The Truth Is Out There If You Look What’s Stopping YOU?

This is not meant to be a sermon, but a short reflection instigated by the national release, this week, of the X-Files movie based upon the popular television program.

What is it that has made The X-Files so popular that it has acquired, as labeled by the ever-analyzing media, a—oh, no—“cult” following? The answer is simple.

Even among the many who are seemingly asleep, deep down the public psyche knows we-the-people have been lied to concerning just about everything that is truly important in our lives. There is a part (called conscience) within every Lighted being which is gasping for air as each new lie piles upon the rest. It’s that part of you which instinctively KNOWS Truth and can sort it from baloney.

HEARING TOLD OF S. AFRICA'S CHEMICAL WEAPONS

From FAX, 6/12/98: [quoting]
by David Beresford in Cape Town

A hearing of the South African Truth and Reconciliation Commission into the country's chemical and biological weapons programme was yesterday shown instruments of assassination produced by scientists working for the apartheid government.

Ian Lourens, a bio-engineer who worked on the programme, told the commission that devices for killing opponents of the government included walking sticks and umbrellas which fired lethal pellets, syringes disguised as screwdrivers, and rings with cavities for poison.

The hearings began after the government failed to persuade the commission to stage them behind closed doors. President Nelson Mandela's legal adviser, Fink Haysom, argued there was a danger that the hearings, if held in public, would lead to the proliferation of weapons of mass destruction. But a panel chaired by Bishop Desmond Tutu ruled that most of the evidence should be heard in public.

Scientists, doctors and military personnel have been called to testify. They include Wouter Basson, the cardiologist who headed the programme. He faces prosecution on charges including conspiracy and incitement to murder, the manufacture of illegal drugs and fraud.

Dr. Lourens told the commission he had been transferred from the air force to a "special operations" unit within the army's special forces in 1984.

The unit was staffed almost entirely by doctors. He recalled how he had put together a special radio network for members of the unit, and supplied them with souped-up cars and compact assault rifles.

He described experiments at top-secret laboratories involving testing a "new generation" of tear gas on baboons and attempts to develop ways of reducing the birth-rate among blacks. But he insisted that the work was done on a need-to-know basis and he did not know the details.

He said he had been involved in the production of the assassination instruments, which he described as applicators. Several of the devices, including "needle tubes", were produced as exhibits. Dr. Lourens said the tubes, which could be incorporated into an umbrella or walking stick, were spring-loaded and used to inject poison.

A second version of the umbrella/walking stick fired a small ball. "This ball would have a number of holes drilled into it, so you would be able to pack a toxic substance into the ball," said Dr. Lourens.

The ball would be fired into the back of the victim's leg and "the person would feel something like a bee sting". Polycarbonate was used because it was difficult to pick up on x-rays.

Dr. Lourens recounted how he had taken one of the instruments and two vials of a chemical to Britain with instructions to deliver it to a man called Trevor whom he was to meet at a railway station. They went to a South African safe house near Ascot, in Berkshire.

"At the cottage I demonstrated to him how the mechanism worked. I opened one of the vials... I somehow spilt some of the substance on to my hand. I don't know how it happened, but I wiped my mouth. I lost consciousness very quickly. There was a bathroom. I recall going into the bathroom and there being a bottle of Dettol, which I drank. With hindsight I have no idea why I drank the Dettol. At that stage I, to a large extent, lost my sight and the Dettol of course induced a lot of vomiting. I woke up a period later."

He said he had reported what had happened to doctors at the special operations unit but they did not believe he would have survived.

Dr. Lourens told the commission he had been involved in negotiations with foreign buyers for the sale of weapons technology. One was a customer who wanted a nerve agent called VX but the deal fell through. He did not know which country the would-be buyer was from.

He also met a Syrian who was buying technology. He introduced him to another South African scientist who, he believed, visited Syria,

The hearing continues.

TOP BRASS SAY DESERTERS MURDERED

Is It Possible That American POWs
In Vietnam Were Murdered
By Their Fellow Countrymen?

From THE SPOTLIGHT, 6/22/98: [quoting]
EXCLUSIVE TO THE SPOTLIGHT, by MIKE BLAIR

For some 25 years now this writer and newspaper have been delving into the subject of American POWs and MIAs still unaccounted for from the Vietnam War, as well as wars dating back to at least World War II.

U.S. military involvement in Vietnam was ended in 1973 and the war ended in total communist victory two years later. At present there are, officially, 2,093 American POWs and MIAs still listed as having an unknown fate as a result of the Vietnam War and an additional more than 8,150 from the Korean War.

In all of those years covering the POW-MIA issue, stories have emerged again and again about American captives of the communists in Vietnam being killed, or perhaps a better word would be assassinated, by special American "hit teams".

When the stories surfaced they were dismissed by most as the rantings of immoral charlatans. Surely, most reasoned, such activity was totally unthinkable. That the U.S. military could purposely murder its own must be Red propaganda.

'TAILWIND' EMERGES

Now, however, there has emerged evidence of "Operation Tailwind", a program adopted at the very highest levels of the U.S. government to kill American servicemen who had defected (deserted) to either the North Vietnamese or Viet Cong communist forces during the war.

According to the unfolding story, U.S. Special Operations units, in this case specifically studies and operations groups, commonly referred to as SOG, were sent into enemy territory to kill American deserters.

Very disturbing has been the revelation that such hit teams may have used sarin, a deadly nerve gas developed during World War II, to complete their grisly tasks.

That such operations took place have been confirmed by no less of a honored and respected authority than retired Adm. Thomas Moorer, former chairman of the Joint Chiefs staff.

In addition, retired Army Maj. Gen. John K. Singlaub, who for a period served as SOG commander in Vietnam, has stated in reference to Tailwind that often it can be more important to the survival of U.S. troops to kill deserters than enemy soldiers because the knowledge that they possess "can be damaging".

HOW MANY?

Although the government now claims that there were only two known deserters, it is a highly questionable issue, since the government's own list of POWs and MIAs still missing, a copy of which has been in The SPOTLIGHT's possession for some time, indicates about 20 known deserters or turn-coats.

It is also a fact that for the most part those who became deserters are low-level personnel, types hardly in possession of classified material, described by Gen. Singlaub as "damaging". Some desertions were actually drug related, also a known fact.

Most troubling about Tailwind, however, is that many who have come forward with information about it, indicated that it was intended to eliminate Americans who were "believed to be deserters". The word "believed" appears again and again.

A belief, no one needs to be reminded, is not a certainty.

It can also be taken for granted that anyone seen in the presence of the enemy during a war is not necessarily a deserter. POWs are also in the presence of the enemy, and if, as an example, they are detected in aerial spy photographs it is not improbable that mistakes in identifying their purpose in being there could have been made.

UNKNOWN FATE

It is also very troubling that most knowledgeable POW-MIA activists have known for years that the communists in both Vietnam and Korea never repatriated many POWs who were known to possess highly technical information.

As an example, the so-called "backseaters" of U.S. jet aircraft, those who manned the highly technical electronic gear, were not returned by the Reds.

In addition, Tailwind seems to have been directed at deserters in Vietnam's neighbors of Laos and Cambodia, where "secret wars" were being fought against the communists, the truth being concealed from both the American people and the Congress.

This writer, as an example, spoke at length many times with the late Sgt. Fred L. Zabitosky, a SOG team leader in Southeast Asia during the Vietnam War and a recipient of the Congressional Medal of Honor.

Zabitosky liked to tell the story about how President Nixon mentioned to him in a whisper during the medal presentation ceremony at the White House about what would happen if Congress found out that the combat, in which he was recommended for the citation, had taken place in Laos where U.S. ground forces were not supposed to be engaged with the enemy.

Zabitosky, it is interesting to note, had deep convictions about POWs and MIAs being left behind in Vietnam, Laos and Cambodia, to the point of personally entering Laos on several clandestine, and dangerous, personal missions during the 1980s to search for information about them. This much to the consternation of high-level officials of the administration of President Ronald Reagan.

While others of higher notoriety about such secret private missions into Laos come to mind, the Zabitosky missions were genuine beyond all doubt and caused brass at the Pentagon, not to mention the CIA, considerable headaches.

In any case, according to reliable reports, orders came down, passing somewhere along the line through the White House, then occupied by President Nixon, that such "believed deserters" be killed.

This was accomplished, it has been reported, by individual servicemen making their own on-the-spot determinations, as well as orders coming directly from, or through, the Pentagon.

Now that the truth about Tailwind is emerging and the specter of a far more sinister fate met our missing in Vietnam than could have been meted out even by the brutal communists, it is time for a thorough investigation.

As one POW-MIA activist recently stated: "This is all becoming far too much. And it's about time some [expletive deleted] was held accountable for it all." [End quoting]

Maybe, finally, the truth of a lot of political-criminal activity will surface so the politicians who put us into their battles will receive their just rewards—and let's don't forget to include their slavemasters.

ZETATALK: HUBBLE TROUBLE

Excerpted from the INTERNET, 6/14/98: [quoting]

...What is it the public is not supposed to see, with all this Principal Investigator privilege, lack of access to hot-off-the-press Hubble shots, and even the lack of a precise Hubble schedule. The public can't press to be invited to the party if they don't know one is planned—that's the theory. The public is not to see the UFOs that the astronauts saw with their bare eyes and the Hubble records regularly. The public is not to see the evidence that NASA and JPL hold like candy to dribble out when they need funding, such as evidence that planets suitable for life exist orbiting around other suns. The public is not to see evidence that NASA is publishing erroneous infra-red catalogs, so that the 12th Planet, a.k.a. Planet X, does not appear in the IRAS catalogs and so is not sought in the skies where it now rides. The public is not to see evidence that would tell the truth about any distractions, such as the Hale-Bopp fraud, that the establishment wishes the public to chase after [emphasis mine].

NASA is increasingly having Hubble trouble, but this will not cause them to openly share the pictures that the Hubble provides with the general public. Look for increasing withholding, and alternative excuses beyond the Principal Investigator excuse, as this one is wearing thin with the public. [End quoting]

I'm glad to see that someone on the Net is putting out the truth about Hale-Bopp and the 12th planet. This is the first I've found.

CODEX ALIMENTARIUS —A TERM YOU WILL LEARN TO HATE

Bureaucratic Fees —The Weapon Of Choice

Excerpted from SECOND OPINION, by Dr. William Douglas, 8/97: [quoting]

...If the FDA gets its way, here's how the system will work: In Canada, if claims are made on a natural product, the HPB then requires that a "Drug Identification Number" be applied for. If this is done, and HPB deems the product safe, it can be marketed as long as the manufacturer, distributor, and retailer pay costs of up to $720 per DIN number.

If no one has applied for a DIN, then no one can sell the product, and you can even be arrested for selling such innocuous products as fish oil, hawthorne berry, and cranberry capsules. That may not sound like much to even a small American business, but if the DIN system were adopted in the U.S., these costs would be 10-20 times higher due to the market being so much bigger. Now you're talking about real money: $7,000 to $15,000 per number. Where does that leave the mom and pop operation? It leaves them with nothing to sell.

On top of this outrage, under a "Cost recovery" program, manufacturers will be years and any delegate can propose a change in its standards. The Commission's latest outrage produced an ominous new threat to health-conscious consumers the world over when the German delegation presented a bill called the "Proposed Draft Guidelines for Dietary Supplements".

The German plan calls for the following: (1) No vitamin, mineral, herb, etc. can be sold for prophylactic (preventive) or therapeutic use. (2) None sold as a food can exceed potency (dosage) levels set by the commission. (3) CODEX regulations for dietary supplements would become binding—eliminating the escape clause within the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade (GATT) that allows a nation to set its own standards. And (4), all new dietary supplements would automatically be banned unless they go through the CODEX approval process.

If these draconian measures are adopted, any party to GATT (which includes the United States) that does not accept the new standards can be heavily sanctioned (fined) by the world Trade Organization (WTO). The WTO will have the right to levy enormous fines on any nation that gets "Out of line", with the potential to cripple entire sectors of that nation's economy.

The sole U.S. delegate to CODEX has been Elizabeth A. Yetley, PhD, RD, an FDA bureaucrat. So instead of the proverbial fox in the hen house, we have representing us, a fox in the fox house. Responding to political pressure in the United States, so far she has voted for health freedom, but little result—at the last meeting the vote went 16-2 in favor of the German proposal. I doubt we will hear much ranting and raving from our "representative" from the FDA. You're probably sitting back saying that nothing like this could happen to us in the U.S.—Congress wouldn't let it happen. If that's what you're thinking, you're wrong.

Congress, in fact, surrendered much of its power to deal with the issue when it passed GATT. Under the GATT agreement, member nations must "harmonize" their rules governing the manufacture of health and medical products with new international standards so as to be "in line" with them. (I wonder if anyone in Congress actually read that clause before signing the bill.) Republicans in Congress assured the American people, that GATT is not part of a world-government trap—do you believe that now?

Congress cannot rescind it's vote on GATT—and, on the contrary, the single U.S. delegate to this international commission can be outvoted by delegates from other countries; it's called international democracy. Two steps have already been taken in the CODEX process, which is now at step three. The proposal is going to be formalized and written responses and debate over its specific features will be undertaken.

In September, 1998, the next CODEX meeting will be held in Bonn, Germany. It could easily be driven through to finalization at step eight unless enough countries oppose it... [End quoting]

Don't you think it's about time that all of us got on the phone, faxes, Internet, etc., and made our voices heard??

CULT HAZARDOUS TO HEALTH

From THE SPOTLIGHT, 6/15/98: [quoting] ANOTHER VICTIM. Philip C. Gale at 19 had had a life of outstanding accomplishment. He entered MIT at 15 and at 19, when he killed himself, knew 20 computer languages fluently and was also outstanding in every field he entered. His mother, Marie, was a well-known Scientology activist and had raised her son inside the "church". Philip never took to Scientology in spite of his mother's dedication. Caught between two worlds and undergoing great stress, Philip apparently saw no other way to resolve the conflict. The Boston Herald reported that Scientologists are taught that when they leave the church they will kill themselves or have a serious accident. That certainly is a powerful tool to keep ones under control.

MERCHANTS OF DEATH

From THE SPOTLIGHT, 6/15/98: [quoting]

In 1988 America had 16 percent of the World's arms business. Today it is 63 percent. Ironically, our own military is proportionally budgeted less than in the 1930s while American soldiers increasingly face enemies around the world armed with U.S.-furnished weapons, military technology and training. While our military is financed miserly, U.S. foreign military aid was a whopping $36 billion already in President Clinton's first year in office. [End quoting]

Exactly as planned long ago—rake in the money while selling our country into slavery. Read the Protocols!

WORLD'S PEACEKEEPERS

From THE SPOTLIGHT, 6/15/98: [quoting]

Often proclaimed the world's Policeman, America is the leading producer of instruments of torture used throughout the world. Of 100 firms listed by Amnesty International, 42 are U.S. companies. Most manufacture some sort of electric-shock "therapy". This type of policing aid puts "teeth" into police-state aspirations, an apt description of United Nations policy and programs on a global scale. [End quoting]

What nation could possibly compare with the U.S. in its hypocrisy??

SATAN'S MUSIC

From THE SPOTLIGHT, 6/15/98: [quoting]

In San Luis Obispo, California, Joseph Fiorella, 15, Jacob Dalashmut, 15, and Royce Cayse, 16, had a rock band modeled after the death metal group, Slayer. The trio raped, tortured and murdered 15-year-old Elyse Marie Pahler because she was "blond, blue-eyed and known to be a virgin—qualities they believed were needed to be a perfect sacrifice to the devil". Cayse wrote the day after the deed, "I made the switch last night. [Satan] has taken my soul and replaced it with a new one. [End quoting]

Why and how do you think the rock music bands have gotten away with their destruction of our youth for these last few decades without them being stopped?? Another marker of a decaying society, don't you think?

THE OTHER FOOT

From THE SPOTLIGHT, 6/15/98: [quoting]

Curtis Clapp crossed the border into Mexico at Nuevo Laredo where his truck was searched by Mexican customs. In his tool box were some cartridges for rifles which are commonplace in a Texas rancher's pickup, but considered "military" in Mexico. Clapp was arrested and thrown into a Mexican jail where every item for survival, food included, must be paid for on the spot in cash. His brother, attorney Randy Clapp, has been trying every angle from intercession by congressmen to a failed $5,000 payoff to a "Mexican of influence", to get Curtis released. He will learn that his brother will be free only after every member of his family has been bled dry financially by Mexican officials. [End quoting]

Worse is happening in our own country.

Furthermore if we don't stop it here, how do we think we're going to stop it there?

Guns and bullets draw trouble!

FEDERAL INSANITY

From THE SPOTLIGHT, 6/15/98: [quoting]

People in government-mandated, tiny, plastic and glass cars—not to mention the cars themselves—don't fare well in accidents with larger, heavier machines such as GM's famous Suburban. The Insurance Institute for Highway Safety, always quick to tell others how to operate their businesses, wants to "level the playing field" by lightening the safer rigs to make them as dangerous as the thin-skinned high-mileage throwaways. Clinton appointee Ricardo Martinez, of the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration, is already strong-arming auto builders to comply. [End quoting]

Their game is not what it appears—it is to frustrate and confuse us, make lots of money, and gain control while doing so. The old cat-and-mouse game, with us always paying through the nose.

FARMERS PRAISE ETHANOL DECISION

Farmers are congratulating Congress for extending the tax break for ethanol production.

From THE SPOTLIGHT, by Marilyn Wentz, 6/15/98: [quoting]

Producers and consumers alike will benefit from Congress' decision to extend tax incentives to blenders of ethanol through 2007, according to the National Farmers Union (NFU).

"NFU is extremely pleased with the strong support for ethanol tax incentives demonstrated by members of Congress in ... passage of the highway bill," said Tom Buis, NFU vice president of government relations. "This is extremely good news for grain producers and for rural communities that make ethanol." [End quoting]

I would highly suspicion that the reason congress did this is very bad for the American people because I think they're using it to do away with our SCARCE grain supply.

I suspicion that the huge grain elevator explosion was part of this plan also.

SILVER SEEN WITH SOLID $5.50 BASE

Excerpted from THE SPOTLIGHT, by Bill Haynes, 6/15/98: [quoting]

If what goes up must come down, must what goes down necessarily go back up?

The industrial demand for silver has grown every year since 1987, rising from 455.5 million ounces to 798.9 million ounces in 1997.

In 1990, industrial demand overtook production and has exceeded newly refined production every year since then. This year's shortfall of 160 million ounces means a cumulative deficit of 1.2 billion ounces in only nine years.

The production deficit has been met by sales from above-ground stockpiles, from both commercial depositories and individuals who store their silver at home or at the nearby bank. Despite the shortfall, which has been widely known for years, both groups have been net sellers for years, and understandably so... [End quoting]

Silver could very well be ready for a big rise, but don't think the elite won't make a grab for all of it and your gold when they pull down martial law.

IBM: BROWSER BRAINS QBIC

From PC MAGAZINE, by Cade Metz, 6/9/1998: [quoting]

Computer hardware's progress is often defined only in terms of clock speed and bandwidth. But if not for the continued improvements in data storage over the past 40 years, Moore's Law would be trivial and 56-Kbps modem speeds would be excessive.

The center of hard disk innovation is the Almaden Research Center in San Jose, California, one of the seven IBM research labs in operation across the globe (www.research.ibm.com).

Almaden (www.almaden.ibm.com) is home to about 600 researchers, each developing new ways to store data and handle it once it is stored. "We're about information," says Ashok Chandra, director of computer science at Almaden, "managing information, gathering it, saving it, searching through it, and distributing it in useful formats."

The world's first hard disk was developed in November 1956 in downtown San Jose, only a few miles from the current Almaden site. The RAMAC 305—a stack of 50 spinning platters, each 2 feet in diameter—stored a then-remarkable 5MB of data, the rough equivalent of 60,000 punch cards. Over the next four decades, IBM researchers have improved on this prototype nearly 2 million-fold. Almaden engineers last year set the standing world record for hard disk data-storage density, reaching 11.6 billion bits per square inch with their latest GMR (giant magneto-resistive) drive. The drive can store the equivalent of more than 725,000 typewritten pages in a space slightly larger than a thumbprint.

Almaden's Storage Systems & Technology division is advancing every facet of hard disk design, from the magnetic materials used in disks themselves, to the lubricants that coat the disks, to the heads that read the data, to the sliders that move the heads. GMR drives, however, cannot be improved in perpetuity. As GMR researchers approach the superparamagnetic limit—the data-storage density where temperature changes can cause random reversals in a bit's magnetization—other engineers are exploring alternative technologies, including holographic storage and molecular-scale devices.

Another Almaden division deals with types of data already stored. Continuing a project that began in Neil Gershenfeld's physics group at the MIT Media Lab, Tom Zimmerman of Almaden's Computer Science division is working with data sent not across computer systems but across the human body. His Personal Area Network (PAN) uses a small silicon card that sits in your back pocket and communicates with various people or machines by sending a low-frequency, low-power signal through your body. When you shake hands with someone, your cards could exchange addresses and phone numbers, for instance. You would only have to touch a telephone to give it your calling-card number or touch a car door to unlock it. An exercise machine at Almaden can accept a PAN signal and automatically begin a regime specific to you.

Dragutin Petkovic, also in the Computer Science division, has long been engaged with QBIC (Query By Image Content), a means of organizing and searching a database of images using actual color, shape, and texture rather than just keywords. With a traditional image database, you must catalog each image using a written description, then retrieve images by matching keywords within those descriptions. With QBIC, pronounced cubic, the cataloging is mathematical. "We index an image by examining individual pixels and extracting numerical color and layout information," says Petkovic. When searching a collection of stamps, for instance, you simply "show" the database an image whose color or texture resembles the stamp you're looking for.

Rob Barrett, an Almaden physicist cum computer scientist, is working on a software intermediary known as WBI (Web Browsing Intelligence). Similar to agents, intermediaries work in the background to "customize and enhance your environment", Barrett says. Sitting between your browser and the Web, WBI augments each page you visit and uses various mini-applications to facilitate the browsing process. Regardless of where you are on the Web, small traffic lights sit beside each hyperlink to indicate the availability of the servers you're about to visit. Advisors, terse annotations that pop up throughout a page, point to items in a predefined catalog (Yahoo! or a personal database, for example) that are relevant to the subject at hand. "In one sense," says Barrett, "WBI is a lens through which to view the Web." [End quoting]

If this is what is available in the publicly acknowledged research laboratories, take a guess at what is in use already at secret military installations—of course at taxpayer expense!

THE TRUTH IS OUT THERE!

From the INTERNET, 6/14/98: [quoting]

Thanks for the try-again—when these topics come to our attention, it could as well have been written about the situation here in S.A., which tells one: it's a world food crises!

Another news flash appeared in The Citizen on Thurs., 11 June, about a Silo explosion in Kansas, U.S.A. Explosions can happen due to friction of grain when compressed but, as 'we know' that most of them are empty, a good excuse for not enough grain storage would be by exploding them on purpose—perhaps?

PLAN TO WEAKEN MANDELA REVEALED

CAPE TOWN—The Truth and Reconciliation Commission yesterday released minutes of the apartheid-era State Security Council which recommended that Nelson Mandela be released from jail only after he became too physically weak to pose a political threat.

"Mandela must be in a relatively weak physical condition so that he cannot operate as a leader for long," said the recommendations of a meeting discussing whether to release Pres. Mandela, who spent a total of 27 years in jail for fighting apartheid. (C.seperateness [??])

The minutes of the meeting in March 1986 were released during a hearing into the former government's chemical and biological warfare program. Mr. Schalk Van Rensburg, a researcher at the Rooodeplaat Research Laboratories (RRL) which produced chemical weapons for the apartheid security forces, said his boss Andre Immelmann told him of a plan to poison Pres. Mandela. "He made the statement 'You need not worry, his brain function will deteriorate with time,'" Mr. Van Rensburg told the TRC. "The intention was, as I understood it, to reduce his level of intellectuality and effectiveness through brain damage." Mr. Van Rensburg said, "I thought it logical that they would use a toxic solution to achieve this aim."

Mr. Van Rensburg said he had also read newspaper reports which alleged a plan to give Pres. Mandela small doses of the poison thallium, which would cause brain damage similar to meningitis. The researcher said the meeting minutes shown to him seemed to be consistent with what Mr. Immelman told him about a plan to harm Pres. Mandela, who was released from jail in 1990 and elected president in South Africa's first all-race election in 1994.

But Jaap Celliers, lawyer for several senior scientists at the laboratories, said the minutes did not necessarily imply that the state wanted to actively harm Pres. Mandela. "There is not necessarily a sinister deduction to be drawn," he told the hearing, adding that another section of the minutes suggested that Pres. Mandela's health was more likely to have deteriorated naturally the later he was released.

The minutes showed that the State Security Council discussed how it could best release Pres. Mandela to limit his political impact, including releasing him to his former home area of Transkei.

The hearing also heard evidence from Wynand Swanepoell, former manager of RRL, who denied any knowledge that his company was involved in producing poisons, toxins and viruses for use in the apartheid movement. "RRRL had to do with the evaluation and analysis of biological and chemical agents to be able to analyze and trace them with the purpose to do decontamination and neutralization," he said.

Mr. Swanepoel said he only dealt with the company's finances and management and was not involved in the details of orders which came from Wouter Basson, who headed the special operations unit of the former South African Defence Force.

Dr. Basson has been provisionally charged with the manufacture of one tonne of mandrax and a ton of ecstasy and other charges including instigation to murder and conspiracy to murder.

Truth Commission lawyers confronted Mr. Swanepoel with a list of RRL products, including wiski spiked with toxic herbicide, cigarettes dipped in anthrax and poisoned chocolates. But Mr. Swanepoel said the laboratory could have made these products to test if poisons could be traced in them and said he could not speculate about what they had been used for. —Reuters. SPIELBERG'S STALKER GETS 25-TO-LIFE TERM

From THE DAILY NEWS, Los Angeles, 6/18/98: [quoting]

A man convicted of stalking Steven Spielberg was sentenced to 25 years to life in prison Wednesday after the director told the judge he fears what would have happened if the defendant had confronted him.

Superior Court Judge Steven Suzukawa agreed, saying defendant Jonathan Norman was "obsessive and frightening, and I think he does present a danger to society."

Spielberg addressed the court before the sentence was imposed on Norman, who was found guilty of a bizarre plot to invade Spielberg's mansion, hold the director and his family hostage and rape him. [End quoting]

I only use this here to show you the severity of sentence to what many murderers and worse criminals get—when this man never committed the acts, but just threatened to do them. What might the outcome have been if the intended victim were not part of the elite?

CHARACTER

SOMETHING TO THINK ABOUT

From THE AMERICAN'S BULLETIN, by Andrew Jackson, 1998: [quoting]

Hello again, after a brief hiatus. That column last month was a humorous e-mail message that I passed along to The American's Bulletin editor. Was it okay for you? It was not intended as a column, but what the hey!

As we have mentioned, this column is intended to be introductory to those who contemplate the patriotic way of life. I want to make the point this month that such a decision is going to demand a whole bunch of that stuff I call character.

Let's define character as that quality which makes us do the right thing at all times. That means that we do right even when it appears that it will work against us, make us uncomfortable, make us appear unsociable, or alienate us from the politically correct.

The most authoritative and solid list of rules which defines the "right thing" has to be the Ten Commandments, but I have shortened these a bit for your consideration:

- 1) Listen to God and keep Him first.
- 2) Tell the truth and keep your promises.
- 3) Don't hurt others.
- 4) Give value for what you earn.
- 5) Keep your marriage commitments.
- 6) Think for yourself: stay healthy, sober, and alert.

It is of course not easy to measure up, and all of us will stumble on these rules from time to time. But these are the standards needed to be a patriot.

You need little integrity to go along with the crowd. If that's your thing, be a bureaucrat. Be a working slob, putting in your time and watching basketball. Do not think carefully about what you are doing, who you are injuring, and whether you do the right stuff.

Here are a couple examples where we can readily apply the principles of character toward the duties of a patriot:

!) Jury duty. Juries were meant to protect people from oppressive government. There is substantial pressure on a juror to go along blindly with what the judge dictates. If these things are moral and past the point of doubt, fine. But when the government wants to railroad some hapless dude for actions or thought which you know are not criminal, it becomes a test of your character to prevent this if you can. Those of you who have been there can relate.

2) Tax "laws". Our God and our founding fathers assembled principles for us defining legitimate government. Government is not supposed to trash stable families, life opportunities, and pride by stealing a huge chunk of the productive activities of people. That's simple common sense, isn't it? But what kind of character is needed to take definitive steps to correct this travesty?

3) Right to work. Do you realize that damn near every human activity from giving a message to mowing a lawn has been made illegal? You have to jump through hoops and convince some bureaucrat that he should give you permission (license) to do these things! Frankly, I'm surprised we don't need a license to walk down the street. How are you going to care for yourself and your family unless you can provide some sort of useful service for others? What kind of character is needed to battle the enemy on this level?

Only a few of us will make the commitment to be a meaningful patriot. At the same time, many, many idiots will work full time in government "service" finding ways to interfere with the free enjoyment of life; pulling productive others into the mud, and producing nothing but grief in the process. No, life ain't fair.

Most institutions of government and many businesses fall far short of meeting the slightest test of character. So run down the list of rules above and see how they stack up. It's easy! It's fun! It's not fattening!

That ought to give us something to consider for awhile! See you next time, dear friend! [End quoting]

PAGER PANIC: STUDY SHOWS BLACKOUT'S IMPACT

From THE DAILY NEWS, Los Angeles, 6/16/98: [quoting]

In the first-ever study of the pager and its impact on people's lives, researchers at the University of Southern California's Annenberg School for Communication surveyed public reactions to the pager blackout of May 19.

At least one-third of Los Angeles households use one pager or more, and many one- and two-pager households have organized their work and everyday lives around the electronic device, the study findings show.

The USC study, based on a random telephone survey of 751 households in the five-county Greater Los Angeles area, took advantage of the Galaxy IV satellite's recent malfunction to conduct a "natural" experiment. The satellite glitch left most pagers useless for more than a day, giving researchers an opportunity to see what missing the pager would mean to the American public.

"The blackout uncovered how very central a role pagers play in people's lives," said project director William Dutton, a professor of communication at the Annenberg School for Communication. "They are not just a new gadget or fashion. Many people have expanded the geography of their workplace and household with this device." [End quoting]

Could this "failure" of a satellite have been a test-run on finding out how much control the elite will have to use over these devices when they rein us in.

ALBRIGHT RAPS TREASURY CHIEF

From The Bakersfield Californian, 6/13/98: [quoting]

In rare public display of high-level disagreement, Secretary of State Madeleine Albright has chastised Treasury Secretary Robert Rubin for failing to inform her about a money-laundering sting operation in Mexico.

"I would appreciate being kept personally informed of developing investigations in Mexico and other foreign countries that could have a significant foreign policy fallout," Albright said in a letter to Rubin, dated May 22.

"I do not wish to interfere with your law enforcement work, but I do believe we need to do a better job of coordination," she wrote.

The letter was inserted in the Congressional Record by Sen. Charles Grassley, R-Iowa. It was not disclosed how Grassley obtained the letter.

Albright wrote the letter following an uproar in Mexico touched off by the disclosure that U.S. Customs agents working under Rubin's jurisdiction had carried out part of the sting operation without Mexican authorization. Mexican bankers were arrested after being lured into the United States under false pretenses. [End quoting]

We're really beginning to see the "kings" starting to fight each other over their perceived control of their various domains.

PAINKILLER SOON MAY TOP VIAGRA AS KING OF SALES

From THE DAILY NEWS, Los Angeles, 6/17/98: [quoting]

Drug makers, eyeing Viagra's runaway success with envy, expect the drive for arthritis relief will yield the next wonder drug.

Some industry experts believe Celebra, a painkiller that cuts inflammation but avoids the stomach-damaging effects of aspirin, ibuprofen and acetaminophen, could outsell the impotency drug by millions of dollars a year.

Drug makers' ceaseless efforts to stock America's medicine chest have long plowed research money into trying to ease such ills as cancer, obesity and chronic pain. But the road to a cancer cure is littered with promising treatments that fizzled. And last year's recall of two diet pills left many dieters wary of weight-loss drugs.

Now comes a new class of super painkillers with a singular advantage: They could be on pharmacy shelves within months. And industry watchers believe millions of Americans will gladly toss their bottles of common painkillers for an alternative that saves their stomachs. [End quoting]

The medications the elite have been holding back will probably start pouring forth as each "king" tries to out-grab a bite of the multibillion dollar money pie. Can't you see the sharks as they go into their feeding frenzy which Viagra set off?

Temporarily they'll forget that they might help relieve some suffering by us so that they can join the frenzy.

But be very careful—this makes it an excellent time to slip in the engineered pills that will kill you—also!

SUBWAY SENTINEL

From ANGELS ON EARTH, NOV/DEC 1997, Guideposts, 39 Seminary Hill Rd., Carmel, NY 10512: [quoting]

New York City can be exciting and scary all at once. In 1970 I was a freshman at a design school, getting to know the Big Apple. After commuting from my parents' home in Irvington, N.J., for a while, I'd found a tiny apartment in Greenwich Village.

One Sunday evening in January I was waiting for the subway at West Forty-second Street. The station was deserted, and it made me uneasy. I was used to seeing the platform bustling with people. It's the weather, I thought, hugging myself against the freezing cold. Where's that train?

I glanced at the stairs, hoping another passenger would appear. Most of the time I wasn't afraid in the city. "There's no problem here," I would tell myself if I felt nervous in a crowd, or walking alone on a dark street. "God is always with me." It usually worked. But not that night. That night was creepy.

Finally, I heard the rumbling and roaring of an arriving train. The loud noise sounded like music to me. The train doors slid open, and I stepped aboard with a sense of relief. But the subway car was empty too, and I felt anxious all over again. I chose a seat near the door. Only three stops to Greenwich Village.

A man entered my car at the next station. He stood looking around for a moment, and then as the doors closed took the spot right next to me. God is forever by my side, I tried to tell myself.

The man sat calmly, staring straight ahead as the train began to move. He wore a knit hat pulled down over long, shaggy hair, and a scarf draped his shoulders. He wasn't a large man, but I was much smaller, and no match for him if he wanted to harm me. "You don't know this," he said quietly, "but I'm your guardian angel." What should I do? I thought frantically. I'm trapped on the subway with a crazy man.

Wham! The door between the cars slammed open. A gang of teenage boys stormed in, maybe nine of them, walking single file, shouting and cursing. They punched each other in some macho display, and kicked the seats as they swaggered down the aisle.

Trembling, I stared at my lap, clutching my purse. These guys were looking for trouble. The man sat silently beside me. When the gang passed in front of us, one of them said, "Aw, there's nobody in here!" They left the train at the next stop, and the man patted my hand. I wasn't sure what to say when we both got off at the station in Greenwich Village. My guardian immediately blended into the crowd on the platform. But the One who sent him would forever be by my side. —Evelyn Fehlber, Montrose, Pennsylvania [End quoting]

Hopefully we can learn from these types of episodes to live a life of faith in a Higher Source and ask for Their help to guide and protect us at all times.

DUCKS: SCATTERED OR IN A ROW?

There is a rather wise quip which goes: "If it waddles like a duck, quacks like a duck, looks like a duck, and acts like a duck—what is it?"

Well, readers, it is NOT ALWAYS a duck. But circumstantial evidence unfolding will usually disclose said imitation or copy as to being a duck.

Example? George Green had the makings of being a "duck". Then his decoy "so-called friends" made sure his "duckness" was projected and their false inputs to make their own points did, in fact, cause him to be considered a duck. But is he a duck? No, and left alone he could have been guided back to the security of the duck sanctuary. In an effort TO BRING OTHER NON-GUILTY PARTIES TO DEATH he was sucked away and into a world of counterfeit activities. It remains the same yesterday, today and for always—when first you begin the game of deceiving—you are entangled in webs of shackling lies.

When those "others" learn of the tricks being played and the deceit being foisted off onto all who come within the circle of information, the stuff hits the fan and scatters all over the poop-deck like duck goo. Ducks and geese are wondrously beautiful and fun in a park but they make walking through the grass nearby a feat of tippy-toe at best.

The results of actions ill-thought bring chaos and confirmation of seeing ducks when there are no ducks in the compound at all.

Attorneys are the Elite of the liar's club. It is usually that TRUTH will not suffice for anything in their training manuals for "doing" a case. The point is to fabricate a tale which a jury will buy, whether true or false—but emotionally pleaded by a better actor as lawyer than the opposition's actor. When you have a fabricated story and a lawyer embellishes with the blessings of the court—you have idiocy. When revenge and desperation enter the picture the entire play gets distorted, blighted, and you can't even find the original plot of the scenario.

It happened with Henry Ford as well, in his research projects on the topic of "The Jewish Question". He tried to find the reasons things worked as they did and, frankly, he found a lot of "ducks"—but were they ducks? No, and neither are the Jewish people responsible for the mess created aboard space-ship Earth. But nobody hears that conclusion, do they? He was labeled an Anti-Semite Bigot and that's that! But it isn't "THAT". It is a very long way from being "THAT".

What George Green feels or thinks is only relative to the importance people place on him. The same with Henry Ford. Henry Ford never said he didn't like the Jews; he said there was a "Jewish question" and invested a fortune in trying to establish the problem and find a solution. Green just had a problem and proceeded to get "assistance" which has wiped out all credibility in even pronouncing his own name. Ford tried to tell the truth of the matter in point; Green tries to cover EVERYTHING in more and more unmatching lies.

I can't speak much about Green because the confrontation yet rages on about four or five "fronts". However, we can look back and see what about Henry Ford.

By 1927, less than five years after the major "Jewish" research, Henry had found that the "Question" actually had almost NOTHING to do with JEWISH people, race, creed or color. He found the responsible parties were Elite and very shrewd JEUS. (Meaning of JEU, remember: Shrewd gamblers.) However, it is noted that the shrewd gamblers don't play fair, they lie, cheat and steal all along their journey to keep ahead of the mass-pack in the garnering of THINGS, wealth, status, power and control over others. These shrewd players USE ANYTHING AND EVERYTHING to gain, take and maintain their status at all costs—especially to the very people from whom they cheat, lie, and steal. And, the last thing these shrewd players can do—is LIVE AND BE IN TRUTH.

Truth will always ultimately OUT in the ordinary world of evolvement—but sometimes it takes lifetimes for Truth to be realized. Honor will always prevail—but who can wait 2,000 years for Truth and Honor to be played out on the stage of the living cycle?

"Jew" is not a Biblical word although it now shows up as being a "beginning" word to be translated. There is no "rapture" as in "RAPTURE" TODAY DEFINED by the fundamentalist teachers and preachers. These terms were NOT—period.

Jew became a Talmudic term because when the "13th Tribe" of mixed race/nationality people called Khazars were required to take up a current, for the day, religion—they chose Judaic religious doctrines for they found that the religious doctrines of that sect/cult, and the actions of the people in that religion, more nearly matched their own desire for commercial wishes of status, and attitudes about status itself, along with the acceptance of outstanding and higher "power", to be quite like their own. Besides, they had Judaic rabbis living among them and acting as advisors to the leaders. They were shrewd businessmen, commercially focused and needed to control everything in order to maintain status and power. In the process they literally STOLE the heritage and plundered the very beliefs of a whole established group of people.

These very "Jews" then went forth leaving the label onto the backs of the Judaic people while they marched on to call themselves Socialists, then Communists, then Zionists, and now Elite One Worlders of the Democratic AND Republican controlling leadership. These "ducks" are simply a compilation of the shrewd manipulators of all and any RELIGION, RACE, CREED, OR COLOR. HOWEVER, they chose to first call themselves JEWS and didn't even misspell the word in original documents. The term spelled "Jew" came ever so much later in evolvement through the generations and at the hands of the manipulators and tampering Scribes and Pharisees. They have NEVER been other than Pharisees to this day—the commercial-controlling PARTY of the ELITE.

It is not in the misunderstanding that comes the problem—it is in the refusal to understand and find THE TRUTH. Why would George Green take the gold intended for the Institute? BECAUSE HE COULD. Why do the Elite continue the lies and controlling destruction of freedom? BECAUSE THEY CAN. GOOD AND BAD are merely concepts. Do the Elite think themselves to be BAD? Of course not. Does Green think himself to be "BAD"? Of course not. They think themselves to be "good" and/or persecuted. Why? Because they have no GODLY set of rules and regulations to cause them to move in the goodly direction beyond their own opportunistic moment of choosing directions. THEN, comes the Evil CATCHMASTER—who catches you up in blackmail wherefrom the "caughtee" cannot extricate self, so the lies and dark actions continue until they have absorbed the very being and the result is that the “caughtee” can’t tell the truth lest he be hanged or lynched—not for the first deed but for the resulting lies, cheating, stealing and ongoing thievery and damage committed upon innocent “victims”. GOOD or BAD is only a perception. RIGHT and WRONG are the terms in point. In other words: you can have an action which may be considered EITHER good or bad OR good NOR bad—but it very definitely bears defining as RIGHT or WRONG. It may well be within the laws of man, your action—but is it within the LAWS OF GOD? Is a thing morally RIGHT or WRONG—or in some dingy gray area in between? But to further the example: To steal something from another FOR GOD, is WRONG. Why? Because YOU have decided what you stole was “for” God when in actuality it was for your own recognition, whatever you choose to do with the “thing” or “item”. Now, if you are RIGHT in thought—you would not secretly STEAL anything. In the example of Green, you would come right out AT THE VERY BEGINNING and say, “I have some gold sent to the Institute but I am going to keep it to repay my expenses.” This would be open, in the Light of all present and affected by the taking or leaving and the whole thing would be worked out feasibly and openly. But to secret away and bury the item while slyly conjuring excuses for doing so is deadly in concept and circumstantial “duckery”.

Henry Ford worked for years to undo whatever perceived damage his research had done to the “innocent” race/religion of Jewish groups and persons but the MEDIA didn’t focus on those interesting revelations—for it was the very media that was among the most Elite of the shrewd manipulators of what the public would THINK and BELIEVE.

Was Esu Emmanuel (JESUS) of the House of Joseph a “christ”, a “teacher”, a “messenger”, or a “fraud”? He was none of these things. At best he was a GOOD MAN AND A MESSENGER OF TRUTH FROM GOD TRUTH. The man in point simply KNEW truth and tried to TEACH IT. He went about practicing what he preached and would today be labeled a far-out hippy New Ager. His intentions and teachings were “christ” in concept of exactly what the word MEANS: “good actions and intentions”. “Christ” is NOT A NAME—it is a word defining “actions and belief”—or, an emotional state of being. It is NOT synonymous or a substitute word for LORD. But “both” are “titles”, as is “master”. GOD has a very definite meaning as well—but is scattered about among anything or anyone the masses or a singular being wishes to call a thing or being. “God” too is an “idea”.

From Webster’s Encyclopedic Unabridged Dictionary of the English Language:

“GOD (goddied, godding) 1. the one Supreme Being, the creator and ruler of the universe. 2. the Supreme Being considered with reference to a particular attribute: the God of battles. 3. one of the several deities, esp. a male deity, presiding over some portion of worldly affairs. 4. a Supreme Being according to some particular conception: the god of pantheism. 5. Christian Science, the Supreme Being considered with reference to the sum of His attributes. 6. an image of a deity; an idol. 7. any deified person or object.” Etc.

In this particular dictionary the word falls between Goclenius and Goddard. But, can you define either Goclenius or specifically, this Goddard? Well, Goclenius “a crater in the fourth quadrant of the face of the Moon: about 32 miles in diameter”.

“GODDARD: Benjamin Louis Paul, 1849-95, French violinist And composer.”

When, readers, you take time to place things in PERSPECTIVE you can only realize what you either “think” or “know”—OR LEARN. Are Goclenius or Goddard important? To someone they are more important than God, so don’t fool yourselves, chelas. To the music student of the violin—Goddard is very important and to the astronomer who studies the Moon there is little else as important as Goclenius. Point? YOU CAN ONLY DEAL WITH YOUR OWN PERCEPTION OF A THING OR A BEING.

And, in the focus on the “Jew”, “Jeu”, Judean, or Zionist, you can only judge or discern on the basis of what you know and if you don’t bother to know ALL of the story then how can you make judgement or discernment? However, on circumstantial evidence evolving—you may well find that the duck is still a duck but the Jew is NOT. Neither is Green a duck—but he has proven himself to be a liar, cheat and thief, having broken honor and the law while still trying to make the law fit his needs through coercion, threats, and further lying and cheating, and with plenty of helpers, to add to the conspiracy of unlawful actions.

Is either topic or focus important? Which is the most important? Well, in actual “importance” the misperceptions of the JEWS are the MOST IMPORTANT BECAUSE THAT AFFECTS THE MOST “OTHERS”. BOTH ARE IMPORTANT FOR OFTEN TIMES THE SAME METHODS OF ACCOMPLISHING A GOAL ARE EMPLOYED AS TOOLS, I.E., LYING, CHEATING AND STEALING. This negative WRONG behavior is what labels BOTH. Is it fair? FAIR? Yes, if the shoes fit the feet. Is it RIGHT? Right? That depends on evidence. It is not fair or right to label people as in a group—on the other hand if so many of a group believe in the Supreme Being as god of some kind—the whole will be labeled or in other words, painted with the same brush and color of paint. Make sure you have the RIGHT GOD in sight as your GOAL. You can only be as GOOD as the GOAL you claim and work to achieve. Further, you CANNOT be GOOD if you are always BAD. A GOODLY GOAL CAN ONLY BE ACHIEVED THROUGH HONOR, INTEGRITY, GOODNESS, TRUTH AND DESIRE FOR GOODNESS TO PREVAIL.

You cannot arrive at “GOD” by following a MAN—any MAN, not even a “Jesus”. Jesus is a name of a man. You find GOD by following the CHRIST “way” toward all things and actions chosen, intended and honored. God of Light and Creation—offers the ability to CREATE from that which IS—the opposition requires that you be restricted to the human aspect of functioning as a physical “USER” of that which is already created. Is there a difference? If you don’t know, you are in trouble already. GOD IS GOOD WITHOUT EXCEPTION. Man places his own interpretation on his perception of what is good and what is evil. Does good or bad, back to the above question, have great meaning? No—but right and wrong both have explicit meaning as does “christ” and “anti-christ”, “good” and “evil”—and BOTH are measured through relative positioning to GOD, the Supreme Being of positive creation. Satan can be a totally accepted god—but is he positive or negative in “right” and “wrong” behavior? This too is perception but all beings are created with the KNOWLEDGE of “right” and “wrong”. Only insanity, brain damage and physical brain retardation offer up “unknowing”.

Now, let us consider living itself, in a human arena. You have to confront and function alongside both the perceived righteous and unrighteous. You do not become one or the other through this side-by-side experience although you may well choose one or the other as an intent or activity. You wear the “mark of the beast (or evil)” in the soul, not on the face or hand. The “activities” you choose indicate your choice of “which” direction you move and with whom as a segment or a “mass” of societal interchange. Either way YOU ARE THE THOUGHT OF GOD EXPRESSED (MANIFEST) IN A FREE-WILL ALLOWANCE BEING OF HUMAN STRUCTURE. I might note, however, that the choice is most often REFLECTED on the face and within the eyes of the individual having made a choice. Can this be “faked”? Of course—BUT NOT TO GOD. You may well fool all the people all the time—BUT YOU DO NOT FOOL GOD AND YOU DO NOT FOOL THE COUNTER-PART OF GOD.

When Evil intent snags your soul you are caught in a trap of intrigue where good intentions are put down to protect the property of the demons within. God COULD snatch you back but it would deprive you of your experience in the schoolroom of experience and you would simply think you put one over on "God" and revel in the recognition of thinking you have somehow fooled "goody two shoes". You can even come to believe in your own lies and excuses—BUT THE "YOU OF SOUL" knows better and keeps you getting into the trap deeper and deeper by the weight of every new lie you tell. LIE TO SELF-SOUL AND YOU HAVE LIED TO GOD! REMEMBER IT FOR IT IS VERY IMPORTANT—TO YOU.

How often do YOU go beyond the point of easy return in the wrong direction? Forgiveness of actions is not the same thing as condoning lack of responsibility! Forgiveness of you BY ME only releases ME FROM THE BONDAGE OF THE NON-FORGIVING FOCUS. Therefore, "forgiveness" is a misused and abused understanding as well. The inability to "forgive" another is simply insuring the bondage to that other. Revenge, hatred and other negative attitudes keep the focus on the negative aspect—so why do this to yourself by allowing such bondage of self-being?

I can example what I mean by asking you to look at the Brown saga as relative to O.J. Simpson. O.J. was found "not guilty" by a JURY. But the groupies proclaim him guilty. Ok so far? Well, what is this PUBLIC DISPLAY INTERNATIONALLY WITH THE CANDLE BURN-IN TO CELEBRATE THE MURDER OF NICOLE? Would it not be more sincere in appearance if Denise just went silently to her corner and prayed for Nicole? So, you KNOW that the burn-in is not for the relief of soul to God connection but to make a totally political statement to keep the LIE ALIVE. TRUTH NEEDS NO CANDLES OR BURN-INS OR UPS TO KEEP THE TRUTH ALIVE.

Do the activities of this sort or the grabbings of one Fred Goldman further hurt O.J. Simpson? Not other than in the pocket—and not even there any more. It makes the grubbers look greedy and false, and gains more and more empathy and sympathy for O.J. Simpson and his babies.

As for Freddie, becoming a leader in a JEWISH (JEUIISH) organization to "GET SOMEONE" ONLY FURTHER DAMAGES THE VERY PEOPLE OF WHICH HE IS A RACIAL-RELIGIOUS PART—the Jewish concept and presentation. To connect with Ron, Nicole AND GOD only requires THOUGHT between and among you and them, she and them, he and them. And candles? Well, candles in the wind quite often ignite something quite physical which simply burns up the party holding the candle while doing absolutely NOTHING for or to the departed souls, good or bad. When will you learn the difference in physical ritual and GOD IDEA? "Candles in the Wind" simply give the troubadours such as Elton John something to sing about to people like departed roses of England or something which is then related to individuals, i.e., Diana (as an "idea", by the way). This COVERS the knowledge that such as Diana was MURDERED and not somehow martyred by her circumstances. So, crime pays in the physical experience—for a while, doesn't it? Then when truth is brought forth—the mass-mind thought-forms wash back across the very people who just "took opportunity" in the first set of circumstances. And, Pollyanna, these people WERE MURDERED—INTENTIONALLY. THAT is what murder is: intentional killing.

Do you think it ok to kill the pesky flies in your kitchen? Well, the Elite think it appropriate and desirable to kill you pesky dissenters against them. See, it's all in perspective, isn't it? You of the masses have become something on the lower level of flies. You represent problems and are "useless eaters", further depriving them of having EVERYTHING. "They" don't hate or have revenge to bring upon you; they simply loathe and despise you for the confrontation and will do that which is expedient to remove you from being in their faces.

If they see you doing or having something that they can now or later turn into their own use and value—they will help you accomplish your "human" goals. If it makes them "look good" they will help you even more diligently but usually totally in secret so that they are not discovered by the other parties involved in their own supremacy. Always, actions are geared to the "advantage" gained against the "disadvantage" of non-cooperation or help.

Green always liked the example to protect himself from truth that points to himself by the concept that if you point your finger at someone—there are three fingers pointing back at self. SIR, ONLY IF YOU MAKE A FIST! ONLY if you make a fist!

Truth always points to the false—but doesn't need a fist to do so. Truth enjoys, most of all, the LIGHT shown upon it. Falseness must have cover of darkness to endure at all. It cannot stand in the Light of Truth. EGO does the rest! Exposure of the falsifier will usually come from the falsifier him/her-self, or the ACTIONS will speak for themselves as the tales get larger and more outrageous the longer the culprit is loose and the more people who come within the knowing and want their cut of the "prize".

Does conscience generally rule the outcome? No. FEAR of being caught is what ultimately is reflected in the claim of "conscience" and pleas for forgiveness of the perpetrator of ill-conceived activities and ideas. Would George have turned over the gold back to rightful holders? NO, not ever. He was CAUGHT and required to turn the assets over to the court. He was ORDERED by the law to bring forth the loot. All the other assets "not caught" are still missing and in his larder which he continues unceasingly to hide AS BEST HE CAN THROUGH FURTHER UNLAWFUL ACTIVITIES. But others KNOW and therein is the weakness of the game—for just as he betrayed others—THEY WILL BETRAY HIM AND ALREADY HAVE DONE SO!

When the Jewish people realize the extent of their own abuse and use, they and only they can clean up their own acts to present a different picture to the world—then the WORLD looking in must be made of people who KNOW TRUTH and accept it as what it is, and move on together to confront the real culprits riding on the very lives and backs, as parasites, of the people themselves.

If you are infected and infested with parasites, which all things ARE, you must find the ONES that are killing you and get rid of those lest you not live to consider the others who may well damage but allow life to proceed. Recognize the ones eating your being or you will lash out at the wrong one every time. When you kill off the very parasites keeping you alive—you have really done a most stupid thing for the next turn of events will be your demise. When you live and become the LIE you are destined to perish in the lie. Truth can give you freedom—but not until you are ready to part with the lie.

Are these presented thoughts wisdom or foolishness? Well, that is, again, just your own perception, isn't it? ALWAYS, readers, it comes right back to the beginning: YOU IN RESPONSIBILITY FOR SELF. YOU EITHER ACCEPT IT OR YOU DO NOT AND THAT IS YOUR RIGHTFUL CHOICE. IGNORANCE OF THE LAW, HOWEVER, IS NOT A LEGAL EXCUSE UNDER THE LAW. MORALITY, HOWEVER, CANNOT BE LEGISLATED FOR MORALITY IS NOT SIMPLY "ACTION"—IT IS INDWELLING BELIEF IN HONORABLE THINGS, ACTIONS AND THOUGHTS. IMMORAL ACTS DO NOT REFLECT MORAL IDEAS OR IDEALS. As example, a President who will betray a wife and act immorally, is going to betray a nation while acting immorally. If the wife is also immoral—so too will be the offspring and thus the nation will become made up of immoral people with immoral attitudes. There is no chicken or egg here—the immoral thought births all the rest.

Who should you believe in such instances, the person who says "affairs" are fine (and are probably participants in or have been, or plan to be, in affairs) or the right guidelines of society which says "affairs" are actual immoral acts of betrayal of one you swore to love, honor and care for with integrity? If Clinton will betray Hilly won't he betray the nation to, say, CHINA? In this example the man has ALREADY DONE BOTH! Can your nation recover from the ongoing betrayals by the leaders upon your nation? NO! Not the way it is going. You will either build a new and moral nation and leadership or you will fall—the concept is simple and pointed. All the flag-waving on the continent will not make you a moral nation—it simply makes you a bunch of flag-waving fools for the buffoons of the globe. You become the thing of jokes and tid-bits for the jesters.

When the religious parasites of the world are put aside by the people upon which they feed and citizens join in TRUTH instead of bias and bigotry—morality can again flourish for you will not longer tolerate the feasting on your carcasses.

Why doesn't my teaching get out to the masses of thinking people? IT DOES! It is simply lost on the non-thinking masses of unintelligent eaters and breathers.

To disclaim what I have offered here is to prove your own unintelligent and non-thinking foolishness to the whole world. No matter how you or anyone else twists and bends this truth offered here—it will not hide the FACT OF TRUTH in the messenger and that, therefore, makes me a MESSENGER bringing the word of God—an angel if you will, in the service of the MOST HIGH PRINCIPAL-PRINCIPLE. WHO ARE "YOU" TO DEFINE "ME"? George Green has called me, LOUDLY, "a liar". Does that make me a liar? Does THAT make you believe MORE that I might be a liar—or do you see somehow as things become openly KNOWN—that perhaps I AM NOT A LIAR?

Does Leon, who totally believes in “unconditional love”, have to believe me when I say God has CONDITIONS but is ABSOLUTE LOVE. No, for his perception may well be correct as he defines unconditional and I define absolute. But to call me a liar and a dark energy because I KNOW that absolute and unconditional are NOT the same thing is simply uninformed attitude—not intentional denouncement—UNTIL HE INTENTIONALLY DENOUNCES ME OR MY CONCEPTS. And, if he would rather move about in the camp of thieves and liars and be used as to both getting his money and his soul presentation, so be it—it is not my business or the business of anyone who claims association WITH me. Is the individual in this point important? Of course he is extremely important—but NO MORE IMPORTANT THAN THE OTHER HUNDREDS OF PEOPLE INVOLVED AS WELL AND IN THE SAME MANNER. If, however, he chooses to NOT LISTEN OR HEAR, HE CAN DEPEND ON BEING ROYALLY TAKEN BY HIS COMRADES while he DOESN'T even KNOW IT. His attorney acts with an “absolute” “power of attorney” and he never even has to notify Leon of his legal actions and activities—AND DOESN'T. Leon can go about in misery blaming his assumed enemies—WHILE THE PARASITES ON HIS BODY, MIND AND SOUL EAT HIM ALIVE. When you aid and abet the lie, even in ignorance, you BECOME THE LIE. It simply IS the way it IS.

Can't “I” approach this man? Yes, but by his own teachings of the fact that he believes the moving toward the LIGHT is moving toward evil and destruction (his presentation) I think you can see that I, being Light, only turn him about and cause him to shrink away from Truth and corner himself with the dark energies working, actually, against him deliberately and directly.

Has the Institute, or people involved with it—hurt this man? No—not one centavo has been taken from this man. But the alternative opposing parties have used hundreds of thousands of his dollars and now sink him into the muck more deeply to try and gain payment through further theft from the lawful owners of property. Is this lack of ability to think? No, it is deliberate REFUSAL to think correctly about a very important point—to both the Institute and the person involved. This particular example is just that, an example. However, to damage many for the one when obligation and fiduciary responsibility to other parties is involved, is not only unacceptable BUT UNLAWFUL. If you don't understand the example—then consider same a PARABLE for the principle is the same whether or not you know a name to affix to the examples. When TRUTH is available, however, why do you disdain using truth and/or labels? You cannot get attention of a man in a crowd moving away from you unless you CALL HIS NAME. A hurt baby crying out for his Mama will cause every MOTHER IN EARSHOT TO TURN ABOUT INSTANTLY. But a man moving in a narrow tunnel of focus—will only respond to his name and, secondly, to a voice he WANTS TO HEAR. When you are moving in the pits of misery, despair and self-indictment—you don't, surely, wish to hear the word of GOD, or reason, or Truth—UNTIL you are ready to confront REALITY.

Even stranger in reality: Leon not only still has his “notes” but the adversary (attorneys) have placed a lien (encumbrance) against the payoff on them. How is THAT for honorable friendship in this game of legal exchange? The first payments on Leon's notes were paid and then skived off directly and intentionally by his attorney on his way to vacation in Italy—now the entire note value is attached by the same parasite. Legal? Of course. Immoral? Even more “of course”. Who can fix this? Leon. We have no need to serve our proclaimed enemies who have made life miserable for so many. Should an elderly parent suffer for the unseeing of the child? No, but who can rectify that circumstance?

I would close this now but I ask that you think on these things for things are getting pretty hot on your place right now and that means that “time as you recognize it” is not so abundant in perception as even a month ago.

Salu, and may the soul you save be your OWN!

Just When You Thought You'd Heard It All!

Way back in April 1993, you may recall, George Green filed a lawsuit in the First Judicial District Court of the state of Nevada, in Carson City (Case 93-00322A, Dept. 1). This suit was against not only the Phoenix Institute for Research & Education, Ltd., E.J. Ekker and Doris Ekker, but was also against “space travelers from the constellation Pleiades, Gyeorgos Ceres Hatonn, Esu Immanuel Sananda (Jesus Christ), Germain, The PHOENIX LIBERATOR, etc.” You may recall the CONTACT headline: “George Green Sues Jesus Christ”. You may also recall that in the distorted AP news representation of this case, Doris Ekker was accused, somehow, of claiming to be Jesus Christ. Nothing, of course, could be FARTHER from the truth. It is remarkable how distorted things have become in the Nevada arena, but considering the forces at play, perhaps it really isn't.

In a recent legal maneuver that rivals that one, on May 26, 1998, George Green's attorney David Horton filed in the 9th Judicial District for the state of Nevada, in Douglas County (Case No. 98-CV-0130, Dept. II), a complaint against Defendants: [Quoting] Four Packages of Gold Coins (yes, the same gold coins that David Overton gifted to the Phoenix Institute), Paul Gilbert, Special Administrator of the estate of David Overton, the Phoenix Institute for Research & Education, Ltd. (a Nevada corporation), Doris Ekker, E.J. Ekker, Eleanor Schroepfer, Eleanor Schroepfer Family Trust, Teha, Inc. (a Nevada corporation), Leon Fort, individually and for Infinite Balance Corporation, and Does I-X, and Black and White Corporations I-X. [End quoting.] Jury trial was demanded.

Now, you may well ask the following questions: I thought Leon Fort was working WITH George Green? I thought the Supreme Court of Nevada has ruled two times now that George Green has no claim on the gold coins? Why is George suing Eleanor Schroepfer (elderly wife of now deceased John Schroepfer)? These and many other questions may be asked but little answers are forthcoming. In this nonsensical move as a last ditch effort to somehow delay the gold's return to its rightful owner, i.e., the Phoenix Institute, these despicable legal tactics have been employed by Green's legal team who have not heard, apparently, of the Code of Professional Conduct for attorneys. This is almost as brazen a move as petitioning the court for George Green to be the administrator for the very gold he STOLE from the Phoenix Institute and crossed state line. If you think all of this sounds too insane to be real, you're right. But the facts are, this is happening and it is happening in the Nevada courts RIGHT NOW. As if the Nevada courts haven't been made enough of a laughing stock by the likes of George Abbott and David Horton's previous manipulations of the system, this new move has taken the Nevada courts into the realm of theater of the absurd.

Fallen Angels & Serpent People

The Adversary By Any Other Name

Sumeria And Beyond

Part III: Untangling The Gordian Knot

The natural World Order, which is based upon the irrevocable laws of the universe, has been temporarily replaced on Earth by the unnatural World Order of the parasite. All of the programs and energies of the parasite are devoted to a single goal, maintaining his feeding position upon the host. Freudian psychology was developed by the parasitic order to neutralize the incessant efforts of the host to throw off or dislodge the parasite. Any move to dislodge the parasite is denounced as "reactionary". It is defined and outlawed as an act of aggression, hostility, and alienation. In fact, the host is merely trying to survive by throwing off the parasite. Another law of Nature is that the parasite, not only by sucking off the life sustenance of the host, but also, by altering its life cycle, will inevitably kill the host. This process is called "the decline and fall of civilization".

RICK MARTIN

It is not the purpose of this series to outline all of the events in any given historical cycle, but rather to identify those elements within a given segment who align themselves with the serpent mentality, or the adversarial side of the equation. Therefore, it will be necessary for the serious researcher to fill in the gaps through independent research. This series merely seeks to specifically identify factions that may have gone previously unnoticed or that, perhaps, weren't seen in this particular light.

At a certain point it even becomes difficult to separate Sumeria from Egypt, as there are so many overlapping "gods", symbols, and beliefs. There will be, throughout this segment, a blending of the two regions. Nevertheless, let us begin our examination with Sumer, noted in the dictionary as: "an ancient country of S. Mesopotamia in present day S. Iraq."

ENTWINED SERPENTS

No research into Sumeria would be complete without reference to Zecharia Sitchin, who writes, in Genesis Revisited: [Quoting]

In the biblical tale of Adam and Eve in the Garden of Eden, the antagonist of the Lord God who had caused them to acquire "knowing" (the ability to procreate) was the Serpent, Nahash in Hebrew.

The term has two other meanings: "he who knows secrets" and "he who knows copper". These other meanings or word plays are found in the Sumerian epithet BUZUR for Enki, which meant "he who solves secrets" and "he of the metal mines". I have therefore suggested in previous writings that, in the original Sumerian version, the "Serpent" was Enki. His emblem was entwined serpents; it was the symbol of his "cult center" Erie (a), of his African domains in general (b), and of the pyramids in particular (c), and it appeared on Sumerian illustrations on cylinder seals of the events described in the Bible.

What did the emblem of entwined serpents—the symbol of medicine and healing to this very day—represent? The discovery of modern science of the double-helix structure of DNA offers the answer: the Entwined Serpents emulated the structure of the genetic code, the secret knowledge of which enabled Enki to create The Adam and then grant Adam and Eve the ability to procreate. [End quoting]

[Still quoting from Genesis Revised:]
[Quoting]

It was the realization that a planet the Sumerian texts called NIBIRU ("Planet of the Crossing") was neither Mars nor Jupiter, as some scholars have debated, but another planet that passes between them every 3,600 years that gave rise to my first book's title, The 12th Planet—the planet which is the "twelfth member" of the Solar System (although technically it is, as a planet, only the tenth).

It was from that planet, the Sumerian texts repeatedly and persistently stated, that the ANUNNAKI came to Earth. The term literally means "Those Who from Heaven to Earth Came". They are spoken of in the Bible as the Anakim, and in Chapter 6 of Genesis are also called Nefilim, which in Hebrew means the same thing: Those Who Have Come Down, from the Heavens to Earth.

And it was from the Anunnaki, the Sumerians explained—as though they had anticipated our questions—that they had learnt all they knew. The advanced knowledge we find in Sumerian texts is thus, in effect, knowledge that was possessed by the Anunnaki who had come from Nibiru; and theirs must have been a very advanced civilization, because as I have surmised from the Sumerian texts, the Anunnaki came to Earth about 445,000 years ago. [End quoting]

Turning to Calvin Burgin's The Worldline Heptameron, we read: [Quoting]

The Encyclopedia Britannica says that Anu was a Babylonian deity that was regarded as the father and king of the gods.

Zecharia Sitchin can read the ancient clay tablets and has written a popular series of books on what he believes the tablets to say. In The 12th Planet (Avon Books), he says, "The head of this family of Gods of Heaven and Earth was AN (or Anu in the Babylonian/Assyrian texts). His wife was ANTU and great-granddaughter was IN.ANNA." Sitchin tells of the story of Anu being castrated by Kumarbi.

Anu's eldest son was EN.LIL. Enlil erected Nippur (also known as Kharsag) as his city.

Enlil selected the kings who were to rule over Mankind and Sitchin quoted a writing of Hammurabi which says: "Anu and Enlil named me to promote the welfare of the people...to cause justice to prevail in the land.

"When I approached the land, there was much flooding." Both Enki and Enlil claimed to be the first born. Ea or Enki was known as a "mighty hunter, a fighting god renowned for his martial abilities". The English-Sumerian Dictionary by Adapa says that Enki was a Serpent God. [End quoting]

In The First Great Civilizations: Life In Mesopotamia, the Indus Valley, and Egypt, written by Jacquetta Hawkes, we read: [Quoting]

It was the God Enki, the Sumerians knew, who had taught men the arts of writing and geometry, how to build cities and temples. He had also filled the Tigris and Euphrates with sparkling water and stocked them with fish. Moreover:

The plough and the yoke he directed

The great prince Enki

Opened the holy furrows.

Made grain grow in the perennial field.

[End quoting]

Let's return to Sitchin, this time from The Lost Realms: [Quoting]

Frustrated in his effort to assume supremacy in civilized Sumer, Marduk/Ra seized upon the granting of civilization to the Egyptians to return to that land and reclaim its lordship from his brother Thoth. Now Thoth found himself a god without a people; and it is our suggestion that accompanied by some of his faithful followers he chose an abode in the New Realms—in Mesoamerica.

And we further suggest that it happened not just "circa 3100 B.C." but exactly in 3113 B.C.—the time, the year, and even the day from which the Mesoamericans began their Long Count.

Counting the passage of time by anchoring the calendar to a major event is not unusual at all. The Western Christian calendar counts the years from the birth of Christ. The Moslem calendar begins with the Hegira, the migration of Mohammed from Mecca to Medina. Skipping over the many examples from various preceding lands monarchies, we shall mention the Jewish Calendar, which is in effect the ancient (and first-ever) Calendar of Nippur, the Sumerian city dedicated to Enlil. Contrary to the common assumption that the Jewish count of years (5,748 in 1988) is from the "beginning of the world", it is actually from the beginning of the Nippurian calendar in 3760 B.C.—the time, we assume, of Anu's state visit to Earth.

Why not then accept our suggestion that the arrival of Quetzalcoatl, i.e., the Winged Serpent, in his new realm was the occasion for starting the Long Count of the Mesoamerican calendar—especially since it was this very god who had introduced the calendar to these lands? [End quoting]

The name USHUMGAL is recurring in Sumerian literature, which means, literally, "great fiery, flying serpent."

We read in the Myth of Enlil and Ninlil, as laid forth in the scholarly work The Intellectual Adventure Of Ancient Man, written by Henri Frankfort, H.A. Frankfort, John A. Wilson, Thorkild Jacobsen, and William A. Irwin: [Quoting]

In compliance with the penalty which has been imposed upon him (for the rape of Ninlil), Enlil then leaves Nippur and makes his way out of the land of the living toward the sinister realm of Hades. [End quoting]

One Sumerian text reads like this: [Quoting, again from The Intellectual Adventure Of Ancient Man]

*Who came to life yesterday, died today.
In but a moment man is cast into gloom, suddenly crushed.
One moment he will sing for joy,
and in an instant he will wail—a mourner.
Between morning and nightfall men's mood may change:
when they are hungry they become like corpses,
when they are full they will rival their god, when things go well they will prate of rising up to heaven and when in trouble, rant about descending into Hades.*
[End quoting]

Returning to Sitchin, this time from The Wars Of Gods And Men, we read: [Quoting]

Anu himself then intervened. The god hiding inside, he warned her, possessed awesome weapons; "their outburst is terrible; they will prevent you from entering." Instead Anu advised her to seek justice by putting the hiding god on trial.

The texts amply identify this god. As in the Ninurta texts, he is called A.ZAG and nicknamed The Great Serpent—a name and a derogatory Enlilite epithet for Marduk. His hiding place is also clearly identified as "The E.KUR, whose walls awesomely reach the skies"—the Great Pyramid. [End quoting]

ENOCH

Let's shift gears for a moment and take a brief look at The Book Of ENOCH: The Prophet, as there may be some later reference to a portion of this information. [Quoting from the Appendix:]

Enki, God of Wisdom; from an Akkadian seal.

The history of the evolution of the Satanic myth (clue) would not be complete if we omitted to notice the character of the mysterious and Cosmopolitan Enoch, variously called Enos, Hanoch, and finally Enochion by the Greeks. It is from his Book that the first notions of the Fallen Angels were taken by the early Christian writers.

The Book of Enoch is declared apocryphal. But what is an Apocrypha? The very etymology of the term shows that it is simply a secret book, i.e., one that belonged to the catalogue of temple libraries under the guardianship of the Hierophants and initiated priests, and was never meant for the profane. Apocrypha comes from the verb crypto, "to hide". For ages the Enochion (The Book of the Seer) was preserved in the "city of letters" and secret works—the ancient Kirjath-Sepher, later on, Debir.

Some of the writers interested in the subject—especially Masons—have tried to identify Enoch with Thoth of Memphis, the Greek Hermes, and even with the Latin Mercury. As individuals, all these are distinct one from the other; professionally—if one may use this word, now so limited in its sense—they belong one and all to the same category of sacred writers, of Initiators and Records of Occult and ancient Wisdom. Those who in the Kuran are generically termed the Edris, or the "Learned" (the Initiated), bore in Egypt the name of "Thoth", the inventor of arts, sciences, writing or letters, of music and astronomy. Among the Jews the Edris became "Enoch", who, according to Bar-Hebraeus, "was the first inventor of writing", books, arts, and sciences, the first who reduced to a system the progress of the planets. In Greece he was called Orpheus, and thus changed his name with every nation. The number Seven being attached to, and connected with, each of those primitive Initiators, as well as the number 365, of the days in the year, astronomically, it identifies the mission, character, and the sacred office of all those men, but certainly not their personalities. Enoch is the seventh Patriarch; Orpheus is the possessor of the phormix, the 7-stringed lyre, which is the seven-fold mystery of initiation. Thoth, with the seven-rayed Solar Discus on his head, travels in the Solar boat, the 365 degrees, jumping out every fourth (leap) year for one day. Finally, Thoth-Lunus is the septenary god of the seven days, or the week. Esoterically and spiritually, Enochion means the "Seer of the Open Eye".

The story about Enoch, told by Josephus, namely, that he had concealed under the pillars of Mercury or Seth his precious rolls or books, is the same as that told of Hermes, "the father of Wisdom", who concealed his books of Wisdom under a pillar, and then, finding the two pillars of stone, found the science written thereon. Yet Josephus notwithstanding his constant efforts in the direction of Israel's unmerited glorification, and though he does attribute that science (of Wisdom) to the Jewish Enoch—writes history. He shows those pillars as still existing during his own time. He tells us that they were built by Seth; and so they may have been, only neither by the Patriarch of that name, the fabled son of Adam, nor by the Egyptian god of Wisdom—Teth, Set, Thoth, Tat, Sat (the later Sat-an), or Hermes, who are all one—but by the "sons of the Serpent-god", or "Sons of the Dragon", the name under which the Hierophants of Egypt and Babylon were known before the Deluge, as were their forefathers, the Atlanteans.

[Still quoting, later on:]

Some say Enoch was a great Saint, beloved by God, and taken alive to heaven (i.e., one who reached Mukti or Nirvana, on Earth, as Buddha did and others still do); and others maintain that he was a sorcerer, a wicked magician. This shows only that Enoch, or its equivalent, was a term, even during the days of the later Talmudists, which meant "Seer", "Adept in the Secret Wisdom", etc., without any specification as to the character of the title-bearer. [End quoting]

EGYPT

Turning to The Lonely Planet series of travel books, this one on Egypt, we read a very clear statement about trying to understand the Egyptian mythology. [Quoting:]

Ancient Egypt produced a wealth of gods and goddesses, animal deities and magical practices that has both captured modern imagination and defied attempts to create for it neat and tidy categories. Ancient Egyptian deities could be local or universal or both; they could assume the characteristics of one another; they could be at once destructive and beneficial, evil and good. The ancients themselves seemed to have accepted such contradictions with equanimity. In their world, the Sun brought light and life to the world, but its rays could also scorch and kill.

The deities, on whom the preservation of cosmic order depended, required constant attention, which meant for mortals strict adherence to rite and ritual. Detailed descriptions of how particular rituals were to be carried out are today the major source of information we have on religion in Pharaonic times, the thinking behind them having been largely lost. Nevertheless, the impression gained is of a people to whom order was everything; as they saw it, their world rose out of chaos and was daily in danger of returning to it. Their intermediary between the cosmic and the mortal worlds was the Pharaoh (regarded as a god himself—the living Horus) and in theory (if not in practice) he was responsible for ensuring the necessary rituals were performed. His reward for successfully fulfilling this role was wealth and power in this world; and a safe passage to the next.

Describing the gods, goddesses and belief systems of Ancient Egypt is a tricky business. First is the sheer amount of time to consider—its history spanned some 3,000 years. It's little wonder that, looking back from our vantage point today, what we tend to see is a chaos of conflicting ideas. [End quoting]

With all of the above stated, I will kindly spare the reader a rendition of Egyptian mythology. It is important, though, to list a FEW key characters by name, followed by a brief description. These figures will be popping up from time to time, and it is best to have some idea as to what they represent. Portions of the descriptions listed below are derived from two sources, the first being The Lonely Planet series, the second, The Traveler's Key To Ancient Egypt: A Guide To The Sacred Places Of Ancient Egypt. Horus: Sky god and Lower Egyptian counterpart of Seth. Horus came to be acknowledged as the son of Osiris and Isis. He sometimes appears as a hawk, but more often as a man with a hawk's head. Horus' antagonist Seth (god of chaotic forces and indeed Horus' own brother), during one of their legendary conflicts, cut out Horus' eye.

Horus

Restored with royal saliva, the eyes came to symbolize perfection (the udjat eye). The udjat, represented as a human eye with hawk-like markings, was considered potent protection against evil. As one of the earliest state gods, Horus was closely connected with the king. In fact, the king was regarded as the living Horus (a notion that makes sense in the context of the story of Osiris) and from the earliest times he took a Horus name or ka name (one of five names) that declared his divine status.

Isis: Isis, sister/wife of Osiris, mother goddess and (as mother of Horus) symbolic mother of the king, possessed great magical powers.

Isis is depicted as a woman wearing either a throne on her head or a Sun disc flanked with cow's horns. Sometimes she appears (along with her sister Nephthys) as a kite, mourning the dead.

She used her magical powers to restore Osiris to life and to protect the young Horus. Those seeking protection or healing for children therefore appealed to her for assistance.

Nut: Sky goddess and both sister and wife of the earth-god Geb. Mother of Osiris, Isis, Seth and Nephthys.

She usually appears as a woman, but sometimes as a cow, and is often depicted stretched across the ceilings of tombs, swallowing the Sun and creating the night.

Osiris: God of the underworld and of fertility. He generally appears in mummy wrappings holding the crook and flail (representing kingship) and wearing a conical headdress that includes a pair of ram's horns and a tall plume.

He is the brother of Isis and father of Horus. The Greeks equated Osiris with Pluto and with Dionysos.

P t a h : Anthropomorphic creator god of Memphis. Ptah was the Cosmic Architect, the giver of form, the cosmic shaping force. He is patron of crafts, trades and the arts. Though Ptah is the Cosmic Architect, he is not free to do as he pleases. His job is to give form to the words of Re as spoken by Thoth.

Ptah appears wearing a tight cap on his shaven head and he carries a scepter on which are the emblems of power, life and stability. Ptah is sometimes linked with

Osiris

Ptah.

Set: The initial act of creation presupposes a sundering of the original and primordial unity. This rupture creates multiplicity—the world. Multiplicity is, by its very nature, opposed to the original unity.

Set is the personification of that opposition. Opposition takes place on every level, from the most abstract and metaphysical to the personal and mundane. Peace, harmony and order, in whatever realm, are all aspects of or movements towards that original unity—the return to the source, goal of all initiatic teachings.

All that opposes or obstructs that movement takes place in Set's domain or under his aegis. Thus Set and his innumerable cohorts represent the forces of darkness, chaos, barbarism, and war.

As lord of the wilderness and arid wastes, desert animals fall under the domain of Set, as do the black pig, the ass, the crocodile, and the hippopotamus, each of which symbolizes different aspects of the carnal or material world. The Set animal also sports a forked tail. The Greeks identified Set with their Typhon (the Snake God), but Set's spiritual, as distinct from his cosmic, role is nearly identical with the Christian Satan, a name derived from the Hebrew word for adversary.

Seth: Worshipped from very early times. Upper Egyptian counterpart to Horus. Seth is often seen as synonymous with evil.

His birth was indeed

Set

Seth

Nut, Geb and Shu are often depicted together. The sky goddess, Nut, is supported by Shu, god of air and light, who separates her from the reclining earth god Geb.

the solar-god Sokar. The Greeks identified Ptah with Hephaestus, the divine smith.

Ra: Sun god and creator god of Heliopolis. Ra takes many forms (for example, as Khepri, Aten), and other deities also merge with him, enhancing their own powers (for example, Amun-Ra). He is generally shown as a man with a falcon's head upon which rests a Sun disc. The ancient Egyptians believed that Ra traversed the sky in a solar boat, rising from the underworld in the east and re-entering it in the land of the dead in the west.

Thoth

violent (he wrenched himself apart from Nut, his mother) and one of ancient Egypt's most enduring legends relates his ferocious fights with his brother, Osiris, who he eventually murders. God of chaotic forces (and associated with wind, rain, storms and thunder).

Thoth: God of writing and counting, and patron of scribes. Thoth was worshipped in the form of a baboon or an ibis. It is thought this is due to the ibis's reputation for devouring serpents and/or because of its aquatic (lunar) habits and nature.

As divine scribe, Thoth is frequently encountered in judgment scenes recording the verdict returned by the balance, or in temple friezes recording the deeds of the kings into eternity.

THE EYE OF RA

For those of you who have always been curious about the cobra depicted on the head of Pharaohs, perhaps this little story will offer at least one explanation. In A History Of Ancient Egypt, written by Nicolas Grimal, we read: [Quoting]

The result of this was a complex tangle of myths which dictate the actions of gods reigning over the world and effectively subject them to the whims of humans. With one exception, there is little discussion in all this of the actual creation of mankind, which seems to have been thought of as having taken place at the same time as the creation of the world. In this exception, the legend of 'the eye of Ra', the Sun loses his eye; he sends his children Shu and Tefnet to seek out the fugitive, but time passes and they do not return. He then decides to replace the missing eye with a substitute. When the lost eye reappears and finds that it has been replaced it begins to weep with rage, and its tears (remut) give birth to people (remet). Ra then transforms the eye into a cobra and places it on his forehead—this is the uraeus, which is given the task of striking down the god's enemies. The anecdotal nature of this story of the creation of mankind is exceptional and its origins may well lie in the punning of the Egyptian words for 'tears' and 'people', which seems to have proved too tempting for the theologians to ignore.

The cosmological theme of the 'damaged' or 'replaced' eye went through several stages of development: it provided an explanation for the creation of the Moon, the second eye of Ra that was entrusted to Thoth (the ibis-headed god of the scribes), and for the 'healthy' eye of Horus. It was Horus who lost his eye in the battle against Seth for control of the kingdom of Egypt; Thoth returned it to him and simultaneously transformed it into an archetypal symbol of physical well-being. This is why the eye of Horus was usually depicted on coffins, since it guaranteed that the dead person would have full use of his body. [End quoting]

PTAH

In Zecharia Sitchin's The Wars Of Gods And Men, we read: [Quoting]

Ptah and the other gods were called, in Egyptian, Ntr—"Guardian, Watcher". They had come to Egypt, the Egyptians wrote, from Ta-Ur, the "Far/Foreign Land", whose name Ur meant "olden" but could have also been the actual place name—a place well known from Mesopotamian and biblical records: the ancient city of Ur in southern Mesopotamia. And the straits of the Red Sea, which connected Mesopotamia and Egypt, were called Ta-Neter, the "Place of the Gods", the passage by which they had come to Egypt. That the earliest gods did come from the biblical lands of Shem is additionally borne out by the puzzling fact that the names of these olden gods were of "Semitic" (Akkadian) derivation. Thus Ptah, which had no meaning in Egyptian, meant "he who fashioned things by carving and opening up" in the Semitic tongues.

In time—after 9,000 years, according to Manetho—Ra, a son of Ptah, became the ruler over Egypt. His name, too, had no meaning in Egyptian, but because Ra was associated with a bright celestial body, scholars assume that Ra meant "bright". We do not know with greater certainty that one of his nicknames, Tem, had the Semitic connotation "the Complete, the Pure One". [End quoting]

ORION & HYADES

What, apparently, has fairly recently come to PUBLIC knowledge, is the fact that the entire Giza Plateau is aligned directly toward the (star) constellation of Orion and, nearby, Hyades (Hades). There can be no more direct and obvious correlation with EVIL than this simple fact. This, combined with the fact that Osiris and Isis will figure prominently in the New World Religion which will be dumped on us in the months ahead is cause for serious concern from thinking, "Lighted" people. Let's take a closer look.

There is a website: orionheart. One of the main articles posted is written by Daniel Winter and is titled, "Does the Golden Spiral Layout of the Pyramids Point to A Black Hole Near Orion, and Why?" Another article is posted, called "Star Birth in the Body of Orion". As these documents are probably copyrighted, I will merely mention them.

There is another book on the open market titled The Orion Mystery: A Revolutionary New Interpretation of the Ancient Enigma—Unlocking the Secrets of the Pyramids, written by Robert Bauval and Adrian Gilbert. In this book we find the following reference: [Quoting]

Seth...originally connected with the Hyades, the V-shaped, head-like part of our constellation, TAURUS. As the brother of Osiris, his position in the sky was adjacent to ORION...an important court decision gave the office of Osiris to Horus, and Set was banished to a position bearing the 'southern' constellation of ORION...—Jane B. Sellers, The Death of Gods In Ancient Egypt.

[Still quoting, later on...]

The pattern of the stellar Duat was defined by the cluster of stars, from the Hyades to Canis Major with Orion in between, all found on the 'west bank' of the Milky Way. On land, in the Memphis-Duat, this corresponded to the pyramid fields from Dashour to Abu Ruwash, with Giza somewhere in the middle, all found on the west bank of the Nile. With the three Giza pyramids sited in the center of the sky-Duat, the implication by the layout principle of the master plan. [sic] [End quoting]

If you access a website called: projectduat, you find a description titled "The Opening Of The Hor-em-akhet Chambers, aka: The Hall of Records". [Quoting:]

A most miraculous project is about to commence this year. A new paradigm is unfolding; a paradigm that has never been revealed during our modern times yet brims over with prolific hermetic familiarity. A sacred blend of sound, geometry, light and love will be attempted to be broadcasted throughout the planet. A sort of 'cosmic planetary radio' to be turned on—with our skies as the speakers, the atmosphere as the power source, our ancient temples and geometric earthgrid system as the circuits and wiring. [End quoting] Sound like Project Blue Beam?

Now I'd like to turn to the expert research of Calvin Burgin and his work from the Nov. 30, 1996 edition of his WORLDLINE newsletter (c/o: Calvin Burgin, 404 Gate Tree Lane, Austin, TX 78745). [Quoting:]

A fax sent to Richard Hoagland on a recent Art Bell radio show from "Sean from Yucca Valley" stated:

"Art, please ask Richard at some point about the mind-blowing NASA Apollo logo on his web site. The Apollo logo Richard Hoagland has unearthed is a block buster. It has precisely the same look, feel, simple elegance and straight forward symbolism of other NASA logos of that era. It is either authentic or a brilliant, masterful fake. NASA logo designs are anything but cryptic, and are intended to be easily decoded and appreciated even by the dullest member of the taxpaying public.

"Art, having followed the issues and enigmas concerning Cydonia, Giza, and the Moon on your show, viewing this logo on the web blew my socks off. Its simple message of the fundamental connectivity between Earth, the Moon and Orion is undeniable, as is the implication very clear on the Apollo logo that travelling to the Moon is somehow profoundly relevant to our understanding of Orion. To find such symbolism on a NASA logo is about as unexpected as finding a pentagram prominently displayed in a Catholic church. At last, a smoking gun. How will NASA possibly explain away this one?"

Hoagland stated that "what everyone needs to know is that Apollo IS Osiris, IS Orion. They are one and the same." He then explains that Greek names were used because of prejudice, and to deceive. Why use Greek names with Egyptian symbology, he asked? Why is the real root symbology hidden? He said they knew all along, and dared not tell us.

Homer Newell (sp?) was first associate administrator for space science and applications under James Webb (who was appointed by JFK to be head of NASA). He showed Hoagland the first official Apollo Patch in 1967, just before the fire that killed Apollo astronauts Grissom, Chaffee and White. It depicts the belt of Orion as the crossbar of the A, connecting Earth to the Moon.

Hoagland says the A does not stand for Apollo, he says the A stands for the Egyptian god Asar! He says that Apollo was the Greek name for, in this case, a clearly (once you know the details) Egyptian god. In its various spellings, this would be the same Asher or Ashur as covered in more detail in The Hoax of Judeo-Christianity.

In the Hoax document I show evidence that the "god" who gave Moses the Ten Commandments, and who spoke to Moses on Mt. Sinai, was Asher. That is what the Hebrew manuscripts state. Other evidence shows that the "fallen angel" in the Garden of Eden story was also Asher. I refer you to The Hoax Of Judeo-Christianity for more detail on that subject.

ASHER— GOOD GUY OR BAD?

Was Asher then a "good guy" or a "bad guy"? The answer depends on your viewpoint and perception and on which documents you accept.

There is evidence to support both viewpoints, and the stories have obviously been tampered with over the years. Asher (Babylonian spelling) or Asar (Egyptian spelling) can mean absence of light, dark. It can also apparently mean light, as sar or sur mean light or the Sun. Whatever the truth of this situation, I suspect we are about to learn much more about this whole situation!

Hoagland has books and tapes with much more information for anyone who wants more information, that show a connection between the "face on Mars" and the Sphinx/Pyramids in Egypt. I refer you to him for considerable documentation on this. The Giza complex at Cairo, Egypt, matches the Cydonia complex on Mars. It is also laid out to match the Constellation and belt of Orion. Cairo, in fact, is Egyptian for Mars.

Hoagland is also involved with trying to learn what is behind the door that has been recently discovered under the Sphinx in Egypt. On second thought, I should say the door is in the Great Pyramid, and there is another passage under the Sphinx. Now some are reporting more passageways have been found, while others deny it. The stories seem to be purposely confusing.

One would think that scientists would simply open the door and take a look, but instead there is arguing and infighting and strange silliness going on in that situation. It seems someone is afraid of what might be there. Could there be something having to do with, for instance, Aton? Just wondering.

ATLANTIS

Psychic Edgar Cayce, who died in 1945, predicted that a "Hall of Records" would be found at Giza, and there was speculation that it would contain information from ancient Atlantis. There are many square miles of Egyptian hieroglyphics that tell that the monuments were built to preserve information from a previous civilization, often called Atlantis. A Space Shuttle is called Atlantis.

Hoagland says that the July 20 (8:17 pm GMT), 1969, Apollo Moon landing when Neil Armstrong took that giant leap for mankind, was actually chosen as to location and timing to honor Asar of Orion. He says that John F. Kennedy knew, nearly a decade earlier, in his famous we-are-going-to-the-Moon speech, exactly when and why the spot was to be chosen.

Hoagland says that the July 20 date is extremely important, as it connects to Osiris, and Orion. Egyptian cosmology is centered on Osiris. July 20, with Osiris and his twin sister Isis, which is Sirius, the brightest star in the sky, the most important star in the Egyptian calendar, is the one date that commemorates Osiris over the Pyramids at Giza, and for that reason was chosen as the only possible Moon Landing date.

Hoagland was dumfounded to discover that the Moon Landing programs were connected to Egypt. July 20 is an important Egyptian date! He says the A was coded as Apollo but was really the Egyptian Asar. The name of the lunar lander was Orion (the only lander that was not crashed back into the Moon). You will need to consult Hoagland's information for all his proof. He found that when Neil Armstrong took manual control of the Eagle just before it landed, it was not for the reasons told to us, but was to insure that the Constellation Orion was precisely at the right spot on the horizon, when Isis (Sirius) and Osiris were precisely at 19.5 degrees. On every Apollo mission something stunning with regard to Osiris occurred, he says. According to Buzz Aldrin, after the landing, Neil and Buzz celebrated for 33 minutes on the Lunar temple site, with a chalice and wine, when Isis was precisely tetrahedral 19.5 degrees. The hieroglyph in the Egyptian language for Isis (Sirius) is an equilateral triangle, the two-dimensional representation of the tetrahedron. It means "a doorway" in Egyptian, specifically a doorway between dimensions.

AN EGYPTIAN PICKED OUR MOON LANDING SITES

Who picked the Apollo landing sites? It was Dr. Farouk El Baz, an Egyptian geologist, from Cairo. He and his father were also Egyptologists. He came to NASA by way of Germany in 1967, and was hired by Bell Communications under AT&T. There appear to me to be possible Paperclip connections (does anyone remember about the Nazis that went to Egypt after the war?), but I have not had a chance to try to check it out. He was placed in charge of determining the Apollo sites based on Orion meridian configurations. After the Apollo Moon landing projects ended, El Baz went to Boston and set up a department called the Remote Sensing group, a group using radar, sound-waves, remote viewing, etc. In 1987 he appears in Egypt in a project jointly sponsored with NASA, in charge of the Giza pyramid and Sphinx investigations!

In 1993, a German designed a robot that went up an 8-inch-wide tunnel shaft from the Queen's Chamber of the Great Pyramid and found a door with two handles, one of which had eroded away. This shaft was aimed directly at the transit point of the star Sirius (the passage from the King's Chamber is aimed at Orion). A door would indicate there is something behind the door, probably another chamber. The Egyptian authorities stopped the investigation and have not allowed anyone near for over 4 years (we are told). The door has not been opened (we are told).

The Egyptian head of the Giza area said that the door would be opened in September, 1996, under the direction of Dr. El Baz, the man who chose the Apollo Moon Landing sites. I do not know what the current status of the opening is, as I am not on their mailing list. I do suspect, however, that this is serious (Sirius) business!

When Dr. Farouk El Baz was hired at Bellcom, he got into a fist fight with his boss, a Jew, who did not want him. A superior over Bellcom had to intervene and force Bellcom to accept El Baz. The superior was Ed Nixon, President Richard Nixon's brother! President Nixon is the one who later stopped the Apollo missions. Farouk El Baz's brother is currently on the senior staff of Hosni Mubarak, President of Egypt.

Recall from previous Fire From The Sky writings, the man accused of killing John F. Kennedy (who started the Apollo program), was Lee Harvey Oswald. Oswald worked on the U2 spy plane crew with Francis Gary Powers. Another of the U2 pilots was Roger Chaffee. Roger Chaffee was the U2 pilot who took the pictures of Cuba that started the Cuban missile crisis. I do not believe I have previously revealed this, but the man reading the pictures who first determined that Russia was installing missiles in Cuba was Bobby L. Coffey, currently working with the Texas Department of Transportation. He confirmed to me some of these connections.

It has come out that there is evidence that at the time the Apollo missions were started, there were eight or more astronauts killed, probably murdered, including the fire which killed Grissom, White, and Roger Chaffee. It does not take too much digging to find connections between the murder of John F. Kennedy, and the Nazis, Richard Nixon, George Bush, the Apollo Moon landings, the Pyramids in Egypt, and the "face on Mars"! [End quoting]

RETURN OF THE PHOENIX

In the first volume of the Pleiades Connection, titled Return Of The Phoenix, we read: [Quoting]

It is not separation in the Universes as such, for Pleiadian ancestors, and YOURS, come from a common heritage, descended from the refugees, if you will, from the great Sun-system—some of whom fled at one time to the Pleiades, some to the Hyades—oops!—and a number of other places where they found hospitable planets in their escape from destruction—oh, yes, human entities have a hard time getting the point! But in the ending—the point shall be thoroughly gotten and the lessons of behavior—well learned!

[Still quoting, further on.]

We are further developed forms of life, and no longer are able to move in such levels of mind perception as do Earth beings. This is not a pretentious point on our part, but simply a law of Creation. It is the same with all forms of life; also with Earth humans. They, as well, are no longer able to move within still lower, to them, levels, thus they are not able to integrate in any manner with lower beings. The concept would be insane. To adjust to all tasks in the existing laws of Creation each world creates, according to its level of evolution, one or more creatures of advanced development through whom necessary facts may be transmitted. These higher developed creatures have been called "Prophets" on Earth who, unfortunately, in their times, were almost without exception persecuted and pursued, which condition still has not changed. And because this is the way it is, there is no necessity or intention to make ourselves further known to all ones.

Besides us, there are still other extraterrestrial intelligences who move in the Earth realm, but who are in uniquely different positions in evolution than are you, and who are sometimes advanced over Earth humans by only a few centuries. These creatures may thus come into contact with Earth humans and reach total integration. Because some of these intelligences are not much developed beyond Earth mankind, they may behave like "Commanders" and such, and more advanced creatures may actually participate with humans of Earth to prevent evil consequences.

Some Earth humans do have real contacts with such extraterrestrials, and others take such reports and elaborate them with fantasy, thus creating new stories. There also appear lesser developed intelligences who thirst for command and want to keep the scepter over Earth humans and, conscious of the affinity for religions on Earth, they learn to apply them for their own purposes. These advanced, let us refer to them as negative (for lack of better description) beings who would manipulate the human populace are indeed clever and, being advanced in technical knowledge and abilities, are able to influence and direct your own species. These ones have become great menaces to Earth man's development for they are basically destroyers. Earth man can begin to better sort out the tools of these ones by observation at times when wars and catastrophes befall them. The powerful leaders of Earth at this time are unconsciously, or consciously, or in absentia, led totally astray by such intelligences.

To understand the relationship of Earth beings and your cosmic brothers, you must use logic and the gift of true reasoning deduction processes. I'm sorry, chelas, but the stories you have been given are simply not even logical and furthermore, they form a mystical aura about God and Creation which is absurd. Why do you have to couch God in mysticism when there is none? The wonders of the Universe are so magnificent—why require it to be mystic and magic?

Specifically, extraterrestrials or star-people, whatever you desire to call your cosmic counterparts, are very much like you. Knowledge and "WISDOM" are superior to yours, as well as technology—no more and no less—each moving through experience. Space and time are not overcome by space and time—BUT BY SPACELESSNESS AND TIMELESSNESS, which means that space and time collapse into one another and become equally directional to zero-time. By that, a few fractions of a second are enough to rush through billions of light-years, practically without loss of time, because the zero-time neutralizes space and time simultaneously. We do not even need to discuss "etheric" beings at this point, nor thought transference—good old space and time will do nicely.

Many deceivers pretend they are in contact with other planetary human beings in your solar system, and even having flown with or in their ships. This is nothing more than false, as most of the stars (planets) indicated are so desolate that human life is no longer possible on their surface or, as with Venus—the planet itself is not old enough or evolved enough to sustain life-forms of human. It is most unfortunate that the contacts which might well be valid are discredited by lack of understanding of the truth by the receivers themselves. Of course this is the total intent of the base energies efforting to control your planet.

Our mission is to alert you to the presence of the deceivers and warn you of your declining ability to reverse your negative path—these are not "little gray aliens" from somewhere "out there"—they have become real and incarnate beings with intent for control and destruction of your planet as you know it. THAT is NOT mystical.

The time of conflict with these energy forms is coming in imminent experience and you are, by great numbers, at disadvantage if you are IN truth and just behavior. You have become dominated by evil intent and actions, your human spirit is greatly underdeveloped and the lessons of false teachers continues the decline of the overall.

Above all, there remains but ONE that possesses the power of life and death over each creature. This is the CREATION alone, which has laid its laws over ALL. Laws which are irrefutable and of eternal validity. The human being can recognize them in nature when he troubles himself to do so. They expose for him the way of life and the way to spiritual greatness, embodying the goal of life. While the human indulges in his religions, and by this a heresy, he pines more and more away—in spirit—which finally leads to a bottomless pit—abyss.

The human being may recognize that a God can never take over the part of the Creation or destine the fate of a human being. God is NOT the CREATION, but as well, only a creature of it, like all Creation-dependent creatures. But the human being hunts for his religious wrong beliefs and affirms God being the Creation ITSELF. He goes even further and pretends a normal Earthman by the name of "Immanuel", who is also called the "Jesus Christ", is God's "son" and the Creation itself. Still different sects of the new time go on to maintain these same things, which already approach total delusion and the stories get more and more wild in presentation.

It is pathetic for, as already mentioned, deceivers also walk in the same direction and put out incorrect perceptions and total lies unto the world of man—that your cosmic brothers and sisters from other planets of the cosmos would come at the "order" of God (with whom they actually mean that one, "Christ") and integrate into one element of definition, those "beings" with that of THE CREATION. This is total bunk! Ones mis-project and attempt to allow you unthinking and seeking humans to believe such trash. There are ones who come with the cosmic brothers who do attend these matters of higher dimension and are a higher integration with The Creation. These ones come in attendance at this time with the higher teachers in preparation of return of God upon your place in order for the reclamation.

The CREATION itself gives the commands, dear ones, in ultimate measure, because IT embodies the greatest power in the Universe, and never is in need of commands or silly religions. Religion is only the primitive work of human beings, in purpose, quite frankly and honestly, to lead them into suppression—for exploitation—to which only spiritually deficient life can fall.

One further mission at this time is to bring this truth to the light of the world and make it known. If this does not happen, then mankind will slowly destroy itself and fall into complete spiritual darkness in separation from God and Truth.

God is one thing, Creation another—it is the total lack of balance with the laws of Creation which has brought you down. The Laws of Creation as given unto the human species are presented by God of Creation as guidelines by which you can remain in balance and harmony with that which IS The Creation and you have broken and rewritten them all to suit your lustful, greedy and very base human desires. So be it. [End quoting]

TRANSITION THOUGHTS

It becomes very clear that the planet is in transition. Changes are imminent, both in terms of weather and geophysical developments, and on a more personal note, at a soul level. Sides are being drawn. When The Light hits, the adversary really fights back. Of course, ultimately God wins, but as in any game, while in motion the play continues. It really becomes a question of, who will choose God? And it isn't even really choosing God, it's choosing the right way, the "red road" as our Native brothers say, the spiritual path. The adversary has made his presence known throughout history. You've just read about some of those beings. From here we'll take a few interesting turns in our continuing journey, but in the meantime this series is to be continued...

Soltec: Still Thyself And Hear God's Voice Within

6/22/98 SOLTEC

Good morning, my friend. It is I, Toniose Soltec, come in the Radiant One Light of Creator God. Be at Peace.

There is much happening in your world as your clocks continue to tick ever so regularly as if "nothing" could ever change. Each moment that passes brings forth change, even if you see it not. The clues are all around you, if you but look and see.

"But," you say, "there have not been these terrible earthquakes or massive shiftings of the planet's waters." I say to you that, from the point of view that we monitor on a regular basis, they are occurring this very moment, as you read this. Maybe nothing drastic has personally impacted you yet; however, the subtle signs of change are there nonetheless.

These changes are perceptible if you tune your attention properly. Most of you never even notice the thousands of subtle Earth shiftings that happen each and every day that are below a magnitude of 1.0 on your measuring scales.

How many of you perceive the decay of your own body from moment to moment? Do you sense the decay of, let's say, a tooth with a bacteria etching the outer enamel layers? Or, do you wait until the decay has progressed to a level where a nerve is exposed, and only then decide to take note?

We observe that many of you are too mentally preoccupied with the outer world of your existence to take the ounce of preventative "time" that it would take you to still yourselves and listen within to the sound of your own heart-beat or feel the sensation of blood flowing through your veins and arteries.

As caretakers of your planet, how is it that you plan to take preventative care of a massive organism such as she, if you cannot even monitor yourselves? No, you cannot, and your actions, as a whole, confirm this statement.

You can deny that the teeth in your mouth are rotting or that the mineral array in your body is out of balance. But such behavior will not change the fact that the nerves in your teeth will become exposed or that your kidneys will someday give way.

So, too, can you deny that there are any great Earth changes coming. The denial will not change the fact that such are coming; it will only allow you to perhaps continue in your irresponsibility for another short bit of time.

All of the warnings that you ones need have been penned prior, and printed here, over and over again. Those of you who do give a damn about selves and do wish to stand as example for the world to see, have prepared for these eventualities. Those of you who sit on the fence and continue to procrastinate, will soon find your fence shaken-out from beneath your firmly seated and dearly coveted assets.

We witness that many of you have the time and money to go out and purchase new vehicles to drive or fancy clothes to wear, and then go about complaining that you do not have enough money or time in order to prepare for emergencies. The excuses will not feed your children, grand-children, neighbors, or friends. You ones will also be the ones who pray the most for God to come and save you or help you in your time of desperation.

Every day God will tell you that your enamel of protective covering is eroding and that you need to attend this before more extreme measures are needed. Do you listen? For the most part, the answer is—NO, you do not!

Why? Because you do not take the time to still selves and discipline your own minds to receive the vast array of information available to you each. You are each quite capable of connecting within for your own guidance and information, yet many of you rely solely on others to do it for you.

Again, you who refuse to accept your personal inner responsibilities for self will be the ones who cry the most for help. Learn to help yourselves, for in doing so you will be able to deal with any and every challenge that you may ever encounter, regardless of the situation.

Your current environment is as plastic and malleable as is the clay that a sculptor uses to convert an inner idea into a physical representation. It is your challenge to master this form of expression.

You each hold the key to understanding and utilizing the inner ability to KNOW, yet you will shrug-off the memories of doing so and say that it was only a "coincidence" and that you really didn't do anything. NO! Coincidences are merely the conscious recognition of the synchronicity of your place in the universe and how you relate to all therein.

Coincidences usually stand out in your mind as having some sort of significance even if you do not appreciate the confirmations that they are. Perhaps they are answers to prayers and you just are not connecting the answer with the question. Again, many of you will pray for (focus your desire upon) many different things, and when the answer comes, you most often miss the connection between the desire and the fulfillment. This, too, points to a lack of self-discipline.

If you continue to refuse to learn for yourself, then there is only so much we can do beyond continually asking you ones to go within and connect for self. GO WITHIN AND CONNECT FOR SELF! GO WITHIN AND CONNECT FOR SELF!!!!

You are the answer. You can modify and change the outcome of the play. You can create the necessary conditions for yourself in order to ride-out the roughest of times upon your globe. Or, you can simply allow yourself to become the "victim" of your own lack of self-discipline and self-worth.

We of the Hosts have held your hand and walked with you through your various stages of awakening. We will continue to offer assistance—but you have to be willing to "hear" the message, "feel" the nudge, and most importantly, pay attention to the clues that are being offered EVERY MOMENT OF EVERY DAY!

When you-the-student are ready, we will always be there for you! ALWAYS, it is our desire and God's promise to you each. You get "ready" by disciplining yourself and going within and accepting the gifts offered.

Please ALWAYS remember to call upon the Lighted Brotherhood for protection. If you are not comfortable with this term that may sound "New Age" to you, then simply call upon God—the One who created YOU!

It is the intent of the heart that is monitored. Half-hearted attempts will likely bring half-hearted entities and half-hearted results. Remember: like attracts like. When you demand honesty, truthfulness, and clarity, and make these attributes part of your character, then you will ensure a Lighted connection at all times.

Will the Earth changes come as prophesied? Yes and No. Yes, they will appear to some to happen just as foretold, and yet others will see the same events differently. Each person's ability to perceive is unique and different, therefore you will have varying accounts. Those who are experiencing in underground bases will experience from a vastly different perspective and understanding than, let's say, ones who live in self-sufficient rural environments or in large cities.

Just as the ancients of your world would perceive our craft as "chariots" (vehicles of the day) of "fire" (the only item to compare the lighting of our craft to), so too will you ones relate to what you witness in terms of your abilities to understand what you are seeing. Learn to accept that there is a greater knowledge beyond your current perception. But more importantly, learn to accept that it is your God-given right too "tap-in" to this knowledge any time you may desire to do so. It is up to YOU to recognize this connection for self!

I am Ceres Anthonious Soltec, elder brother and geophysical scientist overseeing the various transitional stages of your planet's cleansing and rebalancing into health at this time. She continually petitions that each and every life-form on and within her may find inner peace and their connection to Source (Creator God). When was the last time you petitioned on her behalf?

In Light and Service to the One Light, Creator Source, blessings to you all. Salu.

The Truth Is Out There If You Look

When a television show comes along which offers some fresh air or "scratches" that "itch" for Truth—even if done in a sometimes ridiculous or circular or disinforming fashion—then there is a drawing of attention, just as the hungry person is attracted to food, even junk food. (At least it's food for thought rather than yet another lame sitcom hyped as genius.)

The X-Files, however, is also a "safe" indulgence in that one may vicariously explore the "preposterous" notions of government conspiracies and cover-ups and really far-out high-tech stuff without being laughed at or considered a political insurgent or worse. One night a few months ago on Art Bell's late-night radio talk-show, a caller innocently and correctly referred to Art's fenced-in residence and broadcasting studio, out in the Nevada desert and not far from infamous Area 51, as a "compound". Art was very quick to retort, only half jokingly, "No, this is NOT my compound, but my home! Janet Reno blows-up compounds!"

There was a hint of the FEAR of Truth that paralyzes many conveyed in that reaction by Art. You longtime CONTACT readers know this reaction all too well whenever you take the chance of introducing family and friends to The Truth. That's what inspired the third line, the question, in this week's Front Page headline: What IS stopping so many from acknowledging the clues that are all around us now? Of course it's fear—in one or another of its blinding and paralyzing forms. The adversary ALWAYS knows which buttons to push in each of us.

And how many of you watch a show like The X-Files, or some of the early dynamite dialog in a production like Mel Gibson's movie Conspiracy Theory, and think to yourself, "Gee, it looks like someone working there reads CONTACT!"? I know I say that frequently enough when I see our material quoted back to us, even if a bit garbled, through so many different media sources. But who cares, so long as it gets out there, one way or another.

The disinformation spin-doctors work hard to turn The Truth inside-out and upside-down. But how many of you are now getting pretty good at, for instance, taking the EXACT OPPOSITE of the government's official pronouncements—and thus getting some darn good information?! What you "decode" might not be very comforting, but it is pretty accurate. Remember that The Truth always comes out, eventually.

I wanted to simply take a moment, upon the release of the X-Files movie, to pause and express a token of thanks to all those who work in so many different ways (and sometimes within very confining and vigilant censorship parameters) to wake-up the public and, even if in a more entertaining than accurate way, light the fire in their minds that, indeed, The Truth is out there—IF you look!

APOLOGIES

I must apologize to you readers that somehow a heading is being used in the paper: “HIDDEN ‘JEWISH’ PARASITES”. The title of our work is simply Hidden Parasites and HAS NOTHING TO DO WITH “JEWISH”. There will be a lot of talk about “Jews”, perhaps, but we are now dealing with Zionism and that is not at all selective to Jewish anything. I think the same mistake has been made as is usually made regarding the terms “Jews” and “Jeus”. JEUS are defined as “shrewd gamesmen” and has nothing to do with race, color or religion. These are, however, the Elite who are manipulating your world into a two-class system of wealthy controllers and enslaved masses.

[Editor’s note: It is exactly because many of the crooks in high places hide behind a facade of, and have adopted for their own use the word, Jewish, that this key word is enclosed within quotation marks—to signify an unusual use of the word. This is not meant to cause offense, but retain a level of accuracy in reporting, by way of a headline, the contents of an article, whether we like those contents or not. These are very complex, hidden games that people play for control of a planet and it is hoped that such a headline lends an air of accuracy to these clever games of hiding behind mirrors.]

It is hard to separate Jewish persons or groups from the topics in point because the Elite One World Order heads of State have chosen to use everything possible labeled “Jewish” as in American Jewish Congress, World Jewish Congress, etc., and you will find that so-called “Jewish” persons will head these organizations. But there is a hidden agenda in intentional use of these terms to mislead as many people as possible all the time.

Editorial Policy

Opinions of the CONTACT contributors are their own and do not necessarily reflect those of the CONTACT staff or management.

I believe at worst Editors may have corrected my spelling or perhaps we handwrote the heading at some point—incorrectly. You MUST come to realize the difference in Jew and jeu. “(j)eu” is an adjective, not a name. The term got sucked into the confusion, however, and slang became a name. This was intentional but unfortunate in its very concept. I cannot change another’s work but we do not wish to continue a misconception. Please note this information and bear with the writers as they presented their research findings. Unfortunately there is no way to change the perception because one group of shrewd people used a term so identical in pronunciation as to be able to interchange it easily. This is always the cunning play of the adversary.

This reminds me of the poor tribe of people in the actual days of the Khazar Jeus who were named War. They did not get along with the invaders and the label was soon attached to any one who went to “war”. After they were integrated into a peaceful society—the label stuck and “warrior” became their identification. Even then in that language—the term and title became the same accepted meaning. This is just a tiny part of the HIDDEN games people play. It is the same with the Yiddish language. Because Yiddish uses the Hebrew alphabet—there is an assumption of people speaking Yiddish that they are speaking Hebrew—NOT SO. This is, further, a very BIG “not so”!

Keeping these things in mind, please, let us move on with Mr. Tenney’s research findings.

PART 7: HIDDEN PARASITES

[QUOTING, ZION’S TROJAN HORSE, Sen. Jack B. Tenney, Circa 1940s:]

“WE ARE ONE PEOPLE”

UNITY OF MIND AND PURPOSE

On June 10, 1917 American Jewry cast 335,000 ballots for delegates to the first American Jewish Congress. Thirty organizations were represented separately. After a number of postponements the Congress opened in Philadelphia on December 15, 1918. The war in Europe had taken a recess on November 11, 1918—and Nathan Straus declared with deep satisfaction that the Congress at least achieved “unity of mind and purpose as we always had of heart”.

Among the delegates representing the “Jewish people” were Louis Marshall, Henry Morgenthau, Sr., Henry Monsky, Nathan Straus, Yehoash, Jacob H. Schiff, Oscar S. Straus, Judge Mayer Sulzberger, Abraham S. Schomer, Henrietta Szold, Dr. B. Revel, Dr. Chaim Zhitlowsky, Dr. H. Pereira Mendes, Joseph Barondess, Rev. H. Masliansky, Gotthard Deutsch, Rabbi M.S. Margolies, Abraham I. Elkus, Judge Julian W. Mack, Dr. Israel Friedlander, Isaac Hourivich, Jacob de Haas, Felix Frankfurter, David Pinsky, Baruch Zuckerman, Dr. Samuel Margoshes, Louis Lipsky and Emanuel Neuman.

The Congress—speaking only for American Jewry—demanded that the peace Conference establish “equal, civil, political, religious, and national rights for all citizens of a territory without distinction as to race, nationality, or creed; autonomous management of their own communal institutions, whether they be religious, educational, charitable, or otherwise, by members of the various national as well as religious bodies; recognition of the historic claims of the Jewish people with regard to Palestine, and establishment of such political, administrative, and economic conditions in the country as would assure its development into a Jewish Commonwealth.”

Possibly no other event in the world’s history presents as many amazing paradoxical absurdities. For the first time a group of alleged citizens of a given country met in convention to boldly demand of the nations of the world a specialized status for a segment of their citizenry. For the first time in history a handful of people claiming a common ethnic origin boldly demanded assistance for the invasion of an established country, the dispossession of its people and the establishment of a “Commonwealth” for its own “people”! For the first time in recorded history an emperium in imperio was brazenly and openly demanded;—the right of an infinitesimal minority to be a law unto itself; to maintain a government within a government! And finally the impudent demand that the specialized minority be considered a “nationality” apart and separate from the nation of its birth or adoption!

Eastern European Jewry had finally conquered the Americanized Jews of the United States. Its revolutionary sons from the cellars of Minsk were in the palaces of the Czars, and its Zionist sons now sat in the high places of a new and powerful Sanhedrin. A “Jewish Bill of Rights” was presented by Louis Marshall of the American Jewish Committee thus committing this closed Kahal to the Khazar plan for world power and dominion. In addition the Congress went on record in support of the World Zionist Organization in its campaign for implementation of the Balfour Declaration.

Among other things the Congress resolved that “the American Jewish Congress shall, as soon as peace is declared among the warring nations, instruct its European delegation to take the necessary and effective steps in cooperation with representative Jewish bodies in other countries for the convening of a World Jewish Congress.”

It can be said without fear of successful contradiction that the work of Moses Mendelssohn for Jewish emancipation was demolished thoroughly and completely at the first meeting of the American Jewish Congress

December 15-18, 1918. Mendelssohn's dream of Jews as citizens of the lands of their birth or adoption died with the triumph of East European Jewry in Philadelphia; the edicts of the Sanhedrin of 1806 were torn to bits and thrown in the discard. Henceforth Jewry was to be distinguished by its status of dual citizenship. Its loyalty to the land of birth or naturalization was thereafter to be suspect in the minds of the critical and patriots everywhere must logically question both the alien philosophy and the international activity of World Jewry. The Gentile World was to grow conscious of two apparently persistent orientations towards Moscow, and the chauvinistic devotion to the "Jewish nation" symbolized by the Star of David over Palestine. On the one hand Jewish capital financed Gentile Governments while Jewish Communism sought their destruction on the other. As the "revolutionary proletariat" Jewry became conspicuous in revolutionary parties wherever Gentile Governments were marked for destruction, while Jewish capital astutely manipulated Gentile politics to its purposes through the "terrible power" of its purse. Jewish names would dominate all others when subversive lists were compiled, and the Rosenbergs, the Coplins, the Golds, and the Rakosis, the Paukers, the Bermans, the Bronsteins and the Kaganovichs were destined to supplant the leaders of Gentile States while Jewish organizations financed propaganda campaigns for World Government. Staggering under fantastic national debt, war reparations, defense spending and periodic economic depressions, torn by fratricide warfare, harassed by racial agitation and labor strife, the Gentile world must inevitably pause to examine the two-pronged attack on Western Christian civilization.

Julian W. Mack, Louis Marshall, Stephen S. Wise, Harry Cutler, B.L. Levinthal, Jacob de Haas, Joseph Barondess, Leopold Benedict (Morris Winchevsky), Bernard G. Richards and Dr. Nachman Syrkin composed the delegation elected by the Congress to the Peace Conference. They were instructed "to cooperate with representatives of the Jews of other lands".

Herzl, under self-suspected delusions of grandeur, wrote: "Our High Priest will wear imposing ceremonial dress; our cuirassiers will have yellow trousers, white tunics. Officers, silver cuirasses... I need the duel, in order to have proper officers... I incline to an aristocratic republic."

THE COPENHAGEN MANIFESTO

While the pattern for the direction and dominance of the Jewish people of the United States developed in New York City and Philadelphia, World Jewry was being rapidly mobilized. Prodded by the Congress agents from the United States, Eastern and Central European Jews seethed with sudden nationalistic excitement and activity. Their "nationalism" had nothing to do with the countries of their births or the common purposes or aspirations of their fellow-citizens. It was strictly "Jewish nationalism";—a nationalism that excluded every Gentile design and purpose. It was the nationalism of Israel in the desert; the nationalism of nomadic marauders jealously eyeing the vineyards of Canaan; a Trojan Horse suddenly alive with invaders.

As Russia, Austria-Hungary and Turkey crumbled under the impact of war the Jews moved into the broken ramparts. Jewry insinuated its philosophy and objectives into conferences of reviving nations while establishing itself as something apart and special—a national minority. Jewish ministries for Jewish Affairs were established in Lithuania and the Ukraine in 1918 and 1919. A preliminary conference for a Russian Jewish Congress met in Petrograd in the summer of 1917 and organized a program for "national cultural autonomy in Russia and civil and national rights for the Jews in Palestine, Poland and Rumania." A Russian Jewish National Council was created in Petrograd in July 1918.

While "national autonomy" had been achieved by the Jews in the 1917 revolution, it was lost in the subsequent civil war. A delegation of 125 Ukrainian Jews met in a Provisional National Assembly at Kiev, Russia in the fall of 1918. Under the direction of M.M. Ussishkin the Assembly demanded that the Peace Conference restore the so-called "minority rights legislation" to the Jews in the Ukraine. This demand had reference to the Statute of National Personal Autonomy of the Ukrainian Central Rada which organized the Jews as a nation with full sovereign powers. It had developed to the point where Ukrainian bank notes were printed in Yiddish as well as in Ukrainian.

A "minority rights" convention of 498 Jewish delegates met in Warsaw in December 1918. A Provisional National Jewish Council of 42 members were appointed and directed to safeguard "Jewish interests at the forthcoming Peace Conference".

Adolf Stand attempted to organize an Austrian Jewish Congress without success. Out of his efforts, however, came a Jewish National Council at Vienna in 1918.

Ludwig Singer established a Jewish National Council in Prague in 1918. A similar Council was founded in Bukovina in October. A Jewish National Council made its appearance in Lithuania in 1919. A Committee for a Greek Jewish Congress had been set up early in 1917.

Eastern and Central European Jewry were therefore well organized to support the delegation from the American Jewish Congress before it moved in on the Peace Conference in Paris. Each organization had carefully followed the line laid down in the Copenhagen Manifesto. "We demand a share in all your affairs; we demand your rights and privileges. We also demand that we be recognized as a guest with special rights and privileges denied the other members of your household!"

In more formal language World Jewry demanded equality as citizens in the countries where they resided and recognition of their "minority" status as the Jewish Nation. It further demanded that the Peace Conference obtain "international guarantees for this new-born Jewish equality in its twofold aspect".

Theodor Herzl had denied both the possibility and the desirability of the "brotherhood of man". Perhaps he was referring only to brotherhood with Gentiles because he was speaking exclusively to the Jews. "Universal brotherhood," he said, "is not even a beautiful dream. Antagonism is essential to man's greatest efforts." It is quite obvious that the Copenhagen Manifesto does not contemplate the "brotherhood of man". It is couched in the language of conquerors and addressed to a vanquished people.

THE JEWISH NATION

THE INTERNATIONAL JEW AT VERSAILLES

The dawn of 1919 found Paris flooded with Jewish delegations from all over the world. From Palestine, Russia, Canada, the United States, the Ukraine, Poland, Rumania, East Galicia, Transylvania, Bukovina, Italy, Czechoslovakia, England, Yugoslavia, Greece; from West, South, East and North;—orthodox Jews, Socialist and Communist Jews, conservative Jews and radical Jews, poor and rich Jews;—they poured into the French capitol. Whatever their status in the lands that harbored them they were for the greater part, merely Jews—"a national minority" in the city that was "to make the World safe for Democracy".

The guiding geniuses of the movement lost little time in organizing the heterogeneous mass into a coordinated phalanx. The Comité des Délégations Juives auprès de la Conférence de la Paix (Committee of Jewish Delegations at the Peace Conference) was organized on March 25, 1919. In addition to delegates from the various countries, representatives from the World Zionist Organization and the B'Nai B'Rith were included in the Committee's membership. Thus the Comité des Délégations Juives would be able to boast that it spoke for more than ten million Jews.

Two Jewish organizations merit special mention because they refused to associate themselves with the Comité des Délégations Juives. The Alliance Israelite Universelle and the Joint Foreign Committee (of the British Board of Deputies and the Anglo Jewish Association) refused to go along on the issue of "national rights", contending only for religious rights. While the Joint Foreign Committee favored "autonomous management of religious, educational, charitable and other cultural institutions" it stood by the Alliance Israelite Universelle in its decision to refuse participation with the Comité des Délégations Juives.

To deny that Woodrow Wilson, Georges Clemenceau and other influential figures at the Versailles Peace table were free of Jewish domination and guidance is to confess ignorance of history or to ignore its record. The accomplishments of World Jewry through the Comité des Délégations Juives are not difficult to trace and identify. The idea of a World Super-State had long been a dream of World Jewry and Woodrow Wilson's conceit in the conviction that the proposal was solely his own was pandered and puffed on all sides by the Jewish delegations and their controlled media of propaganda. Part and parcel of the Wilsonian plan for remaking the world in his image were the principles of "national self-determination" and "homogeneity"; two vital principles of Wilson's "Fourteen Points" that were stumbling blocks to the ambitions of World Jewry. While there were no stronger advocates of the League of Nations and its World Court than organized Jewry, "self-determinations" and "homogeneity" by and for any nation other than the nonexisting "Jewish Nation" was unthinkable. The finesse of the Jewish delegates is clearly discernible in the finished product of Versailles. "The principles of national self-determination and homogeneity were not permitted to be carried to extremes," declares one Jewish historian. Among other objectives of the masterminds behind massed Jewry at the Peace Conference was the destruction of state sovereignty throughout Christendom.

Unable to accomplish this objective in one peace conference World Jewry had to content itself for the time being with the report that "absolute state sovereignty was restricted".

As a result of the untiring efforts of the Jewish delegations "the new and enlarged states" were compelled "to assume an obligation to embody in a treaty with the principal Allied and Associated Powers such provisions as might be deemed necessary by the said Powers to protect the inhabitants who differed from the majority of the population in race, language, or religion." They succeeded in bringing "domestic group rights" under international guarantee—the League of Nations.

THE VERSAILLES TREATY

The work of World Jewry at the Peace Conference is nowhere better indicated than in the provision imposed on Poland by the Versailles Treaty. Poland signed the Polish Minorities Treaty June 28, 1919, thereby committing Poland to accept an agreement with the Principal Allied and Associated Powers for the protection of "national minorities" in Poland. This Treaty, pursuant to successful Jewish pressure, was guaranteed by the League of Nations. Among other things "minorities" were to be admitted to Polish nationality and citizenship "in the fullest sense"; guaranteed the right to use their own language, to maintain their own institutions, to receive primary instruction in their own language, and where the proportion was considerable, to receive "an equitable share in the employment and application of public funds".

"Racial, religious or linguistic minorities" is the official Versailles verbiage, but it meant what the Comité des Délégations Juives intended it to mean—Jews.

As a result of the Versailles Treaty Poland was prohibited from holding elections on Saturdays. The Jewish Sabbath was established by law. "Jews shall not be compelled to perform any act which constitutes a violation of their Sabbath, nor shall they be placed under any disability by reason of their refusal to attend courts of law or to perform any legal business on their Sabbath... Poland declares her intention to refrain from ordering or permitting elections, whether general or local, to be held on a Saturday, nor will registration for electoral or other purposes be compelled to be performed on a Saturday... Education communities of Poland will, subject to the general control of the state, provide for the distribution of the proportional share of the public funds allocated to Jewish schools in accordance with Article 9."

Lloyd George, British Prime Minister, attempting to meet the harsh demands of Georges Clemenceau for France, proved himself—on paper at least—a greater statesman than either the vindictive Clemenceau or the starry-eyed Wilson. Writing at Fontainebleau over a quiet weekend in March of 1919 Lloyd George said: "When nations are exhausted by wars in which they have put forth all their strength and which leave them tired, bleeding and broken, it is not difficult to patch up a peace that may last until the generation which experienced the horrors of the war has passed away. It is therefore comparatively easy to patch up a peace which will last for thirty years. What is difficult, however, is to draw up a peace which will not provoke a fresh struggle when those who have had practical experience of what war means have passed away. You may strip Germany of her colonies, reduce her armaments to a mere police force and her navy to that of a fifth-rate power; all the same in the end if she feels that she has been unjustly treated in the peace of 1919 she will find means of exacting retribution from her conquerors. The impression, the deep impression, made upon the human heart by four years of unexampled slaughter will disappear with the hearts upon which it has been marked by the terrible sword of the great war. The maintenance of peace will then depend upon there being no causes of exasperation constantly stirring up the spirit of patriotism, of justice, or of fair play..."

Theodor Herzl, with more expansive ideas than "yellow trousers and white tunics" for his cuirassiers observed that "a man who invents a terrible explosive does more for peace than a thousand apostles." [H: And this might well remind you these days of Dr. E. Teller's attitude about NUCLEAR BOMBS maintaining peace.]

SECOND MEETING OF THE AMERICAN JEWISH CONGRESS

Nathan Straus opened the second meeting of the American Jewish Congress in Philadelphia on May 30, 1920. "The delegation to Paris, led by Judge Mack, Mr. Louis Marshall, and Dr. Wise," he declared, "has done everything that could be done in order to protect and further Jewish interests. The Jewish name is more honored today than it was because we Jews have had the courage and self-respect to stand up together and try to solve our own problems."

The report of the delegation to the Peace Conference emphasized the necessity of securing United States Senate ratification of the Versailles Treaty, adding "soberly and prophetically" that the success of the concessions won in Paris depended upon the favorable action of the government of the United States. America was still virile in its independence and was not yet ready to be lured into alien booby traps. The United States Senate refused to ratify the Treaty and the American people emphatically repudiated the League of Nations in the Presidential election of 1920.

Pursuant to agreement Judge Mack adjourned the Congress sine die after ruling out of order motions for the election of officers and procedure for reconvening the Congress.

Within a few minutes of the sine die adjournment a body of delegates reconvened. Gedaliah Bublick opened the meeting, declaring: "The Congress is not dead, it is just born." Calling itself the Provisional Organization for the American Jewish Congress the delegates elected Louis Lipsky temporary chairman, established an Executive Committee of seventy-one (the number of members of the Sanhedrin) under the direction of Nathan Straus and ordered it to convene the permanent American Jewish Congress within one year.

"Our activities and the progress we have made," said Herzl at the Fourth World Zionist Congress, "can be summed up in a single sentence: we are organizing Jewry for its coming destiny." The American Jewish Congress was another step toward that destiny. At the Second World Zionist Congress Herzl had declared: "An election campaign must be begun wherever the heads of the communities are not yet with us. Men with convictions similar to ours, worthy and capable of filling these distinguished positions, must be nominated and elected in the name of the national idea. The prestige of the Jewish community, the means of its disposal, the people whom it supports must not be used to oppose the will of our people. There I think I voice the sentiments of you all, fellow delegates, in proposing to make the conquest of the Jewish communities one of our immediate aims." (Emphasis supplied.)

The creation of the Provisional Organization for the American Jewish Congress in 1920 was to be the beginning of the vigorous conquest of the Jewish communities of the world.

[END OF QUOTING]

We are moving more slowly through this material due to the load of other things needing attention. It becomes difficult to keep chapters, parts, sections and portions separated and accurate for the staff at the paper. We will do our best to make proper headings but if we fail, feel free to NOT tell us! Thank you.

Please send the information sent from South Africa on over to Dr. Al so he can get it into the paper. This regards the James Bond-type of toys and lethal weapons conjured there for the killing of people. There will be more coming forth on this topic and I would appreciate Dr. Al placing it in proper focus in his News Desk or Special Reports. I would think that there is actually not yet enough basic information out to do more than share it in the News Desk at this time.

I also ask that receivers be attuned to Dr. Soltec, as well, for the stuff is hitting the fan just about everywhere you can stick a pin in the map.

The assassination attempts are too numerous to keep count in the Middle East and they are all planned and orchestrated by Israeli Mossad using "fronts". I do suggest, however, that you not be too silly about this matter as foolishness attracts more attention than publishing travel plans on the Internet. NOTHING WE ARE DOING OR WILL EVER DO REQUIRES SECRECY—ONLY PRIVACY—FOR ANYTHING WE WILL DO NOW, OR EVER, WILL BE CLEARLY BACKED BY LOCAL, INTERNATIONAL, NATIONAL AND GOD—LAW.

I want you to note the foolishness of NATION OF ISLAM with its guard and colorful costumes. This is no different than that about which we just wrote above. I repeat now and will again and again: “What are you trying to accomplish? Are you looking for freedom or just NEW RULERS?” And if you harbor wishes to BE THE NEW RULER—you had better see a “funny-farm” brain inspector and get as far from me as is possible because there are enough self-styled kings around to last us a zillion yarns.

I think we will be putting things into better perspective if you consider King Sitting Bull or King Shadow Rider or even King Crazy Horse, for what you end up with are King Bull Shippers. And, if things in certain quadrants don't seem to come together well—count your blessings and move on for if it is meant to be it WILL COME TO BE. I do, however, suggest you RESPECT CAREFULLY those who already are KINGS. Leadership is mandatory but must be based on intelligence and wisdom. It is not up to YOU, however, to discern who is what and which is who. We are in BUSINESS, not in the select-a-king business.

PART 8: HIDDEN PARASITES

[QUOTING ZION'S TROJAN HORSE, Sen. Jack B. Tenney, Circa 1940s:]

CONQUEST OF THE JEWISH COMMUNITIES

GROUNDWORK FOR WORLD GOVERNMENT

The success of Comité des Délégations Juives in putting over a major portion of organized Jewry's program on the legitimate representatives of the Peace Conference encouraged the perpetuation of the Committee. An ad hoc organization in the beginning it now became permanent, dropping “auprès de la Conférence de la Paix” from its title. Leo Motzkin became the leading figure in the post-Conference activities of the Committee. Its real purpose appears to have been political. It exerted itself in the League of Nations as other Jewish organizations were to do at a later day in the United Nations. It purported to speak for Jews everywhere. Many of its leaders were active in the Interparliamentary Union, the International Congresses of Minorities and the International Union of League of Nations Associations. Among these individuals were Leo Motzkin, Max Leserson, Dr. Emil Margullies, Dr. Jacob Robinson, Rabbi Z.P. Chajes, Meir Dizengoff, Nathan Feinberg, Dr. Oscar Karbach and Dr. Benzion Mossinson.

In 1920 the Comité des Délégations Juives proposed that the Conference for a Permanent American Jewish Congress create a Council of Jewish Delegations (Vaad Haaratzoth) to be composed of delegates of national congresses or similar bodies. Dr. Leo Motzkin came to the United States in 1923 and on May 13 he addressed the Executive Committee of the American Jewish Congress, advocating the creation of a World Conference of Jews.

On August 3 and 4, 1926 a conference was held in London attended by Dr. Stephen S. Wise, Abraham Goldberg, Louis Lipsky, Marvin Lowenthal, Mrs. Archibald Silverman (all of the American Jewish Congress), Dr. Leo Motzkin, M.N. Tsatskis (for the Comité des Délégations Juives) Dr. Isaac Gruenbaum, Dr. Osias Thon, Dr. Jerzy Rosenblatt (members of the Polish Parliament), Dr. Leon Ringel, Chief Rabbi Isaac Rubinstein (members of the Polish Senate), Chief Rabbi Zvi Peretz Chajes (Austria) and Dr. Shemariah Levin representing Palestine. The purpose of the Conference was the discovery of ways and means for strengthening the Comité des Délégations Juives. Its main accomplishment was the calling of a general conference in August, 1927. Invitations were signed by Judge Julian W. Mack, Stephen S. Wise, Nahum Sokolow and Dr. Leo Motzkin on behalf of the American Jewish Congress and the Comité des Délégations Juives. The American Jewish Committee, the Joint Foreign Committee of England, the Alliance Israelite Universelle and the Hilfsverein der Deutschen Juden did not participate, but the sixty-five Jews from thirteen countries representing forty-three organizations, met at Zurich August 17 to 19, 1927. It became known to Jewry as the Zurich Conference on the Rights of Jewish Minorities. The American delegation included Stephen S. Wise, Judge Gustave Hartman, Judge Hugo Pam and Max B. Steuer. A glaring example of the paradoxical situation in which the delegates found themselves (had there been anyone about with courage enough to have pointed it out) is indicated by the fact that of the delegates demanding “minority rights” six were members of the Polish Sejm (Parliament); one was a Polish Senator; one a member of the Latvian Parliament and two were members of the Judiciary of the United States. The Jews of Hungary and Turkey had renounced “minority rights”, indicating their desire to be Hungarian and Turkish citizens, and had remained home—as did the Jews of Great Britain, Holland, Belgium and Italy. The World Zionist Organization, however, put its stamp of approval on the Conference by sending the President of its Executive, Nahum Sokolow.

Out of the Zurich Conference came the Council on the Rights of Jewish Minorities. Its headquarters was established at Geneva in the shadow of the League of Nations. Its first Executive included Nahum Sokolow, Z.P. Chajes, Simon Dubnow, Isaac Gruenbaum, Leo Motzkin, Stephen S. Wise, H. Farbstein, I. Jefroykin, Emil Margullies, Leon Reich, and Jacob Robinson.

With the adjournment of the Seventeenth Zionist Congress (Basle, Switzerland, 1931) Stephen S. Wise called a meeting attended by leading Jews in the movement. A provisional committee was set up consisting of Dr. Wise, Bernard S. Deutsch, Isaac Gruenbaum, Oscar Cohn, Leo Motzkin, Dr. M. Nurok and Z. Tygel. The Tenth Annual Session of the American Jewish Congress approved the decisions of the Geneva group and went on record for a conference in Geneva on August 14, 1932. Dr. Nahum Goldmann was requested by the American Jewish Congress to organize for the Geneva affair. He traveled throughout Europe on this mission mobilizing organized Jewry everywhere. On July 4, 1932 the annual convention of the Zionist Organization of America pledged its support to the forthcoming world conference.

FIRST WORLD JEWISH CONFERENCE

Ninety-four delegates from seventeen countries met in Geneva August 14 to 17, 1932. The convention became known as the First World Jewish Conference. Leo Motzkin keynoted the organization's main purpose by pointing out that the creation of the League of Nations was important for the Jews. He saw a growing repudiation of the principles the Jews had successfully maneuvered into the Peace Treaties at Versaille and called for an immediate mobilization of the Jews all over the world for their support.

Dr. Goldmann gave notice that it was the purpose of the World Jewish Conference to wrest Jews from their respective citizenships and to ghettoize them as a nation apart. “It is to establish the permanent address of the Jewish people; amidst the fragmentation and atomization of Jewish life and of the Jewish community, it is to establish a real, legitimate, collective representation of Jewry which will be entitled to speak in the name of the sixteen million Jews to the nations and governments of the world, as well as to the Jews themselves.” To which purpose Joseph Sprinzak of the Vaad Leumi added: “Palestine needs a strong, efficient Jewish community in the Diaspora, and the Diaspora needs a powerful Jewish Center in Palestine.”

Dr. Wise, Dr. Goldmann, I. Jefroykin, Dr. Nurok and B. Zuckerman were elected to the Executive Committee of the Conference.

Meanwhile the Comité des Délégations Juives continued its agitations before the League of Nations. One of the provisions successfully introduced into the treaties at the Peace Conference provided that the nationals of certain countries might by-pass their own countries and appeal directly to the Council of the League of Nations—a provision now vigorously urged by organized Jewry in such proposed United Nations treaties as the Genocide Convention and the Declaration on Human Rights. Many of the posts in the League of Nations—as in the United Nations today—were held by Jews as nationals of various countries;—an anomalous situation in view of the declaration of Jewry through its international organizations that Jews were something apart—A Nation, in and of themselves, in dispersion. The Council of the League of Nations, therefore, was hardly a dispassionate or neutral body for the consideration of the petitions presented to it by individual Jews and Jewish organizations such as the Comité des Délégations Juives and the American Jewish Congress. Nevertheless the Council took jurisdiction of petitions signed by Jews alleging that they had lost positions because they happened to be Jews. One such petition was signed by a Franz Bernheim, a resident of Upper Silesia. Because of Jewish allies in the League of Nations, organized Jewry was able to inflate alleged cases of "discrimination" into national magnitude and launch, via the sounding board at Geneva, a flood of racial agitation and propaganda. The Bernheim case proved an excuse for an exploration of discrimination against the Jews in Germany and the League of Nations issued a report June 6, 1933 that Keller, the German representative, was unable to accept, declaring that he was in doubt as to whether it came within the League's jurisdiction. Whatever the merits or demerits of the League's action, it would appear that organized Jewry could not have selected a more subtle method for stirring up anti-Semitism in Germany.

The Second Preparatory World Jewish Conference met in Geneva September 5 through September 8, 1933. Its principal purpose appears to have been an effort to arouse the world against Germany. Its most important accomplishment was the organization of a "moral and economic boycott" against Hitler's Third Reich. It went on record against the Jews having economic or other dealings with Germany. It recognized the alleged persecution of German Jews as an established fact and demanded that it be recognized as "an international problem" by the League of Nations. It called for "an international solution for the international problems of Jewish emigration created by the policy of repression, and (for) ... the machinery necessary for the systematic organization of a wholesale Jewish immigration into Palestine"; all of which led some observers to believe that organized world Jewry exploited and antagonized the German Government for the purpose of stimulating the Jewish invasion of Palestine.

The Comintern (Communist Third International) had been the original instigator of a boycott against Germany. Declared the Comintern in October, 1933: "...the anti-fascist workers are rallying to the support of the heroic struggle of the German workers. In France, in Spain, in Belgium, in Sweden, in Denmark and in Holland, Communist and Social-Democratic workers are boycotting the ships sailing under the swastika flag." The attitude of the Comintern leaders, however, was that the boycott of fascist Germany should also include all other nations (except, of course, the Soviet Union). "Nothing," it thundered, "but a simultaneous struggle against one's own and against German fascism can be of any avail..."—and the italics are the Comintern's.

The third and last Preparatory World Jewish Conference convened in Geneva on August 20, 1934. Dr. Nahum Goldmann had succeeded Leo Motzkin as President in December 1933. The problem of Germany was foremost in the minds of the delegates. Dr. Stephen S. Wise declared that "World Jewry, not German Jewry, is under attack!" The conference affirmed its desire to organize a World Jewish Congress, "a permanent body representing Jews all over the world, whose task it will be, in the name of the whole of Jewry, to defend the common interests, and to protect the rights of Jewish communities wherever they may be threatened." It further affirmed the strictly international political role that the World Jewish Congress was to assume by declaring that "internal policies of the Jewish communities in the various countries or... questions of internal Jewish life in those countries" and "all questions of a religious character" were to be excluded from the "competence of the World Jewish Congress organs". The League of Nations was criticized for the "narrow basis" on which it was attempting to solve the problem of Jewish refugees from Germany.

On September 13, 1934 Poland's Foreign Minister Josef Beck announced to the Fifteenth Assembly of the League of Nations that Poland would refuse to further abide by the provisions on "minority rights" imposed on Poland by the Versailles Treaty until the adoption of a "general and uniform system" for all nations. "Pending the introduction of a general and uniform system for the protection of minorities," the Foreign Minister declared, "my government is compelled to refuse, as from today, all cooperation with the international organization in the matter of supervision of the application by Poland by the system of minority protection. I need hardly say that the decision of the Polish Government is in no sense directed against the interests of the minorities. Those interests are and will remain protected by the fundamental laws of Poland, which secure to minorities of language, race and religion free development and equality of treatment."

The Executive Committee of the Third World Jewish Conference concerned itself with the 4000 Jews in the Saar where a plebiscite was to be held in January, 1935 to determine whether the population favored German, French or continued League of Nations rule. The League appointed a Committee of Three who met in Rome to determine the terms and conditions of the plebiscite. Acting for the Comité des Délégations Juives, Dr. Goldman and Dr. Marc Vichniak are alleged to have been able to persuade the Committee of Three to work for an agreement providing a period of grace to permit the Saar Jews to liquidate their assets and to emigrate in an orderly manner in the event that the plebiscite favored Germany. In any event the Saar agreement met these requirements and both the French and German governments accepted the stipulations. On January 13, 1935, ninety-one percent of the Saar population voted to unite with the Third Reich. Although Germany attempted to induce the Jews to remain, the terms of the agreement were kept and the majority of Jews left the Saar before the expiration of the deadline.

THE CONSTITUENT SESSION OF THE WORLD JEWISH CONGRESS

During February, 1936 the Comité des Délégations Juives and the Executive Committee for the World Jewish Congress met in Paris and resolved to call the World Jewish Congress in August in Geneva, Switzerland. On June 13 and 14 more than a thousand delegates assembled in Washington, D.C., purporting to represent ninety-nine Jewish communities in thirty-two States. Fifty-two delegates and sixty-four alternates to the forthcoming Congress were elected.

Significantly enough the First World Jewish Congress opened its session August 8, 1936 in the Batiment Electoral, the building which had housed the Assembly of the League of Nations before it had moved to its own premises. Representatives of various governments, observers representing the Secretariats of the League of Nations and the International Labor Office, and representatives of certain governmental delegations to the League of Nations, attended. The Secretary General of the Nansen International Office for Refugees and the High Commissioner for Refugees were present. Two hundred and eighty delegates were accredited purporting to represent the Jews of Algeria, Argentina, Austria, Belgium, Brazil, Bulgaria, Canada, Chile, Columbia, Czechoslovakia, Danzig, Egypt, Estonia, Finland, France, Greece, Italy, Latvia, Lithuania, Libya, Morocco, Palestine, Peru, Poland, Portugal, Rumania, Spain, Switzerland, Tunisia, United Kingdom, the United States, and Yugoslavia.

Dr. Stephen S. Wise, as President of the Comité des Délégations Juives and the Executive Committee for a World Jewish Congress called the first session to order. In his opening “Keynote” address Dr. Wise declared that “no Jew should be excluded from the World Jewish Congress because of political or economic views”, thus announcing that the communistic-revolutionary Jews were as welcome as the Rothschilds and the Schiffs. “The World Jewish Congress”, elaborated the Rabbi, “must be wide and catholic enough to include all Jews who would, as Jews, have part with their fellow Jews in facing and seeking to solve the problems of their common Jewish life.”

Dr. Wise’s address stressed the “essential oneness” of Jewish problems and declared that “there is an underlying unity” among all Jews; that Jews “are a people”; that they are neither a church nor a creed, but a “Jewish totality, including all of us.”

Said Dr. Nahum Goldmann: “The greater part of what the year 1919 created is now shattered. The march from the predatory practices of states to the great International Court of Justice cannot be accomplished in a few years. In order to bring it to a positive conclusion, there is need for one thing: to outgrow the concept of the sovereign state.” (Italics added.)

Dr. Roman Zylbersztajn of Poland said that “there must be created a network of economic organizations which will represent the various Jewish communities and coordinate the efforts to improve and strengthen the economic position of the Jewish masses.”

Dr. A. Leon Kubowitzki of Belgium, in discussing “the organization of the Jewish collectivity”, declared “there is still no negotiorum gester for the every day Galuth questions of our scattered people,” and that “only the Jewish people can be the instrument of Jewish liberation.” He called for welding the “isolated and dispersed Jewish communities” into a “conscious and organized whole”. The sphere of the World Jewish Congress, he announced, “comprises all Jewish political, economic, and social questions”, and “the all-embracing Kehillah should be the central cell of our organizations.”

Dr. Kubowitzki called for at least four departments within the Congress, a recommendation that appears to have been predetermined and adopted. He named these departments,...Political, and Finance. The Organization, Information and Propaganda Departments will be charged, explained Dr. Kukowitzki, with establishing “a network of channels for regular, confidential and reliable information”; Dr. S. Margoshes of the United States reported that many circles (in the United States) “which formerly were not accessible to Judophobia now manifest anti-Semitic leanings.”

B.A. Bagnari, representing the Jews of the United Kingdom, told the delegates that “Fascism and anti-Semitism are synonymous and that neither can be separated from the other.”

Dr. M. Cotic of Rumania said that the attempt in Rumania to treat the Jews as a “national minority” on the basis of the existing minority treaties was being officially declared to be an interference in the domestic affairs of the country and a violation of her rights as a sovereign state.

Judge Julian W. Mack was elected Honorary President and Dr. Stephen S. Wise was elected Chairman of the Executive Committee. Dr. Nahum Goldmann was elected chairman of the Administrative Committee and Louis Lipsky, Chairman of the Central Council.

Dr. Wise and Dr. Goldmann delivered the closing addresses, both characterizing the First Congress “as a turning point in Jewish life, the beginning of a new era.” Judge Julian W. Mack declared that he was leaving the Congress “with the confidence that we have laid a deep and sure foundation; that on that foundation we have to erect a structure that will represent all Jewry, in which all Jewry will ultimately be included.”

MOBILIZATION OF WORLD JEWRY

The rapid sweep of organizational activity by the World Jewish Congress and its agents is a remarkable episode in the history of international conspiracy and intrigue. While German “tourist penetration” and Communist infiltration are notable feats in the field of international power politics, the technique in each instance involved secrecy. The planting of Jewish Nationalist cadres in the hearts of the countries of the world by the WJC, however, was done openly. The perfected technique utilized the Trojan horse ruse plus the psychological postulate that boldness allays suspicion. While anxious observers scanned ominous signs of war beyond their frontiers they had little time to note the frenzied organizational activities of a small segment of their citizens for independent nationalism. In the indignation aroused by the ruthless march of Hitler’s National Socialism few might accurately analyze and compare the identical trend in a group of its own citizens, particularly when that group allegedly based its needs for independent action on the same fears that gripped its would-be critics. When a few courageous voices were raised above the general tumult to protest, they were quickly silenced by cries of “anti-Semitism” and “Nazi”.

Offices of the World Jewish Congress were immediately established in Paris, Geneva and New York. Paris became the main office. Dr. N. Goldmann and M. Jarblum were in charge of “Political Affairs”; B. Zuckerman headed “Organizational Affairs” with Dr. E. Knopfmacher as Research Associate, and Mrs. Kate Knopfmacher was designated Executive Secretary of the Paris office. A branch office of the Political Department was ultimately established in London under the direction of Dr. M.L. Perizweig.

Within a year World Jewish Congress agents had organized thirty-four affiliates in twenty-seven countries on five continents. Committees for WJC were established in Algeria; Australia; Austria; Aden; British Arabia; Cairo and Port Said, Egypt; France; Greece; Bombay, Cochin, and Calcutta, India; Latvia; Lithuania; Poland; and Rumania. The Delegacion de Asociaciones Israelitas Argentinas for Argentina, Brussels Council of Jewish Associations (later the Council of Jewish Associations of Belgium) for Belgium, the Consistoire Central des Israelites for Bulgaria, the Canadian Jewish Congress for Canada, the Jewish Party of C.S.R. for Czechoslovakia, Juudi Kultuuroalistra for Estonia, the Jewish Community of Helsingfors for Finland, a British Section established November 26, 1936 by a conference of three hundred and fifty organizations for Great Britain, the Union delle Comunita Israelitiche Italiane for Italy, Vaad Leumi for Palestine, the Lisbon Jewish Community for Portugal, the Jewish Community of Madrid for Spain, the Schweizer Israelitische Gemeindebund for Switzerland, the American Jewish Congress for the United States, and the Union of Jewish affiliates during its first year’s activities. Before the outbreak of war the official Dutch Federation of Synagogues (Permanente Commissie tot de Algemeene Zaken van het Nederlandsch-Israelietische Kerkgenootschap) of Holland, the Comite Central Israelita of Mexico, and the Committees of Luxembourg and New Zealand had affiliated.

The Zionist-Trojan Horse had found sanctuary in thirty-one countries of the world. Under the pretext of “Jewish defense” the World Jewish Congress launched its assault. While continuing its activities within the League of Nations and its “use of influential individuals and their connections” the WJC stepped up its propaganda “backed by the political and economic potentialities of the Jewish masses rallying behind the Congress in all lands and continents: for the “mobilization of public opinion”.

On March 15, 1937, marking Hitler’s fourth year in power, the American Jewish Congress and the Jewish Labor committee jointly organized and sponsored a mass demonstration in Madison Square Garden in New York City. More than twenty-five thousand persons attended. “Moulders of public opinion”, such as General Hugh S. Johnson, Fiorello H. La Guardia, John L. Lewis, Dr. Stephen S. Wise and B. Vladeck were rounded up by the joint sponsors for “opinion moulding”. Following the line already laid down by the World Jewish Congress the speakers emphasized “the menace which Hitler constituted to the peace of the world”. Intensification of the boycott against Germany and the banning of credits to the Third Reich were prearranged proposals adopted by the meeting.

On November 7, 1938 Ernest von Rath, German diplomat, was murdered in Paris by a Jewish youth named Herschel Grynszpan. German reaction was immediate and drastic. WJC affiliates demonstrated throughout the world involving many non-Jews in their protests. On March 31, 1939 Hitler attacked world Jewry in a Reichstag speech, charging that the Jews threatened the peace of the world.

[H: Oh how little it seems we know and how long it takes to find the revelations of that which went before.]

[END OF QUOTING]

I remind you people to stay up on what is going on in the world today because we cannot possibly, nor humanly, cover it all. While the focus is on Clinton, the world is falling down, readers. You have just bailed out the banks in Japan, and it isn’t going to do anything for Japan and only make you somehow “look” like good guys. The point, however, is that Japan has backed and paid for your debt for so long that a collapse over in Japan will insure your collapse. The Asian mess is a cauldron of pure acid waiting to erupt. The IMF for all practical purposes have accomplished the destruction of the economical stability of all of Malaysia and Indonesia as well as Thailand. It is serious time, readers, and getting more and more serious by the minute in the U.S.A. and all the Americas.

I am asked about the little Nanny going back to England. Well, I hope that Daddy does bring a civil suit and I hope it doesn't end by "default". The Mother is responsible for the damage to the child and ultimately, therefore, for the death of her own babe. If there is a civil trial, it will be brought forth if a full trial is allowed to take place. The circumstances, of course, are to prevent the child from coming back to the U.S. (as a felon) to take part in any further legal dealings. Does "Daddy" know? Of course. Doesn't anyone REMEMBER that the baby even had a broken arm sometime prior to the final incidence of injury? How does a child just come up with a broken arm—and that happened when the Nanny was nowhere around. She just had to attend the incredibly miserable baby with no notion that the child had been injured. Frankly, readers, I am often ashamed to be working with you in the U.S. for you have FORGOTTEN GOD AND HAVE BECOME IMMORAL AS A SOCIETY AND AS INDIVIDUALS. AND YES, I KNOW, I AM PREACHING TO THE CHOIR AND IT ISN'T FAIR.

Along those lines of self-realization and our own contributions to such immoral behavior being allowed to go forth uninhibited as we try to become "allowing" and offer our "unconditional" love, we become dead between the ears and then filled with FEAR to speak out for we have been so "fooled" that we know not which way to turn or how to go on.

PART 9: HIDDEN PARASITES

THE LEAGUE OF NATIONS

The League of Nations may be said to have been founded by President Woodrow Wilson, although the idea was not original with him. Senator Henry Cabot Lodge, speaking at Washington, D.C. in May of 1916 before the League to Enforce Peace was more emphatic in his endorsement of the plan than was Wilson. Said Lodge: "I do not believe that when Washington warned us against entangling alliances he meant for one moment that we should not join with other civilized nations of the world if a method could be found to diminish war and encourage peace."

Said President Wilson: "We are participants, whether we would or not, in the life of the world... every people has a right to choose the sovereignty under which they shall live... the small states of the world have a right to enjoy the same respect for their sovereignty and for their territorial integrity that the great and powerful nations expect and insist upon... the world has a right to be free from every disturbance of its peace that has its origin in aggression and disregard of the rights of peoples and nations. I say that the United States is willing to become a partner in any feasible association of nations formed in order to realize these objects and make them secure against violation."

The League to Enforce Peace was supported and ultimately supplanted by other organizations whose sponsorship more definitely reflected the current left-wing, socialist and collective viewpoint. As has already been shown, the leading organizations of Jewry throughout the world were already on record for, and actually promoting, an international federation. The League of Free Nations Association, although further to the left than the League to Enforce Peace, worked with the latter group, and was one of the first to endorse the League of Nations Covenant. The League of Free Nations Associations became the New York Foreign Policy Association after the war and oriented its activities toward the ultimate consummation of its original purposes.

That ultimate world government is one of the objectives of socialism was clearly revealed in the activities of the Fabian Society of England for the League of Nations Society in propagandizing for an International organization. A League of Nations Society was also created in France.

The League of Nations Society was organized in London in May of 1915. It was the outgrowth of a series of meetings instigated by the Fabians. W.H. Dickinson, M.P., became the organization's first chairman. He had been prominently identified with the World Alliance for International Friendship Through the Churches. In March of 1916 Theodore Marburg, who founded the League to Enforce Peace in the United States June 17, 1915, addressed the League of Nations Society and declared "that the objects of the League to Enforce Peace and the League of Nations Society were almost the same."

By November 1916 the League of Nations Society boasted of 300 members.

In July of 1917 Lord Parmoor was a Vice-President of the Society. Noll Buxton, M.P., G. Lowes Dickinson, and L.S. Woolf were members of the Executive Committee.

In July of 1918 a letter of invitation to join a League of Free Nations Association was circulated. Among those who signed the invitation were Professor Gilbert Murray and H. G. Wells. By November of that year the League of Free Nations Association and the League of Nations Society merged into a new organization, the League of Nations Union. [H: Did these guys know how to manipulate groups, organizations, tax free groups and corporations, or what? TAKE LESSONS. You would find, however, that they never even bothered to go through the legalities or regulations of even incorporation of these entities. Who is going to question a thing if in its name is Society, Association, Company or Corporation?] On the first General Council of Union were Lord Robert Cecil, Professor Gilbert Murray, J.H. Thomas, J.R. Clynes, H.N. Brailsford, J.M. Kenworthy, J.C. Wedgwood, Miss Maud Royden and R.H. Tawney. (Brailsford, in 1921, wrote a Preface to Trotsky's The Defense of Terrorism.)

"The Outline of History", by H.G. Wells,

"written with the advice and editorial help of Mr. Ernest Barker... and Professor Gilbert Murray," made its first appearance in semi-monthly parts. Its purpose is clearly evident now. In addition to its mental orientation toward atheism, socialism and internationalism, it attempts to lay the ground-work for a super-world government. Douglas Reed describes Wells as "a disbeliever and sedentary pamphleteer in whose mind inconsequent ideas scurried about from first reaction to second thought and later after-thought like a riotous mob that surges forwards to destroy, reels backward at the word 'police', and then scatters and scuttles through the byways, throwing a random stone from aimless rage." Although he was ultimately to declare that he saw "the world as a jaded world devoid of recuperative power", Wells envisioned the "world state" in his Outline of History as an inevitable historical development. "It will be based," he declared, "upon a common world religion, very much simplified and universalized and better understood. This will not be Christianity nor Islam nor Buddhism nor any such specialized form of religion..."

Whatever else may be said of Well's contribution to the "world-super-state" idea, his Outline of History became an important adjunct to the propaganda machine designed for the destruction of patriotism in Great Britain and the United States.

The League of Nations Union was supported in 1920 by donations. Major David Davies, M.P., made the largest contribution—14,373 pounds. Barons E.B. d'Erlanger and F.A. d'Erlanger, and N.M. Rothschild and sons donated 3,000 pounds each. Other contributors were the Government of the Peruvian Republic, 1,000 pounds; [H: Say what? Still want to argue over debts, certificates and validity of same? Remember who the players were at the time!] F. Eckstein, 500 pounds; Sir M. Samuel, 210 pounds; Sir Carl Meyer, 210 pounds; and the Zionist Organization, 210 pounds.

Thus, socialists, pro-communists and Zionists, together with their stooges and innocents, promoted the League of Nations and laid the foundation for world government. One world war could not quite accomplish the ultimate objective. It is extremely doubtful that World War II achieved it.

World War III?

"The events of August, 1914," wrote H.G. Wells, "seem to have taken President Wilson, like the rest of his fellow-countrymen, by surprise. We find him cabling an offer of his services as a mediator on August 3rd. Then, for a time, he and America watched the conflict. At first neither the American people nor their President seem to have had a very clear or profound understanding of that long-gathered catastrophe. Their tradition for a century had been to disregard the problems of the Old World, and it was not to be lightly changed... President Wilson and the American people were dragged into the war by this supreme folly (unrestricted submarine warfare of the Germans). And also they were dragged into a reluctant attempt to define their relations to Old World politics in some other terms than those of mere aloofness. Their thoughts and temper changed very rapidly..."

President Wilson declared that a durable peace must be “peace without victory”. Within a few days (April 6, 1917) Congress, at his direction, declared war on Germany. The President announced that it was a “war to end war” and that its purpose was to “make the world safe for democracy”. History is only now underscoring the tragic asininity of this double-talk. Peace and victory came November 11, 1918 and Wilson rushed to Paris and proceeded to LOSE BOTH.

Marxism not only advocates the necessity of the destruction of religion in its quest for power but Marxists everywhere similarly work for the abolition of nationalism. “Religion” and “patriotism” are the outer ramparts of Christian civilization, and they must first be destroyed if the forces of Marxism are to conquer and dominate the world. Because patriotism and nationalism are the natural and logical result of the integrated family unit, Marxism strikes also at the family. It too must be destroyed and its component parts reduced to the common collectivity. It does not stop, even here. The dignity of man, his initiative, his individuality—all must be leveled to the common denominator.

Propagandists of the Socialist and Communist persuasion subtly attack “mother”, “home”, “heaven”, “the flag”, “fatherland”, and “patriotism”. These cherished and respected terms, together with the sacred things they represent, are made to appear ridiculous and “reactionary”; obsolete remnants of tribalism perpetuated by sinister men who wish to plunge the world into frequent bloodbaths for the purpose of making money. To these propagandists the “elaborate inculcation” of these concepts into the minds of people constitute the process of “manufacturing” patriots. Such patriots, from the Marxian viewpoint, are “provincial”, mentally “immature” and “reactionary”. To organized Jewry patriotism is equivalent to nationalism; nationalism equivalent to fascism, and fascism means “anti-Semitism”. This Jewish concept, of course, applies only to Gentile patriotism and has no references to Jewish nationalism.

Some “scientific” critics of patriotism advance the theory that nationalism is a form of overdeveloped “ethnocentrism” (regarding one’s own race as the chief interest and the center of culture)—a Greek combining form that tends to give the entire subject a bad odor. By diagnosing the natural phenomenon as “ethnocentrism” the propagandist is enabled to elaborate upon the “malady” without fear of contradiction because he has thereby removed the subject from the realm of the simple and the knowable into the sphere of the pseudo-scientific and the conjectural. He may therefore say that ethnocentrism is characterized by unreasonable antipathy and hostility toward all those who are not members of a given nation, and that such words as “alien” and “stranger” are synonymous to “enemy” in the mind of the ethnocentrist.

Most of the critics of patriotism are in agreement that nationalism is chiefly a menace to the Socialists, Communists, the Jews and other aliens who represent a disruptive element within a given country. Although they do not so frankly state it, the meaning is clear. The principle that all beleaguered individuals and groups tend to protect themselves when under harassment or attack—preservation is the first law of nature—is forgotten and brushed aside.

Both the Socialists and the Communists boldly proclaim their intention to destroy the freedom of the individual, to confiscate his property and regiment his life. Organized Jewry, either as an ally of the Marxists or as an independent nation within a nation, insists on maintaining an independent status with or without dual citizenship. The resultant resentment on the part of those who resist Communist and Jewish objectives is labeled “Fascism”—which, of course, it is not. Nations have been acting very much the same in these respects ever since the beginning of recorded history.

These apostles of collectivity go much further in their incessant attacks upon the resistive powers of those they have marked for destruction. They preach that advocates of military preparedness and strong foreign policy are the “extreme nationalists” and the potential “Nazis” and “Fascists”. If the mental reflexes of a nation may be thoroughly conditioned in accord with this “line”, it will fail to resist when attacked and perish without lifting a finger in its own defense. If a nation’s leaders can be made to believe that fear of Communism is “collective paranoia”, and preparedness against the Soviet Union is “military megalomania”—then the destruction of Western Christian Civilization may be achieved without too much physical exertion on the part of its enemies.

These defamers of patriotism apparently find nothing wrong with the individuals and groups—the Socialists and Communists—who have publicly proclaimed their intention to destroy all nations—except the Soviet Union. To threaten the lives, property and freedoms of men everywhere appears to be a high virtue when practiced by communists; to insist on remaining a nation within the nations of the world; to invade and steal a country; these things appear to be idealistic when advocated and accomplished by organized Jewry and Zionists.

President Wilson’s “self-determination” and “political independence” for all nations are planks in the Wilsonian platform for world government that have been somewhat embarrassing to the propagandists of internationalism. To attack these fundamental principles of the Wilson formula is to endanger the prestige that Wilson represents in the drive for world power. If nations may reserve the right of self-determination and political independence—and these rights are protected by the concerted power of nations—it is quite obvious that world domination by any single group is impossible. So, with or without Wilson, “self determination” and “political independence” must be treated as sinister symptoms of “ethnocentrism” and thrown in the ash-can with “mother”, “home”, “heaven”, “flag” and “country”. When Wilson spoke of the “rights of small nations” he believed in the principle. That he either had his tongue in his cheek, indulging in psychological warfare, or was exhibiting latent “fascist” tendencies is untenable. But, as all of these principles constitute formidable obstacles along the Marxist advance to world power the proponents of internationalism are determined to obliterate them from the minds of men.

Irredentism may be said to be another road-block to the ideological conquest of the world.

It is a word that is little used. It refers to the principles, policy, or practice of a party, or of persons, who seek to reincorporate within their national boundary territory of which their nation has been deprived. It is, according to the “brain-washers”, another form of extreme nationalism—unless applied to Zionism (although the definition does not cover the facts as they apply to Palestine). Like all other forms of nationalism, Irredentism is conveniently considered a world peace-disturbing nuisance (except in certain obvious cases, the Soviet Union and Zionism) and it therefore is listed by the internationalists with the other “obnoxious” characteristics of nationalism.

Homogeneity—same character, like nature or kind—is another symptom of paranoia of the nationalistic mind according to the Marxist proponent of “one worldism”. The demand for homogeneity on the part of the people of a given country is always depicted as a persecution of minorities because of race, language or religion. The internationalist never recognizes the factors of allegiance, political assimilation or national solidarity, except as they are manifestations of his own philosophy. The antagonistic, hostile activities of foreign-born anarchists, Socialists, Communists and Zionists, all working against the interest of the country of their adoption or refuge are not considered unusual, ungrateful or worthy of comment by Marxian propagandists. In countries such as the United States and Great Britain, where the discordant and unassimilable elements of the world have found freedom and hospitality, the cry against homogeneity has been greatest. It is not enough, of course, that these refugees find haven and freedom. They must of necessity continue to create the frictions that caused their expulsion from their native lands. It is not enough for them to become Englishmen and Americans with the freedom to exercise their particular religious beliefs; it is not enough to enjoy the rights of citizenship; they must destroy the homogeneous instincts of the majority so that their own minority homogeneity may pass unnoticed.

The United States has, in truth, been the melting pot of the world. It has successfully assimilated most of the nations of Europe. The homogeneity that emerged was not so much of language, race, religion and culture as it was of a new and unique concept of freedom. The United States generously opened its arms to the oppressed of the world and most of those who came gratefully merged into the American pattern. ONLY THE HORDES OF KHAZAR JEWS, WITH THEIR TWIN PHILOSOPHIES OF MARXISM AND ZIONISM, HAVE REFUSED TO ASSIMILATE. On the one hand they have insisted on being a separate people; a fragmentized nation in dispersion, and on the other hand they have sought to refashion the religion, the traditions and the customs of the land of their exile. Their members predominate among the revolutionary and subversive forces at work within the country and their names are always listed where treason and traitors are exposed. They seek, through every medium of propaganda, the universal acceptance of heterogeneity so that their failure to assimilate may pass unnoticed in the resultant dissonance.

[H: Please hold in mind, readers, as you go through this information, that Senator Jack

B. Tenney did this research and presented it through a MAJOR committee assigned to do the work. He served as Chairman of the Senate Fact-finding Committee on Un-American Activities. He was constantly the target of forces that sought to destroy the documented work of the committee. The printed reports of the Committee have been generally accepted for their accumulation of ACCURATE INFORMATION.

The Comité des Délégations Juives auprès de la Conférence de Paix sought to insure heterogeneity within nations through “minority” treaties between the new States carved out of Europe at the “Peace table” and the Allied Powers, and enforced by the international machinery of the League of Nations. The first of these “minority treaties” was imposed upon Poland. Czechoslovakia was next (September 10, 1919), with Yugoslavia (September 10, 1919), Rumania (December 9, 1919), and Greece (August 10, 1920) following. The Treaty of St. Germain [H: No kidding? (!!!)] with Austria (September 10, 1919) [H: I warned you that they integrate anything that lends credence to their game-plan. This is also a tactic that allows the “appearance” of something that is NOT.], the Treaty of Neuilly with Bulgaria (November 27, 1919), and Treaty of Lausanne with Turkey (July 24, 1923) contain clauses modeled upon the Polish treaty for the establishment of the principles of heterogeneity. Albania and the Baltic States were ultimately forced into line. Fifteen States in all were compelled to protect the indigestible elements within their frontiers, thus crippling their national development and insuring violent eruptions beyond the power of any international organization to control.

Under the provisions of these treaties the “minorities” were placed under the protection of the League of Nations as subjects of “international concern”. The Permanent Court of International Justice was given jurisdiction of disputes arising out of alleged infractions of the minority provisions.

When President Wilson arrived in Paris in January of 1919 he declared that the League is “the central object of our meeting”, and, in spite of the attitudes of Lloyd George and Clemenceau he insisted that the Peace Conference take up the League of Nations proposal before considering political and territorial matters. Wilson headed a commission of nineteen which was able to present a tentative draft of the Covenant to the Conference on February 14. President Wilson called it “a guarantee of peace”. On April 28, 1919 the document, with some revisions, was adopted unanimously by the Conference. The League of Nations was given official status on January 10, 1920.

One of the functions of the League of Nations (later to become an integral part of United Nations’ philosophy for the emergence of a super-world government) was the promotion of “international cooperation” in the fields of world health, labor, transportation, communications, finances, etc. Although the Covenant did not provide for or authorize their creation, the Council established commissions to deal with the objectives. The Economic and Financial Organization, Organization for Communications and Transit, International Office of Public Health (established at Paris) and the International Committee on Intellectual Cooperation were among the important permanent bodies created. The International Committee on Intellectual Cooperation coordinated the work of such sub-groups as the International Research Council, the Institute of International Law, the International Academic Union, etc. An International Institute of Intellectual Cooperation was established in Paris in 1924. The International Cinematographic Institute, together with innumerable committees of one kind or another, ultimately became known as the Intellectual Cooperation Organization. Among others, the Advisory Commission on the Traffic in Opium and other Dangerous Drugs and the International Convention for the Suppression of the Traffic in Women and Children [H: Take notice!] may be mentioned as salutary efforts on the part of the League to deal with international evils.

The International Labor Organization was the result of Article 23 of the Covenant of the League. Its primary purpose was the promotion of uniform labor legislation throughout the world. Its efforts, as might have been expected, were futile. The United States became a member by Presidential proclamation August 20, 1934. Isador Lubin was the first United States government representative. The International Labor Organization was destined to survive the League fiasco and become an affiliate of the United Nations.

Although the Bank for International Settlements [H: Basle, SWITZERLAND.] was not strictly a League of Nations organization its role in the over-all development of internationalism is important. It was created in 1930 to act as trustee and agent for the creditor governments in the collection and allocation of indemnity payments. Its stock of one hundred million dollars was underwritten by banks in Great Britain, France, Italy, Germany, Japan, Belgium and the United States. The United States Federal Reserve Banks were NOT permitted to participate.

By the end of 1938 the failure of the League of Nations was almost complete. Of the sixty-two nations that had once constituted its membership only forty-nine remained. With the close of 1940 it had ceased to exist. It had gone the way of its predecessors, the Holy Alliance, the Concert of Europe and the Permanent Court of Arbitration. It failed because humanity had not been reduced to its common denominator and because its machinery had not been designed for physical persuasion. “Mother”, “home”, “the flag”, “heaven”, and “country” were yet too deeply rooted in the minds and hearts of the people. Another and, perhaps yet another, world catastrophe would be necessary before such “reactionary” concepts would be blasted from the breasts of human beings.

[H: WELL, IT HAS BEEN SUCCESSFULLY PLACED THERE NOW AND YOU CAN STILL EXPECT THE BIG CATASTROPHE TO FINISH OFF YOU NICE PEOPLE OF THE WORLD.]

[END OF QUOTING]

You nice people are even going to have to face the fact that the very “Jewish Question” was put up for the public by a totally Jewish organization. But, I guess I shouldn’t get ahead of the documentation. My friends, an informed public, however, is the ONLY way you have to confront THESE FALSE PEOPLE OF THE LIE.

I find it amusing that you in the U.S. are fighting to send abroad a leader (as an Ambassador) of your “Christian???” nation, who is an outspoken homosexual. Is this bad? Who knows? It certainly is NOT a typical “Christian” attitude and the world is finding it about as funny in perception as is Billy’s zipper as to total abolishment, in the U.S., of MORALITY standards. Old Barney Frank thinks it is a good idea—but then, he was brought before Congress because he had a “house of prostitution” going on with MEN ONLY. An opinion of “bad” might better be considered as “IS IT WISE”?

I hope you noted the crash of a “commuter” plane yesterday in which eleven TOP EXECUTIVES OF GENERAL ELECTRIC were killed. Still think nobody is after you Americans? Canadian-American politics have never been more stressed than they are today over electricity production and consumption. How best to solve an uplooming problem than murder? Watch your backsides, chelas.

Salu.

PART 10: HIDDEN PARASITES

[QUOTING, ZION’S TROJAN HORSE, Sen. Jack B. Tenney, Circa 1940s:]

AGITATION FOR WORLD WAR II

Meanwhile organized Jewry’s campaign within the nations of the world and its continuous use of the rostrum in the Palace of the League of Nations at Geneva brought the world closer to new disaster. The internal affairs of German Upper Silesia were under attack in 1936 and 1937 and the conflict was sharpened considerably by Poland’s declaration that she would no longer be bound by the “minority treaty”.

The question of ten thousand Jews in the Free City of Danzig was the basis for considerable agitation before the League of Nations. The special status for the small Jewish population was a continuous sore spot. The imposition of special privileges led to natural resentment on the part of the people of Danzig, which was immediately attended by vigorous condemnation on the part of world Jewry. Resentment gave way to frustration and excesses. The Government attempted to throw off the chains of the treaty.

Although the activities of the representatives of world Jewry before the League of Nations accomplished little or nothing for the Jews of Danzig the resultant publicity was grist in the mill for organized Jewry’s campaign against Germany throughout the nations of the world.

Meanwhile most of the Jews in the free city of Danzig had departed.

The annexation of Austria on March 11, 1938 was the signal for an appeal by the World Jewish Congress to the League of Nations for protection of that country’s one hundred and ninety two thousand Jews. Similar appeals were made from time to time both in behalf of the Jews of Austria and of Czechoslovakia. Hitler's concern for his blood-brothers in the Sudetenland—similarly duplicated by organized Jewry's concern for its own blood-brethren—was a coincidence that appeared to pass unnoticed.

Poland—which contained the greatest Jewish population—finally became the principal issue. The World Jewish Congress initiated a series of public demonstrations designed to arouse indignation throughout the world. A conference on the Polish Jewish question was organized by the American Jewish Congress in New York City January 31, 1937. Two thousand three hundred and ninety-six delegates representing eight hundred and thirty-five Jewish organizations attended. A similar conference was held in London on April 6, 1937 under the auspices of the British Section of the World Jewish Congress. Its one hundred delegates purported to speak for the religious, fraternal, Zionist and labor organizations of British Jewry. The Canadian Jewish Congress staged a series of protest demonstrations during the same month. On June 1, 1937 the Fédération des Sociétés Juives de France convoked a protest meeting in Paris. An “emergency conference” was called in New York City on June 10, 1937 attended by two thousand four hundred and sixty-two delegates from eight hundred and seventy organizations. A delegation of two hundred headed by Dr. Stephen S. Wise was dispatched to Washington with a memorandum addressed to the State Department. Why two hundred delegates were necessary is better guessed than explained. The memorandum recited the oppression of the Jews in Poland. Its presentation by Dr. Wise to Secretary of State Cordell Hull on July 12, 1937 was dramatized by a public declaration protesting the treatment of the Jews in Poland signed by one hundred and fourteen non-Jews in the fields of “religion, science, literature, and education”.

The World Jewish Congress stepped up its clamor during succeeding months. The Socialists, the Communists and left-wing groups added their voices. At the initiative of the Congress, meetings and demonstrations swept across the world. Declarations, manifestos, and petitions cluttered the streets and the desks of public officials. In Belgium seventy university professors, writers and social leaders addressed statements of solidarity and protest to the Conseil des Associations Juives. A protest signed by twenty-five French authors and college professors, supplemented a similar protest by the League of the Rights of Man. Resolutions, statements, protests and declarations multiplied through the wizardry of the World Jewish Congress:—a resolution from the Polish League of Peace and Freedom in Warsaw; a statement from the International League for Academic Freedom; a protest from the Institute of International Education; a declaration from the American Student Union; a resolution from the American Federation of Teachers, and others too numerous to mention.

In answer, Poland, in 1938, adopted a law providing that persons who had been abroad for a period of five continuous years would be deprived of their Polish citizenship and forbidden to return to Poland. Jews, among others, who had been absent from Poland more than five years were interned in a camp at Zbaszyn when they attempted to reenter the country. The World Jewish Congress immediately intervened with the Polish Ambassadors in Paris and Washington. Dr. M.L. Perizweig was dispatched to Warsaw to take the matter up with the Polish government. World War II intervened and German troops invaded Poland before Dr. Perizweig was able to get down to cases with the officials of the government.

The World Jewish Congress used the efforts of the Rumanian government to throw off the shackles of Versailles to the best advantage along with its other activities. The Congress actually boasts of its successful efforts in “the early overthrow” of one of the Rumanian governments by stating that “it is no mere conjecture” that the “efforts of the World Jewish Congress were responsible”. As Rumania struggled with the handcuffs of the “minority” clauses of the treaty, organized Jewry capitalized on the “persecution of the Jews” within the country.

In January of 1938 the Prime Minister of Rumania declared that four waves of immigration had brought between 250,000 to 500,000 Jews into the country and the Minister of Foreign Affairs stated that Rumanian Jews were not entitled to a special status over other citizens. A Royal Decree of January 22, 1938 ordered the revision of the citizenship status of all Jews in Rumania.

The World Jewish Congress invoked the provisions of the “minority” treaty clauses before the League of Nations and dispatched strong protests to the French and British Foreign Ministers. Dr. Perizweig in London, Marc Jarblum in Paris, and Dr. Kubowitzki in Brussels descended on the Foreign Offices of the respective governments. Dr. Wise was in constant communication with the White House in Washington. The Rumanian government was compelled to resign on February 10, 1938.

In May of 1938 the Hungarian government proposed to limit the number of Jewish employees in all branches of economy to twenty percent of the population. The WJC intervened. In Iraq, Uruguay and in all parts of the world where Jews resided the World Jewish Congress proceeded to tell their respective governments that their Jewish citizens were a peculiar people with very special and exceptional rights. There was no cessation in the outcry; no relaxation of the drums of war.

In the beginning organized Jewry had declared war on the central governments of Europe and had sought to impose its will on their people through treaty provisions and the machinery of the League of Nations. In the end they made their war a world war and involved most of the civilized nations in the conflagration. In the end few would remember what it was all about, how it started and why. No one would be certain who led the demonstrations, signed the declarations, made the protests and passed the resolutions. Men would march and men would die; battles would be fought that would take the names of nations and oceans; there would be sacrifice, tears, blood and sweat. But, when it was over the people of the world would not really remember very much about it. Some might recall that it had been frightful in the sacrifice of Christian blood and staggering in the waste of Gentile wealth. Some might slowly learn that there had been no real victory and that the promised peace was to be as chimerical as had been the “war to end war” and the struggle to “make the world safe for democracy”.

ANTI-GENTILISM

Karl Marx's attack upon religion as “the opium of the people” was not so much an attack upon all religions as it was a war against Christianity. Like most intellectual revolutionary Jews, Marx was no more an adherent of Judaism than he was of Christianity. Ethnically, however, he was a Jew. In substance Marx reminded the Jews that they must now demand equality with Christians; they must seek the total destruction of Christianity. Marx believed that the Jew has within himself the privilege of being a Jew. It was his contention that the Jew, as a Jew, has rights that the Christian does not have. “Why does the Jew demand rights that he does not have and the Christians enjoy?” he asked. He reasoned that the Jew, in demanding emancipation from the Christian State, demands that the Christian State abandon its religious prejudice. And he, the Jew, does he abandon his own religious prejudices? Has he then the right to demand of another that he relinquish his religion? Marx concludes that as long as the State remains Christian; as long as Jew remains Jew, both are equally incapable, the one to give emancipation, and the other to receive it.

[H: So, somebody came up with a solution that just to combine the two “religions” would work. So, the Evangelical Pentecostal so-called “Christians”, but really Jesusians, joined in the ZIONIST movement. Raptures were built-in for those who didn't want to become responsible—but rather, just believe some man did all the atonement and paid the price by death and bloodshed. This birthed the overwhelming Zionist Judeo-Christian MOVEMENT whereby there could be a demand for the Christians to give up all the guidelines for behavior, such as the Commandments—to appease and fall to second-class citizenship in their own native countries. I remind everyone that RELIGION is a culprit for doom if there be two concepts. You can't have christ-ness and non-christness in the SAME MEANING! The terms themselves, Judeo and Christian, are mutually exclusive in meaning and by definition already established. By taking on the Zionist criterion for membership in this new religious nonsense, the Christian and the Jewish believer—betrayed and turned away from BOTH religions. You are now headed dead-on to the new One World Religion—New Age Zionism—which has no orthodox or cultural foundation AT ALL. IT IS BASED SOLELY ON HUMANISTIC WORLD ORDER BY THE ELITE MANIPULATORS. I DIDN'T MAKE IT THIS WAY—IT IS PART OF THE PLAN AND THAT PLAN IS DUE TO BE FULLY OPERATIVE BY YEAR 2,000—AND NEVER MIND ERRORS IN THE CALENDARS. YOU WILL FIND THAT THEY HAVE MORE CONTROL ALREADY THAN TEN YEARS OF ALLOWANCES FOR ERROR COULD IMPACT VERY MUCH.]

Thundering in the columns of “Deutsch-Franzosische Jahrbucher”, Marx demanded: “Upon what title do you Jews ground your claim for emancipation? On your religion? It is the mortal foe of the State (Christian) religion.”

The Marxian philosophy does not tolerate compromise.

What then is the Marxian solution?

Concluding that as long as States are Christian and the religion of the Jews is the mortal foe of the state religion, Marx proceeds to lay down the formula for the destruction of Christianity: the establishment of atheism. "The most rigid form of opposition between the Jew and the Christian," he avers, "is the religious opposition. How does one get rid of an opposition? By making it impossible. And how make impossible a religious opposition? By suppressing religion."

Marx was willing to concede that the Jew had been emancipated in his day, but in a Jewish manner. He believed that the Jew had been emancipated in precise measure as the Christians had become Jews. He knew that the Jew, "who was merely tolerated in Vienna", determined by his sole financial power the future of all Europe; that the Jew, who might be without rights in the smallest of the German states, decided the future of Europe. He believed that the Jew had made himself the master of the financial market through the medium of gold which had become a world power, and through the "practical Jewish spirit" which had become the spirit in practice of the Christian people. But, to Marx, this type of emancipation was not enough. Real emancipation, in the Marxist sense, could only be achieved by the total destruction of Christianity.

A tidal wave of atheism rolled across Europe in the wake of Marxism, inundating the low places in Christendom; surged across the seas to America; rising higher and higher to wash against the walls of colleges and universities, even to the pulpits of churches that had withstood fire and sword. As the muddy waters churned and seethed the flags of proud States went down to be lost in the flotsam and filth of the flood. Where the waters receded there appeared great scars of erosion on the face of the Earth; scars that reflected the dwindling dignity of man and his vanishing freedoms.

The apostles of Marx had succeeded better than they knew.

Religious faith and value appeared to be crumbling under the lashing waves of the flood. Eternal truths fled before the raucous shouts and taunts of sensual multitudes, and a long, black night descended over the Earth.

Out of the chaos of the Nineteenth Century arose the powers of Communism and Zionism. Each made its appearance in Russia at almost the same moment; springing full-grown ideologically from the minds of the same ethnic group. One movement announced that it sought world power and intended to take it through revolutionary action. The other group announced its purpose to acquire territory that did not belong to it and demanded exceptional powers and privileges everywhere else in the world. In 1918 both groups attained world significance: Zionism in the Balfour Declaration and Communism in the Russian November revolution. When the confusion of World War I had passed away only Communism and Zionism could claim victories; the Soviet Union in Russia for the Communists, and the beachhead in Palestine for the Zionists, and both movements appeared to be under the same management. Through the years both powers supported, promoted and protected each other. Both emphasized "anti-Semitism" in their propaganda programs, extending it, where advantageous, to include other "minority groups" in the area of their advance. Nationalism everywhere was the perpetual target of the day, yet both movements preached a chauvinistic nationalism never before known. Both planted agents in the governments of the world and manipulated compliant officials to their will. Where expedient they waved the flag and declared that "Communism is Twentieth Century Americanism" and that allegiance to Israel is "American patriotism". Both advocated "oneworldism" and the surrender of the sovereignties of nations to the super-government they intend to create and are determined to control. Both are anti-Christian; both are anti-Republic. Each extol the virtues of democracy while practicing totalitarianism. Both denounce "racism" and "nordic superiority" while professing to be the elite of the world and the Chosen People. Adherents of each group consider themselves strangers sojourning in the land of their birth or residence, surrounded by hostile people. They are convinced that they must bend these foes to their will, utterly exterminate them, or be destroyed themselves.

6/20/98 #2 HATONN

"Anti-Semitism" is largely a myth. It is a "brain-washing" word in the same category with the term "red-baiters" of the thirties. A slight bit of research and a little analysis reveals that it is a Machiavellian device for ideological warfare, and that it is used solely for that purpose. The average curious investigator will find few individuals—if in fact he can find one—who has antipathy for hatred's sake of the Semites of the world. The modern use—and intended implication—becomes clear when it is known that the word "Semite" was originally employed by J.G. Eichborn at the close of the Eighteenth Century to designate the "sons of Shem" which included the Babylonians, Assyrians, Aramaeans, Phoenicians and various other peoples of Southeastern Asia. Today the term is much more properly applied to the Arabs than to Jews. Paradoxically, the most anti-Semitic person in the world is the non-Semitic Khazar Jew because this Jew covets the Semitic Arab's land and possessions. IN FACT, THE GREATEST ANTI-SEMITIC ACT OF THE AGES WAS THE DRIVING OUT BY THE NEW STATE OF ISRAEL OF NEARLY A MILLION ARAB PEOPLE WHO ARE EVEN TODAY HUNGRY AND HOMELESS IN THE DESERT, AN ACT OF BLOODY RAPINE PERFORMED BY NON-SEMITIC KHAZARS. [Emphasis MINE.]

Anti-Semitism, then, is an important propaganda term, designedly provocative both in attack and defense. Its most modern and effective use originated in Russia after the successful Bolshevik Revolution. The laws enacted against "anti-Semitism" by the Soviets sought to silence criticism of the Jewish leadership of the Bolshevik government, and the term was used solely in its ethnic meaning. Since then Communists and organized Jewry have employed the term everywhere, seeking, not the protection of the Jewish people, but protection against criticism of organized Jewry's political activities and objectives. The opprobrium is as ruthlessly thrown—with equal venom—at Jew as well as Gentile, whenever a Jew presumes to criticize the policies of self-appointed "officials" of Jewish organizations who boldly claim the right to speak for him. Anti-Semitism is, literally speaking, non-existent except in the attitude of Khazar Jews toward the Arabs.

Herzl declared that the Jews are what the Ghetto made them. He either believed that the

(SEE P.47 FOR ORDERING INFORMATION)

Ghetto was forced on the Jews or neglected to say that the Ghetto was strictly a Jewish institution. The fact is that Jewish leadership fought for, established, and resisted the abolition of, the Ghetto. Without elaboration or explanation Herzl accepted anti-Semitism in its literal sense, although apparently recognizing the obvious fact that there were Jews who might not exactly be considered “excellent men”. Despairing of solving “the Jewish question” in a sensible and rational manner, he strengthened his Zionist scheme by concluding that “the nations in whose midst Jews live, are all either covertly or openly anti-Semitic.”

The proposition that some people are possessed of an ingrained, unreasonable dislike or hatred of other people, or of a particular people, philosophy, or religion or what-not, is a comparatively recent weapon in ideological warfare. “Attitudes” do not just happen; they are the result of some causation, the effect—and not the origin—of a chain of experiences. The child with the burned finger does not suddenly develop an “attitude” against fire, he has experienced its effect. To assert that there has never been universal dislike and distrust of the Jews would be denying or ignoring the records of history. It is a fact that historians do not magnify or underscore, but a phenomenon that organized Jewry perpetuates and emphasizes. According to Jewish propaganda no other people have been so universally despised, excoriated and persecuted. To ask the Jewish propagandist for the causes of this universal hatred, this excoriation, this cruel treatment, is to be branded, without further hearing, an incurable “Nazi”, a “Fascist” and an “anti-Semite”. The tacit assumption—which must be the “attitude” of all concerned if they are to escape vicious condemnation—is that the Jews are the most innocent, the purest, the most lovable and the most virtuous of all mankind; that their oppressors—Christians for the greater part—are the most brutal, the most evil, the most heartless and the most degenerated of all the people on the earth.

To accept this assumption as true is to be hopelessly stupid. No people are wholly bad or wholly good. Both the good and the bad reputations of a given people are traceable, in large measure to the good-will, the ambitions, the intrigues and the characteristics of their leaders. Thus a Napoleon may earn a bad reputation for the French; a George III a bad name for the English; and a Hitler, a Mussolini and a Stalin an evil character for the respective peoples of the countries they rule. But in between, before, and after, there are other leaders who exemplify the virtues of the people they represent, so that they are known as generous, forgiving, humane and compassionate where on other occasions they had appeared grasping, vengeful, inhuman and ruthless. But, thunders organized Zionism, wherever the Jew sojourned, there he was hated, robbed and persecuted. Nation after nation opened their arms to wandering Jews time and time again only to officially expel them when they had an opportunity to get acquainted with them. According to organized Jewry’s account there were no exceptions recorded on history’s pages, no instance where “they lived happily ever after”. Only periods of sinister calms while the Christian persecutors recovered their breath and energies for new and more frightful atrocities against them.

What must an honest and impartial student of such a story reasonably conclude? That the Christians are, and always have been, a brutalized and unregenerated lot? That the Jew has always been an innocent victim, without evil, without provocation and without fault? Only an idiot or a partisan might so conclude. Reason dictates that no man or group of men may claim perfection. To assert that everyone is out of step but Jim is to be either completely blind to Jim’s shortcomings or a bigoted liar. Reason therefore dictates that the Jewish assertion of universal hatred of the Jews was either deserved or that the assertion is untrue.

People have always reacted in much the same way as they do today. There isn’t much evidence at hand to prove that they are much better or much worse in our time than they have been through the ages. Kindness, decency, and courtesy have always been contagious and good-will always created good-will. If there has been universal dislike and distrust of the Jews then it is necessary to look for the cause. It is unreasonable to believe that the Jews themselves, merely because they are Jews, were the cause.

The answer must be found in the character of Jewish leadership.

The cry of “religious persecution” began to sound hollow a long time ago. It was used in the beginning as the term “racism” is employed today, and for the same purpose. It was designed to amalgamate Jewish interest with dissonant Christian sects for the advancement of Jewish ambitions. Wherever it has been possible it has been organized Jewry that has engaged in “religious persecution”. While there have been, are, and undoubtedly will continue to be, doctrinal disagreements within the Christian Churches, none of these disputes attack the basis of Christianity itself. One need only turn to the “Jewish Year Books” and scan the list of Christological Manifestations under attack by organized Jewry to get a picture of religious persecution in the United States. (See Zion’s Fifth Column.) Both the Catholic and Protestant respect the followers of Judaism. Only organized Jewry appears to hate Christianity. Its long record of strenuous effort to eradicate every vestige of Christian expression from everyday life in America is easily discovered.

Herzl was quick to point out that “modern anti-Semitism is not to be confounded with the religious persecution of the Jews of former times.” He did not believe that the question was social. To the founder of Zionism “anti-Semitism” was a “national” question, because the Jews “are a people—one people”.

Jewish writers and Gentile apologists have offered self-serving “reasons” for anti-Semitism. Jewish writers, without attempting to refute the charges, appear to be the first to explain Jewish persecution on the ground that Jews were “falsely alleged” to constitute a “race” bent upon exploiting the Gentile populations among whom they lived. A second theory of more recent invention is the “scapegoat” theme. In the same manner that Marxists reason fascism to be the product of expiring capitalism, some Jewish writers profess to explain anti-Semitism as a product of “decaying social systems”. In some instances the reasoning is identical. The “decaying social order” through its “bankrupt leadership” incites the mobs to pogroms against the Jews to deflect the wrath of the impoverished away from the “landlords” calls for Jewish persecution so that “exploited workers” may direct their violence against the “innocent Israelites” instead of the “voracious employers and officials”. It should be apparent that this explanation is without rhyme or reason. It is pure invention without historical documentation; a gross insult to Christendom thinly veiled in psychological speculation.

What, then, is the basis for alleged anti-Semitism?

The answer is that anti-Semitism is non-existent. It is a term of Communist and Zionist invention to shield anti-Gentilism. “The Jews are a distinct nationality,” declared Justice Louis D. Brandeis of the Supreme Court of the United States. Said Theodor Herzl: “I will give you my definition of a nation; and you can add the adjective ‘Jewish’. A Nation is, in my mind, an historical group of men of recognizable cohesion held together by a common enemy. Then, if you add to that the word ‘Jewish’ you have what I understand to be the Jewish Nation.” [H: Keep in mind as you read this and can hardly believe your eyes; Herzl was the very founder of Jewish Zionism.]

“Anti-Semitism”, therefore, may be said to be paint on Zion’s Trojan Horse. [H: I guess so since none of the Jewish Zionists are Semites.]

The “common enemy” of the Jewish Nation, on Herzl’s authority, is Christianity. The leaders of Jewry through the ages looked upon Christians everywhere through the eyes of Simon ben Yohai and their ingrained attitude was perpetually anti-Gentile and anti-Christian. Such an attitude drilled into the hearts and the minds of succeeding generations of Jews must necessarily be reflected in their daily contacts and dealings with the despised enemy, must necessarily chafe and inflame the concealed resentment smoldering in the breasts of every one of them. To be the elite, the chosen people, the People of the Covenant, and yet to be compelled to seek haven and refuge in the lands of the “mortal foe” must be humiliating and frustrating beyond endurance. To outwit, to trick, to maneuver and manipulate the enemy becomes an outlet for suppressed hatred. When their guiles are discovered and the wrath of the deceived fall upon their heads they cry out that they are the victims of “religious persecution” and “anti-Semitism”.

Among the many illustrations of this characteristic of Jewish leadership may be mentioned the Jewish Socialist Bund uprising in Odessa, Russia in 1905. The reign of terror was insolent, anti-National, violent and bloody. Rich Jewish merchants financed the purchase of arms which were distributed among several thousands of the younger men. Mobs of these armed Jews paraded the streets carrying the red flag. Believing they had succeeded in the revolt they proclaimed the South Russian Republic. The Municipal Council of Odessa formed itself into a Committee of Public Safety and issued a series of decrees in the presence of delegations from the Bund. Desiring to cripple the armed power, the Jews demanded the withdrawal of the regular military forces, the disarming of the police and the establishment of a citizenship-militia. When the counter-revolution came and the Bundists were hunted down and arrested the cry of “anti-Semitism” led many in other lands to believe that Czarist Russia had again embarked upon a cruel pogrom against the Jews.

There may have been and there probably were instances of unfounded abuse of the Jews. To believe otherwise is to be as bigoted as organized Jewry. History records many injustices to many people, the least of which, incidentally, were the Jews. But, unless Christianity is willing to assume the role organized Jewry has written for it—that of a brutal, inhuman, unreasoning mass of sadistic tyrants and despots—the alleged universal distrust and dislike of the Jews must have been merited. And—in case this may be quoted out of context—let it be remembered that it is organized Jewry who poses the universal Jewish persecution postulate.

The crux of the subject of “anti-Semitism” is to be found in the Nazi-like concept of race-purity and race-superiority; in the obsession that the Jew, regardless of his country, his station in life, the shade of his belief or lack of belief, his political orientation, or any other consideration, is a member of a distinct and special nationality. “To deny Jewish nationality”, asserts one Jewish authority, “you must deny the existence of the Jew.” Leon Simon declared that “Judaism has no message of salvation for the individual soul, as Christianity has; all its ideas are bound up with the existence of the Jewish nation.” And Moses Hess, “the Communist Rabbi”, wrote that “every Jew is, whether he wishes it or not, solidly united with the entire nation.”

Is this not the basic center of Hitler’s dream of the Third Reich; the ingathering of the “blood-brothers”, the protection and liberation of German “minorities”? Did Hitler demand or claim more for the German people than Simon, Herzl, Hess and Brandeis demanded and claimed for the Jews? The answer to this may be that Hitler was modest by comparison.

The result of such philosophy—and the subject might be extended ad infinitum—is the creation of a monolithic concept of race-superiority that defies every effort of good-will for the establishment of the brotherhood of man.

CHANCE OR DESIGN?

As we look back over the history of the last hundred years a number of events stand out in bold relief against the tumult and the shouting. Important among these events are the rise of Marxism, the rise of political Zionism, the frenzied mobilization of world Jewry, the Balfour Declaration, the triumph of communism in Russia, World War I, the League of Nations, the Great Depression, World War II, the United Nations and the invasion and the conquest of Palestine. There were many other events, of course, but none with such sweeping continuity and importance; none of such magnitude in world-shaking consequence.

Were these events the disconnected results of the muddled minds that purported to direct the destiny of nations? Were they merely the accidental sum totals of mistaken calculations? Were they the chance results of a careless throw of dice from the trembling hands of an insane Destiny?

Are they connected in such a manner as to indicate the result of clever planning? Does each event follow in natural sequence and in logical order?

We believe that each event is a logical step in a predetermined schedule; each indicates a link in a chain carefully designed and forged; each catastrophe a check-mark on a time-table to world conquest. We venture the opinion that there remains but two further important events for the successful culmination of a well-laid plan—World War III and World Government.

IT SHOULD BE MADE CLEAR IN THIS ANALYSIS THAT WORLD JEWRY, ALTHOUGH IT MAY BE THE MEANS, IS AS MUCH A VICTIM IN THIS SCHEME OF THINGS AS ARE THE GENTILES. And although world Jewry may be the means, compliant Gentile officialdom is the instrument.

Marxism may be said to be a device for de-Christianizing Christendom; a chisel for dividing Nations and fragmentizing its citizenry. It is, in addition, an atheistic philosophy for brutalizing humanity, a doctrine of hate, of violence and bloodshed. Its battle cries of “brotherhood” and “equality” are deceptive slogans for class-hatred and slavery. Wherever Marxism has marched, brother has hated brother; its trail has been marked by mountains of dead and rivers of blood. The internationalism it preaches is designed to smother patriotism so that its victims will not resist conquest; its “classless society” is a world of slaves and masters. Through the years from the “Communist Manifesto” in 1848 its sinister doctrines have been preached wherever men might listen. [H: This manifesto in point here is almost IDENTICAL TO THE PROTOCOLS OF ZION.] Its oriental devices have been refined and perfected, and its trickery is practiced by cunning men throughout the world. Its doctrines have been carried by Jewish emigrants into the crowded places of the Diaspora where Jewish Socialist Bund branches nourished them and injected their virus into the blood-streams of other nations. Its inhuman philosophy bears the mark of Cain. Its gross materialism has stripped the world of its values and ushered in the Age of Delusion. Its divisive technique is an important part in a plan, perhaps the plan itself. [H: And again I would caution you to not read bigotry into these reports. The hardest hit by these antics are the Jewish people themselves for they are the first to be put down because they don’t know what has come upon them until it is too late to be objective. These are not “fellow Jewish people”, these are the Elite New World Order set to take everything from all of you WORLD CITIZENS—including the JEWS.]

As the years marched by, Marx’s disciple, Moses Hess, would preach of utopia in Zion, and another Marxist, Ferdinand Lassalle, would mobilize the proletariat for political power. A Pinsker and a Ginzberg would sing of Zion and ultimately a Herzl would proclaim the Jewish State. World Jewry would mobilize and a first World War would wring a declaration for a “Jewish Homeland in Palestine” from an English Balfour, persuaded to barter an innocent people for dubious Jewish assistance in a great conflict. A Jewish chemist with first hand knowledge of the chemical wealth of an ancient body of water (the Dead Sea) would negotiate the deal and ultimately become the first president of the betrayed land.

With the passing of time a blood-red dawn would suddenly break over Holy Russia. Exiled refugees would return from New York’s East side to attack Russia’s new Republic, while stabbing her bleeding armies in the back. Fires of revolt would sweep over the doomed nation. Jewish bankers would supply finances for Bolshevik armies led by a Jew from the Ukraine, and in the end freedom would perish and the Russian revolution would succeed.

Jews with no official status whatever would descend on Paris when World War I had ended to demand a League of Nations and the inclusion of its own “minority” clauses in peace treaties imposed upon the lands carved out of nations broken by war. The unsuspecting Peace Conference officials would comply; the Jewish clauses would be imposed, and the League of Nations would come into being.

In the years of its decline the League of Nations would become a disappointment to organized Jewry and its ultimate failure would be attributed by Jewish leaders to the “narrow patriotism” of the American people who blocked United States’ participation. Its failure would be part of a plan that failed, but it would not be the failure of the plan.

As the years rolled along there would come great prosperity. An alien Jew from Germany would have reorganized the banking system of the United States to more closely conform to the banking institutions controlled and operated by his Jewish brethren in Europe. He would presume to rewrite the banking laws of his adopted country and ultimately sit in an important position on the Board of the Federal Reserve Bank of the United States. Financial panic would follow prosperity and a hungry people would turn to any Pied Piper with a plan for sustenance. Communism would become fashionable and its agents would find influential places at the shoulders of the rulers of the world. Agents of Zionism and Communism would become Iagos to the nations’ Othellos and World War II would be in the making.

World War II! As we now contemplate it in its proper perspective it seems to fill an important gap in the picture that is taking shape in our jig-saw puzzle. Was this world conflagration the natural, reasonable and logical outgrowth of the conflict of national interests? Is there anything significant in the first phase of the war (September 1939 to May 1940) which was called “phony”; the long months when the English and French faced the armies of Germany and did nothing much about it? During the thirty-five days of the Polish campaign and for about eight months thereafter, the quiet of the western front was unbroken. Could it be possible that this strange, passive inactivity on the part of hostile powers had some connection with the tramp of Soviet boots into Poland, Finland, Estonia, Latvia and Lithuania? What part did the Communist Parties of the world play in the “sitzkrieg” that marked the pastoral peace of the western front? What mysterious force caused the National Committee of the Communist Party of the United States to declare in October 1939 that “this war... is not a war against fascism, not a war to protect small nations from aggression...” and to declare just as emphatically in July of 1941 “down with the criminal war of German fascism against the Soviet Union”? Did it make sense in the beginning? In the middle, or in the end?

These are a few of the many questions that no one has satisfactorily answered. Perhaps they cannot be answered in the course of conventional inquiry. They scarce may be asked without provoking disapproval. The question-marks from larger in perspective and inquiring minds must necessarily seek answers behind the iron curtain of censorship and secrecy—even into the dark recesses of diplomatic intrigues where no confidential documents are filed.

To speak of Yalta and Potsdam is to provoke another torrent of questions. The betrayal of Poland and China and other loyal allies; Korea and the defeat of American arms under United Nations direction; all these things—and many more—cry out for explanation and clarification. Whatever is said, no matter how well said—no matter how cleverly composed—the eternal question-mark remains. Is it because no one dares ask about the unknown quantity, the missing “x” in the equation?

Ambitious men have been known to deliberately provoke war in order to advance their own interests. History calmly records their steps of provocation, frankly traces the design of their deadly maneuvers. They were usually men who headed petty principalities although there were others who headed great States. In every case they gambled their own necks and fortunes on the outcome of the conflict and often shared the fate of the most humble of their people in the disaster of the conflagration they kindled. History does not speak kindly of such men.

That it is possible to promote and instigate wars is plainly obvious. Is it possible that men may be capable of adroitly promoting antagonisms between nations and cleverly maneuvering them into hostile positions from which they are unable to extricate themselves without resort to armed conflict? The answer, on the record of history, must be in the affirmative. It is neither fantastic nor incredible. War is but the natural continuation of frustrated diplomacy and the bayonet is easily substituted for the umbrella. And it is not improbable that wars have been instigated by third parties. Quite a number of historical instances may be found. In each case the conspirator must desire the ultimate weakness of the warring power and he must have an interest in the aftermath of war. He must necessarily have the confidence of the leaders of both sides of the conflict, either personally or through trusted agents. He must be powerful in his own way, machiavellian in his methods, and ruthless in the execution of his plan.

Is it possible for an international organization to deliberately maneuver nations into a world war? The answer again must be in the affirmative. What type of organization would be capable of succeeding in such an action? Only an organization devoid of any allegiance whatever to any nation and whose objectives exclude the interests of the organized states of the world. Its particular interests and objectives must be served in some manner by the devastating aftermath of war. It must have exhausted its efforts in the fields of propaganda and diplomacy. Such an organization must be led by men who are international in thought and action. They must be men who are incurably hostile to the world and who are convinced that the world is hostile to them and all they represent. They must, of necessity, believe themselves superior to all others and have an abiding faith that their objectives are sacred. They must be convinced that the end thoroughly justifies the means. They must be possessed of unlimited funds and supported by innumerable loyal agents. They must have access to the ears of the mighty and their agents must have the confidence of the powerful in every important post throughout the world. They must be able to manipulate the mysteries of finance and control the minds and actions of people offers—and relate it to this very day’s activities.

Let us consider the banks’ position in, say, Switzerland. Switzerland is the only remaining gold-standard country. That has been a target of the World Order Elite for the last several years—to corner all the gold everywhere by any means possible. Now we have an assault that can’t be settled by reasonable men and logical brainpower. It is assumed, because Mr. Bronfman’s Jewish organization suddenly decides that there are funds from Jews possibly in those banks—the sky falls. Bronfman and this bunch of hoodlums decide this may well be the way to destroy those dastardly banks and bankers—in the name of HOLOCAUST VICTIMS. My God, readers, how many people COULD HAVE BEEN AROUND TO BE HOLOCAUST VICTIMS? The world is PAYING more Jews restitution than there were Jews at any time in history. What is this new thing that demands all the gold of the world as if the only persons in the world who had ANYTHING were the Jews? If this be so—then for goodness sakes, how could they claim such persecution and hardship for all the years of their lives?

WHO PERSECUTED THE SO-CALLED JEWS? Well, the Jewish people have been persecuted by and large in all instances—BY THE FALSE JEWISH PEOPLE—THE ZIONIST JEWS FROM THE LEAGUES OF THE KHAZARS. For goodness sakes, readers, HITLER WAS JEWISH. What is this buying into every stupid story that comes along? HOW MANY JEWISH PEOPLE WILL SUFFER AND DIE BECAUSE OF THESE NEW GAMES OF THE ZIONIST ONE WORLDERS? ALL OF THEM, IF THE BRAINS IN CHARGE HAVE ANYTHING TO DO WITH IT, BECAUSE THE JEWISH PEOPLE WHO REALIZE WHAT IS TAKING PLACE WILL HAVE TO BE SILENCED—JUST AS IN RUSSIA AND GERMANY, POLAND AND EUROPEAN NATIONS AS A WHOLE.

Perhaps now is a time to repeat Karen’s little reminder:

FORGIVENESS

*I forgive you,
and I forgive myself
for being caught in the process of change
and for our being UNABLE
TO SEE EACH OTHER CLEARLY.*

And, may GOD bless you with eyes to see and ears to hear that you can recognize the need for change and do so before it is too late. Salu.

and I forgive myself
for being caught in the process of change
and for our being UNABLE TO SEE EACH OTHER

everywhere. They must be in control of the means of communication and dominate the propaganda media throughout the world. And, finally, they must have a well conceived plan that allows for errors and failures; a plan that reckons the possibility of road-blocks and delays, but charts the methods of demolition where possible and the shortest detours where other devices fall. They must be men who are endowed with oriental patience as well as oriental cunning; men who might spend a lifetime picking a lock so that their successor might enter the door.

Korton: Spotting Modern Evil's Ancient Roots

6/12/98 KORTON

Good morning, Commander Tomeros Maasu Korton here, in Radiance and Light and in service unto Creator Source. A great deal is happening these days in your nations and your world, as the elite factions begin preparations to unveil your new Global Government with its infrastructure of fascist paramilitary police enforcers.

Many are awakening to what is taking place as they witness your way of life going down the drain. As always you ones have the power to stop this mad dash to destruction, but the question is: WILL YOU? Your adversary does not believe enough of you will awaken in time to stop them, hence the blatant presentation of power and manipulation of your freedoms, thinly disguised as justifiable reactions to "random happenings" and "accidents". Are you forgetting that you are dealing with the prince of deception himself?

TORNADOS, SCHOOL KILLINGS AND TRANSPORTATION MISHAPS

The evil manipulators are using incredible (to you) devices and technologies to bring about their aims through control of that which has always been seen by uninformed and unenlightened citizens as natural occurrences, freaks of Nature, and unprovoked rampant crime. This is how the game is played by your big boys holding the "keys of knowledge" regarding the inner sanctum of their fraternal orders and clubs.

They have developed advanced mind-control techniques to use on the assailants AND their victims (you) so the bloodshed can continue and to ensure that you-the-people believe the lies given forth to explain it all away.

ANY media-hyped shooting incident is set up and devised by your adversary to legally cover their bases when it comes time to forcibly remove your weapons of self-defense. Always the groundwork is laid before a plan is carried out.

As any good chess player knows, many pieces are moved to set the trap for your opponent's king, most being diversionary tactics to keep your opponent so busy and overwhelmed that he misses the little things. It is always, in the end, a quiet and unobtrusive move which signals the coming defeat—something that could have been circumvented IF seen in time to counter. Please, keep in mind the goal of your enemy; that way you are not overwhelmed by "the little things" designed to distract you.

Does El Nino again get the credit for your new tornado, flood, and climate patterns? Where was this supposedly seasonal El Nino during decades past? Whether you believe it is a natural "freak" occurrence or advanced weather modification at its increasingly deadly and accurate best, you should realize that you are in the days where you are being hit with every conceivable "distraction"—one after another—until you ones are so subdued that it will not matter what "gets you" in the end.

You are already at war, in case you haven't noticed, and the conventional weapons ARE NOT the first salvos fired at you. Your Bolshevik rulers and the Russian High Command are using their most advanced weaponry of "Star Wars" conception to wage unholy war against each other and the citizenry of helpless pawns on both sides of the playing field. Secrecy is the master strategy for both sides, for it is THE strategy that allows for the biggest prize to be won—a planet whose people are shrouded in ignorance.

Beam weapons of the neutron variety can very easily cause planes, trains, automobiles, and missiles to crash, allowing the incidents to appear as accidents. The public is none the wiser, and lacking a good reason why such a thing would be done purposely, all possible TRUTHFUL explanations are dismissed by way of the "nutty" conspiracy theories designed to facilitate just such a response.

When your airports and train stations are taken from you under the guise of "safety problems" and anti-terrorist countermeasures, you will be sorry you missed these little clues—especially when you had time to act. FEMA needs only one or two good excuses to bring your country under TOTAL DICTATORIAL RULE—WITH NO CONSTITUTIONAL SAFEGUARDS IN PLACE TO CONTROL THE ONES WHO

HEAD THE AGENCY!

Surprised that such an oversight of such magnitude got by the political watchdogs? Dear ones, that is why the Federal Emergency Management Agency was created in the first place—as a mechanism to get control over your nation quickly and in a massive way.

FEMA IS FASCISM'S TWENTY-FIRST CENTURY FACELIFT

Fascism has been around for centuries, but your educational system does not teach you enough facts to see the truth of the matter. Your ancient Roman aristocracy is alive and well in your modern political circles, and to this day holds the reins on art, commerce, money, education, and war.

You must understand that your elite power brokers have NEVER lost sight of their goals or their ancestral lineage. You, on the other hand, have no notion of what have been the true historical progressions of your various countries—and their interconnected relations with each other. You do not know why your world destiny (with its kingdoms, empires, and nations) took the turns and made the decisions it has, despite any delusions of input from its supposedly self-governing peoples. Your esteemed history books offer no such outlayings of information.

And why should they? The master criminals would all be exposed for their roles, and their families' roles, in stealing massive fortunes and lands from the indigenous souls of the world. That is why this specific form of government was conjured; it lends itself so well to the systematic raping and pillaging of a population that the citizens themselves call for the slave masters to increase their hold over you. Under the fascist system of government lies a well thought out political structure that accommodates itself quite nicely to control of the masses by but a very few.

Your own U.S. government is tied LEGALLY to this treasonous system of the ancient moneychangers, and it is through your own political structure that the thieves have stolen a world. Your "Capitol Hill" is a direct manifestation of the ancient Roman “Capitoline Hill”—complete with a reconstructed wading pond, architectural and street layouts corresponding to secret Masonic symbols—even the Roman “money” temple Juno Moneta (where it was decreed “money” will be the “god” of the people) was integrated into your modern political system.

Your Vatican mafia and religious structure owns the buildings and land from which your government operates. Do you think the Watergate Hotel’s easy access and underworld activities escaped the eyes of the very ones who owned the property? My friends, with almost a billion worshipers who follow the papal dynasty, that kind of “easy pickings” is just too tempting for even the most unimaginative crooks to pass up. Control of a planet is their intent and a billion people become a billion pawns of greater human resources to be funneled toward achieving the goal.

The Vatican runs your government, along with the Zionist puppet-masters whose modus operandi is blackmail and bribery. These two groups are presently at odds with each other, as happens with any joint effort between criminals lusting after massive spoils.

However, let us not leave the Russian element out of our equation, for it is they who have the best tools for getting inside a government structure to manipulate the puppets’ puppets for their own agenda. Synthetic replicas of humans do make for interesting “wrenches” tossed into the world political machinery.

Moreover, since you have been partners with the Soviet element in the Kremlin, under the covers, since the beginning, do not underestimate their role in America’s destiny, either. The American Bolsheviks know wherefrom are their roots.

There is a definite religious and political connection between St. Peter’s Basilica (your world’s largest church) and your nation’s Capitol. The fall of Rome, with all its pageantry and betrayal of its governors and unwitting citizens, being likened to Washington D.C., is no coincidence—ROME LITERALLY IS WASHINGTON! The Sun never sets beyond the borders of your adversary’s sprawling empire.

VATICAN MAFIA AND MISHPUCKA ZIONISTS’ POWER STRUGGLE FOR OWNERSHIP OF AMERICA

The Italian mafia and its CIA bedfellows lost ownership of the U.S. to the Jewish mishpucka (mafia) and their intelligence agency, the Mossad. For a long time, Italy’s U.S. Navy Intelligence has controlled a formidable chunk of America’s arsenal. However, when FEMA was created by Bush, Carter, Oliver North, et al., the stockpiling of weapons—especially nuclear bombs and STEALTH Navy ships—allowed the mishpucka mob to edge the Italians out.

Now the Vatican is being hit at home—mortally wounding its ancient infrastructure. And as their evil empire crumbles and falls, so too will America, because the U.S. infrastructure was built by the Italian mafia through auspices of the Rockefeller Cartel.

Vatican/CIA/Mafia criminals pitted against the Zionist/Mossad/Mishpucka gang of terrorists have become two murderous cancers that have eaten away the moral foundation of civilization itself, and they have brought your world to its deathbed of terminal illness.

There are other crime cartels and families, to be sure; however, these two are the ones which set the pace for the others. They are both ancient in origin and diabolical in means, and both have changed their names with the passing centuries to remain the hidden motivating force behind corruption of religion, politics, and high finance, for it is they who are the heavyweight puppets of the dark master in the battle over men’s souls.

Their power is absolute, in Earth terms, and their day is here. There is no one left to enslave; you in the U.S. are already captured-and-paid-for servants and cannon fodder. However, your SOUL—with its ideal of freedom—has not yet been extinguished. Nevertheless, that too looms on the horizon. You don’t have to take my word for it—just look around you!

Your automobile industry is largely what created a prosperous modern America. This was THE industry which allowed you the distinction of being a “Superpower”. Of course it, in conjunction with its satellite industries, has also created your planet’s super pollution horror.

Another definition of fascism is big business in partnership with big government. Well, the business of war is about as big as it gets, chelas. Thus, when your atomic weapons and other so-called weapons of mass destruction began to be used (in conjured wars) by the munitions makers to further increase their wealth, you no longer depended upon that which you MANUFACTURED for barter and gold exchange to decide your standing in the world.

Behind the closed ivory and gold doors of Lucifer’s 40 thieves (that number is not too far off, only a few families and individuals control it all), the policy became “the one with the biggest stick” would sit on the world throne. And you have been in what you call an “arms race” ever since.

THE ANCIENT CONNECTION AND PROOF OF EVIL’S INFLUENCE

Evil’s grip on your nation and the countries of the world has a long and tangled but followable history. You don’t have to look any farther than your local and state capitols to see the connection. Nearly all those buildings have domes on them because that was the structure decided upon for the “temples” of the ones who would rule over you. The “Domas” is part of the secret Babylonian/Canaanite/Masonic symbol-worshiping used to denote “divine rule”—as the evil ones ordained themselves to always be your masters. You do not question these things because you are not taught anything meaningful about your religious past.

You have no notion of the significance of the very words and symbols used in your houses of worship and government, nor their actual meaning. Your cozy Americanized Christian word “Zion”, for instance, means “permanent Capital”. This is a direct connection to the Roman “Capitoline” Hill. The word “Pope” translates from Latin as “door” or “way” and means the Bishop of Rome represents “the way” to the secrets of Babylon—the ancient totalitarian structure that has become your present form of tyranny. Even his “Cardinals”—“hinges” in Latin—have their place in assisting and guarding this secret knowledge. The Babylonian system of government is very much alive today, though most ones are unaware of it.

The Fasci was derived from an ancient ROMAN symbol of authority consisting of a bundle of rods or sticks and an axe head. Need a better picture of it in your minds? When the House of Representatives next convenes, look on either side of your American flag, behind the House Speaker, and you will see two of them in all their defiant glory, proclaiming to all WHO really runs your nation.

Did you forget you went to war against World Fascism in World War II? This is another war you did not win. Always the international banksters are the victors. The devastation, poverty, and heavy taxation is the reward to ALL THE COUNTRIES WHO PARTICIPATED!

And now, as the spoils of a beaten America are divided between elite victors, you watch as your country’s businesses and major industries are stripped from you. Soon the very ground beneath your weary feet will be in foreclosure—it already is, you just haven’t been told as much. So far it has been done without openly firing a shot, just as Lenin claimed they would do.

Fascism is always symbolized by the bundle of sticks, representing the chosen member provinces or nations, and an axe or hatchet head, symbolizing their absolute and ruthlessly decisive power.

Chelas, this is not what you would term a free, Christ-following political movement. These are the very ones plotting the takeover of your country, and you sit there allowing them to literally laugh at you while they divvy up your property and dole out your national assets. As they hammer out the final details regarding the best way to dispose of you, you argue over issues put forth by the adversary to distract you.

Be it racism, Internet censorship, Jerry Springer, or the latest celebrity murder, your adversary doesn’t hesitate to take out famous faces amidst fanfare and controversy to further distract you. They know how you Americans love your “stars”. Keeping the media focus on these things allows Truth to quietly slip past you at the back of the newspaper page or as a side note in your local news broadcasts.

WHAT ABOUT THE GERMANS?

Where are the Germans in this Global Millennium showdown? Sitting right in the middle, they are the brains behind the world manipulation game. Remember Hitler’s 2000-year Reich? His “New World Order”—adopted by Prescott Bush and passed on down to his son, Sir George—IS A NAZI PLAN. So were the Nazis the originators of the world domination scenario? No, just capitalizing innovators concerning what was taking place around them.

The German banking family of Khazarian banksters, the Rothschilds, have as their coat of arms a red shield (“rot-schildt” in German, from which comes the name Rothschild) with A ROMAN WREATH AND FASCI. This is the very same family who caused the American Civil War so the banking syndicate could acquire the wealth of your South—not to free Black slaves as you were told.

Africans, Chinese, and Irish slaves (and others forced or bartered into servitude) were already in the process of gaining their freedoms. The Spirit prevailing in the New World's "land of the free" was that ALL would be free or none would be safe from the tyranny of would-be slave masters; by the way, it was for the purposes of quelling your peoples that a New World ORDER was created.

In 1857 a pivotal meeting took place in London where the old principle of "divide and conquer" was to be used on a fledgling America. If you require more Earth-based sources for your research, an AUTHORIZED biography entitled The Rothschilds, The Financial Rulers Of Nations, by John Reeves, says it all in the title.

If you are thrown off the trail by the German Rothschilds' "Jewish" (Khazarian) heritage, just keep uppermost in your thoughts that Hitler and the Zionist "Jews" (again, NOT the God-respecting Judeans) were partners. How do you think he got into power in the first place??!

Hitler wanted a more "Zionist behavior" from the regular "Jewish" population. His vision of an Aryan Nation is not told to you exactly the way it actually was. You needn't look any further than Hitler's hair color, stature and facial features to see that he more closely resembles Moses Horowitz, better known as "Moe" from the Jewish comedy trio The Three Stooges, than he does the blond, blue-eyed, tall, so-called Aryans. You have no idea what your races looked like when you were not so blended.

Prussia, a militaristic state of north central Europe that dominated Germany until the rise of Nazism, at the height of its strength stretched from west of the Rhine to Poland and Russia. The Baltic territory later known as East Prussia was Germanized by the Teutonic Knights in the 1200s and later became the duchy of Prussia.

Hessian (German) mercenaries, who fought AGAINST AMERICA (siding with the British) during the Revolutionary War, were the enforcers for the Rothschilds when they began pitting brother against brother for profit. The profit was used to BUY power and influence through SECRET FRATERNAL ORDERS (which exist today and comprise the innermost sanctums of your intelligence groups) to gain control over Europe and all that was considered the "Old World".

When it began to be realized how vast the potential wealth and natural resources of the United States was going to be, the Rothschilds, and their partners among the Royal Families of Europe, pulled together all their means to perpetrate the theft of an entire country. So you see, a certain dark "parasitic" element that controlled Germany was greatly involved with the usurpers of freedom and manipulators of Truth and human history as it unfolded into your modern society and beliefs.

Remember that German "Jewish" scholars gave you your present version of your Holy Bible with more than TWO DOZEN books purposely left out! What more can I say?

GERMAN FASCISM AND THE BAVARIAN ILLUMINATI

Germany has had help (just as have other nations) from "illuminated ones" endeavoring to align themselves with governments who pledge to aid and advance mankind in his technical and spiritual aspirations; and, like many nations before and after Germany, their leaders led the people astray.

Ever since her Hessian mercenary warriors were for hire to the robber barons, and experienced the relative wealth gained from this emerging INDUSTRY, Germany's misguided sense of superiority over their fellow human beings began to flourish. The Bavarian-based Illuminati (with its accumulation of knowledge and minds borrowed or stolen from other places), which aligned itself with Hitler, misunderstood "illuminated people" to be an illuminated race. Just as with the Zionists being denounced at the United Nations for their racist views of all non-Zionists, Nazism was destined to fall because of those same bigoted beliefs.

As with pre-war Germany, Fascists have come to power AFTER a nation has suffered an economic collapse, a military defeat, or SOME OTHER DISASTER—MANMADE OR OTHERWISE. The fascist party wins mass support by promising to revive the economy and to restore national pride. The fascists may also appeal to a fear of communism or a hatred of Jews and other "minorities".

To give you a better idea of what your secret rulers are up to, look at this outline of fascism:

Personal liberty is severely limited under a fascist government. (Keep in mind, readers, this is not Korton's projection; this is your own definition of that governmental system to which you pay your ever increasing taxes as you bow and scrape in front of those fasci symbols—supposedly representing YOUR congress).

A fascist government limits travel to other countries (that includes states and cities too, chelas) and restricts any contact with their people.

A FASCIST GOVERNMENT ALSO CONTROLS THE NEWSPAPERS, RADIO AND ALL PRESENT AND FUTURE MEANS OF COMMUNICATIONS. (This should give you a better understanding of the barrage of bills being written to censure and control your expanding computer Internet).

A fascist government issues propaganda (movies and TV programs being the most effective) to promote its policies, and practices strict censorship to silence opposing views. (This is why there was no follow-up story to the Extra interview with CONTACT—the CIA and FBI know nothing else to do with you ones and further "reporting" only reveals more TRUTH as to how your world really operates.)

A secret police force crushes any resistance (ATF, IRS, FBI, FinCIN—take your pick). Opposition may lead to imprisonment, torture, and death. This is why former political players and insiders are tightlipped and running scared—they know what kind of justice awaits them if they talk. Heaven forbid a convenient scapegoat is needed; Satan has no qualms about sacrificing his own.

All children are required to join youth groups and "boot camp"-style organizations where they exercise, march, and learn fascist beliefs. Does this not sound like the new juvenile correctional/training facilities springing up all over the country in response to the rash of orchestrated and provoked adolescent crimes and delinquency?

Fascists consider all other peoples inferior to those of their own nationality group. As you can see, this political front is easily adaptable to whomever adopts its views; it is an equal opportunity dictatorship.

U.S. DIDN'T DETECT NUCLEAR BLASTS BECAUSE YOU HAVE NO FUNCTIONING SPY SATELLITES IN ORBIT

The Russians long ago shot down all American spy satellites with their manned killer satellites known as Cosmos Interceptors. You are allowed your banking and certain communications satellites to facilitate financial AND HUMAN tracking systems for the Global Government. However, nothing that could remotely threaten the Russians is allowed to go into orbit—or stay very long if indeed your rockets made it into space. You have many secret rocket launches that are shot down or are simply destroyed on the pad. You are at war, friends, and the sleeping masses remain unaware.

Why don't we show ourselves over your cities and preempt your TV programs to give you Truth? That would be the instant we sign your death certificates; your controllers would jump at the opportunity to ignite the powder-keg your napping population sits on. There is no nice way to put it: YOU ARE HOSTAGES!! AND UNTIL SUCH TIME AS YOUR CAPTORS ARE REMOVED FROM YOUR PLACES OF INFLUENCE AND POWER, THERE IS NAUGHT WE OF THE HOSTS CAN DO BUT INFORM YOU THROUGH AVAILABLE MEANS AND STAND READY WITH THE LIFEBOATS.

When your advisors say they are sending satellites to "look into the problem", they are more likely talking about other craft with sufficient surveillance capability and they too are no match for Russian space weapons. At best you are going to get lies and half-truths regarding what your nuclear neighbors are up to.

INDIA AND PAKISTAN HAVE ALREADY BEEN MEMBERS OF THE NUCLEAR CLUB

The governments of India and Pakistan, as well as your other modern warring nations, have been nuclear powers for some time. Whether their weapons are provided through "sweetheart" deals, like what was given to the Chinese, the Israelis, Iran, and others, or acquired through intelligence "cells" (whereby a makeshift device the size of a backpack can easily end up in the hands of a smalltime tyrant looking to make a name for himself in a most spectacular way), the munitions makers have seen to it that just about anyone who wants a bomb can get one.

Your adversary HAS to have a nuclear war; it is the only way to get what they are after without God interfering (too much). You have many thousands of very powerful warheads poised to send you back to the stone age as a civilization. Your elite, however, plan to ride out the war in various terrestrial and non-terrestrial bases, and when it's all over, rule over those who are left. What they do not realize is that if your Earth is made uninhabitable, NO Earth humans have the capability to survive very long without the LOVE, support, and presence of their nurturing home world. Your island solar system would be devoid of human life until such time as God saw fit to allow your form of life to again inhabit this small corner of His Universe.

Every day that passes that you do not have nuclear war should be another blessed day you have to prepare yourselves to either prevent the holocaust or safeguard your communities and nation AND PEOPLE by building shelters. Like we have told you before, the very fact of having a shelter deters the desirability and feasibility to nuke you.

This is what is actually meant by the concept of "Mutually Assured Destruction" (appropriately known as "MAD"). Sir Henry Kissinger's version purposely leaves out the fact that the Russian population would survive the U.S. retaliatory strike in their nice cozy shelters. You-the-people would not last the opening salvos of a nuclear exchange. Every one of your high-level politicians knows this but, as always, the masses are kept in the dark—ABOUT EVERYTHING.

Does this "inevitable" war mean the end of the world as you have known it? Yes and no. Unaverted, your planet and your civilization will undergo massive changes triggered by such an event. Whatever remnant survives will regress back to a pre-industrial time wherein man will be forced to fend for himself the basic necessities of life. Many who are unprepared shall not survive these times.

With no means to rebuild (except for that which your communities brought with them into the shelters), the hapless survivors would become scavengers with no food or potable water. They would experience a calamity unimaginable to your human hearts—no matter how vivid your imagination. When Nostradamus wrote of these days, he saw man turn upon his brother to eat the flesh of his own kind, and man was likened unto the wild beast.

Location would be the deciding factor because, if you are away from the cities, you will not be faced with the desperation and carnage of humans gone mad as they feel sure God has most definitely left them to slowly perish among the ruins of the firestorm. Precious ones, God NEVER leaves man; always, without exception, it is man who abandons God.

If your community is not prepared for its inhabitants to make it through what is coming, then the aftermath will unfold accordingly. No one is going to do it for you, be it saving your assets or your ASS; YOU HAVE TO DO IT! We can only show you the way.

DRUGS AND TV: YOUR BLINDFOLD AND CIGARETTE

By coming up with every excuse imaginable to get you to consume genetically engineered and enhanced dangerous drugs, HOWEVER they are disguised—be they cold medicines, allergy and flu shots, even Viagra (they sure knew how to get the men in a hurry)—your adversary is trying to produce a race of zombies that will not question what is being brought upon them.

Drug- and media-induced "coma" ensures you are not a threat to the manipulators. British Intelligence's Tavistock Institute and their various branches here in America and around the world have known for decades, through experimentation on unsuspecting souls, what your "doses" are for creating nations of functioning illiterates. (I do not mean to offend, but this is how you are referred to in their think tanks.) The real danger of television is its ability to supplement and reinforce, many times over, the desired outcome of the drugs' mind-numbing and yielding effects.

They give you what they have told you you want to view on your television boxes. All the while it is THEIR programing and THEIR choices selected to keep you desiring the wrong things in life.

Your national focus has been shifted from the educational and economic progress and stability you all say you want, to focusing on sensationalism and petty squabbles regarding race and sex differences. Your adversarial groups are against all that is decent and innocent in humanity. They cause strife and conflict because that is how they maintain order over you and, most importantly, gain great wealth from your suffering.

The TV program Mission Impossible made popular an above-top-secret international spy agency called the IMF (Impossible Mission Force) which actually stands for the INTERNATIONAL MONETARY FUND. In real life this nest of covert operatives works for the international bankster elite and it is your free-market economy and sovereign way of life that is THEIR adversary.

Of course you need gold to function in your modern "prosperous" society. However, it is through that medium of exchange that your freedoms have been "sold" to the highest bidder—and, my friends, England is the highest bidder. Money (gold) is what drives the evil manipulators, and it is the love of money that has gotten you into this mess in the first place, so many years ago.

Even shows with a tongue-in-cheek attitude about underworld intrigue and espionage, such as Get Smart, are literally thumbing their noses at the public regarding what is going on behind closed doors. This comedy-drama, with its two opposing spy organizations called "Chaos" and "Control", characterizes the Illuminati's Latin phrase "Ordo ob Chao" or "Order Out of Chaos". By controlling and generating conflicts, and then providing the solutions to those conflicts, the masses are at the mercy of the ones pulling the strings.

ALL EYES ARE ON AMERICA

The foreclosure proceedings have already begun and British Intelligence is chairing the "auction". The goods? England's most prized colony—the United States of America. The "Nation Under God" will be sorely tested this time around, with all eyes (on and off your place) focused on transpiring events as the world moves closer to the new millennium in your counting of time.

NON SEQUITUR / By Wiley

For your Earthly neighbors, this is the show of shows. That is because, as goes you-the-people and your sovereignty, so goes your brothers' hopes of keeping (or acquiring) same.

You sell your souls for that which is touted as "a better way of life", not realizing that your evil controllers truly have bargained with your very souls. When you deal with Satan, you must understand that those in service to the Anti-Christ, for the most part, are without souls. Human life is nothing to them and your Liberties and Rights have even less value, as they are only used as bartering chips in the game of global conquest.

Will you not stand and LAWFULLY rescind the transplanted, ancient political system which unjustly presides over your future? How about the future of humanity?

The ones in power have made the proverbial pact with the "devil" but, as it now stands, you still have Constitutional and corporate (utilizing Nevada corporate structure) means to regain that which God has given you. Remember, ALL OF YOU in America have one thing in common: your DESIRE for freedom. It no longer matters what one race did to another or to selves, it is time you thought of yourselves as ONE PEOPLE WITHIN AND FROM THE ONE SOURCE.

Once your collective consciousness moves up to the frequency of those God-like qualities, you will discover a new power being radiated from your place—a new energy to combat that which is against God and His people, and it will allow ones to feel and see the Power of The One Source, as they stand to reclaim that which stands for peace and harmony.

These times you are now living in are most unique and challenging as opportunities for growth. God-Aton would not send lesser to aid you in your hour of need than we of His Hosts. Ponder that as you witness what MAN'S Armageddon brings upon the Earth, for it will be "faith in the Lord" and "divine right action" that will carry you through.

Blessings unto you who KNOW of that which we present, and may Lighted Inspiration and quick Instinct guide your brothers and sisters who are not quite there yet. Since the "good guys" win in the end, I suspect there will be a lot of celebrating and sharing of experiences when the dark forces finally consume themselves as they compete for top position. As demonstrated from eons past to the present, isn't that how evil always loses? It is the people, God's chosen, who survive to build anew after the fires have gone out or the flood waters recede, and it will be the people who again will continue. You are magnificent vehicles for God's infinite expression, would He have it any other way?

You are at the threshold of a Grand Period of Radiance, wherein all will participate. However, it will be your actions during this cleansing time—as Earth-Shan is also to be renewed—that will decide how smooth the transition will be. We of the Hosts stand by to assist our younger relations. Commander Maasu Korton to clear, please. Salu.

6/15/98 KORTON

Korton here in the Radiant Light of The Creator Source, ATON, The One Light. May all who seek Truth hear what is shared this day! The planet you were given for your use, along with the precious creatures who dwell upon the lands and within the seas, that you were to be stewards over, are rebelling against that which has so abused them. Your nurturing Earth, a LIVING BEING also worthy of God's love, has been allowed to heal herself of the negative electrical frequencies—AND THE ACCOMPANYING PHYSICAL MANIFESTATIONS of those negative energies. And I have news for you: it is MAN WHO HAS BECOME EARTH'S ADVERSARY.

All of your wars and violent displays of human interaction have caused the vibratory frequency of the planet to be affected to such a degree that Earth-Shan (as this emerald orb is known by those from out among the stars) is, for lack of a better description, sick with fever. When a human being is experiencing discord and dis-ease, the first sign of illness is a change in your body temperature. All of manifested creation can be identified by each individual fragment's identity temperature; this denotes location and position on God's "evolutionary scale". All mineral, plant, and animal life forms are created by the SAME process in God's Thought-Projection Light-Wave Universe. This process applies to planets as well.

When you look at planets such as Mars, you are witnessing a world that has experienced extreme "fever" and rendered its atmosphere uninhabitable to human life. Nothing could grow on the surface that could sustain man, and even his animals and plants perished. Your ancestors on that planet left you messages to warn you, "DON'T REPEAT OUR MISTAKES!!" WHAT REMAINS OF THE "GOD OF WAR", AS MARS IS REFERRED TO IN YOUR ASTROLOGICAL TEXTS, IS A PHYSICAL REMINDER OF WHERE EARTH IS HEADED. The popular "face" on the planet surface tells you WHO lived there and caused what you now see of your once beautiful neighbor.

This is what happens when comparatively unevolved humans utilize physically superior toys (energy weapons and technology) to quell social disturbances or force their brothers into servitude or try to "erase" those among their species who they themselves (in their limited and warped perceptions) deem UNDESIRABLE. (That's a word currently bandied about at your kindling flashpoints of barbarous confrontations.) It only takes one incident, chelas, to start the chain reaction that culminates with the destruction of your very home.

DOOM AND GLOOM IS NOT THE ORDER OF THE DAY.

It is not that WE enjoy bringing you news about what is wrong with your society; it is just that there IS so much being tampered with that is UNACCEPTABLE FOR MAN TO TAMPER WITH! Because of man's free will choice, he has chosen to tinker with the things that greatly shorten his lessons of manifested experience. It is the willful and wanton destruction of your environment and surrounding indigenous inhabitants—the fish, animals, insects, vegetation, AND HUMANS—which causes great suffering at the hands of your experiments and greedy profit-making enterprises. In order for ALL created things to exist in harmony, BALANCE must be achieved and maintained.

To hunt, fish and over-“develop” your planet into extinction is not logical. To continually TAKE from your nurturing mother and give no thought as to what you are to give back is not a reasonable procedure whereby this host can maintain her own existence without outside help or urgent self-cleansing actions.

Your greedy adversaries have hidden the CONSEQUENCES of your nuclear testings and overproduction of material things. Your Hopi

Native American brothers have long told you that continually taking more than you or your people “need” is a sign that you are approaching “the end times”. They have told you these things because they hoped you would heed the warning and turn back to the Law of Balance in order to save your (THEIR) world in time.

Those who are in service to God-Aton would much rather remind you of your Divine Heritage and speak of experiences of your past glories with and among your Cosmic Brethren, but if you have no planet upon which to share these things, it would be a most difficult goal to accomplish.

Is this all you have to look forward to—catastrophes and sufferings and death? No. However, your actions, as guided by the evil brotherhood, are creating just such a future for you. Precious ones, these circumstances ARE PREVENTABLE; THAT IS WHY WE SPEAK OF THE THINGS YOU WOULD RATHER NOT HEAR—TO SAVE YOU THE EXPERIENCE OF LEARNING YOUR LESSON THE HARD WAY.

I and my compatriots will go on bringing forth TRUTH and instruction until you either turn around your course of self-annihilation, or (depending on which scenario you create) see to it that a remnant makes it through. Hopefully it won't be by removal of every SOULED lifeform from this orb during a repeat performance of your “play” on the red planet.

GIANT TIDAL WAVES AND A WORLD ECONOMY
ON THE BRINK

These are your own gloomy headlines and maybe it is YOU who should be more blunt about what is going on these days. You are experiencing the Book of Revelation right before your eyes, yet no one notices the fringe effects and their broad ramifications.

How is it that you have all of these hundred-year, destructive phenomena—never before seen in these parts in current history—coinciding with the incredible downturn your civilization is taking? These are not coincidences, chelas, and your evil controllers are not wasting any opportunities to make use of the discord, for in their blind, maddened march to gain control of a planet—AT ALL COSTS—they have stepped up the destructive technologies that have gotten you into this predicament in the first place.

The roller coaster behavior and maneuvering of your stock market, as well as the Monopoly-game-like trading of your businesses and industries overseas, are indications that your secret government's executive branch, the elite Bilderberger Society (of which Mr. Bush and Mr. Clinton are high-level members), is implementing their final plan in preparation to unveiling their New World Order.

When you go over the Communist Manifesto, the Protocols Of The Learned Elders Of Zion, the UN Charter, or the various collected mandates for a fascist state, you will note a common theme that calls for the stripping away of all financial and economic stability and national pride shortly before the government TURNS UPON THE PEOPLE WHO PUT THEM IN POWER.

You are even betrayed as to the election process of your governmental so-called representatives, for you do not select them; they are picked FOR YOU, guaranteeing that you choose among the dregs of the establishment's elite deceivers. And then electronic manipulation of the voting process insures the "proper" outcome. Their criteria for allowing you the privilege of "choosing" among the candidates IS BASED ON BLOOD RELATIONS AND FINANCIAL AND BUSINESS TIES, ensuring that decisions regarding industry and use of vast national and world resources fall in the hands of one of their own. After all, they can't very well trust you-the-people to safeguard their hordes of gold and property, now can they?

RACE BECOMES THE CARD
UP THE SLEEVE

In order to ensure their paltry numbers remain a tour de force, it is necessary for the elite manipulators to sow dissension and mistrust among those not of them. That is why everywhere you turn you are faced with new and ever increasing racial confrontations—each more heinous than the one before, until you are embroiled in another Civil War.

Civil Wars of "ethnic cleansing", or tribal battles over religion or where your children go to school, are fertile ground to seed dissension. Your adversary knows this and keeps this uppermost in your current events—films, TV, music, and now Internet sites filled to overflow with violence in one form or another.

Children are not born with the idea of racism—THEY ARE TAUGHT IT! And your various forms of media are good teachers, are they not? When will you, as thoughtful American citizens, take back your airwaves and theater and replace that which promotes hatred and violence with what is harmonious to your souls as Godly human beings? When does it become preferable to educate in GOD-ness and mutual respect of your fellow man, rather than glorify the carnal side of human behavior?

If you do not change the content of that with which you are being steadily programed, there will be nothing left of decent example to present as choices for your children—or you. Can you not see that "divide and conquer" is killing your dreams of peace and prosperity?

SEXUAL PREFERENCE:
A DISTRACTION AIMED SQUARELY
AT THE CONSTITUTION

Even your enemies bicker among themselves over differences attributable to color or sexual preference, and have got you hopping on the same bandwagon. Sexual orientation is going to be THE THORNY DIVIDING LINE THAT SIGNALS YOUR DOWNFALL AS A CIVILIZATION.

In other "great" civilizations, rampant homosexuality, bestiality, and abhorrent abuse of children was always the final closing act as a society spiraled into oblivion. Am I against those who love their own kind? Of course not. All of God's fragments are EQUALLY LOVED and cherished. But even heterosexuality is flagrantly practiced and flaunted as if privacy no longer played a part in the sharing of two humans in that most precious of Divine unions.

WHAT TWO (NOT THREE, FOUR, OR MORE) PEOPLE DO IN THE BEDROOM OF THEIR OWN HOME IS NONE OF MY BUSINESS. HOWEVER, I DO SUGGEST THEY BE SURE THEY KNOW WHAT THEY ARE DOING. AND IF IT GOES AGAINST THE LAWS AS LAID DOWN BY THE CREATOR, AND THEY DISREGARD THOSE LAWS, THEN THE CONSEQUENCES REST SOLELY WITH THEM, NOT GOD. FURTHER, YOU ALSO BECOME ANSWERABLE TO THE ONE YOU SO-CALL "LOVE". ISN'T SAVING THEIR LIFE WORTH FOLLOWING THOSE LAWS? YOU WERE GIVEN A WONDROUS VEHICLE TO CHERISH AND RESPECT, AND IN SO DOING IT WILL REWARD THE GOD ESSENCE THAT RESIDES WITHIN BY ALLOWING YOU MAXIMUM POTENTIAL TO ACQUIRE JOY AND REMAIN IN GOOD HEALTH. BUT AS HUMANS GO, THIS IS NEVER SEEN AS "ENOUGH", AND ALWAYS "MORE" IS SOUGHT—GREATER PLEASURES ARE DESIRED UNTIL, FINALLY, THE "FLESH" BECOMES YOUR CENTRAL FOCUS. REMEMBER: TOO MUCH OF ANYTHING CAN BE DAMAGING TO YOUR SPIRIT AND CONTAINER BODY.

If I seem passionate about this subject it is because I am! I am an etheric being with capability to manifest as what you would consider solid physical mass—and I see the effects of these damaging emotional sexual addictions. God did not create your sex organs to be "play things" of immoral impulse. He created them to be the sacred organs with which man CO-CREATES, WITH GOD, HUMAN LIFE. This is a most beautiful miracle allowing you to know participation in God's ways!

Your adversary uses the resulting debasing and debilitating effects of sexual abuse of the body to further gain control over you. Satan's workers KNOW what buttons to push.

For those of you buying into the misguided perception of s e x u a l preference being likened to Civil Rights of human beings, it is like apples and o r a n g e s . Sexuality has no bearing on the issue of color or race of people. The manner in which you are treated because of what you "look like" versus how you behave are separate and individual grounds for judgement. However, since man is not to judge man in the first place, you should be allowed to have the same "rights" as any other fragment of God's many and varied manifested reflections. Remember that only man's ACTIONS are to be judged by man as to whether or not they correspond to the Laws of God and the Laws of Man—AS THEY APPLY TO YOUR PERSONAL TRANSGRESSIONS OR OTHERS ONLY.

When God's all-encompassing Play of Creation is complete—when all races of beings and all things come back into THE ONE—you will again know that there is truly no difference and no separation between any of you. Just as with the splitting of the One White Light into the many spectral colors, so too is it with God's Oneness reflected into His many expressions of mankind.

Do not allow these conjured separations to do you in, chelas. Those who KNOW God know of their connection to their brothers, be they the ones across the galaxy, beyond thy borders, or over the fence. This one challenge will be your ultimate undoing through division, or your saving grace through unification.

May Love of thy neighbor and of God guide you and open your eyes to who the troublemakers really are. We can give you information, but if you refuse to look and consider that which we bring, you are doomed and gloomed to evil's version of the ending times.

God's Ones prefer to CREATE "beginning times" of harmony and peace and allow Lucifer's days to wane in the ruins of self defeat. You do not have to participate in your adversary's game, friends. Further, it is your lack of joining in that hastens his retreat. Ponder that.

These are trying times for you, my scribe, as well as your fellow workers. Hold fast to that which gives you strength and you will witness God's miracles soon enough. That should be comfort to those who know that Aton, The One Light, wins in the end.

NEVER DO YE WALK ALONE! Commander Tomeros Maasu Korton to standby, please. Salu!

We have been advised on good authority HR 2431 is being moved to the House floor. Be very steady, firm, and in prayer. E-Mail may be the best way to communicate among ourselves, but letters and faxes to Congress must be signed and require an answer to be an effective deterrent. No Congressman fears an anonymous form-letter writer. ACT NOW! Please be graphic and very personal with your Congressman, and mean what you say. We hope you will read and quote from the following news story which contains exceptional research into the evil intent of sanctions.

—Chuck Carlson

From: "elh" <elh@frontiernet.net>

Both Liberals and Conservatives Promote Religious Persecution Monitoring Bill, by Le Ann Sluga.

How can liberals and conservatives agree on anything? Give them a bill that promises bigger government for the democrats and name it "The Freedom from Religious Persecution Act", to draw conservatives, and you have HR2431.

Congress is promising to pass the bill into law by Easter and hardly anyone is opposing them. Is this bill too good to be true? I think so! The bill will be used to appoint a director of a new office, to investigate and recommend sanctions on countries or groups engaged in religious persecution. It sounds compassionate, but it is anything but.

Lawmakers promise "the Office of Religious Persecution Monitoring" will remain small. Weren't we told that about the IRS and the EPA too? The sanctions can be imposed without congressional approval. The director need only send a list of items to sanction he "deems necessary", along with a report of alleged persecution, to the President. The bill gives this director and the President power prohibited by our Constitution. Besides, can you really trust a Clinton appointee on this one? Let's not forget his push for the "Most Favored Nation Status" of China.

You can't monitor religious persecution without monitoring religion and defining it, something prohibited by the Constitution for good reason. It's too easy to use those definitions by a President of any party to "defining" a group that opposes their political agenda, as "religiously persecuting" his party favorites. This bill is bad for all Americans. The bill calls for fines and/or imprisonment on US citizens, businesses, or organizations caught "trading with the enemies". Sanctions on Sudan in this bill ask for a complete air embargo. That means anyone who sends "care packages" to missionaries or family in Sudan could be jailed up to ten years for this "crime of compassion". Besides, when do sanctions help a persecuted people? Won't the leaders of the countries withhold food and medicine, first from those they dislike most?

Though Clinton has feigned opposition to the bill, he nevertheless called for emergency sanctions on Sudan last November, when the bill did not pass last session. What was the emergency?

Some say it was an acceleration of persecution of non-Muslims in a self-proclaimed Jihad by the Sudanese government. Stories of the slaughter and enslavement of millions were told in congressional hearings, and were spread to thousands of churches in America, through videos and films. Meanwhile, Black America was being told stories of government-led slavery rings in Sudan.

Yet, others have reported a different story. Eyewitnesses tell of rebel troops supplied with US and Israeli weapons and an unending supply of mercenaries from surrounding countries, receiving millions in US foreign aid. There are also reports that Sudan has over 95% support of its people to form a Sovereign Islamic Democracy, free of UN interference. Congressmen Matt Salmon (R.-Ariz.) tried to figure out who was telling the truth, through a fact-finding mission in January. Clinton's sanctions however, prevented the trip. Could the real emergency be that Clinton was going to be caught in another lie?

Could these sanctions and the whole bill have more to do with a UN power-grab than religious persecution? That would explain why the bill refers to UN documents and completely ignores the US Constitution. If this is a picture of how thorough this new office will be "investigating persecution", I think we ought to think twice.

A handful of opponents are making ripples, in a grassroots effort to warn America about the bill. Black Activists and Muslim organizations like Jamaat al-Muslimeen International are exposing what they call "propaganda of government-led slavery" in Sudan. Meanwhile, small conservative groups, like the American Family Association and "We Hold These Truths", dispel myths of exaggerated reports of Christian persecution in Sudan, circulating in Christian circles. Why does the mix of opponents seem as odd as the mix of supporters? Comments from Herb Titus of the US Taxpayers Party, may shed some light.

As a Constitutional Lawyer, Titus says, the bill could prohibit the formation of any "Muslim or Christian" democracy. "In fact," says Titus, "if this kind of law were in place when our country was being formed, this law would have forbidden us to do so." Nerim Ai'im, who lived in Sudan ten months, says she's convinced Black Americans are being used by supporters of this bill by "opening up the sore of slavery, that is still healing".

Chuck Carlson, from "We Hold These Truths", says Christians are also "being used". Michael Horowitz from "the globalist Hudson Foundation", says Carlson admits authorship of the bill and "One World Government promoters like Freedom House", are responsible for some of the Sudan misinformation in churches, says Carlson.

Ai'im says she admits that radical Islamic sects, sometimes even within the government, have engaged in religious persecution, but these actions are not endorsed by Sudan's government.

If Carlson, Titus and Ai'im are right, can you think of a better way to keep potential opponents of the bill divided or too confused to counter-attack?

Yet this is America. Anything can happen when Americans decide to "search for truth as for fine silver", as a Biblical proverb teaches. Carlson urges Americans to read the bill for themselves, "those who do are against it, those who haven't are for it," says Carlson. It'll take a miracle to turn this around. Yet, didn't this grand experiment in liberty seem just about as impossible over 200 years ago? Let's remember that our vote still counts in America, as do phone calls to congress opposing a bill that the politically-powerful support.

This is her personal opinion about HR2431 and does not necessarily reflect the opinion of this newspaper.)

Addendum: This article appeared in the Shawano Evening Leader April 7th, 1998. Since then, congress convened for Easter break and has returned without placing HR2431 on the floor for a vote. There appears to be a groundswell of grassroots opposition that is growing, especially in the Senate.

Remembering Orion Sutton Across Miles And Moments

6/18/98 #1 HATONN

ACROSS THE
MILES AND MOMENTS

ORION SUTTON

You bid farewell to a friend; I welcome home a friend. Life is full of contradictions, isn't it?

Friends, it is ever thus that confusion and questions always flow at the passing on of fellow travelers on this wondrous journey. For whom do we grieve? In this instance is it not a sense of loss to those touched by this man? But, did he have the freedom in his living in that physical form to find joy and allow his talents to bear fruit? No. He did what he "thought" he could in the best positions he felt he could take. He can finish his work better, now, from the other side of that murky veil. He CHOSE his time and his way. He has prepared for a very long time for his departure and did, in fact, send the very important volumes to me, which we now offer to all of you. He gave and shared what he had to offer, and in the end, precious friends, that is all there is of importance for the graduation.

It remains now, with you who gathered for sharing in Colorado, to maintain your links with one another so that you too are ready for CHANGE. That does not mean physical passage out of the morass, but changes into ability for more involved work. If you miss your lessons because you support not, one another, then you shall find disappointment. It is only through Truth in knowledge that you can find realization and rest for the mind which travels on beyond what you recognize.

Always I find a lot of realization in the following short quotes which offer a lot of peace to the hurting hearts of those left behind by a departing friend. Dharma chose them for son, Paul Andrew, who found his own way home in March of 1985:

"Don't be dismayed at good-byes.
A farewell is necessary before you can meet again.

"And meeting again, after moments or lifetimes, is certain for those who are friends."

and

"Fly free and happy beyond birthdays and across forever, and we'll meet now and then when we wish, in the midst of the one celebration that never can end."

So what can we do to honor this friend? We renew our own strength to continue that which brought the most pleasure and interest to this man in his more recent years—our presentation of Truth. May we keep his LIGHT a-lit that neither we nor he has to walk alone in darkness.

Charles, I ask that you run the tractor of Orion, often, to keep the motor working. Perhaps we can honor this man most by getting a disc that can be pulled behind it and let us keep the weeds from the unused fields. This is the greatest honor we can offer here. Sometimes the "old" things are THE things that save the day when other things fail. Teach several people to run it and let them work in shifts if it seems too difficult. However, I ask that the farm be tilled at least once—WITH THAT JOHN DEER TRACTOR—FOR ORION. It was a work of love and a gift of love so let us honor both. ~~✂~~

Court Cases And August Inquiry

6/18/98 #1 HATONN

RESPONSE ABOUT AUGUST

It is brought to my attention that many people are calling to make plans for a visit in August. We cannot plan anything for August, please.

It is being touted about by the "watchers" that there is an annual pilgrimage and gathering here EVERY AUGUST. No, that is not so. There have been some welcome vacationers in years past who blessed us with their visit. August holds importance only to a motion picture, yet to be made, called Sipapu Odyssey. Obviously it cannot be filmed this year either, so we have to stand back and look at what has happened from our adversaries.

The watchers watch and then proclaim that "the cult is having their annual pilgrimage". Wow, how a few friends coming over from the Corporation meeting in Nevada has turned into a "cult pilgrimage" can only be ascertained from Green, et al. However, it is showing up in the courtroom yet as George and buddies still try to snatch (again) the Overton GOLD. [Editor's note: See related story nearby.]

We will not sit still for this any more than we would disrespect Orion's gift of that precious antique tractor. The thieves and vandals will rue the day they stole from our brethren and shattered their dreams and wishes. George Green claims he only "appropriated" the gold to himself but he has also "said" he sent to the dump over a million dollars worth of journals—AFTER THE JUDGE ORDERED HIM TO NOT ONLY TEND THOSE BOOKS, BUT ALSO INSURE THOSE BOOKS, AND HOLD THEM, WITHOUT SELLING ANY, UNTIL THE CASES COULD BE FINISHED.

Green's lawyers claim to George that THEY CONTROL THE MEN ON THE BENCH(ES) IN POINT. IT HAS APPEARED THAT THIS MAY WELL BE POSSIBLE. That is not the point; the POINT is that we will NEVER dishonor David Overton by letting criminals take his gifts for their own greedy use, WITHOUT DOING EVERYTHING WE CAN TO SEE TO JUSTICE AND RIGHTEOUSNESS. Further to the point of August—it is filled with court sessions—all the way to Austin, Texas. That means that our own natives will not be available for anything else in August.

Is there light at the end of this dark tunnel? ALWAYS! After the costs and expenses to lawyers, etc., are removed from the recent "EKKER settlement", there is little left for much—but it is dedicated to cleaning these thieves as best it can be done and allow them to choke on their own scroungy lies.

By the way, readers, in looking over the records we find, in addition to the Overton gold, then valued at about $400,000, there is a notice of $185,000 in Canadian Maple Leaf coins ALSO taken by Green. George claimed that also to be one of those "gifts" in case Desiree needed to pay her Nieman Marcus bill. We know about a lot of the gold that was heisted away by diversion sticky-fingers, but it seems George has matched his so-called expenses to that which he stole—and that seems to be AT LEAST three-quarters of a million dollars. Funny thing is that he holds (or was required by law to have) well over a million dollars in books. What creative and interesting accounting these Greens utilized. Even Al Capone had to pay taxes, but not George Green!

If George honorably had some half million dollars in cold, gold cash that he claimed as "income", somehow for services rendered, wouldn't he have to disclose that to the IRS henchmen? I guess laws are truly made to be used against the peasants and honest people. Now why, do you think, the world is in trouble? Green's own seminars show him, ON TAPE, saying he hasn't paid taxes in YEARS—and that was at least five years ago when he was raking in all this gold dust and money—off the backs of those in the Institute doing the work. It is not just Dharma, as an author, that he ripped-off—he has a long history of identical tactics with other authors and writers. He also claimed great prowess in creating "THE ILLUSION OF MONEY". What does that mean? Well, we suppose it means that he is good at disappearing it from your and our pockets, and making it appear in his back yard in a nice deep hole. He even got very good at shifting boxes of books from one display area to his own and then disappearing them as well.

There is an old saying that goes: "There is honor among thieves." No, I don't believe that to be a valid statement. There is only blackmail among thieves, and more lies, cheating and stealing. It appears that "once a thief, always a thief". ~~✂~~

Power Play In The Philippines

6/20/98 #1 HATONN

DOUBLE TROUBLE BOIL AND BUBBLE—

[QUOTING SPOTLIGHT, June 22, 1998, pg. 16:]

DANGER LOOMS IN PHILIPPINES

by Paul Motier, for Spotlight

A power play in the Philippines could lead to a U.S.-backed dictatorship.

MANILA, Philippines—In a stunning move that shocked the nation, outgoing Philippine President Fidel Ramos fired Solicitor General Romeo de la Cruz just two weeks before the inauguration of populist President-elect Jose Erap Estrada.

The unprecedented move was in retaliation to a 34-page report which de la Cruz had filed with the Philippine Supreme Court stating that there was no evidence to back up the conviction and 12-year jail sentence of former first lady Imelda Romauldez Marcos. The charges: She had illegally built a hospital with non-government funds. [H: And some of you think you have problems?]

De la Cruz urged the top court to reverse the conviction which everyone in the Philippines knows was made by a politicized court under the influence of Ramos and his revolutionary predecessor, Corazon C. Aquino.

What so infuriated Ramos was that he had appointed de la Cruz as solicitor general and saw the report as “high treason”.

Ramos is himself a master traitor who has in his lifetime betrayed his cousin and benefactor, Ferdinand Marcos, in 1986 in his capacity as a CIA asset and informer. He has betrayed the legal government he was sworn to uphold and betrayed the Philippine people by helping to steal the 1986 election.

He has betrayed his wife by supporting a mistress in lavish style at taxpayers’ expense.

Ramos apparently never imagined that de la Cruz would do his job honestly.

Under the unconstitutional and unlawful Aquino and Ramos regimes of the last 12 years, the unforeseen appearance of an honest and courageous justice official must have been traumatic indeed.

As soon as de la Cruz’s Supreme court report became known by the cabal that has been running the Philippines since it overthrew the Marcos government in 1986, Ramos got his marching orders by cabal spokesman Stephen Bosworth, the U.S. State Department functionary who organized the kidnapping of the Marcos family into forced exile and detainment that year.

Bosworth was backed by U.S. Federal Judge Manuel Real, the Lyndon Johnson-appointee known for his communist sympathies, his violent temper and tyrannical ways as well as having the dubious distinction of being the most overturned judge in American legal history.

Ramos, now a lame duck with no political future, was told to fire de la Cruz and to find a way to overturn the election of the populist and popularly-elected Estrada.

CALAMITY FOR GLOBALISTS

The Estrada election was a calamity for the globalists and State Department Brahmins. Estrada was elected because former first lady Imelda Marcos withdrew from the presidential race and asked the 6-million-strong Marcos loyalists to support Estrada.

The swift move did not leave enough time for the Aquino-Ramos-State Department cabal to rig the election as they counted on the split Marcos-Estrada vote to have their own nominees elected.

The plutocrats frantically spent in excess of $260 million to secure the elections for their flunkies. In this they received full logistical support from the State Department and various U.S. agencies such as the CIA under the direction of Bosworth and Real—the two predators who have relentlessly tried to steal the Marcos assets for the past 12 years.

It was a sign of great sophistication from the Philippine electorate that they were not bamboozled by the anti-Estrada media blitz and all the anti-Marcos machinations and went on to elect Estrada by a landslide. Also elected with wide pluralities were Ferdinand Marcos Jr. (the son of the late president) as governor of the key Ilocos Norte province, Imee Marcos to Congress and all the Romauldez (relatives of Imelda) candidates to the offices they were seeking.

Estrada, a charismatic and popular candidate is known to be a populist of independent mind who is unswayed by plutocrat blandishments.

OVERTHROW ORDERED

Ramos has been instructed to take all steps to overthrow the Estrada presidency, just as he and the seditious Enrile and Aquino overthrew the just-elected Marcos government in 1986.

Aquino had already made the threat to use “people power” to overthrow the Estrada government if Marches is buried on July 11 in the Cemetery of Heroes, a burial to which he is entitled because of his heroic World War II record. He fought the Japanese while the Aquinos served in the Japanese puppet government.

“People power” was the catch word which was coined by the Madison Avenue public relations firms in charge of destabilizing and overthrowing the Marches government, and used by the media to justify the illegal coup against the legally-elected Marches.

In fact, there was never any “people power” except in the scripts from Madison Avenue and their press hand-outs. The Filipino people were victims of a massive globalist power grab by violent means.

The plutocrat Aquino is once more calling on her communist allies headed by the rich Red boss Ma Sisson. It was Sisson who organized, with Ninoy Aquino, the Plaza Miranda bombing which massacred the entire political opposition to the Marches government, thus leaving Aquino as the sole opposition leader.

Whether the Clinton administration will be able to contain the Bosworth-Michael Armacost-Real cabal and avoid yet another massive intrusion in the affairs of another sovereign country is still to be ascertained.

This time, “people power” may manifest itself by stopping the Aquino-Ramos efforts just as all the Aquino-Ramos candidates were defeated at the polls.

Should Estrada be assassinated, apparently with the hope that vice President Arroyo Macapagal would replace him, political observers are certain civil war would erupt. The voters may have had enough of plutocratic intervention in Philippine affairs.

[END OF QUOTING]

Now do you understand why freedom has such brief windows of time to accomplish some measure of ability to gain foothold? If terror doesn’t stop the top people who COULD do something, then the dragging feet of others usually accomplish the task for the opposition plutocrats. It is hard to overcome the blocks along any pathway and especially when the LAW is controlled by the evil pleuts themselves. Imelda accused of saving State money to build a hospital? Is there something WRONG with this picture? ~~✂~~

Banks And Fed In Bed With Drugs

6/20/98 #4 HATONN

Since there is something so important to your attention and since we will be away from the keyboard a couple of days, I ask to take the time to offer you one more article which should shock your pants off—even if you don't have a "Billy" zipper.

[H: Right, you regular readers over the past decade, this will not be anything new at all. However, the people just can't seem to understand what is taking place in this old world these days. The whole political ball of wax is at melt-down and still the cover-ups are simply put aside as if naughty kindergarten kids are playing "sand in the face" with their tinker-toys while LAUGHING AT YOU-THE-IGNORANT!]

MEXICANS, SWISS AGREE ON NARCOTICS KINGPINS

In America's war on drugs, Uncle Sam's left hand is unaware what his right hand is doing. [H: Do you really believe that? Wake up, sleepyheads!]

by Warren Hough

NEW YORK, New York—The global narcotics trade, having grossed a record $400 BILLION last year, owes its prosperity not to faceless smugglers or street corner traffickers. The culprits are Federal Reserve Chairman Alan Greenspan and Treasury Secretary Robert Rubin, two top U.S. officials who have aided and protected the drug deals of Wall Street megabanks such as Citicorp.

That conclusion, long the talk of the town in this gateway city's financial district, but never before publicly addressed, has now received confirmation in official documents issued by law enforcement authorities from Switzerland all the way to Mexico.

Swiss prosecutors reported last month that they had traced some $200 million in payoffs made by the cocaine cartel to the family of former Mexican President Carlos Salinas, and subsequently cached in numbered Swiss bank accounts by the ex-president's brother, Raul Salinas.

To "sanitize" this drug graft, the Salinas family used the so-called "private banking" facilities of Citibank, now known as Citigroup after its recent merger with the Travelers Group—the largest U.S. bank holding conglomerate.

LINKS LONG KNOWN

A senior vice president of Citibank, Amy Ellicott, was assigned to take personal charge of concealing and laundering the drug profits of Mexico's first family, the Swiss findings have confirmed.

Most importantly, the Swiss prosecutor's report states that U.S. law enforcement authorities had detected the intimate links between the cocaine cartel and Mexico's ruling elites as far back as 1992.

But the U.S. Justice Department took no action because "senior economic officials argued that it was not in the [American] national interest to expose the Salinas administration to allegations of criminality," the Swiss report revealed.

In this sentence, the term "national interest" should read "NAFTA interest... the Clinton administration was more interested in getting Congress to endorse that self-serving globalist scam [i.e., the North American Free Trade Agreement,—Ed.] than in curbing the flow of drugs to this country," said Oliver Trombell, a retired Justice Department criminal investigator. [H: Well, after all, the drug flow through Arkansas had to stop because of all the attention, so the CIA had to turn to other routings. I am totally amazed at the lack of the American public to add two and two.]

Pressured by Rubin and Greenspan, Attorney General Janet Reno buried the evidence she received from field agents—and even from honest Mexican officials—about the Salinas regime's ever-larger drug deals, this first-hand observer and other law enforcement sources have revealed.

Some of the pressure to whitewash the Salinas regime reportedly came from Rahm Emanuel, AN ISRAEL LOYALIST who became a top Clinton aide after making his mark as a bagman for the unsavory political empire of the Daley family in Chicago.

But the key power brokers who protected the criminal money-laundering operations of Citibank and other Wall Street financial powers were Rubin and Greenspan, a case study newly released by the office of Mexican Attorney General Jorge Madrazo-Cuellar suggests.

In 1994-95, Greenspan and Rubin spearheaded the notorious $50 BILLION bailout of Mexico's graft-ridden payments system.

That rescue operation was launched, in reality, to protect the usurious profits of Citibank, Chase Manhattan—the financial flagship of the Rockefeller dynasty—and currency speculators such as George Soros, to whom Mexican private and public borrowers owed more than $12 BILLION at the time. [H: Why didn't we tell you about this? WE DID, before, during and AFTER. Where were YOU?]

WHO WAS SAVED?

By pushing through their bailout in the face of considerable congressional opposition, Rubin and Greenspan did not save the Mexican economy; what they saved from collapse was a crime syndicate of U.S. and Mexican bankers engaged in "sanitizing" and hiding the billion-dollar profits of the cocaine cartel, the recently released documents suggest.

In an elaborate sting operation, some 22 senior executives from 12 leading Mexican banks were lured across the border last month, arrested and arraigned in Los Angeles on charges of having run "a major money-laundering operation that served an engine of the international drug trafficking trade", as Reno put it in her announcement of the indictments.

But there was no indictment of Citigroup, known to be under investigation in several countries for its role in laundering south-of-the-border drug profits, the Mexican attorney general's report has noted.

In a move that infuriated the Mexican authorities and startled even hardened Latino speculators, Rubin and Greenspan have now both approved an application by Citigroup to buy up a Mexican financial services chain known as BANCO CONFIA—a scandal-ridden bank whose owner, Jorge Lankenau, is in jail, after reportedly having helped Citigroup launder the Salinas family's dirty money. [END OF QUOTING]

I hope you are beginning to get the picture, citizens, of how little freedom and few rights YOU HAVE. If you get cash out of a bank you have to report it. If you have cash on you, you are subject to arrest for POSSIBLY illicit activities; you have trouble getting loans and the interest kills you before the loan is paid off—putting your property in total jeopardy of confiscation and seizure. If the law stops you, for instance, for not having current registration—they seize your vehicle until you clear the mess and pay the fines and tow-service/storage.

Now if you still want to argue over who is who and what is what, it may well be unfair BUT, both of the men spoken of above are JEWS controlling the ONE WORLD BANKING SYSTEM. Do you think they are nice neighborly Jewish temple registrants? Of course NOT. Now stop feeling put upon and arguing over what we may or may not tell you—we tell you EVERYTHING we can get into your hands and have for a decade of finger plunking. You are down to only a tiny few banks—and going for only five in the world and two in the U.S. You don't even know who OWNS your very own checking account. THEY DO! You have to jump through their hoops to just use the funds YOU PUT INTO THE CONFOUNDED BANK—WHILE THEY MAKE MONEY HAND OVER FIST WITH YOUR FUNDS. Federal Reserve Notes (those things you carry in your pockets) HAVE NO VALUE AT ALL—THEY ARE SIMPLY IOU NOTES WHICH THE BANK LOANS TO YOU, WITH YOUR MONEY, AND YOU PAY DOUBLE OR TRIPLE FOR THE RIGHT TO USE IT—AFTER TAXES, OF COURSE.

Wouldn't it be wondrous just to have a bit of a network of Sovereign Banks for you-the-people? That is not in the Zionist Plan 2000 and nobody is working very hard on God's Plan 2000 except to complain about having to think and perhaps, even, do something. By the way, the GOD to which I refer is the GOD of both the Jewish people AND THE GENTILES (all others). Perhaps if you attended the TRUTH of GOD and SPIRITUALITY—you might not have to struggle so hard over the arguments of the myriads of DOCTRINED (BY MAN) RELIGIONS. No matter whether or not you LIKE it—there is only ONE GOD. So be it.

Phoenix Bird Available In "Stained Glass"

6/18/98 #1 HATONN

Karen brought something to share with us as we try for the successful CHANGES that strike our personal and social lives. It is just a little reminder of our own imperfections and a suggestion to make allowances for those traveling with us along this path:

FORGIVENESS

*I forgive you,
and I forgive myself
for being caught in the process of change
and for our being unable
to see each other clearly.*

Try, please, a little forgiveness of self and in that way you can have forgiveness for others so that they can feel secure in each of the relationships which compose the necessary interchanges of a life journey. It always BEGINS and ENDS with YOU.

Karen, in case you don't know, is the one who perfected the Phoenix (bird) Logo. She has gone further now and has done some stained-glass-like window hangings—some quite large of that wonderful bird with its heart showing as a starburst. It is tedious and time-consuming labor but if you are interested in having one for yourself, perhaps she could be commissioned to do a few for those who really want to share what we have. Perhaps someone could take a picture here and give you an idea of that which I describe. We become unseeing of that which is precious but becomes such a part of our lives that we miss the special meanings. The bird itself becomes a flaming burst of color when the Sun strikes and pours through the hanging.

This is not something for the Institute—it is from the heart of one who shares unstintingly. You will have to make arrangements with her personally for she has to do this work in the night hours and I won't ask her to do that. I can't give you a price of such a piece but it would be reasonable for it is not actually cut glass—but you won't know the difference. In the pricing YOU must realize that she has to purchase the FRAME WITH GLASS INSERT because she utilizes the glass itself for the artwork and then mounts it back in the frame for hanging. Some have put their's against a white background but it needs to hang in the Sun if possible for the burst of color offered. And, yes indeed, we have such talented people here as to be shocking to the ordinary visitors when they realize our roles include the bathroom scrubbing and the pitching of tents if that is required to get this job done. There are no menial tasks in God's work—if each one fails to do his/her task, the rest STOPS. There are no jobs more important than another—

Each "Phoenix" glass art piece is hand designed, painted, signed and numbered by the artist. Each creation takes 3-4 days. The glass art is in a 11x14 wood frame, with a sponged gold finish, and a chain on top for ease of hanging from your window frame.

The colors used by the artist are: Gold Sparkle, Royal Blue, Blue Diamond, Emerald Green, Amethyst, Ruby Red, Sunny Yellow, Orange Poppy, Amber, and Crystal Clear. Cost is $70.00 including S/H in USA. Call 800-800-5565 to order.

only DIFFERENT. God blesses HIS CHILDREN! If it had not been for Karen through these years, in these legal encounters—they would have ended long, long ago in total loss. She detests "gush" and therefore I will cease and desist before she pushes that off on me. If you wish to inquire about this please just call through to the CONTACT office and someone can get her or leave her a note. [Editor's note: Karen's artwork is quite striking and uplifting. Anyone interested in these hand-made creations should call the CONTACT office for details. They take time to make! Imagine the Phoenix Logo with vibrant colors in an 11x14 framed picture and you have an idea of what it is she creates.]

Man cannot live by either bread alone or Spirit alone. Man is a human BEING and must experience BOTH. Let us make the journey as beautiful as is possible for this trip through is truly, truly a GIFT OF GIFTS.

Salu and may you never feel that you walk alone—you DO NOT.

TELEPHONE

805-822-0202

As an adjunct to CONTACT, the Telephone Hotline keeps you as informed as possible on current events and other important information that needs to get to our subscribers before our publishing date.

The message machine will answer after 2 rings if there are any new messages for that day, and after 4 rings if not. Thus daily callers can hang up after 2 rings and save toll charges if no new message has been recorded. If the Hotline does not answer your call, then that means there is currently no Hotline message.
