David Icke's Brush With The Adversary Turning Lemons Into Lemonade

5/4/98 RICK MARTIN

An aggressive move was mounted by local adversarial influences in Canada's British Columbia recently in an effort to thwart David Icke's lecture in Vernon, B.C., a town about 250 miles inland (east) from Vancouver Island. But those efforts were soundly overcome by meeting the opposition head-on and countering every lie with truth. In what amounted to media hoopla over several days, press, radio, and television all became involved in the controversy.

It all started when Bob Sindlinger, general manager for the Best Western Vernon Lodge and Conference Centre, cancelled the meeting scheduled for Saturday, May 2nd.

Quoting from Mr. Sindlinger's letter to Wes Mann of the Preferred Network, sponsor for David Icke, we read:

"In the past two days I have received a few phone calls expressing concern over the meeting you have scheduled here for May 2. These calls have voiced concern over your guest speaker and have implied that there will be a public protest, possible civil unrest and the potential for violence. In view of these implications, and in the best interest of the safety of our guests and staff, I have little choice but to cancel your meeting here at the

FEARS ABOUT FOOD SAFETY ON THE RISE

Recent encounters with contamination cause new-found anxiety about system

Excerpted from 2 articles in THE GLOBE and MAIL, Canada, by Murray Campbell, courtesy Dr. Pierre Clautier, 4/13/98: [quoting]

This is what food poisoning looks like behind the headlines.

When Tammy Collins noticed last month that her seven-year-old daughter, Amanda Drury, was ill, she rushed her to a hospital in Barrie, Ont. The little girl was vomiting and had a temperature of nearly 40 (104 F), but doctors, apparently believing that she was suffering from nothing more than the flu, turned her away.

It took four more visits before a frantic Ms. Collins was able to convince the doctors that bloody diarrhea was serious enough to warrant closer observation and that Amanda should be admitted. Five days later, after losing one-tenth of her body weight, the little girl was diagnosed as having salmonella poisoning.

There is a certain irony to this because Ms. Collins is a trained cook and has always been scrupulous about how she prepares her food and disinfects her cooking utensils. "I racked my brain, thinking 'Where did I go wrong?'"

Amanda spent eight days in hospital, and although she is now back in her Grade 1 class, she remains pale and tired. Her mother remains livid with doctors who did not recognize food poisoning, and is worried that her daughter has become a picky eater.

But what may be worse than any of this was the discovery that Amanda had become ill not from anything consumed at home but from a packaged lunch snack given to her by her father. Now, no supermarket looks safe to her. "I'll never, ever buy packaged foods again," Ms. Collins vowed.

This attitude reflects a newfound anxiety in Canada about what we put in our mouths. Suddenly, food that used to be taken for granted is slightly suspect.

PEOPLE have always become sick from eating food, of course, but the 20th century's advances in sanitation and refrigeration reduced the threat enormously. Then new microbes began to appear, and the consequences of food-borne illness have intensified again

U.S. officials say that the incidence of disease has doubled during the past two decades, and their Canadian counterparts estimate that food poisoning kills 200 to 500 people in this country every year.

In the past, people who ate food left too long at room temperature experienced stomach cramps or diarrhea within hours. Now, with pathogens such as E. coli 0157, the symptoms may not appear for a week and the illness may be much more serious.

Infection with the listeria bacterium, for example, can cause miscarriage. Campylobacteriosis can result in Guillian-Barré syndrome, which attacks the muscles and can lead to paralysis.

"We face a far more complex food-safety challenge today," U.S. Agriculture Secretary Dan Glickman said recently. [End quoting]

If you don't insist on treatment when they try to ignore you, you may become one of the elite's numbers in their planned depopulation process. Most of these more virulent strains of bacteria, viruses and fungi are created in the labs for just this purpose, so don't let them shunt you off if you sense that it is serious.

HOMEBUILDING FAST FRAMING

From POPULAR SCIENCE magazine, May 1998: [quoting]

One of the biggest crowd-pleasers at this year's International Homebuilders Show in Dallas was a prefabricated building system that enables six workers—no matter their skill level—to frame a house in a day. Developed by Kato Sangyo Ltd. of Shimane, Japan, the Metalfit framing system was designed to help meet rising housing demand in a country with a severe shortage of skilled labor. Now Metalfit is coming to the United States.

The system is built around a series of steel connectors that easily link the members of a post-and-beam house frame. But the frame isn't ordinary lumber. Atomu Yoshimura, Kato Sangyo's managing director, emphasizes that the steel connectors require a precisely milled frame that won't warp or twist. For that reason, Metalfit is made entirely of engineered wood—that is, wood from small trees and waste lumber that is compressed and then glued together to form larger, stronger pieces. Wall sheathing consists of engineered panels laminated to rigid-foam insulation. The panels are covered with housewrap.

Kato Sangyo's manufacturing process is equally as precise as its product. Blueprints are entered in the company's computer, which in turn commands an automated factory. The factory can cut the frame for a 1,600-square-foot custom-designed house in a day; it can crank out frames for identical tract houses at a rate of one per hour.

The system has certainly caught on in Japan. Yoshimura says that output grew from 200 houses three years ago to 2,000 last year. The company plans to open a U.S. factory soon. Once it does, framing a small house could become a weekend project within reach of nearly anyone. —Charles Wardell [End quoting] petty officers, NCOs and some field-grade unit commanders. These military professionals brought these politicians up to speed on various issues. Their bottom line, according to Navy Times, is that our military is running almost entirely on adrenaline, long hours, and is close to collapse! Each branch of the service questioned had nearly the same complaints. A lack of spare parts, forcing cannibalization of equipment; a lack of midgrade enlisted folks with experience; too much time away from home, plus they're constantly harped on to "do more with less!"

As a former sea-going Command Master Chief, I can guarantee you this has already seriously affected morale and retention! Even the Congressman stated, "Everywhere we look we see the signs of a military that is fast approaching burnout." Another said he's seeing the same hollowness in the force that he saw in the 1970s, a force that was unable to respond to crises. Is Congress going to do anything about it? I hope so, but we'll just have to stay tuned!. It's a cinch the draft-dodger-in-chief is not too concerned. He has our troops spread all over the world, and is content to just leave them there! The elite have their plans well laid, and the signs of their implementation are showing up more and more.

NEWS BRIEFS

From MILITARY magazine, MAY 1998: [quoting]

BILL AND SADDAM

Jordan's King Hussein wants to set up direct talks between Clinton and Saddam Hussein.

PEACE PROCESS

It's worse off now than before the latest round with Saddam Hussein. The U.S. suffered a loss of confidence with the Arab world in the on-and-off-again threat of an attack. We expect the Clinton administration will press Israel to make more concessions in an attempt to please the Arabs. Israel will resist and Egypt will move closer to the Iran/Syria camp.

TURKEY'S STABILITY

By banning Islamist political activity in Turkey at the request of pro-West generals, they have set off new waves of protest in the Muslim community at home and abroad. Turkey faces the possibility of a showdown with Greece over Russian missiles to be delivered to Cyprus. Now there is fear that the fighting in Yugoslavia involving Kosovo's ethnic Albanians and the Serbs could spread to Macedonia, which does not want Albanian refugees, and even on to Greece and Turkey.

NAFTA GESTAPO

A big flaw in NAFTA was the creation of the Commission on Economic Cooperation (CEC), a group of international scientists and environmentalists. Just north of the Mexican border in Arizona is the tiny community of Sierra Vista which draws water from the San Pedro River. CEC has decided Sierra Vista takes too much water from the river yet, in an appeal to the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers, the U.S. EPA and in Federal Court, Sierra Vista won their case to water rights. This group of foreigners in CEC, however, demand that limits be placed on Sierra Vista so that a river, originating in the U.S., can provide more water for Mexico. The Clinton administration is ready to allow this foreign tribunal to dictate to our courts.

MACEDONIA

Macedonia, which has a rag-tag 15,000-man Army, is politically unstable. War between Yugoslavia and Albania could spread to Macedonia. Albania, Bulgaria, Greece and Turkey have long considered Macedonia a part of their territory and any or all may join the fight to lay claim. This scenario was predicted in 1993. Old ethnic and religious ties make it hard for these nations to sit on the sidelines while borders are changed. The region presently involves both UN and NATO operations, which complicates matters. In any event the U.S. will be involved. [End quoting]

CHRISTIANS 1, ACLU 0

From THE JUBILEE, Mar./Apr. 98: [quoting] The United States Supreme Court tossed out an ACLU lawsuit against a nativity scene displayed by Syracuse, NY during the Christmas season.

This sort of ACLU lawsuit has become commonplace during the Christmas season nationwide. What is not so commonplace is the result. The vote of the justices was 9-0 in favor of the city, against the ACLU. [End quoting]

ANOTHER HATE-CRIME HOAX

From THE JUBILEE, Mar./Apr. 1998: [quoting]

Students at conservative Duke University woke up on November 12, 1997 to find a Black doll hanging by the neck from a tree on the campus green. Under the hanging doll was a bench smeared with black paint. A sign on the doll read "Duke hasn't changed". Naturally there was an uproar. The cry of "hate crime" appeared in local newspapers. Black Students staged a sit-in at the Dean's office.

After two days, two Black students were caught and confessed to the act. What had been a "hate crime" was suddenly changed into a "political protest" and free speech. [End quoting]

INDONESIA TORN BY PRICE RIOTING

From THE DAILY NEWS, Los Angeles, 5/6/98: [quoting]

Flipping over cars and hurling rocks at police, thousands of rioters furious about price hikes rampaged in northern Indonesia on Tuesday in the worst outbreak of violence since the country's economy buckled last year.

Helmeted police officers fired in the air to ward off mobs of looters who set fire to two homes and 14 cars and pelted hundreds of storefronts with stones, residents said.

Witnesses said several dozen people were injured.

While the government was buoyed by an additional $7 billion from the International Monetary Fund Tuesday's unrest is a painful reminder that the economic pain is becoming too much for many Indonesians to bear. [End quoting]

HIGH-TECH MOUSE CAN'T BE PATENTED, COURT RULES

From THE MONTREAL GAZETTE, by Tom Spears, 4/23/98, courtesy of Dr. Pierre Clautier: [quoting]

You can't patent a mammal in Canada—for now.

The Federal Court of Canada yesterday turned down Harvard University's attempt to patent a type of mouse that gets cancer easily.

Harvard genetically engineered the mouse to help in cancer research and already has a patent in the United States. It had asked Canada's patent office to grant one here.

This would have given Harvard the sole right to create mice with these genes, breed them, own them and decide who may use them in Canada.

When the patent officials refused, Harvard appealed to the Federal Court.

But Judge Marc Nadon says the "oncomouse" (named for oncology, the study of cancer) is not an invention under Canadian law.

DIDN'T INVENT MOUSE

Harvard invented a method of injecting mouse cells with a cancer-prone gene, "but they have not invented the mouse," he writes.

"A complex life form does not fit within the current parameters of the Patent Act without stretching the meaning of the words to the breaking point, which I am not prepared to do," he concludes.

But he adds: "If Parliament so wishes, it can clearly alter the legislation so that mammals can be patented."

The ruling leaves patents on some single-celled life forms intact. For instance, patents exist on a yeast culture that can be used to digest and break down liquid waste from a pulp mill.

But genetic engineering is now creating life forms that are different from anything produced by nature alone.

CONCENTRATES CONTROL

For instance, Monsanto, a pesticide company, has developed new varieties of corn, cotton and soybeans engineered to resist a Monsanto pesticide called Roundup.

Monsanto holds patents on "Roundup-Ready" plants in the United States, but not in Canada.

Some environment groups say such patents threaten to concentrate too much control over crops, farm animals and medical research in the hands of a small number of corporations.

Biotech companies say they need the patents to protect their investment in expensive research from their rivals.

The mouse ruling "seems to hold the law on the status quo", namely that only single-celled life forms can be patented here, said David Morrow, Harvard's lawyer.

He said he has sent a copy of the judgment to Harvard, but the university hasn't had time to react.

Harvard designed the oncomouse to be very prone to developing cancer. That means cancer researchers can use it without having to make a healthy rodent sick.

As well, they can avoid the use of strong cancer-causing drugs that may remain in the mouse's body and skew their results. [End quoting]

Always the excuses and never any thought about ethical behavior. Where are the environmentalists and the animal rights people in these cases. Oh, I forgot, there's too much money for the corporations—the elite—to pocket.

CONSERVATIVE PURGED

From THE JUBILEE, Mar./Apr. 1998: [quoting]

Mainstream conservative Scott McConnell was fired from his job as the editorial page editor at the New York Post after he wrote an editorial against Puerto Rican statehood. The editorial was moderate in tone but shortly after the paper came out a group of angry Puerto Ricans stoned the offices of the Post screaming racist slurs at the Whites and demanding the paper retract the editorial.

After that incident, the Post's publisher, Martin Singerman informed McConnell that the paper was "pro-immigration" and fired him. Later McConnell said that it had suddenly dawned on him, "that our society had developed an expected script of White Anglo-Saxon contrition and apology...and that I had failed to follow it." MICHAEL AND THE SUPREME COURT

Excerpted from THE JUBILEE, Mar./Apr. 1998: [quoting]

March 30, 1998—In a one-sentence message The Supreme Court denied the writ of certiorari filed by Attys. Mike Farris and Herb Titus on behalf of Army Specialist Michael New.

This writ was a request that the higher court order the Federal Court of Appeals to hear the case. The Court of Appeals had denied Michael New a hearing on the merits of the case last November, arguing that they have no jurisdiction.

The next step is the Army Court of Criminal Appeals, meeting in Falls Church, Virginia on 28 May. The Army has already filed its brief, in which they will tell the judges that this case is "nonjusticiable", in the military courts. (Which means that THEY have no jurisdiction!) This will not be a hearing open to the public.

If the ACCA agrees with the Pentagon, and they are expected to do so, then we will be witness to an American citizen-soldier who has been expatriated, stripped of his legal protection by both civilian and military courts, forced out from under the umbrella of the legal protections provided in the Constitution.

This government is moving perilously close to the position of declaring, in effect, that the Constitution does not apply because it has been rendered irrelevant by treaties, by an activist judiciary, and by a spineless Congress more interested in reelection than in doing what they took an oath to do. [emphasis mine]

Can a government FORCE a citizen, to whom it guarantees "freedom of religion", to serve in a foreign military capacity under an anti-Christian, unelected, anti-American United Nations military? Can a Christian, or anyone for that matter, be legally required to serve two masters? The implications are staggering.

Yes, you have suspected it all along. The awkwardness of their position is that none of them want to admit it, because it can radically change the way Americans view this "New, Improved State".

Where does a citizen appeal, when stripped of legal protection by both military and civilian courts? Under what courts can SPC Michael New find justice? The Hague? We don't think so! Well, there is still Congress, there is still the Court of Public Opinion, and there is still a merciful and just Judge of the Universe, in Whom we believe, in Whom the Founders believed, but in Whom the current rulers do not believe. We are confident in that position. Faith and Obedience to God is the most dangerous thing in the world to Tyrants.

The Sovereignty of all countries is endangered when the USA concedes any degree of its own sovereignty. Daniel New; Michael New Action Fund <ddnew@bigfoot.com>

US Army Spc. Michael New was court-martialed in 1995 for refusing to don U.N. garb in a UN peace-keeping mission. [End quoting]

Another way to test the waters for how far they can go in ignoring the Constitution??

DIGITAL WILL LAY OFF 27% OF ITS WORK FORCE

From THE DAILY NEWS, Los Angeles, 5/7/98: [quoting]

Compaq Computer Corp. will cut about 15,000 jobs at Digital Equipment Corp., or 27 percent of the work force, as part of its planned $9.55 billion acquisition of the computer maker, people familiar with the plans said.

Compaq will take a restructuring charge of $1.5 billion to $2 billion after completing the purchase, according to filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission. [End quoting]

Some more of the signs of our booming economy?? It seems what is really "booming" is the downsizing of our economy. There is a very true and old saying: If you want the truth, just turn what the politicians and elite are saying 180 degrees and it will be pretty accurate.

AUTOPSY RULES McDOUGAL DEATH AS NATURAL, DESPITE TOXIC PROZAC LEVEL

Excerpted from THE STAR-TELEGRAM, by Jack Douglas Jr., courtesy of Mauriene Pierce, 4/30/98: [quoting]

An autopsy shows that James B. McDougal, a key witness for Whitewater prosecutors who are investigating President Clinton, had a toxic but nonlethal amount of an antidepressant drug in his body when he died of heart failure last month in a Fort Worth federal prison, according to the Tarrant County medical examiner.

McDougal died a natural and quick death on March 8 in a sudden cardiac failure, unrelated to the high level of Prozac in his body, medical examiner Nizam Peerwani said yesterday.

No other drug was found in McDougal's system, Peerwani said, although the prisoner had been on other medications for a variety of health problems, including a heart ailment and high blood pressure.

At the time of his death, McDougal, a former friend and confidant of Clinton's, was in an isolated jail cell in the Federal Medical Center on the south side of town. He was serving a three-year prison sentence for conspiracy to defraud the government.

Peerwani said his office carefully examined McDougal for any evidence of poison or other trauma, knowing that conspiracy theories would emerge that the high-profile prisoner may have been killed to keep him from testifying against the president.

"We can put that theory to rest," Peerwani said. "We do not think Mr. McDougal was killed. There's no evidence of foul play, there were no poisons."

The normal dosage for patients who receive Prozac for depression is 20 milligrams daily, Peerwani said. But for McDougal, Peerwani said, "someone made the judgment to increase the dosage to 60 milligrams.

"And I think for him, that was too much," he said. [End quoting]

I wrote the details of what led up to this murder (??) in a recent article.

This wouldn't sound like murder at all in a court room of honest jurors—now would it. It seems to be just too many coincidences here and the timing was just perfect for his assisted departure.

CAPITOL CRIMES

ULTIMATE FOB—VERNON JORDAN

From THE JUBILEE, Mar./Apr./98: [quoting]

During the height of the Monica Lewinsky scandal Bill Clinton's closest friend and confidant was Vernon Jordan. Clinton was little more than a paper tiger, while Zionists ran the foreign policy and military establishments, and bureaucrats of the racial, feminist, and homosexual establishments squabbled over the domestic budget. Insiders kept their distance from Clinton for fear of being tainted by the scandal surrounding him, but Jordan was all over him.

Although he is universally supported by the mainstream media which describes him only as a "civil rights activist" few people realize that Jordan was placed into powerful positions with major American corporations and was able to ensure funding for left-wing causes and support for Clinton from America's Fortune 500 companies. Vernon Jordan sits on the board of directors of Xerox, Union Carbide, Bankers Trust, American Express, J.C. Penney, and Sara Lee, RJR Nabisco, and multinational Daimler-Benz. His wife Ann Dibble Jordan sits on the boards of Johnson & Johnson, Travelers Group, and the very powerful Capital Cities/ABC. [End quoting]

AGAINST ALL ODDS

From GUIDEPOSTS, Jan. 1998, P.O. Box 1479, Carmel, NY 10512: [quoting]

When people with serious illness rally and recover unexpectedly most physicians are hesitant to use the word miracle. And yet, "There are always people who do far better than we expect," says Dr. David Steinberg, chief of hematology at the Lahey Hitchcock Medical Center in Burlington, Mass., and assistant clinical professor of medicine at Harvard Medical School. So every year during the holiday season Dr. Steinberg devotes the hospital's weekly tumor conference to what he calls the Miracle Conference.

During the rest of the year the cases presented typically involve patients with extremely difficult problems—diseases usually categorized as incurable or terminal. But when the "incurable" are cured, that is a reality too. So the purpose of Dr. Steinberg's case presentations is to provide a boost for hospital providers whose work in caring for very sick patients can be difficult and depressing. "It is uplifting for them to know that their efforts sometimes result in substantial benefits," says Dr. Steinberg.

Over the past 12 years a number of patients have attended these gatherings in a boardroom at the Lahey Hitchcock Medical Center. They've mingled with the audience—primarily oncologists, surgeons, hematologists, nurses and other staff members who work with cancer patients—and answered questions: "Why do you think you did so well when the medical odds were very much against you?" "What have you learned from being so sick?" In a sense, the responses speak for themselves. Let's meet a few of these remarkable people.

Fannie Tourinho came to the Lahey Clinic about 22 years ago, when she was 52. She had been in pain for almost a year, but a succession of doctors couldn't pinpoint the reason. "It's my back and legs," she explained. "They hurt all the time." Overwhelming fatigue kept her in bed for days on end. And when she did get up, frequent falls often resulted in bone fractures.

Somehow, Mrs. Tourinho managed to get to church one Sunday. As she explained, "I got down on my knees and asked the Lord if there was somewhere I could get some help. The next day I got a call from the Lahey Clinic."

In fact, one of her physicians had called the clinic and asked if they would do a workup on her. A battery of tests left no doubt about the cause of her pain: She was suffering from multiple myeloma, cancer of the bone marrow. Even today, with a host of new drugs and procedures for treatment of this disease, the survival rate is measured in months to a few years. That was the prognosis Dr. Steinberg was forced to pass along to Mrs. Tourinho. Her reaction?

"God will see me through. Last night I read my Bible. In Proverbs it said, 'Trust in the Lord with all thine heart.... He will direct thy path.'"

Dr. Steinberg knew his patient understood little about the physiological nature of her disease. Her faith, though touching, was hardly grounded in medical reality. But then she added something that startled even him.

"And another verse in my Bible said, 'It shall be marrow to thy bones.' So you see, the Lord's directing this."

In those years marrow transplants were not yet done for this disease. Nevertheless, the chemotherapy treatments Fannie would be given would indeed be focused on her marrow cells. Even so, Dr. Steinberg gently explained to Fannie that they might be able to give her no more than a year or two of pain-free living. "However long God wills me," Fannie replied.

Twenty years later when Mrs. Tourinho appeared at the Miracle Conference there were a few in attendance who thought the original diagnosis might have been wrong. But Dr. Steinberg was ready for that. The X rays, pathology slides and lab reports accumulated during her course of treatment—all of them displayed to the audience—left no doubt she suffered from multiple myeloma. "How then did you manage to beat an unbeatable disease?" a resident doctor asked the sparkling 72-year-old woman.

"Through faith and religion," she said. "Simple as that."

Dr. Steinberg introduced Fannie to the assembled staff, along with another woman who also had been diagnosed with multiple myeloma more than a decade ago. "When I first saw these women," Dr. Steinberg told the gathering, "I'd have given you fifty-thousand-to-one odds they wouldn't live more than a few years. Yet today both live full and normal lives."

Although they had never met, the two women turned and embraced. Obviously, they had shared an experience few people survive. "But how?" a resident asked.

"Through faith," they replied almost in unison.

Later, a young doctor took Dr. Steinberg aside and asked how he felt about the women's response. It was a question Dr. Steinberg had thought about many times before. "As you know," he said, "we see many extremely religious people here who do not live beyond medical expectations. But no matter what the outcome, I do think faith makes it easier for patients to deal with their treatment and illness. Instead of being sullen or angry, they see it as part of a greater plan."

Remarkable recoveries, however, don't always involve malignant disease. Among other miracle cases often mentioned at the Lahey Hitchcock Medical Center is Lori Greatorex. In 1992, at age 22, she suffered a massive stroke on her wedding day. "I'd just changed into my going-away outfit and was saying good-bye to the guests when I blacked out," she explained.

In the intensive-care unit at Lahey Hitchcock, neurologist Dr. James Russell could offer little hope for Lori's full recovery. "There were periods when she had almost no speech, very little comprehension, and no movement at all on her right side," he says. Brain scans showed a blood clot had blocked an artery, causing destruction in the left side of her brain.

"We tried to improve cerebral blood flow and salvage some areas," Dr. Russell added, "but I'm not sure it made any difference."

At the New England Rehabilitation Hospital In Woburn, Mass., however, Lori worked relentlessly to regain her speech and comprehension. Doctors and nurses shook their heads in amazement at her progress. Still, they didn't think she would ever regain movement on the right side. CAT scans and MRIs showed there had been too much damage. But they were in for a surprise.

Each and every day Lori got up early and headed for the exercise room, where she worked for hours, lifting weights and stretching. Faster than anyone dreamed possible, she regained movement in her fingers and toes, then her hands and feet and finally in her legs and arms.

What drove her to work so hard?

"I never thought about the negative," Lori says. "I kept thinking 'This is going to get better. This is going to get better.' In my mind, I was going to be fine. It was just a matter of time."

How far Lori actually did come back from a major stroke is truly miraculous. Three months after the initial episode she returned to work as a hairdresser; in 1994 she ran the Boston Marathon, finishing in four and a half hours and raising two thousand dollars in pledges for stroke victims; and not long after that she and husband Jim celebrated the birth of their first child, a healthy daughter.

"I can't Prove Lori's attitude made a difference," says Dr. Russell, "but I believe there were intangibles at work that nobody fully understands."

After recovering from an unbeatable illness, does a patient's attitude toward life change? The answers are uniformly yes.

"I don't worry about little things anymore," announced a middle-aged woman who had recovered from leukemia. "I take each day as it comes and try to get as much out of it as possible." After a prominent Boston lawyer with a fast-track career was successfully treated at the clinic for a large malignant tumor, he reevaluated the priority he had given to power and success. "Now I realize there are far more important things in life," he said. Dr. Steinberg's favorite among the miracle cases, however, is an elderly man I'll call Salvatore, who seven years ago was diagnosed with extensive large-cell lymphoma. His age and other health problems made long-term survival extremely doubtful.

But Salvatore kept beating the odds. When doctors examined him shortly after his eighty-first birthday there was no sign of a tumor. Yet he still sometimes appeared at the hospital to say hello and ask if he could do any favors for the staff. "Can I wax your car, doc?" he asked Dr. Steinberg.

"But, Sal," the doctor told him, "you just got over a serious illness. You should be home taking it easy."

"Don't worry," came the reply, "I've got faith in the doctors—and faith in God. What more do I need?" [End quoting]

Even medical experts are astounded when "incurable" patients live on. Don't limit God.

Vernon Lodge." (Office number: 250-545-3385).

The change of venue caused real concern for Wes Mann, and a last-minute scramble to relocate the event. This was a matter of no small concern and one which will very possibly result in legal action against the Vernon Lodge.

As it turns out, the primary owner of the Vernon Lodge is Jimmy Pattison, one of British Columbia's wealthiest citizens. In the past, Pattison has personally sponsored such speakers as forever president George Bush and Brian Mulroney, former Canadian Prime Minister.

The pressure on Mr. Sindlinger to cancel the scheduled event originated from one David Lethbridge, a teacher of psychology at Okanagan College in Salmon Arm, British Columbia, about 30 miles north of Vernon.

THE STRANGE CASE OF DAVID LETHBRIDGE

In a document off the Internet from the Canadian Association for Free Expression, we read the following, titled "The Strange Case of David Lethbridge". [Quoting:]

David Lethbridge teaches psychology at Okanagan College in Salmon Arm. He is also a member of the Communist Party of Canada and a frequent contributor to People's Voice, the monthly organ of that miniscule party. As free speechers, we say that's his right as long as he does it on his own time and doesn't use the classroom as a platform. We in the populist movement call him Professor Bare Bum, after a bizarre stunt he pulled in May 1992, when he led a group of rowdies who tried to shut down a meeting of the Canadian League of Rights. The rowdies shoved old people and vandalized a car. Lethbridge, in highly intellectual diction, called the people at the meeting "filthy, f*ck*ng fascists." (Web of Hate, p. 61.) In frustration at not being able to prevent the meeting, Lethbridge dropped his pants and "moonied" those going into the meeting.

Being a supporter of communism is a little odd for an intellectual. He must know that this

Threats force cancellation

by DAN EBENAL
Morning Star Writer

Anonymous threats forced the cancellation of a controversial speaker at the Best Western Vernon Lodge.

David Icke was scheduled to speak on a global conspiracy that secretly controls the world's politics, banking and religion Saturday at the Lodge, but that event was moved to an unannounced location at the last minute.

"We received anonymous phone calls Monday and Tuesday," said Vernon Lodge general manager Bob Sindlinger.

"And while there were no direct threats to myself, the hotel, staff or guests, it was implied that there could be a public protest, civil unrest and the potential for violence."

Sindlinger said it is not for him to make a decision on whether a particular point of view is right or wrong.

"But if there is an implied potential for violence, my job is to ensure the protection of our guests and staff."

Wes Mann, president of the Preferred Network, said the Salmon Arm organization has hosted similar events in the past without incident.

Mann said hundreds of residents were interested in hearing the message Icke delivered, but a few people didn't want the information to get out.

"It's usually Communist-type individuals that tend to suppress this type of information," he said.

Safety concerns shelve meeting

■ Wes Mann, of The Preferred Network, said the decision to cancel his local meeting is part of an international effort to thwart the truth.

A local hotel has become the unwitting tool of a world-wide conspiracy to control the minds and spirits of mankind says a self-described truth advocate.

But the hotel manager says he's just obeying a law that says he has to protect his guests and staff.

Wes Mann said he's upset the Vernon Lodge cancelled his booking to host a controversial speaker Saturday night.

Mann, of The Preferred Network, had booked David Icke to speak about what he claims is an international conspiracy to kidnap children and use them for everything from sex slaves to mind control experiments.

Icke has spoken at the Lodge before and is the latest in a series of similar conspiracy theory speakers booked by Mann.

The last one featured a couple claiming to have been victims of CIA-sponsored mind control experiments.

"We're dedicated to exposing truth," said Mann.

Lodge manager Bob Sindlinger said he cancelled the meeting after getting five or six phone calls from people suggesting civil unrest or violence would occur if Icke appeared.

He reported the calls to the police and then cancelled the meeting.

"My primary obligation and concern is the safety of hotel guests and staff," he said.

Mann said his organization supplies security and no one would have been at risk.

Sindlinger agreed that previous bookings by the group have gone off without a hitch.

Anti-racism advocate David Lethbridge, of Salmon Arm, has been quoted as describing Icke as an antisemite and Holocaust denier.

Mann said there was nothing racial or hate message in what Icke was planning to talk about.

Mann said the phone calls to the hotel are part of a world-wide coverup of huge injustices imposed on ordinary people.

"There's a concerted effort to suppress the truth," he said.

Mann's lawyer Doug Christie has threatened the hotel with legal action, saying the cancellation will cost Mann money and cause him public embarrassment.

Christie is best known as the lawyer who defended Ernst Zundel in his hate literature trial 10 years ago.

Mann makes no apologies for retaining the notorious Christie.

"He's the only guy with the courage to speak the truth," Mann said.

More than 150 tickets were sold in advance to Saturday's meeting and up to 400 were expected to attend.

He said Friday he had arranged another venue but wasn't releasing the location until Saturday afternoon.

Sindlinger said he's received dozens of phone calls from people complaining about his decision to cancel the meeting.

evil system of repression has on its hands the cruel deaths by starvation, torture or just plain shooting of close to 100 million human beings in this century. The carnage caused by communism makes Hitler look like small potatoes. Stalin induced a famine to break the resistance of the Ukrainian farmers who refused to give up their land. He deliberately starved 8-to-10 million Ukrainians to death and shipped food away from the dying who might have been saved. Mao's "great leap forward" cost the lives of 30 million Chinese.

Supporting communism is as intellectually bankrupt as being a member of the Clifford Olsen Fan Club. We have no problem with Lethbridge being a communist, a member of the Flat Earth Society or a member of the Hitler Was My Hero Circle. We do, however, wonder about his role as the Censor of the Okanagan. Over the past few years, Lethbridge has given himself the task of trying to deny others the right to meet and to exchange views. If he thinks you're a fascist—of course, in communist ideology a "fascist" is anyone who opposes communist dictatorship—he'll try to shut you down. In March 1996, he and a taxpayer-supported professional anti-racist Alan Dutton of Vancouver pressured a Surrey hotel into cancelling the Second Canadian Free Speech Conference. Closed-minded Communists don't like free speech. Lethbridge has also sent out smear sheets to intimidate hotels to cancel meetings in both Alberta and B.C. of the Third Option for National Unity Committee, a group dedicated to grassroots democracy and constitutional reform.

Last June, he went to Toronto to attend a conference sponsored by ARA—Anti-Racists Action. The Canadian Security Intelligence Service (CSIS) described ARA as "a collection of anarchists, Trotskyists, Stalinists" and indicated that they were responsible for acts of arson against their political opponents. They have been banned from school property by a number of Ontario boards of education as a "hate group". Yet, Lethbridge threw in his lot with this band of street thugs and terrorists.

More recently Lethbridge has been crowing about getting our director, Paul Fromm, fired from his Ontario teaching position because of his political views. "There was a lot of work done for quite some time to have this man fired from his teaching position," Lethbridge boasted to the Shuswap Sun (March 13, 1997).

Lethbridge is free to hold whatever views he chooses. However, this freedom must be balanced by a respect for the rights of others to hold and express contrary views. It's time to reign in the Censor of the Okanagan. [End quoting from the Canadian Association for Free Expression.] [See additional insert by the Canadian Association for Free Expression concerning David Lethbridge.]

Lethbridge, according to Wes Mann, showed up around the same time that Eustace Mullins was to speak in that region some years ago. The obvious link to the Anti-Defamation League terrorist arm of the Zionist B'nai B'rith organization is apparent to all.

In a letter to the Best Western Vernon Lodge Board of Directors from the Canadian Institute for Political Integrity (CIPI), we read: [quoting]

Increasingly it is becoming evident that Freemasons in British Columbia fear that Canadians will hear the truth about their plan to divert fresh water from BC (Grand Canal) to Maurice Strong's ranch in Colorado.

The most recent incident is the unilateral cancellation of a contract signed between the Best Western Vernon Lodge and Conference Centre and Preferred Network's Wes Mann, to supply a meeting room for a conference to be held by British author David Icke. FOR PUBLICATION BY FAX

Dear Sir:

You carried an excellent expose of David Lethbridge "A Brief History of the CPC" and his efforts to instigate the shutdown of the Third Option for National Unity Committee conference in Edmonton in October.

Your article was dead accurate in pointing out the scandal that this communist agitator was able to enrol the offices of the Alberta Human Rights and Citizenship Commission and its head Charlach Mackintosh in his censorship efforts.

Unfortunately, the credulity or collaboration of establishment figures is even worse than you outlined. The Shuswap Sun (October 10, 1996) revealed that Lethbridge was to be one of 100 participants in a closed-door symposium to advise B.C. Attorney General Ujjal Dosanjh on ways to combat racism.

The Edmonton censorship foray wasn't Lethbridge's first. In 1995, he pressured a Vernon hotel to cancel a booking for a meeting of Doug Christie's Western Canada Concept, a registered political party. This past February, Lethbridge's efforts resulted in the cancellation of five of 10 planned meetings of the Third Option Committee in towns in Eastern B.C.

In March of this year, Lethbridge, along with another taxpayer-funded "anti-racist" Alan Dutton, who had collected $725,000 in government grants over the past five years, successfully pressured the Surrey Inn to renege on a contract for our Second Canadian Free Speech Conference in Vancouver. We had to change locations.

That Lethbridge with his hard-line intolerant communism commands any audience among government figures and hotel owners shows just how fragile freedom of speech and assembly is in this country. His successful censorship efforts are even more incredible when you consider his views which can only be described as bizarre. In a speech in Creston, reported in the Creston Valley Advance (October 21, 1996), Lethbridge made the preposterous allegation that Christian Identity groups are armed not just with guns, but with "tanks, missiles and biological toxins, including bubonic plague." Sadly, these wild smear tactics are all too successful in scaring the ill-informed and fooling the cowardly.

Sincerely yours,

(NWO). NWO is the Fourth Reich of the rich. Recently, Freemasons such as David Lethbridge, the moonie who sucks at the public trough, have undertaken to prevent any opinion contrary to NWO ambitions from being communicated to the naive Canadian public. Anytime, when a dissenting view might be heard, someone, such as the ancient Son of Legacy's David Lethbridge, calls upon the owners of the potential meeting room to tell them that Freemasonry's headquarters has ordered that they not allow the political dissenters to hold their meeting.

Once hotel managers make their objections public, with the assistance of other Freemasons in the media, the sponsors of the public information meeting are demonized. Then, the Attorney General also jumps into the fray to threaten independent Canadians with new, tougher, "Hate Laws". Of course, when one dares suggest that such HATE investigations be immediately commenced against Freemasons in government, the military, police and media, the response is always "this was not the intent of parliament when they passed these hate laws." Well, of course, dummies, don't expect the legislators to pass laws to prevent their own criminal activity. Brian Mulroney, with the help of politicians, the RCMP [Royal Canadian Mounted Police], media and the judicial system will manage to steal millions from us and he's been out of political power for years.

It is the view of CIPI that, until critical mass is assembled in Ottawa, on July 1, 2000, our only remaining option at the present time is to take names and not to support financially those businesses who choose to play these games for Freemasonry. Until such time as CIPI receives a written apology for the recent actions of the Best Western Vernon Lodge, we will not make use of their establishments anywhere in North America. Also, because their letterhead includes the symbols of RAMADA, Sands, and Lakeside resorts, we will suggest to our 3,000+ supporters across the country that they not use these other facilities as well.

There always are two sides on both sides of every story.

[End quoting, signed: Glen Kealey, Chairman and Founder, Canadian Institute for Political Integrity.]

As it turns out, the Vernon lecture was held at an alternative location, Schubert Centre. And the Vancouver, B.C., talk by David Icke (a few days later) was an overwhelming success, with some 650 in attendance. Quite a crowd.

Meanwhile as radio, newspaper, and television stories whirled around the Vernon, B.C. event, Lethbridge was busy stirring the pot and generating tremendous "negative" publicity for David's talk. Wes Mann, busy countering every mis-spoken word by Lethbridge, managed to glean substantial publicity for the event that would have otherwise gone relatively unnoticed. And when an event raises the curiosity of people, then the intended thwarting backfires.

At the David Icke presentation, Steve Heeren was the primary agent provocateur sent in to distract and disrupt. Heeren did not prevail in his efforts, however, and was escorted from the premises, off the parking lot and onto the street with the help of David Icke's body guard (a former policeman hired by Wes Mann) and with the aid of local police. [For additional information about Steve Heeren, see insert titled "David Icke's Lecture".]

Wes Mann was energetic in his enthusiasm for the support his organization received from a wide variety of freedom-loving people and other organizations throughout British Columbia. Wes informed me that the hotel received upwards of 150 calls in support of the event that had been banned from their premises at the last minute.

One supporter of the David Icke event described Lethbridge as a "loud-mouthed, ADL plant; a slimy little puke." Wes responded, "In the end, we made them eat crow."

The net result of all the publicity for the Icke talk was that, instead of 150 anticipated attendees, there were over 300 at the Vernon lecture. It was an exceptionally successful event, with a standing ovation for David Icke. Subsequent talks by Icke in the general Vancouver area have also met with astounding attendance, no doubt due to all the publicity and a public that is becoming not just more aware of adversarial antics, but more determined to put a stop to them by becoming informed.

When asked about Vernon Lodge manager Sindlinger, Wes just laughed and replied, "I guess I'm not on Sindlinger's List."

URGENT - FACSIMILE CORRECTION (see footnote)

To: The Editors of the Morning Star and Sun newspapers, CJB and CIBC, RCMP (file 98-4929).

Dear Sir,

DAVID ICKE'S LECTURE

Apparently Vernon has a self-appointed censor in the form of Mr. Steve Heeren, an American and a self-professed Marxist who has worked within the Canadian college system for many years. The several hundred people inconvenienced by the last minute change of venue for the talk by David Icke will be interested to know that they can thank Heeren's single-handed dedication for the fuss that led, unnecessarily, to considerable RCMP involvement at local taxpayers' expense.

Heeren co-founded the Vernon-based organisation, Citizens for Alternatives. The evidence shows that, in this instance, Heeren used the organization to achieve his own personal ends. According to members who were present at an "emergency" meeting he called last Wednesday, Heeren sought approval to hand out leaflets to attendees at the proposed public lecture by David Icke. He claimed that, by his personal definition, the meeting would be "racist" in nature.

Despite the lack of any tangible evidence and the many concerns expressed by members for Mr. Icke's right of free speech, Heeren proceeded not only to print the leaflets but also to arrange two personal meetings with the General Manager of the Best Western Vernon Lodge, Mr. Bob Sindlinger.

At the first meeting, according to Sindlinger, Heeren claimed the legal right to "leaflet" attendees outside the Vernon Lodge Ballroom even though the venue is private property. Subsequent to that meeting Mr. Sindlinger claims he received between two and five anonymous phone calls (his estimates vary) inferring that the meeting might lead to "civil unrest and possible violence".

According to Heeren, when he visited Sindlinger's office for the second time, he was advised that the hotel had decided unilaterally to cancel the Ballroom contract with Icke's local promoters "because of threats of possible violence and fears for the safety of guests and staff". Amazingly, according to Constable Tremblay of the Vernon detachment of the RCMP, Sindlinger made no official report concerning the "anonymous phone calls", nor was any attempt made to trace their origin(s).

Ironically, the result of all of this chicanery and the free publicity that followed was a substantial increase in the number who attended David Icke's lecture at the alternative location, Schubert Centre. Icke's loving and spiritually motivated solution to world problems would likely have little appeal to a Marxist, but anyone interested in free speech and the pursuit of truth - including the members of Citizens for Alternatives - should be deeply concerned at the events precipitated by Heeren. Clearly, there's a lot more going on here than meets the eye.

Sincerely

Dennis Milligan

The International Jew The World's Foremost Problem

Editor's note: This is a continuation of material from Henry Ford Senior's The Dearborn Independent. This was a series of articles therein which spanned the time period from May 2, 1920 to May 1922. Part 1 of this series began in the 2/17/98 issue of CONTACT.

It should come as no surprise to the serious student of world history that Mr. Ford's material was buried as quickly as it could be, and Mr. Ford faced much in the way of persecution for spending the time, effort, and money required to conduct first-class research of the truth behind so many historical lies.

5/6/98 #1 HATONN

[QUOTING, Part 84, GLOBAL PARASITES:]

AMERICA'S JEWISH ENIGMA, LOUIS MARSHALL

Something of an enigma is Louis Marshall, whose name heads the list of organized Jewry in America, and who is known as the arch-protester against most things non-Jewish. He is head of nearly every Jewish movement that amounts to anything, and he is chief opponent of practically every non-Jewish movement that promises to amount to something. Yet he is known mostly as a name—and not a very Jewish name at that.

It would be interesting to know how the name of "Marshall" found its way to this Jewish gentleman. It is not a common name, even among Jews who change their names. Louis Marshall is the only "Marshall" listed in the Jewish Encyclopedia, and the only Jewish "Marshall" in the index of the publications of the American Jewish Historical Society. In the list of the annual contributors to the American Jewish Committee are to be found such names as Marshutz, Mayer, Massal, Maremort, Mannheimer, Marx, Morse, Mackler, Marcus, Morris, Moskiwitz, Marks, Margolis, Mareck—but only one "Marshall", and that is Louis. Of any other prominent Jew it may be asked, "Which Straus"? "Which Untermeyer"? "Which Kahn"? "Which Schiff?", but never, "Which Marshall?" for there is only one.

This in itself would indicate that Marshall is not a Jewish name. It is an American, or Anglo Saxon name transplanted into a Jewish family. But how and why are questions to which the public as yet have no answer.

Louis Marshall is head of the American Jewish Committee, and the American Jewish Committee is head of all official Jewish activity in the United States.

As head of the committee, he is also head of the executive committee of the New York Kehillah, an organization which is the active front of organized Jewry in New York, and the center of Jewish propaganda for the United States. The nominal head of the Kehillah is Rabbi Judah L. Magnes, a brother-in-law of Louis Marshall. Not only are the American Jewish Committee and the Kehillah linked officially (see chapter 33, Volume II, reprint of this series), but they are linked domestically as well.

Louis Marshall was president of all the Jewish Committees of the world at the Versailles Peace Conference, and it is charged now, as it has been charged before, that the Jewish Program is the only program that went through the Versailles conference as it was drawn, and the so-called League of Nations is busily carrying out its terms today. A determined effort is being made by Jews to have the Washington Conference take up the same matter. Colonel House was Louis Marshall's chief aid at Paris in forcing the Jewish program on an unwilling world.

Louis Marshall has appeared in all the great Jewish cases. The impeachment of Governor Sulzer was a piece of Jewish revenge, but Louis Marshall was Sulzer's attorney. Sulzer was removed from the office of governor. The case of Leo Frank, a Jew, charged with the peculiarly vicious murder of a Georgia factory girl, was defended by Mr. Marshall. It was one of those cases where the whole world is whipped into excitement because a Jew is in trouble. It is almost an indication of the racial character of a culprit these days to note how much money is spent for him and how much fuss is raised concerning him. It seems to be a part of Jewish loyalty to prevent if possible the Gentile law being enforced against Jews. The Dreyfus case and the Frank case are examples of the endless publicity the Jews secure in behalf of their own people. Frank was reprieved from the death sentence, and sent to prison, after which he was killed. That horrible act can be traced directly to the state of public opinion which was caused by raucous Jewish publicity which stopped at nothing to attain its ends. To this day the state of Georgia is, in the average mind, part of an association of ideas directly traceable to this Jewish propaganda. Jewish publicity did to Georgia what it did to Russia—grossly misrepresented it, and so ceaselessly as to create a false impression generally. It is not without reason that the Ku Klux Klan was revived in Georgia and that Jews were excluded from membership.

Louis Marshall is chairman of the board and of the executive committee of the Jewish Theological Seminary of America, whose principal theologian, Mordecai M. Kaplan, is the leading exponent of an educational plan by which Judaism can be made to supersede Christianity in the United States. Under cover of synagogal activities, which he knows that the well known tolerance of the American people will never suspect, Rabbi Kaplan has thought out and systematized and launched a program to that end, certainly not without the approval of Mr. Marshall.

Louis Marshall is not the world leader of Jewry, but he is well advanced in Jewry's world counsel, as is seen by the fact that international Jewry reports to him, and also by the fact that he headed the Jews at the "Kosher Conference", as the Versaille assemblage was known among those on the inside. Strange things happened in Paris. Mr. Marshall and "Colonel" House had affairs very well in hand between them. President Wilson sent a delegation to Syria to find out just what the contention of the Syrians was against the Jews, but that report has never seen the light of day. But it was the easiest thing imaginable to keep the President informed as to what the Jews of New York thought (that is, the few who had not taken up their residence in Paris). For example, this prominent dispatch in The New York Times of May 27, 1919:

WILSON GETS FULL REPORT OF JEWISH PROTEST HERE

"Paris, May 26: Louis Marshall, who has succeeded Judge Mack as head of the Jewish Committee in Paris, was received by President Wilson this afternoon, and gave him a long cabled account of the Jewish mass meeting recently held in Madison Square Garden, including the full text of the resolutions adopted at the meeting... and editorial comment in The Times and other papers..."

When Russia fell, Louis Marshall hailed it with delight. The New York Times begins its story on March 19, 1917:

"Hailing the Russian upheaval as the greatest world event since the French Revolution, Louis Marshall in an interview for The New York Times last night said—"...a number of things, among which was the statement that the events in Russia were no surprise. Of course they were not, the events being of Jewish origin, and Mr. Marshall being the recipient of the most intimate international news.

Even the new Russian revolutionary government made reports to Louis Marshall, as is shown by the dispatch printed in The New York Times of April 3, 1917, in which Baron Gunzburg reports what had been done to assure to the Jews the full advantage of the Russian upheaval.

This glorification of the Jewish overthrow of Russia, it must be remembered, occurred before the world knew what Bolshevism was, and before it realized that the revolution meant the withdrawal of the whole eastern front from the war. Russia was simply taken out of the war and the Central Powers left free to devote their whole attention to the western front. One of the resulting necessities was the immediate entrance of America into the conflict, and the prolongation of the hostilities for nearly two more years.

As the truth became known, Louis Marshall first defended, then explained, then denied, his latest position being that the Jews are against Bolshevism. He was brought to this position by the necessity of meeting the testimony of eye-witnesses as given to congressional investigation committees. This testimony came from responsible men whom even Mr. Marshall could not dispose of with a wave of his hand, and as time has gone on the testimony has increased to mountainous proportions that Bolshevism is Jewish in its origin, its method, its personnel and its purpose. Herman Bernstein, a member of Mr. Marshall's American Jewish Committee, has lately been preparing American public opinion for a great anti-Semitic movement in Russia. Certainly, it will be an anti-Semitic movement, because it will be anti-Bolshevist, and the Russian people, having lived with the hybrid for five years, are not mistaken as to its identity.

During the war, Mr. Marshall was the arch-protester. While Mr. Baruch was running the war from the business end ("I probably had more power than perhaps any other man did in the war; doubtless that is true"), Mr. Marshall was running another side. We find him protesting because an Army officer gave him instructions as to his duties as a registration official. It was Mr. Marshall who complained to the Secretary of War that a certain camp contractor, after trying out carpenters, had advertised for Christian carpenters only. It was to the discrimination in print that Mr. Marshall chiefly objected, it may be surmised, since it is the policy of his committee to make it impossible, or at least unhealthy, to use print to call attention to the Jew.

It was Mr. Marshall who compelled a change in the instructions sent out by the Provost Marshal General of the United States Army to the effect that "the foreign-born, especially Jews, are more apt to malingering than the native-born." It is said that a Jewish medical officer afterward confirmed this part of the instruction, saying that experience proved it. Nevertheless, President Wilson ordered that the paragraph be cut out.

It was Mr. Marshall who completed the revision of the Plattsburg Officers' Training Manual. That valuable book rightly said that "the ideal officer is a Christian gentleman." Mr. Marshall wrote, wired, demanded, and the edition was changed. It now reads that "the ideal officer is a courteous gentleman," a big drop in idealism.

There was nothing too unimportant to draw forth Mr. Marshall's protest. To take care of protests alone, he must have a large organization.

And yet with all this high-tension pro-Jewish activity, Mr. Marshall is not a self-advertising man, as is his law partner, Samuel Untermyer, who has been referred to as the arch-inquisitor against the Gentiles. Marshall is a name, a power, not so much a public figure.

As an informed Jew said about the two men: "No, Marshall doesn't advertise himself like Sam, and he has never tried to feature himself in the newspapers for personal reasons. Outside his professional life he devotes himself exclusively to religious affairs." We shall soon see that they are political affairs.

Mr. Marshall is short, stocky, and aggressive. Like his brother-in-law, Rabbi Magnes, he works on the principle that "the Jew can do no wrong". For many years Mr. Marshall has lived in a four-story brownstone house, of the old-fashioned type, with a grilled door, in East Seventy-second street. This is an old-time "swell" neighborhood, once almost wholly occupied by wealthy Jews. It was as close as they could crowd to the choice Fifth Avenue corners, which had been pre-empted by the Vanderbilts, the Astors, and other rich families.

That Mr. Marshall regards the whole Jewish program in which he is engaged, not in its religious aspect alone, but in its world-wide political aspect, may be judged from his attitude on Zionism. Mr. Marshall wrote in 1918 as follows:

"I have never been identified and am not now in any way connected with the Zionist organization. I have never favored the creation of a sovereign Jewish state."

BUT—

Mr. Marshall says, "Let the Zionists go on. Don't interfere with them." Why? He writes:

"Zionism is but an incident of a far-reaching plan. It is merely a convenient peg on which to hang a powerful weapon. All the protests that non-Zionists may make would be futile to affect that policy."

He says that opposition to Zionism at that time would be dangerous. "I could give concrete examples of a most impressive nature in support of what I have said. I am not an alarmist, and even my enemies will give me credit for not being a coward, but my love for our people is such that even if I were disposed to combat Zionism, I would shrink from the responsibilities that might be entailed were I to do so."

And in concluding this strange pronouncement, he says:

"Give me the credit of believing that I am speaking advisedly."

Of course, there is more to Zionism than appears on the surface, but this is as close as anyone can come to finding a Jewish admission on the subject.

If in this country there is apprehension over the Jewish Problem, the activities of Louis Marshall have been the most powerful agents to evoke it. His propagandas have occasioned great resentment in many sections of the United States. His opposition to salutary immigration laws, his dictation to book and periodical publishers, as in the recent case of G. P. Putnam's Sons, who modified their publishing program on his order; his campaign against the use of "Christological expressions" by Federal, State and municipal officers; all have resulted in alarming the native population and harming the very cause he so indiscreetly advocates.

That this defender of "Jewish rights", and restless advocate of the Jewish religious propaganda, should make himself the leader in attacking the religion of the dominant race in this country, in ridiculing Sunday laws and heading an anti-Christianity campaign, seems, to say the least, inconsistent.

Mr. Marshall, who is regarded by the Jews as their greatest "constitutional" lawyer, since the decline of Edward Lauterback (and that is a tale!) originated, in a series of legal arguments, the contention that "this is not a Christian country nor a Christian government." This argument he has expounded in many writings. He has built up a large host of followers among contentious Jews, who have elaborated on this theme in a variety of ways. It is one of the main arguments of those who are endeavoring to build up a "United Israel" in the United States.

Mr. Marshall maintains that the opening of deliberative assemblies and conventions with prayer is a "hollow mockery"; he ridicules "the absurd phrase 'In the name of God, Amen'," as used in the beginning of wills. He opposes Sunday observance legislation as being "the cloak of hypocrisy". He advocates "crushing out every agitation which tends to introduce into the body politic the virus of religious controversy."

But Mr. Marshall himself has spent the last twenty years of his life in the "virus of religious controversy". A few of his more impertinent interferences have been noted above. These are, in the Jewish phrase, "religious activities" with a decidedly political tinge.

The following extracts are quoted from the contentions of Mr. Marshall, published in the Menorah Journal, the official organ of the Jewish Chautauqua, that the United States is not a Christian country:

IS OURS A CHRISTIAN GOVERNMENT?

by Louis Marshall

When, in 1892, Mr. Justice Brewer, in rendering the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States in the case of the Church of the Holy Trinity against the United States (144 U.S. 457), which involved an interpretation of the Alien Labor Law, indulged in the obiter remark that "this is a Christian nation", a subject was presented for the consideration of thoughtful minds which is of no ordinary importance.

The dictum of Mr. Justice Story in Vidal against Girard's Executors (2 How. U.S., 198), to the effect that Christianity was a part of the common law of Pennsylvania, is also relied upon, but is not an authoritative judicial determination of that proposition. The remark was not necessary to the decision.

The remarks of Mr. Justice Brewer, to which reference has already been made, were also unnecessary to the decision rendered by the court.

The fact that oaths are administered to witnesses, that the hollow mockery is pursued of opening deliberative assemblies and conventions with prayer, that wills begin with the absurd phrase, "In the name of God, Amen", that gigantic missionary associations are in operation to establish Christian missions in every quarter of the globe, were also instanced. But none of the illustrations affords any valid proof in support of the assertion that "this is a Christian nation."

Our legislation relative to the observance of Sunday is such a mass of absurdities and inconsistencies that almost anything can be predicated thereon except the idea that our legislators are impressed with the notion that there is anything sacred in the day. According to the views of any section of the Christian church, the acts which I have enumerated as permitted would be regarded as sinful.

Their legality in the eye of the law is a demonstration that the prohibitory enactments relating to Sunday are simply police regulations, and it should be the effort of every good American citizen to liberalize our Sunday legislation still more, so that it shall cease to be the cloak of hypocrisy.

As a final resort, we are told by our opponents that this is a Christian government because the majority of our citizens are adherents of the Christian faith; that this is a government of majorities, because government means force and majorities represent the preponderance of strength. This is a most dangerous doctrine....

If the Christianity of the United States is to be questioned, the last person to initiate the inquiry should be a member of the race which had no hand in creating the Constitution or in the upbuilding of the country. If Christian prayers in public are a hollow mockery, and Sunday laws unreasonable, the last person in the world to oppose them should be a Jew.

Mr. Marshall has the advantage of being an American by birth. He was born in Syracuse, New York, in 1856, the son of Jacob and Zilli Marshall. After practicing law in Syracuse, he established himself in New York, became a Wall Street corporation lawyer, and his native country has afforded him generous means to win a large fortune.

The question arises whether it is patriotic for Mr. Marshall to implant into the minds of his foreign born co-religionists the idea that this is not a Christian country, that Sunday laws should be opposed, and that the manners and customs of the native-born should be scorned and ridiculed. The effect has been that thousands of immigrant Jews from Eastern Europe are persistently violating Sunday laws in the large industrial centers of the country, that they are haled to court, lectured by judges, and fined. American Jews who are carrying into a practice the teachings of Mr. Marshall and his followers are reaping the whirlwind of a natural resentment.

Mr. Marshall was the leader of the movement which led to the abrogation of the treaty between the United States and Russia. Whenever government boards or committees are appointed to investigate the actions, conduct or conditions of foreign-born Jews, great influences are immediately exerted to have Mr. Marshall made a member of such bodies to "protect" the Jewish interests.

As head of millions of organized Jews in the United States, Mr. Marshall had invariably wielded this influence by means of a campaign of "protests", to silence criticisms of Jewish wrongdoing. He thus protested when testimony was made before the Senate Sub-Committee in Washington, in 1919, that the Jewish East Side of New York was the hotbed of Bolshevism. Again he protested to Norman Hapgood against the editorial in Harper's Weekly, criticizing the activities of Jewish lobbyists in Washington.

Mr. Marshall describes himself in "Who's Who" as a leader in the fight for the abrogation of the treaty with Russia. That was a distinct interference in America's political affairs and was not a "religious activity" connected with the preservation of "Jewish rights" in the United States. The limiting expression "in the United States" is, of course, our own assumption. It is doubtful if Mr. Marshall limits anything to the United States. He is a Jew and therefore an internationalist. He is ambassador of the "international nation of Jewry" to the Gentile world.

The pro-Jewish fights in which Mr. Marshall has been engaged in this country make a considerable list:

He fought the proposal of the Census Bureau to enumerate Jews as a race. As a result, there are no official figures, except those prepared by the American Jewish Committee, as to the Jewish population of the United States. The Census has them listed under a score of different nationalities, which is not only a non-descriptive method, but a deceptive one as well. At a pinch the Jewish authorities will admit of 3,500,000 Jews in the United States. The increase in the amount of Passover Bread required would indicate that there are 6,000,000 in the United States now! But the Government of the United States is entirely at sea, officially, as to the Jewish population of this country, except as the Jewish government in this country, as an act of courtesy, passes over certain figures to the government. The Jews have a "foreign office" through which they deal with the Government of the United States.

Mr. Marshall also fought the proposed naturalization laws that would deprive "Asiatics" of the privilege of becoming naturalized citizens. This was something of a confession!

Whenever there were extradition cases to be fought, preventing Jewish offenders from being extradited, Mr. Marshall was frequently one who assisted. This also was part of his "religious activities", perhaps.

He fought the right of the United States Government to restrict immigration. He has appeared oftener in Washington than any other Jew on this question.

In connection with this, it may be suggested to Mr. Marshall that if he is really interested in upholding the law of the land and restraining his own people from lawless acts, he could busy himself with profitable results if he would look into the smuggling of Jews across the Mexican and Canadian borders. And when that service is finished, he might look into the national Jewish system of bootlegging which, as a Jew of "religious activities", he should be concerned to break up.

Louis Marshall is leader of that movement which will force the Jew by law into places where he is not wanted. The law compelling hotel keepers to permit Jews to make their hotels a place of resort if they want to, has been steadily pushed. Such a law is practically a Bolshevik order to destroy property, for it is commonly known what Jewish patronage does for public places. Where a few respectable Jews are permitted, the others flock. And when one day they discover that the place they "patronize" is becoming known as "a Jew hotel" or "a Jew club", then all the Jews abandon it—but they cannot take the stigma with them. The place is known as "a Jew place", but lacks both Jew and Gentile patronage as a result.

When Louis Marshall succeeded in compelling by Jewish pressure and Jewish threats the Congress of the United States to break the treaty with Russia, he was laying a train of causes which resulted in a prolongation of the war and the utter subjugation of Russia. Russia serves the world today as a living illustration of the ruthlessness, the stupidity and the reality of Jewish power—endless power, fanatically mobilized for a vengeful end, but most stupidly administered. Does Mr. Marshall ever reflect on the grotesque stupidity of Jewish leadership?

It is regretted that space does not permit the publication here of the correspondence between Mr. Marshall and Major G. H. Putnam, the publisher, as set forth in the annual report of the American Jewish Committee. It illustrates quite vividly the methods by which Mr. Marshall secures the suppression of books and other publications which he does not like. Mr. Marshall, assisted by factors which are not mentioned in his letter, procured the suppression of the Protocols, after the house of Putnam had them ready to publish, and procured later the withdrawal of a book on the Jewish Question which had attracted wide attention both here and in England.

Mr. Marshall apparently has no confidence in "absurdities" appearing absurd to the reader, nor of "lies" appearing false; but he would constitute himself a censor and a guide of public reading, as well as of international legislation. If one might hazard a guess—Mr. Marshall's kind of leadership is on the wane.

[QUOTING, Part 85, GLOBAL PARASITES:]

THE ECONOMIC PLANS OF INTERNATIONAL JEWS

James Russell Lowell always declared "that he was of Jewish extraction and proud of his ancestry."

If anybody has achieved an exceptionally high grade in a difficult course, he or she was probably Jewish. (Syracuse Jewish Monthly.)

The strength of Jewish money is in its internationalism. It stretches a chain of banks and centers of financial control across the world, and plays them on the side of the game that favors Judah. This center was, and for the moment is, in Germany, at Frankfort-on-the-Main, but feverish anxiety now accompanies the fear that it may have to be moved. Destiny is overtaking the Jewish World Power. The gold which is their god—"the God of the living" is what they call their gold—is being brought overseas on every available ship and locked up in the vaults of Jewish bankers in North and South America, not to enrich this hemisphere but to mobilize Jewish financial power for any desperate stroke. Financial Jewry is afraid. It has a right to be afraid. Its conscience, still bloody from the war whose gains have not yet stopped, is in a troubled state.

Single Jewish banking houses in any country, however great such banks should grow, would be no menace. In spite of the fact that the richest bankers in the world are Jews, as mere bankers in their several countries they would not occasion alarm. In straight out-and-out banking the Jew is not a success. The Rothschilds were never bankers in a proper sense; they were money-lenders to nations whose representatives they had corrupted to seek the loans. They did business precisely on the plane of the money-lender in the side street who induces the rich man's son to borrow a large sum, knowing that the father will pay. That is scarcely banking. Brains of that sort may "get" money, but it will not "make" money. The deposit banking of the world is not done in Jewish banks anyway, even Jewish depositors preferring banks which are managed by non-Jews.

It is not, therefore, the success of the individual Jewish banking house that concerns us. Flabby minded non-Jews who have been blinded by pro-Jewish propaganda find difficulty in seeing that point. They say that the individual Jewish business man has as much right to his business success as has anyone else. Which is a perfect Jewish platitude! Certainly he has. Who ever stated that he had not? But when you are dealing with a world chain of financial consulates, all of them linking up in a world system, none of them to be regarded as American banks, or British banks, or French banks, or Italian banks, or German banks, but all of them members of the Jewish World Banking System, you are obviously not dealing with individuals who are trying to make a living. You are then dealing with a mighty force for good or ill, and thus far, sad truth to know, the ill is mountainous in comparison.

It is not, therefore, the success of the individual Jewish banking house that concerns us. Flabby minded non-Jews who have been blinded by pro-Jewish propaganda find difficulty in seeing that point. They say that the individual Jewish business man has as much right to his business success as has anyone else. Which is a perfect Jewish platitude! Certainly he has. Who ever stated that he had not? But when you are dealing with a world chain of financial consulates, all of them linking up in a world system, none of them to be regarded as American banks, or British banks, or French banks, or Italian banks, or German banks, but all of them members of the Jewish World Banking System, you are obviously not dealing with individuals who are trying to make a living. You are then dealing with a mighty force for good or ill, and thus far, sad truth to know, the ill is mountainous in comparison.

Nor does this Jewish banking system require that in each country a Jewish house be the most important. It is not the wealth and importance of single houses, but the wealth and importance of the world chain, that gives the strength. Kuhn, Loeb & Company is far from being the most important financial house in the United States, but with its foreign connections, all Jewish, it takes on a new aspect. Kuhn, Loeb & Company is far from being the most important banking house in the United States yet it was an idea that came out of Kuhn, Loeb & Company's office that now dominates the monetary system of the United States. Paul Warburg, a German Jew, scion of the Jewish world banking group, is boosted into undue prominence and power through the pressure of banker-bought prestige in government circles. It is his connections—Jewish ones—that count.

The Warburg idea in the United States, dovetailing with the Sterns, the Furstenbergs, the Sonenschiens and the Sassoons and Samuels and Bleichroeders overseas, was something to wonder at. Jewish bankers ran this war as they have run every great war. No informed Jew will deny that.

Most informed Jews have boasted of it as indicating the importance of their people. Above the nations at war was an international financial committee, all Jewish, looking down upon all the ruction and blood as serenely as American baseball league directors look down upon a pennant series. Separated, each man tied to his country by ties of undivided nationalistic loyalty, none of these would have amounted to much. United, as a super-national financial board, knowing the secrets of all the nations, conferring one with another in all sorts of ways, even during the hardest days when all communication between countries was supposed to be locked by war, deciding the duration of the war and the hour of so-called peace, these groups constitute a danger which no one doubts after once having clearly seen it.

Men who can thus manipulate money in time of war can do so in time of peace. The United States is living under some of that peace manipulation now.

The reader of the Protocols is much impressed by the financial notes that are sounded throughout their proposals. The Jewish defense against the Protocols, that they were written by a criminal or madman, is intended only for those who have not read the Protocols, or who have overlooked the financial plans they offer. Madmen and criminals do not coolly dissect one money system and invent another, as do the Protocolists.

It will be worth while, in view of the sidelights that these articles have thrown on the money question, to recall some of the forecasts and plans made in these most remarkable documents which have been attributed to the Wise Men of Zion, the world leaders of the inner council.

“When we sink, we become a revolutionary proletariat, the subordinate officers of the revolutionary party; when we rise, there rises also our terrible power of the purse.” So wrote the great Jewish Zionist leader, Theodor Herzl, in his work, A Jewish State, (p. 23). It is precisely that union of revolutionary tendencies and financial power that the world is facing now. Look at Russia, and look at the people who swarmed at Versailles and made the Peace Treaty. The Peace Treaty was written by financiers; it is the bill presented, not to a beaten foe, but to the world. Very few people have ever read it; but its operation is evident everywhere. The Jewish bankers the world over are shoveling in the gold.

PROTOCOL VI is interesting in this connection:

“We shall soon begin to establish huge monopolies, colossal reservoirs of wealth, upon which even the big Gentile properties will be dependent to such an extent that they will all fall, together with the government credit, on the day following the political catastrophe.”

Although these words were written with Europe in view (the United States not yet having been Judaized) their import is clear. At the present moment the number of business concerns in the hands of Jewish creditors, through “loans”, is very large. The Jewish idea in business is to “borrow”, instead of making the business stand on its own feet. The trail of that idea is seen all over our land today.

“At the same time it is necessary to encourage trade and industry vigorously, and especially speculation, the function of which is to act as a counterpoise of industry. Without speculation, industry will cause private wealth to increase and tend to improve the position of agriculture by freeing the land from indebtedness for loans by the land banks. It is necessary for industry to deplete the land both of laborers and capital, and, through speculation, transfer all the money in the world into our hands.

“To destroy Gentile industry, we shall, as an incentive to this speculation, encourage among the Gentiles a strong demand for luxuries, all-enticing luxuries.”

There is the Idea—Extravagance and Debt support the Jewish money-lender’s power. He does not lend to build industry, but to drain it. Independent industrial or agricultural wealth menaces his rule. Industry must be curbed by speculation; speculation must be encouraged by extravagance; an industrious people soon works itself free of its debt slavery; therefore invent new excitements to keep it in debt. Entice people from the farms, and so forth, and so forth, all which devices are now well known to the world.

“We will force up wages, which, however, will be of no benefit to workers, for we will at the same time cause a rise in the price of prime necessities, pretending that this is due the decline of agriculture and cattle raising.

Men who can thus manipulate money in time of war can do so in time of peace. The United States is living under some of that peace manipulation now.

We will also artfully and deeply undermine the sources of production by instilling in the workmen ideas of anarchy and encourage them in the use of alcohol.”

That wages were forced up, that they were of little profit to the workers, that prices did rise, that the above excuses were given, that anarchistic ideas now being circulated among the workers are Jewish and are circulated by Jews, that the illicit liquor business (as once was the legal liquor business) is entirely in the hands of Jews—these things everyone knows to be true.

The Protocols have been in non-Jewish knowledge since 1896. Were they written by a prophet who foresaw, or by a power that foreordained?

The Jewish World Program is shown in these Protocols to be largely dependent on the false economic ideas it can induce the governments and peoples to accept. The false economic ideas—not only false, but cruelly deceptive and impossible—which are being sown among the masses of the people are the counterpart of the other false economic propaganda being sown in the upper circles of banking and government.

Jewish economic ideas are quite different from the ones which Jewish thinkers put out for others to follow.

Jewish bankers know better than anyone else the utter falsity of the present system, but they profit by that falsity, and they are establishing Judah by that falsity, and they will try to maintain that falsity until it brings the inevitable collapse, after which they hope to reorganize the world on Jewish monetary principles. So, at least, the Protocols indicate. This bad regime is for the so-called Gentile period only.

The temporary nature of the present Jewish system, and the destruction it is meant to work in the world, is shown in the Third Protocol, where after discussing ways and means to make the lower classes hate the well-to-do, it says:

“This hostility will be still more accentuated as the result of crises which will close stock exchange operations and stop the wheels of industry. Having organized such a general economic crisis by all the underground means available to us, and thanks to the assistance of whole crowds of workingmen into the streets simultaneously in all the countries of Europe. These crowds will gladly shed the blood of those whom they, in the simplicity of their ignorance, have envied since childhood and whose property they will then be able to loot.”

All this, as the world knows, has occurred in Europe. The weapons first used were economic. The subjection of the people, the revolution, was first economic. The Jewish program profited by the split which Jewish ideas had been able to make between the upper and lower classes of “Gentile” society. “Divide and Rule”, is the Jewish motto, as quoted in the Protocols. “Divide the working class from the directing class. Divide the Catholic and Protestant churches.” In brief, divide Christendom on economic, creedal, social, and racial lines, while the Jew remains a solid body, able because of his solidarity to handle a divided world. And this plan has succeeded. Out of the disorder of the World War look how high the government of Judah has been placed in Russia, Austria, Germany, France, Italy, England and in the United States.

All the Jewish bankers are still in Russia.

It was only the non-Jewish bankers who were shot and their property confiscated. Bolshevism has not abolished Capital, it has only stolen the Capital of the "Gentiles". And that is all that Jewish socialism or anarchism or Bolshevism is designed to do. Every banker who is caricatured with dollar marks on his clothes is a "Gentile" banker. Every capitalist publicly denounced in Red parades is a "Gentile" capitalist. Every big strike—railroad, steel, coal—is against "Gentile" industry. That is the purpose of the Red movement. It is alien, Jewish and anti-Christian.

Now, one of the interesting points about the Jewish financial scheme for the future as shown in the Protocols is the way in which it contrasts with the financial scheme which the Jewish groups now favor. As before stated, what the Protocolists now advise is not what they will adopt when their present advice has worked its hoped-for results.

The Protocols which detail the future financial plan of Jewish control are numbered XX and XXI.

Protocol XX opens thus:

"Today we will speak of the financial program, the discussion of which I have postponed to the close of my report as it is the most difficult, decisive and concrete of our plans."

Throughout the recital the protocolist harks back to the old (our present) financial system, and some of his remarks are worth transcribing here:

"You know that the gold standard destroyed

The withdrawal of money from circulation will create panics; everyone knows that. Such withdrawal of money is within the decision of a very small group of men. Here in the United States we have been for a long fifteen months witnessing such a withdrawal and its effects. The word went by wire across the land, setting a date. On that date values began to crash all over the country, and honest bankers tried to help, while others who knew the game profited hugely. As shown in the last article, money was withdrawn from legitimate use, that it might be lent to money speculators at six per cent, who in turn lent it to desperate people at rates as high as 30 per cent.

the governments that accepted it, for it could not satisfy the demand for currency, especially as we removed as much gold as possible from circulation."

Whether the first statement is true remains to be seen; the others are demonstrably true. The gold in the ground and the gold that is money is under Jewish control, and they withdraw it when they will.

The stupid so-called "Gentile" says, "Why should they withdraw it? They cannot make any money that way!" Once again remember the distinction: it is not a matter of "making" money but the "getting" it; panics are more quickly profitable than is a long period of prosperity for men whose commodity is money. Indeed, men who deal in money as a commodity and on the Jewish plan, lose their prestige if prosperity continues too long. The banker who is a banker, who lives to serve industry and the community—he profits by prosperity, but not so the money sharks.

"We created economic crises for the Gentiles by the withdrawal of money from circulation. Mass capital stagnated, money was withdrawn from use by the various governments, and they in turn were obliged to turn back to the capitalists for loans. Such loans naturally embarrassed the governments, owing to the payment of interest charges, and made them subservient to the capitalists."

knows that. Such withdrawal of money is within the decision of a very small group of men. Here in the United States we have been for a long fifteen months witnessing such a withdrawal and its effects. The word went by wire across the land, setting a date. On that date values began to crash all over the country, and honest bankers tried to help, while others who knew the game profited hugely. As shown in the last article, money was withdrawn from legitimate use, that it might be lent to money speculators at six per cent, who in turn lent it to desperate people at rates as high as 30 per cent.

No intelligent person will attempt to explain such events on the ground of natural law or of honest practice. These things occurred in this country within recent days. It is the "elastic" system, you know, with the public as a monkey on one end of the "elastic". A splendid idea, no doubt, if administered by the non-Jewish method of doing the greatest possible good to the greatest number, but a deliberate assassination of life and property as it has been administered.

The Protocolists then pay their respects to governmental finance with the keenness that is well justified:

"Owing to methods allowed by irresponsible Gentile governments, their treasuries became empty. Then came the period of contracting loans and using up the assets that remained. This brought all the Gentile governments to bankruptcy."

As operating groups, the governments are bankrupt now. Only their power of confiscation keeps them up. The United States, commonly referred to as the richest country in the world, is just as poor as a government as is any other. It has nothing; it is in debt and borrowing. And its creditors are constantly discounting their obligations and are putting it into worse hands than ever.

as a government as is any other. It has nothing; it is in debt and borrowing. And its creditors are constantly discounting their obligations and are putting it into worse hands than ever. Even the Liberty Bonds are almost passed out of the hands of the people into the hands of Jewish physical agents who "get" money out of the necessities of the people who sell and out of the necessities of the government which borrowed. And if all signs do not fail, we shall one day be hearing in Congress pleas for special legislation in behalf of "the poor bond-holders". It is to be hoped when that day comes, some one will have mettle enough to stand up and declare who the "poor bond-holders" are. A list should be made now, for future reference.

"Every loan proves government inefficiency and ignorance of governmental rights. Loans, like the sword of Damocles, hangs above the heads of the rulers, who, instead of placing temporary taxes on their subjects, stretch forth their hands and beg for charity at the hands of our bankers. Essentially, foreign loans are leeches, which in no instance can be removed from the government body until they fall off of their own accord or the government itself removes them. But Gentile governments, instead of removing them, continue to place more. They must perish inevitably through exhaustion by voluntary blood-letting.”

This is the plainly expressed criticism of the Jewish World Government upon the governments of the nations, and the truth of it cannot be gainsaid. It represents a statement of common wisdom upon which the Jewish World Program hopes to commend itself to the common people.

“Then why do not the Jewish world financiers help the nations out of this false financial policy?” Why, indeed? Jewish financiers are the inventors of such loans as they here describe, the barriers to such direct taxes as they here recommend. Listen—in the same page as the above:

“You may well understand that such a policy, although inspired by us, cannot be followed by us.”

That is historically true, whether it will prove prophetically true or not. Compromising loans and interest are Jewish devices, historically Jewish. Practically and at present the Jew prefers not to borrow except in such a way as to place all business risks on other people’s money while he keeps his own safely, and the payment of interest is an abomination to him. These statements of the Protocols have at least these historical and racial confirmations.

The whole stupidity of the “Gentile” system by which the Jewish International Financiers are enriched, is clearly set forth in the same XXth Protocol:

“What is the effect of a loan, especially of a foreign loan, other than this? A loan is the issuance of government notes, pledging interest in proportion to the sum of borrowed capital. If the loan pays five per cent then in twenty years the government has paid the interest in vain, for it is equal to the sum of the loan; in forty years it has paid out an amount equal to the loan twice over; and in sixty years, three times, while the original debt remains unpaid.”

[H: Now readers, if you still are failing to believe that any group or people could be so shrewd and see this so clearly in advance, you had better polish your glasses and turn up your hearing aids BECAUSE YOU ARE EITHER BLIND AND DEAF OR YOU REALLY DON’T WANT TO KNOW THE TRUTH. And NO, these are not Judean Jews—these are the cream ELITE of the Zionist World Order JEUS—and your world is already totally CONTROLLED.]

Extremely simple, and yet it is the most generally ignored fact of all.

We live in a democracy, yet loans are contracted that always cost more than the amount of the loan, and no one has a word to say about it. We Americans do not know how much interest we pay every year, and we don’t know to whom we pay it. We are still living under the lie that “A National Debt Is a National Blessing”, the most delusive doctrine ever promulgated. [H: And readers, never mind what the talking heads tell you—you are not two or three trillion dollars in debt; you are right at, today as we write—at LEAST some $40 TRILLION DOLLARS in debt—and compounding!]

The amount of our National Debt is the measure of our ENSLAVEMENT to Jewish World Finance.

The reader may observe in passing that Jewish apologists, John Spargo, Herman Bernstein, and others, say that the Protocols were put out by the secret police of the Russian Czarist regime. It is very unusual, is it not, to find the Czar’s police interested in plans to remove graft from high finance, and preaching doctrines exactly contrary to the established system? The reader will find some amusement in searching for Russian police spies in the further development of the Jewish financial philosophy.

The purpose of Protocols XX and XXI is not to describe the present financial chaos in which the Gentiles are encouraged to continue; that system was described in previous Protocols; their purpose is rather to describe how the Jewish World Power plans to run things when the time comes.

This is well worth considering, for there are portions of the plan which would be worth adopting. The Jewish expectation of World Rule is, of course, absurd, although the mass of Jews sincerely hold it. Their condemnation is that they regard every degeneracy in society as bringing them a step nearer their goal, which explains the great assistance they give to all degenerative processes.

“When we ascend the thrones of the world, such financial expediciencies, not being in accord with our interest, will be definitely eliminated.”

That is the opening note. It is another version of the statement—“You may well understand that such a policy, although inspired by us, cannot be followed by us.”

What, then, did the Protocolists, looking for world power, propose to eliminate?

(1) “The stock exchanges will be permanently suppressed, for we will not allow the prestige of our authority to be shaken by price fluctuations on our stocks. We will fix the full value legally without permitting any power to raise or lower it. Raising prices gives the pretext for lowering them—which was what we started with the stocks and bonds of the Gentiles.”

(2) “The lawful confiscation of money in order to regulate its circulation.” [H: Anyone want to argue about that—if so, go back to 1933 and check out the seizure and confiscation of gold.]

(3) “We must introduce a unit of exchange based on the value of labor units regardless of whether paper or wood are used as the medium. We will issue money to meet the normal demands of every subject (citizen), adding a total sum for every birth and decreasing the total amount for every death.”

(4) “Commercial paper will be bought by the government, which, instead of paying tribute on loans as at present, will grant loans on a business basis. A measure of this character will prevent the stagnation of money, parasitism and laziness, qualities which were useful to us as long as the Gentiles maintained their independence, but which are not desirable to us when our kingdom comes."

(5) "We will replace stock exchanges by great government credit institutions, whose functions will be to tax trade paper according to government regulations. These institutions will be in such a position that they may market or buy as many as half a billion industrial shares a day." (The reader will bear in mind that "police spies" of agricultural Russia "forged this document" in 1896. As a gentleman remarked: If this be the forgery, what must the original have been!—Ed.) "Thus all industrial undertakings will become dependent on us. You may well imagine what power that will give us."

The Protocolist now being quoted also gives his attention to taxation (observe again the "Russian police spy" doing some "forging"). The builders of this plan for World Rule recognize that when the overturn comes they will have to be in a position to offer the people something extremely good in order to win their favor. This, of course, was the plan in Russia, although Russia presents no parallel to what the Protocolists hope to do for what they call their "kingdom". Russia was simply tortured in punishment. Russia was a passover offering. Russia is an example of Jewish vengeance, destruction, rage, not of the rule which International Jewry hopes to put over a world economically conquered through its own weakness and lust. Hear then the taxation plan:

(1) "When we become rulers, our autocratic government, as a first principle of self-protection, will avoid burdening the people with heavy taxes. It must not forget to play the part of a father and protector. But, as government organizations are costly, it is necessary to raise money for maintenance.

"Any transfer of personal property, whether in money or other form of value." (d) A luxury tax—"the latter will be taxed through the medium of a stamp impost."

The rich are to be taxed in proportion to their wealth: "A tax on a poor man is the seed of revolution and it is detrimental to the government which loses the big things in its pursuit of the small." But there are other shrewd reasons for thus taxing the rich (a) "Aside from this, the tax on capitalists will lessen the growth of wealth in private hands, where we have concentrated it at present as a counter weight to the governmental power of the Gentiles." (b) "Such a Chelas, can you not now see that this has nothing to do with "a" race, "a" creed, "a" color or "a" religion? This has nothing to do really with "Jew" or "Gentile". This is planned manipulation, shrewd confusing presentations and total intent to deceive the masses of people on the globe including those who THINK THEY ARE, BUT ARE NOT, of the same ilk as in race, creed, color and religion.

Consequently, it is necessary to study carefully in this particular the problem of checks and balances."

(2) Kinds of taxes to be raised: (a) "The best method of taxation is to establish a progressive tax on property." (b) "The receipt of purchase money or an inheritance will be subjected to a progressive stamp tax." (c) measure will destroy the hatred of the poor toward the rich, who will be regarded as the financial support of the government and the exponents of peace and prosperity. The poor will realize that the rich are paying the money necessary to attain these things."

This was written at least as early as 1896. How many forms of taxation have come precisely as here outlined!

How illuminating also the following remark: “Money should circulate; and to hinder free circulation has a fatal effect upon the government mechanism, which it lubricates. The thickening of the lubricator may stop the correct functioning of the whole machine. The substitution of a part of money exchange by discount paper has created just such an impediment.”

Remember that when next you hear the Jewish plan that “Gentiles” shall do business with their own bits of paper, while Jews keep the gold reserve safely in their own hands. If the crash comes, “Gentiles” have the paper and Jews the gold. If bits of paper serve ordinarily, the world may some time decide to do away with the gold. Certainly a system which rests on Cash yet works with Not-Cash, has advantages which depression and panic reveal. Says Protocol XXII: “We hold in our hands the greatest modern power—gold; in two days we could free it from our treasuries in any desired quantities.”

The Jews are economists, esoteric and exoteric; they have one system to tangle up the “Gentiles”, another which they hope to install when “Gentile” stupidity has bankrupted the world. The Jews are economists. Note the number of them who teach economics in the state universities. Says Protocol VIII:

“We will surround our government with a whole world of economists. It is for this reason that the science of economics is the chief subject of instruction taught by the Jews.”

[END OF QUOTING]

Chelas, can you not now see that this has nothing to do with “a” race, “a” creed, “a” color or “a” religion? This has nothing to do really with “Jew” or “Gentile”. This is planned manipulation, shrewd confusing presentations and total intent to deceive the masses of people on the globe including those who THINK THEY ARE, BUT ARE NOT, of the same ilk as in race, creed, color and religion.

If you read these writings and simply single out this avenue of greater bigotry, you ARE WRONG! Information is something which must be used in Truth and understanding to have value—half-assed truth in perception is the worst type of stupidity in action. And to think you can come against this type of power, and yes, tyranny, with some kind of militia or gun, is foolish in every aspect.

Any of you, for instance, who may be among the “Blacks” who despise the idea of slavery and all its unequal potentials—LOOK WHAT YOU ARE DOING IN YOUR DEMANDS FOR PAY-BACKS. YOU ARE PERPETUATING THE VERY MENTALITY OF ENSLAVEMENT AND SLAVE-MASTERS (WELFARE, GOVERNMENT, ETC.) AS HAD YOUR FOREFATHERS TO EXPERIENCE. YOU ALL, NO MATTER WHAT RACE, CREED OR COLOR, ARE TOTAL SLAVES TO THE GOVERNMENT ORDER. What are you, who live on welfare and have no training or experience, going to do in this old world when the welfare programs are STOPPED? And, OH YES, they will be stopped. You do not have a “good economy” and “good employment”—you are on the brink of total and devastating disaster.

You can have ten teachers to one student, but if the student doesn’t want to learn—no teacher can teach him anything.

Don’t go forth after we finish this series and spew venom and garbage. The Elite are not your problem; the Jews are not your problem—the Jeus are not your problem—YOU ARE YOUR PROBLEM!

Good day, and may YOU do something worthy of making YOUR MOTHER glad she bore YOU. And no, I don’t care who YOU are! GOD IS AN EQUAL OPPORTUNITY EMPLOYER! Salu.

Serapis Bey: Harsh Times Ahead

Induce Much Needed Growth

5/10/98 SERAPIS BEY

Greetings, old friend. It is I, Serapis Bey, come at this time as a Messenger of Light so that God's promise to your world will be fulfilled and recognized by those who care to see and hear.

Yes, I come in the Light. Thank you for asking for clarification! Often the dark ones will indeed attempt to influence and trick you. You can never be too careful or too cautious—NEVER! This is a time when the adversary plays his tricks most skillfully and many are being deceived who think they are "above" such trickery.

I am asked to speak at this time about the need for a clear mental focus concerning the upcoming times on your planet. Your world will soon be faced with the manifestation of great change. The cycle has reached a point where there is no turning back to a less abrupt or less physically "harsh" solution.

The Universal Laws of Cause and Effect will implement that which is necessary for balance. These Laws are divine guidelines that govern all of Creator's manifest creations. They are the epitome of responsibility and ethics. They are perfectly balanced in reason and simplicity.

This divine intervention, on behalf of all life everywhere, is what allows for events that will seem to be unjust to those who have not yet awakened enough to realize that they are part of an Infinite Whole that is the essence of Life. These seemingly devastating events are dictated by the actions (or INactions) of your planetary society as a whole.

Let not the word "actions" be limited to physical actions, but allow it to include the non-physical actions taken (or not taken) in mental space. There are many out there who dabble in manipulating others on astral planes, emotional planes, and etheric planes. Many would call this "witchcraft" or "spiritual warfare". Most are unaware of the impact they have on the state of their environment when they spend any amount of time wishing another harm.

You are directly affecting the entirety of humanity by your thoughts alone! There is great wisdom in taking deliberate responsibility for the thoughts that you think and dwell upon.

This leads back to the subject of adversarial control of your world. Why is it that your news media must continually bring you the most horrific events that have happened on any particular day?

From the purely material point of view, these negative, high-anxiety events are what keep you-the-people tuned-in, and that sells advertising. BUT, from a less noticed point of view, the negative emotional thoughts that you ones are caused to experience, as a result of YOUR choice to "tune-in" in the first place, contribute to the overall negative "charge" of the planetary consciousness. (And this is as calculated a reason for the presentation of negative events before your eyes and ears as is the money to be made.)

This charge is what manifests in the physical as dis-ease. Both the inhabitants and the planet herself are experiencing many effects of this negativity. The dark ones who control your planet utilize this "web of negativity" to maintain a fear-based control over you.

However, you, as one of the planet's sentient inhabitants, are as much responsible for allowing this condition to persist and grow as is any other. You would each be wise to monitor that to which you mentally and emotionally subject yourselves (and thus multiply) on a regular basis. Furthermore, note the addictive nature of the "news" you are fed by the media. This is another way of saying that it takes conscious diligence on your part to supervise what is allowed to impact you.

Understand that you are MUCH more than a physical being, and even if you cannot perceive consciously the non-physical aspects of yourself or your environment, it does not mean that you are not responsible for that which you set in motion.

God does make allowance for genuine ignorance, and it will be out of ignorance that ones will say such things as: "God has punished us." NO, God does not punish!

What you ones will be experiencing is the sum total of all of the negativity that has been allowed to grow and fester. It is all of these "un-checked" thoughts that have created the conditions which now exist, and the Universal Laws of Cause and Effect dictate that when you stretch a rubber band to the point of breaking (because you did not recognize, in wisdom, the limitations of the rubber band), it will likely sting a bit in its recoil against your hand.

Your world is at the breaking point on many fronts, and the recoil will be quite devastating to those of you who are not prepared. For those of you who think that you are prepared, I say to you now that your confidence will (for most of you) be the blind spot that will shatter your reality as you now know it.

I am saying that you would be wise to develop a flexibility of mental preparation that allows for unforeseen extremes. In doing so, you will naturally realize that you cannot possibly prepare for every last possible outcome.

Understand that you are MUCH more than a physical being, and even if you cannot perceive consciously the non-physical aspects of yourself or your environment, it does not mean that you are not responsible for that which you set in motion.

This is where that all-important Inner Guidance comes into play.

For instance, those of you in the warmer climates would not likely think that you would need heavy snow gear and such. There will be changes on all levels, and the global weather patterns will continue to become more and more erratic, both due to man's tampering and due to planetary re-balancing.

This is just one specific example of the interplay of variables which are indeed great in number, and you will have no conscious way to accurately predict exactly how each variable will impact you in the physical space, let alone in the mental and emotional spaces of your reality.

There shall come, as a result of these life-disrupting changes, a resurgence of spiritual connectedness. This is mostly due to the fact that, while the physical, emotional, and mental planes of reality are being assaulted, the spiritual plane will be stable and calm. Ones will gravitate towards this calming aspect of their being and draw strength from the connection.

Within this connection will come the Guidance and answers that ones will be seeking. It could be said that the reward for having gone through these challenging times will be a greater understanding of self and the true nature of your being.

You Lighted ones are, from the spiritual plane, anticipating these coming events with excitement, for there will be great strides made in the overall advancement of both the individual and collective consciousness. It is the very physical, ego-based, reactionary being who associates fear with the coming physical reality—NOT the Higher Knowing (Infinite) being.

We of the Hosts of God have always stressed the importance for each of you to learn NOW to connect consciously within to this spiritual plane of interconnectedness. This takes mental and emotional discipline and determination to find, and once you “find” this connection within, you will wonder how you ever could have missed it. The elusiveness only comes from your own inner beliefs regarding this subject and your sense of self.

This connection is perhaps the greatest tool you can cultivate and learn to use in preparation for the challenges that are coming. The key to stopping the flow. Likewise, if you only effort finding this connection comes in ALLOWING towards exhaling (giving) without recharge, you will also stop the flow.

There shall come, as a result of these life-disrupting changes, a resurgence of spiritual connectedness. This is mostly due to the fact that, while the physical, emotional, and mental planes of reality are being assaulted, the spiritual plane will be stable and calm. Ones will gravitate towards this calming aspect of their being and draw strength from the connection.

Within this connection will come the Guidance and answers that ones will be seeking. It could be said that the reward for having gone through these challenging times will be a greater understanding of self and the true nature of your being.

the connection. You must allow the connection message here to be truly heard with the heart! This message is meant to trigger within you a sense of knowing and a sense of truth. You cannot force it, for the heart! This message is meant to trigger within you a sense of knowing and a sense of truth. frequency generated from the idea(s) of force will only serve to constrict the natural flow.

There is no magic or mysticism associated with this flow. Just as you each breathe, you must allow the air to both enter and exit in order to take-in and re-give, and thus complete the cycle. If you effort Source so that Creator's will be done! towards only taking-in, then you will end up Salu.

Please allow for the greater message here to be truly heard with the heart! This message is meant to trigger within you a sense of knowing and a sense of truth.

FROM THE BACK COVER

“Our Elder Brothers from the Higher Realms of Creation are attempting to communicate with ALL of us at this time. Why? Take a look around you. The old ways of doing things aren’t working. Our planet is entering a time of massive, turbulent change and renewal. To put it bluntly: we NEED help! And that’s where this book comes into the picture. Yes, eventually ‘the Phoenix will arise from the ashes’ after this Great Cleansing process, but the ride could be quite a bumpy one, especially for those ill-prepared for what is to happen.

“Just how we choose to deal with such change is THE question each of us must confront. Yet confusion swirls everywhere upon Earth at this time. And restless searchers cry out for that which may help them cope with these truly challenging times ahead. Thus these messages courtesy of our most loving Elder Brothers from the Higher Realms of Creation who are but further along the same spiritual path we all must eventually walk.”

V.K. Durham has been informing the American people for several years now about a very old gold certificate/contract referred to as Bonus Contract 3392-181 worth an untold fortune. After a very costly and lengthy investigation over many months, we know that this contract is real.

When Russell Herman, V.K. Durham's associate, was murdered for refusing to "sign-off" on this contract in 1994, his Last Will & Testament, which was published as a Public Notice in CONTACT [September 27, 1994], was very clear. We are republishing his Last Will & Testament herein as Public Notice.

All appropriate government officials were legally "noticed" concerning Russell Herman's Last Will & Testament. The Treasury Department was "noticed", as was President Bill Clinton.

- Jack Kemp
- Patrick Buchanan
- Ted Turner

We have received independent confirmation of the validity of these documents through a telephone call to E.J. Ekker by a business associate who alleged that he had been contacted by Mr. Nichols of Treasury and alleged an offered buyout, final pay-off offer to V.K. Durham of $250 million dollars. This, of course, was unacceptable to V.K. Durham, in part because 48.8 percent of the Bonus Contract is the property of the American people, 24.4 percent of which is delineated in the Herman Will.

V.K. Durham and Russell Herman have been extremely generous to the American people. We are publishing herein the key documentation concerning the Bonus Contract and Russell Herman's Last Will & Testament. The intent of Russell Herman is very clear when you read his Will.

The response from these powerful men who have received this documentation, thus far, has been deafening in its silence.

George Bush sent word back to CONTACT early this summer, that "We do not wish to deal at this time." A month or so later, the message was, "We won't deal with you."

Mr. Robert Parry of the Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco passed off the documents I sent to Robert Mulford, who said in his August 6 letter to me, "I am returning the documents. Do not send them back, or they will be thrown away. Any future correspondence from you will not be acknowledged."

During a September 3 telephone conversation with Ross Perot's secretary, she informed me that, "Yes, Mr. Perot did read the documents you sent (concerning the Bonus Contract) and he has no interest."

In a telephone call to Senator Bentsen's secretary Lucille on September 3, while assured he would receive the message of my telephone call, there was no return call from Senator Bentsen concerning the documentation on the Bonus Contract.

Also in a September 3 telephone call to Ted Turner's secretary, I was assured he would receive the message I phoned, but alas, there was no return call from Mr. Turner.

It appears that there is little interest among these men to utilize an instrument which has been provided and offered to the American people for industry and growth within our borders. We have done our part and we can do no more but to offer these men the information we have been provided. They have chosen to turn a deaf ear.

We would like to honor V.K. Durham and Russell Herman for their greatness, their generosity, and their willingness to provide all they have for reclamation of a nation. Is anyone listening?

In compliance with mandatory legal procedure for Public Notices, we will be running these documents for 4 (four) consecutive weeks.

CONFIDENTIAL

ASSIGNMENT OF OWNERSHIP OF BONUS CONTRACT 3392-181
RE: RUSSELL HERMAN'S PERCENTAGE
August 5, 1993

To Whom It May Concern:

Due to the HIGHLY sensitive nature of this tremendously valuable Bonus Contract and it's potential impact on the national security of the United States, it is with much careful thought and consideration that I, being of sound mind and body, do hereby assign my portion of ownership of the Bonus Contract 3392-181 to Mr. Rick Martin, journalist for the brave newspaper known as CONTACT. I make this assignment to Mr. Martin, solely and individually.

Those who are aware of the historical sequence of events leading up to this decision to transfer ownership are well aware of my long and close relationship with V.K. Durham. It is with a heavy heart that I cannot, in all good conscience, transfer my portion of the contract over to her. She has been, for some time, mentally unstable, and I am gravely concerned that she may not live to realize the dreams of this great nation that we often shared with one another. I am not able to trust, at this point in time, her judgment, as she "flies off the handle" and is too irrational to be given the overwhelming responsibility of stewarding this tremendously valuable contract. It is for these and other private reasons that I hereby make this assignment, in full, to Mr. Rick Martin.

It is my trust and faith in you, Mr. Martin, that you will fulfill my wishes with respect to use of the wealth generated from this contract, as we discussed in our private meeting earlier this month. In honoring my wishes, it is accepted by you that you will not provide funds that in any way may be used for war or destruction. This value is to be used to not only restore this once great nation, but to assist others less fortunate around the world.

My trust in you, Mr. Martin, is complete. With all the above now stated, I hereby transfer my portion of ownership in the Bonus 3392-181 into your care and careful management.

Signed: Russell Herman Witnessed: Rick Martin

ASSIGNMENT OF OWNERSHIP RE: BONUS CERTIFICATE 3392-181

April 28, 1998

I, the below signed, being of sound mind and body, do hereby make the following ownership assignment of Russell Herman's portion of Bonus Certificate 3392-181 of my own free-will and in accordance with promises, terms and conditions made by me to Russell Herman orally in discussions with him.

On August 5, 1993, Russell Herman signed over to me, personally, his portion of ownership in Bonus Certificate 3392-181 (Certificate of Indebtedness of Peru), under certain terms and conditions.

Those terms and conditions consisted of the following:

1. The assignment of ownership to me by Russell Herman was to remain under strict confidential seal and was not to be used or exposed until such time as it was deemed necessary by me for public exposure.
2. The assignment by Russell Herman was to be considered an "assignment of last resort" and one which Russell felt should only be brought public when all else had failed.
3. Russell Herman required that Bonus 3392-181 be used for the betterment of mankind.
4. Russell Herman required that Bonus 3392-181 be used in conjunction and cooperation with the Native American population – foreign and domestic.
5. Russell Herman required that Bonus 3392-181 not be used for war or any war-related activity.
6. Russell Herman required that I not relinquish signatory control of the assignment, but when the time came for public exposure of his assignment, for reasons of personal safety, he asked that I agree to reassign ownership to a corporation whose stated mission and purpose were in full compliance with the terms and conditions herein stated.

In light of the publication of the August 4, 1993 assignment by Russell Herman to me appearing in the April 28, 1998 edition of CONTACT, INC., in furtherance with Russell Herman's wishes, I hereby, with clear conscience, free-will and mental clarity, assign in full, ownership of Bonus 3392-181 to Global Alliance Investment Association.

By this assignment, I DO NOT relinquish signatory control but rather maintain same as a representative of said corporation.

The aforementioned terms and conditions remain in force with Global Alliance Investment Association.

TELEPHONE HOTLINE 805-822-0202

As an adjunct to CONTACT, the Telephone Hotline keeps you as informed as possible on current events and other important information that needs to get to our subscribers before our publishing date.

The message machine will answer after 2 rings if there are any new messages for that day, and after 4 rings if not. Thus daily callers can hang up after 2 rings and save toll charges if no new message has been recorded. If the Hotline does not answer your call, then that means there is currently no Hotline message.
