published recently in Der Spiegel, the influential and popular German news magazine, matter of factly reported that German soldiers would be participating with other nations' armed forces in the "Roving Sands" military war games at Fort Bliss, Texas.

Our own U.S.A. Today newspaper, in its April 8, 1997 edition, also reported on the Roving Sands war games exercise, announcing that, according to Fort Bliss officials, "More than 30,000 soldiers, airmen, and Marines from the United States, Germany, the Netherlands, and Canada" would be participating.

Meanwhile, Living Truth Ministries has received many photographs and eye-witness reports of UN troops operating throughout North America. Amazingly, the average American citizen is totally ignorant of this sell-out of American sovereignty. [End quoting]

We invite the foreign troops in—house them and train them to turn us into their slaves—or worse, to kill us. WAKE UP, AMERICA!!

THE IMPORTANCE OF MOTHERS AND FATHERS

From IMPRIMIS newsletter, June 1997, [quoting:]

No matter what the advocates of "gender-free parenting" may say, mothers and fathers do parent differently. Mothers tend to be more verbal, whereas fathers are more physical. Mothers also tend to encourage personal safety and caution, whereas fathers are more challenging when it comes to achievement, independence, and risk-taking. And mothers tend to be stronger comforting figures than fathers who are more intent upon establishing and enforcing rules governing the behavior of their children.

The fact that mothers and fathers parent differently is not to say that one group does it "right" or "better" than the other. What children need to develop good character is the combination of what mothers and fathers bring to the parenting equation. Take the fact that mothers tend to be nurturers and fathers tend to be disciplinarians. Parenting experts used to believe that families socialize children best when both parents adopt a nurturing but permissive role, demonstrating high levels of love and low levels of control. Decades of research have shown, however, that when children are reared this way they act out through chronic bad behavior. Permissiveness as a "parenting style" simply doesn't work. Boys and girls need a high level of nurturing balanced by a high level of control. Those who are reared in families that exhibit this combination are friendlier, more energetic, and better behaved. Those who are reared by single mothers, therefore, are warm and affectionate but have difficulty learning self-discipline. Conversely, those who are reared by single fathers are obedient but often plagued by anxiety and insecurity.

It has also been fashionable for those pushing for gender-free parenting to assert that the physical play of fathers has no beneficial impact on child rearing. Many self-proclaimed child experts exhort fathers to stop playing with the kids and do more housework. Some even claim that the rough and tumble play of fathers teaches aggression and should be avoided. But new clinical studies reveal that the physical play of fathers actually gives children much-needed practice in regulating their emotions and behavior and helps them develop the capacity to recognize the emotional cues of others.

The point is not to force a choice between the parenting role of mothers or fathers but to suggest that they work best when they work together. This view contrasts sharply with the "two pair of hands" argument, which holds that when it comes to parenting, two people are better than one and it makes no difference whether they are mothers or fathers. In reality it matters greatly to whom the "two pairs of hands" are attached. Kids don't need impersonal "caregivers"; they need loving moms and dads.

Fathers are also critical to the proper socialization of children because they teach by example how to keep negative impulses in check. It is through boys' observation of the way their fathers deal with frustration, anger, and sadness that they learn how men should cope with such emotions. It is also through the observation of how fathers treat mothers that boys learn how men should treat women. If fathers treat mothers with dignity and respect, then it is likely that their sons will grow up to treat women with dignity and respect. If fathers treat mothers with contempt and cruelty, then it is likely that their son will, too. Fathers are also critical for the healthy emotional development of girls. If girls experience the love, attention, and protection of fathers, then they are likely to resist the temptations of seeking such things elsewhere—often through casual sexual relations at a very young age. Finally, fathers are important in helping children make the difficult transition to the adult world. Boys require an affirmation that they are “man enough”. Girls require an affirmation that they are “worthy enough”.

Given this understanding, what should we expect when fatherlessness becomes the norm? We don't need a crystal ball to find the answer. As I indicated earlier, nearly four out of every ten children are being raised absent their fathers right now. The result is that juveniles are the fastest-growing segment of the criminal population in the United States. Between 1982 and 1991, the rate at which children were arrested for murder increased 93 percent; for aggravated assault, 72 percent; for rape, 24 percent; and for automobile theft, 97 percent. Although homicide rates have increased for all ages, those for teenagers have increased more rapidly than for adults.

The teen population is expected to grow by 20 percent over the next decade, and this is precisely the generation most likely to be reared without fathers. The prospect has led many sociologists, criminologists, and law enforcement agencies to conclude that shortly after the turn of the century we will see an adolescent crime wave the likes of which has never been seen before in this country. As if that were not enough, we know that each and every day:

7,700 children become sexually active;

1,100 children have abortions;

2,500 children are born out of wedlock;

600 children contract syphilis or gonorrhea; and six children commit suicide.

Fatherlessness is not solely responsible for these tragedies, but it certainly is a major cause. Indeed, all the available evidence suggests that improving the well-being of our children—and ultimately our nation—depends upon finding ways to bring fathers back into the home. The question is: How? [End quoting]

Occasionally, ones in the general media try to give us some truth. THANK GOD!

THE FATHERHOOD SOLUTION

From IMPRIMIS newsletter, June 1997, [quoting:]

First, our culture needs to replace the idea of the superfluous father with a more compelling understanding of the critical role fathers play in the lives of their children, not just as “paycheck”, but as disciplinarians, teachers, and moral guides. And fathers must be physically present in the home. They can't simply show up on weekends or for prearranged “quality time”. Children need to know that their fathers are literally there for them.

Second, we need to convey the importance and sanctity of marriage. While most boys and girls expect that they will eventually get married and have children, they no longer believe that there needs to be a chronology to these two events. They should be taught that marriage comes first and that it is not a trial arrangement that can be abandoned whenever conflicts arise. Here's where religious and moral instruction can make a huge difference, because children need to know that marriage is far more than a state-approved contract between two parties or a box to check on an income tax return.

Third, we must make restoring the rights and responsibilities of parents a national priority. Over the past century, child rearing has increasingly come to be viewed as a public rather than a private matter. As early as 1901, the Supreme Court of Indiana upheld a compulsory education law by arrogantly declaring, “The natural rights of a parent to custody and control of his children are subordinate to the power of the state.” The assault on parental authority gradually extended to all other areas of life. By 1960, one social worker writing in the prestigious journal, Child Welfare, felt free to note that “day care can offer something valuable to children because they are separated from their parents.” [Emphasis added.] School-based condom distribution, “witch hunts” against parents suspected of abuse without sufficient cause, abortion on demand without parental consent, these are all contemporary examples of how the state has chosen to wage war against parents and convince children that the very people they count on most in this world are out to hurt them. In essence, the state is saying to today's children, “Do not trust your parents—we don't.” [emphasis mine]

The tide is turning, however. Even many diehard critics of the traditional family have finally been forced to admit that their ivory tower theories are wrong; in the real world, children need to be raised by two parents. And parents need the freedom to decide what is in the best interest of their own children. Another positive development is the “pro family movement” that has grown tremendously in the last few years. [emphasis mine] There are now dozens of national and regional organizations dedicated to championing parental initiatives. And pro family rallies have attracted stadium-size crowds around the country.

What can you do right now in your own home and your own community? You can start by pledging, “I will be a good wife and mother,” or, “I will be a good husband and father.” It is a simple promise, to be sure. But it is a promise upon which a good, just, and civil society depends. [End quoting]

It's about time parents start kicking the government out of their homes.

EPA SCIENTISTS TAKE STAND AGAINST FLUORIDATION

From the INTERNET, 7/13/97, [quoting:]

Contact: Jeff Green, Citizens For Safe Drinking Water, (800) 728-3833, (619) 222-6981 (fax).

AMAZING: Scientists take stand against Fluoridation. Folks, this is truly incredible. The EPA and its protectors finally realize that fluoride is a deadly chemical? I can't figure it out.

The EPA scientists, engineers and attorneys who assess the scientific data for Safe Drinking Water Act standards and other EPA regulations have gone on record against the practice of adding fluoride to public drinking water.

On Wednesday, July 2, 1997, National Federation of Federal Employees, Local 2050, which consists of professionals at EPA headquarters in Washington, D.C., voted unanimously to co-sponsor the California

Safe Drinking Water Initiative that would reverse the State Legislature's 1995 law mandating fluoridation.

Both proponents of fluoridation and the sponsors of this initiative consider the result of the fluoridation battle in California to be crucial to the federal government's plan to fluoridate the entire United States by the year 2000.

Citizens for Safe Drinking Water and their sponsors are circulating petitions to gather 500,000 signatures by October to place the initiative prohibiting fluoridation in California on the June 1998 statewide ballot.

In its endorsement of the initiative, the EPA professional's union states, “It is our hope that our co-sponsorship of the Safe Drinking Water Initiative to prohibit fluoridation will have a beneficial effect on the health and welfare of all Californians by helping to keep their water free of a chemical substance for which there is substantial evidence of adverse health effects and, contrary to public perception, virtually no evidence of significant benefits.”

The statement from NFFE Local 2050 continues, “Our members' review of the body of evidence over the last eleven years, including animal and human epidemiology studies, indicate a causal link between fluoride/fluoridation and cancer, genetic damage, neurological impairment, and bone pathology. Of particular concern are recent epidemiology studies linking fluoride exposure to lowered IQ in children.

“As the professionals who are charged with assessing the safety of drinking water, we conclude that the health and welfare of the public is not served by the addition of this substance to the public water supply.”

After numerous attempts to correct EPA management conclusions that were not supported by the available facts, the union attempted to join a lawsuit against their own employer in 1986, citing “fraudulent alterations of data and negligent omission of fact to arrive at predetermined Agency political positions regarding fluoride”.

Dr. Wm. L. Marcus, Senior Science Advisor in EPA's Office of Drinking Water, was fired for a 1990 whistle-blowing memo calling for a review of the cover-up of the National Toxicology Program study that shows fluoride is a “probable human carcinogen [cancer causing agent]”.

Under the Safe Drinking Water Act, that finding alone prohibits the addition of fluoride to the public water supply. Although Dr. Marcus won his whistle-blower lawsuit, with punitive damages, and returned to work at the EPA, the classifications were never reviewed.

Historically, fluoridation is mandated by government and rejected by citizens. Communities all over the U.S. are currently fighting for their right to choose. Japan and nearly all of Europe have rejected fluoridation.

The California Safe Drinking Water Initiative reads:

“The public water supply should be safe for all to drink.

“In order to protect the public health from increased risk of hip fracture, cancer, dental fluorosis and other harmful effects which have been linked to fluoride in the scientific literature, and whereas data from the U.S. Public Health Service and the State of California show no significant difference in decay rates of permanent teeth and dental costs in fluoridated and non fluoridated areas in California,”

Section 116410 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read: “No fluoride or fluorine-containing substance may be added to public water systems. All laws to the contrary are hereby repealed.”

AMAZING: SCIENTISTS TAKE STAND AGAINST FLUORIDATION

From the INTERNET, 7/10/97, [quoting:]

Treason's Peace, by Senator Armbruster, talked about this very issue!

The government has known for years, including the AMA and the Dental Association who finally went along with corporate America in 1947, that it is a poison, but they (corporations) had to find a way to make money on their waste product. They sold tons of it to Russia to use in the water for their political prisoners to drink.

It is a known fact that it lowers the IQ of students and causes more cavities than it helps.

Studies in Phoenix, AZ, prove this. In China they fluoridated the water for school children and used a control group of students who did not use the fluoride and those that didn't scored higher on IQ tests.

Another fact is that the Nazis used it on their prisoners because it makes individuals complacent, docile! When W.W.II was over, the Netherlands outlawed the use of fluorides in the water because they knew why it was used on the population.

Just thought I would let you know a few facts on this subject. [End quoting]

The fluoride in toothpaste is a poison and there have been millions of words used in debating why it is added to it. Supposedly it will help keep down decay, but it can have other deleterious effects which the Elite desire.

However, Commander Hatonn has said that anybody who has metal fillings in their mouth will benefit from the small amount of fluoride used in brushing because it will want to combine with any stray metal particles as they are worn off. This will help the body to dispose of them. The heavy metal particles are a worse threat than this small amount of fluoride.

EARTHWATCH: A DIARY OF THE PLANET

Excerpted from LOS ANGELES TIMES, July 10, 1997, [quoting:]

Eruptions: Mexico's Popocatepetl Volcano erupted, spewing clouds of hot ash five miles into the air, and forced the evacuation of thousands of people from around the mountain. Mexican army troops stood by to assist. The eruption, the largest since 1925, dropped ash, soot and sand on Mexico City, 33 miles away.

Montserrat's Soufriere Hills volcano erupted again after last week's explosion flattened seven villages and killed nine people. A report from the Montserrat Volcano Observatory said gas and hot ash flows are not expected to end any time soon.

Indonesia issued an alert because of increased activity at the Mount Ijen volcano. Jakarta's Kompas daily quoted a volcanologist as saying: "The situation at the moment is very dangerous for visitors. Everyone is strictly barred from climbing the volcano."

World Floods: Rain, floods and landslides forced the closure of Hong Kong schools, government offices and businesses in what were described as the worst rainstorms in 50 years. Some festivities to mark the handover of the colony to China were canceled. Rescue workers reported more than 70 landslides. More than 12,000 people were forced to take ferries when landslides closed the main Tuen Mun Highway. During three days, more than 16 inches of rain fell on parts of the former British colony.

Taiwan's southern counties were badly hit by torrential rains, which killed 5 people.

Lake Como overflowed its banks as northern Italy was lashed by torrential rains. The flooding killed at least two people. Brenner pass, Europe's major north-south Alpine link, was temporarily closed by the storms. Flooding also occurred in England and Scotland.

Alaska Fires: Major fires burned through parts of central Alaska, where summer temperatures neared 90 degrees Fahrenheit. In some areas near McGrath and Fairbanks, smoke cut visibility to one mile. Two major fires, one covering more than 167,000 acres and the other 40,000, burned in the Innoko National Wildlife Refuge. At least 39 other blazes burned throughout the state.

Magnetic Death: A "magnetic front" is blamed for disorienting tens of thousands of racing pigeons that flew the English Channel to France to mark the British Racing Pigeon Society's centenary. Laurent Toussaint, responsible for monitoring the race, told the Times of London, "There was a magnetic front south of the release point, over the Loire... which would certainly have disoriented them." Dead pigeons were seen strewn along roadsides in France. [End quoting]

And the hurricane in along the Gulf Coast this past week has poured down 30+ inches of rain in 1-2 days in some areas, and as of July 23 it was still flooding areas of the Southeast.

Mother Earth's storms and rumblings, as well as the Elite's toying with the natural forces, are warnings of bigger and bigger catastrophes to come.

I hope and pray ALL are prepared!!

THE UNTOUCHABLES

Excerpted from FAX sent by John Ray, 5/15/97, [quoting:]

How many people perished in the WW II Jewish Holocaust?

Pick a number—is basically what the enclosed excerpt from a British newsletter, Final Conflict, is suggesting.

Meanwhile, there were 20 million Russians and other Soviet Slavs who were killed during WW II, along with the Jews; there were two million Poles who died, along with the Jews; there were 1.5 million Yugoslavs who perished, along with (a smattering) of the Jews...

Yet the world only remembers the holocaust as a "Jewish event".

Get the point?

Making the Holocaust a "Jewish event" had been the best marketing job.

Bob Dj.

Apr. 5, A letter to the editor...

To: Final Conflict (a British newsletter)

Since 1954 there have been many conflicting claims concerning the number of Jewish people (and others) who died at Auschwitz-Birkenau (Oswiecim) concentration camp. However, it is only [with] recent research and access to hitherto unavailable documents, that these numbers have drastically lowered, possibly indicating that more of our people survived. Perhaps the 6 million often publicised (though our best figure is 4.5 million) may also need to be revised lower, we hope.

(Signed) Dr. Nathan Nussbaum

Honorary Director

Centre for Jewish Holocaust Studies.

According to official documents in the French Republic (Institute for the Examination of War-criminals) the number that died in Auschwitz was: 8,000,000

According to the French daily newspaper Le Monde (20 April, 1978): 5,000,000

According to the memorial plaque on the gas-chamber monument at Auschwitz-Birkenau (later removed in 1990 by the Polish Government): 4,000,000

According to the "confession" of Rudolf Hoess, the last commandant of Auschwitz, q.v. interrogation record and written statement before his 'suicide': 3,000,000

According to a statement by Yeduha Bauer, Director of the Institute for Contemporary Jewry at the Hebrew University, Jerusalem: 1,600,000

According to La Monde [sic] (1 September, 1989): 1,433,000

According to Prof. Raul Hilberg (professor for Holocaust Research, and author of the book, The Annihilation of European Jewry, 2nd ed., 1968: 1,250,000

According to Polish historians, q.v. DPA—Report of July 1990 and corresponding public announcements: 1,000,000

According to Gerald Reitlinger, author of Die Endlosung: 850,000

In the Autumn of 1989 the Soviet President Mikhail Gorbachev opened Soviet archives, and the public saw for the first time, the complete register of deaths at Auschwitz—which speaks as a key document of 74,000 dead!

(And these are not all Jews, as stated above.)

Bob Djurdjevic

TRUTH IN MEDIA [End quoting]

This sounds much more realistic than the 6 million number the Elite Khazarian Jews have been toutting all over this globe.

I read in the paper today that the Elite Jews are now going after the Austrian banks as well as the Swiss banks. They are attempting to extort huge sums from them also.

THOUGHTS

Excerpted from THE SEEKERS, Jul/Aug 1997, [quoting:]

It is the beginning of Summer 1997. The atmosphere all around is shaky. People everywhere seem to feel that something is "going to happen". The weather is the topic of conversation on everyone's lips. There are so many things to cause a person to be sad and disillusioned.

"Look up for when ye see things come to pass know that the end is nigh." End of an era? End of time as we know it? End of the world? If this be true then why are we so sad? After all, most reading this say they are ready to meet their Creator; we should be happy and looking forward to that glorious day. I know that there are many hard and unhappy days ahead whatever the end might be. Life will be lots easier if we have a positive attitude toward life in general and work (for the night cometh when no man can work) to help those around us who are less fortunate than us.

"Do all you can and God will always lend a helping hand; but first, you must do all you can."

So many people believe that God will take care of all their needs and that they need not exert themselves in any way. I believe this is a distortion of truth. Our Creator will take care of our needs—if we work by living in accordance to His laws. We must not be passive "watchers". To have a garden we must till the soil and plant the seeds. Even broken bones are healed by God, but it works lots better if they are first properly set in place. An old Chinese proverb says, "A man grows most tired by standing still." Let's not let grass grow under our feet. [End quoting]

Shouldn't we consider this "the quickening", as Art Bell calls it—or, the "handwriting on the wall" according to the Bible?

I think we're almost out of time for preparation for some BIG changes.

A Sobering Reminder About Chemical & Biological Warfare

Editor's note: We have been trying to get to this for weeks now, but with the financially-mandated smaller papers recently, it is only now that we could take the space to present this most critical review from Commander Hatonn, in conjunction with last week's article (page 8) on the subject of the rumors about nasty biological and chemical warfare activities planned for we, the mostly unsuspecting and unprepared masses.

The following information was first presented in early 1990 in Phoenix Journal #12, called Crucifixion Of The Phoenix. We are repeating it at this time not just for the benefit of newer readers, but because we ALL need to be reminded about the diabolical manufacture and experimentation that has gone on in this arena for some time now—always with the plan in mind to unleash such on an unsuspecting public as we approach ever closer to the New World Order's milestone year 2,000.

Of course the blame for the release of these bugs or toxic chemicals will always be arranged to fall upon whomever is chosen to be the politically expedient victim. Meanwhile, the TRUE instigators will likely get away with their deceptions—or will they? — E.Y.

2/13/90 #1 HATONN

The highest form of crucifixion is the innocent killing of your own people by poison substance and biological diseases. You have had both going on for centuries. I believe as you read along here that you will find it is appropriate material for this Journal—perhaps even the first chapter in this Journal. In an exceptional program called Panorama, made for the BBC television, we thank Roger Bolton, the editor. I also acknowledge the brave and daring work of Robert Harris and Jeremy Paxman. And in highest respect we honor John Coleman for his daring public projection of information as well as James H. Jones who penned Bad Blood. The list of ones mentioned may be quite long so we will give honor as we recognize them by label. Dear ones, you have many daring pioneers who are speaking out—please support them. Even if you cannot yet believe that the Global World Plan 2000 is actual, please read with an open mind. Men and women are risking their very lives to bring forth this information—many have been slain for their efforts—please honor them.

This very day, as the "crimes" unfold out of the Soviet Bloc nations such as Romania, the shocking incidents must be recorded. I cannot ask this scribe to pen long enough to cover it all but let me share a heinous situation in Romania regarding AIDS.

Western physicians returned from Bucharest to report that in bleak wards were little tots sharing cribs and blankets, 550 children, roughly a third of those tested (not all were tested), carry the AIDS virus. Fifty are already terminal in the active course of the disease.

As the gaps in what you call The Iron Curtain widen, it becomes blatantly obvious that there is a seething new world of AIDS—where the medical community has not been the solution but has, in fact, caused the problem and continues its spread.

It is now expected that it will likewise spread into Eastern Europe in epidemic proportions. According to Dr. David Heymann of the World Health Organization (speak of foxes in the chicken coop), a member of an emergency team sent into Romania just this past week, believes this to be probable. The AIDS has been spread through non-disposable needles and contaminated blood. It is calculated that in one incident, at least 120 babies were contaminated from one infected baby. This plague has now spread across several cities—Polish AIDS patients have been denied treatment in hospitals.

What do you believe will happen now as the curtain is swept away? What greeted you this very week in the news—"East Germans coming into West Germany are hitting the adult sex stores in mammoth numbers"—was the headline. Romania reports a dramatic increase in "sex for sale". As repressive dictatorships give way to more permissive democracies, increases in prostitution, illicit drug use and contacts with foreigners open new channels for the virus—even the "closed" press reports.

Yugoslavia, with a longer history of openness and higher drug use, has more AIDS victims than have been found so far in Romania. East Germany has now signed an agreement for AIDS assistance from West Germany, whose over 4,000 active disease victims exceed the number in all of Eastern Europe. I urge you to review Aids, The Last Great Plague! [Editor's note: This Journal (#8) has been replaced with two others of major importance: #65 and #130. See Back Page for ordering information.] You must have knowledge about the disease as well as the concept of the magnitude of spreading infection—the compounding of the spread—and the "Big Boys" have other disease viruses waiting if you find a cure too soon for this one.

LET US LOOK INTO THIS MURDER

You must be aware of the conspiracy to wipe out large numbers of people from certain racial groups, so-called "undesirable" groups and entire geographical areas.

According to a plan reported by the Global 2000 Report, this mass genocide was supposed to take place during 1984 to 1990. It is to be completed by the year 2000—hence the title. It is to coincide with THE PLAN 2000 for economic takeover. There is no need to "prove" that this conspiracy is alive and thriving—go do your homework if you suffer disbelief. There is plenty of well documented information available, "unfortunately". Ignorance or hiding from the circumstance will not save you—information and wise actions can.

Events in Iran and India have confirmed that the conspirators are moving in the direction recommended by one labeled Cyrus Vance. There is a 36-volume "World Report" on this subject—but don't expect to be allowed access to it. You must also look at the events taking place currently in Central America and Ethiopia as well as numerous other countries which you can recall. The world has surely grown small indeed. In these places, thousands have perished from deliberately planned and orchestrated political and religious strife and from hunger unto starvation. You might not realize it, but in Ethiopia for instance, the International Monetary Fund (remember this name?) has denied funds and aid. The death toll will be in the millions by this year, 1990.

The International Monetary Fund (IMF) is, of course, a major instrument of the One World Government Conspiracy. This is a well documented fact. Further, the World Bank, through the IMF, has decreed that 150 million Black Africans must be "written off". THIS IS FACT—NOT FICTION. Count on it for it is all but finished—the 150 million people have, or will, die! This will of course evolve mostly from AIDS, but there are other deliberately induced plagues which will insure the full measure of death.

The World Health Organization (WHO) and the Red Cross will not do anything meaningful to stem the tide of deaths—the WHO is instrumental in the cause. There will be great so-called international efforts to assist the stricken countries, but this will only be window dressing. It is all in written, documented format. The IMF has already told Nigeria, Ethiopia, Guana, Sudan, Tanzania, Zambia, Chad and other Black African states—EXACTLY how much of their populations have got to be "gotten rid of". This edict was handed down in the late 70's and early 80's so you see, it is well past under way. This genocide must be accomplished before there will be any monetary help from the IMF. Hard to believe? So be it! We understand that it is hard to believe, therefore you must investigate for time is indeed running out.

Some of these countries' leaders have protested, but they know the IMF means business. Nigeria, for one, acted defiantly and thus suddenly an unexpected cut in oil prices followed immediately. In retaliation, the Nigerians called for further cuts to upset the world oil markets unless the IMF would drop its provisions and offers financial assistance. Well, the rest is history.

Oh yes, we recognize the scoffers—believe me, they were around farther back than the time of the Christos. Well, I suggest you go back into the WORLD ECONOMIC REVIEW and check out the publication over the past decade. Honor John Coleman who produces that Journal for he was the first daring person to bring this information to light in the public arena. Some of you still believe that no such international monetary fund exists—oh, dear ones—this is REAL!

It should not be hard to believe that the One World Conspirators are willing to sacrifice in excess of 400 million people. This is not a new idea—this has been around for a very, very long time. Since the beginning of your counting, there has always been an elite class or ruling class. These groups always take it upon themselves to decide the destiny of what they refer to as the "mass of people" which are held in extremely low esteem.

GET RID OF PROBLEM CLASSES

Field Marshall Hague, of the British Army, did that in the First World War and before. Whole nations of people were set up for "killing off" as well as distinct racial groups. In the Boer War prior to World War I, Boer women and children were placed in concentration camps and most of them died. That, friends, is deliberate genocide—and you have forgotten today, that your country was founded because of the oppression of Great Britain so why are you so shocked to realize how heinous they have acted in the past—and present? It is the time of remembering, chelas.

Sir Hague not only hated his enemy—he despised his own "ordinary soldiers". He deliberately sacrificed hundreds of thousands of them in a no-win conflict by means of lying to the British citizens and Parliament.

Check your history books and recall how many Chinese were killed in the pursuance of Lord Gladstones "opium" policy. How many thousands of Indians were killed by the British in the colonial conquest of India? The list is endless. The common denominator is that the "ruling class" is "cult" ridden. They belong to networks of cults and secret societies which, in many cases, teach that killing certain classes of people is their bound duty. That same cult tendency is now prevalent in the U.S.—even into your major church denominations and society clubs. Well, Mr. Darwin's fraudulent theory is based upon survival of the fittest—or strongest, not necessarily the fittest.

BERTRAND RUSSELL

Bertrand Russell said that the population of the world "is increasing at far too rapid a rate". He complained that, "Wars are simply not doing the job they were designed for, that is, not enough undesirables are being got rid of." "And", said Russell, "the results of war in this regard were plainly disappointing."

Since this dissertation is about disease and plague as a means of getting rid of unwanted people—listen to what Russell actually said: "War has hitherto been disappointing in this respect but perhaps bacteriological war may prove effective. If a Black Death could spread throughout the world once every generation, survivors could procreate freely without making the world too full. This state of affairs might be unpleasant, but what of it!" This is from Mr. Russell's work, The Impact Of Science On Society.

Here you have a self-styled member of the "ruling class" setting himself up as an auditor of who shall live and who shall die. He also says that there are too many people on the earth. Rightly so—but does he suggest controlling the procreation habits to control the situation? Of course not, he says a good old Black Death would get rid of the unwanted masses and allow the elite to go on—well, you know what! He further said that "like animals, the herd needs culling". He proposed culling by spreading the Black Plague or some other form of disease which would carry off large numbers of people whom he considered "excess baggage".

Mr. Russell was not even the least bit embarrassed to make such proposals and see to the executions. Well, Mr. Russell's key to fruition was the Plague.

THE KEY TO THE COUNCIL ON FOREIGN RELATIONS CLUB, GLOBAL 2000 REPORT IS CONTAINED IN THE WORDS OF RUSSELL, "WITH REGARD TO RE-INTRODUCTION OF THE PLAGUE!"

Beloved brothers, diseases which you think you have rid your populations of, are still lurking dormant in the wings of the stage. In effect, many of these diseases are simply "on ice—waiting". It is well within the capability of scientists to recall them for instant use, as and when the need might arise.

The cults are, in the main, non-Christian (but not the largest in size)—that is, the members actually worship a deity but it is not the One God of the "Christian" faith. The worshipped deity is, in fact, the very antithesis of "Christianity"—do you recognize that label? Friends, the members of these groups do not so much as blink an eye at killing millions of unwanted people—of whom YOU are probably among the ranks. By the way—this group of annihilators is also called "The Club of Rome".

Members of such cults are actually put to the test of killing. The Son of Sam murders were an identical replay of Jack the Ripper killings. Once a person is "programmed" to kill, the actual commission of the murder is very easy. The most positive proof of this, as a scientific fact, is given in a statement by your wondrous H.G. Wells (a fellow-traveler and colleague of Bertrand Russell). Mr. Wells says, in his essay, "Anticipation of the Reaction of Mechanical Scientific Progress Upon Human Life and Thought", that it is easy to kill when one kills for the purpose of maintaining the ideals of the "ruling class". This theme runs throughout Wells' papers and writings. Mr. Wells further says, "It is right and proper to kill in order to preserve the quality of the ruling class." He says, "It is no good allowing inferior beings to overwhelm the best quality beings because of greater numbers."

Now for Well's opinion regarding Blacks. "Men of the New Republic will not be squeamish either in facing or in inflicting death—they will have ideals that will make killing worth while." The Council on Foreign Relations, Club of Rome—your present ruling class of "nobility" of the Aristocrats—has as an idea that the common "herd" must not be allowed to grow too big. The rationale of killing is this, it only remains to have it carried out in fact.

WINSTON CHURCHILL— WAR HERO?

Churchill was very much a part of the "ruling class". He felt nothing for those he looked upon as inferiors—which was almost everyone. Although offered many alternatives which would have ended the Second World War far earlier than 1945, he opted to ignore those offers, as the German, Rudolph Hess, found out when he tried to see Churchill. The deal Hess tried to offer Churchill was peace with Germany so that Hitler could deal with the Bolsheviks. Churchill's Zionist consorts saw to it that Hess never got near the man. Efforts by the Duke of Hamilton, a friend of Hess, to get Churchill to meet with him, failed completely. Churchill had no desire to end what he referred to as his "delicious war". You all know what has happened to Hess in these past near years—a total violation of all human rights. Let me remind you—nations that will take the lives of millions of its own people will not hesitate to snuff out the lives of millions of members of the "colored races" of the world as well as the so-called undesirable Whites, particularly the "patriots".

UNDERSTAND THE RATIONALE

Why would the ruling classes desire to get rid of so many people? The answer, of course, lies in the theory that there are too many people consuming too few resources that cannot be replaced (certainly a valid observation). When people become selfish, they forget God and God-ness. Regardless of what is touted near and wide—the major ruling members of the "ruling classes" simply do not believe in the God-ness of which you believe. That includes the aristocrats and nobility of Europe—the Church is set up totally as a facade behind which to orchestrate the genocide—IN THE NAME OF CHRIST! Many, many of the Eastern Liberal establishment of the United States operate in the same manner. Their God, beloved ones, is Lucifer—(The Morning Star!) whom they have long since declared to be the ruler of the Universe. Oh yes, I suggest you shudder now and get it over with.

In this idea, they are joined by the "Churches" of the Soviet Union who have called for "a spiritual mobilization against America" and don't let Glasnost fool you! The newly freed people are not flocking to the "Christian" churches as they escape into your wonderful "new world"—they are flocking to the sex/porn houses as fast as they can paddle.

There was a formal meeting which announced the "Spiritual Mobilization Against America Plan". The result was a meeting that was attended by the leading "cultists" of the world. The subject which was discussed was "Spiritual Resurgence in the West".

Common allegiance to a false God makes these kinds of meetings possible. The real point was, however: "How to Implement the Global 2000 Plan". The principle speaker told his audience that, "Man was better off during the 14th century with the Bubonic Plague than he was in the present day climate overshadowed by nuclear weapons." The key to the statement is the referral to the term "plague".

PUZZLE ASSEMBLY

The first step to putting the puzzle pieces together is taken when you go back to the First World War. At that time, the Britains did not shrink from sacrificing millions of its youth in a war set up to make profits for the bankers. The first suspected use of bacteriological weapons took place at the close of that terrible war. It happened in the following manner: After four years of stalemate with neither side gaining the ascendancy, the Germans finally broke through the French lines and were less than 37 miles from Paris when SUDDENLY disaster struck them. Practically the entire front line German units went down instantly with what is now known as Type A Influenza. This was in April of 1918.

Far from the Germans being defeated as General Hague had misled his government into believing, the German army was actually on the offensive in their march on Paris. The Germans were briefly checked by the green and untried American forces. The Americans laid down an artillery barrage. Now surely there was nothing new in that, but at this point the events went into underground secrecy. The entire army of Germans was simultaneously smitten with virulent influenza. Prior to the American artillery barrage, there were no cases of influenza amongst the German troops. Suddenly, as if a cloud burst over them, the Germans went down with such virile flu that it laid low the entire Division. In some sectors along the front, Companies were down to as little as ten men. So violent was this epidemic that the British and Americans, for the very first time, were able to break through the German lines. That proved to be the turning point of the war. Thereafter, the Germans rapidly retreated and virtually gave up the fight.

Bacteriological experts in England, Germany and Switzerland believe that the Americans brought with them shells containing the influenza virus which was then unleashed on the Germans. This was the only "credible" explanation for the sudden and instantly deadly outbreak of what was later known as The Spanish Flu epidemic which first raged through the German lines and later marched right across the world, killing millions of people. In fact, more people died from the influenza than died in the actual war.

It is to avoid what is known as an "outburst" of this kind that the Council on Foreign Relations Club of Rome biologists are working on right now. The Global 2000 provisions cannot be implemented if it means that the indiscriminate spread of an epidemic, that will not be a respecter of persons, cannot be contained in some way.

THERE YOU HAVE IT—"THEY" HAVE THE MODE OF CONTROL, FOR THE ELITE, OF AIDS AND SEVERAL OTHER BACK-UP PLAGUE DISEASES. ISN'T IT ABOUT TIME YOU STOP PICKETING AND START BUILDING THE APPARATUS THAT WILL SAVE YOUR ASSETS? THE GRIM REAPER IS RIDING UNCHECKED ACROSS THE WORLD AT THIS MOMENT.

No one knows for sure where the influenza virus originated but the first known cases occurred in 1580, in Asia and there were sporadic appearances of the disease until 1890. Even in the non-epidemic outbreaks of influenza, more people died from the flu than have from any known nuclear-related causes. Note we do qualify by the word "known". Where are all the Peace Demonstrators against the flu? The first known induced epidemic began on the battlefield at the close of the First World War. It was utilized directly as a chemical/bacteriological weapon.

WHAT OF CHEMICALS?

Well, Dharma wants to speak of chemicals in the warfare and, although this subject deals with biology, we will toss in a bit of alternative horror.

On the 22nd of April 1915, an afternoon breeze sprang up. It came in from the north, from behind the German lines and gently fanned the faces of the Allied soldiers in position around the village of Langemarck, near Ypres.

The French reservists and Algerians from France's North African colony were new to the trenches. The fresh wind seemed a good omen, for a few seconds later, as if on cue, the German guns which had been bombarding them all day, suddenly stopped firing. Silence descended over the front.

At five o'clock, three red rockets streaked into the sky, signaling the start of a deafening artillery barrage. High-explosive shells pounded into the deserted town of Ypres and the villages around it. At the same time the troops sheltering near Langemarck saw two greenish-yellow clouds rise from the enemy's lines, catch the wind, and billow forwards, gradually merging to form a single bank of blue-white mist: out of sight, in special emplacements protected by sandbags and concrete, German pioneers were opening the valves of 6,000 cylinders spread out along a four mile front. The cylinders contained liquid chlorine—the instant the pressure was released and it came into contact with the air it vaporized and hissed out to form a dense cloud. At thirty parts per million of air, chlorine gas produces a rasping cough. At concentrations of one part per thousand it is fatal. The breeze stirred again, and one hundred and sixty tons of it, five feet high and hugging the ground, began to roll towards the Allied trenches. Dear ones, CHEMICAL WARFARE HAD BEGUN!

The wave broke over the first line within a minute, enveloping tens of thousands of troops in an acrid green cloud so thick they could not longer see their neighbors in the trench. Seconds later they were clutching at the air and at their throats, fighting to breathe.

Chlorine does not suffocate: it poisons, stripping the lining of the bronchial tubes and lungs. The inflammation produces a massive amount of fluid that blocks the windpipe, froths from the mouth and fills the lungs. Some tried to bury their heads in the earth. Others tried to outrun the clouds but found that the exertion only caused larger gulps of the poison. The tide of gas washed over the struggling men and their faces turned blue from the strain of trying to breathe; some coughed so violently they ruptured their lungs. Each man, as the British casualty report was later to put it, was "being drowned in his own exudation". That one attack could have cost the war, but the German soldiers dug in.

This little game was called "Falkenhayn's experiment" for the German commander, Falkenhayn, was

A Brief Reminder About Gaiandriana & AquaGaia

5/26/95 SANDRA TULANIAN, D.C.

The physiology of the body is basically governed by the actions and programming found within the cell. The cells make up the tissues of the body; the tissues make up the organs such as the heart or liver which, in turn, make up the organ systems that work in harmony with each other to keep the entire body functioning. If the cell structure has been altered or is malfunctioning (for whatever reason), every organ system is affected. To what degree they are affected depends on the offending substance that has caused the cell's breakdown or the length of time that cell has been subjected to abuse.

Gaiandriana is a product that is said to help correct the faulty programming that has occurred at the cell level by correcting into perfection the cell's DNA/RNA blueprint. Viruses, unlike bacteria, have the ability to fuse with the DNA strand within the cell, creating a mutation to that cell. By perfecting the DNA/RNA blueprint, the cell may be returned to a level of vitality which allows it to fight off an incoming virus and maintain the homeostasis within the cell and, in turn, within the organ systems.

This is essential for the immune system, because without healthy cells that can fight off offenders like free radicals, viruses, and cumulative levels of radiation, the immune system is overtaxed to the point of exhaustion—eventually leading to dis-ease. Another benefit from consuming Gaiandriana is its ability and nature to thrive on the invisible, higher photon frequencies which are bombarding us daily. Gaiandriana is able to speed up the frequency levels of the cells to more nearly match the energies pouring in and assaulting the body. This, in turn, can offer a two-fold benefit: One benefit is the ability of the cell to withstand and actually adapt to these otherwise damaging energies; the other benefit is to help protect ourselves from mind manipulation through pulse beams that are irradiating mankind relentlessly. Originally the dose was 10 drops, 3 times per day, under the tongue. However, with the growing number of "manufactured" epidemics and other stepped-up plans for our demise by the Elite, perhaps more is better. One ounce or more per day may produce faster and more effective results.

AquaGaia was introduced to benefit the mitochondria system that lies within the cell. The mitochondria is the energy producer of the cell and is essential to convert the food we eat into usable cell fuel and to produce enzymes that are absolutely necessary for survival of the body systems.

AquaGaia is also said to feed on vessel plaques adhering to blood vessel linings. Most all of us, by the age of twenty, have plaques developing on the arterial walls due to the American diet that is filled with saturated fats, high protein, white flour products, and limited consumption of fresh fruits and vegetables. This product provides added fuel to any compromised system to assist in strengthening the immune system, as well as cleaning out blood vessels and enhancing the pliability of the vessel walls throughout the body. Both Gaiandriana and AquaGaia work in harmony to strengthen and eliminate mutations of all cells by working together within the cell structure itself.

Gaiandriana and AquaGaia are said to be safe for children and pets, and can be taken with other medications without incident. Available in 16oz., and 32oz. bottles.

as startled as were his opponents by the overwhelming effect. It had cost the Allies 5,000 men dead and 10,000 wounded.

Thirty-six hours later, while the British and French still struggled to fill the breach, the Germans struck again. Wave after wave of gas flowed over the Allied troops and soon the gas was accompanied by Germans wearing strange masks with glass eyes and large hoods.

The last and greatest attack came later in the summer, on May 24th, this following attacks on May 1, 6 and 10. The only interim protection against the gas was urine-soaked cloths or earth-filled cloths stuffed into glass tubes. And then came the punch line. The Allies set out at a nice little bankers' delight of $400 million to create gas of their own.—Oh yes, by the way—there had been a commission set up under the name of The Hague Convention to outlaw such chemical weapons. But the Allies were ingenious—they came up with "tear gas" invented by Dr. Tappen and thusly labeled "T-Stoff". Also there were the Stink bombs.

As you might guess, the chemical factories became the backbone of the economy—especially the German economy. Well, those German laboratories went on to produce all sorts of deadly things over the years. But at that time gas became THE weapon of choice—and of course, a nice little side industry sprang up—gas-masks and shelters.

Are you beginning to long for a nice underground shelter system? I hope so for there is coming a time of death to surface dwellers in lots and lots of geographical locations. I am constantly denounced and my scribe openly threatened because I project these things to you. "God wouldn't spread fear like you do, so you are evil." So be it. They also denounced Christ, Dharma. "Yes", she nervously replies, "they also crucified Him!" Let us take a break please, chela.

Hatonn to stand-by.

2/13/90 #2 HATONN

Good afternoon, Hatonn present to resume in the Light of Our Radiant One.

On February 20, 1919 the Times of London says that the "Estimates of dead between 1918 and 1919 are between 20 and 30 million people. The disease shows an amazing attack mortality rate."

Indian sources (and this is a very interesting notation to the Council on Foreign Relations Global 2000 conspirators) say, "The death toll in India, alone, was over 20 million." It is further stated that the true figures were lowered so as not to cause further panic.

American records show that more than half the population of Alaska perished. And in the Pacific islands, almost three-quarters of the people died. It is of extreme interest to note that in Alaska there was almost NO GROUND MOVEMENT OR TRANSPORTATION. Therefore, it certainly bears out the theory that the disease was airborne and not passed on from person to person. It also makes very feasible the projection that the coming plague (or plagues) would be introduced through artificially seeding the air and rain-clouds.

The scale of the ravages of the flu pandemic is difficult for you to visualize. It seemed to come forth in waves and the attack mortality rate was astonishing. And here, you are talking of some 70 years past in which new and innovative techniques could be established against this day. The mortality rate was astonishingly high among the young people. In India, the official records show that entire villages and towns were completely wiped out. Trains were found stopped where drivers died and the trains themselves were littered with corpses. Railway stations were piled high with the dead and had to have a continuous clearance program. There was no escaping it.

Now listen up closely. In open, unwooded or unforested areas the death toll was heavier than in forested regions. Again, this added to the probabilities that the virus was airborne and intentional. Certain countries and some islands escaped the disease for quite a long while, even though ships from infected areas called in their ports. No quarantine method can account for this and it remains one of the secret unsolved mysteries.

All records of research into the matter are simply "missing" or "the files are not available to the general public". It is plainly obvious that there is knowledge of how and why the pandemic struck certain areas while leaving others virtually untouched. Such information, of course, would be most helpful to the planners of mass genocide by means of the plague and hints are leaked that they have been quite available to certain and select persons.

SOME PLACES MORE EQUAL THAN OTHERS

An island in the Atlantic, St. Helena, and Australia are two areas that were not hit until almost the end of the outbreak. Quarantine could not have possibly accounted for the disease being delayed in reaching those areas.

Passengers on ships at sea enroute to Australia were struck down in terrible suddenness and the mortality rate was higher than elsewhere. The erratic way in which the pandemic behaved has never been accounted for publicly. The virus seemed to simply travel thousands of miles in a matter of hours and yet somehow take weeks or months to reach places in near locations one to the other. A Dr. L. Weinstein has done a brilliant publication on that pandemic. His work is in the British Museum in London.

He stated, "The influenza pandemic occurred in three waves starting in the spring of 1917/1918. It was characterized by a high attack rate and 50 percent of the world's population was affected. An even more lethal wave began in Scotland and then in Massachusetts on September 12, 1918. It spread over the world in a very short time. Epidemiological behavior was most unusual. Although person-to-person spread occurred in local areas, the disease appeared on the same day in widely separated parts of the world, on one hand, but on the other took weeks to spread relatively short distances. It was detected in Boston and Bombay, India on the same day but took three weeks before it reached New York City despite the fact that there was considerable travel between the two cities. It was present for the first time in Joliet in the State of Illinois four weeks after it was detected in Chicago only 38 miles away. Death rates in various cities in America from respiratory diseases during the second wave show that the Joliet-Chicago incidence was not unusual. Pittsburgh and Toledo, with almost identical death rates in normal times, and with similar population groups and similar occupations, showed a remarkable difference. The death rate in Pittsburgh exceeding that of Toledo by 400 percent."

This next also comes from Dr. Weinstein: In 1948 there was another outbreak of influenza and studies were made by Dr. F. Magressi which show that it started among shepherds in Sardinia in isolated areas. Dr.

Magressi said, "We were able to verify the appearance of influenza in shepherds who were living, for a long time, alone—in solitary, open country and far from inhabited centers. This appeared absolutely contemporaneously with appearance of influenza in the nearest inhabited cities." Magressi says that the speed in the spreading of the disease was inconsistent with any possible person-to-person transmission.

An interesting addition to this comes from a British epidemiologist, C. W. Creighton, who in 1837 concluded that the Black Plague and Influenza spread was due to what he called "a miasma spreading over the land".

FACILITIES AVAILABLE TODAY

With all the massive facilities available to the planners of the Global 2000 conspiracy it is not unreasonable to believe that such a miasma can be artificially created and spread over selected target countries and even cities. This, of course, is one of the ways in which the coming plague will be introduced and spread. You have certainly not seen the last of the Black Plague or Influenza—or Smallpox, for that matter. The microbiological concept for the spread of plague or flu, plus the fact that these viruses and bacteria can be stored in a dormant state and then allowed to "break out" shows how easy it will be for the One World Government conspirators to introduce the coming plagues and spread them by airborne methods.

The old idea that these diseases could only be spread by person to person was laid to rest during the 1919 Influenza pandemic. The actual cause of Influenza is still not released to you—for certain. Although—and listen carefully—a veterinarian from Ft. Dodge, Iowa (in 1918) proved that a new disease which was a carbon copy of the Influenza in humans, had appeared in pigs. Does this remind you of bovine leukemia and sheep visna viruses of AIDS? I suppose most of you also recall the "Swine" flu?

The most important finding was made by a Dr. Burnett who proved that Influenza virus could be cultivated in the developing embryo of chickens. From this, the various strains of Influenza that attack humans were identified. All efforts to find an antidote have met with only moderate success. The most virulent, Type A, that killed millions in the 1919 pandemic, appeared to shift, which the medical profession said "is difficult to understand within orthodox views". Thus it appears that you are not in a position to combat Type A Influenza. It seems likely that reservoirs of that deadly virus are in existence.

The Soviet Union is known to have large stocks of deadly chemical and bacteriological weapons and it is likely that the Type A Influenza virus figures largely in their arsenal.

The Soviets have long had the facilities to create reservoirs of flu viruses which was not thought possible up to a relatively short time ago. Since there is no known human reservoir for the virus, it could be therefore, that a deliberate breakout can be allowed and if spread by airborne methods you would have an epidemic on your hands of the calibre of the 1919 pandemic—if the Soviets have the capability, and they most certainly do—the West must also have it.

Given the goal of the Global 2000 report it appears it would be a most simple matter to arrange a breakout of a whole array of deadly viruses over any given selected target areas. It would also be certain that the elite conspirators have full ability to treat or antidote the disease just as there is an antidote and cure for AIDS virus disease.

STORAGE OF VIRUSES

Some types of viruses can be stored in animals and allowed to break out in controlled or uncontrolled conditions. The virulent and deadly Lassa fever, for instance, was being tested for animal host reservoirs when it accidentally broke out causing a world wide panic. Had the deadly virus not been corralled it would have killed millions of people irrespective of status and without regards to race, color or creed.

Now shake, don't just shudder: in 1978 it came to public attention through a real "slip" from NATO headquarters that "scientific experts" had stated that the Russians were developing three horrific new diseases for warfare. Now you must remember that "slips and leaks" occur on pretty well arranged schedules and you can further KNOW that if Russia has it—the U.S. has it, so do your meditation with all that in mind. The three diseases: Lassa fever, which kills over a third of all persons contracting it (35 of every 100), Ebola fever, which kills 70 out of every 100 people it strikes, and the deadly Marburg fever—oops! (Green Monkey Disease)—and the rest becomes history.

LASSA FEVER

Until effective methods have been found to immunize and decontaminate chosen areas and chosen groups, just the Lassa fever virus is totally devastating. The Lassa fever viruses will be kept under the most strict conditions of security. The world is probably safe until [remember, this is written in 1990] the genocidal conspirators come up with a bit better solution as to how to keep it confined to target countries and target cities and areas without getting some of their own special co-conspirators.

An airborne assault by Lassa fever viruses on a country like India, for example, would kill an estimated 80-to-100 million people in three to four months, according to records available at the Centers for Disease Control in Atlanta. Again, don't expect to walk in the Center and have them show you these records.

"Officially" the Lassa fever virus has been destroyed—that is not so and to do so is a very, very big job. The Lassa fever viruses are directly "on tap" and waiting. The Lassa fever virus is one which is called a recombinant hybrid (familiar?). It cannot emerge in several different countries at the same time—there can be only one focal point at which it can emerge. This was proved when it made its first appearance only in "Lassa" in Nigeria.

The Lassa fever outbreak in Nigeria was almost a calamity because the virus broke out while experiments were being done on host animals in the region. The alarm and concern shown by the World Health Organization and the Centers for Disease Control in Atlanta, for example, tend to lend credence to the panic—however, note that probably not more than a half of one percent of you readers have ever even heard of the disease.

The Centers for Disease Control took extraordinary measures in an effort to corral the virus and ordered all plagues being worked on to be destroyed by incineration. Even the air-conditioning air as it came out from the labs was incinerated. This is a most deadly virus and works a heck of a lot faster than your old slow AIDS.

BACK TO INFLUENZA

This can truly be as large a killer if it begins in pandemic form. It can be localized because it IGNORES the technology of human travel. Let us look at the 1889-to-1890 outbreak, which was small, of Type A virus—the first report came from Russia in May. At the start it spread very slowly and took until October to reach a nearby town. Plainly the spread ignored the technology of human travel for people were traveling between the two villages constantly.

When the Hong Kong flu broke out it might seem natural that it was California which is the nearest point in the United States to Hong Kong, the disease should have occurred in California first. But it broke out in a very small community in a desert town called Needles. This, brothers, is decidedly abnormal. It just seemed to ignore the large cities of San Francisco, San Diego and Los Angeles and by the forty-fifth week had spread into the states of Nevada and Arizona. It is very important to note here the support for the idea that the disease being airborne appears in open, unforested areas first and then spreads outward. It can be controlled as to where it strikes. You have now seen this example as well as the islands which all but escaped the 1918/1919 pandemic.

THEN WHAT OF UFO POSSIBILITIES?

Is this by accident or by design and why might a "space cadet" be giving you this most pointed information? Well, I go on record—the Global Plan 2000 conspirators will soon claim that the diseases are brought and integrated from Space Command—it is next on the "fear and panic" agenda. You know, all those little gray aliens who run around in the shadows with your military and government contracts? Well don't look out here—they are all dark as a dungeon and twice as dirty—not the little aliens—the "big" grey men! But you will swallow the story—hook, line and to the pole because you know what—half of the community will still be arguing over whose information is whose and fighting over copyrights and seminar schedules. The government and conspirators will just be laughing at you little citizens—all the way to their completely-owned banks; neither will any of them have the flu or so much as a bad cold!

The others of spiritual centers will still be throwing stones at the Christos and Aton for bringing you news and information regarding "Caesar's world". Open your eyes; we are doing all we can to keep you alive and able to function against all odds on your placement and we of this realm weary beyond all patience at the rocks being barraged in upon our scribes and receivers. There are now daily attacks—from ones claiming to be THE source of spiritual truth! So be it! See if you can clear the flu with a purple shirt—for you won't unless Germain happens to be in the shirt. Use faith healing? I don't find enough "faith" to heal hives much less a deadly virus. Further, I find the very ones who claim all-knowing to take a few little drugs along "just to awaken a bit more fully". Well, awakening is going to be abrupt indeed and you'll pray for death to ease the sickness which shall consume you. Have you ever been so sick that it was just too much to stay alive and yet you did? These diseases bring illness (sickness) beyond belief and nothing actually gives relief to any extent.

MARK IT HERE— IT IS NOT COMING DOWN FROM SPACE COMMAND!

Funny thing, someone has just happened to notice that among the hidden toys—is an antidote to Type A virus which the world has NOT been told about. Two well known scientists tried to get the information published but with no success. The tests were done in The Netherlands in 1957. It seemed that the elderly (80-to-90 years of age) who went to their doctors for treatment of "colds" were found to have high concentrations of Type A antibodies, leading the scientists to believe that these people must have encountered a sub-type virus at some time or other and were now immune to subsequent attacks.

Instead of considering this a major medical discovery and rushing to make antibody doses from the donors—nothing was done and no publicity was allowed. Well, they put Priore and Rife out of business, also.

GAIA COL

GAIA COL is a combination of colloidal silver, trace colloidal gold, and trace crystalline drias. This combination of ingredients has produced a product that is so high-frequency and potent that it could quite possibly be the solution to our ongoing fight against the new antibiotic-resistant diseases that we face today. Colloidal silver was used extensively and very successfully against bacteria, viruses, fungi and the like before the advent of the first antibiotic, penicillin. The many uses of colloidal gold were documented for the restoration of health as early as 1885, and gold was noted for its ability to calm and harmonize the emotional body. Once the chemical companies began manufacturing their endless array of antibiotics, silver and gold were no longer looked to for treatment. However, the antibiotics have had increasingly less effect on the more resistant viruses, fungi and parasites. Now we face a new generation of bugs that are completely resistant to any antibiotics due to antibiotic over-prescribing and resultant survival-of-the-fittest microorganisms.

Research has demonstrated that colloidal silver is non-toxic to humans, yet it allows no known disease-causing organism to live in its presence. With the addition of trace colloidal gold and trace crystalline drias, the frequency of GAIA COL is remarkably enhanced to facilitate the demise of these newer, more powerful viruses and bacteria. GAIA COL is gentle enough to use topically on just about any skin, hair, or mouth condition without fear of toxicity and is outstanding for burns.

For internal use during any type of infectious process, start with one teaspoon the first day and then 10-12 drops, 3-4 times per day under the tongue until the infection clears. Then maintain with 3-4 drops, 3-4 times per day under the tongue. IMPORTANT: Due to the powerful nature of this product, friendly bacteria can be affected, so it is advisable to replace the natural intestinal flora with some type of acidophilus/lactobacillus supplement daily, or at least when symptoms are noted such as cramps, bloating, diarrhea/constipation and a general feeling of malaise.

GAIA COL is said to be safe for children and pets, and can be taken with other medications without incident. This product is not addictive and does not build up a tolerance to it in the body. Available in 2oz., 16oz., and 32oz. bottles.

Dear ones, rain clouds can be seeded with Plague or Influenza or any number of viruses and dumped over certain areas.

Why am I dallying around so much with Influenza? Because when I give you a breakdown of the other little boogers planned for you, I will lose my audience as you rush out to picket and protest—I hope! Better, start digging thy underground hovels with good radiation and filter systems. We have told you how and if you don't remember—rush to re-read Phoenix Journal #6, called Fighting Chance Or Survival Is Only Ten Feet From Hell. God does not consider any of you Satan's or Caesar's property and if ones consider things down on your place to belong to Caesar—then I have bad news—you get your information from the wrong resource and that evil energy will eat you alive.

Ones of great closeness broke with my group over the Survival book and Dr. Robinson found the same result in his town. He offered to build the first shelter — it was declined because after all, how could you choose who to save! The same identical statement was made to our publisher—"Who could select who would be saved?" Has anyone ever heard of building enough for you all and storing enough quantity of foods for you all? They have done it in Russia and China as well as Switzerland—could you not do as well? You claim to be the most wealthy country in the world! Well, you aren't—you are bankrupt, but a survival system wouldn't cost more than a couple or three stealth bombers a year.

Raindrops keep falling on my head—humn de dee, de dee-dee—can easily be made to be pathogenic and when they fall on your heads in a given area, everybody falls down.

If your own "obstructed" scientists of good intent can know of this ability—don't you believe that Caesar's Satanic Conspirators know also of this ability? Caesar's things indeed. Satan's things—INDEED! What of God's things—like YOU FOR INSTANCE? A wrathful God? Oh my goodness—well, how about just a tad twinge of a little bit angry at the very preposterity of the statement. If you care so little for the gift of life God has given unto you, then so be it.

Dharma, let us close this as you are too weary and we begin to get foolish and hopeless. Dear ones, it is not foolish nor hopeless—we must keep on keeping on for those ones have no notion of that which they do.

Pray for your brother who cannot yet see how it is for you need unity and community. We need to speak of how to achieve that also—do you feel your education upon that orb is a bit lacking? So be it.

I move to stand-by that we might take respite. Thank you for your service for I am most appreciative. You of my group have most certainly earned your tickets home. Aho!

Salu, Salu, Salu—in service unto the Radiant One. Hatonn to clear, please.

2/14/90 #1 HATONN

Hatonn present in Light that we might continue on the subject of murder.

STRANGE DEMISE

I shall begin with a question. How many of you have felt, say, that it is highly unusual that a Shah of Iran comes to you in healthy form and "dies of natural causes" only weeks later? What about Marcos? What about Howard Hughes? What about Casey (just before he could spill the entire conspiracy because of Iran-Gate)? What about all the witnesses to Kennedy's assassination? Selective plagues? My, my, my—it is dangerous to work among the Elite for if you become dangerous to their conspiracy you are immediately expendable and are expended. You are also expendable if you play their game perfectly and become "a problem of any type". The evil brothers have no code of ethics. Criminals even have codes of ethics. The conspiracy has none!

PLAGUES, INFLUENZA, AND OTHER HIGHER FORMS OF KILLING

We continue on the subject of the Influenza because there is more experience from which to draw. It is interesting to note that person-to-person transmission has never been a serious consideration for the spread of the disease. Of course it is spread that way in families, schools, etc., but never when many come down with a disease simultaneously.

If the spread is primarily person to person at "kick off" then ones in the forested locations would be as quick to feel the attack as those in open locales. It is obvious, then, that forests and heavy foliage growth offers protection against pathogens from the sky.

Now, sleepyheads, your conspirators who created and kept the war going in Viet Nam knew these things. They set out on a deliberate mission to defoliate wide areas of terrain and if a few million American kids got sprayed with a little Agent Orange, in addition to whatever else they dumped on the ground—so be it. And you thought they were clearing the enemy hiding places—sic, sic. Worse than that, the conspirators set out a "kill" campaign against anyone who spoke out against the war. Does anyone remember what a blast Jane Fonda bore? How about Dr. Spock? What of the degradation cast upon the young people who fled rather than go be either weapons fodder or kill his brother?

Unless you have experienced it, you have no imagination as to what a napalm attack on a village is like—the frying and cooking of innocent families and babies. How many of you know what a "cluster bomb" is? How many of your own husbands, fathers and sons/daughters were killed by weapons stamped "made in the U.S.A."? Well, it is going to happen again and again—it began in your Americas in Panama and now the way is paved to allow a patriotic march right through Central and South America—all in the name of drug control.

SINCE THE DRUG WAR BEGAN—THERE HAS BEEN NO SHORTAGE OR PRICE RAISES IN THE DRUG MARKETS IN THE U.S.

You must realize that pathogens which are seeded into clouds do not come in a steady flow—it comes in bursts just as the releasing of pathogens which are dropped in spray or bursts of wind-carried contamination.

Could it be that the conspirators are working to perfect a system of bursts to spread the disease? It most certainly would be the logical next step wouldn't it? If wars simply aren't killing quickly enough the overburden of the less desirable population, then it is logical indeed to use other methods. Oh, you will have to have the wars, dear ones, because your economy is dead and some way has to be devised to revive it above the death rattle to sustain until the "no money/total economic control" system is totally operable.

Doesn't it make your heart weep to watch a President dressed in fatigues watching war "games" and pronouncing these children to be the finest fighting forces? Wouldn't you perhaps think he is getting them ready to go somewhere and be a fighting force? How about medals (for men only) for going to Panama and killing thousands of civilians and demolishing your own protected colony? You think about 200 dead in Panama's civilian sector? Try over 7,000. More dishonorable—what of the dishonor of not even being among the counted? Each family, for instance, of each soldier slain and listed, thinks their son is one of the 125 or so slain. How do you know? Could it be like the San Francisco earthquake of 1906? Hundreds and hundreds died and yet the list of dead was piddling—but who can argue, for an "official" count goes forth and each thinks their loved one was among the counted.

Consider the flu that ravaged Alaska. Those facts should be available in the Congressional Records of Jan. 16, 1919, under the heading "United States Senate, Committee of Appropriations". It tells the story of how the virus struck all over Alaska at the same time. It was proven that the spread was not from person to person. Since a lot of snow and rain falls on Alaska isn't it quite obvious what happened?

LEGIONNAIRES' DISEASE

Let's now move to the "Legionnaires' Disease" which killed some 29 people and hospitalized 183 others during the American Legion Convention in the city of Philadelphia in 1976. This was an experiment carried out by the Global 2000 plotters who were researching a hybrid virus with which to work, which could be spread via airborne methods under totally controlled conditions.

The severe onset of the disease came during a span of a few hours on one day and after only a few hours of general malaise, fever set in. This was accompanied by muscle cramps and then a rapid rise in fever and severe rigors with chest pains, difficulty in breathing and death followed swiftly. The course of the disease was unpredictable, just like the Lassa fever cases showed. Death rate in relationship to attack was high. Antibiotics were of no avail.

According to reports, "Careful inquiries revealed that all of those attacked spent a long time in the hotel lobby." (That is, the hotel wherein the Convention was being held.) "There appears to have been a connection between the attack rate of the disease and time spent on the sidewalk outside of the hotel watching a parade. A distinction could be made between those who were on opposite sides of the street. There is a strong indication of an airborne pathogen, the incidence of which is patchy on the scale of the width of the street." Was this a "natural outbreak" of a new virus or was it part of a carefully conducted experiment? Before you dismiss it, remember that during the 1950s extensive and widespread experiments with the drug LSD, manufactured by the Swiss Company, Hoffman-LaRoche, were carried out by certain research organizations in the United States with official sanction in most cases. The Elite simply count on the public masses to have extremely short memories. In fact, they go further—news items hit and are immediately buried so that if there is a national ball game or "TV Special" most people never so much as hear the news item.

The victims, in the Legionnaires case, were completely unaware of that which was being done to them. This outbreak is an identical pattern—this was an "unofficial" "official" test by the Global 2000 planners. The LSD experiments were part of a pattern set up by Aldous Huxley and the CFR conspiracy. There have been further outbreaks of Legionnaires' Disease in Scotland where some 65 people died in 1983/84 under similar circumstances. The Scottish outbreak, however, went practically unreported except for one single British newspaper article in which it was only mentioned.

The Centers for Disease Control in Atlanta says that Legionnaires' virus is not spread by person-to-person contact. Then how did Legionnaires' Disease appear suddenly and disappear just as suddenly? Where did it come from? You must know that there is a reservoir waiting to be used when deemed appropriate by the Conspirators. The prospect of new diseases, taking you totally unaware, should be most depressing to you unsuspecting and trusting lambs. It is there waiting for you and cannot be ignored. You have seen it in the past and you must expect similar things in the future, including the advent of new diseases—AIDS is only a start and preceding it was the massive outbreak of Herpes of the reproductive system. Further indication of the seriousness of these recent "dumpings on you" is that they are housed within the body and once infected are never removed, awaiting proper circumstance to become active instead of remissive. AIDS, once active, almost never is again completely remissive.

DELIBERATE EXPERIMENTS AND PERPETRATIONS

It cannot be denied that these things are both experimental as in the laboratory studies only using you, the people, as well as deliberately introduced and carefully spread introductions. Well, chelas, you are in the final stages of completion of the well laid plan and there is massive assistance from within the drug manufacturing facilities—you call them pharmaceutical houses. Since they have paid for the creation of the disease and reap the rewards from the treatment compounds—it is never going to be that there is found a cure via that route—for anything. Why "cure" heart disease if your whole industry is based on the foundation of active "heart disease"? The logical modus operandi is, of course, to create treatable side effects of the present disease or don't cure the one you have going.

Since the 1940 experiment with Influenza and the chick embryo virus hatch, there has been a mammoth increase in the numbers of experiments with bacterial viruses called PHAGES (do you remember T-cells and macrophages, etc., in Aids? [Editor's note: Again, that was Journal #8, which has been replaced with Journals #65 and #130.]), which has attracted a large number of scientists. Since 1940 thousands and thousands of new experiments have been carried out by scientists working under grants from the Ford, Carnegie, and Rockefeller Foundations (CFR, Trilats, IMF, World Banks - - -). These Foundations, if you recall, fund mainly "anti-American" causes and of course they pour money into anything connected to the Club of Rome and the other groups mentioned above. These are the very foundations of the traitor organizations for the One World Government and Global 2000 Plan.

REMEMBER THE MOVIES? THE ANDROMEDA STRAIN!

Fiction? They told you it was fiction! If you haven't seen it—rent it and see it. It was a depiction of actual truth (just as is Sipapu Odyssey) of work which was carried out on the Lassa Fever virus. This, brothers, is not far-fetched; this is getting down and dirty.

Your new breed of scientists is responsible for remarkable progress made in molecular biology—frightening isn't it? Their biggest problem, however, is in finding host cells in which to produce viruses, which then can be reproduced from a single plague. Incidentally, this was the method used by the Centers for Disease Control in Atlanta, to isolate the Lassa fever virus.

The disturbing factor in this equation is the manner in which the dormant phases of these viruses and bacteria are handled. There are four phases in the development cycle of viruses, the most important being "the endosymbiont". Phages can be kept in host reservoirs and then aroused when needed. This means that large quantities of phages are stored in the dormant state, aroused and released in various manners such as seeded clouds over a given target area; or released through directed air particle projectors. The Legionnaires' virus was released in air projection.

To you scoffers who will say that no one would even contemplate such things as we project herein, you must return and recall the tragedies of the First World War where the very flower of the youth of Western nations was cut down in numbers of staggering proportion and which stuns the mind. If you believe me not, read backup literature and consider the battlefield cemeteries of Europe and see the thousands of rows upon rows of little white crosses—death in the hundreds of thousands—from chemicals and disease. You ones are quick to forget these things and brush them aside—a nice park garden for a picnic perhaps. This is why, Dharma, I began all the way back in 1915. If you overlook the lessons of the past—you are destined to repeat and repeat and repeat them. You already have forgotten and are now in the repeating in the most heinous manner possible.

THEY DID IT AND WILL DO IT AGAIN

You must realize that men were capable of orchestration of that war, for reasons you ones have never had explained, (greed on the part of the bankers who reaped mammoth profits); can you actually believe that these same groups of men would not simply kill off a few million Indians, Latin Americans, Africans and Asians? Especially when it can be perfected in such a remote manner without the complications of man even questioning intent or possibilities? They are fully capable and fully intend to do exactly that!

WELL, THOSE PLACES ARE OVERCROWDED ANYWAY

So be it—BUT, what you in the U.S.A. overlook: ONE HUNDRED MILLION AMERICANS HAVE BEEN SLATED FOR DESTRUCTION AS LAID DOWN IN THE TERMS OF THE GLOBAL 2000 PLAN AND IT SEEMS TO ME FROM UP HERE, THEY ARE WELL ON THEIR WAY WITH AIDS ALONE.

Areas in the U.S. where there are large and concentrated groups of staunchly patriotic Americans, will be the most likely target areas of the Global 2000 planners. This is because the perpetrators within the Conspiracy are TRAITORS to the United States of America—they are not patriots of the Constitutional United States and they have fooled you at every junction and stayed a long way ahead of you in the planning and orchestration of The Plan. They have sucked you in and are now devouring you and all for which America stands. Your Constitution has been all but totally destroyed and overridden. There is no justice in your courts and you HAVE NO FREEDOMS REMAINING.

This is why the bringers forth of these truths are scattered and work in basic isolation. To keep them out and away from the groups targeted. The targeted ones are in groups where demonstrations and ease-of-contamination is best served. Look at where the AIDS has been introduced. You will note very few of the "Elite" infected and if so, it is purely accidental.

If AIDS doesn't do the job then any of the old deadly plagues can be sent upon you in targeted areas, from the Black Plague, Smallpox, untreatable strains of childhood diseases such as measles and chicken pox, influenzas, etc., etc.—by way of any of the many "phages" that the planners have "on tap".

A successful launch of a plague must come from large reservoirs of "phages" and believe me, there are those reservoirs in place. The Soviet Union calls their reservoirs, storage of "mass weapons of destruction". And when the Soviets are ready for that next world war—they are ready and waiting.

THERE WILL BE A WAR, YOU KNOW. IT WILL BE HORRENDOUS AND THE ASSUMPTION IS THAT YOU CITIZENS WILL SLEEP ON AND HAVE NO SHELTERS WITHIN WHICH TO PROTECT YOURSELVES. I REMIND YOU THAT 100 PERCENT OF PEOPLE WHO CAN BE UNDERGROUND IN A NUCLEAR ATTACK WILL SURVIVE NICELY. FURTHER, IF YOU HAVE FILTERS TO CLEAN YOUR AIR AND A SUPPLY OF FOODSTUFF—YOU CAN SURVIVE NICELY THROUGH ALL THEY CAN THROW AT YOU. IF YOU DO NOT HAVE SUFFICIENT SHELTERS—IT WILL BE ALL BUT TOTAL ANNIHILATION OF YOUR ENTIRE CITIZENRY—AND BACTERIA AND SHORT-LIVED VIRUSES DO NOT DESTROY HARD ASSETS SUCH AS FACTORIES AND BUILDINGS, COMPUTERS AND AUTOMOBILES.

I most sincerely hope that you ones who know of the ones efforting to stop this scribe from bringing forth these messages by calling her evil, the messages evil, US of the Brotherhood of Light evil and workers of the Devil and Satan, realize which shoes are soiled and blackened. If you continue to sit and ponder in naught but a spiritual light, you will be "spirit" most soon to ponder your errors. Those who would call these messages "evil" are working as diligently toward your destruction as a hydrogen bomb aimed right at your head. God sends forth truth, knowledge and instructions in answer to your very own petitions and you set upon the scribes and crucify them—well, in so doing you commit suicide and crucify the very phoenix who comes to show you the way. So be it for what you end up in the doing, is your choice. 'Tis not from thy brethren of the cosmos which comes your destruction—but from thy sleepy brother and from those "grey beings" to whom you have handed, well bundled, your lives and freedoms. Armageddon may actually appear to be quite pleasant, in relative manner, if you do not wake up and change THE PLAN. The Satanic Global 2000 Conspirators and their eager "little devils" have incomprehensibly nasty little plans for your well-being and they fully intend to have it finished by year 2000!

EVEN IN MY OWN GROUPS

Dharma and Oberli and mine other people who are working night and day continually are bombarded with, "Well, when are 'they' upstairs going to get money so we can do 'our' work?" I repeat—IT IS NOT OUR WORK, THIS WORD IS OUR WORK—WE DO NOT HAVE A PROBLEM WITH YOUR EARTH SURVIVAL EXCEPT AS BROTHERS. WE HAVE NICE SAFE SPACECRAFT AND MOTHER SHIPS, PLANETS AND SYSTEMS WITHIN A VERY LARGE UNIVERSE. YOU SPEND MORE TIME TWIDDLING AND PRATTING OVER DONALD TRUMP'S DIVORCE SETTLEMENT THAN YOU ATTEND TO YOUR VERY SURVIVAL. SO BE IT. FURTHERMORE, MY CHELAS DON'T ACTUALLY HAVE A PROBLEM EITHER FOR WE WILL GATHER THEM INTO SAFETY IN THE BLINK OF AN EYE. YOUR EMPTY BELLY IS NOT DHARMA'S OR OBERLI'S PROBLEM—IT IS YOURS! YOUR SOUL RELATIONSHIP WITH GOD IS NOT THEIR PROBLEM EITHER—IT IS YOURS! FURTHER, IF YOU CONTINUE TO JUST SIT WHILE THINKING MASTER "JESUS" CHRIST DID IT ALL FOR YOU—I PROMISE YOU: SATAN SHALL HAVE THE LAST LAUGH—AND YOUR SOUL!

If you do not choose to use any of the information we bring you—fine. If you think it too big an effort or expense to get a corporation, or store food, or build a shelter—I care not. Neither will you find flourishing in great measure by converting into gold and T-bills—our intent is to give those of you who ask in sincere petition—a manner in which you might be able to survive—not get rich in human materialism. I am interested in your success to the point of getting our assigned jobs done and the Word gone forth as a mission accepted. Do not think I am giving you get-rich-quick schemes—we speak here about your very survival. If it is too gloomy for you to swallow—throw out the book and meditate and say ohms and aums—'tis your privilege of privileges—but how many will then go to the door of the ones who build their shelters and set aside stores—and ask to sit at their tables? Will the young "bedevilers" of these ones, from Sedona, continue their attack and then go to the few who listened when the path gets rough? It happened with Noah and quite a few got their feet wet right up over their heads for they missed of the lifeboat in awaiting the cruiser or ocean queen-liner.

BACK TO THE BUGS

It is easy to have massive reservoirs by coating viruses with a protective matrix. The Lassa fever virus is a perfect example of a matrix-coated virus, and look closely at the AIDS situation. You have the virus which moves into a completely shielded cell which cannot, thus far, be penetrated by drugs. That is why you are basically stuck with the necessity of antidote or frequency beams for cure purposes. All of your known viruses now have been given man-created coats of protection.

SMALLPOX!!!

It is not dead and gone! It is only being kept in a "lying low" state of being. A nice little smallpox virus can just sit around meditating for thirty years or longer. Now this could be through a natural thing or through artificial induction. But you have something else happening, with which to contend—every time there is outbreak—the form is much more unstable and, by far, increased in virulence. Smallpox, further, can exist nicely in the host's body for at least ten years without any symptoms of disease appearing on the surface. Herpes is an excellent example for it cycles in the identical manner. The facts are—there is not treatment and no cure for smallpox. It has been found in the remains of corpses exposed after thirty years.

Smallpox first popped forth in China in 249 B.C. (that is quite a long while ago). Further, in 200 A.D., smallpox swept through the Roman Empire and was devastating indeed. Smallpox was prevalent throughout Europe during all of the Middle Ages. Majorsmallpox outbreaks come in cycles of hundreds of years apart. The virus is also airborne, and therefore, a much more virulent form of the virus is a natural for the death merchants of the Club of Rome for they already have vaccination ability and have utilized it for all of their Elite co-conspirators.

It is ideal, this higher form of killing—for man will simply call it "act of God", or, look what the aliens are "really" doing to you—and the sheep stampede helter-skelter and never look at the source—"they" tell it to you in an emergency alert and, via TV, lay it on you. Then, the president comes on the airwaves and starts a "War on Whatever the 'thing' of the moment is", declares emergency status, seizes all your assets and you just go die somewhere—they even have a major section in their "Plan" book regarding how to dispose of the massive numbers of bodies, my friends. The military will be hit last, unless by nuclear attack, and the uniformed will incinerate the bodies.

My beloved little children—these terrible things are thrust upon you through the most heinous routes possible. Through your open and permissive misuse of the procreation organs. You are gradually opened to a lifestyle that actually "requires you be deviant in moral behavior" to be "mentally sound according to psychiatry"—all actions become "human rights" from sodomy (through which route AIDS is most rapidly and definitely spread) to body fluid exchange—drug needles. This is aimed at a group deemed totally unwanted and undesirable in every aspect. Through the drug-wars you can kill off millions and call it Godly, from the youngsters "pushing" in the ghettos through outright murder to long-ranging and all-out war! Either way you can kill hundreds of thousands and countless millions of undesirable persons, after first banning and confiscating all weapons from the citizens who then simply fall over dead; without wasting ammunition.

As these dormant viruses awaken there will be widespread hepatitis, meningitis and myolitis which produce excruciating death. I have told you in the Aids Journal [Editor's note: Again, this Journal #8 has replaced with Journals #65 and #130.] and others have brought it to your attention, although only in the most silent manner—in the Kaposi's sarcoma stemming from AIDS—there is a spirochete of syphilis which is cultured from the lesion.

Well, I have a sickened scribe and I shall depart this subject now. I suggest you avail yourselves of other presenter's information and by all means, if you can locate copies, get A Higher Form Of Killing, by Robert Harris and Jeremy Paxman; Hill and Wang, New York (an effort has been made to take it out of circulation and publication). Also Bad Blood, The Tuskegee Syphilis Experiment, by James H. Jones. You would also benefit infinitely from any and all information you can glean from any of the John Coleman materials, i.e., The Coming Plague (Global 2000 Report), etc. There are others, but my intention is to present information unto you—I am not in the library business and I, frankly, only wish to give honor and appreciation to these fine, daring and caring people for their ceaseless work. We are not in any manner in the "literary business". These Journals are for the sole purpose of information. "NOT WITH MY CHILD
YOU WON'T"—

HILLARY CLINTON'S RENEWED
ASSAULT ON PARENTAL RIGHTS:

From INSIDER'S REPORT, newsletter of the American Policy Center, by John Meredith, June 1997, [quoting:]

The recent dog-and-pony show in the East Room of the White House marks the second attempt of Hillary Clinton to socialize America. Now the First Lady wants to pick on those who cannot defend themselves from her radical experimentation—children.

Disguised as a caring response to "new scientific findings", the White House Conference on Early Childhood Development and Learning laid the foundation to terminate your parental rights. Why would she want to deny parents their most basic of human rights? To pave the way for parental licensing which would give the Government total control over your children—from womb to tomb.

"We hope to spur lawmakers, educators and business leaders to recognize the role this information about early childhood development must play in policy-making," Hillary Clinton declared. In other words, your children's medical coverage, child care, education, and safety will all be dictated by the federal government. If you do not agree to raise your children according to the Liberal establishment's edicts, you will be unable to obtain a parental license.

The scientific findings the First Lady is exploiting simply state, "spoken language has an astonishing impact on an infant's brain development." That is all the science has to say. Everything else the parade of doctors, educators, entertainers, and bureaucrats presented as science was simply self-serving rhetoric to aid Hillary Clinton in her attempt to socialize this great country.

And where did this "science" come from? A two-and-a-half-year study of 42 children who were observed for one hour a month by Dr. Betty Hart and Dr. Todd Ridley. That's right, America, Hillary Clinton wants to license parents on the conclusions of two doctors who spent 30 hours with 42 different children.

THE "PRESIDENTIAL" SHOW OF CONCERN?

Her health care scam, overwhelmingly rejected by the American people during her husband's first term, has been revamped as part of a four-point Presidential initiative to show his concern for the nation's children. This back-door attack on our country's health care system seeks to extend medical coverage through expanding Medicaid, block grants to states and COBRA [Sounds like a program to poison people—MENTALLY??] funding. The cost to the American taxpayer for this bold show of concern is $17 billion, a "modest investment", according to Hillary Clinton.

According to the First Lady's Washington Times column of April 17, doctors "will prescribe reading aloud to young patients and their parents during every visit." Are we supposed to give doctors $17 billion for telling us to read to our children? No wonder the Association of American Medical Colleges supports this health care initiative.

The First Lady of socialism also wants to dictate the type of child-care facilities available to parents in the future. Citing the military's child-care program as the best in the country, her husband has issued an executive memorandum instructing the Secretary of Defense to launch an invasion on domestic child-care providers.

This military offensive is not the "singing, playing games, reading, story telling, just talking and listening" program Hillary Clinton touts as ideal child care. The battle plan calls for creating "partnerships" with civilian child-care centers. Through these one-sided partnerships, non-military providers will be trained, accredited, and evaluated. Their quality will be improved, according to the administration, despite being on-the-job training centers for welfare recipients and depositories for their children.

What makes the military child-care system so great? The fact that everything they do is paid for with an unending supply of tax dollars. The only child-care program America needs is one that cuts the American families' taxes to the point where one parent can afford to stay home. The last thing child care in America needs is a military assault led by a draft dodger.

Early Head Start is the third step of Hillary Clinton's socialization process for America. Quietly contrived by the Clinton's in 1994 and administered by the Department of Health and Human Services, Early Head Start is supposed to bring nutritional, educational, and "other Head Start services" to expectant mothers as well as children up to three years of age. In reality, all it brings is the federal government into the lives of your children from the moment they are born.

Consider the words of Mr. Clinton, "(as) part of our constant effort to give our children the opportunity to make the most of their God-given potential...(I) remind everyone in America that this must always be part of the public's business."

Notice he claims your children as his own ("our children"). If you disagree with the government's nutritional, educational, or social agenda for your children, will they be ripped from your bosom in the name of public good?

The final proposal presented at Hillary Clinton's East Room fiasco concerns child safety. This program will provide early childhood-development training to police officers, prosecutors, probation and parole officers, mental health workers, and school officials. The program is intended to better enable law enforcement to respond to young children who are victims or witnesses of violence.

This program is in response to the appalling number of letters Mr. Clinton claims to get from "five- and six-year-olds who simply want me to make their lives safe; who don't want to worry about being shot... who want their schools and the streets they walk on to be free of terror."

Would these concerns not be better addressed if law enforcement focused on such basic principles as ending paroles and plea bargains, getting policemen out of cars and walking a beat, and locking up child molesters instead of counseling them? If the legal system would start focusing its attention on criminals instead of harassing victims, our children would be far better served.

Mr. Clinton's initiatives are not the result of concern attributable to new scientific findings. They are the carefully orchestrated manipulations of presidential power for the benefit of Hillary Clinton's global-village agenda.

Extending child health care, military controlled child-care centers, Early Head Start programs, and child-safety projects are all tools to replace parents with governmental policy. No longer will Hillary Clinton's New World Order bureaucrats have to wait until your child starts school to begin their assault on traditional American freedoms. These initiatives will start that process from the day your child is born.

PARENTAL LICENSING: THE NEXT SHOW OF CONCERN?

Parental licensing sounds utterly ridiculous to the majority of Americans. After all, "a democratic society does not license basic freedoms," Don Feder of the Boston Herald reminds us. However, since 1994, parental rights have been assaulted with a voracity not seen since the 1920s.

The best example of this assault are the "guidelines" for suitable parenting developed by county officials in Durham, NC. These guidelines include defining as abuse sending a child to his room and dictating to parents what time they must be home if they leave their children in the care of a trusted baby-sitter. [emphasis mine]

What has happened in Durham can happen in your town too because of the cavalier attitudes of state legislators like New Jersey Assemblyman Arline Frischa. Citing standards for adoptive and foster parents, Frischa has appeared on New York television to support the licensing of parents. [emphasis mine] If the Clinton initiatives become policy, she will be but the first in a long line of politicians to go on record as supporting such licensing.

American parents do not want an army of government bureaucrats invading their homes and telling them how to raise their children. That is precisely what will happen if they do not take time now to speak out against the Clintons' proposed initiatives. [emphasis mine]

In the eye of the storm is the Republican party—long-time defenders of individual rights, family values, and limited government. Their leader, Senator Trent Lott, should be a reliable ally in the fight for parental rights but parents must not count on that. Trent Lott will only lead Republicans in the right direction if he hears the roar of concerned parents. [End quoting]

British Line On Gold

7/25/97 RICHARD FREEMAN

(hint: an expected question) he said that, rather than gold's devaluation being due to any excessive sell-off activities by such as the major banking houses, the decline in the price of gold recently is due much more overwhelmingly to "an increasing sense of the purchasing power of money"—that is, worthless PAPER money instruments!

Oh yeah? Then I have several bridges for sale—but please pay in that ol' worthless gold stuff. OK? I'm sure you won't miss it!

The following is a reprint of an insightful recent article by Richard Freeman in the July 25, 1997 issue of Executive Intelligence Review (EIR). We thank EIR for their gracious permission to share this most timely and superbly researched article with our CONTACT readers.

One important reason for its critical Front Page placement is the fact that so many are falling for this hoax, and thus could likely find themselves in just the compromised financial position that the New World Order Banksters would like to see.

Let us hope that some Truth on this subject will help the more en-Light-ened student avoid some potholes along this most shrewdly planned obstacle course.

— Dr. Edwin M. Young, Editor-In-Chief

The rumor trumpeted by the British-controlled press, that gold is being phased out as a significant force in the financial system, is a giant hoax, intended to hoodwink the suckers in America and elsewhere into getting out of gold and other hard commodities, and into bloated financial paper. The precious metals section of the British Commonwealth raw materials cartel has developed this hoax.

The cartel has organized dumping of gold in a controlled fashion, which has sharply reduced its price, from $365 per troy ounce on Jan. 1, 1997, to $320 per ounce at the close of trading July 17 (Figure 1 on p.13). The fall is bankrupting weaker gold-producing companies, while the kingpins of the British Commonwealth cartel—such as Sir George Bush's Barrick Gold and Anglo American Corporation—are snapping them up.

The cartel anticipates a seismic collapse of all stock, bond, and other paper values in the months ahead, with another major collapse phase expected most likely in September-October—concurring with the forecast of economist Lyndon LaRouche, who has demonstrated that the speculative world financial bubble has outstripped the loot it can extract from the underlying physical economy, and will now implode.

The world's press now contains reports daily from political leaders and financiers warning of such a crash, following which, the oligarchy intends to reverse the fall of the price of gold, and to place the world on a British Commonwealth-controlled deflationary gold standard. Gold will be pegged to as much as $800 per troy ounce. Such an arrangement is meant to shrink the world economy and genocidally slash population. This will repeat, but on a global scale, the experience following the U.S. Specie Resumption Act, a piece of treason enacted by the U.S. Congress in 1875 and implemented in 1879, which virtually bankrupted the United States during 1879-1907.

The tempo of this process is fed by the disintegration of the financial system.

CENTRAL BANK SALE OF GOLD

As the first step in its plan, the Commonwealth cartel rigged a fall in the price of gold. As Figure 1 shows, for the last several years, gold has traded in a stable band defined by a lower level of $385 per troy ounce and an upper level of $410 per troy ounce. During 1996, for example, the average price of gold was $388 per ounce.

The total existing world supply of gold is 5.858 billion troy ounces, or 182,203 metric tons (there are 2.283 billion ounces, though this estimate varies, depending on mining technology) is unmined; 42% (or 2.468 billion ounces) is in private, aboveground stocks, i.e., jewelry, industrial gold, and private individuals' holding of bars, coins, and medals; and 19% (1.107 billion ounces) is held by governments, mostly central banks (with a little held by the International Monetary Fund).

However, of the gold that is aboveground, i.e., in private and government stocks, government-held gold constitutes 31% of the world supply, giving central banks tremendous leverage: Should they choose to unload even a tiny fraction of the gold they hold, they could depress the price. And this is exactly what they are doing. In parallel, some of the gold-mining companies, and more often the gold banks allied to them—such as N.M. Rothschild, Sharpe Pixely, and Macotta Goldschmidt—as well as some hedge funds, appear to have shorted gold (taken out positions that its value will go down), forcing its price down.

Among identified central banks, for the last several years, the largest net sellers have been the central banks of Canada, Belgium, and the Netherlands. In 1996, the central bank of the Netherlands sold a substantial amount—9.6 million troy ounces; the central bank of Belgium sold 6.5 million ounces. Other central banks bought 9.4 million ounces, so, in 1996, net central bank sales of gold totalled 6.7 million ounces, not an incidental sum.

In 1997, the central banks of Switzerland and Australia, two banks that one would not suspect would sell gold, carried out or announced sales: Switzerland was pressured to sell gold by Anti-Defamation League mob-connected Edgar Bronfman, of the Bronfman liquor empire, head of the World Jewish Congress. This was ostensibly to compensate representatives of Jewish families from whom the Nazis confiscated gold 60 years ago. Switzerland announced in March, that it has scheduled the sale of 12.86 million ounces of gold over ten years, or 1.286 million ounces per year. When completed, this will represent approximately one-sixth of the Swiss National Bank's gold reserves of 83.0 million ounces. A U.S. gold expert told EIR on July 7, "The Swiss announcement is critical in the fall of the price of gold. The Swiss are identified with gold; their selling is unheard of."

Then, on July 4, the British Commonwealth member-country Australia, announced that its central bank, the Reserve Bank of Australia (RBA), had sold, over the previous months, 5.369 million ounces of gold, which represented 60% of its gold holdings. The Treasurer of Australia, Peter Costello, announced that the purpose of the sale was to take the money from the sale and invest it in bonds, earning a higher yield. But Australia is the world's third-largest gold-mining country, and the sale of this gold devalues the value of its mines. Further indicating the rigged nature of Australia's actions is that one of the RBA's board members, Hugh Morgan, is chairman of one of the world's biggest gold-mining concerns, Western Mining Corporation of Australia. Morgan would condone the RBA's actions, sacrificing seemingly short-term interests, only were it conducive to a global, subsuming commonwealth strategy: the gold trap.

Swiss and Australian central banks' combines sales alone represent 6% of 1997 projected world gold consumption, or 9% of world gold production, an important sum. But, if in 1997, other central banks sell gold, on a net basis, as indications seem to suggest, then central bank gold sales could total an amount equal to 8-12% of world consumption, or 12-15% of world production. This is a large amount to be dumped on the market.

This enhances even further the effect of critical cartel gold-shorting operations, which have collapsed the price of gold 14% in the last seven months, and brought it down nearly 25% from its February 1996 level.

A 'DARWINIAN' SHAKEOUT

The plummeting gold price has created havoc in the gold market, pulverizing those unprepared for the price drop. But the top instruments of the House of Windsor's raw materials cartel—Anglo American Corporation and Barrick Gold, respectively, the first and second largest gold-mining companies in the world—were completely prepared and are executing a pre-conceived smash and grab strategy.

Peter Munk, a personal friend of England's Prince Charles, is chairman of Barrick Gold; crack cocaine kingpin George Bush is head of Barrick's international advisory board, a post created specifically for him in 1995, so that he could help direct Barrick's global strategy. In the 1980s, Barrick, through its dominant owner, Adnan Khashoggi, was involved in financing Iran-Contra and other dirty intelligence affairs. In 1996, in return for 10,000 hectares of gold concessions in Zaire-Congo, Barrick helped clear the way for Luarent Kabila's Nazi dictatorship.

Barely able to contain his glee, Barrick Chairman Munk told the July 10 New York Times that the benefit of the gold price drop is that it "would breed a darwinian consolidation in the industry, much like an earlier shakeout in the steel industry." He added, "There is going to be a period of rapid consolidation. And it will end with a couple of really good producers," at the top. Munk also boasted to the July 8 Wall Street Journal, "For the next six to 12 months, there will be tremendous opportunities for companies to strengthen themselves, and there will also be a tremendous amount of losers.... We can carry on with our policy of acquisitions at decent prices." He asserted to the July 9 Wall Street Journal that he "wouldn't be surprised if gold dropped another $40 and ounce," that is, to $280 per troy ounce, lower than it has been in decades.

The talk in the press indicated that the theme of a price-war-induced shakeout-consolidation had already been making the rounds. On July 8, in an article entitled "Plummeting Prices Dig Into Gold Shares", the Wall Street Journal wrote, "Those investors who can stomach the possibility of lower gold prices in the coming months may reap the benefits of expected consolidation in the industry." It emphasized that the process would be "painful".

The British Commonwealth Elite already had control over 59% of world gold production, but seeks control where it doesn't have it yet—in Russia and in places in Ibero-America and Africa—and to take over weaker Commonwealth producers.

FUTURES CONTRACTS

To show the level of preparation for the assault, Barrick and other top Commonwealth gold firms have shielded themselves against the adverse effects of the price drop. Through futures contracts, Barrick has sold future production of its gold for $420 an ounce. Thus, regardless of whether gold falls to $320 per ounce or even $50 per ounce, Barrick is guaranteed, at the other end of the futures contract, to receive $420 an ounce for all of its 1997 gold production. It has hedged its gold production through the year 2000.

Anglo American Corporation of South Africa has also hedged its future gold production. Anglo American, which is merged through cross-share ownership with DeBeers Diamonds and Minorco mineral company, is owned and run by the Oppenheimer family. The Oppenheims are members of the elite 1001 Club and integrated into the House of Windsor apparatus. Anglo American is the world's largest gold and raw materials producer, and a key cog in the raw materials cartel. In addition to hedging its gold production, Anglo American has been buying into the huge Ashanti Gold Company of Ghana, which gives it two advantages: Ashanti has a low cost of production for mining gold, which makes it profitable, even with a low gold price, and it has also hedged on future sales.

But many gold-producing companies report that they didn't hedge their forward sales, because they figured that the price would bottom out at about $340 an ounce (the dumping of gold by central banks undid this calculation): now, they are vulnerable to being crushed. Leon Esterhuizen, a gold stock analyst with Société Générale Frankel Pollak in Johannesburg, South Africa, said that at $320 per troy ounce, more than half of South Africa's top gold mines are unprofitable, and at $305 per ounce, only five could stay open. Russia, the world's fifth largest producer, with the world's third largest reserves, would have to shut down most of its mines at the current gold price.

The British Commonwealth mining elites are poised to swallow up gold properties around the world, at fire-sale prices.

This extension of its control of global gold-mining properties and bullion supplies, sold by panicked investors, will give the House of Windsor raw materials cartel the power to erect a global Species Resumption Act gold standard. An engineered short-term fall in the price of gold is a useful start, but a collapse in financial markets is required for the full strategy to be advanced.

THE SEPTEMBER-OCTOBER CRASH

Oblivious to reality, the ignorant sucker buys deeper into the U.S. stock market, with the illusion that he will get rich quick. But those in the know warn of an impending financial breakdown, confirming the forecast of economist LaRouche.

On July 11, a European banking source commented to EIR on the impending "financial earthquake". At present, the questions whether "the earthquake will precipitate an implosion of systemic dimension during the September-October period," or whether there will be an intermezzo of "feverish volatility" which will last into early 1998.

During the week of July 14, the Group of 30, a private bankers' group, issued a memorandum worked out by Lord Alexander of Weedon from London's National Westminster Bank, and John Heimann of Merrill Lynch, the world's largest stock brokerage. The memo concentrates on the problem of 60 "core" banks and global investment firms, whose failure could trigger a systemic crisis. It states, "The objective must be to eliminate systemic risk...to devise an international financial system that can withstand shocks without failures cascading through the system."

This warning was echoed by the July 15 lead editorial of the London Financial Times, the British oligarchy's mouthpiece, titled "Global Risks in Banking". It states that steps must be taken immediately to handle burgeoning risks in the international banking system, and that if governments delay needed actions, "taxpayers of the world are heavily at risk."

THE U.S. STOCK MARKET BUBBLE

The senior European banker cited above, reported that a big problem is that the Japanese and other central banks are lending money at cheap interest rates—the Japanese discount rate for lending to its commercial banks is 0.75%. A sizable chunk of that money is being invested in stock markets around the world, and is one of the forces pushing them upward. However, he reported, were the U.S. Federal Reserve Board or the Bank of Japan to raise interest rates soon, and other central banks to follow, that game would be finished.

A major intersection point of the crisis is the U.S. stock market. The capitalization of the stocks traded on all U.S. stock exchanges (that is, the New York Stock Exchange, the American Stock Exchange, the NASDAQ, and so on) now exceeds $10 trillion—almost half the capitalization of all stocks in the world, and greater than the nominal U.S. Gross Domestic Product of nearly $8 trillion (capitalization is equal to the price of a share of the company's stock times the number of all shares outstanding, in this case for all stocks) (see Figure 2 on p.13).

The price-to-earnings ratio of all U.S. stock averages almost 20:1, and for some stocks it is 30:1 to 40:1. But where are the earnings to sustain the stock price? They don't exist. Since 1970, the U.S. physical economy has been contracting at the rate of approximately 2% per year. The stock market's capitalization has grown nearly fivefold since 1985, but is based on a physical economy that has contracted.

What has sustained stock prices up to now are international hot-money flows; huge pools of mutual fund money gathered from suckers—the total valuation of all "mutual fund equity funds" surpassed $2 trillion in June of this year; and derivatives. In 1996, more than 1 billion stock-market-related derivatives contracts traded, each contract worth several thousands, up to several million dollars each, consisting of forwards, futures, options, etc., on both stocks and stock indices. These contracts have leverage of up to 50:1, each pyramided one upon another. Thus, at a point of crisis, this stock market, based on hot air and leverage, will be the victim of reverse leverage, and disintegrate literally overnight.

It will be a toss-up as to whether the stock market or the derivatives-soaked banking system goes first.

The British oligarchy has readied its deflationary gold standard for the blowout. The 1875-79 Specie Resumption Act, which ravaged production, is a model. This should prompt the uninformed man in the street to evaluate what is going on, and ask himself: Why is it that he flees gold and hard commodities, going into bloated stocks, while the oligarchy, with cool deliberation, moves in the opposite direction?

Mullins Challenges Abuse Of Discovery Process

7/22/97 EUSTACE MULLINS

Dear Rick,

Enclosed are my latest court documents filed in the Massachusetts civil rights case. I have made a brief digest of the important points in case you don't have space for all the filings.

In legal documents filed July 21, 1997 in the U.S. District Court of Massachusetts, Eustace Mullins challenges the favorite instrument of the modern legal profession, unlimited abuse of discovery. The attorneys for the Berkshire Eagle, which conspired to prevent his lecturing on the Federal Reserve System on September 27, 1996, have swamped him in recent weeks with repeated demands for answers to interrogatories and requests for admissions, while he has filed no discovery at all against the Eagle.

Mullins challenges the system by filing a Motion to Reprimand Defendant for Abuse of Discovery, and Motion to Expunge all Defendant's Discovery from the record because of this abuse. No attorney would ever file these motions because discovery is the cash cow of the legal profession.

Representing himself as a citizen in party, Mullins claims that the defendant is unilaterally changing this action from a civil rights complaint to a race war, in which the defendant is trying to convict him on irrelevant charges of "racism" and "anti-semitism". Mullins points out that nowhere does the defendant ask the meaningful question, "Have you ever been charged, tried or convicted for committing an anti-semitic act?"

He also points out defendant's obsession with Jews, Zionism, and the Holocaust, which he defines as a "mental disorder", compulsive obsessive paranoid dementia, and maintains that the defendant is trying to use the court as a psychiatric agency. He states that defendant's discovery is committing a fraud against the court which will bring it into public obloquy.

Mullins reveals that defendant made a crude effort to unleash the violent forces of racial hatred and bigotry in the Berkshire area and committed a blood libel on the American people by claiming that Jews were in danger here. He points out that America has always provided a sanctuary for Jews from all over the world, who hold the highest political offices in the United States and are known as our wealthiest group.

He exposes the "critical race theory" of Johnnie Cochran, which denies objective reality and issues of legal fact, thereby winning acquittal for O.J. Simpson. Defendant has adopted the same tactics in this action. The accusation of "anti-Semitism" against Mullins is ridiculous because he resided in the home of a Jewish family on each of his trips to the Berkshires in 1996!

What Is N.A.S.A.'s Real Agenda On Mars?

7/27/97 RAY BILGER

Remember the panoramic view of the surface of Mars shown to us recently on television by N.A.S.A.? Remember the twin peaks that could be seen apparently about half-a-mile in the distance? And, do you recall N.A.S.A. telling us that the area where the Pathfinder lander and the Sojourner rover are located is a former floodplain? Well, would you believe that those twin peaks are actually the tops of two very ancient pyramids? This is the very serious scientific contention of former N.A.S.A. consultant and former Science Advisor to Walter Cronkite, Richard Hoagland, and two of his associates, Ken Johnston and Marvin Zarnick, both former N.A.S.A. scientists, and of Ron Nicks, a noted geologist.

On Friday night, July 25, 1997, Richard Hoagland took the opportunity to expose this latest information on Art Bell's radio talk-show. Richard's two associates, who shared the podium with him, are not without their own rather notable credentials to qualify them for commenting on this topic. Marvin Zarnick worked with McDonnell Douglas for 37 years and worked on the manned space craft program through Mercury, Gemini, Sky Lab, Apollo and Space Shuttles. He did a lot of mission planning and writing of mission rules for several Gemini missions. Ken Johnston's background is as distinguished as Marvin's and also includes involvement in many N.A.S.A. missions. Ken has appeared before on Art Bell's program with Richard Hoagland.

Richard now believes, from all of the research he and his team at the Enterprise Mission have been able to do, that it appears we have landed on Mars at the area N.A.S.A. claims we are at, but that the agenda and program being pursued are not what we are being told through the media. As Richard puts it, there are really two missions going on simultaneously; the one we are being shown through the media, and the real mission where there has now been a major leak of information allowing Richard to know what Pathfinder is really doing on Mars.

What has recently appeared publicly, and which is central to an understanding of the real mission, is a super-resolution view of the twin peak on the right, originally shown in the Mars panorama. This photograph was made public at a N.A.S.A. press conference on Tuesday, July 22, 1997, when Mission Control supposedly regained communications with the lander.

At the conference, Dr. Peter Smith of the University of Arizona, who is the principle scientific investigator on the lander imaging system, laid out the new images of the right peak. The images were apparently taken on July 20th. But that alone raises questions—as communications were supposed to be down on that day?

C.N.N. had announced that N.A.S.A. had missed a communications window by ten minutes. To understand this, one needs to first understand a communications window. Mars is currently about 50 million miles away from us. Mars rotates on its axis once in every 24 hours, 37 minutes. This period is one Martian day. Since there must be a direct and unobstructed path for radio communications with Pathfinder, we are only able to communicate with it when it is on the side of Mars which is facing Earth, just as here on Earth we can only see the Sun when we are on the side of the planet facing the Sun.

Anyway, according to Ken Johnston, when N.A.S.A. was doing the lunar orbits over 30 years ago, with the old computers they had then, they could predict within fractions of a second when the astronauts orbiting the Moon would be losing signal with Earth and when they would regain it. Then Art Bell asked if it was "possible that they missed it by ten minutes, or is that some sort of [cover-up] story?" Marvin responded, "In my estimation it has to be a story. It can't be an oversight unless we've thrown away 35 years of experience in running missions... There isn't just one person involved, there are several, and each one is monitoring the other... They're looking at data on screens and everybody knows what the next action is and who's got it and when he's got to have it ready."

To the above, Richard added the fact that these teams have had the last seven months, while waiting for arrival at Mars, to practice all of this. As well, the programs that are running this are computer programs timed to fractions of seconds. "The idea that (they) missed it by 10 minutes... These people must think we're all out to lunch! So, that raises the specter of a hidden agenda."

Art then said, "All right. That's where I wanted to go. What would you suspect the motivation would be for missing the communication time, publicly anyway?" Richard's telling response was: "Because then you don't have to report to the press what you found out when you didn't miss communication and you got the data you really wanted... And this occurred on the 20th (of July)."

According to Richard, and as maps we now have of the Martian surface should corroborate, the twin peaks we have been shown are the only objects which rise above the surface for hundreds of miles around. "It their hands the data on this buried city?

Richard and Marvin and Ken all agreed that what we are being told are the capabilities of the Sojourner rover are not the true capabilities. We are being told that it can only travel 500 meters; not far enough to go to these pyramids. Richard contends that if we believe this, then, when they do go to examine the Martian pyramids, they don't have to tell us what data they have uncovered because the rover is not supposed to be able to travel that far.

Richard suggests that N.A.S.A. is being less than forthright with the American people, and that what we need to do, to answer these very interesting questions as to what we are seeing, is to bring some pressure to bear on N.A.S.A. to use the rover to go see what's there to see.

Richard then said, "Here's the key thing. You don't have to get to the pyramid itself... to get into interesting debris, because if this right-hand peak was torn apart... and the inner guts of the rooms and... God knows what would be in there, flowed down with the water, it basically has clustered as a debris apron... around the base. And that debris apron extends almost to the lander sight itself..."

In the next hour of Art's program, Richard brought on another expert, geologist Ron Nicks (with 30 years experience). Mr. Nicks is a former Parsons Engineering Geologist, a consultant to the Environmental Protection Agency and a veteran of the Nuclear Regulatory Agency (tasked with locating geologically safe sights for accumulating nuclear waste).

the middle of that, face on, there's a pattern in there that's very clear. It's almost oval and it looks like three terraces with a ramp up the middle..."

"My first words to 'Richard were, Richard, this feature on the right, this peak on the right, looks like a stepped pyramid...' The words I used were 'Pyramid of the Sun'. It looks like a Mexican pyramid..."

Geologist Ron Nicks continued for an hour with an extremely interesting discussion of very plausible "hows" and "whys" to explain what we can see in the photos. He explained that a highly-possible reason why some of the rocks we can see are not rounded, as one might expect from rocks in a floodplain, is because they could be part of what was knocked off of the right peak (or pyramid) toward the end of the flood cycle, as the depth of deposited material reached the level where Pathfinder landed. This could mean that the flat or squared rocks are part of the pyramid debris. We might ask if Scooby-doo is a rock that was once part of a pyramid?

Ron Nicks, whose perception of this matter showed a high level of intelligence and understanding and whose comments were very specific and measured, summed up his impressions by saying, "I see something that is difficult for me to explain with only natural phenomenon. That doesn't mean that it can't be explained. I'm saying I can't explain it... If this is natural... I don't see terrestrial equivalents of that natural phenomenon..." He believes there is debris that can be seen that looks nothing like natural rocks, and he speculated that these may be material from the right peak (or pyramid).

Richard concluded by saying all of this explains why we landed where we landed. He believes that Dr. Peter Smith is aware of exactly what is going on and that he is part of the cover-up.

Richard believes that if enough pressure can be brought to bear on N.A.S.A. by the American public, then they may be forced to send the rover to investigate these twin peaks close-up. He implored all of Art's listeners to fax N.A.S.A. Administrator Dan Goldin and demand that we investigate all of this, publicly. Dan Goldin's fax number is 202-358-2810. Be cordial, but be firm.

Richard then said that we also need to put the pressure on the media. He said you should also send a copy of the fax you send to Dan Goldin, to John Holloman at C.N.N. in Atlanta. His fax number is 404-681-3578. And also send a copy of your fax to Ted Koppel at ABC news. His fax number is 202-222-7976.

Have we really landed on the planet Mars, or have we landed on the planet Saskatchewan? We shall investigate until we know the truth. In any event, it would appear that we need to continue to pressure those in positions of power until they at last do what they are supposed to do, that is, represent We The People and our best interests. Send those faxes.

seems to be that what we've landed in is the middle of an ancient city, another counterpart to Cydonia."

Art said, "I don't see a city?" Richard responded, "Well... because it's underneath. It's buried under the floodplain... And these floods, 10,000 times the volume of the water of the Amazon (River)... flowed down across this plain... What was left sticking up out of this flood... a half-a-mile away, apparently, are the tips of two Cydonia-type archeology pyramids..."

In addition to these two peaks southwest of the lander, there is another small peak to the north, about one-and-a-half miles away, which appears to be another pyramid. Richard claims his calculations show that if you draw a line through the two pyramids and continuing through the one farther away to the north, that line, if you followed it, would take you right to Cydonia! Of the twin peaks, he notes the pointed top on the peak on the left. This should mean it is intact. The right one is flattened on top as though it was lopped off, perhaps in the flood, exposing the interior.

Going back now for a moment, to put some accurate verification on all of this, on Tuesday, July 22, 1997, at the official N.A.S.A. press conference, Dr. Peter Smith said, in describing the new photos: "This is a close-up of the hill, the northern hill of the twin peaks, and you can see in this view an enhanced super-resolution, taken with something like 25 frames that have been shifted slightly, one to the next, so that we can actually get sub-pixel resolution. Now, this has been done by a very competent team from the Ames Research Center headed by Dr. Carol Stoker who is one of our participating scientists..."

"In this picture you can see that the hill has almost a prow, like a ship... and here's some of the layering that we could just barely make out in the previous pictures and, unfortunately, the rest of the layers are just below the frame. We may have to go back and take another picture of this... to explore the details." Or, is this the only part of the photo they want us to see?

What was especially troubling about this was the fact that those photos were soon removed from N.A.S.A.'s main website and then put on their mirror site, out of the way, and none of Dr. Smith's comments appeared in any of the mainstream media!

Let's stop here and examine something not discussed by Richard. All of this makes one wonder, if, indeed, what Richard is saying is true, does the Pathfinder lander perhaps have on board some miniaturized super-sophisticated-technology equipment that would enable it to tell what is beneath the surface and then beam this detailed information back to scientists here on Earth? If so, do N.A.S.A. scientists already have in

The Skill Of Lying, The Art Of Deceit

CHAPTER 5 SCIENCE NO. 5

THE SKILL OF LYING, THE ART OF DECEIT

The Illuminati have refined the art of deception far beyond what the common man has imagined. The very life and liberty of humanity requires the unmasking of their deceptions. That is what this book is about. Honesty is a necessary ingredient for any society to function successfully. Deception has become a national pastime, starting with our business and political leaders and cascading down to the grass roots. The deceptions of the Illuminati's mind-control [program] may be hidden, but in their wake they are leaving tidal waves of distrust that are destroying America.

While the CIA pretends to have our nation's best interest at heart, anyone who has seriously studied the consequences of deception on a society will tell you that deception will seriously damage any society until it collapses. Lies seriously damage a community, because trust and honesty are essential to communication and productivity.

Trust in some form is a foundation upon which humans build relationships. When trust is shattered human institutions collapse. If a person distrusts the words of another person, he will have difficulty also trusting that the person will treat him fairly, have his best interests at heart, and refrain from harming him. With such fears, an atmosphere of death is created that will eventually work to destroy or wear down the cooperation that people need. The millions of victims of total mind control are stripped of all trust, and they quietly spread their fears and distrust on a subconscious level throughout society.

One problem about lies is that one lie will call for another and then another. It's hard to keep lies single. They seem to want to breed more of their kind to protect themselves. Soon the liar becomes a victim of his own lies, trapped in a dishonest web that demands lots of energy to protect his false fronts. This is the sad fate that the intelligence agencies have painted themselves into. They must maintain groups that oversee their double-agents' lies to insure that the lies that they have disseminated don't contradict themselves. Finally, they have put out so much disinformation, they lose track of reality themselves. Far from saving this nation, the intelligence agencies have spread the cancer of deception into all walks of life, so that this cancer is contaminating and killing anything of value in the United States. The soon-to-come death of this nation's sovereignty, as well as the destruction of this nation's morals are the results of this cancer.

People who have attended high-level Illuminati meetings were instructed in how the Illuminati plan to bring in the NWO AntiChrist reign by making everything appear as if it has happened naturally. The Illuminati have decided to camouflage their actions with the creation of normalcy to avert any suspicions. An example of something which appears to have happened naturally is the O.J. Simpson case, which was planned based on previous murder scenarios which had been successfully covered up. O.J. Simpson was a CIA mind-controlled slave, and the entire Simpson case was concocted as an elaborate effort to cause racial tensions. The Mishpucka, the CIA, the Mob and the Illuminati have all had their dirty hands involved in the entire affair. The entire affair reeks of manipulation and planning. It is not the goal of this paragraph to go into the case, but just to drop a couple details. Joey Ippolito, Jr. is both CIA and Mob. Ippolito at one time lived in Hallandale, FL, a mob housing subdivision which was protected by a police force run by the Mob. He has helped run drugs and wet ops for "the Combination" which interconnects with the Illuminati. O.J. Simpson's friend Cowlings worked for Joey Ippolito, as well as O.J. Simpson. Simpson distributed cocaine for Joey Ippolito and the Combination. Simpson's lawyer also is tied to the Illuminati, the CIA, and the Mob. One of his lawyers on TV said the trial reeked of government corruption. Nicole Simpson lived next door to Carl Colby (former CIA director Bill Colby's son). Colby's wife and kids have been subjected to mind control. Colby's wife testified in O.J. Simpson's trial, but was addressed as "Miss Boe" rather than by her name. O.J. Simpson's mother worked for a California State Mental Hospital in San Francisco for 30 years. Many State Mental Hospital workers have children who have been programmed. When one of the jurors in Simpson's case, Tracy Hampton, had her mind-control programming go haywire, she began staring for long periods at a blank TV and hearing voices. She had to be dismissed. During the Simpson trial, Judge Ito gave Joe McGinniss the best front-row seat that a journalist could have. Joe McGinniss was the coverup author who wrote a book covering up about the McDonald-Fort Bragg Drug Smuggling Case. The McDonald-Fort Bragg Drug Smuggling Case involved the Illuminati drug smuggling operation within the U.S. military during the Vietnam War. On and on the stink goes.

The manipulation of history by those in power has been well covered over. An example of how mind control and its role in manipulation of events has been covered up by the perpetrators is an article written in the Journal of the American Medical Association (JAMA) in the Sept. 11, 1967, Vol. 201, No. 11 issue. The article, which was submitted to the magazine from three CIA doctors (Mark, Sweet, and Ervin), claims that riots are caused by brain disease. While the article is correct in the subpoint that only a small percentage of underprivileged urban dwellers participate in many of the riots, the article's thesis is obviously a slide to prevent people from catching on that the small number of deviants who create riots might be under mind control or might have some other motivation beyond simply being brain-diseased.

Any deception, whether it is an exaggeration or an understatement of the NWO's capabilities is considered a useful deception for the Illuminati's double-agents to spread. The German battleship Bismarck was sunk due to a little lie sent to Germany by a double-agent which underestimated the range of British radar. The Germans, thinking they were out of British radar range, made some bad decisions that cost them the colossal battleship.

DECEPTION DIMINISHES POWER

Knowledge is power, and lies diminish the knowledge of deceived dupes and therefore diminishes the power of the deceived.

Deception obscures the alternatives that people have. It also clouds up various objectives people would work toward. Some people give up certain objectives due to their mis-perceptions that the objective is undesirable or unattainable.

PROGRAMMING DECEPTIONS

In the programming, colors and directions are used. Be prepared to find out that sometime programmers use their creative imaginations such as using the color "octarine", or the direction "TURNWISE" or perhaps "WIDDERSHINS".

During the most fundamental programming which is done via LSD trips in a sensory deprivation tank to lay in the foundations of the Alpha, Beta, Delta, Omega and Theta programs, each programming memory will be given a code. Where one popular programming deception takes place is that the programmer knows ahead of time how to sequence his memory codes so that for instance, the fifth memory is coded as the first trip, and strenuous methods are used to cover up the memories of the first four trips. The victim's mind will be told to forget the first four trips. The memory codes are deceptively designed to fool the deprogrammer and the victim alike. Part of the reason the programmer does this, is that they know that IF a therapist should stumble onto these first memories, the backup programming to protect these memories is so severe that the therapist will shatter the victim's mind. Backup programs such as Atom bombs and vegetable programming are locked into place to protect the fundamental programs.

BE WISE AS SERPENTS

The Holy Spirit moved an apostle to write, "We are not ignorant of Satan's devices. Christ warned his disciples to 'be wise as serpents and harmless as doves.'" The Israelites sent out spies before entering the promised land. Within the text of The Art of War by Sun-Tzu (a book studied today by men in intelligence), he discusses "hidden provocation agents" in Book 13. Sun-Tzu was born in 534 B.C. and lived most likely until after the year 453 B. C.

"They've cured my arthritis!"

In 500 B.C., some men were farmers and some were agent provocateurs. Today both occupations still exist. The modern American farmer is vastly superior to the ancient farmer of 500 B.C., so how does the modern agent provocateur compare? He is vastly superior also. It appears the Word of God is accurate, for it warns that God's people will be destroyed for lack of knowledge.

The difficulty in obtaining honest information in today's Big Brother world is aptly described by an intelligence asset over the Internet, "If you are lucky and work hard, you will find some of the truth. If you are lucky and work REALLY hard, you might find the WHOLE truth...as someone wants you to know it. If you are PHENOMENALLY lucky and really work your tail off, you might even go on to find the REAL truth. But no outsiders...and in fact, very few insiders ever...EVER...learn the WHOLE REAL truth."

This book and our two previous books on mind control are the result of extremely hard work and numerous miracles of God, and what non-Christians would call lots of "luck". The story behind the books is amazing. This book's two authors have had to "swim upstream" for years in search for the real truth.

One thing is very clear to this author: during the last seven years of exposing the NWO, almost every person who is believed to be a leader against the NWO has tried to impede the work this author has been doing. People need to be aware that the New World Order created their own "opposition" long before some of us began sincerely trying to expose it. This author's informed opinion is that essentially all (about 98%) of the people leading the opposition to the NWO are double agents, and no less than 50% of the therapists are double agents. In this state, this author knows as a fact that 50% of the licensed therapists working with programmed DID (MPD) patients are programmed DID slaves themselves. Recently, one of the therapists in this area, who the False Memory "Spin"-drome and the Illuminati took down, was a therapist who had also been on a local TV talk show revealing that she was a multiple and an SRA victim.

FIDES) as agents against the British. Today, there are numerous "anti-NWO" people who are actually double agents. They are distributing chicken feed to make people think they are legitimate. By the way, it is interesting to note, for those who realize how important carousels are to programming, that MI-6 (HQ in Vauxhall Cross, Eng., with a training center at Ft. Monckton, near Gosport, So. Eng.) is nicknamed (actually its cryptonym) "Carousel" by its daughter organization Mossad (officially aka Central Intelligence Collection Agency).

An example of a double agent who is popular among Christians is an Illuminati witch named Gretchen Passantino, who tours around to Christian conferences belittling the idea of mind control.

Dr. Loreda Fox reports in The Spiritual and Clinical Dimensions of MPD that 74% of women abused by SRA come from "Christian homes". The Christian churches are heavily infiltrated.

In the Vol. 2 book, a number of references were made to sleeper agents. cret. The CIA has publicly admitted that they tried to discover long-range sleeper agents in the Los Niños children of Republican Spain who were the descendants of communist Spaniards who returned to Spain in the 1950s. They also have admitted to having tried to weed out long range sleepers in the Trebizond Greeks who lived near the USSR in Turkey and returned in the 1950s to Greece. As the CIA and KGB mirror-imaged each other in their manufactured Hegelian Dialectic mock dual (which was very real for the "little" person) you can well imagine that the CIA sent sleeper agents against the KGB.

NAMES OF TYPES OF DISINFORMATION AGENTS

The intelligence agencies have their own lingo for the types of disinformation agents they send against everyone else. So far, we have named only double and sleeper agents. Here are some more of their [types of] disinformation agents:

AGENT OF INFLUENCE—These agents can be unwitting, under mind control, or ideologically motivated to use their positions of influence to sway the minds of others. Examples of Agents of Influence are anchor men on TV, journalists, labor leaders, TV commentators, academics quoted by the media, and some politicians CONFUSION AGENT—An agent whose job is to produce confusion by disseminating confounding information.

CONTRACT AGENT—These are the rogue agents, such as the Mob, who the CIA get to do particular jobs on contract. Their connections can be denied.

DEEP COVER AGENT—A sleeper agent (often a programmed multiple or person with mind-control programming) who has been a long-term sleeper agent.

DISINFORMATION AGENT—This is a highly-placed agent who passes disinformation to other governments.

NOTIONAL AGENT—A fictitious non-existent "agent" which is created with a real-looking identity to mislead.

PROVOCATION AGENT—An agent sent in to provoke and destabilize the target group to do foolish things.

SPOON-FEEDER AGENT—Someone who dribbles out legitimate information; this is often done to build up a person's credentials (bona fides). Lots of the people who are pretending to expose the NWO are spoon-feeder agents who provide a little new information, tons of already-known secrets, and sprinkle in a measure of disinformation for added fun. Generally spoon-feeders increase their percentage of disinformation once they gain respectability. There are very few people really exposing anything of consequence about the NWO. This author has endured the loss of several of the really legitimate whistle-blowers who were friends [by their] being assassinated since he began writing exposés.

What this means is that agents for groups that do mind control may: have been sleepers for many years and look very legitimately innocent; they may give good correct information to our side; they may say all the right things and try to get us motivated to do more than we would want; they may talk about other friends who are giving them information, who do not even exist. It takes discernment to spot people who are not on our side. Unfortunately, such discernment seems to be fundamentally lacking within the public at large. For instance, I have seen people choose obvious NWO agents over this author as a source of "information" (which is in reality disinformation). Most people have bought so much disinformation during their lifetime, perhaps it's unrealistic to expect them to purge out all the junk they've accepted. Just as people in the world need to toss out their worldly thinking, people in the church need to toss out all the indoctrination they've gotten from the numerous kinds of harlot churches. At the moment, the system is set up so that the perpetrators of the mind control are in control of the credentialing process, so that they can provide their stooges and agents with the best credentials. As the reader can see, the roots of power behind the mind control go deep.

TRICKING SUSPECTS

One trick (or variations of it) that has been used with suspects is to arrest them, place the suspect in a situation where the police are in two groups—one group looks like police, the other group looks like the group the suspect has come from. After the suspect arrives, the group pretending to be arrested group members overpowers the police contingent and escapes to another setting where another police group, pretending to be even more of the suspect's group, ask him who he is and to explain his credentials. Letting his guard down, the original suspect explains what he is all about, thereby giving them the information they needed in the first place. Variations of this script can be run. English intelligence calls this basic script CACKLEBLADDER because chicken blood is used on the police actors that are overpowered to make them look injured.

NAMES OF DECEPTION TRICKS

FOUR FACES refers to pretexts used by agents to get interviews.

DANGLE is the craft word for luring a victim into a provocation. A dangle operation would be an operation to provoke a group or individual into a particular action. This was done with Elohim City and many other groups that the NWO is trying to set up as paties.

STANDARD DECEPTION DEVICES

Agents use BLEEP-BOXES to tap telephones and in other instances to make free-of-cost telephone calls. A CABMAN is a device to remotely activate a telephone with a radio beam. It can be used without entering the building where the telephone is located.

MASKS

The use of masks in the occult world is ancient. For centuries, the gypsies have used them for their hypnotic powers. Special healing masks for their people are kept secret and never shown to the public. Masks have a shock value and fascination value. Gypsy and other occult groups have special rituals to create the masks, including using hair clippings from the person who will wear the mask. Gypsy healing masks are destroyed after the patient gets well. Illuminati programming masks may or may not be destroyed after their use. The Illuminati's mask-making abilities (according to deprogrammed victims of their mind control) are very high quality. Sometimes the programmers simply wear Halloween cartoon-character masks that anyone can obtain, to fulfill their role in the programming script that they are involved in during the time.

COVERS

Some beginners who have just started into studying the New World Order question why the Illuminati would use legitimate religious covers. Why would the Illuminati want to create a slave who is an evangelist? Why? Because those new converts will go to some establishment church where other programmed multiples in leadership positions will demand obedience (and then support those demands by quoting scriptures that make them seem like they are God's authority over that new convert). Because the evangelist or missionary and the bishop or pastor are controlled puppets, the convert will never get the full truth, just enough truth to keep him working hard for their organization. Even though the convert "got God in my life", the Illuminati never lose control over him.

The Christians have as much vested interest in preventing the exposure of the Illuminati programmed multiples who are big name Christian ministers running Christendom, as the Illuminati has. Imagine what would happen if the world found out that most of Christianity was run by the human-sacrificing, slave-making Illuminati? This is one of the sad effects of the infiltration.

Perhaps the subject of covers can be explained from another angle. The reader knows that the elite like monopolies. They play monopoly for real—for us it's only a board game! To establish a monopoly, you find a good product that everyone wants or needs, and then you eliminate all the competition by either destroying them, or owning the competition yourself. In the U.S., the Illuminati can't have a one-religion monopoly. In Russia, they had communism with Marx, and Lenin as the Father-God and God-the-son figure. Communism had a monopoly on worship. In the U. S. they have established a monopoly by controlling all the various religious groups. (This author wrote an 800-page, heavily documented book, Be Wise As Serpents, to show the details of how this is done.) It's not a matter of what they teach, it's a matter of control, so that the Elite have a monopoly. And when you, as a mover and shaker in the world, control all these various religions via money, blackmail, and programmed multiples under your leadership, etc.—which religion would you pick to emphasize the most? You will pick the one that sells the best, i.e., the best product.

THE SHOW MUST GO ON

BUT I DON'T HAVE TO STAY AND WATCH!

Adelugh Brilliant

And which brand of Christianity will sell the best? The televised charismatic brand will sell the best.

Covers that slaves use to explain what they do in life are almost always "legitimate". A missionary, a military officer, a salesperson, etc., will usually actually do their cover job most of the time. Their cover is their occupation, their service as a mind-controlled slave is almost an unwitting avocation.

Organizations are used as covers. The Illuminati use military, social, intelligence, education, banking and other organizations as covers. (See my Be Wise As Serpents book for many of these.) Moriah's front organizations, such as the CIAs, in turn use other organizations. Here is just a sampling of CIA fronts, to show the variety of fronts used:

- Asia Foundation was an academic organization created by the CIA.

- Castle Bank & Trust co. has been a bank in the Caribbean that is a CIA front.

- Forum World Features has been a front created for CIA propaganda purposes and based in London, UK.

- Geschicter Foundation for Medical Research (as well as the Josiah Macy Foundation) was used as an intelligence front to launder money used for mind control.

- Air-Sea Forwarders, Inc. was the legal corporation name of a CIA front in North Hollywood, CA. The company was involved in moving freight. In the last few years, this corporation sued E-Systems, the company which builds the CIA's and the NWO's electronic systems such as their communications satellites. In court, the company proved that it was a CIA front, in spite of CIA denials. As this chapter provides information about some of the Illuminati/intelligence connections to Hollywood, bear in mind that this CIA front was proven in court to be a CIA front in Hollywood. A feat that rarely occurs.

ONE OF THE GREATEST DECEPTIONS OF ALL TIME: DISNEY

INTRODUCTION

For years, I have heard many Americans say that something is terribly wrong in this country and that things are "going to pot", and yet Americans can't put their finger on what exactly is wrong.

When I first began to receive reports from victims of Illuminati mind control about Disney's involvement in their mind control, I kept an open ear, but I wanted some tangible proof. After investigating for myself, there is now no doubt in my mind that Disney (the man, the movies, and the entertainment parks) has been a major contributor to the demise of America, while maintaining a very well constructed front of wholesomeness. In this chapter, you will learn why Disney is one of the best deceptions of the Illuminati.

This author has read a good portion of what is available to the public concerning Disney. This exposé is undoubtedly the deepest on Disney that has ever been done. Perhaps part of my motivation is that I've tired of Christians talking and acting like Disney stands for sainthood. Christians, who should have known better, are some of the ones who have swallowed "hook, line and sinker" the enormous deception that entails Disney. They feed their children a steady diet of occultism and witchcraft because they have been programmed to think of Disney as wholesomeness and everything that is good about America.

Becoming Aware of the Power of the Mind

Nothing happens in the world of matter without it first being conceived in the world of thought—the mind. First comes the idea and then what follows is a series of steps that take the concept through to completion. An architect, for instance, has the idea of a building first in her mind. That may be followed by some informal sketches of it until the idea is more firmly gelled. At that time a rendering may be created, followed by a model. At each step of the way, the idea becomes more and more focused and refined until, finally, the actual building is constructed. Artists, writers, entrepreneurs, builders, etc., all begin their endeavors with a thought. These people create in full consciousness, totally aware of what they are doing. They direct the progress from mind to fruition at every step of the way until the project is complete. Great inventions, important discoveries, space travel, and ideals such as freedom and justice have all been accomplished through a similar process. Nothing can be created without it first happening in the mind. Yet, that which is created through unaware thought is far more prevalent and far more dangerous than anything created through awareness. We can call it creation by don't want.

The world of mind cannot tell the difference between "want" and "don't want." It only recognizes energy, particularly focused energy. Scattered, disorganized thoughts become dissipated, eventually dissolving into nothingness. But focused, clear thought, particularly when it has an emotion attached to it, has a power in and of itself—a magnetic resonance. Emotion is a key element in that it gives the focused thought the necessary charge to keep it intact long enough to draw to it what it needs for completion. It acts like a magnet; the stronger the emotion, the greater the charge. Focused thought charged with emotion is what survives in the world of mind. For your thought to survive in the world of mind it must first be clear and focused. Then you must care enough about it to give it the necessary emotional charge to keep it together. It must stay intact long enough to draw what you need to see it to fruition.

We are capable of creating or destroying and it starts with a mere thought. Knowing how powerful our thoughts can be, it is vital that we learn to use them wisely. It is important that we become aware of what goes on in our minds. How much time do we spend dredging up everything wrong about our lives? How many thoughts of anger, resentment, and even revenge, do we harbor towards people we think wronged us in some way or another? How much time do we spend focusing on the kind of world we would like for ourselves? The first step to changing the way we think is to develop an acute awareness of the kinds of thoughts that move through our minds. If you would like to become more conscious of your thoughts, note each time you find yourself thinking about something you don't like. Note also the times you think about the way you'd like things to be. Keep track of your thoughts in a journal—creative thoughts on one page—destructive thoughts on another. Also note if the thoughts seem more inclined to be random and unfocused, or if they are clear and focused. But do it as an observer—without judgement. Plan on doing this for 21 days before you look at your results. At the end of that time, examine your journal to determine whether or not the thoughts you have recorded conjure up any emotion as you review them. At the end of that time you should be able to determine if more of your time is spent on random, unfocused thought, or emotionally-charged focused thought. You should also begin to see a pattern emerge that will tell you whether or not your thoughts are creative or destructive. If your thoughts tend to more in the negative range, you might find that events in your life happen more by default than with purpose. By becoming aware of the way you use your mind, you have just completed the first step to improving or changing your thought pattern and ultimately your life.

The world of mind cannot tell the difference between "want" and "don't want."

default because it happens when our thoughts are focused on that which we do not want. And the results of those thoughts are usually the very things that we don't want to happen.

Fortunately our thoughts of dissatisfaction are more often than not random and unfocused, so they usually dissolve before they can gain enough strength to do us much harm—except for the time wasted thinking about them. But, if these negative thoughts are clear and focused enough, and if there is a strong emotion attached to them, the very thing we want the least may become a reality. Without being consciously aware of it, we may be setting the stage for the accomplishment of what we

This is a service for our dedicated readers. Today's Watch telephone hotline carries the latest news and comments from Commander Hatonn's most recent writings. This is our way of keeping you informed about fast-breaking news and events.

The message machine will answer after 2 rings if there are any new messages for that day, and after 4 rings if not. Thus daily callers can hang up after 2 rings and save toll charges if no new message has been recorded. If the hotline does not answer your call then that means that there is currently no hotline message.
